PREFACE.

This work is put forth in the hope that it may supply a public want.

Conflicting rulings are shown, as far as possible, in juxtaposition, with a view to their future settlement authoritatively. Over-ruled decisions, in some cases, have been included partly for purposes of record and especially with a view to reconsideration. In like manner, and for nearly the same reasons, obsolete rulings in certain cases have been preserved. In a subsequent edition, much will have to be omitted as redundant, and the character of the work will then be less of a Compilation, and more of a Digest.

The present work is exclusively a Digest of the Law Reports of the High Court of Calcutta, except as to the Privy Council rulings on appeals from the other Presidencies. The Reports of the other High Courts have not been included in the present edition, nor have the Bengal Law Reports been referred to in the citations more frequently than has been done, owing to the Compiler’s inability to get at them. The latter, however, can hardly be called an omission, for there is scarcely a case reported in the Bengal Law Reports which is not to be found in the Weekly Reporter. A new edition will comprehend the rulings in all the Presidencies.

The numbers of the rulings under each heading must be taken as they stand. Some of the rulings entered in the Digest were omitted too late to admit of a re-numbering without incurring the serious risk of falsifying the cross-references.

Abatement.

1. A suit B for possession of land, and C intervened alleging that A was his tenant. On the death of A, B having purchased his interests in the property from his widow and representative, prayed for the of the writ, and his prayer was allowed on the ground that no question of secret trust claimed by third parties could not be tried in this case.—2 Hay 133.

2. In a suit to recover the rent for a taluk, the defendant is entitled to set up, by way of answer, that a portion of the land has been washed away by a river, and that he is entitled to an— in respect of that portion, without being obliged to bring a distinct suit for—2 Hay 651 (Marshall 258).

3. A suit for—by talukobars, in such a case as the above, is cognizable under Act X of 1859, independently of s. 18—16. Queer as to proprietors of taluks created before the permanent settlement.—16 W. R. 279.

4. In such a suit, measurement papers prepared by the Revenue authorities in a case between Government and the talukobar in respect of a share belonging to Government in the remainder of the zamindar, are not admissible as evidence against the latter, they being res inter alias acta.—16.

5. In a suit for—between papers are no evidence against the ryot who was party to these proceedings.—1 R. J. P. J. 101.

6. The right to claim is not confined to ryots with right of occupancy.—1 R. J. P. J. 105 (Sec. 76).

7. Plaintiff cannot obtain a higher—of rent than he has demanded, even though such higher—be according to defendant's own allegation.—1 R. J. P. J. 106 (Sec. 76c).

8. A tenant, with or without a right of occupancy, is entitled to hold land washed away, unless excluded by the terms of his kumbolent from claiming such—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 49 (2 R. J. P. J. 201).

9. The death of an applicant is no ground for the—postponement of an application to the Revenue Court.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 47 (2 R. J. P. J. 212). Nor is the death of a plaintiff a ground for the—of a suit.—17 W. R. 475. It is most irregular to allow a suit to go on nominally against a dead man.—25 W. R. 17.

10. A suit for—of jumna and refund of excess rents paid on account of diluvial lands is cognizable in the revenue Court under c. 5 s. 25 Act X of 1859.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 64 (2 R. J. P. J. 307).

11. The right of action, when a diluvion takes place, accrues from the time when the plaintiff is compelled to pay the rent named in his potthali without the allowance of the—claimed by him.—16.

12. A decree allowing an—of rent for the only year for which the order could themselves pass, does not prevent the same redress being applied to any anterior period, on the question arising.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 110 (2 R. J. P. J. 76).

13. In a suit for—of rent in respect of a portion of a patnute tenure taken by Government for railway purposes, from the time when the land was so taken down to the period of plaintiff's relinquishment of his potthali, it having appeared that the land was taken, the rent paid, and the potthale resigned before Act X of 1859, that Act was held not to apply to the case.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 121.

14. A claim by defendant for rent under remission granted by Government to plaintiff may be tried in a suit for arrears.—1 W. R. 84.

15. Of rent cannot be claimed on the ground that plaintiff has been dispossessed of part of his land by any other than his landlord.—1 W. R. 209 (3 R. J. P. J. 272).

16. In a suit for arrears of rent, for lands washed away may be claimed by defendant, but the suma probandi is on him.—2 W. R. (Act X) 27 (4 R. J. P. J. 86).

17. A howaldar has a right to sue for—of rent.—2 W. R. (Act X) 65.

18. A lease providing for enhancement if the lands are found on measurement to exceed the quantity stated in the lease, does not necessarily give the right to—if the lands are found to be less than stated.—2 W. R. (Act X) 71.

19. A contract providing for an—of the rent of an ijarah, in the event of diminution of the rents, affects no ground for an—owing solely to the landlord's negligence to collect the rents.—3 W. R. (Act X) 10.

20. A suit for possession of certain lands with moneys profits does not abate by reason of those lands having since been washed away—6 W. R. 297.

21. In a suit for rent, a claim for—may be made, by way of set-off, in respect of land taken up by Government for railway purposes.—16 W. R. 207. See 13 ante.

22. A previous rent suit, which can only decide the question of liability to rent, is not res judicata in a suit for—on the ground of decreased area.—9 W. R. (Act X) 38.

23. A suit for—of rent will not lie where the relation of landlord and tenant is not admitted.—8 W. R. 518.

24. In a suit for arrears of rent, where plaintiff, after allowing an—on defendant's allegation that a decayed had been taken place in her house, claimed full rents on finding, from the judgment in the decayed case that of rent had taken place, it was held that the judgment in the decayed case was admissible in evidence to verify the truth of plaintiff's case, and that, even if plaintiff could resile from his grant of—, he could not do so without giving defendant notice of his intention.—9 W. R. 246.

25. A talukobar was held entitled to—on the ground that he is not liable to be assessed at the same rate as a—9 W. R. 592. See 9 W. R. 136, 3.

26. A case given by a landlord implicates sufficient title to support it, and guarantees the tenant's possession and enjoyment, so as to entitle the tenant, when evicted under the paramount title of a third party from a part of his tenure, to—of rent.—10 W. R. 121.

27. The real meaning of s. 18 Act X is that the grounds for which an—of rent may be claimed by a ryot must have resulted from causes beyond his control.—11 W. R. 291.

28. A tenant may set up, against a claim for rent for any particular year, any right which he has to an—notwithstanding that he has paid full rent for several previous years.—16 W. R. 201.

29. Even though a potthali provides for—on measurement if the land is found to be less than a certain quantity, yet if the lessor comes to be in possession of that less quantity by his own default and not that of the lessee, he is not entitled to an—of rent.—17 W. R. 418.

30. A ryot who has held his land for a few months and has paid no rent, cannot sue for—on the ground that the land on measurement appears less than the quantity mentioned in his potthali.—17 W. R. 419.

32. The plea of—can be adjudicated upon in a suit for arrears of rent with as much facility as in a suit for—of rent.—22 W. R. 117.

33. In a suit for arrears of rent of land adjacent to a river where defendant claims—on account of diluvion, and it is found that the agreement under which he holds requires measurement to be made once in three years, no account being taken of accretion or declination occurring within that period, if the tenant has waived his right of Abduction.

1. A charge of — will not lie under s. 366 Penal Code, when the woman being of mature age herself wishes to become a prostitute.—W. R., Cr. 45 (4 R. J. P. J. 4. 119).

2. Nor will a charge of — lie against a mother to whom her minor child found his way back after he had been delivered up by Court to the custody of his father.—25 W. R., Cr. 85.

See Arrest 10.

Abortion.

1. — of murder is a wrong finding when two accused were principals in the first degree, and it is only uncertain who actually struck the blow.—W. R., Cr. 49 (4 R. J. P. J. 122).

2. Conviction of a police inspector for — of false charge of murder quashed for want of proof of male fata.—W. R., Cr. 10.

3. Persons punished as principals cannot also be punished for — of the same offence.—W. R., Cr. 23, 37.

4. Where certain persons who asserted an assault in the course of which murder was committed, were held guilty of — of grievous hurt, and not — of murder.—W. R., Cr. 75.

5. The Excise Act XXI of 1856 contains no provision for the offence of —.—W. R., Cr. 53.

6. Nor the Poist Office Act XIV of 1866.—W. R., Cr. 54.

7. Under s. 109 Penal Code, the — must be of an offence punishable under the Code, and not under a distinct and special law.—10.

8. Under s. 94, Act XX of 1866, an abettor may be punished more severely than his principal can be.—8 W. R., Cr. 16.

9. Where, of several persons constituting an unlawful assembly, some only are armed with sticks, and one of them (A) is not so armed but picks up a stick and uses it, B (a master), who gave a general order to beat, is guilty of — of the assault made by A.—12 W. R., Cr. 51.

10. What acts of subsequent — are contemplated by s. 108 Penal Code.—18 W. R., Cr. 28.

Abduction which are innocent, but to connect him with those stages of the transaction which are criminal.—30 W. R., Cr. 41.

12. The offence of — by instigation depends upon the intention of the person who abets, and not upon the act which is actually done by the person whom he abets.—23 W. R., Cr. 8.

13. Where the accused was charged under s. 116 Penal Code, with — an offence punishable under s. 161, the person abetted having been a Civil Surgeon of a surgery station,—Hold that the enhanced punishment prescribed by the latter part of s. 116 could not be awarded, as the Civil Surgeon was not a public servant within the meaning of that section.—21 W. R., Cr. 9.

14. Where a head constable, who knew that certain persons were likely to be tortured for the purpose of extorting confession, purposely kept out of the way, he was held guilty of — under Expl. 2, e. 107, Penal Code.—21 W. R., Cr. 11.

15. Where a blow is struck by A in the presence and by the order of B, both are principals in the transaction.—23 W. R., Cr. 11.

16. To prove — under s. 107 Penal Code, by "illegal omission," it must be shown that the accused intentionally aided the commission of the offence by his non-interference.—21 W. R., Cr. 26.

Abcissing Offender.

1. ss. 183 and 184 Act XXV of 1861 do not apply to offences punishable with imprisonment extending to 6 months only.—3 W. R., Cr. 34.

2. There is no rule which requires a Magistrate to satisfy himself that a party has abscissed before issuing a proclamation; but the party, on applying to recover his property and a. 185, may prove that he had not abscissed.—17 Penal Code; and the offence of abscising by an offender against whom a warrant has been so issued, is not punishable under that section.—6 W. R., Cr. 71.

3. A warrant addressed to a police officer to apprehend an offender and to bring him before the Magistrate, is not "a summons, notice, or order" within the meaning of s. 172 Penal Code; and the offence of abscising by an offender against whom a warrant has been so issued, is not punishable under that section.—6 W. R., Cr. 71.

5. ss. 183 and 184 Act XXV make no provision for any investigation by a Magistrate of the claims of third parties to property which has been attached. The claimants are not bound by the sale, and may sue the purchasers in the Court of Civil to establish their title.—7 W. R., Cr. 32. See also 17 W. R., Cr. 10; 29 W. R., Cr. 30.

6. An order striking off a case on account of the little prospect of bringing the guilty parties to trial, cannot dispose of the question of contempt of court arising out of the fact of the accused having abscissed to evade justice.—7 W. R., Cr. 40.

8. The proper remedy of claimants to attached property belonging to an — is by a civil suit. The plea of informality can be considered on the surrender of the fugitive. Caution against sale until the necessary formalities are carried out — 17 W. R.; Cr. 10.

9. Property declared under s. 184 Act XXV to be at the disposal of Government, can only be restored by Government — 18 W. R., Cr. 53.

10. The period of 30 days prescribed by s. 188 as the minimum period within which the person is to be required by the proclamation to appear, runs from the date on which the publication is effected — 19 W. R., Cr. 12.

11. The declaration of forfeiture directed by s. 184, if not made before the person affected has come in or has been brought in, ought not to be made at all — 18 W. R., Cr. 327. Act X of 1872, which permits the deposition of a witness to be taken in the absence of an — does not apply to a deposition taken before that Act was passed — 21 W. R., Cr. 12.

12. Where s. 327 applies it should be shown that, when the former deposition was taken, the accused had absconded, and after due pursuit could not be arrested — 19 W. R., Cr. 246.

Account.

1. Payment on — is ineffectual in reviving a claim without a written acknowledgment under s. 4 Act XIV of 1859 — K. C. C. 92.

2. It is unnecessary to prove the correctness of every single item of an — extending over 7 years, when the correctness of any one item is not proved — W. R. Sp. 174. See also 11 W. R. 3.

3. In a suit for an — plaintiff's failure to prove the statement made in his paper that he had sanctioned an estimate which had been exceeded, does not render his suit liable to dismissal, unless defendants can show that they were not the contractors — 7 W. R. 362.

4. In a suit for an — under s. 24 Act X against a man who pleads acquaintance, and that he is not the bailiff of some of the estates, the Judge should find what estates are in his management, and for what period, and what account he has to render — 9 W. R. 260.

5. In a suit for a sum of money on an undated — plaintiff filed a memorandum (A) with her plaint, from which the amount claimed in the plaint could not be made out. In her examination by the Court, plaintiff put in another memorandum (C), to explain memorandum A. Defendant admitted that memorandum C was signed by him. It had reference to a period immediately preceding that from which the suit was brought — Held, that memorandum C was rather evidence to support the originally-stated cause of action, than an amendment of the claim in the substitution of one claim or cause of action for another. The case was one which should have been decided, not merely on the discrepancy between the two statements made by plaintiff, but on the whole of the evidence — (P. C.) 14 W. R., P. C. 24.

6. The mere omission of an accountable party — framing his own — to carry forward into a new — a balance against himself existing in a former — can constitute no evidence in his favor. To prove the existence of the balance, such omission might be considered in conjunction with other evidence in the case — (P. C.) 16.

7. Where a decree requires the judgment debtor to render accounts, he can only — for moneys that have come into his hand — 15 W. R. 250.

8. In a suit for — of moneys received and disbursed, it was held that if to release D, who was jointly employed with defendant as manager of plaintiff's shop on payment of a small sum, and to sue defendant alone for a large amount, was most inequitable, and that the suit should be dismissed — 19 W. R. 14.

9. Held also that, as plaintiff filed his khatia books and did not allege that they had been falsified, he should balance the — himself, and that the Lower Court ought not to have passed an order under s. 181 Act VIII to investigate the —.

10. Where two parties having dealings think it necessary to inspect the state of the — between them, the debtor inspects the books of the creditor and signs them in acknowledgment of what is due from him, he may be sued on such settlement of — without a bond executed on stamp paper — 19 W. R. 246.

11. In a suit for an — it is not sufficient for the Court to decree that an — should be taken; but the — should be examined and settled, and, if not produced, opportunity should be afforded for establishing a claim for compensation — 22 W. R. 393.

12. Procedure to be observed in a judicial inquiry into accounts — 24 W. R. 70.

13. Defendant was held bound by an — made up in accordance with the course of dealing which had practically been ascertained to by him and been followed between the parties for many years — 24 W. R. 590.

1. The Hindu law does not prevent a woman from being an. — 9 W. R. 178.

2. In determining the right of succession to the office of, where the custom or rule of succession was in question, previous judgments or decisions involving instances in which the right and custom had been successfully asserted were held admissible as evidence under s. 13 Act I of 1872. — 20 W. R. 345.

Adjournment.

1. In a trial held under Chap. XV Act XXX of 1861, it is not an irregularity to adjourn the trial under s. 299 for the purpose of allowing the accused to secure the attendance of his witnesses. — 16 W. R., Cr. 68.

2. Where an — was applied for on the first day after the Judge’s return to the district that the applicant really had an opportunity of appearing before the Judge for the purpose of filing documents and producing witnesses — Held that the Judge ought, under s. 146 Act VIII, to have granted an — 18 W. R. 329.

3. Where — is made by a Court to give effect to its processes for compelling the attendance of witnesses (being thus placed much on its own motion at the instance of the defendant as at the instance of the plaintiff), the case cannot be said to come under s. 148 Act VIII, which contemplates a case where a party has obtained time to produce witnesses and has failed to do so. — 19 W. R. 34.

4. A previous order for an — regularly made under s. 146 Act VIII, unless shown to have been regularly and properly rescinded, stands good, and the Court has no power to deny the case on any other day than that to which the hearing was so adjourned. — 20 W. R. 2.

5. Where plaintiff tells the Court that their principal witness has not been summoned, though they had ample time to ensure his attendance, but gave no definite facts showing whether or not the witness is evading service, and their application is not verified by oath or solemn affirmation, the Court is not justified in granting an — 20 W. R. 248.

6. Where defendant had known for some time previously that his case was coming on, and what evidence was necessary, a medical certificate to the effect that he was confined to his bed by lungague was held to be no sufficient ground for an adjournment. — (O. R.) 21 W. R. 202.

8. A Court ought not to adjourn a case for the production of a document: much less (when it does so) to allow witnesses and several of the parties who were interested in the result, to be recalled and to add to and vary the evidence which they had previously given, in order to prove a case which they had not set up. — (P. C.) 36 W. R. 53.

Advancement.

The English doctrine of — is applicable in India as between a father and daughter, both of English extraction and living under English law. The status of the daughter, under an alleged bond fide purchase made by her father for her — when a minor, cannot be set aside except by clear and positive proof that the father merely made use of her name as he would that of any servant or stranger, retaining the beneficial interest in the property for himself. The subsequent sale of the property by the father acting as guardian and trustee for the minor does not deprive him of his character as trustee, or itself prove that the purchase in the name of the minor was not bond fide.—2 W. R. 141.

Ancestral Property.
1. According to Hindu law, a man's property is liable for his debts, which must be satisfied before the heir can have any interest in it. — W. R. Ep. 277 (1. R. 60).
2. Where a decree is obtained against an heir for a debt of the ancestor, and another decree for a personal debt, and the property is sold in execution of the latter, such sale, though prior to a sale in execution of the former decree, does not give the purchaser a preferential right in the property. — 16.
3. Definition of. — See Hindu Law (Inheritance and Succession) 6, 34.
4. According to Hindu law, a creditor cannot follow the property of a deceased debtor, but may hold the heir personally liable. — 2 W. R. 596. — So likewise both as regards Mahomedans and Hindus. — 12 W. R. 177.
5. Shares in — may be sued for, whether they are held jointly or separately. — 3 W. R. 108.
6. According to the Mitacshara, cannot be burdened with the debts of one of its joint owners after his death. — 13 W. R. 210.
7. The mere change of possession of — will not protect the property from liability to sale in execution of a decree or an ancestral debt, but the property may be proceeded against in whatever hands it may be. — 3 W. R. Mix., 21.
8. According to the Mitacshara, sons have a vested interest in — which interest is salable at any time in execution of claims against them. — 5 W. R. 54. But see 16 W. R. 31.
9. What it is incumbent on plaintiff to show in a suit to enforce his right to a share in immovable property on the ground that it is — 8 W. R. 170.
10. According to the Mitacshara, property purchased by a father in possession of — as manager for himself and his sons, from the profits of such — is itself. — 6 W. R. 256.
11. According to the Mitacshara, a son has an equal right with his father in — and can compel the father to divide it during his lifetime, and will not be bound by any alienation made after his birth without his consent unless under legal necessity. If the father, during the son's minority, alienated any property in fraud of his creditors, such fraud would not bind the son, who was neither a party nor a privy to such fraud. — 7 W. R. 502. See next Case.
See also 25 W. R. 497.
12. According to the Mitacshara law, a son accrues by birth a right in — and can during his father's lifetime compel a partition of such property. The father cannot, without the son's consent, alienate the property except for sufficient cause, and the son may not and from liability to the father from doing, but may sue to set aside the alienation if made. The cause of action to the son accrues when possession is taken by the purchaser. A new cause of action does not accrue, upon the expiration of a younger brother, either to the elder brother alone, or to him and his brother jointly. — (P. B.) 8 W. R. 15. See 10 W. R. 273, 12 W. R. 446, 14 W. R. 386, 16 W. R. 31, 22 W. R. 17, 214, 23 W. R. 284.
13. A son under the Mitacshara law is entitled jointly with his father, from the moment of his birth or adoption, to — and also to the profits accruing after his birth. — 8 W. R. 455, 11 W. R. 456. See also under the Mitacshala law, as explained by the Vittala Chintaman, and supplemented when deficient by the Mitacshara. — 9 W. R. 460 (required by P. C.), 22 W. R. 56.
14. Under the Mitacshara law a son is entitled to recover his ancestral estate from a purchaser from the father, without refunding the purchase-money or any part thereof, upon proof that there was no such necessity as would legalize the sale and that he never acquiesced in the alienation. — (P. B.) 9 W. R. 311, 12 W. R. 446, 16 W. R. (P. B.) 6, 20 W. R. 120. But see 13 W. R. 30.
15. Under the Mitacshara law a father has no power to settle — by conveyance in his lifetime or by will to take effect after his death, without the consent of all his sons living at the time. Where such a settlement is not assented to by the sons living at the time, and another son is afterwards born, no subsequent assent of the former will be binding on the latter. — 11 W. R. 490.
16. The principle of the Mitacshara law, that if a father recover — which had been taken away by a stranger, and not recovered by the grandfather, he need not share it against his inclination with his sons, has been applied a fortiori where the property would have been irrecoverably lost to the family, but was re-purchased by a member who was at the time solely entitled, and who advanced the money out of his self-acquired property. — 14 W. R. 31.
17. The objection that a sale of — was effectual without the consent of all the members of a joint Hindu family, can only be made by the member who did not consent. — 14 W. R. 80.
18. The fact that a settlement was made in the name of an elder son, and that he has continued to be solely registered from that time to this, affords no conclusive evidence against the title of the younger brother to a property with the consent of the property of the father. The mere fact that one of the brothers was registered, as not to be the proprietor to the outer world, is not material if there has been a continuous enjoyment of the property by both brothers upon equal terms. — (A. C.) 15 W. R., P. C. 10.
19. A son was held entitled to a decree in a suit brought by him to recover certain property sold in execution of a decree against his father, on the ground that he and his father being members of a joint family under the Mitacshara law, the purchaser of the father's rights could obtain nothing. — 20 W. R. 174. See also 22 W. R. 21.
20. Under what circumstances a judgment-creditor who had become the purchaser of a father's rights and interests in property pledged by the father's bond, and said in execution of a moneys decree on the bond, is entitled to demand a partition of the property between the father and his sons, so as to make the property available for being appropriated and retained by the creditor to the extent of the father's potential rights. — 16. See also 20 W. R. 122.
21. Under the Mitacshara (as well as the Mithila) law, a son which descends to a father is not exempt from paying his debts because a son is born to him, unless the debt is illegal or has been contracted for an immoral purpose, in which case the son may not be under any obligation to pay it. — (P. C.) 9 W. R. 31, 16 W. R. 46, 25 W. R. 281, 374, 864; 25 W. R. 148, 185, 202, 811.
Attaching nantches, and occasionally giving nantches, cannot be considered immorally absorbing from such obligation. — 23 W. R. 200. Nor is it a high rate of interest a ground for invalidating the debt. — 29 W. R. 421.

14. Plaintiffs sued their stepbrothers for a fresh partition of their family property by setting aside arrangements for their distribution entered into by their mother as their guardian during their minority, and for a partition of a pucca talook purchased at a sale held under Registry No. 1187 of 1819 by the father in the bazeen of another. The Lower Court set aside the arrangements concluded by the mother, and ordered a subordinate munsell to make a fresh distribution of the properties, and on the munsell’s report passed an interlocutory order, and held that the final decree from which an — was the one passed after the submission of the munsell’s report. Held also that plaintiffs' (respondents’) objections under s. 319 Act VIII of 1859 were inadmissible, inasmuch as the intervenors who had been adjudged the owners were not parties to this appeal, and that their proper course would have been either to prepare a separate appeal, or by petition to have made the intervenors' co-respondents. — 1 Hay 397.

15. If a plaintiff discloses a cause of action, a Judge on — ought not to dismiss the suit on the ground merely of defect in the allegations in the plaint. If the subject-matter of the above allegation has not been tried in the Court below, the proper course is for the Judge to frame an issue, and refer it to the Lower Court for trial under s. 354 Act VIII of 1859. — 1 Hay 467 (Marshall 108).

16. Plaintiff sued for damages for indigo plants freshly cut and carried away by defendants; and a decree having been passed, the Sudler Court on appeal remanded the case for further investigation. After remand, defendant brought a counter-claim against plaintiff, alleging that the indigo plants were cultivated by him, and the Lower Court, holding that the subject-matter of this latter suit was involved in that of the former, dismissed it, and held defendant liable for damages to a certain extent. Both parties appealed, but the appeal of the defendant was struck off for default. Held that the question as to defendant’s right to the crop was still open on the — of the plaintiff. — 1 Hay 414 (Marshall 350).

17. Plaintiff and for damages for indigo plants cut and carried away by defendants; and a decree having been passed, the Sudler Court on appeal remanded the case for further investigation. After remand, defendant brought a counter-claim against plaintiff, alleging that the indigo plants were cultivated by him, and the Lower Court, holding that the subject-matter of this latter suit was involved in that of the former, dismissed it, and held defendant liable for damages to a certain extent. Both parties appealed, but the appeal of the defendant was struck off for default. Held that the question as to defendant’s right to the crop was still open on the — of the plaintiff. — 1 Hay 414 (Marshall 350).

18. Under the former law of procedure, an Appellate Court had not the power to dismiss the whole claim upon the — of the plaintiff dissatisfied with a partial decree of the Lower Court.—2 Hay 100.

20. No — lies from an order of a Civil Court refusing to admit a petition against a sale. — 2 Hay 111.

21. On — by the defendant, the Court allowed the objection to be raised that the suit was brought for a cause of action in respect of which the plaintiff had already obtained a decree in a former suit, notwithstanding this matter had not been pleaded in the Court below. — 2 Hay 154 (Marshall 275).

22. A and B were sued on a joint liability to payment: A did not defend, but B did, and a decree passed against both: B appealed. Held that it was competent to the Judge on — to reverse the decree, on the ground that there was no joint liability, but that B occupied a separate estate at a separate rent. — 2 Hay 288 (Marshall 381).

164. No — lies from a decision disposing of a case in the absence of defendants who, being summoned under s. 41
cognizance of all acts done without jurisdiction by the Court subordinate thereto.—15 W. R. 256.

182. The words "District Judge" in s. 102 Act VIII of 1850 (B. C.), does not mean a Subordinate Judge, so as to bar an — from a decision of the latter.—16 W. R. 132.

No in execution of a decree.—19 W. R. 201 (not ruled by F. B.), 21 W. R. 320, 19 W. R. 200. Not even in respect of appeals referred to the Subordinate Judge under s. 26 Act VI of 1871.—16 W. R. 236.

183. No — lies under s. 153 Act X in a case in which a landlord named a person as tenant who sublets the tenancy without denying the landlord's title.—16 W. R. 293.

184. No — lies from an order of a Lower Court refusing an application by a decree-holder, under s. 297 Act VIII, to execute the whole of a joint decree to the exclusion of his co-decree-holders.—17 W. R. 136, 415; 21 W. R. 286.

185. No — lies under s. 102 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) from the execution of a District Judge on an application in a case where the execution was done at the instance of the secured creditor and not at the instance of the Judgment-debtor.—17 W. R. 219.

187. No — lies from an order of a Court giving possession (under s. 286 or s. 284 Act VIIII) to a purchaser at a sale in execution of a decree.—17 W. R. 295.

188. An — lies under Act VI of 1871 to the Judge from an order of a Subordinate Judge passed under Act IX of 1861.—17 W. R. 561.

189. No — lies to the High Court, under Act XXXVII of 1855, from a conviction by the Deputy Commissioner of the Southal Pergunnah.—17 W. R., Cr. 11.

190. Where an original suit is brought for a sum exceeding 5000Rs. or for any property exceeding that value, and the decree is for a less sum or for property of less than that value, the — according to s. 22 Act VI of 1871, will lie to the High Court, the words "subject-matter in dispute" mean not the subject-matter of dispute in the appeal but in the original suit. — (F. B.) 18 W. R. 26.

The principle of the above ruling applies as well to an — from an order passed in execution.—18 W. R. 316. See converse case, where the original subject-matter of dispute being less than 5000Rs., the — was held to lie to the District Court and not the High Court.—19 W. R. 131.

192. Where a plaintiff died on the day on which the time for filing an — expired and his son applied two days after for leave to file an — Held that that point for consideration would be whether the application was made within a reasonable time after the death, and that the application would be dealt with on the principle laid down in s. 102 Act VIII; the matter being one in the District Judge's discretion and not appealable.—18 W. R. 293.

193. In determining the venue of — against an order passed under s. 22 Act VI of 1871 is to be taken to exclude the interest which accrued subsequently to the date of the decree. —18 W. R. 316.

194. No — is provided from a summary order under Reg. I of 1798; but such order is open to question in a regular suit. S. 38 Act XXIII of 1861 gives no right of — in such cases.—19 W. R. 122.

195. Where a present was issued by the Judge to the Collector, directing him to hold certain land in attachment and to appoint a manager under s. 25 Reg. V of 1812 and s. 3 Reg. V of 1827, the High Court allowed an — to be filed with the liberty to the defendant to controvert that no — lies.—19 W. R. 170. Ruled by a Full Bench that the — does not lie.—20 W. R. 202.

196. Where the High Court refused to interfere with the decision of an Appellate Court in a suit instituted under s. 15 Act XIV of 1859, although, according to s. 66 Act XXIII of 1861, no — lay in such a case.—19 W. R. 247.

197. Where land is attached in execution of a decree for rent, and the application is under s. 216 Act VIII or s. 106 Act X, it is released from attachment by order of a Court of competent jurisdiction, such order is not subject to —, and can only be impugned by a regular suit.—20 W. R. 99.

198. Where a decree by a Deputy Collector had been transferred to the Civil Court, and application for execution was made while Act III of 1870 (B. C.) was in force. Held that the execution proceedings were subject to the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code, and that an order passed therein was appealable under s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861.—20 W. R. 91.

199. A Mouzzind's order deciding that an application to set aside an ex-parte decree is in time, does not come under s. 119 Act VIII, and such order is not final.—22 W. R. 8. See also 25 W. R. 304.

200. A Collector's finding under s. 10 Act VI of 1862 (B. C.) as to existing rates, is final. —22 W. R. 476. No also his finding under s. 2 as to the standard pole of measurement in use in a pargunnah. —24 W. R. 124. See 112 a.t.

2. S. 369 Act VIII requires the points in appeal, as well as those in the original proceedings, to be stated, and the reasons upon which the decision is arrived at therein.—2 W. R. 58, 11 W. R. 312, 15 W. R. 130, 131. See 12 W. R. 272.
3. An — is bound to give the reasons for its judgment when it differs from the judgment of the Lower Court.—

5. The judgment of an — reversing the judgment of the Lower Court without giving reasons for differing as to facts, is no legal judgment, and may be interfered with, in special appeal.—1 W. R. 244, 14 W. R. 18, 17 W. R. 257, 20 W. R. 286, 403; 21 W. R. 135, 24 W. R. 342. But see 7 W. R. 2, 12 W. R. 182, 377. An — is not at liberty, unless there are good reasons for so doing, to reverse the decision of the Lower Court upon a question of fact.—25 W. R. 363.
6. The judgment of an — is defective if it states the opinion of the Lower Court but not its own.—1 W. R. 295.
8. The — should not ignore a question treated as most important by both parties to the suit and by the First Court.—2 W. R. 2.
9. An — instead of remanding the suit, may itself try an issue in bar overlooked by the Lower Court, if there is sufficient evidence to enable it to do so.—2 W. R. 161, 14 W. R. 69.
10. Where an appeal is barred by law and precedent, an — cannot interfere in any matter legitimately arising out of the case, unless there is want of jurisdiction.—2 W. R., Mis. 45.
12. It is the duty of an — to allow the parties or their pleaders to submit the evidence to it at the hearing in open Court, and to take upon the evidence so submitted every comment and it upon every argument they might think necessary.—15 W. R. 54.
13. Where a new and different issue is raised in the —, the parties ought to have the fullest opportunity of producing evidence upon it.—17 W. R. 361. See also 18 W. R. 297, 21 W. R. 407.
14. An — is bound precisely in the same way as a Court of first instance to test evidence extrinsically as well as intrinsically.—17 W. R., Cr. 50. But see (as to Civil cases) 25 W. R. 30.
15. The words “appellate judgment of acquittal” in s. 272 Act X of 1872 include all judgments of an — by which a conviction is set aside.—24 W. R., Cr. 41.
16. Where an — made an order under s. 280 Act X of 1872, enhancing the sentence appealed from, without having served notice on the appellant, the order of enhancement was quashed as illegal.—24 W. R., Cr. 72.
17. If a Lower — thinks that the defendants were taken unaware as to an issue involving plaintiff’s claim to land, which was framed and tried by the First Court, it is bound to call for fresh evidence on that issue and not dismiss plaintiff’s case summarily, for such a course would debar plaintiff in future from raising the claim.—28 W. R. 99.

Arbitration.

1. Where a suit has been referred to — by an order of Court, and the Court afterwards gives judgment according to the award made upon such reference, such judgment is final by virtue of s. 328 Act VIII, and no appeal lies therefrom. — Hay 300 (Marshall 163); 14 W. R. 38, 17 W. R. 30, 29 W. R. 429. See also 16 W. R. 2, 9.

2. Reference to — cannot be made except on the recorded and expressed consent of both parties. — Hay 553 (Marshall 517). The consent of the parties is not sufficient. — 14 W. R. 160.

3. When a case is referred to the award of three arbitrators, an award signed by two is valid and void, and ought not to be read as evidence in the case. — 479. See also 14 W. R. 21, 25 W. R. 129.

4. A submission to private — need not be put in writing to be valid, and a private award made in pursuance thereof will be respected by the Courts if duly performed. Both submission and award may be proved without lateranah. — 14 W. R. 76. See also 18 W. R. 531.

5. An award of — can only be set aside for corruption or partiality, but not on the ground of inconsistency. — 14 W. R. 2, 13.

6. Under the law previous to Act VIII, the summary refusal to enforce an — award did not bar the use of the award as the basis of a regular suit. — 283 (L. R. 66).

7. An agreement to refer to — does not save limitation; but the time during which the case was before the arbitrators and the plaint was being tried in another form to enforce the award, may be deducted from the period of limitation. — 14 W. R. 21.

8. Before a judge refers a case to — he should ascertain whether the parties nominated are willing to act; and till he has done so, any nomination of an arbitrator by him, without the approbation or consent of the parties, is illegal. But when a case has been referred to — after the preliminary steps have been properly taken, the Judge has the sole power of appointing fresh arbitrators in the room of such as refuse to act. — 338 (L. R. 119).

9. Quo war. — Whether a Judge proceeding under s. 319 Act VIII to appoint arbitrators, is not bound to appoint, in the room of the arbitrators who resign, an equal number of new arbitrators, unless the parties consent to a smaller number. — 14 W. R. 21.

10. Application for reference to — must be made to the Court in writing by parties in person or by pleaders specially authorised. — 14 W. R. 28 (Act X) 41.

11. There is nothing in Act VIII to prevent parties, who have a suit pending in Court, to submit the subject-matter of that suit, and other matters in dispute to — under s. 327. — 29 W. R. 23, 29 W. R. 39, 29 W. R. 129.

18. In appealing to set aside an award as not binding upon the appellant, he is not bound to appeal against every interlocutory order. — 14 W. R. 21, 25 W. R. 265, 29 W. R. 129.

16. A party, by appearing before arbitrators appointed without his consent, and in spite of his repeated remonstrances, does not forfeit his right to question the validity of the award. — 14 W. R. 211.

18. An award is not revocable except under s. 324 Act VIII. An arbitrator is not bound to conduct the award. He is appointed to give an equitable award, and can decide a case upon a document whether stamped or unstamped. — 1 W. B. 12.

17. A plaintiff must show special authority to assent to an — on behalf of another plaintiff. — 1 W. B. 80.

18. The Court cannot legally allow a case, as regards an absent plaintiff, to be decided by reference to — 1 W. B. 85.

19. A party should be filed in Court. Effect of not filing as laid down in s. 327 Act VIII. — 1 W. B. 160. See also 25 W. R. 132.

20. An — as to division of property left to minor sons, though assented to by their guardian, was set aside so far as regarded those sons on proof that the partition was injurious to them. — 1 W. B. 250.

21. Partial disagreement of two arbitrators does not nullify their award as a whole. — 29 W. R. 122.

22. Under s. 319 Act VIII the time for delivery of an award may be extended at the discretion of the Court without the consent of the parties. — 2 W. R. 297.

23. Civil Court's judgment cannot affect the rights of parties as declared in an award. — 14 W. R. 211.

24. Court cannot reserve permission to a plaintiff to bring a fresh suit for the matter of an — award, except under s. 97 Act VIII. — 14 W. R. 211.

25. S. 325 Act VII is not applicable to private awards and ought to be enforced under s. 327, and an appeal will lie from the order of a Court directing its enforcement. — 3 W. B. 164. See 14 W. R. 225; 29 W. R. 129, 22 W. R. 182.

26. A judgment given on an — is final under s. 325 when it is according to the award, but not otherwise; an appeal will lie on the ground that it is contrary to the award. — 3 W. B. 168. See also 11 W. R. 2, 149; 15 W. R. F, 9; (P. C.) 29 W. R. 129, 24 W. R. 184.

27. The refusal of arbitrators to amend a clearly bad award is misconfi in their part, within the meaning of s. 321, justifying its being set aside. — 14 W. R. 211.

28. Arbitrators should give separate awards in a case referred to them by the Judge, and on other matters referred to them by the parties, instead of bringing them all up and giving a general award. — 3 W. B. 27.

29. A judgment on a reference to — is not void, as required by s. 316, to provide for difference of opinion among the arbitrators and for a decision by a majority. — 4 W. R. 4. See also 10 W. B. 399, 22 W. R. 129.

30. The benefit of s. 327 will be lost if the application for enforcement of an award of private — be not made within 6 months. — 5 W. R. 123.

31. In a suit pending before arbitrators, an applicant who is made a co-arbitrant, is bound by the award of the parties, and makes no objection to the —, is bound by the award. — 5 W. R. 190.

32. A Civil Court acts illegally in deciding a case on its merits after an — award. — 10 W. B. 4. See also 10 W. B. 298.

33. A plaintiff cannot sue for movables by a suit to enforce an award of —. He may sue for damages and losses sustained with regard to his share of ancestral property, under his general rights of inheritance, whether adjudicated upon by a previous award of — or not; and as regards lands, he may sue either for enforcement of the award or upon his general rights. — 5 W. R. 165.

34. An — award cannot change the nature of the claim and convert it into a simple debt escapable by a Civil Court, who grants a claim for monies collected by defendant as tcessor. — 327 Act VIII in such a case. — 3 W. R. (Acx) 13.

35. Where all the parties did not agree to an —, the award is legal against those who did. — 6 W. B. 35. See also 14 W. R. 211. And cannot be converted into a final decree under Act VIII, though it is evidence against any party who agreed to the reference. — 15 W. R. 247.

36. An appeal, on the allegation of want of consent of parties lies from the order of a Lower Court under s. 327 Act VIII directing a private award of — to be filed and endorsed. — 15 W. R. 5; 24 W. R. 188.

37. A plaintiff's allegation in a former suit having been overruled in —, he is not estopped from bringing a fresh suit on the finding of the arbitrators. — 6 W. R. 68.

38. Possession under a private award of — would suffice to make the award valid, under cl. s. 3 Reg. VI of 1813, without the intervention of the Courts. — 6 W. R. 94.

39. When a case which has been referred to the Principal Sudder Adjun. Court to —, is referred by the Judge for trial in his own Court, the Judge is not bound to refer it to. — 6 W. R. 290.

An award of — will not be invalidated by reason of the persons interested having become lunatics after the proceedings before the arbitrator were substantially completed before the final publication of the award. — 7 W. R. 5.

41. Where both parties could not agree in nominating an arbitrator and the Judge nominated one under s. 311 Act VIII, such award must be inferred that he did so at their desire. — 7 W. R. 13.

42. A judgment of a Court given in accordance with an award of —, is final under s. 325 Act VIII even if there has been a mistake in the award. — 7 W. R. 205; 8 W. R. 171.

43. A private award may be valid and binding, though no proceedings under s. 327 have been taken to enforce it. — 7 W. R. 19; 9 W. R. 490.

44. Submission to — is revocable before award made. —16. Not arbitrarily but for good cause; the fact of one of the parties to the agreement revoking his submission is not a sufficient cause within the meaning of s. 326 Act VIII. — (P. C.) 10 W. R. 7, 5; 15 W. R. 331; 21 W. R. 395; 23 W. R. 522.

45. Where parties do not agree to be bound by the act of the majority, the award must be unanimous. — 7 W. R. 209; 19 W. R. 47; 22 W. R. 129.

46. Arbitrators cannot delegate their powers to others. —17.

47. S. 323 Act VIII authorizes a Court to remand a case to arbitrators for reconsideration when there are mistakes which it cannot amend under s. 322; and if the arbitrators refuse to reconsider, their award becomes null and void without proof of corruption or misconduct under s. 324. — 7 W. R. 406; 22 W. R. 413.

48. The neglect of some of the arbitrators is misconduct within the meaning of s. 324. — 8 W. R. 171. See also 22 W. R. 413.

49. A Small Cause Court has jurisdiction, under s. 347 Act VIII, to entertain an application to file a private — award relating to a debt not exceeding the amount cognizable by such Court if the defendant resides within its jurisdiction. — 10 W. R. 85; 13 W. R. 235.

51. Where a reference to — fixes no time for the arbitrators to make the award, the award itself falls to the ground. — 10 W. R. 206.

52. An error in an award arrived at in a proceeding otherwise than upon a reference made by consent of all the parties. — 10 W. R. 423; 10 W. R. 225.

53. Where the reference fixes no time for the award to be made, either party may hasten the proceedings by giving notice to the arbitrators that the award must be made within a specified time. But when the time elapsed after the notice has been actively employed by the arbitrators, and the delay has been owing to necessity which they could not control, the party giving notice may be held to have renounced its right by reason of the notice. — (P. C.) 10 W. R. 7, 5; 51.

54. An — is not legal if not signed by the arbitrators sitting together at one place and at the same time. — 11 W. R. 453; 12 W. R. 397.

55. A Court may make under s. 320 Act VIII look into the whole of an — record and set aside the award on reasonable presumption of misconduct (i.e., because it was in opposition to the testimony of witnesses whom the arbitrators disbelieved). — 15 W. R. 99; 24 W. R. 447.

56. Where the order of the Court which made the reference to —, declining to pass judgment according to the award, is reversed in appeal, the Lower Appellate Court's order is open to special appeal, s. 325 applying only to the Court by which a case is referred to. — 17.

57. — award must be one instrument complete in itself. — 12 W. R. 397.

58. A judgment passed within the time allowed by s. 324 Act VIII, viz. 10 days after the submission of the award to the Court, is not a final judgment under s. 325. — 17.

59. See also 20 W. R. 311.

60. An arbitrator should not allow documents entrusted to him by the Court to be removed from the author, but the award should, under s. 320 Act VIII, be accompanied by all the proceedings, depositions, and exhibits in the suit. — 17.

61. Although no appeal will lie under s. 325 Act VIII against a judgment passed according to the award as prescribed in s. 327, an appeal will lie, under s. 14 Act XXIII of 1867, against an order made in execution proceedings taken upon that judgment. — 13 W. R. 62.

62. A case cannot in special appeal be sent back to the arbitrators with a provision for difference of opinion, where the arbitrators having given their award in different answers. — 14 W. R. 109.

63. Where matters in dispute are referred to — and it is found that no question at issue is omitted from the reference and that the award contains no decision thereon, the party interested should bring the omission to the notice of the Court; if he fails to do so, the Court may pass any order or come to any decree. — 14 W. R. 217.

64. An application to enforce an — award under s. 327 Act VIII may be made without any valuation of the suit. — 14 W. R. 255.

65. An order of a Civil Court setting aside an — award, being an interlocutory order, is not open to an appeal immediately: but when the Court sets aside the award on the ground of misconduct on the part of the arbitrator, and after hearing the case on its merits, makes its decree in favor of the plaintiff, it is competent to the defendant to appeal against that decree. — 14 W. R. 327. See also 22 W. R. 429.

66. S. 323 Act VIII does not authorize a Court to remit a case to the arbitrators except as to matters in difference between the parties. — 14 W. R. 409.

67. An arbitrator has full power to retract his resignation of office before it is accepted. — 15 W. R. 109. Held by the Privy Council that an arbitrator who first tendered and then withdrew his resignation, did not formally divest himself of his character of arbitrator, and was therefore not functus officio when he signed the award. — (P. C.) 23 W. R. 429.

68. An award of arbitrators on a matter not in difference between the parties nor referred to them is null and void for want of jurisdiction notwithstanding that it has been confirmed by a judgment of Court passed in accordance therewith. — 15 W. R. 172.

69. A Monsiff has no jurisdiction to entertain an application and pass an order on the enforcement of an — award relating to the determination of rent. — 16 W. R. 550.

70. It is very doubtful whether a Judge has power, under Act X, to refer a case to. — 16 W. R. 160.

71. The mere absence of a clause in the order of reference to —, providing for a difference of opinion between the arbitrators, cannot vitiate the award where there is no such difference of opinion. — 17 W. R. 30.

72. An Appellate Court is entitled to refer cases to. — 17 W. R. 31. But see 15 W. R. 321, art 83, post.

73. What a party must do when contests the validity of an award on the ground that it was not completed within the time fixed by the Court. — 17.

74. An — award is not binding on an interlocutor as a decree in a suit disposed of by a regular suit. — 17 W. R. 233.

75. The addition, in a judgment according to an award, of straining direction upon a matter not referred to the arbitrators, which was quite separable from the other parts

The award, and did not affect the decision on the matter referred, was held not to affect the finality of the judgment according to s. 125 Act VIII. - 17 W. R. 322.

76. A reference to made under an order of Court cannot be revoked at the instance of a party. - 17 W. R. 518.

77. If an award is set aside and the matter is tried as a suit, the arbitrator cannot be examined as a witness as to the grounds of his decision, but only to prove any admission which may have been made before him. - 1b.

78. Nothing which passes between the parties in any attempt at arbitration or compromise should be allowed to affect the slightest prejudices to the merits of their case as it eventually comes to be tried before the Court. - 20 W. R. 172.

80. No presumption can be raised against a party to a suit from his refusal to withdraw from the determination and submit to arbitration. - 1b.

81. A decree was held to be in accordance with the award and therefore final under s. 325 Act VIII, although it did not embody a suggestion of two out of the three arbitrators, which suggestion the first Court dealt with as more persuasive. - 20 W. R. 226.

83. A refusal to have any right in refusing to permit the filing of an award which was not complete in itself, and which, as a whole, the parties had not agreed to. - 21 W. R. 192.

An Appellate Court has no power to refer a case to — even on consent of the parties. (P. R.) 21 W. R. 210.

Nor can the first Court, by consent of parties, refer so much of the matter in dispute which it has already determined and which is pending in appeal. - 22 W. R. 207.

An Appellate Court, in remanding a case under s. 354 Act VIII, cannot direct the first Court to call upon the parties to agree to — or on their failing to so agree, to award. - 20 W. R. 296.

84. S. 327 Act VIII incorporates the provision in s. 325 as to the finality of the judgment given in the award, and puts the award under s. 327 in the same position as the award filed under s. 252. Where a Court files an award and passes a decree, that decree is final. - 21 W. R. 248.

85. The word "date" in s. 327 does not mean the day written in the award as when it was made but the day when it is handed over to the parties so that they may be able to give effect to it. - 1b.

86. As long as the order of aMoonisquat granting an award subsists in full force, the award cannot be called as a binding award between the parties. - 21 W. R. 261.

87. When a private award between parties is filed in a Court under s. 327 Act VIII, the prescribed course under s. 325 is for the Court to give judgment and pass a decree, and not to order execution before such decree has been passed. - 21 W. R. 295.

88. When sufficient cause is shown against a private award, the Court may refuse to enforce it under s. 327 Act VIII. - 21 W. R. 577.

89. Where after a reference of certain suits to the parties withdrew the first submission and agreed to submit the same suits to other matters to — and before the arbitrators so appointed had arrived at a final conclusion, the parties by 7k, compromised the whole of the subjects of dispute, and an award was drawn up according to this compromise, a decree corresponding with the award was at first made only in three suits which had been originally referred, and afterwards, on the application of some of the parties, the effect of a decree was given by the remainder of the award. — Held that this application to give effect to the unenforceable portion of the award ought to have been dismissed, but that as the parties concerned did not take steps to set the lower Court right in this matter (inter alia), the High Court could not interfere, and that the effect of the lower Court's decision was to dispose of the award altogether and not to divide it into two parts of which one was to be struck out by reason of a foundation of a future judgment. — 22 W. R. 129.

90. Where an Appellate Court directed the first Court to call upon the parties to agree to — and the parties waived the irregularity and consented to the matter being tried by arbitrators, — Held that they could not bring an appeal to the proceedings. - 22 W. R. 396.

91. When — and failed and the record came back to the Court, the Court was held to have no power to dismiss the suit without giving notice to the parties or fixing a date for the hearing of the suit. - 23 W. R. 21.

92. Ss. 312 and 325 Act VIII are enabling, and were not intended to be restrictive or exclusive. Parties, who are suiter, are competent, before deciding, to make an agreement as to the settlement of the suit. - 24 W. R. 41.

93. Where an arbitrator imported into his proceedings a previous enquiry alleged to have been made by him, and relied upon admissions made in the former proceedings, his award was held to be bad and the decision based thereon set aside. - 24 W. R. 81.

94. The appointment of an umpire under s. 316 Act VIII is required, where there are two or more arbitrators, to provide for any difference of opinion among them; but not where, with the consent of the Court, only one arbitrator has been appointed. - 25 W. R. 11.

35. On an application under s. 327 Act VIII to have an award filed in Court, it was held that the word "award" as used in the plaint must be taken to include the whole document which is scheduled to the plaint, i.e., the formal judgment as well as the decree, also that the earlier sections of the Act are not inserted into s. 227 as they are into s. 325, and that the words "sufficient cause" in s. 327 should be taken to comprehend any substantial objection which appears upon the face of the award or is founded on the misconduct of the arbitrators or on any misfeasance in the course of the proceedings or upon any ground which would have been considered fatal to an award on an application to the Courts in England. - (P. R.) 26 W. R. 10.

96. Both parties having agreed to appoint arbitrators to determine their rights in dispute according to the terms of a will, and it being contended by the appellant that it was miscarriage on the part of the arbitrators to make their award without the whole of the will before them, their lordships came to the conclusion that, as the appellant, having a clear knowledge of the circumstances on which he might rely, had no objection to the arbitrators proceeding to make their award, did submit to the — going on and allowed the arbitrators to deal with the case as it stood before them, taking his chance of the decision being more or less favorable to himself, it was too late for him, after the award had been made, and on the application to file the award, to insist on this objection to the filing of the award. — (P. R.) 19.

1. A claim to — under s. 246 Act VIII is virtually a suit for land.—1 Hyde 136, 9 W. R. 199.

2. The proper course to be adopted by a third party desirous of setting aside an order of attachment, is not to proceed by motion, but to give notice of claim which can then be inveigled as laid down in s. 216 Act VIII of 1859—2 Hyde 22.

3. In the event of a claimant appearing for — the Court will in its discretion postpone all other business and give precedence to the hearing of the claim.—21 W. R. 146.

4. The order on which judgment is pronounced is not to be reckoned within the time allowed for bringing a suit under s. 246. — W. R. Sp. 321, 22 W. R. 68.

5. S. 243 Act VIII of 1859 gives no authority to a Court to direct a mortgagee to mortgage his lands or sell a part of it when he can satisfy the Court that there is reasonable ground to believe that the amount of the decree will be realized thereby.—W. R. Sp. 15.

6. The sale by a judgment-debtor of property after it has been attached by another, is not valid.—1 W. R. 212.

7. It is discretionary with a Court, under s. 214 Act VIII, to appoint a mortgagee, and to allow a debt to be paid by degrees.—1 W. R. 115. See 12 W. R. 66. The discretion must be exercised reasonably.—11 W. R. 595. And unless there is a reasonable probability of the whole debt being discharged in a short period, the mortgagee is entitled to his suit within one year from the date of the order disallowing the investigation.—2 W. R. 263, 5 W. R. 123. See also 7 W. R. 283, 8 W. R. 73.

8. Where a claim to — under s. 246 and an investigation is refused under s. 247, the claimant, in bringing a regular suit to procure his claim, is not bound, either by any provision of Act VIII or by s. 5 s. 1 Act XIV of 1859, to institute his suit within one year from the date of the order disallowing the investigation.—2 W. R. 263, 5 W. R. 123. See also 7 W. R. 283, 8 W. R. 73.

9. The order by which the property is first attached, and not the decree-holder at whose instance the sale takes place, is the party entitled to be first paid under s. 270 Act VIII.—2 W. R. 121. See 1 W. R. 214.

14. The purchaser from a judgment-debtor cannot take advantage of an order of obtained by the judgment-creditor under s. 246 Act VIII, to which he was an entire stranger.—5 W. R. 187. See 17 W. R. 480.

15. There is nothing restrictive in s. 246 Act VIII: it comprises all claims or objections to the sale of lands attached.—6 W. R. 161.

16. Where a person, claiming — under a bill of sale, once sets up that two of the judgment-debtors are not minors, and it is found that they are minors, he cannot afterwards be allowed to set up an opposite case and claim the shares of the minors on the ground that the sale to him was to satisfy an actual debt.—6 W. R. 239.

17. Where property is seized as belonging to A as representative of B deceased, and A claims the property as his own and denies that it ever belonged to B or B's estate, A's claim is purposely dealt with under s. 216 Act VIII.—6 W. R. 61, 5 W. R. 199.

18. As a claim is dealt with under s. 216 — a claim is ordered to be released, the order for release is made with reference merely to the particular claimant who has obtained the order.—8 W. R. 27.

19. So also an order disallowing a claim.—1 W. R. 115. See 2 W. R. 290.

20. Where under s. 216 — a claim is ordered to be released, the order for release is made with reference merely to the particular claimant who has obtained the order.—8 W. R. 27.

21. As a claim is ordered to be released, the order for release is made with reference merely to the particular claimant who has obtained the order.—8 W. R. 27.

22. Where the right, title, and interest of a debtor in certain moveable property claimed by B as part owner under s. 246 Act VIII, is sold in execution, the judgment-creditor is not liable. The purchaser becomes entitled to an undivided share to be used as such, and is not liable to be the owner of the other undivided share, merely for using it.—11 W. R. 528. See 14 W. R. 15.

23. In a case of intervention under s. 246 Act VIII where the — is found to be the sole property and in sole possession of the intervener, he should be at once released and the decree-holder referred to a regular suit.—12 W. R. 41.

24. The Court acts without jurisdiction if, instead of so referring the decree-holder to a regular suit, and if it decides on the decree-holder's right to proceed against the — 18 W. R. 402.

Attorney and Client

1. If a client places himself in the hands of an attorney, he places himself in his hands in regard to all matters having connection with the suit, and the attorney must be held liable for any negligence, even though his client did not take prompt action in the matter. - 1 Hyde 131.

2. A vakil acting under an engagement as a client's mukhitar and legal adviser, is bound by the same rules as regards remuneration, etc., as an attorney. - 2 W. R. 307.

3. Where a bond is given by a client to an attorney, not only is the client not estopped from disputing the consideration alleged in it, but the mukhitar of the fairness of the transaction lies on the attorney. - 1b.

4. A person choosing to act as a mukhitar or legal agent must submit to the same rules by which the dealings of such parties with their clients are regulated. - 4 W. R. 96.

5. The interposition of a third party does not necessarily affect the fiduciary relation between — 1b.

6. A client may dismiss a mukhitar for misconduct notwithstanding that the contract between them is for a fixed period, and without the client being obliged to sue for cancellation of the engagement. - 5 W. R. Mis. 18.

7. A client is not bound by the mistaken consent of his pleader to abide by the issues of law erroneously waived by the Judge. - 6 W. R. Mis. 53. See also 10 W. R. 246.

8. A vakil's admission during the trial of a suit is legal evidence by which his client is bound, though it is open to the latter to show that the effect of the admission is not such as to invalidate his claim. - 9 W. R. 98. But see 18

It is also admissible as evidence in another case in which the client is a party.—15 W. R. 132.

9. The principle regulating the relation between—applies equally to the relation of vaked and client.—10 W. R. 469.

10. The rule that an intentional statement of a falsehood in a written document taken by itself without explanation be tokens fraud until the contrary is shown, and that it is the duty of a solicitor who has made such a statement to show correctly the absence of fraudulent motive, can scarcely be applied when a fraudulent motive has not been alleged by any complainant, if the explanation offered be not simply incredible. (P. C.) 10 W. R., P. C. 43.

11. There is no such special authority in the High Court as would authorize the striking off of a solicitor from the rolls of the Court, where such a step would not be sanctioned by the practice of the Courts in England. (P. C.) 43.

A vaked, after acting in regard to the execution of a decree on behalf of a judgment-debtor, must not interfere himself with the decree-holder in the purchase of the property.—13 W. R. 209.

12. 10 Act II of 1855 does not warrant a vaked's exclusion from the witness-box, though it may excuse his answering certain questions relating to communications between him and his client.—15 W. R. 310.

13. A judgment deliberately recording the admission of a plaintiff that he was not taken as correct, unless it is contradicted by an affidavit or the Judge's own admission that the record he made was wrong.—16 W. R. 107.

14. Admissions by a prisoner's vaked cannot be used, against the prisoner.—17 W. R., Ct. 49.

15. Where a conveyance was made by a native lady without consideration to her moonkhtar, it was held that it would be a denial of justice and contrary to public policy to uphold the grantee as plaintiff against the moonkhtar as defendant to set aside the deed; still less where the parties pleading the fraud were defraudants and in possession.—19 W. R. 145.

Auction-Purchaser (Execution Sale).

1. The purchaser at a sale in execution of a decree obtained by a mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage-debt, is not bound by losses excited by the mortgagee after decree, unless he has recognized the losses after his purchase by receiving rent from the lessee as such.—W. M., F. B., 40 (1 Hay 260; Marshall 122). See also 10 W. R. 325.

2. In execution of a decree in the possession of the widows of the original debtor, the property in dispute was sold as the rights and interests of the widows. Held that the auction-purchaser acquired by this purchase the rights and interests of the original debtor in the property, though in the police-notification those of the widows were advertised to be sold.—2 Hay 8.

§ So also a mere verbal error in describing the property to be sold as a peddler's taluk instead of a inomongy liver was held to be such a misdescription as would defeat the rights of the —.—21 W. R. 93.

3. Under a decree in a suit on a bond against the widow of the deceased obligor, property to which her son, of whom she was entitled to the interest, was entitled, the bond, was sold. In the advertisement of the sale the property was described as that of the widow, and the interest to be sold was described as that of the debtor. Held that the purchaser at the sale acquired the property of the creditor in the estate, and had a good title against the heir.—Marshall 614. See also (P. C.) 17 W. R. 409, 50, 23 W. R. 174, 301; 24 W. R. 229, 25, 26 W. R. 386, 588. But see 18 W. R. 35, 22 W. R. 151.

4. An — of a sequestration is entitled to the rents due from the date of his purchase. If the tenants, after due notice of purchase, continue to pay to the former owner, they do so at their own peril, and cannot plead such payments (even when made under an order of the Court in answer to the owner's suit for rent.)—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 65 (2 R. J. P. 19).

5. Only such rights and interests as are notified to be sold are those which pass to the —.—See 41.

6. Where, in execution of a decree for costs advanced by Government in prosecuting an appeal, the auction-purchaser bought only the rights of those who had opposed the successful plaintiff in the Privy Council, — Held that it was wrong to upset the sale to the rights of others whose names had been included in theplaint only because the suit was for a portion of a joint family estate.—See 488.

7. The — of an under-tenant cannot obtain possession under cl. 6 s. 28 Act X of 1859, but must sue in the Civil Court.—3 R. J. P. 114, 6 W. R. 210.

8. The title of an — accruing from the date of the sale, and not from the date on which he may obtain his sale certificate.—6 W. R. Sp. 279 (L. R. 61).

9. The purchaser at a sale in execution of rights pledged for the debt for which the decree was obtained, is not bound by any incumbrance created by the original proprietor subsequent to the pledge.—W. R. Sp. 369.

10. An — is not bound to wait for his rent until he can clear away all fraudulent incumbrances created by his predecessor.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 57 (3 R. J. P. 261).

11. An — of the rights and interests of a judgment-debtor is not bound, under s. 27 Act X of 1859, to notify his purchase to the seizure.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 91 (3 R. J. P. 19).

12. An — has no greater rights than a purchaser under a decree in Chancery, whose right is liable to be defeated by a re-opening of the bidding by order of the Court.—
W. R. Sp. Mis. 29 (L. R. 57).

13. Where the sale of any lot is completed, the purchaser
(whater be the decree-holder, or not) should then and there be required to make the deposit prescribed by s. 237
Act VIII of 1859; failing which the lot should at once be put up to sale at the risk of the first purchaser.—W. R. Sp., Mis. 30.

14. When pendente lite a sale of the property of a defendant is effected in execution of a decree, the decree obtained against the judgment-debtor will be void against the —.—1 W. R. 163, 18 W. R. 396. See (P. C.) 18 W. R., P. C. 12.

15. Where rights and interests are sold in execution with notice of claims of previous purchasers of a portion thereof, and such previous purchasers are not afterwards protected by the heirs of the original owner, the — may sue such heirs for return of the property recovered by them, with muse profits.—5 W. R. 30.

16. When a sale in execution is set aside, no such rights and interests are left to the — as can be sold on his behalf.—5 W. R. 42.

17. The purchaser of a tenure sold for arrears of rent enjoys the tenure free from any incumbrances or incumbrances created by the defaulter.—6 W. R. (Act X) 86. See also 3 W. H. 127.

18. A purchased B's rights at a sale in execution of a decree of a Civil Court, but found the lands in the possession of C a purchaser at a sale by the Collector's Court. A prayed to be put in possession summarily, alleging C to hold merely tenanees for B. Held that, whether under ss. 227 and 228, or s. 269 Act VIII, A could not proceed summarily but by regular suit.—8 W. R., Mis. 129.

19. Under s. 214 Act VIII, the possession of an — dates from the publication of the sale-certificate and proclamation, not from the date of his taking possession.—7 W. R. 69. See 24 W. R. 418. But where proceedings under this section were never acted upon in any way, they were not held to constitute such a possession as would prevent the operation of the new limitation.—21 W. R. 419 (Note). See also 26 W. R. 418.

20. Plaintiff purchased two-thirds and defendant one-third of the rights and interests of certain judgment-debtors sold in execution of a decree. Plaintiff paid his own and defendant's quota of the purchase-money, and in the event of default's failure to reimburse him, sued for possession of the whole property as sole purchaser. The Lower Court directed defendant to pay his share of the purchase-money to plaintiff with interest, and thought that relief was different from that prayed for, the order was not disturbed in appeal as it did substantial justice.—7 W. R. 180.

21. A person claiming, as — of the rights of another
with whom a rental was settled, to have those rights confirmed and to sue any person who set up a title which threatened to disturb his possession, is entitled to a declaratory decree, and to be registered in the Collector's books as the rightful owner.—20 W. R. 190.

21a. A bond fide — for valuable consideration, and without notice, is not in every case protected from having the sale set aside; but each case must be determined according to its own circumstances.—W. R. 69; 22 W. R. 106.—F. He was held not protected in the case of a sale in execution of an ex parte decree upon certain mortgage-bonds in respect of the property of minors after notice, that the mother of the minors had paid the interest on the mortgage bonds in question, and after the judgment of the court finalizing the validity of the whole of the proceedings.—20 W. R. 120. Held otherwise where he had no such notice.—20 W. R. 128.

22. The auction-purchaser of a ryot's tenures sold by the secrirary in execution of a decree for rent, is not the ryot's vendee, nor bound by any decision to which the ryot was a party, or by an admission or admission of that party.—14 W. R. 117.

23. Where the rights and interests of a judgment-debtor are sold in execution, the auction-purchaser takes the land to which they relate subject to such mortgages and leases as may be existing.—10 W. R. 384, 24 W. R. 346.

24. Where the rights and interests of the judgment-debtor is obstructed by a third party who has been in possession for a long time, his remedy under s. 269 Act VIII is to sue to establish the title of the judgment-debtor in that property, and not to recover his purchase-money.—12 W. R. 176.

25. Where an — was named in the sale-certificate as "mother and guardian of her infant son R. C.,” the title to the premises was to be vested by the certificate in the minor absolutely.—12 W. R. 236. See 11 W. R. F., F. 20.

26. Where lands claimed under a certificate of sale being in one village are found in another, the — may show that there has been a mistake in the description.—12 W. R. 483.

27. S. 258 Act VIII is solely for the benefit of an — and no person has any ground to come in under the appellation of purchaser except the party who is complained of as reselling or obstructing the purchaser in obtaining possession.—13 W. R. 405.

28. In cases where the right of inheritance really vests, the purchaser of the rights of a deceased judgment-debtor, who has been held under a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860, does not acquire the entire estate, but acquires it to all legal and equitable rights of inheritance.—11 W. R. 478.

29. The purchaser of more than the share of the persons whose rights and interests he has purchased, his suit should be decreed to the extent to which those rights and interests are found to exist, and not be disannulled altogether.—12 W. R. 963.

30. A sale-certificate which in express terms passes to the — the rights and interests of a father, does not necessarily transfer the interests of his minor sons but the latter have benefited by the decree or sale, in which case the — has to that extent an equitable claim against them.—17 W. R. 454.

31. An — of the judgment-debtor's right, title, and interest, does not thereby acquire any right which the latter might have, to set aside or question the validity of any deed previously made, it might be, by the judgment-debtor himself.—18 W. R. 39.

32. An — of the rights and interests of a former proprietor after the Government revenue had been paid out of collections made by the surintendent, was held entitled to a share of those rents in proportion to the term of her proprietorship.—18 W. R. 44.

33. Where the property of a minor is not described as such, the — acquires no title thereto.—18 W. R. 56.

34. An — although he may be the decree-holder, must be proved in the position of a purchaser for value.—20 W. R. 223.

35. An — of a decree bond fide, without knowledge of a previous assignment of a mortgage interest, is entitled to the proceeds from the sale on account of the trust or obligation in favor of the assignee.—20 W. R. 406.

36. An — is in "representative interest" of the judgment-debtor within the meaning of s. 21 Act I of 1872.—21 W. R. 149.

37. The purchaser of a tenure at a sale for arrears of rent was held liable to rent from the date on which the sale was confirmed, for, until such confirmation, he could not obtain the land, which is in fact a conveyance to him of the property, viz., the certificate of purchase.—2 W. R. 367.

38. Where a decree-holder had attached certain land and a house upon it caused the land to be sold in execution and purchased it, and then caused the house to be sold to a third party.—Held that he had purchased the land on which the house stood subject to the right of the person who bought the house to have it continued there. 22 W. R. 209.

39. An — under a decree by some members of a joint Hindu family subject to the Mitacchhara law, acquires no right to recover possession of a definite quantity of land.—22 W. R. 214.

40. Although s. 264 Act VIII provides for the assistance of the —, there is nothing whatever to prevent his obtaining possession, if he can, without the intervention of the Court.—22 W. R. 406.

41. The — of the married right of a judgment-debtor is entitled to possession where such right has been in no way pledged or mortgaged, notwithstanding the deed of assignment from the previous owner directing his tenant to make an annual payment to a creditor of interest due under a bond.—22 W. R. 445.

42. The — of a tenant's rights and interests must, if he wishes to retain the tenure, satisfy any decree for rent for which it is liable, and obtain a transfer in the landlord's name in lieu of the former tenant's.—23 W. R. 289.

43. The right which an — has, under s. 66 Act VIII of 1869 (R. C.), to do away with under-tenures, cannot be executed without a suit first having been instituted, on mere fact of purchase being insufficient to set aside incumbrances.—25 W. R. 109.

44. Where the first mortgage after giving up his mortgage lien by accepting a sum of money assessed by a Court as the equivalent of his lien, sells his rights under his decree to another who purchased in execution of that decree what the party from whom he purchased had no right to sell, the sale of such purchase was not allowed to prevail, on the ground of priority of mortgage, as against the purchaser at the prior sale in execution of the second mortgagee's decree.—25 W. R. 251.

45. Though in a suit brought by the — of the right, title, and interest of the first mortgagee against the — of the right, title, and interest of the second mortgagee, to declare the mortgage property liable for the amount of the plaintiff's mortgage, the defendant in possession would have to pay off the plaintiff in order to retain possession, yet this cannot be in a suit brought to turn the defendant out of possession on the ground of priority of mortgage.—25 W. R. 251.

46. Where a claim under s. 218 Act VIII is rejected, the — should get possession under s. 263 or 264 from the Court executing the decree, but cannot bring a fresh suit for the same.—25 W. R. 372.

47. It is the business of an — to see that his sale certificate conveys to him what he supposes himself to have purchased; and it is not open to him to adduce evidence afterwards to prove that he purchased anything more than what the certificate shows him to have purchased.—26 W. R. 104.

1. The Law of Merchants is not applicable to banking transactions in the Mofussil.—18 W. R. 420.

26 A Bank Manager purporting to act under a power of attorney intended to be given in his private capacity, but addressed "Acting Manager of the — Bank" by B, a constituent of the Bank, cannot divest himself of his character of Bank Manager. If he acts as agent for both parties, he acts to the prejudice of B and to the advantage of the Bank, and there is a breach of duty to B to which the Bank is a party.—(O. A.) 19 W. R. 67.

1. Where plaintiff sued to set aside a sale, in execution of a decree, of certain property held by the judgment-debtor, 1 — for plaintiff, it was held that the absence of direct proof of payment of the purchase-money by plaintiff was no ground of objection. — 1 W. R. 2.

2. S. 260 Act VIII of 1858 does not preclude a person purchasing from setting up his title against a person not being the certified purchaser or claiming through him. — 2 Hay 612 (Marshall 429). See also 14 post. See 8 W. R. 180, 10 W. R. 107, 18 W. R. 85.

2a. Plaintiff sued for the recovery of certain property on the allegation that, though the property was purchased by his adoptive mother (A) — in the name of B, she purchased it out of her own separate income so as to make it her property, and that plaintiff, as her heir, was entitled to it on her death. Held that the onus was on plaintiff to prove this title; and that even if he proved that A purchased the property with her own money, it did not follow that the purchase was —. See 150 (affirmed by P. C.) 15 W. R. 2, 7, 15.

3. A conveyance executed between near relations, though registered (the possession remaining with the original owner of the estate), will be regarded as a mere transaction and in fraud of creditors, unless bona fides be proved. 1 W. R. 217, 6 W. R. 310. See also 7 W. R. 275, 12 W. R. 236.

4. S. 260 Act VIII refers only to suits between a benamieedal and the beneficial owner, and not to cases where a gross fraud has been practised upon a third party. — 1 W. R. 328. See 8 W. R. 130.

5. Effect of purchase at a sale where owner and his heir were parties to the fraud. — 3 W. R. 10.

6. A sale of property in execution of a decree will not save it from re-sale in satisfaction of the decree. — 3 W. R., Mix. 4.

7. Circular Order of 29 July 1808 was intended to discourage the institution of suits under fictitious names, but is not applicable to a case in which the suit was dismissed on the ground that the property in question belonged to a third party who distinctly repudiated all interest therein. — 4 W. R. 102.

8. Parties who permit another to represent himself as the proprietors of their estate and thus induce others to lend money, are not entitled to consideration from a Court of equity and good conscience. — 3 W. R. 57.

9. Where the manager of a joint family party purchases, the presumption is that the property so purchased is held by him for the benefit of the joint family. — 5 W. R. 154.

10. — transactions are a custom of the country, and must be recognised till otherwise ordered by law. — 7 W. R. 138. But see 10 W. R. 220.

11. Before shutting out a decree-holder who has taken by assignation on the ground that he is a mere — holder from one of the judgment-debtors, it is necessary to be very careful and to ascertain beyond a doubt that the fact is so. — 8 W. R. 26.

12. The habit of holding land, though in vesteater in India, does not justify the Courts in making every presumption against apparent purchase. — (P. C.) 8 W. R., P. C., 3.

13. A suit to recover property purchased by a naked from a client — for another, and never made over to the onus liable purchaser, cannot be maintained in the name of such astenible purchaser. — 10 W. R. 469. See also 19 W. R. 434.

14. A purchaser of immovable property sold in execution of a decree, having obtained a certificate under s. 259 Act XVII, and having instituted a suit to recover possession of the property purchased by ejecting the person who was in possession, — Held that the latter (the defendant in the suit), unless he was in possession under circumstances which amounted to a transfer to him of the title which the plaintiff derived from the purchase, was barred not simply by s. 250, but by the general provisions of the Act, from pleading that although plaintiff in the certified purchaser, he did not purchase on his own behalf, but on behalf of defendant. — (P. B.) 11 W. R., F. B., 16.

See 14 W. R. 111, 179. The same rule applied to a case under s. 21 Act I of 1845. — 14 W. R. 10. See 14 W. R. 972. The above P. B. ruling was reversed by the P. C. — 18 W. R. 157.
26. It is a principle of natural equity, which cannot be universally applicable, that where one man allows another to hold himself out as the owner of an estate, and a third person purchases it for value from the apparent owner in whose name it is held, the man whose property it is, the other to hold himself out shall not be permitted to recover upon his secret title, unless he can overthrow that of the purchaser by showing either that he had direct notice, or something which amounts to constructive notice, of the real title, or that there existed circumstances which ought to have put him upon enquiry.—(P.C.) 18 W. R. 166. See also 25 W. R. 583.

27. S. 260 Act VIII was designed to check the practice of making purchases at auction sales, but cannot be taken to affect the rights of members of a joint Hindu family, who, by the operation of law, are entitled to treat as part of their common property an acquisition, however made, by a member in his sole name, if made by the use of the family funds.—(P.C.) 19 W. R. 356.

28. To make out a title to property, it is not sufficient that the party for whom, or in whose name, the claimant alleges that he bought the property, does not come forward to dispute the allegation, but it is necessary for plaintiff to establish either the alleged or a subsequent conveyance from the alleged benamidar.—21 W. R. 19.

29. If it is once established that a transaction is fraudulent, the mere fact that the deeds and proceedings involved bear the benamidar's name cannot affect the question as to who is the principal.—21 W. R. 257.

30. All the covenants made by a benamidar in the sale of a property are not necessarily binding upon the true owners; though there may be circumstances under which a person whose name does not appear upon a contract may be liable to perform its conditions.—21 W. R. 398. See (P.C.) 26 W. R. 32.

31. If a purchaser, although he may be a purchaser for value, has actual or constructive notice of a trust, he is bound by it to the same extent and in the same manner as the person from whom he purchases; and when there is a person in possession of an estate other than the nominal owner (i.e. the person in whose name the title-deed is), the purchaser is bound to enquire what is the nature of his possession; otherwise he takes subject to the rights of the person in possession.—22 W. R. 8, 159.

32. Notwithstanding s. 260 Act VIII, it is open to a party, other than the holder of the sale-certificate, to show that at the sale itself the purchase was made, on his behalf. 22 W. R. 370.

33. In a suit for possession brought by the holder of a certificate of purchase of a property sold as an estate, it is open to the real owner, if in possession (s. 260 Act VIII notwithstanding), to show that plaintiff is the apparent owner (benamidar) only and a mere trustee.—(P.C.) 23 W. R. 358.

34. A bill of sale may be collusive (i.e. —) and may still pass away the property from the party executing it.—24 W. R. 158.

35. Where property was sold nominally by benamdeors but in reality by the real owner, and the consideration was the debt due from him to the vendee, the sale was held to be perfectly legal as against the real owner, and therefore as against creditors seeking to execute their decree against him after such sale.—24 W. R. 263.

36. Where a kubala was entered into with the plaintiff by a Hindu widow as vendor and was perfectly consistent with her being benamidar, and perfectly consistent with the allegations in the plaint that her sons caused her to enter into it on their behalf, they being the real owners, the real vendees, and the persons who actually received the purchase-money, which in a given event was to be returned, — Held upon the plaint and the allegations found in it, that the plaintiff did disclose what might be a cause of action against the sons as well as the mother, and was not entitled to an adjudication of the question, whether the contract was really entered into by the mother as the agent and on behalf of the sons and by their authority, or whether the plaintiff, knowing the facts, had elected to treat the mother as the sole contracting party.—(P.C.) 20 W. R. 32.

Bond.

1. Where the vendor of certain land was jointly interested with others in the land, and being unable to give the purchaser possession of or to return the purchase-money, in case of failure or, and not as agent for any part of the amount, he gave him bonds for the amount, it was held that the vendor alone was liable upon the bonds and that his co-partners could not be joined as defendants.—1 Hay 80 (Mandani). See 3 Hay 466.

2. Plaintiffs having long ago thrown up their lien by conditional sale on a mortgage and sought to recover the money due on their bond in the ordinary way, could only recover in person, the person or the property of their debtors.—1 Hay 466.

3. A decree on a bond—can be passed upon the testimony of a single witness, whether with reference to a 15 Reg. III of 1825, or the Act of 1822, under the "true.”—1 Hay 74.

4. All payments on account of bonds are first to be credited to interest, and a 6 Reg. XV of 1798 distinctly provides for the accumulated interest not being awarded in case the party be discharged. —See 5 W. R. 265 (Lord E.).

5. A suit will lie on a bond for the purpose of securing money to be expended in carrying on law proceedings. —W. R. 83.

6. Though a bond—may be genuine and duly executed, the receipt of consideration must nevertheless be proved. —W. R. 187.

7. Where the holder of a bond—from the former proprietor of an indigo factory had made payable to him for two years, he had assigned the assignee of its existence as a debt due by the factory, he cannot come down on the present proprietors but must look to the obligor of the bond.—W. R. 187.

8. In a suit upon a bond—plaintiff may claim interest from the time the defendant discharged the amount due.—W. R. 291 (L. 75).

9. Interest on a bond is not to be limited to a sum not exceeding the amount of the bond.—W. R. 349 (L. 125), 2 W. R., N. C. C., 1 (S. C. C. 110), 11 W. R. 68.

10. A tenancy or, in modification of a lease, supercedes the kooloolant, and is an answer (and not merely a setoff) so far as it goes to a claim for rent.—W. R. 291 (Act X). 119 (S. R. P. J. 109).

11. A bond executed by a widow in possession of a certificate was held binding on the adopted son of the late widow, who having been given for debt which the adopted son had admitted his liability to pay.—(P. C.) 4 W. R., P. C. 71 (P. C. 457).

12. The act of one of two holders of a bond—cannot destroy the lien of the other on property pledged to both as security for a joint-debt.—3 W. R. 130.

13. An obligor who has under his separate lien on each and all of several mortgages pledged as security, may sell for sale whichever is likely to satisfy his claim.—8 W. R. 379.

14. There is nothing to prevent the obligee from purchasing any property so sold by him.—1 H. 6.

15. Of the "mulk and moohitar" of an indigo factory on his personal credit and the security of the entire factory, cannot be recovered from other parties found to have a share in the factory.—9 W. R. 355.

16. In a Criminal Court the execution of a bond—plaintiff sued him for the amount payable under the bond before the time specified therein for payment had arrived. — Held that the suit could not be maintained.—40 W. R. 361.

17. But where an obligor fraudulently withheld delivery of a bond—which had been executed, within a reasonable time after receipt of the money.—Held that the obligee had a right to sue for the return of the money before the time fixed for payment.—21 W. R. 443.

18. Where a person has been executed a bond for the whole sum borrowed, may sue jointly for the amount specified in the bond notwithstanding that they have separate interests in the money to be recovered.—11 W. R. 455.

19. What a person is bound to show if he wishes to charge Mahomedan ladies under a bond in their absence by another under a Mokhtarnameh.—18 W. R. 257.

20. Where, in a suit on a bond—defendant answers that the amount should be satisfied out of the purchase-money of property sold to plaintiff who claims to avoid the sale as bad.— Held that the Lower Courts were bound to try the question in this suit, and ought not to have left plaintiff to bring a new suit to try the question as to the validity of the sale.—18 W. R. 394.

21. Money lent on a mortgage—is recoverable notwithstanding there is no express condition in the mortgage to that effect, in the event of disposal by a third party. But where the money was borrowed by defendant's husband on behalf of the family with the tacit consent of the other members of the family, plaintiff was held entitled to recover only defendant's share of the debt.—20 W. R. 404.

22. In a suit on a bond—where defendant pleaded satisfaction of the bond, — Held, under a 114 Act 1 of 1872, that the — was in the hands of the obligor, who was not known to have stolen it, it was rightly presumed that the obligation had been discharged.—22 W. R. 363.

23. A suit on a bond—cannot be maintained where defendant pleads that the — though executed in the name of plaintiff, was really executed in favor of a third party, if it is found that plaintiff is not the real holder of the bond.—23 W. R. 446.

24. The fact that the money raised on a bond—used to pay a debt due by a third party does not make such third party liable to the party who executed the bond—the latter joined in the suit—the request of the third party or of some one acting under his authority.—24 W. R. R. 99.

25. In the absence of satisfactory proof of fraud or mistake, every presumption ought to be made in favor of statements contained in a bond—which was deliberately entered into and which has been acted upon for many years.—(P. C.) 25 W. R. 84.

26. Upon a bond—by five (where the contract is between Hinduos outside of Calcutta), there is nothing in the law of this country, Independently of Act IX of 1872, to prevent the obligor from asking a decree against three out of the five for their share of the debt.—25 W. R. 419.

BOUNDARY.

1. In a suit relative to a disputed — of which defendant holds possession under an Act IV, award declaring that he is to be maintained in possession until otherwise decided by the Civil Court, it is incumbent on plaintiff to give very full and satisfactory proof of his title.—1 Hay 7. See also 18 W. R., P. C. 7.

2. In a — dispute a local investigation is absolutely necessary.—Sev. 334. But see 17 W. R. 472.

3. A second suit will not lie to fix the — of a village decreed to plaintiff in a former suit,—Sev. 451.

4. A decision in a — suit decides only the question of right to possession, not of right to hold the land rent-free.—W. R. Sp. 60.

5. In a — dispute, oral evidence is quite sufficient to establish either the fact of possession or of title.—W. R. Sp. 135. See also 9 W. R. 125.

6. In a — dispute, the title of plaintiff is not ordinarily open to attack. But where plaintiff uses for property in defendant's lands on the ground of superior title, defendant has a right to call plaintiff's title in question.—W. R. Sp. 355 (L. R. 139).

7. Zemindars have no authority to alter the boundaries of their permanently settled estates. Such an arrangement has no binding effect on others.—Ib.

10. The succession by defendants in a former suit as a map is correct is legal, though not conclusive, evidence against them in a — suit.—8 W. R. 291.

11. Where there was a confusion as to the boundaries of three separate taluks, it was decreed that they should be so fixed that the produce of the land in each should bear the same proportion to the jumma payable thereon as the produce of the whole of the said lands bears to the total of the jummas payable on account of the three taluks.—9 W. R. 94.

13. In a case of — dispute, a survey map, if not conclusive evidence, is evidence of an important character.—18 W. R. 3. See also 15 W. R. 85, 444; 20 W. R. 248.

14. Where a decree directed that plaintiff should obtain possession of land according to the boundaries given in the plaint, and also specified the quantities of land of which he was to obtain possession, and it turned out that those quantities were not strictly accurate,—held that the decree should be interpreted as if it were a conveyance of land stating the boundaries and then saying that it contains so many acres; and that the plaintiff was entitled to all the land contained within the specified boundaries, the mistake as to quantities being merely a misdescription.—(P. C.) 16 W. R., P. C. 5. See also 18 W. R. 23, 20 W. R. 224.

15. An award of the Collector, under Act 1 of 1847, in respect of boundaries, is not final, even though undisturbed on appeal; nor is he competent to do more than demarcate by visible and tangible marks the boundaries between estates and fields.—16 W. R. 109.

16. Plaintiff and defendant, proprietors of two adjoining but unascertained parcels of land, being in one sense purchasers from the same vendor, although as a matter of fact the sales under which they acquired their titles were effected by the Collector, the Court, upon the special facts of the case, held plaintiff entitled to treat defendant as his vendor and to demand as against him an adjudication of a line of —, and ordered the Collector to make a butwarras accordingly.—17 W. R. 26.

17. Great weight should be given to reports of Deputy Collectors upon local investigations in dealing with — questions.—(P. C.) 17 W. R. 285.

18. Where a Court finds it difficult to execute a decree passed some years ago declaring plaintiff entitled to erect — pillars according to a certain Khasra, it may take into consideration other decrees between the same parties in explanation of the Khasra.—17 W. R. 379.

19. Where the Privy Council gave the preference to a thakbutt proceeding over the report of an Ameen, according to the ratio decidendi that, where the results of two local investigations are conflicting, the earlier was to be preferred, upon the principle that, in the interval between the two investigations, the features of the locality might have changed, and evidence of possession might have been lost.—(P. C.) 19 W. R. 361.

20. A proprietor of land has no right to bring a suit to compel his neighbours to agree to a particular line of — being marked out between his lands and theirs, when he does not venture to say that they have by any overt act transgressed that.—23 W. R. 134.

21. The decision in a former suit as to the — line between two villages is conclusive only as to the land then in dispute, but not as regards the — line itself.—23 W. R. 398.

Breach of Contract.

1. Suit may be brought before 30th October for — to stay indigo on or before that date.—S. C. C. 24.

2. Breaches of contract in two different years are different causes of action.—Ib. 80.

3. Where a landlord holds two kuboolents, one of which entitles him to damages for non-cultivation of indigo, and the other enables him to cancel the lease, he cannot for the same breach recover damages in one suit, and make void the lease in another.—Ib. 97.

4. A course of conduct by one of the parties at variance with the terms to which they had agreed, would entitle the other to put an end to the agreement, and stand upon the rights which he had independently of that document.—Ib. 11.

5. Where the parties to a contract assess by agreement the amount of damages payable in case of a — it is the duty of the Court to enforce the terms of the contract.—W. R. Sp. 354.

6. When the refusal to perform a contract can be proved by evidence which shows that a party has utterly renounced the contract or has put it out of his own power to perform it, the injured party may at his option sue at once, or wait till the time when the act was to be done. The onus probandi in such a case is on the plaintiff.—3 W. R. (S. C. C.) 14 (8. C. C. 146).

7. Case in which the majority of the Court held it to be one of — and not cheating.—4 W. R., Chr. 15.

8. In a suit for — (in this case an indigo contract) to be performed at different times, limitation will count from each — and separate damages may be recovered for each.—(F. B.) 6 W. R. (Act X) 61. See also 6 W. R. 278.

9. In a question of — between parties, a Collector cannot, on consideration of equity, substitute other terms than those agreed upon.—7 W. R. 139.

10. A plaintiff entitled to damages for — is not also entitled to specific performance, or to an injunction against further ——7 W. R. 305.

11. In a suit for — defendant may plead that plaintiff being first to break the contract cannot now sue.—Ib.

12. Coolies in Assam, who have received advances in contemplation of work to be done, may be proceeded against under Act XII of 1889.—9 W. R. Cr., 56.

13. Act XIII of 1856 relates to fraudulent — and does not apply where an advance has not only been worked off by a laborer, but an actual balance is due to him.—W. H. Cr. 52. Nor does it apply to — by domestic service.—13 W. R. Cr. 26.

14. S. 490 Penal Code does not apply to a contract to place defendant’s carts at complainant’s disposal for a specified time to convey an article from where he pleases to where he pleases.—9 W. R., Cr. 12.

15. Quares. Whether the words “during a voyage or journey” do not limit that section to offenses against navigation.—Ib.

16. A party failing to perform his contract may be sued, at the pleasure of the other party, either for specific performance or for damages.—12 W. R. 149.

17. A laborer who has received an advance on account of work to be done for four months in a year for a period of three years, may be proceeded against for — under Act XIII of 1856.—14 W. R., Cr. 29. But see 18 W. R., Cr., 83.

18. Where a pottah and kuboolent exist between two parties, and the only reason why the pottah is not operative is that the lessee does not deliver it, he cannot be allowed to take advantage of his own — and recover possession.—18 W. R. 487.

19. A — by one of the parties is a ground for an action for damages or for specific performance, but not a ground for setting aside the contract, or declaring it null and void.—(F. C.) 19 W. R. 183.

20. Where defendants agreed to retain personal possession of certain property and not to alienate, but to give plaintiffs the refusal whenever defendants had occasion to sell it, a lease of the property to others was held to be a — by defendants, and plaintiffs were declared entitled to a conveyance of the property.—54 W. Where a mortgage with a right of occupancy for agricultural purposes transfers it to another, the transferee cannot convert the land into a dwelling-house and appurtenances. — 24 W. R. 220.

8. Where a party, partly with his own funds and partly with money subscribed, erects a — for a school, but never gives the property to the school, and never acquires in the managers entering upon it, if the managers enter upon it, they do so as trespassers; if he acquires in their taking possession, he does not thereby convey the property to the subscribers, and is not bound to return the money subscribed. — 7 W. R. 178.

9. Where defendant had gone to the expense of — a wall upon land of which he was joint owner, — Held that it would not be equitable to have that wall demolished at the suit of his co-sharers without their showing that it caused any injury to them. — 18 W. R. 397 (foot-note). 16 W. R. 140 (foot-note). 21 W. R. 373 (foot-note). 22 W. R. 258. See ante. Also where defendant had built houses and turned put to one into a village; the plaintiff's remedy being to apply for a partition. — 18 W. R. 12, 21 W. R. 373, 2 P. W. R. 86.

10. In a suit for the demolition of a — built by a defendant upon land lying between the premises of the parties to the dispute, where plaintiff claimed the land as owner, and failed to establish that title, he was not allowed to fall back upon a title by prescription. — 15 W. R. 81.

11. A house built on a tenancy cannot be considered an "incumbrance" within the meaning of s. 16 of 18 of (B, C.) 15 W. R. 369.

12. A person is entitled to remove additions which he may have made to a — unless he can remove them without injuring the original. — He will at least be entitled to compensation for present value of or the expenses incurred by him in making the additions. — 15 W. R. 363.

13. A decree for the removal of a — upon his land may be given to the owner even though he has stood by and allowed the defendant to construct it, provided the — is not substantial and has not cost much, and the materials may be removed without difficulty. — 16 W. R. 181.

14. A claim to occupy a — cannot be maintained on the ground of a previous tenant's long occupancy of the land as against a landlord who has, since the death of such tenant, exercised rights of ownership over the land. — 18.

Cattle Trespass.

1. A Magistrate cannot, under s. 18 Act III of 1857, punish except for an act of forcible opposition to the seizure of cattle damage-feasant.—7 W. R. 155.

3. Neither s. 62 Act XXV of 1861 nor Act III of 1857 empowers a Magistrate to pass a general order against cattle or horses being allowed to run at large on the public roads.—12 W. R., Cr., 56, 18 W. R., Cr., 31.

4. Where a person whose cattle have been illegally dis- tained fails to take advantage of the remedy provided by s. 14 Act III of 1857, he is not thereby prohibited from bringing an action for damages.—15 W. R. 270.

5. Where there was a dispute as to the ownership of land on which the complainant’s cattle were found, the complainant stating that the land belonged to A who gave him the right to graze his cattle there, and the party charged (who had seized and impounded the cattle) claiming the land as his own.—Hold that the Magistrate, instead of referring the parties to the Civil Court, should have disposed of the case himself under s. 22 Act I of 1871. —23 W. R., Cr., 2.

Cause of Action.

1. Discretion of plaintiff to join several causes of action in one suit or to bring separate suits.—S. C. 76.

2. Breaches of contract in two different years are different causes of action.—18 P. 80.

3. Special appellant on 18th July 1855 purchased an estate at public sale. The purchaser of the decree, which sale was finally reversed, at the suit of the judgment-debtor, on 9th October 1841, and the judgment-debtor was ordered to refund the purchase-money to special appellant. Before the decree-holder got the satisfaction of his decree, a portion of the purchase-money had been credited by the Collector to arrears of revenue due by the judgment-debtor on account of other estates, and it was not till May 1854 that special appellant was informed that the Civil Court could give him no relief.—Hold that the — accrued from May 1854. —2 May 185.

4. Where a plaint discloses no. — the Court cannot decide questions connected with the merits, but must reject the plaint without summoning the defendant. The consent of the defendant cannot alter the nature of the cause and render it fit for trial. —See 566. See 12 W. R. 89.

5. In a suit for special performance of a contract to convey a portion of property expected to be decreed, the — arises from date of decree. —1 W. R. 144.

6. The right to rent on its accruing due, and not the decree for rent, is the claim. —2 W. R. 277.

7. Arrears of rent for successive years are several and distinct causes of action.—2 W. R. (Act X) 81 (4 R. J. P. J. 68), 17 W. R. 380.

8. Different suits may be brought on different causes of action although the object to be gained may be the same.—4 W. R. 2.

9. The non-payment of the arrears of rent decreed in a summary suit gives the — to a regular suit under s. 18 Reg. VIII of 1819.—4 W. R. 99.

10. The order of a Special Commissioner under Reg. III of 1838, declining for want of jurisdiction to entertain an objection to a certain remuneration proceeding between the Government and a third party, cannot substi- tute a — either against the Government or against the third party. —7 W. R. 372.

11. Each alienation by a minor’s guardian constitutes a distinct — and a suit which combines several of them in one plaint ought not to be entertained. —8 W. R. 366.

12. Where once the — is matured, the subsequent occurrence of further damage after or before adjudication of the original matter does not originate a fresh —. —9 W. R. 121.

13. Where a plaint discloses no — as regards one of the plaintiffs, no decree can be passed in favor of that plaintiff.—10 W. R. 49.

14. Where a party purchasing a portion of a puttee is unable to get possession and sues the rent for rent under Act X, the plaint is bad as against the rent, but it discloses a — against the landlord. —10 W. R. 269.

15. Where the entire sum due on a bond with penal interest to date of decree has been recovered, the — of the widow of one of the judgment-creditors to his share under the decree has fully accrued. —10 W. R. 397.

16. The repudiation of a tenant’s title by his landlord can only form one — however often that repudiation is repeated. —13 W. R. 64.

17. It is not the title, but the infringement of it, which constitutes the —; and two suits are not necessarily brought upon the same — merely because the title relied on in both cases is one and the same.—13 W. R. 196.

18. Where plaintiff alleged that certain properties, which he sued to have declared liable for the amount of certain decrees, passed intact to his judgment-debtor’s admitted representative, the other defendants being men of straw.—Hold that plaintiff had in reality but one — against one party.—13 W. R. 271.

19. In a suit to recover money due upon a bond, brought by the representatives of the original bond-holder against a party to whom the obligor’s estate has descended by inheritance, the — was held to have accrued from the time when the debt became due under the terms of the bond.—18 W. R. 313.

20. The words — within the meaning of cl. 12 of the High Court’s Charter mean not merely the right of the plaintiff and the infraction of it by the defendant, but include the facts out of which the plaintiff’s right arises.—16 W. R. (G. J.) 16.

21. In a suit to recover possession of lands which, after purchase by plaintiff, had been exchanged by the vendor with other lands, plaintiff’s complaint being that he had been dispossessed of these other lands.—Hold that the — arose when he was deprived of the lands last mentioned. —16 W. R. 270.

22. A compromise by which a lessee relinquishes the land, and to which the owner is no party, creates no — on the part of the owner or of any person holding under him. —17 W. R. 377.

23. The words — in s. 2 Act VIII are to be construed with reference rather to the substance than to the form of an auction.—(P. C.) 20 W. R. 377, 25 W. R. 1. See also 25 W. R. 225.

24. A suit will not lie for damages apart from the — out of which the damages arise.—21 W. R. 154.

25. The words — in s. 2 Act VIII need not be interpreted as meaning the whole. —23 W. R. 63.

26. A Court of Appeal ought not to dismiss a suit upon the ground that the plaint discloses no —, where, in the course of the trial in the first Court, a — was sufficiently established, although not put forward in the plaint.—25 W. R. 204.

Certificate.

1. When to be granted under s. 11 Act XII of 1860.—S. C. 55.
3. Where a widow’s right to a — in respect of her deceased husband’s estate was preferred to the claim of those who brought forward a will by which the husband’s property could not devolve on her. —1 Hay 102.
4. Where a Judge struck off an application for a — under Act XX of 1841 more expeditiously than the practice of the Civil Courts warranted, the case was remanded to him for re-trial. —1 Hay 290.
5. The intention of Act XXVI of 1860 in allowing the grant of a — was not to decide doubtful questions of inheritance, but to supply means for bonâ fide collecting debts actually existing, and necessity for it must be shown. —2 Hay 229. See 1 W. R. 10, 15 W. R. 355, 17 W. R. 174, 193, 21 W. R. 24, 22 W. R. 102.
6. The object of Act XXVI of 1860 is to facilitate the collection of debts on successions, and for the security of persons paying debts to the representatives of deceased persons. Questions arising between various claimants of the property of the deceased must be duly determined, but mean while a — under the Act should be granted to any person deemed by the Court entitled to claim it, and the Court may take security from the person so appointed. —3 Hay 300.
7. When heirs are at variance, the — may be granted to the heirs to the greater share of the property. —2 Hay 301.
8. The rule is s. 3 Act XI of 1868, which declares that no one can institute or defend any suit connected with the estate of which he claims the charge until he shall have obtained a —, is one that ought not to be relaxed. —1 R. J. P. 118 (Sect. 191). See 14 W. R. 453.
9. Under the discretionary power given by s. 3 Act XI of 1858, the natural guardian of a minor, a mother, being also a co-plaintiff in her own right, may be permitted to carry on a suit on the part of the minor till a — can be regularly obtained. No money need be paid under a decree obtained in such suit till grant of one — and if any one else is constituted guardian, his concurrence will be necessary to carrying on the suit on behalf of the minor. —See 847.
10. The effect of an order under Act XX of 1841 is not to establish a will incontestably against the whole world, or prevent a will from being impeached in a suit if set up to defeat the rights of parties claiming under the Law of Inheritance. A daughter, claiming as head of law, may sue in the Civil Court within 12 years from the death of her father, to establish her title to possession of land left by him, and to set aside an adverse will, upon which a — was granted under Act XX of 1841. —W. R. 847.
So also as regards a decision under Act XXVI of 1860. —16 W. R. 214, 18 W. R. 255.
11. The executor under a will, if it be not contested, has an undisputed right to a — under Act XXVI of 1860, though he is not the legal heir. If the will be contested, the Judge should enquire into its validity; and if he consider it proved, give a —, leaving the parties dissatisfied to set it aside by a regular suit. —W. R. 847, 848.
12. Where a claim was made under a will to collect the debts of a deceased Mathomedan under Act XXVI of 1860, and no necessity for collecting debts was shown, and the inheritance was disputed, the Judge was held right in refusing to give a — under that Act. —W. R. 847, 848.
of 1860 to collect debts due to her deceased daughter, in preference to the husband of the deceased; but such cannot authorize the husband's interference with the mother's possession of the landed property which she claims as her own.—5 W. R., Mis. 18.
50. A Judge can, under s. 8 and s. 21 Act XXVII of 1860, empower the holders of a — under that Act to negotiate a Government security mentioned in the will.—8 W. B. W. 16.
51. Without a — under Act XI of 1858, a Court may refuse to hear even a natural guardian of rights; but where the Court in the exercise of the discretion vested in it, does hear him, the absence of the — will not vitiate the proceedings.—4 W. R. 71.
52. Nor does the law vitiate the private acts of such a natural guardian.—19.
53. Before grant of — to a widow as heir, the claim of parties under a tulkurudomnaak should be enquired into.—
4 W. R., Mis. 19.
54. A — may be granted to a widow, as guardian of her mother’s son, to collect her husband’s debts, notwithstanding that the husband's adoption had been set aside.—5 W. R., Mis. 10.
55. Upon an application for a — under Act XVIII of 1860, the Judge ought to ascertain whether the applicant or any one else had a right to the — ought to and to grant the same accordingly.—5 W. R., Mis. 20; 9 W. B. 502.
56. Cancellation of a — under Act XXVII of 1860 when not a matter for decision in the Summary Department.—
5 W. R., Mis. 48.
57. S. 6 of the same Act contemplates the application for cancellation to be made to the High Court and not to the Zillah Court.—2. See sec 9 W. B. 894, 11 W. B. 153.
58. According to Hindoo law, the chola succeeds to, and, as such, is entitled to a — entitling him to collect the debs of a deceased Mogul.—5 W. R., Mis. 85; 9 W. B. 64.
59. A widow was held entitled to a — under Act XXVII of 1860 to collect the debts of her deceased husband, in preference to his nephew who was separate in food, residence, and estate from his uncle at the time of the latter's death.—6 W. R. 139. See 13 W. B. 199, 468; 14 W. R. 415.
60. In a suit for rent by a devisee under a will, it is not necessary for him to obtain a — .—(F. R.) 6 W. R. (Act X) 71.
61. A mother is entitled to a — of administration, under Act XI of 1858, to the estate of her minor son, with a view to bringing a suit to recover the estate of his deceased grandfather. Difference between Act XI of 1858 and Act XXVII of 1860, explained.—6 W. R., Mis. 23. See also 23 W. R. 300.
62. Where two Hindoo widows who, in order to realize the amount of a decree which they had obtained as guardians of their step-son, applied for a — under Act XXVII of 1860, and their application was opposed by the husband's step-brother on the ground that they were entitled only to maintenance, it was held that the first thing to be proved was whether the son had a separate estate, and was not in joint possession with his father's step-brother; and that the fact of the decree being in the names of the widows did not prove separate possession.—6 W. R., Mis. 32.
63. No one claiming to be entitled to the effects of a decreed person, can enforce the payment of a debt due to the deceased without a decree of dissolution of a — under Act XXVII of 1860.—6 W. R., Mis. 34.
64. Where a minor claimed an estate as adopted son, a — appointing a guardian under Act XI of 1858 will not, until his adoption be proved, entitle the minor or his guardian to interfere with the possession of the estate by the deceased’s widow who denied the adoption and claimed the estate as heir.—6 W. R., Mis. 46. See also 7 W. B. 402; 13 W. R. 278.
65. An administrator holding under s. 7 Act XI of 1858 is not bound to file in Court periodical accounts of monies realized and disbursed on account of the minor.
Any application for the removal of such manager under s. 21 must be supported by proof of malversation or misconduct.—6 W. R., Mis. 63. See also (F. R.)
7 W. R. 822; 23 W. R. 278.
66. More inaccuracy of language or misdescription will not vitiate a will — or defeat the rights of the adminis-

47. Under s. 21 Act XI of 1868, a — granted under s. 7 can be recalled summarily under any circumstances, and also without any account having been previously taken in a regular suit under s. 18. — F. B. 7 W. R. 252. See also 9 W. R. 555, 14 W. R. 465, 28 W. R. 278.

48. A — under Act XXVII of 1860 authorises the holder of the debt due to the person to which the property which belonged to the deceased from a person wrongly in possession. — 8 W. R. 1. See also 9 W. R. Cr., 18; 18 W. R., Cr., 54.

49. Where an application is made for a — under Act XXVII of 1860, the Judge ought not to enquire whether any debts are due and whether or not they are barred by limitation, but simply to determine the right to the — and if there is such a right, to grant the. — 8 W. R. 12, 871. See also 9 W. R. 240, 10 W. R. 4, 18 W. R. 371, 24 W. R. 211.

But the — should be granted only when it is shown that the application is made bona fide, in other words, that there are debtors of the deceased; and a person in whose hands are the surplus sale proceeds of a property belonging to the deceased, is a debtor within the meaning of s. 2. — 8 W. R. 25.

50. When a Hindu female applies for a — under Act XL of 1868 in respect of an estate which she alleges to belong to an adopted son, the Judge ought merely to enquire whether the petition is true and whether the petitioner, being a near relative, is a fit person to be entrusted with the charge of the minor's property. — 8 W. R. 25.

51. Nephews appointed by will to manage testator's property, should not in their own right and partly as guardians of a minor son, be entitled to one — under Act XXVII of 1860 to collect the debts of the whole estate, and to another — under Act XL of 1868 to take charge of the minors estate. — 8 W. R. 104.

52. Act XXVII of 1860 provides no appeal from the order of a Zillah Court as to the form of. — 8 W. R. 376.

Nor any appeal except as to the grant of a —. — 24 W. R. 369.

Nor as to the amount of security demanded from the applicant. — 17 W. R. 596.

But an appeal lies from the result of an inquiry, or order to make an inquiry, under the Act. — 9 W. R. 312.

34. That an application should be rejected from home for minor's affairs affords no presumption among Hindus that he is dead, so as to entitle his wife to apply for a — under Act XXVII of 1860. — 9 W. R. 342.

54. Act XI of 1868 comprises the case of all minors not under the Court of Wards and not being European British subjects, and acts irrespective of the Mahommedan law, which can be no guide to the Civil Court in determining whether an applicant should or should not have a — of administration. — 9 W. R. 334.

55. S. 7 Act XI looks as much to the fitness of the relative as to his propinquity; and when two relatives claim the right to administer, the Court is at liberty to disregard the latter qualification and look to the former. — 16. See also 9 W. R. 345.

56. The law prescribes no limitation as to the time within which an application should be made for a — under Act XI of 1868. — 9 W. R. 342.

57. Where the will propounded by an applicant is a genuine document, the — prayed for must be granted notwithstanding the existence of any natural guardian, s. 7 Act XI leaving no discretion to the Court in such cases. — 16. See also 17 W. R. 99.

58. When an application is made for a — under the same section asserting certain rights adversely to the minor must proceed by a regular suit. — 16.

59. A — under s. 3 Act XI must contain no specification of the extent or nature of the property to which the minor has a right. — 12 W. R. 490.

60. It is purely an authority for the administration of property and ought never to be issued where there is neither present right to possession nor even a vested right to future possession. — 9 W. R. 393.

62. There is no particular form prescribed for the — to be sent under Act VIII by a Court from the execution of a decree by another. — 10 W. R. 187.

63. A — granted under Act XI of 1868 gives the right to collect the debts due to the estate; but if the debtor objects to pay the debt, that right cannot be enforced in Court without a — under Act XXVII of 1860. — 10 W. R. 462.

64. Where an applicant for a — under Act XXVII of 1860 is opposed by a party claiming under a will, the judge is bound to determine which of the claimants is entitled to the —. — 16.

65. Where an applicant for a — is entitled to a share, the smallness of her share will not bar her from getting a — enjoining her to collect according to the share.

66. A Judge ought not to grant a — of representation to a party producing a will without being satisfied that the will is genuine. — 11 W. R. 171.

67. Where the widow of a proprietor, who had separated from his brother (the objector) applies for a — under Act XXVII of 1860 on the ground of right of inheritances and a will, it is sufficient, for the purposes of the Act, to decide whether the estates of the brothers were joint or separate when applicant's husband died. — 11 W. R. 341.

68. Where an application for a — under Act XXVII of 1860 is opposed by one claiming to be the legal heir and alleging that the will is spurious, the only point to be determined is the validity of the will. — 11 W. R. 388. See also 12 W. R. 454, 15 W. R. 174, 24 W. R. 277.

69. A stranger may be appointed by will to succeed to the trust of wagf property, the legal heir succeeding to private property, and each may have a — to collect his respective debts. — 9b.

70. If there are several applicants for a — under Act XXVII of 1860, the heir or person having the largest interest is entitled to it, and the Court may require him to give security for any small interest not sufficiently protected. — 12 W. R. 36, 19 W. R. 143.

71. Only persons claiming a right to have charge of property in trust for a minor have a right to make applications under Act XI of 1866, and they only can appeal under s. 28; a mere creditor having no locus standi. — 12 W. R. 101. See 13 W. R. 256.

72. The summary enquiry provided in s. 6 refers to the grant of — to parties claiming it; but the Act does not allow third parties to demand enquiry into matters having nothing to do with the genuineness of the trust. — 16.

73. There is nothing to prevent the grant of a — under Act XI of 1868 and one under Act XXVII of 1860 to the grandmother of minors during the father's lifetime. — 12 W. R. 119.

74. The circumstances of a party on the day of his death informing a debtor of his that he has given all his moneys to him to his mother-in-law is sufficient indication that she is the proper person to receive the — under Act XXVII of 1860. — 12 W. R. 239.

75. Procedure in granting fresh — under the same Act as in supersession of a former. — 16. See 2 ante.

76. A nephew adopted according to the kurumga form is entitled to a — under Act XXVII of 1860, in granting which the Judge must look as well to fitness as to propinquity. — 12 W. R. 866.

77. Where an application is made under Act XXVII of 1860 on the allegation that there are, debts due to deceased's estate, and the allegation is not denied, the Judge is bound to hear the petition. — 19 W. R. 260.

78. An order recalling a — under Act XI of 1868, though professedly made under s. 12, is really made under s. 21—12 W. R. 248.

79. Where a Judge cancels his own order and appoints the Collector to take charge of a minor's estate, a friend of the minor may on his behalf appeal under s. 28 Act XI of 1868. — 18 W. R. 256.

80. Where an application for a — under Act XXVII of 1860 has been transferred by the High Court under s. 19 Act XVI of 1866 from the file of a Judge to that of a Subordinate Judge, the order of the latter is appealable to the Judge, and only specially appealable to the High Court. — 13 W. R. 595.
80. It is the duty of the Judge to enquire into the truth of the charges of immorality brought against the holder of a — under Act XL of 1858—13 W. R. 464. If the person entitled to a — under Act XXVII of 1860 enabling him to collect the debts due to the estate of a deceased ascetic or devotee must be the disciple or spiritual brother or preceptor of the deceased, even though he be mentally incapable of succeeding to the office of the deceased, then Act XXVII of 1860 must be liable for the breach of contract. —18 W. R. 486.

82. Revocation of — under Act XXVII of 1860 on the ground that the Judge had no jurisdiction to grant it, insomuch as the deceased at the time of his death was not residing within the jurisdiction of the Zillah. —14 W. R. 464.

83. Object of taking security from the holder of a — under s. 5 Act XXVII of 1860, and power of Zillah Judge of his own motion to release security taken by order of High Court. —15 W. R. 106.

84. Where a compromise was effected among the members of a joint Hindu family and they severally took seven shares of the total death wealth of one of them his adopted son with the consent of his widow, was held entitled to a — of administration in preference to the other members. —15 W. R. 153.

85. An order of a Judge under Act XL of 1858 is rightly given to the guardian of an adopted minor where there is no doubt of the fact of adoption; an objector on the ground of illegal adoption, not claiming to be guardian, has no locus standi. —16 W. R. 266.

86. A nephew (brother’s son) is entitled to a — of administration in preference to a deceased son’s daughter. —15 W. R. 328.

87. An order made under s. 21 Act XL of 1858, whether it withdraws or not a — granted under that law, is appealable under s. 28. —15 W. R. 192. See contra 22 W. R. 179.

88. Where there was evidence of the deceased having reserved to himself a portion of his property in his life-time, the same was held not a — of a joint Hindu family, or to a — under Act XL of 1858, though he may have a — of guardianship. —17 W. R. 257.

89. A — under Act XXVII of 1860 cannot be limited to particular debts but must be general, as for debts due to the whole of the estate. —17 W. R. 271.

90. In granting to a party a — under Act that to collect the debts due to the deceased, the Judge was held to have acted rightly in joining with him another person who had an interest in those debts. —17 W. R. 273.

91. The marriage of a minor is not a sufficient cause within the meaning of s. 21 Act XL of 1858 for withdrawing a —, without neglect of duty or the like. —17 W. R. 276.

92. The word “residence” in s. 5 Act XL of 1858 is not where the minor may be dwelling when the application for a — is made, but the family house where every member usually resides, though circumstances may arise in which it may be taken to mean otherwise. —17 W. R. 279.

93. The object of a — under Act XXVII of 1860 is to call the parties who represent the deceased to realize debts due to the deceased at the time of his death, and not to recover fresh claims which may accrue subsequently to his death and which may be due to other parties. —17 W. R. 343, 82 VII. 102.

94. An order of a Judge under Act XXVII of 1860 should be issued directly it’s granted, provided the proper stamp prescribed for such — be furnished. —17 W. R. 349.

95. A full sister’s son in possession was held entitled to a — under Act XXVII of 1860 in preference to the half-brother. —17 W. R. 562.

96. A — was awarded under s. 21 Act XL of 1858 in a case where the guardian without sufficient cause withdrew an appeal. —18 W. R. 469.

97. A — was cancelled under s. 21 Act XI of 1858 in a case where the guardian without sufficient cause withdrew an appeal. —18 W. R. 480.

98. The High Court, under s. 6 Act XXVII of 1860, sustaining an order of the Zillah Judge in a case where the list of debts due to the estate of the deceased had been filed—18 W. R. 580.

99. If it is not necessary, as a general rule, that a list of debts should be filed before a — can be granted under the Act—20 W. R. 412. See also 24 W. R. 393.

100. Where notice has been issued and the petitioner (who now claimed under a will) did not appear and object to the grant of a — under Act XXVII of 1860 to the widow of the deceased, the Judge was held to have been right in referring the petitioner to a regular suit. —19 W. R. 232.

101. Section 284 Act VIII does not restrict the granting of a — transferring a decree for execution to another Court, to cases where such decree could only be executed within the jurisdiction of the Court whose duty it is to execute the same. —19 W. R. 286.

102. The powers given by ss. 10, 11, and 12 Act XI of 1858 only apply to the happening of the contingency mentioned in s. 9, and the mere fact that a near relative who desires to have the charge of the property is purumvadak is not of itself a disqualification such as would take away the right to claim under s. 7. —19 W. R. 293.

103. Although no title is judicially determined as the result of an enquiry under Act XXVII of 1860, yet the Court is bound under the Act to give the — to the person who makes out a title, and for that purpose, if the facts are not agreed as to the facts, to try the issues in the ordinary way by the aid of evidence. —20 W. R. 476.

104. Where a widowed daughter, claiming under a will which was not disputed, applied for a — under Act XXVII of 1860, the Judge was held right in granting the application. —21 W. R. 21.

105. A widow who is admiringly the heir of the deceased, claiming under a will executed by her husband, is a proper person to obtain a — under Act XXVII of 1860, notwithstanding the objection of a person alleging himself to be the adopted son of the deceased. —21 W. R. 31.

106. A District Judge was held to have rightly refused a — under Act XXVII of 1860 for the collection of the debts, not of the Mohunt, but of the endowment itself. —21 W. R. 310.

107. Where an estate is sold, subsequent to the death of the owner, for arrears of revenue, the sale proceeds being payable to the estate of the deceased, there is nothing to prevent the Judge from entertaining the widow’s application under Act XXVII of 1860 for a —. —22 W. R. 46. See 24 W. R. 203.

108. Where a — under Act XXVII of 1860 for a moiety of the estate of the deceased was granted to each of two joint holders, one of the half being the husband and the other the father of the High Court, on the appeal of the latter who possessed the title-deeds and had performed the shrad, ordered the — for the whole estate to be given to him. —22 W. R. 274.

109. A suit may be maintained for a declaration of title, which may be used as a means for the withdrawal of a — under Act XXVII of 1860. —22 W. R. 301.

110. The decision of a Court granting a — under Act XXVII of 1860 is conclusive as to the right of the — and the remedy of any person affected by the — lies in a regular suit to recover any sum received by virtue of that declaration. —22 W. R. 412.

111. Where a — had been granted to the personal representative of a deceased seer or deputer property, who set up no claim to the property, and the manager of the — deputer property on behalf of the surviving seer brought a suit against the — holder for a declaration under s. 15 Act VIII, the District Judge was held to have done right in refusing the declaration. —22 W. R. 529.

112. When the applicant for a — under Act XXVII of 1860 was the husband as well as the co-holder of the deceased, —held that the — ought to have been granted to him alone, and not jointly with another co-holder who opposed the application. —23 W. R. 293.

113. A — under Act XXVII of 1860 cannot be refused merely because the deceased was a member of a joint Hindu family. Ordinarily the managing member would be the person best entitled to the — but this would not be the case where the members had fallen out.— 23 W. R. 234.

114. The grant of a — under Act XXVII of 1860 on the title afforded by a will, which gives the grantee the estate in respect of which the debts incurred, does not establish a right as executor or legatee within the meaning of s. 187 Act X of 1865.— 23 W. R. 252.

115. The receipt of money under a — under Act XXVII of 1860 does not give a title to the money; the holder only becoming trustee for the person to whom the money belongs.— 23 W. R. 270.

116. An application for a — under Act XI of 1858 need not refer to the estate of the deceased, but ought merely to set forth that there is property to which the minor is entitled and of which the applicant claims the right to have charge.— 23 W. R. 346.

117. According to the Mitacleshara law, a person who is seventh in descent from a common ancestor through the female line and therefore not a bundhow, is a stranger to the family and therefore not entitled to a — under Act XXVII of 1860.— 23 W. R. 384.

118. The appeal contemplated by s. 6 Act XXVII of 1860, like the claim or opposition under s. 3, should be limited to persons who are in conflict with the original petitioner in claiming the —; the word "title" in both sections meaning merely the title or right to the — 24 W. R. 92.

119. The finding of a Judge as to the making of a will under which a — under Act XXVII of 1860 is claimed, is ultra vires when the will is impugned by a person not claiming the — 7b.

120. When the question of granting a — under Act XXVII of 1860 is dealt with by the Court with all the available evidence before it in a regular suit, and the matter of the — is decided upon after full deliberation, the position of the parties becomes very different from what it is at the conclusion of a summary proceeding. Technically, there may still be the right to bring a regular suit; but the regular suit in such a case is a re-hearing, and the Court is bound to pay due respect to the judgment already arrived at.— 24 W. R. 173.

121. On an application by a second wife for a — under Act XXVII of 1860, where applicant's title was based upon a will to which the signatures of the witnesses were found to have been affixed previously to that of the testator.— Held that though the document was inoperative as a will, yet inasmuch as it expressed fully the testator's wishes regarding the management of his affairs, and was very distinct as to the confidence reposed in the applicant, she was the proper person to have the —24 W. R. 722.

122. A — of administration ought not to be granted without its being proved that there are debts to be collected, and that the person to whom the — is to be granted has the best right to collect them.— 24 W. R. 463.

123. Where s. — of administration was granted to certain applicants who asked it with reference to a particular debt due under a bond which they put in, and showed that they were joint in estate with the deceased, the — was held rightly granted to them rather than to another member of the family who had separated from the deceased.— 25 W. R. 314.

124. The fact of an applicant being the widow of the deceased, and his heir, was held not of itself to constitute any reason why a — of administration should be granted to her twenty years after his death, in the absence of anything to show the existence of debts or assets belonging to the estate.— 25 W. 5. In a suit to recover possession of land as an accretion, if plaintiff proved that the land is an accretion to his estate, the defendant cannot, under cl. 1 and 3 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825, contend that the land is an island unless he can show 12 years' possession.—2 Hay 506.

6. The mere fact of land having accreted on plaintiff's side of a river, which is not found to be the boundary between plaintiff's and defendant's estates, is prima facie proof of title under Reg. XI of 1825.—2 Hay 377.

7. Belonging to a land grantee, under cl. 1 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825, subject to the same liability as to rent as the original tenure itself.—2 Hay 516, 6 W. R. (Act X) 48.

8. The distinction drawn by the law of England and the Roman law between land gained by the sea and that gained by the sudden advance or recession of a river, is preserved by Reg. XI of 1825.—2 Hay 541.

9. Cl. 1 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825 applies to all cases of gradual formations of new lands, whether re-formations on old sites or not, and irrespective of any previous loss of land.—Siv. 88.

10. A church, especially one which has a river on three sides, and is a shifting piece of property, possession is only prima facie evidence of title, so long as the church is possessed by the claimant; but if he allows the property to slip away into the possession of another party, he cannot shift the burden of proof from his own shoulders to those of the other party merely because he, the claimant, at a former period, was held to be in possession by a Court competent only to decide on the fact of possession.—14 B. C. 27.

11. The words "at the disposal of the Government" in cl. 3 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825 mean that the property in and absolute right of disposal of the land is vested in the Government, and not that the Government has merely the right to the revenue.—W. R. Sp. 73.

12. If a river merely changes its course, the dry land becomes private property, the owner of which is entitled to all ponds or damares in which water remains, and which communicates with the river only in floods; and he can claim a settlement with Government in respect of any takings from the same.—W. R. Sp. 108.

13. Reg. XI of 1825 recognises only one mode of determining the claims of parties to accreted lands, i.e., to regard the land as the right of that party to whose estat6 it is an accretion, and not to decide and appropriate the accreted land according to the extent of each party's loss by diluvion.—W. R. Sp. 149, 6 W. R. 249.

14. Government does not lose its rights to resumed lands when re-formed river rises beyond site, nor is it obliged to institute wholly new proceedings. Diluvion does not create any new right.—W. R. Sp. 273 (L. R. 56).

15. A reformed chur, which had formerly formed on the bank of a river, may sometime after be removed beyond the river, becoming fordable between it and A's estate.—W. R. Sp. 302 (L. R. 83).

19. Land gained by the gradual recession of a river and added to it, is in the property of the property holder of the river, not of the river itself, becoming fordable between it and A's estate.—W. R. Sp. 302 (L. R. 83).}

flowed over the original site, and receding left the new formation and a fordable channel between it and B's property, B is entitled to retain possession.—W. R. 54, 189, 306 (L. R. 56).

20. The owner of land before it is inundated remains the owner of it while it is covered with water and after it becomes dry.—(P. C.) 7 W. R. B. 67, (P. C.) 18 W. R. 4. See also 14 W. R. B. 11; (P. C.) 18 W. R. 4.

31. The law gives an interest to a tenant or under-tenant in possession without reference to the nature of his title.—1 W. R. 113. See 8 W. R. 164.

32. Even though he be only a tenant-at-will, the tenant, so far as his right of accretion by which a ryot can claim under the law of the country.—24 W. R. 404.

33. The holder of a lakheraj tenure may claim gradual accretions to the tenancy as his property.—1 W. R. 124.

34. Accretions to an estate on one side of a river cannot be claimed as belonging to an estate on the opposite bank.—1 W. R. 173.

35. In a suit to recover possession of re-formed chur land as part of plaintiff's kisumi, the question for consideration is, not where the land re-formed and who took possession of it, but who was the owner of the kisumi.—2 W. R. 10.

36. If a chur be surrounded by water fordable at any point, the owner of the land to which the chur adjoins has a prima facie title to it under cl. 3 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825. The status of the land at re-survey, not on first formation is to be looked to under Act X of 1842.—2 W. R. Sp. 244; (approved by P. C.) 14 W. R. B. 25; and see 13 W. R. 366.

37. Claims for re-formed lands under cl. 3 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825 are not inferior to claims for newly accreted lands adjoining both main lands, under cl. 1 s. 3 or under s. 5.—2 W. R. 132.

38. When chur land is claimed as reformation, independent evidence is necessary of the fact of diluvion and reformation on the original site, and of prior occupation and right.—2 W. R. 293.

39. More priority of occupation of a chur does not warrant the presumption that the land which, before diluvion, was on the same site as the chur now is, belonged to A's ancestor.—2 W. R. 281.

40. The party to whose lands new formations gradually accrete, is entitled to them, though he may not have lost any lands, and though the accretion may have been caused by the washing away of the lands of another person.—2 W. R. 293 (4 R. J. J. P. 309).

41. According to cl. 1 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825 all gradual accretions from the reces6 of a river or the sea are an increment to the estate to which they are annexed without regard to the site of the increment. More proof of identity of site (without proof of ownership) is not necessary to defeat the right by accretion which the law gives to an adjacent owner.—(P. C.) 3 W. R. G. 31 (4 R. J. J. P. 439), 6 W. R. 40, 11 W. R. 189. See also 7 W. R. 103; 8 W. R. 164, 206; 14 W. R. 164. (Disapproved by P. C.) 14 W. R. B. 11; (P. C.) 25 W. R. 242.

42. Re-formation on an old site is not sufficient to establish a claim under Reg. XI of 1825; but re-formations are governed by cl. 1 and 3 s. 1, and a claim to hold under s. 5.—3 W. R. 53; 5 W. R. 55. See 7 W. R. 103.

43. What is not a "fordable" stream within the meaning of cl. 3 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825,—3 W. R. 94, 219; 11 W. R. 352. See also 17 W. R. 73.

44. An accretion to a chur belongs to the owner of the chur whether the channel between the main land and the chur is fordable or not.—3 W. R. 122. See also 9 W. R. 401.

45. A strip of land which, in the dry season only, is left dry between the permanent bank and the river, and which has private property until the river rises beyond it, is not fordable by the high-water mark, so as to become fit for cultivation; and where it does so rise, the public will be entitled to the same access to the river as before.—1 W. R. 41.

46. Right to water stored in the owner of the bed of the river, and when the riparian owner, according to cl. 4 or cl. 1 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825.—4 W. R. 54. See also 10 W. R. 68, 11 W. R. 114, 24 W. R. 317.

47. The law of 1825 refutes only to under-tenants intermediate between the zamindar and the ryot, and to

Consequently other tyrants who possess some permanent interest in the land, and not to tenants from year to year.
—4 W. R. 57.

37. Act IX of 1847 refers to re-surveys and assessments by government as such; it does not interfere with the rights of Government as seminar under Reg. XI of 1825.
—4 W. R. 59.

38. The survey was intended to apply only to a subject which was granted from the Crown to the Carboner in right of the high sheriff and in respect of the land, and not to land seemingly granted from another proprietor by the concession of a river's course. See 23 R. 38.

39. An irjara is not entitled to accruals of an older date, except in farma. See 4 W. R. 65.

40. Land separated from an estate by a shallow fordable stream, is not dissociated from that estate by that circumstance alone, but is an accrual to the estate of the riparian proprietor, the intervening water notwithstanding.
—5 W. R. 55.

41. Where the Government does not take possession of a chur, and the river between it and the shore becomes fordable, the land formed by the recession of the river is an increment to the tenure of the person holding the land most contiguous to it. —5 W. R. 283.

42. When the Government seizes for alluvial land as an ordinary riparian increment, it is bound to prove, under cl. 4 Act XI of 1825, that the chur and the mainland is fordable at the time of the year, and that it was fordable when the alluvion formed. —6 W. R. 124. See 7 W. R. 573.

43. Extent to which they are liable to enhancement.
—6 W. R. (Act X) 65.

44. An manzah providing that the cultivator of chur land should pay no rent at first, and then a low rate gradually increasing to a certain rate for the duration of which no period is fixed, is no bar to enhancement.
—7 W. R. 123.

45. In a suit for an accrual the omns is on plaintiff to prove title. —6 W. R. 137, 12 W. R. 262. See also 9 W. R. 222 (affirmed by P. C.) 20 W. R. 211, (P. C.) ib. 427.

46. Alluvial lands, when liable to enhancement at the neighbouring rates, are entitled to deduction for collection charges and talookdar profits. —6 W. R. (Act X) 48.

47. Extent to which they are liable to enhancement.
—6 W. R. (Act X) 65.

48. An manzah providing that the cultivator of chur land should pay no rent at first, and then a low rate gradually increasing to a certain rate for the duration of which no period is fixed, is no bar to enhancement.
—7 W. R. 123.

49. In a suit to set aside a survey award declaring the extent of the plaintiffs and the opposite party's respective titles to certain chur lands, the opposite party has no right to set aside the award on the plea of delay before fixing what lands are to be appropriated by him, and what by the intervenor, according to the terms of the survey award.
—7 W. R. 103.

50. An opposite party alleges that his and the defendant's villages were washed away, and have re-formed on the same site, and no third party claims the new formation as an increment to his estate, the question of title will have to be determined by cl. 6 s. 1 Reg. XI of 1825, —3 W. R. 257.

51. In a suit for a kuboolat on an alleged right to assess lands which have accrued to a permanent zimmah tenure, the omns is on plaintiff to prove that, under cl. 1 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825, the accruals are either by custom or agreement liable to assessment. —8 W. R. 427, 9 W. R. 370.

52. Where, in a suit by a seminar for rent on account of newly-formed land which had accrued to the old jotee, the Civil Court has decided the case, and no appeal lies to the High Court, the tenant is entitled to re-formation of cl. 7, containing the ground for enhancement as prescribed by s. 17, is necessary before rent can be demanded. —10 W. R. 330.

53. Nor can any intervention by a third party be allowed in such a case. —7b.

54. In a suit to recover possession of alluvial land in the enjoyment of innocent purchasers for value without notice, plaintiff must give strict proof of title to the alluvial, and show the nature of the original formation of the chur, where it first appeared, and to what it adhered. —P. C.) 11 W. R. 2, 2. See also (P. C.) 18 W. R. 4.

55. Where plaintiff went to trial and any appeal against the land claimed was attached to his estate as alluvial, he was not allowed in appeal before the Privy Council to raise a different case—one simply of original ownership of the site of the land re-formed.

56. So also where, in a suit for recovery of possession of alluvial lands, the only point raised by the defendant in the Courts below was as to the identity of the land, i.e. whether they were included in the description provisions as appertaining to plaintiff's estate, the Court held that the defendant could not in appeal before the Privy Council raise the question as to whether the lands had been improperly resumed by Government, with whom the plaintiff now represents. —P. C.) 11 W. R. 1, P. C. 6.

57. The custom to be established under s. 2 Reg. XI of 1825, as to the disjunction and junction of alluvial land by the encroachment or recession of a river, must be a local custom; but where a poyar's jahr is not sufficient to prove the existence of such custom, —P. C.) 11 W. R. 4, P. C. 42.

58. The Government having a right to revenue, but not to actual possession, can have no bona standi in a suit to set aside judgments in suits to which it was not a party, for the possession of lands formed by accretion. —12 W. R. 201.

59. Where the right of a proprietor is recognised to a settlement of a chur contiguous to his estate, the Government cannot claim the chur as an island under cl. 8 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825. —1h.

60. In a suit for alluvial land claimed by right of accretion under Reg. XI of 1825, there must be a clear finding as to whether the land is re-formed on the original site of alluviated lands of plaintiff's estate or an accretion by recession of the river. —12 W. R. 229, 490.

61. A question as to the right to the possession of land either gained by gradual accretion or recession before fixing what lands are to be appropriated by him, and what by the intervenor, according to the terms of the survey award.
—7 W. R. 103.

62. Plaintiff alleges that his and the defendant's villages were washed away, and have re-formed on the same site, and no third party claims the new formation as an increment to his estate, the question of title will have to be determined by cl. 6 s. 1 Reg. XI of 1825. —3 W. R. 257.

63. In a suit for a kuboolat on an alleged right to assess lands which have accrued to a permanent zimmah tenure, the omns is on plaintiff to prove that, under cl. 1 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825, the accruals are either by custom or agreement liable to assessment. —8 W. R. 427, 9 W. R. 370.

64. Where a permanent zimmah tenure has been held at one rate of rent for more than 20 years, there can be no assessment of accruals other than under cl. s. 15 Act X of 1829 or s. 61 Reg. VIII of 1793. —1h.

65. Under Reg. XI of 1825, a right of property in land gained by alluvion from a river (the bed of which is not the property of an individual) is acquired in two modes.

(1) Where the land is gained by gradual accretion by the recession of the river, in which case it becomes the property of the person in possession of the estate to which the land is an increment,

(2) When a chur or island is thrown up in a large navigable river and the channel between such chur or island is fordable at any season of the year, the accession is an accrual to the land or tenure must continue the tenure of the old site, or give a right to a dole of title to re-formation. —P. C.) 9 W. R. 312. See also 12 W. R. 222 and 14 W. R. F. B. 21; 21 W. R. 115; 27 W. R. 230.

66. Land cannot be legally proved to be an accrual to a tenant in possession, unless it is proved that there was an unbroken gap between it and the talookdar, nor can possession under such circumstances give right to a declaration of title. —10 W. R. 272.

formity with cl. 3 or cl. 3 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825, and that it was necessary to determine how the lands formed, whether it was thrown up as an island in the bed of the river, or was formed by gradual accretion to an estate; and if the latter, as to what lands it so accreted.— 14 W. R. 254.

60. In the case of a river, as a Reg. XI of 1825, to a party of the title given by cl. 1, the opposite party must be held in a small and shallow river which, with the julkar right of fishing over it, is regarded as the property of such opposite party.— 14 W. R. 268.

65. So long as the bed of a navigable river is washed by the ordinary flow of the tide at a season when the river is not flooded, it remains private property, and is not subject to private rights of ownership; if vested in any one, it is vested in the Crown, not under leg. XI of 1825, or for mere fiscal purposes, but as representing, and as it were, trustee for the public. 14 W. R. 352.

The bank of a river is not regarded by the law as public property; it may be, and constantly is, private property, though there may be public rights of passage over it for the purposes of navigation.— 22 W. R. 79.

66. Where lands are adjoin ed to a jute by gradual accretion within the meaning of cl. 1 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825, the juder is entitled to hold them upon the same principle and under the same local conditions as he holds the land to which the establishe of W. R. 87.

67. The words "a large navigable river" in cl. 3 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825 are not applicable to the Goomtee, but to such rivers as the Ganges and the Megna, upon which naviga can always be carried on.— 17 W. R. 73.

68. In a suit regarding a chur, the survey having been made when neither of the parties held any right in the land, and when both their villages belonged to the same proprietor, was held to be some evidence of possession at that time not only of the julkar, but of the right of property in the river, and possession under those circumstances is some evidence of title.— 18 W. R. 98.

69. The evidence of Government having sent its officers to measure the land and to surround it with pillars, is the very best evidence of possession of a lately formed chur.— 17 W. R. 183.

70. The presumption that usually arises against those who claim rights on their rights is the stronger when the subject-matter, as in the case of — is in a constant state of change and subject to difficulty of proof increased by lapse of time. — (P. C.) 18 W. R. 4.

71. Land which upon inspection of the survey map appears to have been added to an estate, although it may be a re-formation upon the old estate, is liable to assessment under s. 6 Act IX of 1847, and no suit will lie against the orders of the Board of Revenue in such a matter. — 18 W. R. 61, 19 W. R. 127.

72. But the proprietor from whom the land was gained has a right of suit to recover his property from those who are keeping it from him. — 23 W. R. 38.

73. In a suit for a portion of chur land thrown up by a tidal and navigable river, the applicants, who sought to disturb a possession of nearly 7 years duration, and proved the land to be a re-formation on a site identical with lands originally included in their zemindari and afterwards swept away, were held to have a better title to it than the respondents, who claimed it as an accretion to their settled chur, but failed to prove that it was such a gradual and imperceptible accretion as the Civil Law contemplates. — (P. C.) 18 W. R. 238.

74. Review of the law of alluvion in Bengal, as declared by Reg. XI of 1825 and decided cases. — (P. C.) 16.

74a. A title founded on the original ownership and subsequent to the court of the land acquired and built upon the re-formation on that site.— (P. C.) 16. See also 21 W. R. 446.

75. The custom which plaintiff was required to establish in order to extinguish defendant's possession of a river, or between two rivers, the volume of water in which from time to time shifted, so that alternately one of those channels was deep and the other fordable, was that the former owner and right of fishing over it, as well as its ownership, was attached to the riparian proprietor on the side of the channel which happened to be fordable. — (P. C.) 18 W. R. 160.

76. It is not in the power of a former remitter to impress upon the land a quasi servitude, or to vest it with a covenant which will run with it into the hands of any possessor of it by any title; and consequently a contract between two former seminaries that the ownership and right of possession of the land shall shift in whose above mentioned was held not binding upon the defendant who derived his title from a person who was a stranger to the arrangements. — (P. C.) 26.

77. Where a flowing stream dried up, and defendants acquired a right to the land by the law of accretion, that right was held subject to the exercise by plaintiffs of their right of fishery.— 18 W. R. 460.

77a. The purchaser of an estate found by actual measurement the year before to consist of a certain number of bighaas with a specified rental, can have no claim to re-formations of land belonging to the medicinal as it originally sold. — 19 W. R. 89. See 21 W. R. 116.

78. So also in a case brought against the Government instead of the adjacent proprietors.— 24 W. R. 91.

79. An estate does not necessarily mean land, but may denote julkar, plough, or humark rights; and where land has been entirely washed away, there still remains the right to possession of any alluvion that may subsequently re-appear on the same site, which right may be sold as an estate. — 20 W. R. 117.

80. Though an island, or land thrown up and surrounded by a river, may become vested in Government under the powers of cl. 4 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825, it does not follow that, if the river which separates the island from the main land dries up after the island has been resumed by Government, the bed of the river becomes the property of Government in cases in which the bed of the river is not gained as an accretion to the island by gradual accretion within the meaning of cl. 1 s. 4 Reg. XI of 1825. — (P. C.) 20 W. R. 250.

81. In a dispute between the zemindaries of Sobaspore and 22 W. R. 427.

82. Where a mehal which has been diminished by diluvion is sold at auction by the Collector who appraises the public value of the existing area, his specification of such area is in no way limits the certificate of sale, or restrains the right of the purchaser from claiming thereafter any accretion to the estate; the increment being always a contingent right of the zemindar. The party seeking the settlement was entitled to all the rights of the Government, including the re-formed lands. — 21 W. R. 116, 22 W. R. 238. See also 24 W. R. 91.

Specific Performance 6.

Compromise.

1. Defendant's ancestor and two other persons, who were executors of the will of A, were sued in a former action by the heirs of A for waste committed to his estate. While that case was pending in appeal, plaintiff's heirs under the will entered into an agreement in regard to the personal property, with the defendants in the present case, releasing their ancestor from liability. Plaintiff now sued as trustee to set aside the deed of agreement and execute without authority. Held, in appeal, that the parties who executed the deed had a perfect right to relinquish their own claims as against the defendant's executors; that there was no evidence of any intention, in those who entered into the deed, to over-ride the will; and that the deed was perfectly legal and lay under no suspicion of collusion. 1 Hay 17.

2. The mere production of a — is not conclusive evidence of the right of the owner to it, or that it was executed by plaintiff and delivered to defendant. 2 Hay 197.

3. Where no ground was shown for a — entered into by a guardian on behalf of a minor, the Court presumed that the guardian acted collusively in abandoning the minor's claim, and set aside the deed. 2 Hay 499. See also 8 W. R., 16.

4. Infants are not bound by a — concluded by their guardian if it be prejudicial to their interests and not ratified by them on their attaining majority; and it is not ratification and assent to the conveyance of the infant in attaining their majority if they rely upon the — in answer to a suit brought against them by the person with whom the deed was concluded. 2 Hay 619.

5. A mother, as a guardian, has no power to make a — on behalf of a minor daughter, unless it is beneficial to the daughter's interests. 8 W. R., 28.

6. When a case is referred to a Lower Court with various directions, and the parties enter into a —, the Lower Court should simply dispose of it in accordance with the terms of reference. 8 W. R., 38.

7. A defendant cannot fall back on a deed of — conceding a portion of plaintiff's claim after he has contested the whole case on its merits. 8 W. R., 211.

8. A — is not the right to the reversion under the lease. The reversioner is entitled to the reversion, and not to a reimbursement for the rent paid by him under the lease, or for any part of the rent paid by him under the lease. 8 W. R., 209.

10. After committal, — inadmissible. 2 W. R., Cr., 57.

11. A deed of — settling disputes between the members of a joint Hindu family does not become imperative on the separation of the family. 3 W. R., 155.

12. The validity of a — effected by the natural guardian of an expectant heir during his minority, by which immediate possession of half the property was obtained on the surrender of all claim to the reversion of the other half, was held to depend on whether the trust was held to depend on whether the interest was held to be one reasonably beneficial to the minor. 4 W. R., 71.

13. A deed in accordance with a solicitor's or —, though the latter contains no provision for the issue of execution in case of default, may, like all decrees, be enforced by execution.—4 W. R., S. C. C. 7. See 18 W. R. 65.

14. Where a Magistrate admits it not legally admissible, and the parties act in good faith, the error of the Magistrate cannot affect the position of the parties.—8 W. R. 412.

15. The parties to a — are bound by its terms admitting another's title to the land in dispute, even if their own title to it has accrued since the — 12 W. R. 427.

16. It is not in the power of either of the parties to fall back upon a decree the effect of which has been nullified by a — 14 W. R. 146.

17. Pending an appeal to the Sudder Court, both parties agreed provisionally to take possession of certain portions of the land in dispute, with liberty to either party, within 12 months from the date of the agreement, to apply to the proper tribunal to effect a rectification in the quantity of land which each was to hold permanently. The local Judge, to whom application was accordingly made by one of the parties, has refused to entertain it on the ground that the appeal was still before the Sudder Court, — Held, that the local Judge should either have entertained the application as an original suit, or have retained it pending an appeal to the Sudder Court to give effect to the agreement as a — (P. C.) 15 W. R., P. C. 38.

18. The right to make profits on account of additional land awarded to one of the parties as the result of the final rectification ordered under the above arrangement, follows as a matter of course, and limitation began to run from the time when the rightful partition was completed.—(P. C.) ib.

19. Though no right or title can be decided adversely to a defendant on the basis of a self-khameek to which he was not a party, it would yet be evident that by an order passed in it plaintiff was put in possession.—15 W. R. 261.

20. A — of a suit should be carried out by proper deeds and be filed in Court, particularly where infants are concerned.—(P. C.) 16 W. R., P. C. 22.

21. A self-khameek was considered admissible as evidence against plaintiff because, though not a party to it himself, his maternal uncle through whom he claimed were parties to it.—17 W. R. 521.

22. When, by a self-khameek entered into about one hundred years ago between plaintiffs and defendant's predecessors, the collection of certain tolls and cesses was reserved to the zamindar (plaintiff) and certain jallur rights to the ijadaras (defendants), — Held, that the building of a khatteek or fish-market or exchange by the plaintiff upon his own land (the former one having been destroyed during his minority) was not in excess of his rights or in contravention of the ruffmaneeek; and though the khattes would divert profit from the defendants to the plaintiff, yet the loss was a dominum absque injuria.—18 W. R. 142.

23. Where a decree-holder enters into a self-khameek under which the judgment-debtor arranges to pay a certain sum and makes other conditions, the decree gives place to this which can only be enforced by a fresh suit within the period of limitation.—18 W. R. 279.

24. Where a deed of — between plaintiffs and defendants stipulated for the payment by the latter to the zamindar of a certain sum as rent and that in default they would have no right to the lands specified, — Held, that, as what the defendants had to do was to be of a perpetually recurring nature, and the Court could not preserve the plaintiffs from being sued by the zamindar, the intention of the deed was that its terms should be strictly enforced. —19 W. R. 134.

25. Where A entered into an agreement with B not to — a case with C because he had assigned the benefit of the suit to B as a security for the due payment of some monthly instalment of money, and A not witholding it afterwards — the suit with C. — Held that A could not be convicted under s. 422 Penal Code unless the — with C was made dishonestly or fraudulently towards B. — 22 W. R., Cr. 16.

7. The meaning of an Act is to be gathered solely by reference to the Act itself, without looking into external sources of evidence for the purpose of ascertaining what was or was not the intention of the Legislature. — Hyde 100; (P. C.) 8 W. R., P. C., 3; 13 W. R. 85; 20 W. R. 78.

In interpreting an Act of the Legislature, the Court must not take one section only and see what its meaning is, but must take all the sections which relate to the same subject-matter, and look at the Act as a whole and see what was the intention. — 23 W. R. 171.

Procedure under ss. 31 and 32 Act VI of 1865 (P.C.)—12 W. R., Cr., 29.

Contractor.

1. A — who received advances from Government to construct a railway track, purchased coal in pursuance of his contract and after depositing it in a certain spot as secured.—Hold that Government had no claim to the coal.—7 W. R. 429.

2. Where A, B, and C jointly and severally contracted to do certain work, and the contract was completed by B alone, A was held entitled to recover from B his share of the money paid for work partly done by him.—15 W. R. 113.

3. Such a suit was held not to be one for money due on a contract, and therefore not enjoinable by a Small Cause Court.—1b.

4. A — for work who, by failing to fulfil the conditions of his contract, forfeits the money deposited by him as security, cannot also be held liable for damages for breach of contract, unless the damages exceed the money which was deposited.—22 W. R. 264.

5. Where A — was acquitted of cheating in respect of a sum of money which he received on account for work which it was alleged he had not finished.—3 W. R., Cr., 43.

1. If one or several co-guarantors, on the default of the principal, pays more than his proportion of the debt, he may recover the excess from the others by — W. R. Sp. 70. See also 14 W. R. 158.

2. Where a single guarantor pays the debt, he may sue his co-guarantors, and that without previous application to or process against the principal. —1b.

3. Where one of the parties jointly liable discharges the whole debt, he may sue his co-debtors for —, but can only sue each for his share.—W. R. Sp. 895.

4. On account of two out of three debtors, the defendant was not allowed to set-off against plaintiff (who had paid up all his own due) for excess payments on the third decree.—1 W. R. 162.

5. Where one of several judgment-debtors was released and discharged from all further liability under the decree, by an arrangement between the decree-holders and all their debtors, that arrangement was followed by the decree-holders, causing their suit for execution of decree to be withdrawn.—Hold that the liability of the discharged debtor could not be revived as so to render him liable for —.—1 W. R. 311.

6. In a suit for —, a decree cannot pass jointly against all the defaulters, but should specify the particular sums to be paid by each.—3 W. R. 170, 7 W. R. 184, 11 W. R. 550. See 18 post.

7. So also as against the joint holders of a joint tenancy.—11 W. R. 453.

7. A summary order of an inferior Court for the execution of a decree is not necessarily conclusive against the parties liable as amongst themselves.—3 W. R. 208.

8. A suit for — will not lie in respect of the expenses of family idols where a Hindu ancestor makes no endowment or trust for their support.—5 W. R. 29.

9. In a suit for — of Government revenue, the Court should not proceed simply on the fact of payment by plaintiff, but should also consider whose money was paid.—1b.

10. In a like suit, the previous paid and recognized quotas must be taken as the proper data for distribution, until a regular butnarma is made and sanctioned under Reg. XIX of 1814.—5 W. R. 112.

10a. —A suit for — is not founded upon implied contract, but the obligation to pay rests on a different ground, viz. that is ex officio jure the law requires equality, whether as regards — by co-sharers towards payment of Government revenue, or — by sureties, or — to general average.—(F.B.) 7 W. R. 377, 21 W. R. 255.

11. Principle in assessing a co-sharer's share of revenue paid for the whole estate to save it from sale.—8 W. R. 186.

12. Where one person jointly interested in others in land is compelled to pay Government revenue (or rent) in excess of his proper share, each co-sharer is bound to refund so much as he ought himself to have paid, and this obligation may be enforced by a suit against all the co-sharers in which the amount of their several liabilities is to be declared by the Court, and not by a joint decree declaring them collectively liable.—10 W. R. 14, 14 W. R. 118.

13. A having taken by assignment from J a mortgage of certain property, died, and the mortgagee having obtained a decree for possession and sale proceeds, executed it against some of A's heirs, who sued to obtain — from the other heirs.—Hold (1) that six years was the limitation for such suits and that the cause of action arose from the sale of the property in execution: (2) that it was not wrong for the Lower Court to decree a liability in favor of N, one of A's heirs, although N had various representatives: and (3) that although J was a defendant in the suit by the mortgagee, he was not liable, as he had had no interest in the property, and had received none of its profits.—10 W. R. 31.

14. In a suit for — in respect of Government revenue paid for an estate, it is sufficient for plaintiff to prove that he has paid more than his share, and his co-sharers less than theirs.—10 W. R. 158.

15. In a suit for — dismissed by the Lower Appellate Court for non-specification of shares.—Hold that the Court was bound to adjudicate on the evidence.—11 W. R. 181.

16. In a suit for —, the test of plaintiff's title to recover the money that he sues for, is to see whether there was any legal necessity arising to him from reasonable probability of any injury resulting to him in case he did not make the payment.—12 W. R. 128.

In other words, that it was not an officious or voluntary payment.—12 W. R. 462, 16 W. R. 93.

17. A decree having been executed for the full amount against a joint debtor, he was declared entitled to reimbursement from his co-debtors, although a proceeding in the execution case was not bond fide.—13 W. R. 298.

18. A claim for — should distinctly set forth the amounts due by each party sued, failing which the claim should be rejected.—14 W. R. 373, 15 W. R. 52.

And the decree should determine separately the amount to be contributed by each; the liability of each of the defendants in a — suit being not a joint but a several liability.—23 W. R. 288, 24 W. R. 290.

Where it is possible for the Court to fix the amount of liability of each of a number of co-debtors in a suit for —, the Court should so fix that liability.—23 W. R. 421.
CONTRIBUTION

10. The person in use and occupation of a share of a joine plaintiff in a suit for that he was not a party to the joint decree for sums of rent was passed, in satisfaction of which the plaintiff was obliged to deposit the entire amount of the decree.—16 W. R. 8.

11. Any judgment-debtor, under a joint and several decree, paying more than his share is entitled, whether the decree-holders have or have not given a release to any of the other debtors, to sue his co-debtors for —16 W. R. 49.

21. Parties are liable for — according to their respective interests in a property, and not simply per capita.—16 W. R. 78. See also 20 W. R. 209.

22. In a suit for — by the managers of a joint family estate against other members of the family, the claim was considered equitable where plaintiffs had failed to show that the assets and liabilities of the alleged joint family had been divided fairly and honestly, and that they had only accounted to the defendants for anything that had come into their hands.—17 W. R. 335.

23. A co-sharer who holds partly as a dur-patner, is entitled to look to his co-sharers in the settlement for — of Government, paid by him to save the entire estate from sale; and the fact of his being a sharer in the dur-patners cannot bind him to recover his over-payments from the patners.—14 W. R. 461.

24. In a suit for — it must be distinctly proved that both parties enjoyed the benefit of the object to the gaining of which they executed a bond jointly.—17 W. R. 530.

25. In a suit for — where, according to the claim as laid by the defendant with the plaintiff, each being bound to pay only his own share of the debt to discharge his own portion of the obligation, plaintiff has no cause of action and has no right to come into Court to be paid by his co-sharers before he has done anything to discharge his own portion of the obligation, or until he can show that he has done something on their behalf.—19 W. R. 24.

26. Where a co-sharer, as a condition precedent to the right of the plaintiff to recover under the bond, has taken possession of the same under a decree, he is entitled to recover in person without the necessity of a suit by the co-sharer.—19 W. R. 172.

27. In a suit by one of several share-holders in certain mortgaged property to recover — on account of payment made by plaintiff to save the property from being foreclosed, the court's execution was held to be better evidence of the proportion payable by defendant, than the number of the villages to which the claim relates.—20 W. R. 163.

28. To a shareholder obtained a joint decree for costs against certain villagers and attached the property of one of them, who now sued the others for — Held that the suit would not lie.—20 W. R. 235.

29. In a suit for — with the amount paid by plaintiff in satisfaction of joint decree against himself and defendant, is not liable to recoup the plaintiff if he had substantially no interest in the subject of the past suit.—20 W. R. 242.

30. Where, to prevent a sale, plaintiff's mother paid the rent of a portion of a talook which she claimed under a will, and sued to recover, and the suit abated by her death, her intestate was held to be as entitled to the plaintiff to recover from the share-holders the money she paid to save the talook.—20 W. R. 272.

31. Where one debtor, although liable for a portion, pays the whole debt, he has the right of — against all and every one of his co-debtors, and is entitled, in respect of the security given for the original debt, to stand in the same position as the creditor whose claim on that security he has satisfied.—22 W. R. 430.

32. A shareholder who pays up arrears of rent due from the whole of the tenure in order to save it from sale in execution, is entitled to recover — from other shareholders who were in possession during the period within which the arrears accrued; even if he should be in the name of another, and the decree be nominally against such other alone.—22 W. R. 531.

33. The fact that a 2-anna share of an 11-anna share of a talook is also a 2-anna share-holder in the settlement does not in any degree affect the right of his co-sharers in the talook to recover from him that amount which he ought to contribute towards the portion of the settlement not payable to them; the share-holders were not mutually rights, or they were not mutual rights as between the parties to the present suit.—23 W. R. 134.

34. A decree for rent having been obtained against a number of defendants jointly, the property of one of them (K) was sold in satisfaction, whereupon the heirs of K brought a suit for — against the other defendants and obtained a decree declaring the amount to be severally contributed. In execution the property of one of the defendants (B) was attached, who, to save it from sale, paid the demand and now sued the other defendants (including one N) for — Held that N, after letting the second decree go against him, cannot be allowed to go behind it, and say that there was never any liability under the original decree.—24 W. R. 66.

35. In a suit against A and K for — of moneys paid in satisfaction of two decrees under which the present plaintiffs and defendants were jointly liable, and one of which was founded on an eknur executed by the parties to the present suit and by one F, not a party, who was expressly excluded from liability in the decree last mentioned, the judge considering that F was liable under the eknur but not under the bond in which the other decree was founded, decided that there were two distinct causes of action and dismissed the suit.—Held that the cause of action on which plaintiffs relied was simply the joint liability of the parties under the decree, and that the judge did wrong in imparting a different cause of action and that if F was to be brought in as a party to the suit, it could only be done on the application of the defendants under s. 73 Act VIII.—25 W. Two notes are stolen from A, which B (not a bona fide holder for valuable consideration) tenders to C in payment for certain articles. C, not knowing B, refused to deal with him, whereupon B brings D who is known to C, and the purchase is made by him. At the time when D performed in the transaction amounted to a " of the notes to his own use," and that he was liable to A.—1 Hyde 263.

18. A Small Cause Court has jurisdiction to try such a suit.—7 W. R. 152.

19. If a co-sharer pays the Government revenue in respect of another share, and sues and obtains a decree against one of several persons interested in that share, and sells the share in execution of that decree, the interests of the other persons not sued are not affected by a decree to which they were not parties, on the share which did not profess to bind their interests.—2 W. R. 39.

20. A co-sharer cannot mortgage more than his own share of the property; and his creditor, in execution of a decree, cannot sell more than his rights and interests.—3 W. R. 119.

21. The right of a co-sharer cannot be bound by adverse possession set up by a lessee from the.—3 W. R. 144.

22. The portion of Government revenue payable by a co-sharer may be ascertainable even where his portion of a mehal is not separate and specifically defined.—4 W. R. 60.

23. The sets of the majority of—are not binding on the other sharers as to their own share of the property.—4 W. R. 104.

24. The receipt of one coparcener on behalf of himself and others cannot be taken as a recognition of joint possession by all, nor is it an act of fraud to sue alone for his undivided share of the rent.—5 W. R. (Act X) 7.

25. A plaintiff who, with his agent, has given a joint lodging, has no locus standi, not to sue alone for his undivided share of the rent.—5 W. R. (Act X) 68. See also 12 W. R. 30, 418; 14 W. R. 432; 15 W. R. 20; 16 W. R. 251; 17 W. R. 408, 416; 22 W. R. 394; 23 W. R. 57.

27. Until a partition takes place, a co-sharer is entitled, as such, to partake in joint possession of all the land held by him as his, if he can maintain his title so held by them if they had not granted a lease.—5 W. R., Mis., 15.

28. When—occupy a house to the exclusion of one or more of their number, after notice that he would change rent for his share, they were entitled to pay him rent for the house as for any other species of property.—6 W. R. 17.

29. Where plaintiffs sue their—whether judgment to go by default, the question to try is whether plaintiffs have proved their title to the shares they claim.—6 W. R. 94.

30. The representative of a deceased member of a joint Hindu family cannot sue separately for the deceased member’s share of rent, received jointly, of a joint estate.—(V. C) 71.

31. A co-sharer in an under-tenant cannot sue his putative landlord for the partition of the tenure and separate payment of his share of the rent without the consent of the other co-sharers.—21 W. R. 71.

32. A co-sharer in the possession of a mehal rents payable under a mortgage, application should be made to the Collector under s. 27 Act X.—9 W. R. 606. See 13 W. R. 70, 97 W. R. 169.

33. When right and title to possession of one co-sharer accrue as against another who, after resumption, is the only one who appears and settles with Government in behalf of himself and others.—10 W. R. 14.

34a. A co-sharer in landed property has no technical title, without the consent of his co-sharers, to do anything which alters the condition of the joint property, e.g., to commence a building.—10 W. R. 171, 16 W. R. 140.

34b. Or to remove a building.—23 W. R. 306.

35. Where a third party was recognised as joint proctor of an estate, plaintiff was held not entitled to sue for the whole rent in his own name.—10 W. R. 281.

36. Share-holders with a tenant are primarily liable with him to the landlord, who is not bound to recognise their holding as separate; his taking rent from them not amounting to an admission found under s. 16 & VIII of 1866 (B. C.).—10 W. R. 467. See 15 W. R. 360.

37. A suit against a co-sharer for a share of money recovered by him upon a decree which was joint property must be brought in the name of all Co-sharers.—16 W. R. 373.

38. The separate registry of the names of sharers in the zamindar’s sheristah is not proof of separation of their shares.—13 W. R. 124.

39. A sharer of an undivided talook is not entitled to recover rent from the jotedar of a particular jote unless there is an agreement to that effect.—13 W. R. 516.

40. A Court of Equity will not interfere where a tenant-in-common enjoys the property held in common without injury to his coparcener; but the case is different where there is a direct infringement of a distinct right.—10 W. R. 322.

41. In building a factory on joint property upon a title derived from one co-sharer without the consent of the other.—16 W. R. 140.

42. One of several—to, without the consent of the other—to, interfere with the enjoyment of property by a tenant who derives his title from all.—13 W. R. 387, 24 W. R. 110.

43. The holder of a small share was allowed, under an agreement with the lessee, to use a house and to sell that house and to sell the estate held by the lessee,—to, to be a party to an agreement with the lessee, and to suit the lessee and his assignees to recover the possession of the land and premises which the lessee held under the lease.—13 W. R. 498.

44. The words joystanes expresses joint tenancy even where commanability is not implied.—15 W. R. 90.

45. A co-sharer cannot sue in his own name, as he has no locus standi, before the butanwara is completed and defines the lands appertaining to each share, to sue to set aside a mokhtarae lease granted by another co-sharer by whom plaintiff might never be injuriously affected at all.—15 W. R. 106.

46. A Commissioner’s order to proctors of separate jummas to pay through one of their number does not over-ride their legal right of separation or transform it into a joint tenancy of.—15 W. R. 141.

47. A suit for rent is not maintainable at the instance of one or more of several, unless the latter have been ac- counted for separately.—15 W. R. 243. See also 19 W. R. 168, 22 W. R. 395, 394, 636.

48. Where the lease binds the lessee to pay a single sum to all the , a suit for rent by one of them will not lie even on the allegation that plaintiff has collected his rents separately for several years.—24 W. R. 207.

49. A tenant’s liability to pay his jumma to the party entitled cannot be split up without his consent, so as to make him liable to pay fractional portions of rent to the purchasers of fractional shares in the jumma.—15 W. R. 395. See also 19 W. R. 165, 22 W. R. 395, 394.

50. A sum of 2 lacs of rupees which was paid by a debtor in part satisfaction of a larger amount due to plaintiff and defendants, the heirs of a deceased banker, according to their shares in the estate, was appropriated by the defendants. The several brought separate suits against the debtor for the shares of their respective defendants, which was that the 2 lacs were appropriated to the whole debt and plaintiff’s debt was thereby reduced by 25,000lacs, while defendants received 16,000lacs, more than they were entitled to from the common debtor. Plaintiff now sued for his full share of the 2 lacs, and defendants pleaded limitation, more than 12 years having elapsed from the date of the original payment of the 2 lacs. Held (1) that limitation ran, not from the date of the original payment, but from the time that defendants received more than their proper share, and (2) that plaintiff was entitled to receive, not the 25,000lacs, which he had lost as the result of the proceedings against the debtor but the 16,000lacs, which defendants had received over and above their proper share, and which must be considered as money had and received by defendants to plaintiff’s use.—(P. C.) 16 W. R. 20, 20.

51. Although one co-sharer cannot sue out the whole property belonging to himself and the other —, he may give a lease of his share binding against himself.—17 W. R. 147, 21 W. R. 17.

52. A suit for rent by the 15 annas 6 pice share-holders, was held to be maintainable in the absence of dispute as to the extent of their share, and where the 8 pice co-sharer was made a defendant in each case to have collected the rents of his share separately.—17 W. R. 492.

53. A co-sharer who takes over into his own hands from the Receiver the management of his share, is entitled to sue, or be made a party under s. 72 Act VIII to a suit...

already brought, for rents which accrued before the Recalder’s discharge—24 W. R. 16.

48. A share of an ijmal estate may be joint and not separately defined in a revenue point of view until a butnawar, and yet it may be a distinct share comprising distinct portions of lands exclusively belonging to the holder of such share as between him and his lessee.—18 W. R. 148.

49. The proprietors of an estate entered into separate possession, and the ryots paid separately to each the rents due of account of his share in the rent, so that the construction of a butnawar, for which proceedings had been taken, but were subsequently quashed on the grounds that they included lands which had since been resumed as a separate estate. Plaintiff sued for payment of the share of the rent but inasmuch as defendant’s lands fell within the share of another proprietor, and plaintiff had not joined his — as parties, or asked the Court to determine his rights as against theirs. Held that no relation of landlord and tenant existed between plaintiff and defendant, and that plaintiff had no cause of action.—18 W. R. 148.

50. The right of a sharer in a joint estate is a right of common enjoyment of the lands and premises, together with the tenants of the — in like manner as the — themselves would have it.—20 W. R. 126.

51. Where land has not been partitioned, plaintiff as a sharer, and a lessee of a portion of the same would have to either occupy the land jointly with defendant, the other share-holder, and insist that, with the exception of occupancy rights, the land shall not be occupied otherwise than with the consent of the landlord and the exclusive possession of the defendant amounts to trespass. In a case of this kind an injunction is the proper remedy.—20 W. R. 168. See also 25 W. R. 315.

52. Where one of two co-owners of land who are not joint (i.e. who own and collect separate shares of the rents) cultivates the land with the acquiescence of the other, the latter cannot claim a share of the profits but only his proper share of the rent.—20 W. R. 542.

53. As long as defendant’s services are rendered and rendered plaintiff cannot withdraw the land given to defendant as a consideration for those services by all the — before a butnawar, even though the assigued land fell under the butnawar within plaintiff’s share.—20 W. R. 569.

54. A joint share-holder, or any lessee of a joint share-holder, can contract with the ryots of the zamindari for any lawful purpose, even without the consent of the — 21 W. R. 17.

56. Where land is held in joint proprietorship, an action to recover it from a stranger in wrongful possession must be brought in the name of all the proprietors.—22 W. R. 74.

57. One sharer alone in a joint estate, or his assignee, cannot claim to cultivate any portion of the property which is not his cruet, and without the consent of the other sharers, merely on the ground that he is willing to pay a reasonable rent for it.—(F. B.) 25 W. R. 318.

58. An arrangement between joint-owners of land, not being a joint Hindu family, by which some parts of the property were to be exclusively in the possession of one or other of them, bars one of them from suing for the profits derived from any portion alienated to the exclusive possession of any other.—22 W. R. 180.

59. Where a co-sharer of a talocok is compelled to pay a quota of the Government revenue due on account of a share not his own in order to save the whole estate from being sold, he is entitled to a charge upon such share of the estate.—22 W. R. 411.

60. Where a co-sharer in a talocok does not have the right to the joint responsibility of the — for the due payment of the rent, but only becomes bound to make in his claim for rent a just and equitable allowance for that portion of it which he has as a sharer in the talocok, ought to contribute.—23 W. R. 152.

61. In a suit for arrears of rent where it appeared that plaintiff was sole owner of an estate which formed a 12-anna share of the under-shares of a gundecor and after-wards acquired the tenant-right of the remaining 4-anna share.—Hold that s. 64 Act VIII of 1860 (B. C.) did not apply because plaintiff was not a sharer in a joint undivided estate.—24 W. R. 518.

62. Four brothers, on making a partition of their joint property, covenanted with each other that, if any one of them or their heirs had sold his share, he should offer to sell the same to one of the —. One of the brothers having died, his widow sold his share which she had inherited, without such an offer to the surviving brothers, who thereupon sued her and her vendee for possession upon payment of what they alleged to be the value of the property.—Held that the plaintiffs had no right, under their covenants, to elect, after the value had been ascertained, whether they would purchase at that price or not, it being very doubtful how far a perpetual covenant as to the disposition of land can be enforced.—24 W. R. 321.

63. The vendee being a stranger and no party to the agreement, the other parties interested cannot have the sale set aside or do more than recover damages from the recusant shareholder.—24 W. R. 425.

6. The demarcation of the land by the survey authorities is a necessary and legal act, and cannot render the Government liable to be saddled with — unless it can be proved that the officers were wilful wrong-doers. A mere allegation of a plaintiff, that an opponent colluded with the survey officers, is no reason for saddling the Government with —— 1 Hay 520.

7. A person who, though made a party to a suit by a supplemental plaint, voluntarily appears without being summoned, should be saddled with his own —— 2 Hay 69.

8. A defendant was held wrongly saddled with the —— of a suit dismissed as barred by limitation, whether the failure of the plaintiff to institute the suit within the prescribed time was the act of the defendant or not.—2 Hay 73.

9. In a suit to recover balance of revenue paid by the plaintiff on account of other co-sharers, the plaintiff was held entitled to get the —— of his suit against all the shareholders (those who did not default as well as those who did) in proportion to their respective shares.—2 Hay 122.

10. The —— of the defendants, who were not allowed, were allowed on appeal.—2 Hay 185.

11. After notice served upon an appearance made by the defendant, it appeared that the Court had no jurisdiction but that the suit ought to have been instituted by the Revenue Court. Held that the Court had jurisdiction to order the defendant to —— and that as he had been unnecessarily brought before the Court, it ought to order him to —— 2 Hay 188 (Marshall 311).

12. If a suit is dismissed on the ground of want of jurisdiction, the suit having been instituted in the wrong district, the Court has jurisdiction to order the plaintiff shall pay the —— of the defendant. 2 Hay 344 (Marshall 375).

13. Orders as to — being matters of discretion, a special appeal will not lie, as of right, on the ground that the Lower Appellate Court, in decreeing only a part of the plaintiff's claim, should not have awarded entire —— but only —— in proportion. 2 Hay 107.

14. The Court below gave the plaintiff a decree in a suit for mesne profits, for such amount as should be ascertained to be due, and ordered that the plaintiff should have his —— on the amount claimed. Held that this constituted no ground of special appeal, but that the remedy of the defendant was by application to the Court below to amend the order.—Marshall 699.

15. A defendant who colludes with the plaintiff, and induces him to bring a suit for his benefit, may be ordered to pay the —— of his co-defendants in all stages of the suit, including those of an appeal in which he is merely made a co-respondent. 3 Marsh 609.

16. The appellant is chargeable with the —— of the respondent on an appeal being struck off at the appellant's request.—Sey 562.

17. Plaintiff got a bon-plutore of a certain estate from defendant's late husband, and now seeks her for —— incurred by him in defending his title, which was disputed by a third party. Held that, even if there was no satisfactory proof of an express appeal by defendant's husband for the enforcement of the money by the plaintiff, the plaintiff was entitled to a decree upon the theory of an implied contract, inasmuch as defendant's husband was bound to give plaintiff a good title and was liable for whatever money was necessary to be spent in protecting that title.—Sey 711.

18. The Snider Court declared three persons who were unnecessarily made defendants entitled to their —— in both Courts in a case which had been before three Courts; and the judge in execution allowed the defendants —— in the three Courts. Held that the Judge had improperly interpreted the decision of the Snider Court.—Sey 745.

5. Stamp duty is not chargeable on an application by a witness for the return of a document filed by him in obedience to a summons.—15 W. R. 237.

6. Stamp duty upon an appeal filed after Act VII of 1870 came into operation can only be levied according to the provisions of that Act, even though the original suit was valued according to Act XXVI of 1867.—15 W. R. 272.

8. No stamp duty is payable under Act VII of 1870 on probate granted to a second executor, to whom grant of probate was reserved when the first probate was granted and stamp duty paid thereon.—16 W. R. 498.

9. Where a plaintiff prayed for a separation into two equal shares of the whole of the property to which she and defendant were equally entitled, and the Lower Court, instead of giving her the decree prayed for, decreed to her joint and undivided possession of her half share,—held that plaintiff, as respondent on the appeal of defendant, was entitled under s. 348 Act VIII, to re-assert her claim to a decree for possession in severality, without paying an additional fee under s. 16 Act VII of 1870 which applies only where an increase of land or money would be the result.—16 W. R. 517. [See 24 W. R. 179.

10. What—payable when plaintiff chooses to examine defendant under s. 281 Act VIII, and what under s. 8 Act XXVI of 1867—16 W. R. 84.

11. Where plaintiff seeks an account of his father’s estate from the executor and claims damages in default of obtaining it, the suit should be filed on the stamp required for a suit for the amount to be recovered, and not on a stamp of 10Rs. under sch. II art. 17 cl. 3 Act VII of 1870.—16 W. R. 196.

12. A plaintiff to have a summary order set aside, to have a will declared to be genuine, and to be retained in possession of the property of the decedent, was held to be one for which no relief was to be afforded under section 17 of Act XXVIII of 1870.—16 W. R. 213. *See 19 W. R. 214.

So also a claim for confirmation of possession of property not coming under section 17 of Act XXVIII of 1870.—22 W. R. 438.

13. When letters of administration are granted in respect of property subject to a mortgage, the ad valorem duty payable under Act VII of 1870 is the entire value of the property less the amount of the mortgage.—16 W. R. 253.

14. In determining the stamp to be affixed to the grant of new letters of administration, credit should be given for the amount of duty already paid, so that such duty he not payable a second time.—21 W. R. 429. *See 19 W. R. 214.

15. The word "furnished" in s. 6 Act VII of 1870 refers to the time when the Court determined to grant a Certificate under Act XXVIII of 1870 and not to the possession of the property.—16 W. R. 259. *See 19 W. R. 214.

16. The word "furnished" in s. 6 Act VII of 1870 refers to the time when the Court determined to grant a Certificate under Act XXVIII of 1870 and when it is to be drawn up ready to be issued to the party applying for it.—17 W. R. 496.

17. The mode of computing the value of the subject-matter of a suit, as provided by Act VII of 1870, applies only to determining the — to be paid, and not to the proper estimation of jurisdiction.—18 W. R. 108, 20 W. R. 33, 25 W. R. 39.

18. In estimating the amount of ad valorem fees chargeable under s. 1 Act VII of 1870, the fees must be paid in respect of the property without deducting the amount of the debts to be paid out of it.—(O. J.) 18 W. R. 153.

19. The ad valorem fee should be charged on the value of a house, and not on the rent of it.—(O. J.) 16 W. R. 259.

20. In a suit to set aside a summary order under s. 216 Act XXVIII, the plaintiff must have been given notice of the hearing of the suit and thereon counsel for the defendant were required to appear.—21 W. R. 309.

21. Where letters of administration were applied for in respect of certain securities and exemption from the duty prescribed by Act XXVIII of 1870 was granted, the Court held that the application was insufficient.—21 W. R. 200.

22. Where letters of administration were applied for in respect of certain securities and exemption from the duty prescribed by Act XXVIII of 1870 was granted, the Court held that the application was insufficient.—21 W. R. 226.

Criminal Breach of Trust.

1. A constable who dishonestly misappropriates to his own use the pay of his Thana police entrusted to him is guilty of—3 W. R., Cr, 44.
2. Where a constable who was improperly charged with the custody of Government moneys and gave security for the same, dishonestly converted it to his own use, although he afterwards restored it, the case was held to fall under s. 408, and not s. 409, Penal Code.—8 W. R., Cr., 1.
3. Where a conviction of a person for—was quashed on the ground that he was a partner with the prosecutor.—9 W. R., Cr., 37. Overruled by F. B., who held that a partner dishonestly misappropriating or converting to his own use partnership property is guilty of—under s. 405 Penal Code.—(F. B.) 21 W. R., Cr., 59.
4. Release of a servant receiving money to account for, or falsely accounting for, is—under s. 406 Penal Code.—10 W. R., Cr., 28.
5. S. 409 Penal Code does not limit the mode in which a trust arises, whether by specific order or by reason of its being part of the proper duty of a public functionary. Where, therefore, it was proved that the Head Clerk of an office entrusted the management of stamps, with the knowledge and sanction of the superiors, to one of his assistants, the latter was held guilty of—under s. 409 when he made away with the stamps.—13 W. Criminal Misappropriation.

1. Merely finding a thing and retaining it in possession, without proof of actual conversion, does not amount to—under s. 403 Penal Code.—10 W. R., Cr., 29.
2. A person may commit the offence described in s. 404 Penal Code by dishonestly misappropriating the money entrusted to him, although he does not bring such money to his own use.—11 W. R., Cr., 1; 12 W. R., Cr., 99.
3. A charge of—under s. 405 Penal Code should specify the person to whom the property belonged.—14 W. R., Cr., 15.
4. The—of each separate item of money with which a person is entrusted is a separate offence, and the facts connected with it should form the subject of a separate inquiry.—15 W. R., Cr., 5.

Criminal Proceedings.

1. The sanction to a prosecution under s. 169 Act XXV of 1861 must be as to each of several persons charge—10 W. R., Cr., 24; 15 W. R., Cr., 55.
2. The sanction to prosecute under s. 169 and 70 should specify the particular act or acts of forgery, and the particular words which constitute the perjury, for which permission to prosecute is given.—10 W. R., Cr., 41; 13 W. R., Cr., 25.
And should not be given before all the evidence is heard and a period for case made out.—19 W. R., 183.
3. Under s. 171 the initiative is taken by the party interested; s. 170 contemplates cases in which the Court takes the initiative.—11 W. R., 171.
4. When a Civil Court makes over a case to a Magistrate for investigation, the Magistrate is bound to proceed with the case himself and take evidence.—12 W. R., Cr., 41, 49.
5. The deposition of the Civil Court, setting forth the charge on which it sends a case for investigation by the Magistrate under s. 171 Act XXV of 1861, is a sufficient complaint.—13 W. R., Or., 46.
6. Where sanction was not given under s. 170 Act XXV of 1861 to prosecute a person criminally for fabricating false evidence, the error was held not cured by s. 426.
The sanction given by the Sessions Judge after the case was committed to him and after the prisoner had pleaded to the charge, is not a sanction contemplated by the law.—15 W. R., Or., 45.
7. When an Appellate Court directs further evidence to be taken by a Subordinate Court under s. 422 Act XXV of 1861, it is competent to the Subordinate Court before which such evidence is given, if any offence against public justice as described in s. 169 is committed before such Court by a witness whose evidence is being recorded therein, to send the case for investigation to a Magistrate under the provisions of s. 171.—(F. B.) 15 W. R., Cr., 64.
8. It would be very undesirable for the High Court, under s. 169 Act XXV of 1861, except, under very peculiar circumstances, to entertain in the first instance an application to authorize a prosecution for perjury.—17 W. R., Cr., 46.

9. As a general rule, one of two parties to an impending suit ought not to put the Criminal Law in motion as against the other in matters connected with the suit or

If he does so, the Criminal case ought to be postponed until the suit is concluded.—17 W. R., Cr., 46.

10. The words "such sanction may be given at any time" in s. 169 Act XXV of 1861 must be construed reasonably so as to mean a time which does not unreasonably prejudice the party to be prosecuted or put him in a worse position than he was before.—18 W. R., Cr., 62.

11. No appeal lies against a Judge's order sanctioning such prosecution.—ib.

12. The previous enquiry provided for by s. 146 Act X of 1872 before a complaint is taken up ought not to be made after the accused has been brought before the Court under a warrant.—21 W. R., Cr., 44.

13. The Court declined in this case to say, under s. 469 Act X of 1872, that a conviction was bad because the Judge who tried the case, and the Judge who sanctioned the same, was the same person.—22 W. R., Cr., 16.

14. A Civil Court has no power to order the commitment of persons for offences under ss. 471, 485, and 193 Penal Code without holding the preliminary enquiry required by s. 474 Act X of 1872.—22 W. R., Cr., 52.

15. When once a complaint of an offence which cannot be compounded is before a Magistrate, he is bound (unless proceeding under s. 146 Act X of 1872) to make a complete enquiry and to see that the accused, if guilty, is brought to punishment.—ib. ib.

16. Under s. 471 Act X of 1872, the Court must first make a preliminary enquiry to satisfy itself that a specific charge coming under the sections mentioned in it ought to be preferred against the accused, before it can either commit the case itself or sanction the case to the Magistrate for enquiry whether a committal should be made or not.—23 W. R., Cr., 39.

17. Prosecution for a complaint made at a police station does not require the sanction of any Court under s. 468 Act X of 1872.—24 W. R., Cr., 11.

18. No special sanction is needed for the prosecution of a person for giving false evidence in a judicial proceeding.—ib.

Cross-Decrees.

1. According to s. 292 Act VIII which is imperative, and gives no discretion, — whether appealed or not, must be set against one another, the larger of the two decrees being executable for the difference. — W. R. 301, 5, 1.

2. In order to admit of a set-off, under s. 209, where there are — the parties must be the same and the sums due under the decree or decrees must be definite and ascertained. — 12, 22, 29.

3. S. 209 Act VIII contemplates the case of a cross-decree which the decree-holder is seeking to execute, and not of a cross-decree incapable of execution by lapse of time. — W. R. 20, 16, 43.

4. According to s. 20 Act XIV, a cross-decree must be kept alive by the action of the party entitled under it. — 1b.

5. A judgment-debtor can set-off a decree whether the decree-holder intends or not to object, on appeal, to the judgment-decree. — W. R. 20, 16.

6. S. 209 Act VIII contemplates either — in the same Court or decrees sent to the same Court for execution; so that where A obtained a decree in the Judge’s Court against B, and another decree against A in the Principal Sudder Amin’s Court, not sent for execution, cannot be set-off under this section. — (F. R.) 6 W. R., 53. See also 7 W. R. 486, 8 W. R. 202, 12 W. R. 301, 16 W. R. 303.

Not only decrees of, but decrees in, the same Court. — 17 W. R. 46.

7. The purchaser of a decree against which a cross-decree may be set-off, takes his decree subject to all the equities and liabilities which attach to it, and consequently liable to the provisions of s. 209 Act VIII. — 6 W. R., Mis. 73. (Affirmed by F. R.) 10 W. R., 35. See also 18 W. R. 142, 19 W. R. 85. — 19 W. R. 127.

8. Where A obtained a decree against B but execution was stayed (under s. 209 Act VIII) pending a cross-suit of B against A, and B afterwards sold his right in the cross-suit, it was held that A had still a right to attach the whole of B’s decree in execution of his own decree against B. — 7 W. R. 219.

9. S. 209 Act VIII relates only to decrees which are in course of execution at the same time. Thus, where in one decree stated that execution should not issue until the happening of a certain contingency, it was held that that decree could not be set-off against a cross-decree which was absolute and which was being executed before the contingency happened. — 7 W. R. 536.

10. Where a plaintiff’s suit is decreed in part and in part dismissed on appeal, he can set-off his costs on the part decreed to him, under s. 209 Act VIII, against defendant’s execution for costs on the part dismissed, although he may not have executed his own original decree within the specified time. — 9 W. R. 590.

11. Where A applied to have a decree held by his son against B set-off as a cross-decree under s. 209 on the ground that his son held bawmawr for him. — Held that the parties to the decrees were not the same. — 10 W. R. 150.

12. Where M obtained a decree for arrears of rent against T and T’s co-sharers, and T, as guardian of her minor son, held decrees against M, in satisfaction of which decrees M had deposited certain sums of money, which money M then took way in execution of her own decree, — Held that the money was in reality taken away from T’s minor son, and that if T recouped him, it was a voluntary payment, and she could not sue for contribution from her co-sharers. — 11 W. R. 218.

13. Where an order of Court is made with the consent of the holders (S and B) of two—fixing the mode in which a set-off should be made, and its effect is to prevent S from executing his decree without giving credit for B’s decree, it would be most indefensible to allow B to execute his decree against T. — 11 W. R. 405.

14. Where execution of a decree was stayed under s. 209 Act VIII, pending the decision of a cross-suit, — Held that, on the decision of the latter suit, execution should be taken out by the party that had a decree for the larger gun, and for what remained over after deducting the smaller sum. — 12 W. R. 212.

15. A got a decree against B, whom subsequently he got a larger decree against A, which he sold to C. After that A executed his decree, and put up B’s decree and bought it himself. C then took out execution against A, who, having unsuccessfully put in a claim under s. 248 Act VIII, brought a suit to have his claim established, and the sale of B’s decree to C declared invalid. Both the Lower Courts found that the sale was invalid. — Held that this finding could not be set aside in special appeal, but that when C took out execution, A might apply for a set-off under s. 209. — 24 W. R. 229.

Debtor and Creditor.

1. Where a defendant shows bona fides by offering to pay anything like a fair proportion of his debt, reasonable time will be granted to enable him to pay the residue.—1 Hyde 98.

2. Quere.—Whether the principles of equity declared by the Statutes 13 Eliz. c. 5 and 27 Eliz. c. 4 are in force in India.—1 W. R. 41. See O. J.) 22 W. R. 60.

3. A creditor innocently holding property in pledge for the payment of a debt without notice of his debtor being a "bare mere owner for others, is entitled to maintain his lien and the property in satisfaction of the debt.—1 W. R. 35.

4. When barata or assignments of rent are made in satisfaction of a debt and accepted by the tenants, the creditor is bound to give the debtor notice of non-payment within a reasonable time.—5 W. R. 290.

5. Where a testator made a devise of his property among his several heirs and kinsfolk and directed in the meantime that the property be in the hands of a manager in order to the gradual payment of his debts, and the manager was after a time removed by order of Court and the devises put in possession of their several shares, the devises were held bound to answer any suit that might be brought by the testator’s creditors according to their liability, but without such suit no attachment can be maintained on the payment of the debts sued for.—8 W. R. 276.

6. Where a creditor sues some of the persons jointly liable to him under a note or bond, and takes another bond from the rest for what he considers to be their share of the debt, he does not discharge the latter from their liability, to contribute according to the shares in which they are liable among themselves, nor does his transaction with them (they not being sureties) destroy the joint liability.—22 W. R. 193.

7. Where a debtor sells goods to his creditor and requests that a portion only of the price should be appropriated to part-payment of existing debts and the remainder held against the price of goods to be afterwards purchased by the debtor from the creditor, such request is not binding on the creditor without his consent.—22 W. Decleratory Decree.

2. In a suit in which Government was not represented, the High Court held that the lower Court was wrong in giving the defendant a — authorising him to erect a temple on certain public lands, and struck such order out of the decree. — I. R. 14.

3. A — was given under s. 15 Act VIII in favor of plaintiff's (a reversioner's) title in a case where a false statement of facts had been set up by the defendants in collusion with the immediate heirs to the manifest injury of the plaintiff's title, and it was of vital importance to the plaintiff that this title should be cleared whilst the evidence for that purpose was available to him. — Sec. 625.

5. A suit will not lie under s. 15 Act VIII for the declaration of contingent and not existing rights. — 2 Hyn. 608, 6 W. R. 1, (P. C.) 23 W. R. 614. See 12 W. R. 36.

4. A suit for a declaration of title under s. 15 Act VIII is premature on the part of a reversioner during the lifetime of the widow, the reversioner's title being contingent on the death of the widow. — 1 W. R. 219. See 16 W. R. 52.

5. A suit brought on the ground of an existing right of inheritance for immediate possession and mesne profits, by setting aside an adoption, the Court will not allow the form of action to be changed and proceed to decide whether (the claim for possession on the ground of an existing right being abandoned) a — may not issue for setting aside the adoption, but will, on failure of right to immediate possession, dismiss the suit. — 8 W. R. 1.

6. According to s. 15 Act VIII, a — can be issued only in a suit brought to obtain such — 16.

7. S. 22 Act XLI of 1841 does not apply to a suit for a declaration of plaintiff's title in right of inheritance against the other members of the family. — 8 W. R. 58.

8. Where, notwithstanding defendant's admission that plaintiff is in joint possession, the latter goes on with a suit to obtain a declaration of sole title and sole possession and fails to prove his case, he is not entitled to a decree founded on joint possession. — 5 W. R. 311.

9. A — ought only to be passed under s. 15 Act VIII where some injury appears so probable as to lead to the conclusion that, unless stayed by the —, the inchoate or threatened injury is inevitable. — 7 W. R. 96.

10. An unsuccessful claimant to joint family property about to be sold in execution is entitled, in a suit brought for the purpose, to a — to the extent of his rights and interests in the property, notwithstanding he has asked for more than he is entitled to. — 7 W. R. 161.

11. Where plaintiff sues to recover possession under a lease which expires before decree, he can only obtain a — as to his right to possession up to date of such expiry. — 7 W. R. 248.

12. It is discretionary with Courts whether they will give a — or not. — 8 W. R. 64. See also 9 W. R. 389, 453; 19 W. R. 82, 193, 419.

13. But after this discretion has been already exercised under s. 15 Act VIII by a Court of competent jurisdiction, it cannot be interfered with on appeal upon a decision which does not affect the merits. — 13 W. R. 173.

14. Where a plaintiff might have gone before a competent authority to have a 'shahab' map rectified, the Court refused him a — that a certain boundary marked in the map was erroneous. — 8 W. R. 64. See also 10 W. R. 284, 21 W. R. 134.

15. Parties not proving possession and not entitled to consequential relief may yet, under s. 15 Act VIII, obtain a declaratory decree from that right owners. — 8 W. R. 341.

16. Confirmed by P. C. so far as regards possession, but reversed so far as regards that — on the ground that the prayer of the plaint that certain deeds might be set aside was a prayer for substantive relief. — (P. C.) 21 W. R. 540. See also 22 W. R. 436.

17. Where a plaintiff sues for a declaration that a deed is valid, and fails to make out his case, the Court should merely state that it was no ground for interfering under s. 15, and not proceed to declare the deed invalid. — 9 W. R. 101.

18. In a suit for a declaration of right, where the right claimed is not consistent with the suit, plaintiff is not entitled to a decree and a — of title will not be given when plaintiff's claim would have been barred by limitation, had he sued for possession. — 9 W. R. 131.

19. A lead for purchaser at an execution sale of a transferable tenure, is entitled to sue for a declaration of title and possession, though he may not have registered his name in the zamindar's shinchan. — 9 W. R. 279.

20. A recital in a bond that the money borrowed by a Hindoo widow was given for the performance of her husband's 'shroud' is no evidence of the fact, and no — is needed to show that the bond was not given for the purpose specified. — 9 W. R. 286.

21. In a suit brought by reversionary heirs to declare that the property standing in the name of defendant had been purchased by the ancestor in his name 'bejana', it was held that there was no ground for a — 9 W. R. 286.

22. A — that defendant is holding at a certain rate of rent before any rent is in arrear, does not compel payment at that rate without a fresh suit. — 9 W. R. 292.

23. In order to entitle a plaintiff to a bare declaration of right under s. 15 Act VIII, he must make out to the satisfaction of the Court, some act done by the defendant, which is hostile to and invades that right, and which would justify an injunction or a decree for damages against the defendant, if the Court had no thought fit to exercise its discretion. — 9 W. R. 325. See 9 W. R. 388; 11 W. R. 40, 77, 190, 257, 281, 331, 466, 543; 12 W. R. 20, 218.
a declaration that a mortgage-bond was falsely alleged to have been registered and was invalid as being a forgery, the registration having been obtained by false personation. — 15 W. R. 421.

26. To also the registration of an intemesne potthah limiting a landlord's rent, the execution of which he denied. — 15 W. R. 487. See also 20 W. R. 386, 24 W. R. 386.

35. There is nothing in s. 15 Act VIII to prevent the entertaining of a suit to ascertain how the shares of a deceased person were vested, notwithstanding that no overt act has occurred to give rise to relief in the shape of damages or a decree for possession. — 17 W. R. 169.

36. Plaintiff's right to a — as to the erroneous assessment of a Magistrate's order under s. 420 of Act XXV of 1861 is not affected by the fact that the order has not been put in force. — 17 W. R. 381.

37. A decree which declared plaintiff entitled to a certain share of offerings by right of inheritance, was construed to refer to existing, not future, offerings. — 18 W. R. 202.

38. Where plaintiffs asked for a declaration of right to remove to their own house and keep there, for the period of their use and enjoyment by themselves and their descendants, to the ancestor of the litigants but whose temple had been destroyed by the erosion of the river, — Held that the Court, before making a —, should define the period for which plaintiffs are entitled to use and enjoy, and should then order for the re-conveyance of the idol to the place where it was, at plaintiff's expense and before the expiration of their term. — 19 W. R. 26.

39. The High Court was held to have exercised a sound discretion in entertaining a suit for a — where a zemindar, who in a suit for enhancement, had had his zemindarie right denied, came into Court to have that right ascertainment and declared. — (P. C.) 19 W. R. 171. See also 24 W. R. 13.

40. Where a — is sought under s. 15 Act VIII without consequential relief in the same suit, the Court must see that the declaration of right may be the foundation of relief somewhere. — (P. C.) 19 W. R. 268.

24 W. R. 215.

The declaration can only be claimed in those cases in which the Court could grant relief if relief is prayed for. — (P. C.) 23 W. R. 150.

A — cannot be made under s. 15 unless there be a right to consequential relief capable of being had in the same Court or in certain cases in some other Court. — (P. C.) 23 W. R. 314.

The intention of the above rule must not be taken to deny to the Courts of this country the power to grant decrees in any case in which, independently of s. 15, these Courts have power to grant a —. — 25 W. R. 516.

The more quieting of doubtful titles is not sufficient reason for a —. — (P. C.) 29 W. R. 314.

41. The holder of a decree which declares that the boundary-line laid down in the survey-map as the boundary line of the plaintiff's permanently settled estate is not the true boundary-line, is not entitled either to have the decree pronounced on the spot or to have the line erased from the survey-map. — 19 W. R. 202.

42. Where N. I. died leaving a widow and an adopted son, and on the death of the latter the widow adopted another son, and N. I.'s brother sued to have the adoption declared invalid and to have his reversion be the foundation for the Court refused (with reference to the uncertainty of the law in respect of the right of the presumptive next taker after a Hindu widow to a decree declaring her adoption invalid) to make the declaration. — 19 W. R. 419.

43. The refusal of a Deputy Collector to proceed with the sale of property which a decree of the Civil Court declares plaintiff entitled to bring to sale, does not give a fresh cause of action for the purpose of obtaining a — though it may be a good ground for asking the exercise of the High Court's extraordinary powers. — 20 W. R. 16, 17.

44. In a suit for a declaration of title to a share of an estate, although plaintiffs fall to satisfy the Court that their title to the land has been acquired in the way they state, yet, if it is admitted that they have been in possession for more than 12 years, the effect of such possession is to extinguish other titles if any were held by them and the declaration sought. — 20 W. R. 194, 29 W. R. 205.

45. Where plaintiff's cause of action is the denial by defendants of his proprietary title (i.e. of the relationship of landlord and tenant) and both Courts have found that title to be unquestionable, plaintiff is entitled to a decree declaring his title instead of being referred to a fresh suit for a kuboolaner.—20 W. R. 261.

46. A—may be given to plaintiffs if the Court finds that they are the reversionary heirs of the deceased, and that the act of his widow in relinquishing the land in dispute was not binding upon them.—21 W. R. 54.

47. The principle that any person having rights in property whether present or contingent, is entitled to come into a Court of Equity to complain of any attempt, made by persons having no authority to do so, to deal with the property in a mode which may ultimately harm him in the matter of his title, is only acted upon when the mere lapse of time is of itself likely to render the plaintiff less able than he is at present to meet the difficulty and to clear away the cloud which the deed complained of may throw over his title.—21 W. R. 431.

48. When a plaintiff has failed in a suit for partition, he cannot as of right claim to have a.—22 W. R. 11. 333.

49. When a plaintiff has failed to prove a specific fraud (e.g. in a suit for khas possession to prove that the summanabane papers upon which the defendant had set up a mahorrar title were a forgery), he cannot be allowed to succeed on a collateral matter by claiming a declaration that defendant had not a right to occupy the land at a fixed rent.—22 W. R. 221.

50. Where, on the occasion of the butwarrant of a zamindar, the proprietors of an andal talook interfered and caused the Collector to exclude certain land belonging to the plaintiff from the maps and records of the zamindar made on the occasion of the butwarrant, they were held to have made evidence likely to be used adversely to plaintiff's rights and justifying his bringing an action against them for a declaratory title.—23 W. R. 23.

51. A suit instituted by a zamindar against a number of his ryots for a declaration of a mal title by setting aside, not a decree, but a declaration by the defendant of a brownuter title, was held to be not maintainable, because relief could not be granted in the shape of merely setting aside an assertion which may have been merely by word of mouth.—(P.C.) 23 W. R. 161. See also 26 W. R. 516.

52. Act X of 1859 gave no power to a Court to pass a.—23 W. R. 142.

53. A decree-holder may bring a suit to have it declared that a mahorrar alleged to have been granted by his judgment-debtor was invalid because created pending attachment of the property in dispute, without first causing the judgment-debtor's proprietary right to be sold in execution of the decree.—24 W. R. 36.

54. Where no overt act was mentioned in the plaint which would entitle plaintiffs to a — under s. 15 Act VIII, and such overt act appeared on the admitted facts of the case, the defect in the plaint was held to have been cured.—24 W. R. 245.

55. In dismissing a suit for khas possession brought by a tenant against his under-tenant, the Court is at liberty to make a declaration as to the nature of defendant's tenure.—24 W. R. 244.

1. The splitting of the amount of a — into shares for the private convenience of the decree-holders, unless the judgment-debtor was a party to the arrangement, cannot, enable him to plead limitation against any of the decree-holders who may have slept over their rights. As far as the debtor is concerned, the — continues a joint debt, for the whole amount of which he is liable to all the decree-holders.—1 W. R., Misc., 1. See 13 W. R. 128.

2. Purchaser of a Decree.—See Vendor and Purchaser 21.

3. The word "—" in s. 333 Act VIII must be read to include the judgment.—2 W. R., Misc., 240.

4. Decree for part of claim.—See Costs 103: Dismissal of Suit or Appeal 2.

5. A —, so long as it is unexecuted, may be executed. Thus, several cases were tried together, and it was agreed that the evidence in one case should govern all, and judgment was accordingly given on all. Some were of an appealable value, and being appealed, the Appellate Court reversed the —. Held that the decree in the unappealed cases (although contrary to the — in appeal) were good decrees on which execution might be issued.—9 W. R. 276.

7. The Judge should declare what the — is to be, and it is the duty of the pleaders to see that it is drawn up properly—10 W. R. 96, 497; 20 W. R. 111.

8. In decreasing a suit for the delivery of sahasee papers under s. 24 Act X, it is not enough to give an order that the claim be allowed, but there should be a specific order for the delivery of the papers—10 W. R. 279.

9. Where a plaintiff sues by his recognized agent and obtains a —, the — should stand in the name of the agent, not as for himself alone, but as agent and on behalf of the plaintiff.—11 W. R. 505.

10. A — without judgment, i.e. without the reasons for the — is bad—12 W. R. 264.

12. Copy of Decree.—See Court Fees 2; 24 post.

13. A person to whom the ordering part of a — gives nothing, cannot be treated as having acquired any part of the —, merely because he has by mistake been described in the heading as the purchaser of the decree-holder's rights and interests.—18 W. R. 126.

15. A copy of the judgment with the schedule of costs appended does not constitute a — as required by s. 189 Act VIII—15 W. R. 326.

16. A — was affirmed in appeal, and the case coming up on appeal, was remanded on two points not affecting the judgment of the first Court. The defendant (applicant) having defaulted, the lower Appellate Court dismissed the appeal. — Held that the decree of the first Court was unenforceable and final.—17 W. R. 402.

17. The Court refused to allow a — to stand which gave to the plaintiff something (i.e. lands whose boundaries were) unascertained, and which might not be ascertainable.—18 W. R. 34. See also 19 W. R. 91; 20 W. R. 364; 23 W. R. 265; 25 W. R. 39.

So also as to an imperfect —.—19 W. R. 267, 23 W. R. 228.

19. Where a — was sought to be set aside, and there were no materials for separating the legal from the illegal part of the —, the Court declined to set aside a part of it.—18 W. R. 269.

19. A decree which left something undetermined until further inquiry, but showed clearly what was the intention of the Court making it, was allowed to stand.—18 W. R. 512.

20. Where the — of a Bench of the High Court for possession of land within specified boundaries was amended with reference to a map which another Bench had pronounced to be not good, and it appeared that the decision of the latter Bench was before the former Bench at the time of the amendment, that the order of amendment was clear and definite in its terms, and that the land in question was delineated on the map, the — was allowed to stand.—19 W. R. 109.

21. The omission from the schedule of a plot of the boundaries or other specifications of land, does not exclude from the operation of the — matters strictly claimed in the plaint and referred to as such in the —.—20 W. R. 142.

22. Final decree.—See Ammend 26; Limitation (Act XIV of 1859) 283.

23. Decrees between the parties may be found to evidence of title, but can scarcely be evidence of possession unless they be coupled in a form which is declaratory of possession.—20 W. R. 271.

24. When stamps are put in by a party to the suit as required by the 196 Act VII, a copy of the — and judgment must be furnished to him without further costs. A District Judge is not justified in delaying the giving of the copy until blank papers are put in by the applicant.—20 W. R. 102.

25. Although no Court but a Court of Appeal can interfere with the decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, if the — has been obtained by fraud, it shall avail nothing for or against the parties affected by it, even in another Court.—23 W. R. 218.

26. A — is admissible as evidence even if it has become inoperative from not having been executed within the period of limitation.—(F. B.) 23 W. R. 128. See also 24 W. R. 251.

1. A — obtained by duress conveys no title. — Sev. 697.

2. A — is complete on the date when it is signed and attested by the Cooch, and consideration is paid for it. Delay in delivery does not invalidate it. — W. R. Sp. 62.

3. Where a — after execution is deposited with a third party until the purchaser performs certain acts as the consideration for the same, and the purchaser by a trick gets possession of the — before such performance, no effect can be given to the — as against the vendor. — W. R. Sp. 222.

5. The non-delivery of a registered — to the purchaser until the execution of a fresh deed in favor of a third party, will not render the — ineffectual, or subject the purchaser to fresh liens not within his knowledge. — 5 W. R. 109.

6. Where it has been found that a — has been duly executed, and that a certain sum of money has passed as consideration, and there is a recital in the deed that the balance of the consideration money was paid previously to the execution of the — there is something more than a presumption that the whole consideration has passed. — 6 W. R. 215.

7. The execution of a — cannot be treated as an actual or constructive transfar of possession, upon a contract under which the vendor sells that of which he has no possession and to which he may never establish a title. The — in such a case can only be evidence of a contract to be performed in futuro and upon the happening of a contingency; of which the purchaser may claim a specific performance if he comes into Court showing that he has himself done all that he was bound to do. — (P. C.) 13 W. R. P. C., 6. See also 18 W. R. 140, 20 W. R. 416, 21 W. R. 101, 23 W. R. 163, 165.

8. The custodian of a — is liable if he cannot give satisfactory explanation of his neglect to keep the — entrusted to him. — 13 W. R. 328.

9. Where plaintiff alleges, that he agreed to sign and did execute a — for a consideration of a sum of money in consequence of pressure put upon him and in order to get back certain papers, etc., of his which had been abstracted by the defendant and his servants, he cannot, whether under the English or Mahanmondian law, or under the general rules of equity and good conscience, be entitled to treat the — as a mere nullity, and be allowed to avoid the contract and to retain the money. — (P. C.) 15 W. R. P. C., 50.

10. It is not enough to prove the writing and signature of a —; there must be proof that it was delivered as a complete instrument. — 22 W. R. 367. But see 2 ante, 28 W. R. 131.

11. The — which plaintiffs sought to set aside as fabricated and fraudulent was held to have been executed by the principal plaintiff’s grandmother with her knowledge and by her authority, with the intention of vesting the property therein referred to in the defendant. — (P. C.) 26 W. R. 86.

Value of Suit or Appeal 1.

Defamation.

2. The gist of the offence of — is whether the charge was made in good faith or not. — 1 W. R. Cr. 6.

3. Amendments are not allowable in such cases. — 1b.

4. A false accusation not made in good faith renders the party making it liable to be charged with — 2 W. R. Cr. 35.

5. Being of low caste will not debar a man from prosecuting for — on his being falsely charged with theft. — 1b.

6. 8, 499 Penal Code makes no distinction between written and spoken. — 2 W. R., Cr. 36 (4 R. J. P. J. 172).

7. Under the same section, a person using defamatory expressions for the protection of his own interests, is not privileged, unless the imputation is made in good faith, i.e. with due care and attention. — 3 W. R., Cr. 45.

8. Act XVII of 1862 refers only to the High Court in its original criminal jurisdiction, and is not applicable to Mofussil Courts. Sec. 27 of that Act requires proof of the circumstances relied on as a defence before good faith can be presumed in a case of —. The cause of proving good faith is on the person making the imputation. Before such person can claim the benefit of Exception 9 of 499 Penal Code, he must show that he has exercised due care and caution. — 4 W. R., Cr. 22. See 14 W. R., Cr. 22.

9. Failure in proving a bonâ fide criminal charge does not make the complainant liable to an action for damages for — 5 W. R. 282, 6 W. R. 245.

In a case of —, proof of despatch by post to a certain district of the paper containing the defamatory matter is tantamount to proof of publication thereof in that district. — 5 W. R., Cr. 44.

11. Greater damages are not necessary for defamation of the character of a Principal Subder Ameer's vakil or of a Subder Ameer's vakil. — 6 W. R. 25.

12. A person against whom information has been falsely given with a view to his injury has a right to bring a civil action for damages with or without the consent of the public servant to whom the information was given. — 9 W. R., Cr. 31.

13. A suit for damages for — of character is cognizable by a Civil Court, even though the words on which the suit is founded were spoken in a judicial proceeding. — 11 W. R. 334.

In such a case a Police Officer's report may be evidence that the words were spoken, but not of malicious intention. — 19.

15. The plaintiff must start his case by showing that he was not guilty of the offence charged, and it will then be upon the defendant to show that he made the imputation in good faith and for the public good. — 19.

16. A report made by an officer in execution of his duty, and as the result of an order from his superior, was held to fall within the 9th Exception to s. 499 Penal Code. — 14 W. R., Cr. 22.

17. What was held to amount to making or publishing an imputation within the meaning of the same section. — 14 W. R., Cr. 27.

18. A suit for damages for — of character cannot be maintained against witnesses for evidence given in a judicial proceeding, but may when it is substantially a suit for malicious prosecution. — (P. C.) 17 W. R. 283. See 20 W. R. 177.

1. A suit pending when Act VIII of 1859 came into operation was dismissed for plaintiff's — of appearance at the hearing. Held that the plaintiff's right, under the old law of bringing a fresh suit, was not barred by s. 114. — 1 Hay 278. But see 2 Hay 584.

2. When a plaintiff cited as a witness refuses to attend, the law does not require the Court to dismiss the suit for — but need not dismiss the Court with the discretion of passing any other order it sees proper upon the evidence on the record. — 2 Hay 582. But see 2 Hay 584.

3. Plaintiff was ordered to attend to give evidence, but failed to do so. The Court, however, being satisfied with the evidence in support of his case, gave a decree in his favor. Held that the decree was valid. — Marshall 467. See also 18 W. R. 16.

4. The proper course under s. 345 Act VIII of 1859 on — of appearance by appellant is to dismiss the appeal. Where the Judge entered into the merits, the appellant was held entitled, upon the re-admission of the appeal, to a more careful consideration of the evidence adduced. — 579.

5. Where defendant denies a personal knowledge of the matters in dispute imputed to him by plaintiff, and fails to appear when summoned as a witness, the Court, before decreeing the suit as upon —, should be satisfied on evidence of the existence of such knowledge on the part of the defendant. — 24.

6. A Lower Appellate Court cannot, after considerable delay, dismiss an appeal when there has been no time for its disposal. In such a case the High Court can set aside the Lower Court's order in appeal, s. 347 Act VIII of 1859 applying only to cases of involuntary non-appearance. — 176.

7. 8, 170 Act VIII authorises dismissal for — only against absent plaintiff, not against plaintiffs who appear. — 26, 168.

8. — by putrescable in a former suit cannot prejudice rights of a defendant now in possession. — 1 R. W. 173.

9. Both parties having filed their evidence, the defendant did not appear at hearing, and the Court decided the suit ex parte under s. 110 and 111 Act VIII. The Lower Appellate Court held that these sections did not apply, and tried the case on its merits. The High Court held that the case fell under s. 147, and that the proper course for the Appellate Court to pursue was to remand the case. — 9.

10. Even in an ex parte case it is necessary for the plaintiff to prove that he is entitled to the relief which he prays for. — 2 W. R. 123.

11. The provisions of s. 170 Act VIII should only be applied to contumacious litigants, and wilful — should be shown. — 6 W. R. 247, 11 W. R. 110, 18 W. R. 17.

12. The abandonment of proceedings under s. 269 Act VIII is not a — under s. 114 so as to bar a fresh suit. — 10 W. R. 61.

13. Where a person interested in a suit was refused the right which he possessed to be made a party to it, he was held not prejudiced, under s. 114 Act VIII, from bringing a fresh suit because of the — of a party who had lost all interest in the former suit. — 401.

14. Where an appellant is refused postponement and his appeal is dismissed in his absence, the case is one of —, even though the Judge looked into the facts with such light as he could obtain from other sources. The appellant in such a case may apply for a re-hearing or for a review of judgment, but is not entitled to a special appeal. — 15 W. R. 113. But see 20 W. R. 425.

15. A suit "number kharij or struck off" is not a — under s. 114 Act VII used to bar a fresh suit. — 21 W. R. 219.

16. In a case struck off for — without prejudice, properly made under s. 114 Act VIII, the remedy by motion under s. 119; if improperly made, it is open to appeal. — 21 W. R. 124.

17. S. 170 Act VIII does not give the Court an arbitrary power to decide against a party for — without reference to the state of the evidence, still less without hearing the evidence out. — 24 W. R. 314.

3. Where there is no prima facie case against an accused and he has not been put on his defence, nor any charge preferred against him, he should be discharged and not acquitted.—8 W. R., Cr., 45.

Under s. 215 Act X of 1872 an order of — cannot be passed unless the evidence of all the witnesses for the prosecution has been taken; and under s. 220 no acquittal can be recorded unless a charge has been drawn up.—
   22 W. R., Cr., 25.

As to the former.—24 W. R., Cr., 9, 62.

It is not incumbent on the Magistrate to examine every

5. The High Court declined to interfere where a Deputy Magistrate directed the — of an accused under s. 342 Penal Code because the complainant and his witnesses were not present.—18 W. R., Cr., 35.

6. An accused who is present to meet any charge that may be brought against him, is entitled to his — if no evidence be forthcoming against him owing to the absence of the prosecutor and his witnesses, unless the Magistrate is satisfied that the case is one in which an adjournment under s. 234 Act XXV of 1867 is proper.—18 W. R., Cr., 53.

7. The High Court is competent, under s. 297 Act of 1872, if it considers that the accused was improperly discharged, to order him not only to be tried, but also to be committed for trial; but from the absence of the words "order him to be tried" in s. 297 it would seem that a Magistrate cannot under that section direct a Subordinate Dismissal of Suit or Appeal.

1. During the pendency of a suit for rent, plaintiff procured an attachment of the growing crops, and without authority, and before the suit was determined, carried off some of the crops.—Held that, although this was an act properly punished by the Court below as a contempt with a fine, it was no ground for dismissing the suit.—1 Hay 56 (Marshall 21).

2. The inclusion by the plaintiff, in his notice of enforcement of land belonging to the heir-appellant of the defendant, is no reason for dismissing his whole suit.—
3. The entire claim of a plaintiff should not be dis-misst if a portion of the claim is proved to be false.—
1 W. R. 155 (3 R. J. P. J. 229), 7 W. R. 92, 141.

4. The property of the defendant should not be dis-misst if a portion of the claim is proved to be false.—
1 W. R. 155 (3 R. J. P. J. 229), 7 W. R. 92, 141.

5. Or because a just case is foolishly and wickedly attempted to be supported by false evidence.—(P. C.) 2 W. P. P.,

6. Or because plaintiff has misdescribed or over-stated the extent of his interest.—19 W. R. 190.

7. A Court is not bound to dismiss a case on account of non-appearance of plaintiff summoned by defendant to appear as a witness, when defendant did not petition for attachment or other legal process to be made by the Court to compel plaintiff's appearance.—2 W. R. (Act X) 42.

8. On failure to prove service of notice under s. 13 or 17 Act X) in a suit for enhancement, the suit should be dismissed without any declaratory decree.—3 W. R. (Act X) 139, 140; 6 W. R. (Act X) 14; 6 W. R. (Act X) 35.

9. No suit when notice is had is bad law.—12 W. R. 327.

10. A mere order of dismissal for default of prosecution, is not a decision within the meaning of the proviso to s. 77

11. In a case where defendant admits liability, the case should not be dismissed, but should be decided according to defendant's admission.—6 W. R. (Act X) 65.

12. A suit ought not to be dismissed because it was instituted before a Collector and not by a Sub-Division Court unless s. 20 Act VI of 1869 (R. C.) had been passed.—Held plaintiff should be returned to the plaintiff with a view to its being filed in the proper Court.—5 W. R. (Act X) 87.

13. A party seeking to put in motion the stringent provisions of s. 346 Act VI is bound to show very distinctly, that the procedure under it has been strictly complied with, —5 W. R., Misc., 32.

14. There is no provision in s. 6 Act XXIII of 1861 for the re-admission of an order once dismissed under that section.—6 W. R., Misc., 130.

15. A suit cannot be dismissed on the technical ground that a party has failed to verify his plaint as required by law.—10 W. R. 145.

16. Or that the plaint did not specify the land in defendant's possession.—14 W. R. 474.

17. On a mere point of form where all the parties are represented, and the plaint is entitled to a decree.—
24 W. R. 79.

18. A suit which puts forward a joint claim should be dismissed unless that joint claim is established. It is not enough that one of the plaintifs should make out his title.—10 W. R. 361.

19. Where a plaintiff's suit is barred by limitation, it should be dismissed with all costs.—11 W. R. 139.

20. In a suit to recover property brought by S and by D as guardian of R, where it was found that D alone was entitled to the property, the suit should not be dismissed on account of its formal incorrectness, but he allowed to proceed in the name of D alone, the name of R being struck off the record.—11 W. R. 507.

21. The dismissal of a suit for plaintiff's non-attendeace is a penalty not to be inflicted unless upon proof of deliberate disobedience of Court's distinct order to attend.—

17 W. R. 111.

22. An error as to date in the summons to plaintiff's witnesses is sufficient ground for setting aside an order dismissing his suit.—18 W. R. 464.

23. Where a party, suing for the whole of a property as well as for khas possession and mesne profits, fails to prove more than a proprietary right to a small portion, his entire claim ought to be dismissed.—18 W. R. 507.

24. The fact of the first Court having made an improper decree is a ground for the Lower Appellate Court, not to dismiss the suit, but to make a proper decree.—19 W. R. 195.

25. The Lower Appellate Court has no authority to dismise a suit after having found the only claim in the plaintiff's favor.—19 W. R. 318. See 20 W. R. 208.

26. Where plaintiff rests his case on a mortgage as well as a deed of sale and fails as to the latter, the suit should not be dismissed without trying the question whether there was a mortgage.—20 W. R. 73.

27. Where the first Court declared itself satisfied with the evidence of one witness and did not think it necessary to examine further witnesses whom the plaintiff adduced, the Lower Appellate Court, if not satisfied with the evidence of that one witness, ought, instead of dismissing the suit, to have given plaintiff an opportunity of examining the other witnesses.—20 W. R. 208.

28. No appeal lies from an order passed under s. 346

Act VII dismissing an appeal for default, the remedy being an application under s. 347.—21 W. R. 65.

29. Where plaintiffs claim is on the face of the cause actuar, but ask the Court to ascertain at what rate defendants ought to hold in case they should be found entitled to do so, their suit, whether or not, they can obtain the alternative relief or not, should not be dismissed.—21 W. R. 125.

30. A suit should not be dismissed on the technical ground that persons having interest in the subject-matter had not been made parties, it being the duty of the Court to take action under s. 78 Act VIII.—21 W. R. 187.

If a plaintiff asks for enhancement of rent and also seeks to possess the whole suit liable to dismissal.—22 W. R. 426.

A case having come on for hearing, the verification of the plaint was found to be false, whereupon plaintiff applied to withdraw the suit with permission to bring a fresh suit. As defendant had filed a written statement and had not objected to the verification.—Held that the Mooniff, instead of rejecting plaintiff's application and dismissing the suit with costs, ought to have disposed of the case on its merits.—24 W. R. 71.

Destrain.

1. A suit will lie, under cl. 7 s. 23 Act X of 1859, for an illegal distress upon an under-tenant who had paid his rent, in respect of rent due from his lessor to the superior landlord.—2 Hay 106 (Marshall 291).

2. A Gomasta is not competent to distrain for rent unless expressly authorised; nor is the zamindar liable for such illegal distress unless he ratifies the act of the Gomasta.—2 Hay 289 (Marshall 292).

3. The exercise of the power of — by one of a body of sharers in an undivided estate is illegal, with reference to s. 112 Act X of 1859.—Sed. 97.

4. S. 10 Act X of 1859 does not apply to a case where the plaintiff paid the amount claimed to the Court Ameen under protest, and afterwards brought his action alleging his rent to be more less than the rent distrained.—See 290.

5. A landlord cannot distrain crops for arrears due not from the tenant, but from a person who did not cultivate the crops, and is not in possession.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 77 (2 R. J. F. J. 352).

6. No suit for damages for illegal — of crops under s. 143 Act X can lie where the possession of the alleged distrainer and distrainee is clearly adverse, and where there is not either an actual or an implied relationship of landlord and tenant.—1 W. R. 36 (2 R. J. F. J. 156). See 11 W. R. 339, 25 J. (N. S.) 451.

7. Nothing can affect suit for value of crops lost by wrongful-, to which plaintiff's title has been established.—1 W. R. 89.

8. Where a distrainer acts without the authority of the superior holder, s. 143 Act X will not apply, but the acts of the distrainer are those of a trespasser for which he may be sued for damages in the Civil Court.—5 W. R. (Act X) 67.

9. Nor will Act X apply in a case where the distrainer is the agent of a person between whom and the defaulting tenant the relation of landlord and tenant does not subsist.—ib. See 11 W. R. 539.

10. Where a suit has been brought, under s. 142 Act X, on account of property damaged or destroyed by neglect of a distrainer, the Court is not competent to award damages for vexations —. Such damages are properly awarded by the Collector under s. 134 in a suit to contest the distrainer's demand.—5 W. R. (Act X) 68.

Act but do not do so according to the provisions of the Act. - 12 W. R. 68.
3. In order to maintain a suit under s. 148 Act X, the plaintiff must prove that the defendant, in making the distress, was acting not only without right, but without anything to justify him in supposing that he had a right to distress, - in other words, that he was a mere trespasser, without any reasonable foundation for the claim set up. - 15 W. R. 543.
13. When on the one hand a ryot institutes a suit to contest the demand of a distraint, the Court has no option, but must adjudicate upon the demand. If on the other hand the distraint has distrained "otherwise than according to the provisions of the Rent Act," he has done so at his peril, and rendered himself liable to an action for damages by the owner of the distrained property. - 21 W. DOWER.

1. According to Mahomedan and English law, if a husband assign to any person taking a legacy without putting forward her claim to ---, it will operate as a waiver of her claim to realize her --- out of the property so given up. —H. 9 W. 254.

2. According to Mahomedan law, ordinarily, --- is of the nature of a debt, and is claimable before the inheritance can be divided. If a widow's --- absorbs the whole estate, the whole estate becomes her absolute property, and she is not interested in any interest in it, which may dispose of it at pleasure. —S. 950. See 20 W. 92.

So much of the above decision was reversed as ruled that the effect of the grantment between a Mahomedan widow (a claimant for unpaid ---) and her son, by which the son relinquished his share in his late father's property, was to give the mother only a life-interest (the son retaining the legal reversion); the Privy Council being of opinion that the creation of such a lifeestate did not appear consistent with Mahomedan usage. —(P. C.) 17 W. 525.

3. According to Mahomedan law, majul or exigible --- is payable on demand at any time up to the death of the wife, and may be sued for within twelve years from that event. Majumul or non-exigible --- is claimable on the dissolution of the marriage by death or divorce. —W. R. Sp. 199, 211.

4. A share of --- when received by the legal inheritors thereof, cease to be --- and become part of the recipient's estate. —1b.

5. Where nothing is expected at the time of marriage, the marriage, under the Mahomedan law, can be considered exigible, and as such recoverable at any period during coverture. —W. R. Sp. 252 (L. R. 25).

6. Limitation is not applicable to a suit for exigible ---, where marriage is dissolve by death or divorce. —1b.

7. According to the Punjab Code (held to be in force in Oudh in the years 1859 and 1860), the --- mentioned in a marriage-contract, instead of being enforced as an absolute debt, claimed by the appellant was held to be subject to a modification at the discretion of the Court, both in the case of a divorce and of the death of the husband. —(P. C.) 2 W. R. P. C. 51 (Y. R. 154).

8. According to Mahomedan law, the death of --- is not necessary to prove a grant of ---. —1 W. R. 31, 5 W. R. 23.

9. A verbal contract of --- for a large sum is admissible only if proved by most clear and anti-factory evidence. --- W. R. Sp. 252.

10. Nature of proof required to make out a customary ---. —1b.

11. A Mahomedan widow's claim --- cannot take possession of her husband's estate as against the heirs, but must sue them regularly. —5 W. R. 194.

12. A Mahomedan widow's ---, even though it is in the hands of her husband, is considered to be her ---, held by him in trust for her, and on her death becomes divisable among her heirs; a suit by whom for her --- is governed by the limitation applicable to suits to recover intestate. —6 W. R. 111. See 11 W. R. 212.

13. Where a wife demanded only a portion of --- from her husband, limitation as to her claim to the remainder will count from the date of her husband's death and not from the date of her former demand. —6 W. R. C. 19.

14. The very best description of evidence is necessary to support a claim for ---, where no habarjeewah is produced. —7 W. R. 499. See also 11 W. R. 63, 12 W. R. 403.

15. The widow of a Mahomedan has a lien on her husband's estate for ---, whether prompt or deferred, and may hold possession till the claim is satisfied. —8 W. R. 51, 9 W. R. 118, 10 W. R. 370 (foot-note). But see 11 W. R. 212.

16. A Mahomedan widow was deprived of a portion of such estate under a decree before the question to as to her right of --- was disposed of. —Hold that the heir must be treated as having taken the property subject to right of ---. —1 W. R. 54.

19. A claim for the money amount of --- and a claim to establish a lien on property in respect to that amount are distinct causes of action. —1b.

20. In a suit against a widow who has taken possession of her husband's property, where an absolute decree of right is given to her husband's heirs, no right of lien for having been raised, the right of lien is a res judicata. —1b.

22. Where a Mahomedan widow had, after many years of possession under a claim of --- been compelled to give over one-sixth of her estate to her mother-in-law, and then sued her mother-in-law for one-sixth of her --- without interest, she was held entitled to recover her claim without deduction on account of mean's profits. —(P. C.) 9 W. R. 316.

23. See 14 W. R. 239.

24. A Mahomedan widow is entitled to a lien for whatever --- remains due to her, although there may be a dispute as to the amount actually due. —10 W. R. 396. See 14 W. R. 239. (P. C.) 17 W. R. 113.

25. An heir to a share of a deceased Mahomedan's estate cannot recover possession from the widow as long as any part of the --- remain undistributed. He may sue for an account of what is due as ---, praying to be put into possession on satisfaction of that amount. —1b.

27. One who has a claim for --- is exactly in the same position as any other creditor, and ranks pari passu with other ordinary creditors, having no special charge on the estate or preference of any sort; though ---, like every other debt, must be paid before the heirs are entitled to take anything. —11 W. R. 212. See also 13 W. R. 49, 14 W. R. 239, 15 W. R. 82. (P. C.) 17 W. R. 525, 20 W. R. 92.

28. Where a widow was put in possession of the property of her husband, in order thereby to obtain payment of her --- (10,000 Rs.), and she (and after her death, her heir) continued in possession for 15 years, --- Hold that there was a very strong presumption that the --- was paid off, and that in a suit to recover possession from the heir, the proper course would be to direct an account to be taken. —(P. C.) 11 W. R. P. C. 5.

29. A Mahomedan widow in possession of her husband's property must be treated in the light of a mortgage or pawn so far as her --- is concerned, and cannot be deprived of possession till her claim for --- is satisfied. —11 W. R. 239.

30. A claim for --- is not a lien on the property such as is obtained by a mortgage which enables the creditor to follow the property wherever it goes. The Mahomedan law has nowhere placed a claim for --- as high as a mortgage, but has ranked it on a par with other debts. —11 W. R. 239.

31. Neither the husband nor his creditors were allowed to assert a title against a Mahomedan lady in possession for twenty years of property given by him under a habin-namak, on the ground that he had not at the time the property in his possession. —14 W. R. 279.

32. The hypothecation of an estate for --- is a right that does not arise under the Mahomedan law as the consequence of a gift of ---. —(P. C.) 17 W. R. 113.

33. The right of a widow in possession is founded on her power, as creditor for her ---, to hold the property of her husband, until her debt is satisfied, with liability to account for the profits accrued. —(P. C.) 1b. See also 22 W. R. 118.

34. Presumption as regards amount of --- claimed where the widow's possession is not interfered with for a long time. —(P. C.) 7b.

35. Where, in a suit by the widow of F., brought against F's heir-at-law for deferred ---, it was found that no portion of --- estate had come into defendant's hands, ---, and that, whether the property was in the hands of the plaintiff herself, or of a third party, a suit for a declaration of right would be premature. —19 W. R. 268.

36. In a suit for ---, where plaintiff (appellant) had taken out no Certificate under a 3 Act, L. XXVII of 1860, the Privy Council remitted the cause to India to have it ascertained what amount of --- was payable by the respondent to the estate of his deceased wife, and what ---, for payment of debts, was the share of --- due to each co-sharer. —(P. C.) 19 W. R. 315.

34. Where it is not expressly stated whether the payment of the — is to be prompt or deferred, the rule is to regard the whole as due on demand. — (P. C.) 76.

35. Until the widows of a deceased mahomedan have brought their suit for — against the son who is in possession, and who has mortgaged it, the property in the sons hands is not subject to a lien or charge in favor of them, and it passes free from incumbrances to the mortgagee. — 20 W. R. 92.

36. In a suit by the heirs of a deceased mahomedan to recover from his widow the land property of which she claims to be in possession as absolute owner under a maherarre deed alleged to have been executed in lie of her — where she wholly fails to prove execution of the deed, it is competent to the Court, instead of referring the plaintiff to a separate suit, to direct an account to be taken of the meane profits received by the widow and of the amount due to her on account of — with a view to the settlement of the claims of both parties. — 20 W. R. 297.

37. When a mahomedan lady applied for leave to see her husband in forma pauporis for her — and the application was rejected, it was held not to constitute a demand for prompt — sufficient to set the period of limitation running. — 24 W. R. 163.

6. An auction-purchaser of a zemindar's sold for arrears of revenue cannot, under s. 26 Act I of 1845, eject a holder of a lakhera tenure though held under an invalid title.—2 Hay 121.

7. In a suit for —the plaintiff must establish a superior title to that of the defendant before he can obtain a decree.
   —2 Hay 303.

8. If a person evicted without legal process from land in his occupation, sues for possession under Act X of 1859, he is bound to show title.—2 Hay 549 (Marshall, 389), 7
   W. B. 30, 13 W. B. 21.

9. s. 78 Act X of 1859 does not empower a landlord to eject his tenant for non-payment of rent due in the middle of a year. The right of —for such default is maintainable, under s. 21, only for arrears due at the end of the year.—
   2 Hay 438 (Marshall 548). See also 5 W. B. (Act X) 45
   n. 177 post.

10. A lease contained a stipulation that the rook should give up such part of the land as was unfit for the cultivation of indigo, and should be sold for the payment of rent that he was really tenant of the land in question.—2 Hay 462 (Marshall 274). See also 6 W. B. (Act X) 51.

11. A defendant cannot eject a rook under a decree passed under s. 78, if in third party pays in the amount of the decree on the allegation that he has purchased the right and title of the original tenant.—2 Hay 527 (Marshall 127).

12. A decree in a suit for —of a rook for non-payment of rent was modified upon review, by reducing the amount of arrears awarded to the plaintiff. Held that the amended decree was the final decree in the suit, and that the rook was entitled, under s. 53 Act X of 1859, to 15 days from its date for payment of the arrears with costs and interest.
   —2 Hay 456 (Marshell 471).

So as to s. 52 Act VIII of 1869 (R. C.).—18 W. B. 477.

13. Under s. 21 Act X of 1859 a rook is not liable to — for non-payment of rent due for the first 10 months of the year, but only for arrears of rent due at the close of the Bengali year.—1 R. P. J. 50 (Sec. 25).

14. An —is not illegal because it took place before the

   1 R. J. P. J. 218.

15. In a suit for —where the question of a right of occupancy arose upon the pleadings, it was, at the start of the suit, decided and the defendant rested his tenancy were clearly forgeries.—2 R. J. P. J. 87,
   3 W. R. 208.

16. In a suit for rent and —under s. 78 Act X of 1859, where the defendant alleged an old unsatisfied decree and also alleged a current balance, and the Judge in giving the decree only specified the current balance, it was held that, by paying this rook, he saved himself from —

17. In a suit for rent and —under s. 25 Act X of 1859 does not apply to a case where the defendant is not a cultivator or tenant to the plaintiff but relies on a forged title adverse to the plaintiff's right to collect the rents direct from the tenant.—Sey. 157.

19. No —can take place without due process of law, the land in dispute to have been sold since 1790, was held

To be not conclusive against such person on the whole case, or as establishing the title of the opposite party, to try which a regular suit may be brought.—2 R. J. P. J. 355.

22. In a suit under cl. 6 s. 23 Act X of 1855, if the defendant disputes the tenure of the plaintiff, the proper issue for trial is not whether the plaintiff had a right of occupancy under s. 6, but whether he was illegally ejected or not; and if illegally ejected, the plaintiff is entitled to recover quietly the lands and premises, and to ap­peal to the Collector to eject him under s. 25 if the plaintiff be a ryot without a right of occupancy.—2 R. J. P. J. 171. See 65 post.

24. A zemindar who purchases his ryot’s rights and interests in the land after their sale for valuable consideration to another party, cannot oust the bond fide purchaser.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 63 (3 R. J. P. J. 123).

25. Where a person became surety for the due performance by the lessee of the obligations contained in a lease for a term of years, and afterwards became a partner with the lessee, and the lessee failed to pay the rent before the expiration of the lease,—field that the lessee was not entitled to the security for damages arising from the illegal,—although the surety was not a party to the original contract with the lessee. Explanation of the principle of assessing the damages.—(F. V. C.) 7 W. R. 334, 335 (3 R. J. P. J. 171).

26. It is optional with the lessee, on being dispossessed by his lessor before the expiry of his lease, either to sue for specific performance of contract for the remaining period of his lease, or for damages arising out of the breach of contract.—1 W. R. 49.

27. In a suit for — plaintiff must prove by the strength of his title only, and not the weakness of the defendant’s.—1 W. R. 98.

29. It is not necessary that the zemindar should be made a party to a suit for dispossessing brought by one ryot against another,—1 W. R. 110.

30. Nor can a decree be given against the zemindar as the ousted party in a suit for dispossessing brought by a party against his co-landlords.—1 W. R. 140.

31. An — effected through a Magistrate is still an — by the landlord and illegal if the tenant be entitled to continu­ation of the lease.—1 W. R. 269 (3 R. J. P. J. 331).

32. Whether the whole tenancy or a portion, is cognizable only in the Revenue Court under cl. 6 s. 23 Act X of 1859.—1b.

33. A suit for — does not lie under cl. 6 s. 23 Act X of 1859. It has been held an illegal suit by the party entit­led to receive the rents, and not where the contention is between two rival ryots.—1 W. R. 313. See also 6 W. R. 292;

7 W. R. 186, 493.

34. The — by the zemindar of a defaulting holder of a tenancy transferrable by sale, without application to any Court, is illegal under cl. 7 s. 15 Reg. VII of 1799.—2 W. R. 154.

35. One of several joint lessors can eject a lessee after expiry of the lease.—2 W. R. 290.

36. Under cl. 6 s. 23 Act X the — of a pardnomar by the zemindar is illegal except on proof of the invalidity of the pardnomar’s title.—2 W. R. (Act X) 2 (4 R. J. P. J. 10).

37. S. 25 Act X does not apply where plaintiff admits that defendant has a pattah, but questions the authority of the mohi who granted it. The appeal in such a case lies to the Judicial Commissioner.—2 W. R. (Act X) 10 (4 R. J. P. J. 49).

38. Where a tenure is transferrable, the mere absence of registration or acknowledgment of the zemindar’s right to make the ryot such a trespasser as to justify the zemindar in ejecting him in the usual mode, is not a ground that the tenant has not forfeited the right.—2 W. R. (Act X) 19 (4 R. J. P. J. 49), 8 W. R. 96.

39. A pattah for 8 years of term is not inconsistent with a right of occupancy, though holding under a pattah for a term of years, cannot be ejected by his landlord, unless the latter can prove a stipulation under s. 7 Act X.—2 W. R. (Act X) 84 (4 R. J. P. J. 184).

40. S. 25 Act X is limited to applications for — on deter­mination of lease.—2 W. R. (Act X) 101. See 65 post.

41. A tenant is liable to — if he has been admitted to possession by some one of the coparceners of a joint prop­erty, in the absence of any special custom giving them authority for such admission.—4 W. R. (Act X) 99. But see 6 W. R. (Act X) 98, 12 W. R. 452.

42. The transfer of a tenure not transferable by the custom of the country, does not cause a forfeiture of the tenant’s rights, or entitle the successor to eject such tenant or any one holding under him and take actual possession of the land himself, so long as the rent is paid by the recorded tenant or his heirs and not by a stranger.—5 W. R. 147. See 20 W. R. 139.

43. A — alleged to have taken place under direct action of Court and supported by documents issued by and filed in the Court, must be presumed to have been real and bond fide until the party ejecting proves the contrary.—6 W. R. 180.

44. A party aggrieved by an order of a Deputy-Collector passed under s. 25 Act X, may sue under cl. 6 s. 23, whether he was illegally ejected directly by the landlord, or indirectly by him through the Deputy-Collector.—5 W. R. (Act X) 16, 6 W. R. (Act X) 21. See 65 post.

45. A plaintiff ousted by the real defendant is not barred from suing in the Civil Court until the real defendant and the zemindar defendant settle any dispute between them by a suit under Act X.—5 W. R. (Act X) 52.

46. Persons holding over after the expiry of their lease are mere trespassers and cannot sue under cl. 6 s. 23 Act X.—5 W. R. (Act X) 95.

47. Where a lessee-regular, ousted by a pottahal, sues to recover possession, he should be restored to possession, and the zemindar be left to sue for resumption and assessment.—6 W. R. 190.

48. Dependant tabardars, re-admitted to temporary settlements, are not liable to — at the close of those settle­ments.—6 W. R. (Act X) 26.

49. On forfeiture of their leases by simply omitting to renew their temporary settlements—21 W. R. 26.

50. Under s. 78 Act X, a decree for — must be conditional on the defendant not paying the decreed rent within 15 days.—6 W. R. (Act X) 27, 64. See 65 post.

51. A decision under Act X is not final in a necessi­tate for — under cl. 6 s. 23 or s. 25, which depends on the question of possession and illegal dispossesssion only.—6 W. R. (Act X) 41.

52. S. 78 Act X is not confined to suits for — or cancel­lation of lease on account of non-payment of rent only, but on account of breach of contract also.—6 W. R. (Act X) 64, 7 W. R. 374, 8 W. R. 138, 11 W. R. 201. See 65 post.

53. An auction-purchaser’s right of — under Act I of 1816 has been modified by s. 1 Act X.—6 W. R. (Act X) 102.

54. Act X does not contemplate a suit for — after the landlord has sued and realised the arrears of rent due.—7 W. R. 20.

55. An eviction under s. 82 Act X, if by means of a collusive and fraudulent decree, is remediable under that Act.—7 W. R. 24.

56. Where bowrala and neem-bowrala tenures, recorded as rightful tenures of those classes at the first settlement, have never been set aside by the Revenue authorities, the holders are not liable to — under s. 22 Act XI of 1855 so long as they pay their settlement jumma.—7 W. R. 60.

57. Advice of a Deputy-Collector declining jurisdic­tion in a suit for — under s. 20 Act X, though upheld in appeal by the judge, is no bar (either in the way of in­judicata or otherwise) to a suit for ouster in the Civil Court.—7 W. R. 97.

58. Cannot be allowed for failure to clear a defined area by a certain time, unless stipulated for in the lease.—7 W. R. 209.

59. No subsequent imprisonment by A in B’s occupation of land is an answer to A’s claim for rent which had previ­ously accrued. B’s right of occupancy is based on the custom of the country which accrued prior to eviction.—8 W. R. 54. See 24 W. R. 219.

60. A tenant obtaining declarator of title and con­firmation of possession in a suit for ejectment without a fresh suit under Act X.—8 W. R. 281.

61. The purchaser of a jote is not bound by a subsequent decree against the vendor, but holds under s. 21 Act X, name registered in the seminat's sheristar.—10 W. R. 304. But see 10 W. R. 494.

70. Where a Deputy-Collector who had decreed a suit for payment of arrears due, held afterwards in execution that the arrear due to the plaintiff could not be ejected according to s. 78 Act X, his order in execution was declared to be ultra vires and illegal.—10 W. R. 346.

71. Tenants long in possession and paying rent cannot be summarily ejected in an action by an alleged purchaser suing for possession; they can only be ejected in a suit in the Revenue Court by the person entitled to receive rent.—11 W. R. 202.

72. A landlord who ejects his tenant illegally and holds possession as a wrongdoer, although he settles another tenant on the land, is liable only for the rent he receives during such possession, but also for damages consequent on—12 W. R. 101.

73. Where a tenant is sued for rent, he may set up eviction by a title paramount as an answer; and if so evicted from part of the land, an apportionment of the rent may take place, the onus being on the lessor to show what is the fair rent to be paid for the portion remaining in the tenant's occupation.—12 W. R. 109. See also 22 W. R. 542.

74. Where a tenancy is transferred without the landlord's sanction, and the landlord receives rent from the transferee and gives him receipts for the year he is in possession, he cannot afterwards eject him under a decree for the rent of previous years.—12 W. R. 396.

75. Under the Sale of Land as it existed before 1822, a talukdar could not be dispossessed at the will of the purchaser; he was not at all liable to pay the full per-annum rate and could only be ejected after refusal to pay the enhanced rate; but under Reg. XI of 1822, dependent taluks created subsequent to the Decennial Settlement were liable to be wholly avowed and supplanted at the option of the purchaser at a sale for arrears of Government revenue unless they fall within the class contemplated by s. 32 of that Regulation.—(P. C) 13 W. R. 53, 24.

76. An order that there should be a proceeding to execute under s. 78 Act X is an order for—13 W. R. 240.

77. The principle which applies to the case of ryots, applies also to the case of middlemen, viz., that the latter cannot be ejected by the landlord without a reasonable notice, expiring at the end of the year.—13 W. R. 267. See 9 ante.

78. A landlord may be sued to dispossess a tenant who does not personally occupy the land, by inducing the tenant's under-tenants to pay rent to him (the landlord).—11 W. R. 58.

79. Where a decree for—was passed under s. 78 Act X, and the defendant urged in special appeal that he ought to have been allowed 15 days' time under that section to pay the money,—Hold that it was quite within his power, after the decree was passed, to invoke the benefit of the section, and that he could not be allowed to make the objection in special appeal.—11 W. R. 178.

80. Where land is held jointly and there is no partition, one joint-owner cannot insist on the—of a person who has been holding under the other joint-owner for a number of years.—14 W. R. 188. See 20 W. R. 70.

81. There is nothing in s. 15 Act XIV which deprives a party of his right to institute proceedings under s. 25 Act X, instead of proceeding under s. 15 Act XIV by a suit in the Civil Court.—14 W. R. 147.

82. A suit on the ground of illegal possession—held that the plaintiff should have brought his suit under s. 78 and not under s. 10 Act X. See 10 W. R. 156.

83. A change in the proprietary title of an estate does not entitle a patrundar who holds from the new proprietor to eject a tenant who can prove a right of occupancy.—15 W. R. 417.

Note: The new proprietor to eject patunudars in possession.

7 W. R. 576.

84. One of several co-owners cannot sue to eject a tenant of land which belongs to them all.—16 W. R. 198. See 20 W. R. 126.

85. The lessee’s grace allowed to a lessee prior to — cannot be negatived by any condition in the lease.—10 W. R. 161.

86. In a suit for rent where lessee pleaded — his defence was held to have failed because he was unable to show that his lessee had no title and that the persons who ousted him had a title.—17 W. R. 386.

87. The Court cannot in special appeal go behind a decree for — and hold that the tenure in question was of that character that no order for — could pass.—17 W. R. 421.

88. Payment into Court by a judgment-debtor, within 15 days from date of decree, of rent, interest, and costs, with protest as to interest, is a sufficient payment under s. 52 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) to save him from — 17 W. R. 462.

89. In a suit for — the Court in special appeal declined to allow the defendants to take the objection not taken in the Lower Courts, that plaintiff, having allowed him to hold over and to cultivate with indigo, could not eject him without sufficient notice to quit at least until the indigo season was over.—18 W. R. 148.

90. A decree for — under s. 78 Act X, made in a suit for arrears of rent of a transferable tenure to which a person enjoining the mortgagee was no party, cannot be confirmed upon the decree-holder (the purchase or execution of a decree against the mortgagee) the right to avoid the mortgage, and is no bar (under s. 2 Act VII) to a suit by the mortgagee against the lessee and the Collector to make it.—18 W. R. 206.

91. The only suits for — contemplated by Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) are those for non-payment of arrears of rent. A suit for — from land assigned for building purposes and brought upon a contract, is not barred by reason of an order for — on an application under s. 25 Act X.—18 W. R. 208.

92. Act X of 1869 (B. C.) relates only to agricultural holdings.—25 W. R. 136.

93. Where a tenant, not having paid the amount of the decree against him for arrears of rent within 15 days, was held by the First Court to be liable to — Held, with reference to ss. 52 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) and also s. 78 Act X of 1859, that the Appellate Court had discretion to extend the time.—18 W. R. 192. See also 22 W. R. 460, 23 W. R. 560.

94. Where two co-owners granted two separate leases, each co-extensive with the share of its grantor, and after the expiration of the term thereof, one of the co-owners granted the lessee a new lease in respect of his share only — Held that the lessee had no right to eject the other share, the owner of which was entitled to eject the lessee as holding over after the expiration of his lease.—20 W. R. 70.

95. Where plaintiff purchased a house on the land in dispute 13 years before the institution of the suit, and after occupying it for 4 years, left the district, paying no rent for the next 7 or 8 years, wherein the residuary part of the tenant in possession and took rent from him — Held that plaintiff had no right to eject defendant.—20 W. R. 129.

96. Eviction from part of the demised property may either give the tenant a cause of action for damages for or for suspension or abatement of rent.—20 W. R. 347.

97. A decree for ejecting a tenant-at-will at the commencement of the next Bengal year, was held to be amenable to notice to quit.—20 W. R. 401. See also 23 W. R. 271, 440.

98. A party who is under an obligation by the terms of a decree not only to pay arrears of rent but also to give up possession, is allowed by s. 52 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) relief from the operation of the latter portion of the decree if he pays the money decreed within 10 days of the date of the decree.—21 W. R. 11, 22 W. R. 311, 25 W. R. 60.

99. After termination of lease, neither consent nor ratification can be inferred from plaintiff allowing defendant to hold over for a year or two and then demanding a higher rent which defendant refused to give.—21 W. R. 69.

100. After having given a suit under a Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) to another suit for another possession of land to R who obtained possession under his potish, M then sued D and R for — and to recover possession.—Held that M’s remedy lay in an action for damages and that he could not claim specific performance unless unless those were raised by objection to giving up occupance under s. 2 Act VII.—22 W. R. 7.

101. Where a suit for — was dismissed on the ground that defendant was not a trespasser but a tenant, and plaintiff sued again on the allegation that the defendant was a trespasser through lately a tenant.—Held that the suit, though not barred by s. 2 Act VIII, must be dismissed as plaintiff had not terminated the tenancy by giving defendant reasonable notice to quit.—23 W. R. 115.

102. Where a tenant is rightly finding and under some one who represents the landlord, he cannot be ejected before his tenancy has terminated, even though he has no right of occupancy under s. 6 Act VII of 1869 (B. C.).—22 W. R. 196.

103. A put foreclosure desires of ejecting a tenant whose lease has expired, need not give him a written notice to quit; a verbal notice being sufficient.—23 W. R. 312.

104. In a suit for — where defendant pleaded possession under a potish granted to him upon the loss of a mortgagee encumbrance potish, and the First Court, concluding that the potish had not been proved, nevertheless found that defendant had acquired a right of occupancy as a tenant and dismissed the suit, — Held that the Lower Appellate Court, upon the plaintiff’s appeal, ought not to have gone beyond the judgment of the First Court and added a superfluous amount as to the genuineness of the potish.—23 W. R. 332.

105. Where land is given to a lessee for the purpose of building a house to live in, without any term being fixed for the tenancy, the tenure of house and land cannot be taken from the lessee’s house or land unless he continues to pay the rent assessed on it.—23 W. R. 399.

106. Where tenants have obtained a right of occupancy under s. 6 Act VII of 1869 (B. C.) a suit for — Held that they can only be brought under Act.—23 W. R. 411.

107. Plaintiff having sued to eject defendant from his land on the ground that defendant’s lease had expired, did not succeed because he failed to prove the kalooloh. He now sued to eject defendant after notice to quit. — Held that in the former suit defendant was treated as a trespasser, but in the latter as a tenant-at-will; and that the cause of action in the one case was different from that in the other.—24 W. R. 172. See also 25 W. R. 418.

108. With reference to ss. 52 and 54 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), the word “reversed” was taken to mean, not reversed in tenor, but reversed in respect of the part of the arrears which the ryot contends in the Appellate Court.—21 W. R. 192.

109. A landlord by disposing of his tenant in the middle of the year does not, in this case, forfeit his right to remit which have already accrued due. Whether he does or not must depend on circumstances, e.g. upon the question whether the ryot has enjoyed all the year’s profits, or has been prevented from enjoying any by the landlord’s act of interference.—24 W. R. 210.

110. Where a judgment-debtor compiled with the terms of a rent-decree as he found them, in the certified copy issued to him, he was held protected from — even though the amount paid (owing to an error in the copy) was less than the amount really due.—25 W. R. 57.

111. Where land is held under an agreement of perpetual lease, the lessor cannot be ousted without notice to quit.—25 W. R. 104.

112. Where a Judge decreed a suit for — on the ground that it was alleged in the plaint that the defendant’s tenancy was terminable and had terminated, and that the defendants had not proved in their statement of the actual termination, the grounds of the affirmative conclusion were held to be insufficient in law, the defence having been that the tenancy was not terminable. — 25 W. R. 107.

113. The mere fact that a building has been erected on a piece of land with the consent of the proprietor does not give to the occupant a right to hold the land perpetually at the same rate; and if the proprietor, with an ultimate view of raising the rent, is not by law entitled to have his title to eject tried in that suit, but he is not at liberty, after defendant’s statement is filed, to withdraw his original claim and substitute one for enhanced rent.—25 W. R. 136.

115. If a tenant holds for a term of years, and no new tenancy is created by the memorandum after the termination of the lease, either by receipt of rent or otherwise, and if the tenant has no other title to the land besides the lease, the memorandum is entitled to eject him, on the expiration of the lease, without the intervention of a Court.—25 W. 2. Government held liable for rents of land not legally and formally taken possession of by its officers for an —W. R., P. B., 18 (1 Hay 122, Marshall 26).

3. A proprietor who, by erecting an — in his own land, impedes the flow of surface drainage water from the higher land of another proprietor, is liable to pay damages on proof of actual resulting loss.—W. R., P. B., 25 (1 Hay 152, Marshall 85).

4. In a suit for reduction or removal of an —, plaintiff must establish not only injury, actual or prospective, but an injury caused by an obstruction of right possessed by plaintiff.—10 W. R. 430, 11 W. R. 2.

5. Where fresh bunds are erected every year to the injury of a riparian proprietor, each act of setting up a bund constitutes a separate cause of action.—18 W. R. 46.

6. In a suit for damages for the demolition of a singha or — intended to keep in surface water, if the — was situated on the defendant's land, such demolition could only be a cause of action where it not only inflicted a definite right but caused actual damage.—15 W. R. 290.

7. A party claiming to erect a bund in a natural flowing river so as entirely to cut off the water from another party, is bound to prove that he has acquired the legal right to do so by user.—15 W. R. 416.

8. A Magistrate has no authority to order the cutting of a bund or otherwise to interfere with it, except by a proceeding under chap. XX Act XXV of 1861—16 W. R. 63.

9. In a suit to close a bund cut by defendant and for an injunction to restrain him from injurious cuttings in future, it is material to decide the question as to the property in the bund, and if that be found in favor of defendant, to try whether he has so used his property as to injure plaintiffs according to the maxim "sic utero tuo ut alienum non laedes."—17 W. Encroachment.
1. If a rent has encroached upon land which he cannot distinguish from his rightful holding, the presumption is that he encroached upon the best land. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 44 (2 R. J. P. J. 207).

2. A landlord cannot sue his lessee's tenant to clear the land of buildings and trees raised by — after the commencement of the lease, until after the expiration of the lease. — 8 W. R. 312.

3. A suit for damages was held to be justified against a defendant who encroached upon a public thoroughfare which caused plaintiff damage (by undermining his wall) and inconvenience beyond, and in excess of, what his neighbours suffered. — 21 W. R. 408.

4. A suit for the removal of fences — is maintainable without actual damage having occurred, or the immediate prospect of damage, if it can be shown that some damage may arise from the — hereafter, when, from plaintiff's neglect to interfere for a series of years, the opposite party would possibly have acquired a right which would bar plaintiff's remedy. — 22 W. R. 73. See also 20 W. R. 521.

5. Excess land. — See Land 5.

6. The true presumption as to encroachments made by a tenant during his tenancy upon the adjoining lands of his landlord is that the lands so encroached upon are added to the tenure and form part thereof for the benefit of the tenant, so long as the original holding continues and afterwards for the benefit of his landlord, unless it clearly appeared that the tenant made the — for his own benefit. — 22 W. R. 246.

7. Where the lands encroached upon have been added to the tenure, the tenant, if his tenancy is permanent or he has a right of occupancy, cannot be ejected from them while the tenure lasts; but when the rent is re-adjusted, these may be brought into the calculation. — Id.

1. According to Mahomedan law, a valid — may be verbally constituted without any formal deed — 2 Hay 415.

2. The mere fact of the proceeds of a piece of land having been appropriated for the worship of an idol, does not, in itself, constitute the property of the idol — 2 Hay 490. Int see 8 W. R. 42, 20 W. R. 267.

Nor does the mere fact of land being released by the people to the use of the appropriate society or activity of the idol impose on it the character of a religious — so as to exempt it permanently from attachment and sale in execution of a decree against a person who may hold it — 21 W. R. 365.

3. A decree obtained honestly against a schist is binding on his successor. — Marshall 485, 20 W. R. 86. (P. C.) 22 W. R. 203.

4. Effect of a will by a hekmat appointing his spiritual brother as his successor with a direction as to the person who should be the latter's successor. — 2 Hay 633 (Marshall 573).

5. A will appointing the private council as the successor to the office of trustee of the — was held to be a good title both by limitation and otherwise. — See 316.

6. Where the owner of a Mahomedan was disposed of by a Hindu and for 17 years took no steps to recover it, — even if the right of Mahomedan law to the inalienability of wazaf property applied, the former's suit to set aside a puttee lease granted by the latter and to recover possession of the land, was barred by limitation, whatever the rights of his successor might be, even if he were not also barred from suing to set aside the lease on the ground that, if the transaction was illegal, he was in pari delictis. — See 501.

7. Neither under Reg. XIX of 1810 nor by Mahomedan law have the Civil Courts any jurisdiction to enforce the performance of the trusts of an — or to displace trustees who are faithless to the trusts reposed in them. — See 835.

8. Mismanagement is a good ground for the interference of the Court; and although wazaf property is not deemed a subject of inheritance, yet persons who are the donee's kin would be entitled to sue a manager who was wasting the property, and, if qualified themselves, might have a claim to succeed the disqualified person in the management, and to manage the trust in conformity with the intention of the founder. — See 670.

9. Land granted to an idol as deobatta must be foguel to be ancient hereditary deobatta publicly assigned as such prior to the donor's incumbrance. — See 167.

10. A cumbi is in the position of trustee for the founder, and cannot create permanent incumbrances to the injury of the endowed property. No prescription derived from the trustee can in such cases run against the heirs and representatives of the founder. — W. R. Sp. 157.

11. Where one of three trustees of an — each entitled to a third share of the profits, withdraws from a contest between them, his share can only be said to be relinquished in favor of the remaining partners, and to be merged in the general account. — 6 R. Sp. 171.

12. In dealing with the mukattama of an — a purchaser need look no farther than the surety's deed of trust, whether exercised judiciously or not. — W. R. Sp. 241.

13. In a Mahomedan religion — where the manager should have certain qualifications which do not exist, hereditary succession would be out of place. — W. R. Sp. 327.

14. According to Mahomedan law, wazaf or endowed property is not alienable; nor is it the less wazaf property because of the use of the words "Eman" and "Almugni" in the grant, provided the grant clearly appears to have been intended for charitable purposes. — (P. C.) 6 W. R. P. 3, 20 W. R. 23, 22 W. R. 107.

15. A mukattama or superintendent of a Mahomedan — is not barred by limitation if he sues to recover possession of endowed property within 12 years from the date of his appointment. — Id.

But the ordinary rules of limitation are applicable (since the passing of Act XX of 1860) to a mukattama not appointed by Government. — 17 W. R. 430. See 25 W. R. 542.

16. The succession to an — for ascesis cannot be altered by the act of an ascetic, a mere life-tenant. — 1 W. R. 190.

17. Position of an auction-purchaser of rights and interests sold in execution, in respect to endowments said to be charges on the estate. — 2 W. R. 367.

18. Unless endowed property descends to a deceased khadin's heirs, they have no right to interfere with or manage it; and a khadin having only a life-interest in such property cannot give a mortmain of it, and only with a power extending beyond his lifetime. — 2 W. R. 189, 5 W. R. 168.

19. A mukattama in possession is entitled to make arrangements for endowed lands and to obtain kudosdass from the ryots. — 2 W. R. (Act X) 70.

20. A nominal — once made is not to be regarded as an — for ever and safe from liability of the founder or his heirs. Test of an — being bond fide or nominal. — 3 W. R. 142. See 25 W. R. 507.

22. The right of worship of an idol, being the joint property of the family of the endower, cannot be transferred to a third party so as to inure beyond the life of the assignor. — 3 W. R. 152.

23. Clear proof is necessary to support a gift (declared orally by a person at the point of death) of all the donor's property to idols. — 3 W. R. 165, 5 W. R. 82.

24. The profits of a deobatta moval may be assigned so long as the deobatta is duly kept up. — 3 W. R. (Act X) 12.

25. The right of several co-sharers in an — to recover possession of the land from which he has been ousted by the other co-sharers, is a personal and not a hereditary right. A decree for that purpose, obtained by him if not executed by him during his lifetime, will become infructuous after his death. His widow, however, can recover in a regular suit whatever sums he paid out of his own funds for the service of the idols. — 3 W. R. Mis. 22.

In a suit to recover on a bond given by the donee of a warr as a charge on the warr, it was held that as the obligor had turned the previous manager out of possession, and as his own right to possession was contested at the time he executed the bond, he was in a better position than a trespasser and wrong-doer, and that as the bond was given for antecedent claims against the warr, of which a portion at least would, but for the fresh right of suit given by the bond, have been barred by limitation, and as no proceedings had been taken for sequestration or attachment of the property, there was no necessity for giving the bond, and the suit could not succeed.—14 W. R. 117.

52. Where mutwal property devolves to a widow as mutwaltee, it cannot be sold in execution of a decree against her deceased husband, nor is she bound by a decision adverse to a claim set up by her husband's grandfather in respect to the property concerned if she was not a party to the litigation.—15 W. R. 75.

53. In the case of mutwal property, the mere stoppage of religious services does not start limitation.—16 W. R. 116.

54. The chief elements of mutwal are special words declaratory of the appropriation and a proper motive cause; the mutwal is completed where the declaration is made in a solemnly published document.—16.

55. A valid mutwal cannot be affected by revocation or by the bad conduct of those responsible for carrying out the appropriate's behests, nor can it be alienated.—19.

56. The appropriation of property to the religious services of a family has never, in modern times at least, been held to require the assent of the State; and where such a trust appears to be established as to the lands dedicated, it lies on the opposite party to show some legal conversion of the lands to the ordinary uses of property. (P. C.) 17 W. R. 41.

57. Where a party has purchased joint family property under circumstances which prove that he must have had notice of its having been dedicated to religious purposes, and does not show that he made any enquiries as to his grounds for supposing that the trust was legally at an end, he cannot exonerate the property from the trust attached to it.—(P. C.) 16.

58. The mutwaltee of a Mahomedian—though guilty of gross neglect in the supervision of his share, is entitled to recover from the treasurer's surfeits sums misappropriated by the treasurer, in the absence of fraud or connivance at the delinquency of the treasurer.—17 W. R. 181.

59. A person who succeeds his father as seba is not bound by any acts of his father done in fraud of the trust.—17 W. R. 444.

60. An application under s. 5 Act XX of 1868 to be appointed manager of a religious—was held rightly rejected on the ground that there had been no transfer of the property by the Local Government under s. 4.—18 W. R. 896.

61. The mere fact that a portion of the profits of land in the possession of a party had been for some time used for the worship of an idol, is no proof of an, and cannot impose on such party the liabilities attaching to the office of a sebait.—18 W. R. 399.

62. A sebait may lose endowed lands for a period never extending beyond his lifetime or his incapacity.—18 W. R. 439.

63. Where land has been given as debaitur land and the requisite service is not performed, all that the seminar can do is to take steps to have the service performed; he cannot recover it in a suit for khas possession.—18 W. R. 472. See 41 ante and 72 post.

64. The general principle regulating the devolution of property belonging to a mohunt, on the death of a mohunt, is that a virtuous pupil takes the property. In some instances the mohuntship descends to a personal heir, and in others to a successor appointed by the existing mohunt; but the ordinary rule is that muths of the same sect in a district, or having a common origin, are associated together, and, on the death of one mohunt, the others assemble to elect a successor either out of the disciples of the deceased or from those of another mohunt.—19 W. R. 215.

66. A mohunt in charge of an, with only a life interest in the property, cannot create an interest superior to his own, or, except under the most extraordinary pressure and for the distinct benefit of the, bind his successors in office. If a purchaser from such mohunt retained possession after the mohunt's death, the successor to the golded would have a cause of action against him from the date of the election, and no length of possession during the vendor's lifetime would give the purchaser a valid title as against the present mohunt.—20 W. R. 471.

67. The Civil Courts have no power to bind in perpetuity all the successive owners of an, to the mode in which their property should be managed; and the sebait of a debaitur may make such arrangement for its management as is consistent with their duties, but they cannot bind or affect either of all their successors.—21 W. R. 41.

68. In a suit to set aside the sale of property belonging to a religious, the Lower Court gave a decree in favor of his reversionary rights declaring that the conveyance was void, and (on appeal) adhered to the extent of such portion as was sold to meet pressing debts and necessities of the muth. Held: such a decree was erroneous, as the transaction of sale was one and indivisible; and no right to sue the purchaser of the property, as the conveyance on which he sued did not pass to him any right, present or reversionary, in the property.—21 W. R. 394.

69. According to s. 18 Act XX of 1863, no order for costs can be made out of the estate whose a party to the suit is in fault.—22 W. R. 21.

70. Plaintiffs, the wives of R who had been appointed sebait under his father's will, were held to have no right as sebait against R, and could not maintain a suit for declaration of the rights of the idols in certain property and for possession by setting aside an execution sale; and as they had omitted to make R a defendant, the Court could not make him a party under s. 73 Act VIII without a material variation of the plaint.—22 W. R. 97.

71. A suit for the removal of the present mohunt of a religious, and for the appointment of another in his place, is not of such a nature as is contemplated by Act XX of 1863.—22 W. R. 364.

72. Where the objects of an are not carried out, it does not follow that the property can be resumed by the heir of the original donor as if there was a forfeiture; but some person authorised by law must take steps for securing its profits to the object of the. —23 W. R. 166.

73. The jurisdiction given to Courts by Act XX of 1863 cannot be excluded by any clause in a deed of.—23 W. R. 190.

74. Where a mutaialne was proved guilty of waste, the High Court ordered him to file in Court every six months a true and complete account of his income, expenditure, and dealings with the property belonging to the. —18 W. R. 399.

75. A memorandum of agreement, by which certain Government securities had been appropriated to the service of an idol, was refused to be set aside as a colorable transaction having no validity, merely upon the suggestion that the amount set apart was exorbitant and that there might possibly have been an intention to defraud widows and others.—(P. C.) 23 W. R. 399.

76. Where a Mahomedan widow of the Sereen sect executed a tenementnmaul with a view to perpetuate certain ceremonies in commemoration of her mother's death, involving the recital of prayers in her own Imambara, and the expenses of the first ten days of the Mohurrum, held that the was not of a public character coming under the provisions of Act XX of 1863.—23 W. R. 455.

77. Where a purva-sambeen lady makes an appropriation of property, which, so far as words go, is a will, it still remains to consider whether it was intended by the appro- priator to operate as such; such ladies having a claim to special consideration, particularly when they deny on oath an effectual knowledge of documents which they are said to have made.—23 W. R. 455.

78. Though one person may be the representative of two idols, money brought into Court as the property of one idol cannot be applied by the representative of that idol to pay the debts of the representative of the other idol.—25 W. R. 401.

1. In a suit to contest notice of, Judge not bound to order local enquiry. No special appeal will lie from exercise of discretion by Judge in such a matter.—W. R. F. B. 19 (1 Hay 229, Marshall 60).

4. A mukurruee tenant is not exclud from as against an auction-purchaser before, Act XI of 1859 unless his mukurruee was created 12 years before, the Permanent Settlement.—W. R. F. B. 81 (1 Hay 424, Marshall 307), 6 W. R. 46. (Overselled by F. B.) No 202 post.

6. Where a tenant (appellant) seeks to reduce the amount of enhanced rent decreed, the respondent may under s. 948 Act VIII of 1859 show that he ought to have been more than that decreed.—16.

8. Question for decision in suit to contest notice of, ——W. R. F. B. 59 (1 Hay 482, Marshall 185).

10. In a suit for enhanced rent where liability to — is disputed, a declaratory decree for — may be given without prejudice. —W. R., B. F., 127 (Marshall 638). See also 7 W. R. 285, (P. C.) 70 W. R. 175, 22 W. R. 483, 23 W. R. 442. But see 189 post. 11. In a suit for — where lakheras is pleaded, payment of lakheras is not a condition precedent. — See also 7 W. R. 44. 12. Valuation of produce. Wages of ryot. Allowance for house. —Risk on cultivation. Interest and insurance. — Rate of fine. Ryothu right of occupancy. — W. R., B. F., 131. 13. Mutation and rights of ryots. — W. R., F. B., 148. (R. J. P. L. 179, Ser. 1855). 14. Where payment of rent at a uniform rate from 1208 does not afford the necessary proof that the tenure is a subordinate and, as such, protected from — 1 Ray 51. 15. An old decision of a Register’s Court between the ancestors of the present parties, by which the defendant’s ancestor recovered possession of the tenure described in it as a taluk under s. 5 Reg. VIII of 1795, was held insufficient to prove the payment of uniform rent for 12 years prior to the Decennial Settlement. The plaintiff was held not entitled to any rent at the enhanced rate until his demand was effectively made in Court; but as he had not proceeded in making good his claim to the rates demanded, he could only recover the rent of rate fixed by the Court from the date of the decree. —1 Ray 439. 16. In declaring a tenure liable to —, the Court should decide the question of rate at once and not leave it to be determined in execution of decree. —2 Ray 89. 17. Notice must be served on each tenant before enhanced rates can be decreed. —2 Ray 120. 18. A farmer, entitled to enhance the rent of ryots holding under him, when there is no condition or stipulation in his lease precluding him from so doing. —2 Ray 394 (Marshall 351). 19. Under s. 1, Act X of 1829, signed by the Nahi of the landlord, is valid without evidence that he was specially authorized to sign the notice. —2 Ray 102 (Marshall 264). 20. A posting, not transferable, may be pleaded, even by a tenant, in a suit for —. —2 Ray 414. 21. In a suit for — under cl. 1 s. 17, Act X of 1839, on the ground that the rates are below the prevailing rates payable in the neighbourhood, the question whether and to what extent the rents ought to be enhanced, is to be determined by a comparison of the rents actually paid by similar adjoining lands, without reference to the value of the land, the cultivation or occupancy under them, and the mode of assessment. —2 Ray 437 (Marshall 372). See also 5 W. R. (Act X) 70, 6 W. R. (Act X) 15, 7 W. R. 118, 11 W. R. 388. 22. And as under cl. 1, s. 18, Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), the words, "in the event of " not necessarily implying contract. —21 W. R. 137. 23. Under the same clause a Court cannot strike an average on the rates of rent proved before it, but must decide what is a fair and equitable rate of rent for defendant to pay. —22 W. R. 185. 24. In a suit for — upon the above ground, the judge exempted from any — a tank and garden, on the ground that the tank had been dispensed for public use, and that the garden had been rendered productive by the cultivation of the tenants. Held that neither reason was any ground of exemption from —. 25. The necessity of serving notice of — does not cease by reason of the tenant holding a moiety of the estate of another person under an arrangement to pay a higher rent for the moiety. —2 Ray 445. 26. The mere circumstance that the landlord has assigned to a creditor a certain amount of the rents for certain years extending beyond an existing lease, does not prevent him from enhancing the rent after the expiration of the term. —2 Ray 448. 27. The — of the rent of an undivided fractional part of a tenure involves — of the rent of the whole tenure and destroys the presumption raised under s. 4 and 16 Act X of 1839. —29 W. R. 144. 28. A dry up fessel is liable to — if rendered incapable of cultivation by a change in the course of the river. —2 W. R. 515. 29. A suit for — is not maintainable against the descendant of the grantee of a hereditary conditional tenure. —The remainder must first set to resume, on the ground that the jagroh has been determined by breach of the condition through neglect of the service. —Marshall 518. 30. A joint notice of — was served upon several ryots whose jummas were in fact not s. 32 R. J. P. L. 115, 12 W. R. (Act X) 44. 31. An increase in the productive power of the land, occasioned by an embellishment, constructed at the expense of Government, for excluding the sea from flooding the land, is a ground of — under s. 17—18. 32. In a suit to recover khas possession of land of which the plaintiff alleged he had been fraudulently dispossessed by the defendant, the defendant claimed to be entitled to the possession of the holding as a hereditary gift of his, for a great rent. The Judge found upon the facts that the deed of gift was invalid, that the land was middie, and that the defendant was entitled to retain the possession, and therefore dismissed the suit. Held that the plaintiff was not entitled to maintain the suit, as the defendant had taken possession of the land as owner. —Marshall 608. 33. In a suit for — the Collector dissimulated the suit, on appeal the Judge held that rent was liable to —, and referred the case to the Collector to find what rate was equitable. Held that a special appeal lay from the decision of the Judge, notwithstanding the remand to find the rate. —16. 34. A landlord is not entitled to enhance rent by the circumstance that he has caused the tenant to be sold under a decree. —Marshall 605, 6 W. R. (Act X) 95. 35. In a suit for — the Deputy Collector found that the annual revenue obtained by the ryots was 12,579 Rs., and that an increase in such rates was partly due to the exertions of the defendant in reclaiming some waste land, and he debited 2,579 Rs. as the defendant’s share, and awarded 10,000 Rs. as a fair and reasonable rate to be paid to the plaintiff. Held that there was no reason for impeaching his award of this rate. —16. 36. The purchaser of a transferable tenure under which the rent cannot be enhanced is entitled to the benefit of it, although he may not have acquired it for 12 years or acquired a right under the Permanent Settlement, although the full rate was fixed under a revenue or subordinate. —1 J. J. P. L. 51 (Ser. 36). 37. In a suit for enhanced rent, the guide is not the rates of the particular village in which the land is situated, but the prevailing rate payable by the same class of ryots for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the places adjacent. —1 R. J. P. L. 44 (Ser. 23). See also 169 9 W. R. 319; 11 W. R. 112, 515; 12 W. R. 475; 13 W. R. 297. 38. A notice under s. 13 Act X of 1859 must state the rent payable by the tenant in the ensuing year and the ground of —, but need not record the exact area. The Court will award an amount proportionate to the area actually found in the occupation of the ryot. —1 R. J. P. L. 61 (Ser. 226). See also 12 W. R. 175. 39. An auction-purchaser at a sale for arrears of revenue prior to Act X of 1859 cannot enhance the rent of land which has been held at a fixed rent from the time of the Permanent Settlement, although the fottah by which the rent was fixed was not revenue or subordinate. —1 J. J. P. L. 51 (Ser. 39). 40. An outwai taluk, the rent of which has not been changed from 1198 B. S. is not liable to — under s. 15 Act X; nor, if the taluk were granted within defined boundaries, is any excess land not beyond those boundaries liable to — under s. 17, which liability would be in the hands of the holding permanent rights. —1 R. J. P. L. 100 (Ser. 66). See also 10 W. R. 435. 41. And in a suit for — on proof of payment of uniform rate of rent for more than 20 years, the Court is bound to presume that the rent has been unchanged since the Permanent Settlement. —1 R. J. P. L. 106, 6 W. R. (Act X) 51. 42. Plaintiff having sued for enhanced rent of land consisting of two parcels, one found not liable and the other CHALLENGE, may be presumed to have existed previously so as to be protected from. — W. R. Sp. 204.

60. A decree declaratory of plaintiff’s general right to enhance on future service of notice may be set aside under Reg. V of 1812 for — at a specified rate, in which service of notice was not proved. — W. R. Sp. 312.

61. In a suit for, if defendant relies on a pottah given long after the Permanent Settlement, his own defence rebuts any presumption which might arise under s. 4 Act X of 1859 from a 20 years’ uniform payment of rent. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 36, 124. See also s. 6 W. R. (Act X) 60, 8 W. R. 129, 9 W. R. 124, 16 W. 62. An indigo factory is a “conspicuous place,” within the meaning of the same section, where a notice of — may be affixed. — Ib.

63. Before Act X of 1859, there was no law which prevented a zemindar from enhancing his rent unless the ryot had held at fixed rates for 12 years before the Decennial Settlement. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 68 (2 R. J. J. 265).

64. Muostearis are protected from — not as such, but as intermediate tenants, under s. 15 and 16 Act X of 1859. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 61 (2 R. J. J. 207). See 9 W. R. 37, 3.

65. Jangleboree tenants are liable to. — Ib. See also 11 W. R. 31.

66. A middleman is liable to —. Two-thirds was held to be a fair proportion of the surplus profits of the land to be awarded to the landlord. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 71 (2 R. J. J. 313). See also 6 W. R. (Act X) 41, 8 W. R. 181, 12 W. R. 449, 13 W. R. 328.

67. S. 17 Act X of 1859 does not say that the rent must always be raised to the prevailing rate, but that it could not be raised except on one of the grounds specified. That section must always be read with reference to the general provision of s. 5 that the rent of a ryot with a right of occupancy shall not be more than that which is just and equitable. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 76 (2 R. J. J. 316).

68. Proof of uniform payment of rent for 20 years by ryots pleading possession from the Decennial Settlement entitles to the presumption under s. 4 Act X of 1859 and saves from — but proof of uniform payment by ryots pleading possession for 50 or 60 years, entitles only to a right of occupancy. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 96 (2 R. J. J. 372). See also 4 W. R. (Act X) 15. See also 12 W. R. 213.

69. The service of a defective notice of — for one not containing the reasons assigned in s. 13 or 17 Act X of 1859 is tantamount to non-service. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 89 (3 R. J. J. 16). See also 12 W. R. 306, 13 W. R. 355.

70. S. 13 does not apply to a notice of demand before or after expiry of their lease. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 92 (3 R. J. J. 20).

71. The fact that Molokurnurac has for any reason agreed to pay an enhanced rent to one share-holder, does not entitle another share-holder to demand enhanced rent, except accounting to —. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 94.

72. S. 4 does not require a defendant to prove uniformity of payment from the Permanent Settlement, but provides that such uniform payment shall be presumed if it appear that the rent has not been changed for 20 years. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 100 (3 R. J. J. 38). See also 3 W. R. (Act X) 133, 8 W. R. 427; 9 W. R. 117, 125; 10 W. R. 364. See also 13 W. R. 216.

73. To obtain the benefit of cl. 4 a. 26 Act I. of 1845 protecting garden-lands from —, there must be a clear finding that the lands have been held as such under benar fide leases. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 101.

74. A zemindar, on ousted his intermediate holder, cannot enhance the rents payable by such holder’s tenants, without proceeding in the regular way. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 102.

75. A Judge is wrong in refusing to decree rent at enhanced rates merely because the judgment which fixed the enhanced rent has been appealed against on a point of law. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 106 (3 R. J. J. 88).

76. In a suit for, where the ryot dates his holding from a certain date and cannot carry it back by presumption to the time of the Permanent Settlement, he is not entitled to the benefit of the presumption under s. 4 Act X of 1859. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 109.

9. A right irregularity in the drawing up of a notice of — cannot affect the plaintiff's right to a declaratory order asserting his right to enhance at some future time on service of a fresh notice. —ib.

80. Where a tenant has received rent for 22 years from the tenant in possession, notwithstanding that he is not registered in his sheriff, it is upon such recognized tenant, and not any other party, that his notice of — must be served. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 112 (3 R. J. P. J. 97).

81. In order to be paid for cultivated land originally held on a jangalshee grant, the Court should ascertained the rate payable by the same class of ryots for lands of a similar description and with similar advantages. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 113 (3 R. J. P. J. 103).

82. Where the purchaser of a moiety of an estate settled in perpetuity according to a jummaabandee, sues, many years after the settlement, to enhance the rents entered therein, he must show that circumstances have occurred since the settlement which have tended to raise the value of the ryots' lands. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 118 (3 R. J. P. J. 107).

90. The decision of several hearings, or the omission of fractions by the Settlement Officer, cannot deprive a ryot of the benefit of the presumption arising under s. 4 Act X of 1859. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 136 (3 R. J. P. J. 118), 5 W. R. 3 (Act X) 114, 7 W. R. 187, 267.

95. A proprietor who has settled with Government under a jummaabandee cannot sue for — on the mere ground that the rate is below the prevailing rate. —ib.

96. The bundle contains and does not provide against —, and the tenant has not occupied for 12 years, he will be entitled to proportionate reduction if he has improved the land; but if the value of the land in the neighborhood has increased, the landlord will be entitled to — proportioned to that improvement. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 128 (3 R. J. P. J. 120).

97. The objection that the documents relied on by the defendant, were not a copy of their original title or lease, no expressions importing the hereditary character of the alleged tenures, was held to be one not open to the plaintiff in a suit for —. (P. C.) 3 W. R., P. C. 1 (P. C. U. 558): 11 W. R. 30, 1 R. P. 60.

98. A plaintiff who sues for enhanced rent is bound to prove that the present rate is not fair and equitable. — 1 W. R. 3 (3 R. J. P. J. 125).

99. A plaintiff, who is prejudiced by reason of his plaint demanding less rent than that specified in his notice of —, when such notice has been disputed until after action brought. On the other hand, a plaintiff cannot recover higher rent than that demanded in the notice of —. — Law. R. 3 (3 R. J. P. J. 124). See also 21 W. R. 13.

100. The default of one share-holder renders a tenuableable to — W. R. 10 (3 R. J. P. J. 131).

101. A dependent talukdar's suit for — is entitled to a finding not only on the question whether, by proving a holding for 12 years under the Permanent Settlement, he can put the plaintiff out of Court, but also on the question whether, by holding from the Permanent Settlement, he cannot claim the protection given by s. 51 Reg. VIII of 1793. — 1 W. R. 37. See also Sec. 170, 24 W. R. 146.

102. In a suit for — there must be legal evidence of 20 years' uniform rent before defendant can obtain the benefit of the presumption under s. 4 Act X of 1859. — 1 W. R. 45 (3 R. J. P. J. 161). 123. It can be no ground for — on the part of a proprietor that his tenant-in-chief succeeds in getting a larger rent from his under-ryot, when the increased value of the land itself may be determined in a suit or partition, and not to the assistance of the zamindar.—2 W. R. (Act X) 12.

124. A diminution in the jummae caused by the alienation of a portion of a jote, does not deprive a ryot of the benefit of the exemption of s. 4 Act X.—2 W. R. (Act X) 17.

125. A notice of — can only have retrospective effect.—2 W. R. (Act X) 30.

126. And should not be prospective.—12 W. R. 531.

127. A ryot is not liable to pay any higher rent than he has paid until the landlord sues him for — or can show that the ryot has agreed to pay a higher rent.—2 W. R. (Act X) 34.

128. The government of jungle lands made cultivable by the ryot is not entirely barred.—2 W. R. (Act X) 40 (R. J. P. J. 112).

129. A perpetual potash taken by a person in 1837, on terms which the former holders are not shown to have enjoyed, does not protect him from — on the ground that those holders held at the present rate for 12 years before the Permanent Settlement.—3 W. R. (Act X) 17.

130. A rent holding over after expiry of lease is liable to.—2 W. R. (Act X) 73.

131. A tenant fee arising from 20 years' uniform payment of rent cannot avail the ryot against a former decree of a competent Court declaring his holding liable to.—2 W. R. (Act X) 69.

132. The abovesaid ruling was adopted by the Privy Council as to the presumption under s. 3 and 16 (referring to under-tenants or talookdars).—6 W. R. (Act X) 175. See also (P. C. 23 W. R. 502.

133. A variation in the rate of rent does not affect the integrity of the jumma, does not render the presumption under s. 3 and 4 W. R. (Act X) 182, 7 W. R. 251. See also 7 W. R. 250. But see 8 W. R. 250.

134. In a suit for — the Court must be satisfied that the tenant is not sufficiently to set aside the presumption that the receipts for 19 years prove the payment of a uniform rent.—3 W. R. (Act X) 123, See also 25 W. R. 364.

135. In a suit for — upon a specified ground, that is the sole point to be tried. The Court cannot refer to abatement for diminished area if the defendant does not ask for it.—3 W. R. (Act X) 124.

136. In a suit for — is not always requisite to produce a copy of a notice it enhances.—1 B. See also 6 W. R. (Act X) 126.

137. A tenant-at-will, holding on after notice of — is liable to the highest rack-rent.—3 W. R. (Act X) 126 (R. J. P. J. 360). See also 7 W. R. 28. But see 8 W. R. 259.

138. In a suit for — the Court must be satisfied that the tenant is not sufficiently to set aside the presumption that the receipts for 19 years prove the payment of a uniform rent.—3 W. R. (Act X) 123.

139. Continuity of a ryot's tenancy, as to rates of rent, not to be destroyed by semiannual consent to sub-divide, add to, or subtract from, the ryot's holding.—3 W. R. (Act X) 183.

140. In a suit for — on the ground of the increase in the value of produce, the rent will be raised in proportion to such increase only when it is proved to be a steady and normal increase.—3 W. R. (Act X) 142.

141. Homestead lands not protected from.—3 W. R. (Act X) 144. See 11 W. R. 117.

142. A notice of — under s. 18 W. R. (Act X) 117 need not state that it is for the ensuing year.—3 W. R. (Act X) 146.

143. A plaint seeking to enhance the rent of a rent-paying howaladar, is bound to show the existence of such howaladar.—3 W. R. (Act X) 152.

144. In a suit for — the rejection of defendant's special plea as to his holding a mutuwarre tenure, by reason of the potash set up by him having been declared a forgery, does not preclude him from, on the part of the Court's usefulness on his other plea.—3 W. R. (Act X) 151.

145. A holding, at a uniform rate from the Permanent

- Settlement may be proved by presumption or indirect evidence.—5 W. R. (Act X) 151.

164. According to s. 15 Act X, a notice of— must be served on the tenant, and not the landlord, as the person to whom the rent is payable; notwithstanding an agreement between the landlord and the tenant, by which the landlord reserves to himself the right of serving notices of—, is to be given by the tenant in writing, to the tenant, at least 20 days before the payment of rent, and the tenant must serve a copy of the notice on the landlord, within 10 days from the time of serving the notice on himself.—5 W. R. (Act X) 167; 165; 8 W. R. 72; 23 W. R. 229.

165. Rule of proportion where not applicable.—3 W. R. (Act X) 160.

166. A landlord is not bound to serve notice of— on interlopers, unless on proof of his recognition of them as tenants.—3 W. R. (Act X) 105.

167. A surrogate's tenancy is not exempt from the operation of ss. 3 and 4 Act X, but is preserved from— by proof of 20 years' payment of uniform rent.—4 W. R. (Act X) 20.

169. The production of a potah is not necessary before a ryt can claim the benefit of the presumption under s. 4 Act X.—4 W. R. (Act X) 55.

170. A notice of— according to the rate mentioned in an agreement, is necessary as to lands found in excess on measurement, where no term is specified in the agreement.—5 W. R. (Act X) 35.

171. A tenant having no right of occupancy, i.e., a mere tenant-at-will, is not exempt from— after notice.—4 W. R. (Act X) 46. But see 223 post.

172. A notice of— on the ground that the land will bear a higher rent, is a good and valid notice as against a tenant-at-will.—4 W. R. (Act X) 46.

173. Under s. 145, Act VIII of 1793 a suit for— is barred by the decision of a tenant from the Decennial Settlement, unless a plaintiff is an auction-purchaser, in which case he must show when he purchased, before he can insist on proof of the existence of the tenancy 12 years before the settlement.—6 W. R. 222.

174. The mention of a tenancy in a jummaal anti dated seven years before the Decennial Settlement affords presumption of the existence of the tenancy 12 years before that settlement.—5 W. R. (Act X) 10. See 11 W. R. 51.

175. Where a tenant's title to mokurruze tenure is establi shed under a judicial decree of 1792, his having been at some time forced to pay a larger rent than was due, will not render him liable to enhanced rent for ever.—5 W. R. (Act X) 92.

176. A lease granted for building purposes by a party having the power to grant it, may protect the tenant from.—; but, if granted by a person with a limited right in the estate, or a life-tenant, it cannot relieve the tenant from a claim to be made by a party succeeding to the property.—5 W. R. (Act X) 33.

177. The purchaser at an execution sale of a zamindar is entitled to notice of an alleged mokurruze tenure, is entitled to acquit the validity of such mokurruze, and to enhanced rent so that the mokurruze be found not to exist.—5 W. R. (Act X) 35.

178. In a suit for— the rent demanded must be proved to be fair and equitable, even if the tenant has no right of occupancy.—5 W. R. 241, 11 W. R. 304. See also 223 post, and 13 W. R. 205.

179. Some proof of a rent-free holding, and not a bare allegation by defendant of a rent-free holding, may be a plaintiff in a suit for enhanced rent where the defendant admits a tenancy for one part of the claim but merely alleges a rent-free holding for the other.—5 W. R. (Act X) 46. See 34 W. R. 285.

180. A ryt's omission to object to the fairness of the rates when contesting notice of— does not preclude him from raising that objection in a subsequent suit.—5 W. R. (Act X) 61.

181. In cases of salable tenure, the period of possession by the ryt's vendee is included in the 30 years mentioned in s. 4 Act X—5 W. R. (Act X) 68; 10 W. R. 117.

182. The benefit of s. 4 Act X is not lost by the discovery among the title deeds of a potah dated 1216, of the genuineness of which the present tenant has no means of judging.—5 W. R. (Act X) 56.

183. A mokurruze potah in which the rent is not fixed as invariable does not protect the ryt from—.—6 W. R. (Act X) 80.

184. A mere alteration in the rate of rent will not prove variation, unless the tenant submitted to or paid the enhanced rent.—5 W. R. (Act X) 83.

185. Nor will seminarian's papers filed or attested by gomatis without proof that the ryt has paid a varying rate.—ib.

186. A talookdar who has paid an uncharged rent from the Permanent Settlement is entitled to a refund of the Act X, notwithstanding the seminarian's right to enhance under a decree passed before that Act, in pursuance of which no steps were taken before the passing of the Act to vary the rent.—6 W. R. (Act X) 46. See 207 post.

187. A notice of— in respect of excess lands, that is silent as to measurement, does not comply with s. 4 Act X.—5 W. R. (Act X) 23.

188. Or silent as to quantity of excess, and how ascertaind.—12 W. R. 226; 15 W. R. 71.

189. The admission by a ryt that his tenure was acquired by his father 30 or 35 years ago relieves the presumption raised under s. 4 Act X, from the Decennial Settlement.—4 W. R. (Act X) 55.

190. Under tenures fall with the original tenure of a defaulter (in this case a mokurruze tenure) sold for arrears of rent, and are liable to— by the auction-purchaser.—5 W. R. (Act X) 31.

191. Uniformity in the amount actually paid is not required to raise the presumption under s. 4 Act X, but uniformity in the rate agreed upon, either expressly or implicitly, between the parties to be paid.—5 W. R. (Act X) 35.

192. The acceptance of old rent for years subsequent to the date of a decree enhancing the rent, is no waiver to plaintiff's claim to the higher rate decreed.—6 W. R. (Act X) 37.

193. What is a defective notice of— under cl. 2 s. 17 Act X.—6 W. R. (Act X) 41. See also 9 W. R. 349, 11 W. R. 327; 11 W. R. 515. See 216 post.

What was held a defective notice under cl. s. 17—20 W. R. 294.

What is a defective notice under cl. s. 17;—15 W. R. 566; 17 W. R. 555; 18 W. R. 502.

What was held a sufficient notice under cl. s. 17.—but see 15 W. R. 391.

What was held a defective notice under s. 18 Act VIII of 1808(B. C.)—20 W. R. 256; 22 W. R. 429. See 20 W. R. 417.

194. In a suit for— where defendant was in a holding at a uniform rate from the Permanent Settlement, the mere existence of a potah and annamulah of 1215 is not conclusive evidence that the rate was then changed or first fixed.—5 W. R. (Act X) 46.

195. A ryt who holds lands in excess of the quantity included in his mokurruze potah, is a trespasser, and cannot be sued for— in respect of it.—5 W. R. (Act X) 67. See also 15 W. R. 127; 17 W. R. 53. But see 6 W. R. (Act X) 97; 105; 15 W. R. 91, 493.

196. A ryt is not precluded from the benefit of the presumption under s. 4 Act X of having held at a uniform rate from the Permanent Settlement, merely by reason of his stating that he holds under a potah not inconsistent with that presumption, though he may fail to prove the potah.—P. B. 6 W. R. (Act X) 27; 23 W. R. 58. See 9 W. R. 441; 12 W. R. 459; 17 W. R. 398.

197. The presumption under s. 4 Act X cannot be raised by a defendant who pleads uniform payment of rent for 30 years at 67Rs. when he has already paid 79Rs. under a decree against which he law not appealed.—6 W. R. (Act X) 60.

192. A notice of — served during the pendency of a suit in which only a declaratory decree can be passed, is inoperative, and will not enable the Court to give a decree in that suit for the payment of rent from the year subsequent to the service of the notice.—6 W. R. (Act X) 80.

193. A rent was held liable, by a decree of 1858, to pay an enhanced rent on the ground that he had not paid an uniform rent 12 years before the Permanent Settlement, is not entitled, in consequence of the delay in the hearing of a portion of his claim, to a modification of the decree because of the alteration in the law made by Act X.—6 W. R. (Act X) 81.

194. A suit under Act X will not lie for arrears of rent at enhanced rates in conformity with an unexecuted decree declaring plaintiff's right to enhance passed before that Act.—6 W. R. (Act X) 87. See 11 W. R. 571.

195. A suit for a koubulent at an enhanced rent, oral evidence of possession and payment at an uniform rate for 30 years is legally insufficient to raise the presumption under s. 17 Act X. See 4 W. R. (Act X) 94.

196. Premises under s. 4 Act X, how to be rebated.—6 W. R. (Act X) 95. See 11 W. R. 496.

197. A rent is entitled to no deduction under s. 17 Act X for cultivation in cultivating excess land for which he has paid no rent. He is a mere squatter and that section refers only to youths with a right of occupancy.—6 W. R. (Act X) 97.

198. A tenant may sue to enhance puisneke luberak laand without first suing for resumption.—7 W. R. 86.

199. Rule of proportion how to be applied in a suit for — whereof the produce value of the produce increased, but the productive powers of the land have decreased, and the expenses of cultivation have increased.—7 W. R. 94.

200. Tenants who have held for a long period at a rent much below that payable for similar lots in the neighbourhood, are not entitled to allege expenditure of their own capital and labor against the landlord's claim to a koubulent at an enhanced rate.—7 W. R. 95.

201. The Court says it does not prove that, if one of the grounds in a notice of — be not proved, there shall be no decree on any other ground.—7 W. R. 172.

202. Rents holding at fixed rates of rent which have not been increased from the time of the Permanent Settlement, are not liable to — even at the wish of an auction-purchaser under Act I of 1816.—(F. B.) 7 W. R. 176.

203. Where, notwithstanding the declared right of an ir gsar to enhance, a ryot is allowed to hold at the old rates, and at the expiration of the term the landlord collects rents himself and then gives plaintiff a paten with an assignment of the right to collect the uncollected rents of the intervening year, the ryot cannot be made to pay enhanced rates without some notice.—7 W. R. 190.

204. An ex parte decision is not sufficient evidence as to the rates of similar lands in the neighbourhood on which to hold to an — of rent from 1705 to 1718.—7 W. R. 194.

205. Claims to — on the basis of “increased produce” and “increased value of produce” are inconsistent with one founded on inequality of rent as compared with that of neighboring tenant.—7 W. R. 231.

206. A casual increase in the fertility of land is not a ground for permanent — of rent.—7 W. R. 233.

207. An auction-purchaser under Act I of 1845 cannot enhance the rent of a tenant, not a ryot or cultivator, without his consent.—7 W. R. 237.

208. Uniform payment of rent may be proved otherwise than by dakhtias.—7 W. R. 284, 241 W. R. 493.

209. Not liable to — only to the extent that his neighbouring talookdars pay for similar lands.—7 W. R. 285, 10 W. R. 245. See 16 W. R. 177.

210. A talookdar's rent cannot be enhanced to the same rate as the existing rents; he is entitled to some reasonable profits.—7 W. R. 469, 10 W. R. 245.

211. A dependent talookdar's rent is not liable to — unless it can be shown to have changed since the Permanent Settlement, and he must be proceeded against under s. 15 (not s. 17) Act X.—8 W. R. 612.

212. Twenty years' unvarying rent will not excuse from payment on land in excess of 100 bighas.—8 W. R. 263.

213. No particular form of words is necessary to be used in a petition to convey rights to hold at fixed rates barring future.—8 W. R. 302. See also Mokkurram Tansey 15.

214. Informality of notice of — must be urged for the first time in special appeal.—8 W. R. 503.

217. But that the notice and the evidence fall greatly short of the requirements of the law was allowed to be taken for the first time in special appeal.—14 W. R. 55.

218. Meaning of the word “sucessor in due course (or full custodiant) rate.”—9 W. R. 65; 11 W. R. 144, 184.

219. The word “sahno class” in cl. 1 s. 17 Act X refers to the division of ryots into two classes, viz. those having, and those not having, rights of occupancy.—9 W. R. 8, 82.

220. The words “prevailing rate” in same clause mean the rate generally prevalent, or the rate paid by the majority of the ryots in the neighbourhood.—16 W. R. 246.

221. But not what the rate of the ryots or the landlords would be if their rents were re-adjusted.—18 W. R. 107.

222. A Judge is wrong in calling for and acting upon the evidence of an expert in proof of the genuineness or otherwise of an agreement relied upon in a suit for arrears of rent at an enhanced rate.—9 W. R. 88.

223. An agreement executed by defendant in 1273, but making no mention of the period for which the rent was to be enhanced, cannot support a claim for arrears of rent for that year at an enhanced rate.—16 W. R. 216.

224. By the words “increase of productive powers” in cl. 2, 17 Act X, the Legislature did not mean a capacity for realizing a higher rent for building or other purposes, but an increase of the productive powers of the land itself.—9 W. R. 122.

225. A plaintiff failing to prove ground of — by showing that defendant held at lower rates than the prevailing rate, is not entitled to a decree at the rates which defendant's lands will bear.—9 W. R. 119.

226. The words “surrounding rates” are not tantamount to the ground of — indicated in cl. 1 s. 17 Act X.—9 W. R. 292.

227. Nor the words “permissible rates.”—11 W. R. 571.

228. Claims to — on the basis of increased produce and increased value of produce are not inapplicable, and even if so, cannot, by being advanced together, deprive plaintiff of the benefit of one or other of the conditions under cl. 2 s. 17—9 W. R. 476.

229. Where a tenure was or has become hereditary and transferable, and the rent has not been changed from the time of the Permanent Settlement, the tenants (being either mediate between proprietors and ryots) are protected from — by a 15 Act X.—(F. C.) 9 W. R. 1, 5, 6. See 21 W. R. 493.

230. A landlord cannot recover enhanced rent from a ryot not having a right of occupancy, without proving the existence and the reasonableness of the grounds stated in his notice served under s. 13 Act X.—(F. B.) 10 W. R., F. B. 33.

231. S. 13 Act X (requiring a notice specifying the enhanced rent and the ground of — applies not merely to ryots having a right of occupancy, but to — of tenants and ryots.—(F. B.) 16 W. R. 52.

232. So also s. 14 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.),—22 W. R. 416. See also 22 W. R. 548.

233. Where a plaintiff suing for arrears of rent at enhanced rates calls all the assessable lands of a village small lands and there is nothing to show that the ghatlands are excepted, the case cannot proceed in its existing form.—10 W. R. 160.

234. While a suit for — pending, defendant is not liable for interest; but after the rent is determined, he is liable for interest for all arrears from, and instalments after, that date.—10 W. R. 160.

235. In a suit for — of rent paid by Sholavans talookdars, plaintiff is bound to give data as to what would be a fair and equitable rate, and is competent under s. 16 Act VI of 1869 (B. C.) to measure the talook and ascertain assets.—10 W. R. 213.
238. Abatement of rent by order of Court in consequence of dilution does not prove change in rate of rent, or affect a rentuary tenures held under the provisions of ss. 4 Act X. — 17 W. R. 278, 279, 324, 492; 18 W. R. 273; 20 W. R. 320, 322; 22 W. R. 185. See also 19 W. R. 205.

239. In a suit for a kuhusuat at an enhanced rate where plaintiff seeks — not of his share of rent, but of the rate of a specific portion of land, the Court may allow him to amend or explain his plaint, or give him what he is entitled to under the law. — 10 W. R. 362.

240. In a suit for — where the right claimed by plaintiff to which the nuisance alleged to be caused by the value of the lands has never before been exercised, the right should first be determined in a civil suit. — 10 W. R. 383.

241. The presumption under s. 4 Act X is not affected by the considerations whether the land in question has or has not remained a separate holding. — 10 W. R. 429.

242. S. 17 Act X does not apply to talookdars or other intermediate holders, but only to ryots having rights of occupancy. — 10 W. R. 425.

243. Act X does not apply to a suit for — of rent of land used for other purposes than agriculture and horticulture (e.g., building purposes) — 11 W. R. 183, 547; 17 W. R. 151 (13 W. R. 230). — 17 W. R. 190.

244. An order to a Lower Court to go in the usual way into a claim for — includes an inquiry into the service of the preliminary notice under s. 17 Act X. — 11 W. R. 323.

245. In determining whether a tenant is entitled to the benefit of the presumption laid down in s. 15 Act X, the question to be tried is not whether the rent has been paid at a uniform rate, but whether it has been changed at any time within 20 years before suit filed. — 12 W. R. 192, 19 W. R. 100.

246. In determining the enhanced rent which a ryot is liable to pay under s. 17 Act X, a Court cannot legally include underventes and other abrady paid by ryots in the neighbooring holdings. — 12 W. R. 241.

247. In a suit for — there must be a distinct finding as to the ground on which plaintiff is entitled to — 42 W. R. 30.

248. Act VIII of 1793 (looked at with ss. 13 and 15 Act X) does not require any notice in the case of a dependent talookdar, preliminary to a claim for — of rent; but in order to succeed in a suit under that section, plaintiff must show that he is about to enhance on one of the three grounds therein mentioned. — 12 W. R. 112. See also 11 W. R. 274, 20 W. R. 453. But see 21 W. R. 439.

249. The rent of a talookdar cannot be enhanced under a notice served under s. 17 Act X, treating him as a ryot having a right of occupancy. — 12 W. R. 137.

250. The omission of the words "with similar advantages in the places adjacent" in a judgment under cl. 1, s. 17 is not sufficient in appeal to justify a remand or reversal. — 12 W. R. 140.

251. In a suit for arrears of rent of a particular year at an enhanced rate, the Judge has no jurisdiction to declare plaintiff's right to obtain enhanced rents for the future. — 12 W. R. 141, 15 W. R. 118.

252. Notice of — on the rents that have gradually diminished is not based on the abandonment contented by s. 51 Reg. VIII of 1783. — 12 W. R. 320.

253. By serving a notice on defendant under s. 17 Act X, plaintiff was held to have treated defendant as a ryot having a right of occupancy and to be debarring from suing him for — of rent as an under-tenant or middleman. — 12 W. R. 343. See also 11 W. R. 144.

254. Plaintiff cannot enhance the rent of a tenancy held at a uniform rent from the time of the Permanent Settlement, even though the land in defendant's possession exceeds that covered by the original tenure. — 12 W. R. 350.

255. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.

256. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.

257. Plaintiff cannot enhance the rent of a tenancy held at a uniform rent from the time of the Permanent Settlement, even though the land in defendant's possession exceeds that covered by the original tenure. — 12 W. R. 350.

258. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.

259. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.

260. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.

261. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.

262. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.

263. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.

264. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.

265. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.

266. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.

267. A notice under cl. 2, s. 17 Act X should not be prospective or future, but must specify a ground actually existing at the time it is issued. — 12 W. R. 531.
ment has shown that there was a mistake in the former measurement, the rent is not to be paid on an account of such land.—17 W. R. 88, sec 22 W. R. 246.

263. In a suit for — rent where a Lower Appellate Court decided that the tenure originated at the time a kuboolent (of the year 1290) had been given, and that there was no presumption under s. 4 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) of uniform rent, there was held to be no error of law.—17 W. R. 349. But see 25 W. R. 331.

264. In a suit an interest of a rent while certain ryots were under notice of —, but neither contributed or offered to contribute necessary expenses, he was held not entitled to share in the increased rents.—17 W. R. 365.

265. In order to maintain a suit by W. R. on the ground mentioned in c. s. 17 Act X, it is necessary to prove the existence of the alleged excess and the rate at which such excess land ought to be assessed.—17 W. R. 568.

266. A person by whom notice was served at the time when the rent was payable to him, is entitled, either entirely by a sale, or partially by a lease, to convey to the purchaser or lessee the rent with the incident of its being liable on his part or by reason of the lessee or lessee is not obliged to serve fresh notice of —.—18 W. R. 144.

267. An intermediate holder, though not liable for the rate of rent paid by simple occupant, is still amenable to the same extent as the original tenant.—19 W. R. 326. See 21 W. R. 529.

268. The fact of a butacara having taken place will not prevent a co-sharer from enhancing the rent of a ryot on his particular share, notwithstanding that the original amount of arrears had been made on the understanding that the tenant paid such and such a rent at the time of the butacara.—1b.

269. In a suit to set aside notice of —, where plaintiffs put in evidence that they were being held at existing rates and there was no evidence that the land had not been held at uniform rates from the Permanent Settlement, plaintiffs were held entitled to the presumption prescribed by s. 4 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.).—19 W. R. 205. See also 21 W. R. 403.

270. In a suit by a zamindar against his talukdar for — rent of under s. 51 Reg. VIII of 1763, the notice served was held to be defective because it did not state when, and for what reason, the talukdar had received an abatement of his jumma and thereby rendered himself liable to —.—19 W. R. 338.

271. A decree of the late Sudder Court fixing an enhanced rent for certain jote, passed before the mutinization of Act X, was held not to have become ineffectual by the fact of no rents having been recovered under it.—20 W. R. 212, 214.

272. The sale of a portion of a tenancy involving a distribution of the rent over two parts does not amount to a change of rent within the meaning of s. 4 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) so as to deprive defendant of the benefit of the presumption under s. 4.—23 W. R. 412.

273. Sec. 3 and 4 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) apply to invalid lakhner grants resumed at a time subsequent to the Permanent Settlement.—20 W. R. 466.

274. A Settlement officer is bound to record in the jumma-bundar the existing rights of cultivators, and cannot impose an enhanced rent without notice on those entitled. If he enters a higher rate in spite of protest, such entry does not prejudice the tenant from pleading non-liability.—21 W. R. 214. And the jumma-bundar must show the consent of all the ryots before they can be bound by it.—22 W. R. 540.

275. In a suit for — rent, although plaintiff cannot give evidence as to the rate of rent payable by tenants of the same class holding lands of precisely similar quality and adjacent to those occupied by the defendant, yet he may be held to have proved existence as to those occupied by the defendant, and the Court may allow him such a rate of rent as, regard being had to the slight difference in the quality of the lands, is in conformity with the spirit of the rent law.—22 W. R. 335.

276. An increase, either permanent or likely to last for a considerable time, caused by natural agency in the productive powers of the land, is one of the elements to be taken into consideration in determining its increased value within the meaning of s. 18 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.).—22 W. R. 353.

277. A declaration in a former suit that defendant’s tenancy was not protected from — either under s. 16 or s. 17, Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), does not relieve plaintiff from the necessity of proving a case under s. 51 Reg. VIII of 1763, under which alone he can maintain his suit.—22 W. R. 358.

278. A suit will not lie to enhance the rent of an undivided fractional share of a tenure.—22 W. R. 355.

279. In a suit for — rent, if plaintiffs are unable to show that they are entitled to the rent exactly as they claim it, the Court is not debarred from giving them a decree for such enhanced rent as it thinks ought to be paid, e.g., to divide the land into different classes and assign a separate rental to each description.—22 W. R. 456.

280. In a suit for enhanced rent, the court from uniform payment of rent for 20 years was held not rebutted by the mere fact that the defendants had acquired the tenure from another person originally in 1226.—23 W. R. 476.

Or by the existence of a kuboolent for the year 1245, such a kuboolent being as much consistent with the confirmation of a pre-existant rent as with the settlement of a new rent; the presumption of uniform payment of rent for 20 years can only be displaced by positive proof to the contrary.—25 W. R. 331.

281. A landlord seeking to obtain a enhanced rent on account of neel-jote land has a tenant by right of occupancy, has no right to obtain a judicial assessment upon the footing of a notice under ss. 14 and 5 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.). His right, in accordance with s. 8, is to make his own terms with the tenant or to turn him out of occupation. This he can do by serving the tenant with a reasonable notice to quit unless he agrees to pay the rent required, and if the tenant continues in occupation he must be taken to have agreed by implication to pay the enhanced rent.—22 W. R. 549.

282. Except in the case of agricultural holdings, landlords and tenants cannot be compelled to enter into a contract against their inclination, nor can a tenant who is holding at an inadequate rent hold any right to hold the same without alteration of the rate, be compelled by proceedings in the Civil Court to pay at a higher or enhanced rate.—23 W. R. 61.

283. Nor can there be — in the sense in which that word is used with reference to permanent agricultural holdings in s. 8 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.); but a landlord whose tenant has not got a permanent tenancy, has a right to put an end to the tenancy or to compel it to any terms he can get his tenant to agree to; and if the tenant holds without any agreement as to the rate of rent, the landlord is entitled to a fair rent.—24 W. R. 412.

284. For — rent is rightly brought against a registered tenant, although he has conveyed away his interest in the land, if he has not given a regular notice of relinquishment.—25 W. R. 852.

285. In a suit for arrears of rent at an enhanced rate, where the question as to service of notice has been decided against plaintiff, there is no reason for trying any other issue.—23 W. R. 442.

286. Act X of 1859 does not entitle a lessor, without the consent of the lessee, to enhance the rent due on account of a lease of a certain right.—23 W. R. 456.

287. Where personal service of notice upon a co-sharer under s. 10 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) is found to be impracticable, the notice may be stuck up at the adjoining house of another co-sharer.—21 W. R. 14.

288. A decree may declare that a tenure is not protected from —, but it cannot declare that the decree-holder is entitled to enhance the rent at a reasonable rate.—24 W. R. 92.

289. A suit for — can only be determined on its merits, and not on the ground of an existing famine.—1b.

290. A notice describing a tenant as an ordinary tenant, and avowally served under s. 18 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), cannot be considered such a notice as is required by s. 51 Reg. VIII of 1763.—24 W. R. 190.

291. Where three suitors enter against four defendants holding three distinct tenures, — of the rent of each tenure, Held that they ought not to have been tried together, as the evidence in each case would need to be given separately so as to show the rates severally applicable.—24 W. R. 917.
DIGEST OF INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

291. A landlord who can terminate his tenant's tenancy by a reasonable notice to quit, can also, without giving a positive notice to quit, raise the tenant's rent by serving a reasonable notice upon him that in the ensuing year he will require a higher rent; the right of the landlord to raise his rent to a fair and equitable amount by such a notice being recognised by s. 13 Act X of 1869 and s. 14 Act VII of 1889 (B. C.)—24 W. R. 441.

292. A suit for the determination of the rate of rent which the defendants are liable to pay plaintiff in the future will be under Act VII of 1889 (B. C.)—25 W. R. 318.

50. Where the record of a case is lost in transit from the Lower Court to the Appellate Court, secondary may be verified by theichier, or additional—under s. 355 Act VIII.—7 W. R. 18.

51. A Judge is not at liberty to leave out of consideration any of the—where the witnesses are unimpeached in their general character and uncontradicted by testimony on the other side, and where the facts they relate are not improbable. The probable force of concurrent testimony is the compound ratio of the probabilities of the testimonies taken singly.—7 W. R. 105; 14 W. R. 482.

A matter in issue between parties ought not to be determined merely upon a priori probability, however improbable the features of the case put forward by one of the parties.—21 W. R. 281.

Probabilities, however useful as aids in considering the value of—, can seldom be safely had recourse to alone for the purpose of entirely invalidating direct —21 W. R. 436.

What is and what is not hearsay.—18 W. R., Cr. 16.

53. R. 201 Penal Code refers to others than the actual criminal, by causing disrepute to—, assist the principals to escape. The person who commits an offence and afterwards conceals the—, it cannot be punished on both heads of the charge.—7 W. R., Cr. 52.

54. When a deposition is received in—under s. 309 Act XXV of 1861 at a trial before a Sessions Judge, ought to be on the record distinct proof of the existence of such a state of things as makes the deposition legal.—7 W. R., Cr. 114.

55. Where the records in a case were not forthcoming, all the papers in the case were ordered to be sent back to the Lower Court to take further—and to send it with its opinion to the Appellate Court for final disposal.—8 W. R. 38.

56. Where a plaintiff claiming to have been injured by the alleged negligence of a railway company— to show that anything was intended by the parties beyond the grammatical import of the terms of the contract, he should prove this by other—, the Court cannot supply the defect.—8 W. R. 466.

57. Where a Court of first instance sets aside its own ex parte judgment, and after a new trial, in which it takes fresh— as well as admits that originally recorded, again gives a decision of the same kind, and this decision is confirmed by the higher Court—under s. 57 Act II of 1858 which, independently of the—originally recorded, there was sufficient to justify the decree.—8 W. R. 499.

58. Police papers ought not to be taken judicial notice of either as—or consulted in order to test.—8 W. R., Cr. 35; 68; 9 W. R. 21; 11 W. R. 531. See also 11 W. R., Cr. 35; 13 W. R. 22; 29.

59. The question of a child's competency to give—within the meaning of s. 14 Act II of 1860 is one for decision by the Judge and not by the jury.—8 W. R., Cr. 90.

60. Decedents sole or collateral, which divert the course of inheritance, must be proved by legal—before they can be operative.—9 W. R. 257.

61. A plea of guilty, but not a verdict of conviction in a Criminal Court, may be considered in— in a civil case.—10 W. R. 55.

62. The fact of a party putting his name as a witness to his brother's signature to a deed of conveyance is—against such party.—10 W. R. 290.

63. Whether a communication was one as between moohkatar and client is not a matter for the consideration of the jury, but a point of law for the decision of the Judge.—10 W. R., Cr., 14.

64. Under s. 24 Act II of 1855 there is no privilege as to communications between moohkatar and their clients.—78.

65. Evidence of character and previous conduct of a prisoner should not be allowed to go to the jury.—10 W. R. C. 177.

66. An award under Act IV of 1840 between an intervener and a party other than the plaintiff, is no evidence against the plaintiff.—11 W. R. 113.

67. The notes of an enquiry held before a Registrar are not admissible as—in a criminal trial.—11 W. R., Cr. 13.

68. Mere theories of medical men or skilled witnesses of any sort should not be relied on against facts positively proved.—11 W. R., Cr. 26.

69. Corpus delicti. See Evidence (Presumptions) 19; Murder 6, 23, 28.

70. An objection to the reception of secondary—proves merely made in the Court of first instance, but cannot be allowed in any Appellate Court.—11 W. R. 13.

Or in special appeal.—24 W. R. 232.

71. Evidence taken in the absence of a defendant at an ex parte hearing cannot be used against him on a re-trial.—12 W. R. 130.

72. It is for a party to adduce his own—and not for the Court to ask him to do so.—12 W. R. 470.

73. 14 Civil Court cannot rely on the—in a Criminal Court but must take its own—and determine on it.—12 W. R. 477.

74. The irregularity and injustice of using against a prisoner in a subsequent trial the deposition of witnesses given in a previous case against other persons, commented on.—12 W. R., Cr. 3.

75. The attestation of a Magistrate to a deposition is—prior fact proof of the fact of that deposition, and so also of the fact why he could not prove with the further examination of a witness.—12 W. R., Cr. 51.

But the attestation should be in the Magistrate's own handwriting and not by a lithographed stamp.—14 W. R., Cr. 81.

76. How the—of a deceased witness may be made legally admissible.—12 W. R., Cr. 80.

77. A Police Officer's report, though not—under s. 155 Act XXXV of 1861, of the facts stated therein, may be—to contradict or explain his—as given before the Magistrate, and an accused has a right to cross-examine the Police officer as to the contents of such report and to call for its production.—13 W. R., Cr., 1.

78. The High Court declined to interfere with an order of a Magistrate directing security to be taken for the preservation of the peace, where the—was sufficient to warrant the order, although such order was taken in the vernacular and in disregard of s. 267 Act XXV of 1861.—13 W. R., Cr., 20.

79. A Police report is pror or se legal—in a case of land dispute under s. 318 Act XXXV of 1861.—15 W. R., Cr. 12; 16 W. R., Cr., 17.

80. Evidence taken before the Magistrate, unless shown, to have been used as—at the Sessions trial, cannot be used in appeal.—33 W. R., Cr., 8.

81. The rule of—of letters found in the house of a person after his arrest, and whilst in custody, cannot be used in—, is subject to the exception that the existence of the letters found may be established either by direct proof or by strong presumptive.—17 W. R., Cr., 16.

82. The improbability of plaintiff having received payment for one bill while an older one remained unpaid, is no reason for refusing to consider—aduced by him, and such refusal is an abuse of law and a subject for special appeal.—18 W. R. 53.

83. So also the ignoring of an entry in a day-book on which the first Court decided the case, is an error of law and a subject for special appeal.—19 W. R., Cr., 16.

84. The same rule which holds that the deposition of the serving woman on oath is—also holds that the report of the Nazir not being upon oath or on anything on which perjury can be charged, is not.—19 W. R., Cr., 16.

85. An ex parte decree is—against the defendant.—19 W. R. 213. See also 21 W. R. 254.

It is also admissible in—quantum valerat even against a person who was no party to it.—23 W. R. 432.

But if no issues of fact are raised beyond the general issue involved in the claim, the decree, considered as—only that the amount decreed was at the same time due from the defendant to the plaintiff.—23 W. R. 149.

86. Proceedings under Act IV of 1840, to which both litigants have been parties, may be treated as — between them on the point of possession—20 W. R. 429.
87. Where a party asks others to verify his signature to a petition or to identify him as one of the petitioners, it is tantamount to an allegation on his part that he made the statements which appear in the petition, and is as effective against the party making the request as if the petition were in fact filed.—21 W. R. 34.
88. The High Court decided on appeal to receive — which was available as the trial below, when the prisoner deliberately elected not to give — in reply to the case made against him.—21 W. R., Cr., 13.
89. The proceedings in a suit in which a former holder of the tenure of the person who was said to have created an immeuble right was a party, come within the meaning of "any transaction" in s. 13 Act 1 of 1872, and are admissible as — in a suit to establish the immeuble right.
—22 W. R. 365. See also 21 W. R. 470.
The right mentioned in that section is not a public right only.—23 W. R. 311.
90. A finding in a former suit in which the question was tried between all the parties to the present suit, was held to be admissible as — in this suit under the same section, although the plaintiffs and defendants in the present suit were in form co-defendants in the former.—22 W. R. 456.
91. Where a suit was disposed of according to a compromise, of which the judgment set out the terms in the form of a recital.— Held that the judgment, though not in the ordinary form of a decree, was the record of a transaction by which the rights of the parties were recognised, and was therefore relevant as — under s. 13 Act 1 of 1872.—
—23 W. R. 162.
And that record is a public document and may be proved by an office copy.—25 W. R. 68.
92. Under s. 13 Act 1 of 1872, read-assess papers and a deed of sale are — quantum valutae.—23 W. R. 293.
93. Information not taken on solemn affirmation is not
—25 W. R. 152.
94. The Lower Appellate Court was held not wrong in rejecting a decree in a suit brought by a third party against the present plaintiff in respect of the very lands in dispute.—25 W. R. 458 (reversing ch. 180).
95. S. 167 Act 1 of 1872 applies to criminal as well as civil cases; and the Court mentioned in it to decide upon the sufficiency of the — to support a conviction is the Evidence (Admissions and Statements).

1. Admissions of a former owner of immovable property made after he has ceased to have any interest, are not evidence against the party in possession.—W. R. F. B. 20 (1 Hays 137. Marshall 75). See also 5 W. R. 267.

2. Admission of one party is not evidence against another.—W. R. F. B. 23 (1 Hays 234. Marshall 70).

3. The plaintiffs were held estopped by their admission made in a former suit between the same parties, though the answer containing that admission had been disallowed in that suit.—1 Hays 111 (Marshall 48).

4. In a suit for rent, defendant pleaded payment and filed a number of receipts. Plaintiff having been required to examine them, and acknowledge or deny them, filed a petition admitting all the receipts except three. The Deputy Collector gave a decree disallowing the three receipts, which was reversed by the Judge, and the receipts admitted. Held that the Deputy Collector was wrong in rejecting the three receipts without examining plaintiff again, since the petition was no evidence: and that the Judge was wrong in admitting the receipts instead of remitting the case to the Lower Court to try whether they were genuine.—2 Hays 280 (Marshall 277).

5. An averment not traversed is not to be taken as admitted.—(F. C.) 2 W. R., P. C. 19 (1 C.R. 485). See also 17 W. R. 171, 18 W. R. 287.

6. The admission by two parties in a suit of the bona fide of a mortgage transaction, when such admission was made to defeat a third party, is not estoppel against one of those parties saying, in a suit against the other, that the admission was false and intended as a fraud against the third party.—W. R. F. B. 156 (affirmed by F. C.)—15 W. R., P. C., 11; and see 14 W. R. 112, 18 W. R. 485, 20 W. R. 112.

7. Admission of ryot not sufficient evidence of receipt by intervener of the rent claimed by plaintiff.—1 W. R. 292.

8. The admission of a donor's executors treated as the admissions of the donor.—1 W. R. 259.

9. A second power of attorney recognizing a first power is not secondary but original evidence by way of admission of the first power.—2 W. R. 44.

10. An admission once made by a party is binding against him for all the purposes of the suit, unless shown to have been erroneously recorded.—2 W. R. (Act X) 1.

11. An admission of possession under an agreement that plaintiff and other shareholders would grant a murooz-pothah which was never granted and under which no rent was ever paid, is not an admission of tenancy to support a suit for rent under Act X of 1859.—2 W. R. (Act X) 45.

12. A defendant impliedly admitting a liability if a fact is proved, must be held liable if that fact is proved.—3 W. R. 28.

13. The admission of a lessor does not bind a lessee in certain cases in which a bond fide act might have bound.—3 W. R. 143.

14. Admissions by prisoners to the Police are not admissible in evidence.—3 W. R., Cr., 21; 8 W. R., Cr., 13; 9 W. R., Cr., 16; 12 W. R., Cr., 82.

S. 35 Act I of 1787 applies alike to all Police Officers, not excepting the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Police in Calcutta, and is not qualified by s. 26.—(O. J.) 25 W. R., Cr., 36.

15. An admission of crime, when fairly made after due warning, is not inadmissible simply because, at the time it was made, no formal accusation had been made against the party making it.—4 W. R., Cr., 10.

16. The admissions of prisoners in their own statements before the Magistrate ought to be given in evidence at the trial.—W. R., Cr., 18; 5 W. R., Cr., 1; 13 W. R., Cr., 42, 69.

Even though retracted before the Judge.—6 W. R., Cr., 81; 8 W. R., Cr., 40.

17. A mere admission by the defendant of plaintiff having purchased a jute is insufficient to prove that he ever was defendant’s tenant.—5 W. R. 156.

18. An admission made by a party in another case involving other parties cannot operate as an estoppel in a suit against parties who were not affected by it.—5 W. R. 299.

See also 19 W. R. 290; 25 W. R. 69.

So under s. 150.—9 W. R., Cr., 17; 17 W. R. 50.

20. The whole, or not part, of a prisoner’s confession must be taken in order to his conviction.—5 W. R., Cr., 70; 8 W. R., Cr., 38; 18 W. R., Cr., 29; 23 W. R., Cr., 15, 23. But see 21 W. R., Cr., 80.

21. Where a plaintiff claims land as rent-free, he cannot, on failure to establish that claim, be allowed to rely his claim on the ground of an admission of the proprietor or of the defendant that the land in question was leased to plaintiff’s vendors.—5 W. R. 289.

22. The confession of an accused person is evidence only against himself.—6 W. R., Cr., 84; 7 W. R., Cr., 8; 8 W. R., Cr., 35; 13 W. R., Cr., 11. But see 13 W. R., Cr., 24.

23. Admissions, etc., by the parties in a former arbitration proceeding may be used as evidence in a subsequent suit.—7 W. R. 214.

25. Previous statements of witnesses on oath are not available as evidence in a subsequent trial.—7 W. R., Cr., 8.

26. A voluntary and genuine confession is legal and sufficient proof of guilt.—7 W. R., Cr., 41.

27. A gains a decree in a suit against B on a kasthundee in which B admitted his share of a debt contracted by himself and C; but A cannot recover the balance in a subsequent suit against both B and C, making no admission in this second suit, and there being no evidence against C.—8 W. R. 488.

28. The admission by a defendant in a suit for enhancement that he is paying (and has for many years paid) a sum of money to the holders of the patents in plaintiff’s possession, without being able to show that it was paid otherwise than as rent, is sufficient to raise the presumption that the parties stand to each other in the relation of landlord and tenant.—8 W. R. 474.

29. The admission by a lessee in the presence of others that he had kicked his wife and that she died after receiving the kick, is direct evidence against him.—8 W. R., Cr., 29.

30. A confession made under a promise of pardon is no evidence against the prisoner, with reference to s. 203 Act XXY of 1861.—8 W. R., Cr., 53.

31. The admission by defendant in a former suit for contribution, of the relation of landlord and tenant between him and plaintiff, is binding in a subsequent suit for a subsistence brought by plaintiff.—9 W. R. 102.

32. In a suit to recover property claimed by plaintiffs as sequestr, lately in possession and wrongfully ousted therefrom, it was held that statements made by the ancestors of plaintiffs and defendants were receivable in evidence.—19 W. R. 89.

33. A suit for enhancement, plaintiff's admission that defendant had held the tenure for 30 or 32 years at the same rent, is not an admission that the land has been held at that rate from the Permanent Settlement, and he should be allowed to rebut the presumption arising from the admission.—10 W. R. 427.

34. The confession of a prisoner in one case in which he was convicted cannot be used against him in another case, unless deposed to on oath either by the person who took them down or by some one else who heard them.—15 W. R., Cr., 55.

35. A party using the statement of another against him must put the whole statement in evidence, but the Judge is not bound to believe it all.—11 W. R. 523. See 12 W. R. 312, 22 W. R. 519.

36. A statement or admission made by a party is not ipso facto conclusive evidence against him.—12 W. R. 156, 18 W. R. 347.

37. A confession made to a private individual may be evidence against the prisoner if proved by the person before whom the confession was made.—13 W. R., Cr., 60.

38. The admission by a surviving daughter of a member of a joint Hindu family that the children of her deceased sister have a title to her father's share, is evidence of the existence of the title before the suit.—14 W. R. 484.

39. A plaintiff abandoning his own case and falling back on the admissions of the defendant, must take them as they stand and in their entirety.—15 W. R. 481.

40. A defendant's admission in a deposition in a former suit cannot be binding on him unless he is examined and given an opportunity of explaining it.—16 W. R. 220.

41. Unless a defendant has subjected himself to cross-examination, no statement which he may voluntarily can be used as any evidence in his own case.—16 W. R., 257.

42. An allegation made by a defendant in a former suit, having been put in evidence by the plaintiff in the present suit, was held to be sufficient proof of the thing alleged.—17 W. R. 372.

43. A statement made by a party on oath before the Income Tax officer, as to the extent of his property liable to be taxed, is admissible in evidence.—17 W. R. 291.

44. Statements made before a Police Inspector are not evidence and cannot be used as evidence in the trial.—17 W. R., Cr., 5.

45. The Court declined to regard a statement by defendant's pleader that L was the previous tenant and held the land after her son, as an admission of continuous hereditary holding as of right on the part of plaintiffs, on whom lay the onus of proving such holding.—18 W. R. 60.

46. An admission by defendant's ancestor is evidence on which a Court may or may not act according as it considers it ought to have effect given to it.—18 W. R. 347.

47. Where a defendant seeks to use statements put in as evidence and treat them as admissions by the plaintiff who put in the, the plaintiff may show the real nature of the transaction and get rid of the effect of the apparent admissions.—18 W. R. 485.

48. How to construe s. 80 Act 1 of 1872 with regard to the admissibility in evidence of the confession of one prisoner against another.—19 W. R., Cr., 16, 57, 61; 21 W. R., Cr., 65, 67; 23 W. R., Cr., 24; 24 W. R., Cr., 42; 25 W. R., Cr., 8, 43.

49. A statement made by defendant in a former suit may be used as an admission within the meaning of s. 18, Act 1 of 1872.—22 W. R. 903.

50. S. 132 Act X of 1872, which requires a Magistrate to certify on a confession his belief that it was voluntarily made, does not apply to the case of a confession taken by a Magistrate who is actually investigating the case and examining the witnesses preparatory to commitment; but to a case where some other Magistrate takes a confession and forwards it to the Magistrate by whom the case is enquired into or tried. S. 346 governs such a case as the former.—23 W. R., Cr., 16. See also 24 W. R., Cr., 42.

51. The meaning of cl. 8 s. 32 Act I of 1872 is that, when a number of persons assemble together to give vent to one common statement which expresses the feelings or impressions made in their minds at the time of making it, that statement may be repeated by the witnesses and is evidence; but not if a Police Officer may go round, collect a great number of statements from persons in different places, and afterwards put those statements in second-hand before the Court as evidence.—23 W. R., Cr., 35.

52. Statements recorded in a non-suit under Act X of 1859, which do not conform to the requirements of s. 60, cannot be relied on as admissions.—24 W. R. 114.

53. A confession not recorded in accordance with s. 510 Act X of 1872 is inadmissible.—21 W. R., Cr., 29. See also 24 W. R., Cr., 43.

54. A statement which a man in the custody of the Police volunteers to one in the position of a Magistrate can be used as evidence against the man who makes it.—21 W. R., Cr., 33.

55. With reference to ss. 26 and 27 Act I of 1872, when a fact is discovered in consequence of information received from one of several persons charged with an offence, and when others give like information, the fact should not be treated as discovered from the information of A B and this will not be, under s. 27, so much of the information as relates distinctly to the fact thereby discovered.—21 W. R., Cr., 36.

Evidence (Reportorbuftve).

1. Under s. 28 Act II of 1885 (which applies not only to the Supreme Courts but to all the Courts in India), the uncorroborated evidence of a single witness is not legally sufficient for a conviction of perjury.—13 W. R., S. 21, 23. See 5 W. R., Cr., 11, 77; 9 W. R., Cr., 66. But see 14 W. R., Cr., 68.

2. A conviction founded upon the uncorroborated evidence of one or more accomplices alone is valid in law; but the evidence of accomplices should not be left to a jury without some direct and observations from the judge as to the circumstances of the case may require.—(F. B.) 5 W. R., Cr. 80.

See 3 W. R., Cr. 8 (4 R. J. P. J. 124); 5 W. R., Cr. 11, 18, 59; 6 W. R., Cr. 14, 92; 8 W. R., Cr. 19; 9 W. R., Cr. 51; 10 W. R., Cr. 17, 63; 11 W. R., Cr. 21; 12 W. R., Cr. 5; 15 W. R., Cr. 37; 19 W. R., Cr. 57.

3. Comparison of signatures is one kind of corroboration which would justify a conviction on the testimony of a single witness in a case of false evidence.—5 W. R., Cr. 90.

4. A prisoner may be convicted on his own uncorroborated confession.—6 W. R., Cr. 73.

And notwithstanding a subsequent denial before the Session Court.—12 W. R. Cr. 40.

5. Statements made otherwise than before the Courts and officers specified in s. 31 Act II of 1855 may be given in corroboration of testimony, but must be proved by the person who received them or by some one who heard them prior to 1 W. R., Cr. 31; 12 W. R., Cr. 3.

So statements made to Police Officers.—11 W. R., Cr. 25.

6. Corroboration as to the details of the crime, without corroboration as to the person of the accused, is worthless.—13 W. R., Cr. 11.

7. Under s. 154 Act XXV of 1861 Police diaries cannot be admitted as evidence.—13 W. R., Cr. 22.

8. There is no rule of law which prevents the admission without corroboration of the evidence of a witness who says he committed breaches of the law with the accused, if the witness is not open to the same charge as the accused.—13 W. R., Cr. 21.

9. Where proceedings under Act XI of 1868 and Act XXVII of 1869 were held to be.—18 W. R. 511.

10. Explanation of the corroboration needed to make the testimony of an approved trustworthy.—19 W. R., Cr. 16.

11. Although under Act I of 1872 the conviction of a prisoner on the uncorroborated evidence of an accomplice is illegal, the Court, having reference to Illustration b. s. 114, considered in this case that the accomplice was untrustworthy of a police officer, and certified by the officer in charge of that department to be a true copy, is admissible in evidence.—(P. C.) 4 W. R., Cr. 87 (P. C. R. 259); 15 W. R. 893.

12. A copy of a document certified by an officer of a Public Office, and certified by the officer in charge of that department to be a true copy, is admissible in evidence.—(P. C.) 4 W. R., Cr. 121 (P. C. R. 830); 1 W. R. Cr. 30 (P. C. R. 460).

13. The laxity with which was received in Indian.—(P. C.) 4 W. R., Cr. 128 (P. C. R. 307); (P. C.) 17 W. R. 552.

14. Where documents are produced and are not disputed, they are receivable in evidence without proof.—(P. C.) 4 W. R., Cr. 87 (P. C. R. 259); 15 W. R. 893.

15. The discretion power vested in the Court with reception to the documents, will be largely exercised in the case of bond sale applications.—1 Hype 145.

16. It is incumbent on the Judge to look at the plaintiff's documents, when they have been accepted by, and forming the basis of the decree of, the Court below. He should not reject them merely because they had not been filed with the plaint.—1 W. R. 12. See also 25 W. R. 26.

17. Potatoes, lucubrations, and jam in mill-bakee papers when receivable as.—1 W. R. 49; 5 W. R. 242 (Act X), 83.

Attested or authenticated copies of the same to be proved by best evidence.—8 W. R. 59; 9 W. R. 248; 10 W. R. 73.

21. A copy of a record-keeper's report is not.—nor also a copy of a Magistrate's proceeding in a suit regarding another property covered by the deed in dispute.—1 W. R. 239.

22. Plaintiff filing copies of documents is bound to explain why originals have not been filed.—2 W. R. 80, 10 W. R. 338.

23. A document found to have been subsequently added to, yet in some degree accepted as genuine, is admissible in evidence.—2 W. R. 231.

24. Authentic copies of documents, of which the originals are filed in another suit, are admissible in evidence when not objected to by the other side.—2 W. R. 237.

25. 10 W. R. 388.

31. A moosif's report of a local investigation is entitled to the greatest weight as — 3 W. R. 219.
32. Should not be summarily rejected for want of legal proof, because it intelligently understands the nature of the proof required, and has had an opportunity of producing it. — 3 W. R. (Act X) 189.
34. Nazir's return. — See Nazir 3, 5; Sale 51; Service 2.
35. Measurement papers of a zamindar, made for the purpose of a partition, are admissible as evidence of title as showing what the zamindar's consisted of, though the partition may not have been carried out. — 4 W. R. 280.
37. A copy of an alleged deed of partition, set up to defeat an ordinary rule of Hindu law with regard to succession, and taken from the record of a miscellaneous proceeding without any suggestion as to what has become of the original, was held not admissible. — 5 W. R. 21.
38. A Civil Court is not bound to adopt a Magistrate's view or otherwise as to the contents of a document. — 5 W. R. 26. — See Evidence (Kestoppel) 2.
39. A copy of a deposition of a person who is alive, if filled in the Lower Court and not objected to there, may be used in a Civil Court. — 5 W. R. 13.
40. A Civil Court is not bound to admit or reject documents because they have been admitted or rejected by a Revenue Court. — 5 W. R. 185.
41. No mere production of a pedah without proof of possession under it, cannot avail. — 5 W. R. 213.
42. Account books are legal evidence to corroborate oral testimony. — 5 W. R. (Act X) 31; 13 W. R. 291. — See also (P.C.) 3 W. R. 290.
45. Also under s. 90 Act I of 1872. — 21 W. R. 45.
46. A copy which puts in dakhila to support his case must prove them; their admission as genuine is not to be legally presumed merely because they are not formally disputed by the landlord. — (P. C.) 7 W. R. 226; 8 W. R. 180; 9 W. R. 117, 211; 12 W. R. 267; 11 W. R. 211; 20 W. R. 261. — But see 12 W. R. 350.
47. 8, 128, 129, and 130 Act VIII must be read together, and documents produced under s. 128 become thereby admissible, — 9 W. R. 91.
48. Jumma-nuil-kaher (and nikaher) papers are, by s. 13 Act II of 1855, admissible only as corroborative evidence, and cannot rebut the presumption under s. 4 Act X. — 8 W. R. 280, 464; 10 W. R. 291; 11 W. R. 165. — But see 8 W. R. 248; 10 W. R. 125.
49. Act I of 1872 has made an alteration in the law as laid down by s. 13 Act II of 1855. — 22 W. R. 549.
50. The report of a shershawati is not, under s. 180 Act VIII and in view of the fact that there was a commissioner attached to the Court, legal evidence. — 8 W. R. 331. — See also 12 W. R. 209.
51. A signature of a Rajah of the ancient Nabhca family is admissible, although it does not contain the name of any particular individual. — 8 W. R. 395.
52. The production of a document in an adversary's presence is of great legal importance in determining its existence. — Th.
53. The proceedings of a Settlement Ameer cannot be taken as evidence against a person who was not a party to those proceedings. — 8 W. R. 420; 23 W. R. 155.
54. A copy purporting to be the copy of an original khabil may be received as evidence if its accuracy of the first copy, and the execution and loss of the original, be proved. — 8 W. R. 438. — See also 11 W. R. 396; 12 W. R. 392; 22 W. R. 353.
55. Collectorate challans. — See Receipt 1, 3, 5.

57. Vasamamana papers. — See Vasamamana.

78. Where two firms entered into a joint adventure to be conducted by an agent specially appointed by both firms, and one of the firms brought a suit against the other to recover their share of the alleged loss upon the joint adventure. Held that books of accounts kept by the plaintiffs themselves and two corresponding branches of their firm, and adduced by the plaintiffs in support of their claim, were not like books of a partnership to which all the partners in a firm have access and which are kept by the servants of all; and that, although the books corroborated each other, they were not sufficient to entitle the plaintiffs to a decree, in the absence of evidence showing that the sums mentioned in the books paid to the agent were really applied by him to the purposes of the joint adventure.

(P. C.) 13 W. R. 36.

79. The report of a messenger is not legal evidence under s. 180 Act VIII.—13 W. R. 113.

81. To prove legally the execution of a document of which only a copy is on record, the witness must not only depose that he executed a document of that nature, but the purport of the copy must be read to him, and he must be asked whether the original of the same was what he executed.—13 W. R. 129.

82. Reports of Ameen.—See Ameen 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 11, 14, 16, 18, 20, 21, 22, 28.

83. Where a decree is put in evidence, it is not open to the Judge to take into consideration its merits or the evidence on which it was founded.—14 W. R. 201.

84. Janmabundee papers can only be used as corroborative evidence.—11 W. R. 474. See also 20 W. R. 142.

85. Where records from a Government Office are required, it is for the Court to send for them.—15 W. R. 160.

86. But papers required from a Court of Ward, which is not a Government Office, must be obtained by the party who needs them by means of a summons on the proper officer.—ib.

87. A Caree's book is not strictly a official record within the meaning of s. 655 Act VIII.—15 W. R. 173.

88. A map is not admissible in evidence unless it is stamped.—15 W. R. 180.

89. Measurement papers are inadmissible in law without proof of the circumstances under which they were prepared.—15 W. R. 218.

90. Collectorate papers' return.—See Service 2.

91. Report of Mahboob under s. 180 Act VIII.—See Practice (Commissions) 20.

92. Documents not evidence in the nature of the parties should be rejected at once; if admissible but requiring proof, they should be admitted only subject to proof.—15 W. R. 490.

93. Though undesirable in all cases to apply strict and technical rules to the admission of evidence, yet the substance principles on which the authenticity and value of all evidential rests should be observed. —(P. C.) 17 W. R. 551.

See also 25 W. R. 554.

94. The fact of a pottah coming from proper custody, corroborated by the exact identity of the grantor's signature on other documents, was, in the absence of attesting witnesses, held proof of its genuineness.—15 W. R. 493.

95. In the case of an offense under s. 121 Penal Code, the Calcutta Gazette and the Gazette of India were held admissible in evidence under s. 8 Act II of 1855, and a printed official letter from the Secretary to the Government of the Punjub under s. 6 of the same Act.—15 W. R. Cr. 25, 5, 8. 200 Act XX of 1861 relates to civil evidence and not to. —ib.

96. The ex-parte deposition of a witness who might have been called was held to be admissible for the purpose given to it.—(P. C.) 16 W. R. 36, P. C., 11.

97. Copies should not be summarily excluded from evidence merely because they are not original, when no objection is taken to them.—17 W. R. 378, 18 W. R. 346.

98. The report of a Mahboob Dojurer or record-keeper is not admissible in evidence without his examination on oath as to the correctness of it.—17 W. R. 400.

99. A Judge disbelieving the oral evidence of certain witnesses, is not bound to take undue precautions — sworn to by the same witnesses.—18 W. R. 60.

100. An attested copy of a petition was admitted as evidence where the original was with the record of another case and application had been made to the Court to send for such record.—19 W. R. 85.

101. The admission in appeal of a pottah on the ipse dicit of the defendant after his vakal had depose on oath in the first Court that defendant had no documents whatever, was a substantial error. The Appellate Court had a right to receive it, it was wrong in deciding the case on it without evidence of its genuineness.—19 W. R. 86.

102. Under the rules of the High Court, account books which are not translated, and are not therefore a part of the paper-book, cannot be referred to in a trial, without special leave.—19 W. R. 121.

103. Exizitah la made in contempt of remand proceedings in the presence of both sides and signed by the parties are legal evidence.—19 W. R. 302.

104. Secondary evidence may be received of a lost deed shown to have been unstamped, on payment of the penalty that would have to be paid if the deed itself were produced. The admissibility of such secondary evidence without payment of the penalty is no ground for special appeal.—20 W. R. 63.

105. Regarding the reception of under ss. 39 and 132 Act VIII. —(P. C.) 20 W. R. 95.

106. What is necessary to support the contention that the judgment of a Lower Appellate Court is erroneous in law because the judge has failed to give proper effect to the —20 W. R. 197.

107. The Lower Appellate Court was held to have done wrong in rejecting as inadmissible, because on plain paper and untested, summons which had been filed in a previous suit between the same parties, and the authenticity of which had been established, and had never since been impeached; as also in rejecting receipts which had been similarly filed before and had not been impeached.—20 W. R. 304.

108. Where a copy of the deposition of a living witness was improperly admitted, such improper admission was held, under s. 167 Act I of 1872, to be a ground of itself for a new trial or reversal of decision.—20 W. R. 381.

109. A thabnoot map, to which the defendant of a suit is not party, is not admissible as evidence on behalf of the plaintiff.—20 W. R. 168.

110. Where certain ryots swore that they got their pottahs from the hands of the person who professed to sign them, this was held under s. 75 Act I of 1872 as "proving to the satisfaction of the Court" that the signatures were those of the lessor.—21 W. R. 6.

111. But Indian ekittahu are no evidence in a suit for possession of a jute and to set aside a summary award under Act XVII of 1860.—21 W. R. 112.

112. Sec. 128, 129, and 132 Act VIII do not make every document which was admitted under them good evidence in the suit, but the Court should sort the documents tendered into two classes, those relevant and admissible, and those irrelevant and inadmissible.—21 W. R. 76.

113. Where dakhilas are ordered to be given up in accordance with s. 132 Act VIII, the Court is bound to fix a time within which they should be given up.—21 W. R. 112.

114. Under what circumstances a Collectorate copy was held admissible in evidence.—21 W. R. 115.

115. The absence of an original deposition from a record must be satisfactorily accounted for before a copy can be looked at; and such copy should be proved to be a correct copy before it can be used.—21 W. R. 237.

116. The fact that a pottah on which a plaintiff's title is based has not been registered, and cannot therefore be used by reason of the Registration law, is not a ground on which a Court would be justified in admitting secondary evidence.—21 W. R. 307.

117. A latibander cannot be accepted as secondary evidence in lieu of the certificate of sale, unless the absence of the certificate is accounted for, and no better evidence than the latibander can be produced.—21 W. R. 333.

118. Road-crest return.—See Road-crest.

119. Petitions should not be used as evidence where they are but statements made by a person who is alive and who may be called as a witness.—22 W. R. 213.

120. The report of a Special Officer was held to be inadmissible as evidence—22 W. R. 289.

121. It is entirely a matter of discretion to a Court in

Rejecting a copy to allow the party an opportunity of filing the original.—22 W. R. 355.

122. A kubrat is not a public document of which a copy is admissible under ss. 76 and 77 Act I of 1872.—23 W. R. 272.

123. Letters between district authorities are public documents, and as such admissible as evidence under s. 74 Act I of 1872.—23 W. R. 335.

124. A letter containing an admission does not require a stamp before it can be admitted as evidence.—23 W. R. 390.

125. In a suit to recover money unaccounted for, where the defendants plead payments endorsed on documents, and the defendants purport to have been signed by the plaintiffs, the formal and regular method of proof is to call on plaintiffs to admit or deny their signatures, and then to call upon witnesses to state whether they saw plaintiffs sign, or could speak to the handwriting, or generally what took place.—(P. C.) 23 W. R. 390.

126. With reference to s. 34 Act I of 1872, factory books cannot be used as independent primary evidence of the payment to which the entries refer.—23 W. R. 27.

127. A map which had been registered as part and parcel of a bill of sale, and was part of plaintiff’s title-deed, is admissible as evidence.—24 W. R. 188.

128. A statement made before a Collector in a mutation proceeding is admissible as under s. 90 Act I of 1872.—25 W. R. 134.

Title 1.

Evidence (Estoppel).

1. A suit for rent upon a kubrat pronounced spurious is no estoppel against a suit to set aside a pediah of earlier date not in issue in the former suit.—W. R. F. R. 10 (1 Hay 76, Marshall 43). See 47 post.

2. Magistrate’s proceedings under Act I of 1843 are not necessarily conclusive in a suit for possession by the unsuccessful party.—1 Hay 7.

3. A decree for the rents of 1256 to 1261 may be evidence of greater or less weight in determining, but cannot be pleaded as res judicata, and therefore as an estoppel, to the claim for the rents of 1262 to 1265.—1 Hay 31 (Marshall 12).

So also past payments of rent do not estop the tenant from disputing the landlord’s right to future rent.—20 W. R. 347.

4. A former judgment, in which a certain document has been held to be genuine between a third person as plaintiff, and the present plaintiff and the present principal defendant as defendants, though not a res judicata under s. 2 Act VIII of 1859, is conclusive in the present suit on the point of authenticity of that document. 1 Hay 130. See 11 W. R. 209.

In, an order passed in execution of a decree is not a decision which, under s. 2 Act VIII, bars a regular suit.—1 Hay 515.

5. A party cannot set up the fraud of the ancestor through whom he claims. 1 Hay 529, 1 W. R. 37, 13 W. R. 87. But see 46 post and 19 W. R. 238.

6. A deed may be pleaded in a suit for mortgage profits without regard to any opinion incidentally pronounced regarding it in the summary order passed by the Court executing the decree for possession. 2 Hay 156.

7. A executed a deed of sale in favor of B, who was never registered, and B afterwards mortgaged the house to C. Held that A, and those claiming through him, were estopped, as against C, from setting up that the sale of the house to B was a bonâ fide transaction, and that A continued notwithstanding to be the true owner. 2 Hay 157 (Marshall 293).

8. In a suit to eject a tenant holding even after the expiration of his lease, it is not competent to the tenant to set up that his landlord, the plaintiff, holds under an invalid lakaharaj, and that the zamindar, and not the plaintiff, is entitled to the land. 2 Hay 473 (Marshall 377).

9. A person is not estopped by the negligence of himself or his servants unless that party who sets up the estoppel can show that his position has been altered or that he has sustained injury in consequence. See 29.

10. Parties who, by false representations, induce others to enter into contracts, are estopped from afterwards falsifying their statements, and if necessary, may be compelled to make them good.—W. R. Sp 11, 5 W. R. 289.

11. A party to a suit is not estopped by the reasons given by a Judge for his decision, when the same question has not been formally raised and finally decided.—W. R. Sp 20. See 27 post.

12. The failure of a reversioner to put an answer where his title was not threatened cannot be construed into a consent to an allotment made by a Hindoo widow without legal necessity.—W. R. Sp 48.

13. Where in a former case plaintiffs allowed property attached as theirs by creditors, to be claimed and taken by defendants, they were not now permitted to make a contrary averment.—W. R. Sp 58.

14. The effect of verdicts (whether upon parties or privies) must altogether depend on the question whether the point was actually in issue in the former and present suits.—W. R. Sp 167.

15. Where, in proceedings under Act XXVII of 1860, a plaintiff called herself the guardian and trustee of her mother adopted son, but the certificate was given to defendant claiming under a will from her husband, the widow is not estopped by her former statement from suing as widow of her husband to call in question the will.—W. R. Sp 198. See also 1 W. R. 127.

16. A plaintiff is not estopped by an evidently false state-

In his plaint as to possession; but the Court may look behind the statement and determine upon its truth or otherwise, and affirm or disallow it as may seem right. — W. R. Sp. 292 (1. R. 61).

17. A decision in a former suit cannot operate as an estoppel between co-defendants in that suit or parties claiming under them. — W. R. Sp. 299 (L. R. 81). See also 12 W. R. 521. See 56 post.

18. In a suit for declaration of title, the fact that the Revenue Courts decreed the registration of plaintiff's vendor's name as a joint sharer, and that no steps were taken during 12 years to set aside that decree, cannot operate as an estoppel. — 11 W. R. 126, Sp. 55 (1. R. 139).

19. Plaintiffs were held not estopped from obtaining certain rights now, because they did not urge them when they had no title to them. — W. R. Sp. 365 (1. R. 139).

20. In a suit for a kahoutal and for declaration of the rate at which such kahoutal is to be delivered, the yot is estopped from pleading a pottah which he denied in a former suit for rent. — W. R. Sp. 470 (Act X) 153 (3 R. C. 71).

23. The decree in a suit for enhancement is an estoppel against a suit by the then defendant to recover possession of the land. — 1 W. R. 121, P. C. 60 (10 W. R. 65).

24. A plaintiff is not estopped by a statement made by him in a former pleading or suit. — 1 W. R. 162, 310. See also 8 W. R. 468, 10 W. R. 341.

25. Between co-defendants in a suit in which the title of the plaintiff was only at issue, it is not necessarily an estoppel in a subsequent suit to try their title. — 1 W. R. 287. See also 12 W. R. 521. See 17 ante and 102 post.

26. The registry of transfer of a holding by one ryot to another, when sanctioned by the existing farmer of a Government khair matal, and not objected to by the Government, was held a complete estoppel against a succeeding farmer. — 1 W. R. 553 (3 R. 4, P. C. 555).

27. A finding in one suit to which A was a party is no bar against A in another suit, unless it is shown that the issue in question in the latter was raised in the former suit and passed upon in it. — 2 W. R. 703 (Act X 57).

28. When an ekor (providing for payment of rent by deduction from larger profits) was not pleaded as a bar to a suit for rent, and a decree was obtained under Act X, the tenant was estopped from re-opening it in a subsequent civil suit. — 2 W. R. 762 (Act X 57).

29. Adoption, legitimacy, and like matters, decided by one Court should not be considered upon question in another, unless the question is a part of the same suit. — 3 W. R. 114. (Overruled by E. L.) See 7 W. R. 338.

30. A bond recite purchase of a kahoutal lease from one in whose favor it had been created by a benzam transaction, cannot be questioned by an audit purchaser in a subsequent sale for arrears of revenue. — 3 W. R. 87.

31. A judgment of a Court altering a pure legal misapprehension as to rights and obligations between A and B, and passed in a suit to which C was not a party, is not binding on C, nor will it give A a right to bring a fresh suit in order to put him in the position in which he would have been had he never misconceived his correct legal claim. — 4 W. R. 133.

32. The fact of no regular suit having been brought to obtain possession of land in reversal of a revenue award within three years of its confirmation is not conclusive evidence of title. — 4 W. R. 66.

33. A former judgment which, after deciding the issues both of limitation and right in favor of the plaintiff, was not made final, is not conclusive in a subsequent suit as regards limitation. — 4 W. R. 101.

34. A foreign judgment is conclusive as between the parties when it cannot be questioned upon the ground of fraud or want of jurisdiction or that it was unduly obtained. — 4 W. R. 66.

35. A decision in a case under Act X is binding on a Civil Court. — 4 W. R. (Act X) 40. See also 8 W. R. 175.

36. A conviction in a criminal case is not conclusive in a suit for damages in respect of the same act. — 5 W. R. 27.

37. Persons claiming under A and B are bound by A and B's admission of C being entitled equally with themselves to ancestral property. — 5 W. R. 115.

38. A defendant is not estopped, as to a plaintiff who is a purchaser from a co-defendant in a former case in which a third party was plaintiff, by anything that may have occurred in that case. — 5 W. R. 181.

39. A Court is not bound to act on the evidence of two witnesses on whose testimony defendant agreed to rest his case, when such evidence is inconclusive and hearsay. — 5 W. R. 204.

40. Effect of a former decision as to the situation of a chaur when an anna share was in dispute, upon a suit in which the other moiety is disputed. — 5 W. R. 202.

42. So also as to the genuineness or otherwise of a pottah or kahoutal. — 7 W. R. 92, 15 W. R. 416, 18 W. R. 30, 21 W. R. 128.

So an incidental finding as to the validity of an ekor or mokarur title in a suit for rent was held to be no bar to a suit for redemption in which the same mokarur title was set up. — 13 W. R. 535, P. C. 30.

The decision of a competent Civil Court under Act VII of 1869 (P. C.) on the issue of title estops a subsequent suit for possession. — 25 W. R. 44, 187.

44. A petition of satisfaction filed by a decree-holder on condition that the judgment-debtor will withdraw an appeal then pending, does not stop the former from suing out execution if the appeal, instead of being withdrawn, is carried to a hearing. — 5 W. R. 55, 30; 8 W. R. 109, 113. See 13 W. R. 311.

45. Plaintiff sued before a kahoutal of 1861, and did not admit in his plaint that he had cancelled a former kahoutal of 1862, but merely alleged that defendant had executed the kahoutal of 1861 which recited that the kahoutal of 1862 had been voluntarily cancelled by defendant. Defendant denied the kahoutal of 1864, and plaintiff having failed to prove it, is not estopped now from suing on the kahoutal of 1862 and saying that the kahoutal was not legally cancelled by him. — 5 W. R., 8, 17, 16.

46. A conversion in a Civil suit in which the issue was the genuineness or otherwise of a kahoutal and the Court held that it was not genuine, but added (as an obiter dictum) that the pottah produced by the other side was authentic, does not bar the jurisdicton for recovery in respect of the pottah. — 5 W. R., Or. 50. See 17 ante.

47. A mere decree for rent of certain land in a suit in which no question as to the land being lakheraj was put in issue or decided, cannot operate as a res judicata or an estoppel to a suit to obtain a declaration that the same land is lakheraj. — 6 W. R. 37.

48. A false admission made by plaintiff's father, whose holding landed property in the zilah in which he held the appointment of sheristadar was forbidden, and who thus had to choose between losing his appointment and telling a falsehood, does not estop plaintiff from setting up the truth. — 6 W. R. 38.

49. There must be some intentional mis-statement and consequently prejudice before proof of the real state of things can be set out. — 6 W. R. 133.

50. A purchaser in execution of a decree of a Civil or Revenue Court is not bound by any admission made or act done by his execution-debtor, nor ordinarily by a decree against such person. — 6 W. R. 197, 9 W. R. 321. See 15 W. R. 237.

51. The decree of a competent Court must be presumed to be valid and binding on the parties until the party attacking the decree clearly shows that it was improperly obtained by fraud or misrepresentation. — 6 W. R. 216. See also 24 W. R. 217.

52. In a suit by the purchaser of A's jote against the

67. In a suit for enhancement, where plaintiff cannot show the actual terms of the potthas, the kuboodent is conclusive evidence of the tenancy.—9 W. R. 65.

68. Proceedings held by the Revenue Court on commission of their own decree (a sale as in this case) are final, and cannot be interfered with by the Civil Courts unless on some special ground, like that of fraud.—9 W. R. 80.

69. A suit to recover a share of a deceased father's estate, where plaintiff has acres, and acts upon the assumption that he is a son of the deceased, can be maintained by the Revenue Court as if the son was estopped, and the plaintiff is estopped against the Revenue Court in a suit to recover the share of deceased father's estate.—12 W. R. 485.

67. In a suit for enhancement, where plaintiff cannot show the actual terms of the potthas, the kuboodent is conclusive evidence of the tenancy.—9 W. R. 65.

68. Proceedings held by the Revenue Court on commission of their own decree (a sale as in this case) are final, and cannot be interfered with by the Civil Courts unless on some special ground, like that of fraud.—9 W. R. 80.

69. A suit to recover a share of a deceased father's estate, where plaintiff has acres, and acts upon the assumption that he is a son of the deceased, can be maintained by the Revenue Court as if the son was estopped, and the plaintiff is estopped against the Revenue Court in a suit to recover the share of deceased father's estate.—12 W. R. 485.

damages for cutting down trees on land alleged to be plaintiff's, that plaintiff has no right to the land, does not conclude him in the matter of his title, but gives him a new cause of action. — 12 W. R. 266. See also 15 W. R. 166.

87. An order passed by a Collector under s. 25 Act X has not the force and effect of a Civil Court's decree, and is not binding as against an intervener under that Act. — 12 W. R. 322.

88. An intervener under s. 77 Act X is not barred, by a former decision against him on the ground that he was not then in the receipt and enjoyment of the rent, from coming into Court afterwards and pleading receipt and enjoyment of rent in subsequent years. — 12 W. R. 325.

89. A general affirmation of plaintiff's rights in a suit does not stop the question of the genuineness of the document on which it was based being raised in a subsequent suit. — 12 W. R. 326.

90. The mere fact of a vendor declaring in his deed of sale a mortgagor of a landed estate, that the other moiety is not hers, is not conclusive evidence against her being pro-prieto of the other moiety, nor can it affect the rights of a purchaser from her of such moiety. — 13 W. R. 2.

91. Whether the plaintiff's title is raised and decided in a suit for possession of land, that decision is conclusive between the parties as to every portion of land held under that title. — 13 W. R. 64.

92. There is no such general exception to the rule that a decease is final and conclusive between the parties, as that any of the parties have a right to show the real nature of a benemerent transaction, and for whose benefit the suit was carried on. — 13 W. R. 167. See also 17 W. R. 491.

93. Where the parties to a suit accept issues wrongly laid down by the Court, they must be held to be bound by them. — 13 W. R. 265.

94. Where, after an appeal by defendant, both parties petitioned the Court that they had come to a settlement and the appeal was struck off the file. — Held that the original decree stood good except so far as the judgment-credits were decreed from executing it by their own agreement. — 13 W. R. 311.

95. The dismissal of a suit for rent on the ground that defendants were trespassers, bars a suit by them for possession in a Revenue Court. — 13 W. R. 342.

96. Where a review had been granted for the purpose of seeing whether a chitthi ought not to be used, and the case was remanded for re-hearing, the party was held concluded, from pleading as to the chitthi that it was improperly made use of upon the re-hearing. — 14 W. R. 22.

97. Where in a suit by A against an agent for an account of collections of a share in land, B intervened, and the Court declared the share to be the moiety, this binding was not binding against B in a subsequent suit against him by A for recovery of the same share; and similarly an admission made by B in the former suit was held admissible as evidence against him in the subsequent suit. — 14 W. R. 165.

98. A suit for possession, the fact of plaintiff having been a subscribing witness to a partith set up by the defendant, is not conclusive against the former. — 14 W. R. 295.

99. Defendant was held not estopped, by his application to the Collector for sanction to his having earned a estate out of unoccupied waste land, and by his offer to pay revenue for the same upon his obtaining a settlement thereon, from pleading as against the applicant that he was not liable as tenant to pay him any rent. — 14 W. R. 391.

100. Where a zamindar les his estate in farm for a term of years, he becomes barred by an adverse award under
s. 1 of 1810 to which the farmer was a party. — 14 W. R. 305.

101. Where a suit for arrears of rent at enhanced rates was dismissed for want of notice, but the potthah was found to be not genuine, the decision has no force and is not binding as against a subsequent suit to a subsequent year. — 14 W. R. 412.

102. A pleading by two defendants, against the suit of another, never can amount to an estoppel between them. —

103. Where party put forward a statement in a Court of justice with the view of defeating the claim of a plaintiff, it was held in a subsequent suit that it was not an estoppel but that it was of no use to defendant to show the real truth of the transaction. — (P. C.) 16 W. R. 16, 10, 21 W. R. 422.

So also an act done, as well as a statement made, by a party with the view of defeating a claim made against him does not estop him from disputing afterwards the validity of that act. — 24 W. R. 391.

104. The rule as to estoppel laid down in the Duchess of Kingston's case is not technical or peculiar to the law of England but is perfectly consistent with s. 8 of the 17th and 18th years of George VIII. — (P. C.) 16 W. R. 15, 4. P. C. 80; (F. R. 19 W. R. 322.

105. A plaintiff is estopped from adding in a subsequent suit a title which he ought to have urged in a former suit. —
15 W. R. 168.

106. The rule as to an heir or assignee admits of an exception in favor of the creditor of a deceased proprietor. — 13 W. R. 255.

107. Estoppel in pain, i.e. by conduct of parties. —

108. A person refusing a registered letter sent by post cannot afterwards plead ignorance of its contents. —
16 W. R. 253.

109. Decisions against one heir are not binding against other heirs, nor decisions against one person binding against others who do not derive title from him. — 15 W. R. 298.

110. A decision between a ryot and a body of co-sharers is not binding upon the several co-sharers inter se. —
17 W. R. 191.

111. A judgment-creditor, by putting up the rights and interests of his judgment-debtor in a talookd on sale in execution, is not estopped from afterwards claiming a portion of that talook under a different title, e.g. under a mortgage. — 17 W. R. 342.

112. In a former suit where A. G., a decree-holder, sought to establish his right in execution to a talook as belonging to his judgment-debtor R. L., and D. S., a defendant to that suit, pleaded that the talook had been conveyed to him by R. L. under a khibbanamah, and it was decided that the talook did not belong to D. S. and was liable to be sold. Held that it was not open to D. S. to sue for a declaraton of his right to a half share of the talook as against A. G. —

113. Failure in a former suit to establish plaintiff's right to certain land as belonging to her patruch talook, will estop her from suing again for the same land as belonging to her mauvance, the cause of action being the same. —
17 W. R. 351.

114. Plaintiff having uncouraged, as representative of his father when the revenue accounts were carried out, to come into Court under a decree which declared the father's title as reversionary, was opposed by defendants who obtained a judgment of the High Court that plaintiff's father was no longer heir under the Hindoo law to the ground of super-venient insanity. Plaintiff having now sued to establish his own title as heir, defendants were held estopped from pleading that plaintiff's father was not disqualified by insanity which was not congenital. — 17 W. R. 422.

115. A return made to a Collector by an occupant of land, stating the amount of rent, is an admission as to the amount of rent, binding upon the occupant and all who claim under him. — 18 W. R. 166.

116. A purchaser at a sale in execution is not in the position of a person who takes a conveyance direct from the party, and is not bound by a stadge ment made by the judgment-debtor on some previous occasion in a mortgage.
If a party to that mortgage, the admission so far may be used as evidence against him. — 18 W. R. 290.

117. A party, by representing the fact of an adoption which he knows to be erroneous concludes to be an adoption valid in law, cannot be charged with misconstruction of the fact is concerned, and is not estopped from setting up the true facts of the case. — (P. C.) 19 W. R. 12.

118. A party is not concluded by his own representations unless they have been acted upon by the opposing party. If /, treated merely as admissions not acted upon, it may be shown by the party who made them, even if they had been made fraudulently, that they were not true. — 20 W. R. 233.

119. Queres — What is the effect of admissions made by a person who subsequently adopts another, in binding the

- A person adopted, whether the person adopted can be said to derive title from the adopted and in as way as to make the admissions evidence against him.—79.

120. A Lower Appellate Court was held to have been wrong in treating as an estoppel the plaintiff’s deposition in a former case when no issue had been raised on the point by the first Court in the present suit.—20 W. R. 314.

121. The doctrine of estoppel by deed is not applicable to India, and thus a party giving a kuboolent nominally in favor of A, is not estopped from proving that he did so with immunity, with and knew nothing of A, whose name was used merely as a matter of convenience between the lessee and A’s husband.—30 W. R. 352.

122. An agreement for rent at a higher rate is not conclusive proof that the land was held for the year to which the decree relates at that rate until it has been executed.—30 W. R. 466.

123. In a suit for possession of land brought against a tenant who is really a trespasser, the defendant, by merely alleging tenancy in his written statement, does not preclude himself from pleading limitation.—(F. B.) 21 W. R. 70. (Regional 7 W. R. 369).

124. Even where the object of a beneman transaction is to obtain a shield against a creditor, the parties are not precluded from showing that it was not intended that the property should pass by the instrument creating the beneman, and that in truth it still remained with the person who professed to part with it.—21 W. R. 422, 23 W. R. 42.

125. In a suit to enforce a lien created by a mortgage bond which was sold by the mortgagee one month later to defendant.—Hold that defendant, as standing in his vendor’s shoes, was not concluded by a decree for money obtained in the Small Cause Court by plaintiff against defendant a month after the bond, as the Small Cause Court could not have jurisdiction to decide as to the lien and its decree would only be relevant as showing that defendant at the time owed the money to plaintiff; but that it would be open to defendant to question the execution and bona fides of the bond as affecting the property which he had taken by conveyance.—22 W. R. 489.

126. The decision of the Collector’s Court in a former suit brought under Act X of 1869, that the land in respect of which enhancement was claimed was not akhuraj, is not conclusive, as regards that issue, in a similar case subsequently brought in the Civil Court under Act VIII of 1869 (R. C.).—24 W. R. 164, See 25 W. R. 189.

127. The decision of the High Court on a question of law is conclusive, as regards that particular question, so far as any subordinate Court is concerned.—24 W. R. 173.

128. A rent-suit having been dismissed upon defendant denying that he was a tenant of plaintiff, defendant was not allowed, in a subsequent suit brought by plaintiff for possession, to turn round and say that plaintiff could only recover rent from him after making a settlement with him and could not succeed in obtaining possession.—21 W. R. 273.

129. Where a judgment-debtor’s pleader pleaded in the Court below on the assumption that the decree was a money-decree which the Court had jurisdiction to make, it was held not open to him in appeal to urge that it was not a money-decree which the Court had no jurisdiction to make.—24 W. R. 365.

130. Where a suit was brought for a year’s rent, and the tenant claimed abatement, and a judgment was obtained which determined the amount to be abated on materials which would be applicable to one year as well as to another, —Hold that the question of abatement of rent was determined between the parties not only for the one year of which the rent was in suit, but for all future years.—24 W. R. 408.

131. A decree obtained by one party against another is not conclusive evidence against the title of a third party.—21 W. R. 431. See also 25 W. R. 87.

132. A decree against the registered tenant, in a suit for rent against him and another, is not binding evidence of the possession of such tenant, as between him and the other, in a subsequent civil action.—26 W. R. 23.

133. A receipt for rent in which the landlord styled himself “secondar of a annexe,” but which showed that the rent did not pay the landlord the full 4 annexe’s share of the rent, was held not to estop the ryot from questioning the landlord’s title.—25 W. R. 69.

134. Where a claim to an estate, based on a conveyance, was declared in one suit to be valid as between the parties to the conveyance, but was in the present suit set aside on the ground that it was a voluntary conveyance and void as against the creditors of the vendor.—Hold that the judgment in the first suit did not operate by way of estoppel in the present suit.—23 W. R. 144.

135. In a former suit for ejectment (which was brought in the name of the yardar, and which the defendants treated as being in fact the suit of the landlord), it having been decided that the defendant’s plea of holding rent-free chakera lands was not valid, that they had only a right of occupancy and were liable to payment to the landlord; and a suit for rent was afterwards brought by the landlord on defendant’s failure to pay the same.—Hold that the decision in the former suit was binding on the defendants, as establishing the relation of landlord and tenant and as to their liability to pay rent.—25 W. R. 370.

136. Where plaintiff and defendant in a suit had both been defendants in a former suit in which defendant had, under a misapprehension of the effect of s. 73 Act VIII, applied to be brought on the record as defendant, but was not allowed to give evidence, and in the result the suit was dismissed (i.e. plaintiff’s claim in that suit was thrown out),—Hold that the decision in that suit was not conclusive as between the present parties.—26 W. R. 416.

17. Of a deposit is not insufficient.—W. R. 94.
18. Is not admissible to vary or alter the terms of a written contract in which there is no fraud or mistake, and in which the parties intended to express in writing what their words import—e.g. to show that a deed of absolute sale was intended to operate as a mortgage.—(F. B.) 5 W. R. 68.
So also under s. 92 Act I of 1872—28 W. R. 167.
The above rule is not applicable where the parties did not intend that the writing should contain the whole agreement; and this may appear either by direct evidence or by informality in the writing.—14 W. R. 319.
19. Not admissible to show that an absolute sale was intended to operate as a conditional sale in order to defeat a right of possession.—(F. B.) 5 W. R. 76.
20. A Canvas's deposition of a vendor's admission to him of a sale and receipt of the consideration, together with the conduct and statements of the parties, form legal evidence of the sale as against the vendor.—5 W. R. 175.
21. The object and importance of cross-examination.—6 W. R. 191.
See also 9 W. R. 267.
22. Is admissible to show that the name of the party used in a deed was onlyDonec for another person.—W. R. 191.
See W. R. 472.
23. Is admissible to prove that the consideration stated in a deed to have been paid was not paid: but not to prove that only a small portion was paid, and the rest was to be paid in the event of the successful termination of a suit then pending.—6 W. R. 267.
24. Upon criminal trials in the Mofussil, a wife is competent to give evidence for or against her husband, or for or against any person tried jointly with her husband.—(F. B.) 6 W. R., Cr., 21.
25. The — of persons—who are themselves liable to punishment should be carefully sifted and tested before they can be relied on.—6 W. R., Cr., 77.
26. In ordinary cases, where there is no community of interest, any one of a number of purchasers jointly indicted may be called as a witness either for or against his con- federates.—6 W. R., Cr., 91, 109.
27. Is admissible to prove a verbal contract.—7 W. R. 353.
28. Is admissible in a suit for purchase-money to show how the purchase-money was apportioned.—7 W. R. 408.
29. Is legally sufficient to prove a prescriptive title.—7 W. R. 463.
30. Accused persons discharged by the Magistrate for want of evidence may be examined as witnesses.—7 W. R., Cr., 44.
31. The — of a Policeman who overheard a prisoner's statement made in another room and in ignorance of the Policeman's vicinity, and uninfluenced by it, is not legally inadmissible.—7 W. R., Cr., 98.
32. Admissible to show that a whole was included in a Evidence (Presumptions).

2. A strong presumption in favor of a valid title in plaintiffs was held to arise from their long and undisputed enjoyment of the property until the defendants displaced the plaintiffs' presumptive title by proof of some right in themselves or others.—I Hyn. 667.

3. Receipt of rent at other places raises the presumption that the obligation to pay rent at a particular place was waived.—2 Hyn. 513.

4. When a man, pending a suit against him, conveys away his property, the conveyance may very reasonably be presumed to have been executed to defeat his creditors in the absence of proof by him to the contrary.—See. 31.

5. A decree in a former suit declaring the rent payable by a rent is — of the rent still payable by him.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 97 (3 R. J. P. J. 28).

6. Plaintiff's acknowledgment in a former case of having realized rents for 3 years may afford some presumption that the older items were satisfied, which, if not rebutted, might be an answer to an action on the older demand.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 97 (3 R. J. P. J. 28).

7. An instrument in an apparently altered and suspicious state is liable to the presumption of its being false.—(P. C.) 1 W. R., P. C. 56 (P. C. 465).

8. In considering a case upon evidence, all the presumptions for or against should be received in connection with the oral or documentary evidence.—(P. C.) 5 W. R., P. C. 56 (P. C. 628). See also 9 W. R. 290, 11 W. R. 482, (P. C.) 17 W. R. 1.

9. Conduct which defeats an ordinary presumption and shifts the onus proriri, does not necessarily invalidate all the evidence which is offered in proof.—5 W. R. 31.

10. The consent of the then reversioner to a sale by a Hindoo widow, though not binding evidence on the present heir, is strong presumption of the existence of necessity at the time of sale, to be rebutted only by proof of fraud and collusion or of the absence of necessity.—6 W. R. 51.

11. The fact of a mouza being held for many years as part of a melal or zamindari affords strong presumption, though never conclusive evidence, that the mouza is part of that estate, even as against a purchaser at a sale for arrears of revenue of another mahrul who claims that part of the mahrul purchased by him.—7 W. R. 207.

12. An adversary is entitled to the benefit of such presumptions as naturally arise from a party's failure to prove his allegations, even though the onus was on the first instance on the former.—8 W. R. 598.

13. Where facts are as consistent with a prisoner's innocence as with his guilt, innocence must be presumed.—8 W. R. Cr. 57.

14. A Judge's statement must be taken to be accurate until shown to be otherwise.—10 W. R. 232.

15. Where the conveying party remains in possession after executing a deed of conveyance of his entire property to his son, the inference is that the deed was not intended to operate.—10 W. R. 449.

16. The rule is to presume that a Lower Court has done its duty; neglect of duty cannot be assumed at the suggestion of an appellant.—11 W. R. 466. See also 18 W. R. 15, 25 W. R. 62.

17. In a case of misappropriation of property, the strongest presumption should be made against the wrong-doer, and the highest value assumed. —11 W. R. 536.

18. The presumption raised by plaintiff's continued and undisturbed possession of land in the bed of a river which has changed its course, is not rebutted by defendant's allegation that he is entitled to the jurisdiction of the river.—11 W. R. 565.

19. If a criminal fact is ascertained—an actual corpus delicti established—presumptive proof is admissible to fix the criminal.—11 W. R. Cr. 25.

20. The attestation of a Magistrate is prima facie proof of the examination attested.—11 W. R. Cr. 25.

21. In a suit to recover possession of the beds of tanks situated within plaintiffs' estate, but gradually reclaimed and used for cultivation by defendant, although plaintiffs could not, from the nature of the ground, show any direct acts of ownership, the presumption was that, until undispossessed by defendant, they were sufficiently in possession to maintain right of suit.—14 W. R. 57.

22. Where the amount of rent stated in a decree had not been paid for 20 years, it is fair to presume that the parties had abandoned the decree.—17 W. R. 418.

23. Because in a partition-deed of 1260, in the column showing the shares of the different members of the family, N's son's name appears instead of N's name, it does not follow that N was then dead.—18 W. R. 32.

24. In a suit to recover possession of a jathak of which plaintiffs alleg that they were interested to enjoy the income of the year 1266 when they were ousted by Government, who ultimately relinquished their rights in favor of defendants, —held that if plaintiffs made out their possession down to 1263 and defendants did not show a clear interruption of that possession immediately subsequent to 1263, plaintiffs were entitled to the presumption that the possession had continued down to the interruption by Government in 1266.—21 W. R. 136.

25. Where the question as to possession was doubtful, a Civil Court was held to have rightly presumed ownership from the fact of enjoyment of the fruits of trees growing on the disputed land.—22 W. R. 405.

26. As in civil suits, so in rent suits, all things must be presumed to have been correctly done. It is not necessary to enquire into the instructions which Revenue agents receive; and, until the contrary is shown, the parties must be held to have been properly represented, and to be bound by the decisions.—23 W. R. 79.

Ex-parte Application.

An — should be based upon truth.—16 W. R., Cr., 49.
Ex parte Judgment or Decree.

1. The right of a defendant (under s. 119 Act VIII) to a hearing without deposition of amount of decree, is not affected by the Act XLII of 1860.—R. C. C. 39.

2. An appearance by defendant in person or by pleader, without putting in any answer or written statement, is an appearance within the meaning of the same section, and the judgment pronounced thereafter is an ex parte judgment, and therefore an appeal will lie.—1 Hoy 70 (Marshall 32); 7 W. R. 295. See also 20 W. R. 63. See 30 post.

3. The mere filing of a vakalalutnamah is not appearing in person or by pleader.—7 W. R. 81.

4. The defendant, upon the day fixed for the hearing, presented a petition through a mookhitar to put off the trial for a few days, but further than this did not appear. Held that a decision given thereafter in favor of the plaintiff was “a judgment passed ex parte against a defendant who had not appeared” within s. 58 Act X, and that no appeal therefore lay therefrom.—3 Hoy 688 (Marshall 671).

4. The Court making an ex parte order has authority to recall it if it appears to have issued improperly or under any mistake of fact; but application against an ex parte order should be made at the earliest moment.—Sev. 479. See also 13 W. R. 232.

5. Where cause is shown for non-appearance, the Court may, under s. 119 Act VIII, restore to the Board a suit or appeal.—2 Hoy 119.

6. The defendant was held entitled to a re-hearing under s. 119 Act VIII, in the case of an ex parte decree passed against him after the passing of that Act, although the suit had been instituted under the old procedure.—W. R. Sp. Miss., 36.

7. Procedure on application under s. 119 Act VIII to set aside—5 W. R., Miss., 11.

8. Appeared at the first hearing, but on whose absence at the adjourned hearing an was passed against him, is not debarred from an appeal under s. 119 Act VIII.—6 W. R. 86.

Note under s. 58 Act X.—14 W. R. 27.

9. A decree obtained upon a fraudulent confession of judgment is an ex parte decree entitling the defendant to a new trial under s. 119 Act VIII.—6 W. R., Miss., 36.

10. The 30 days “after any process for enforcing the judgment has been executed,” within which a defendant may apply under s. 119 Act VIII for an order to set aside an ex parte decree, mean 30 days after the execution of any process for the hearing so as to bar application.—6 W. R., Miss., 51; 15 W. R. 210. See also 25 W. R. 72. But see 7 W. R. 194; and see 16 post.

12. S. 119 Act VIII will not apply to a decision passed on appeal against a respondent.—7 W. R. 425.

13. The procedure under Act X of 1859 does not provide for the enforcement of a second application to set aside an order, after the first has been dismissed for default.—8 W. R. 67.

14. Where one defendant appears and the other does not, and a decree is given against both, if the defendant who did not appear gets the decree set aside under s. 119 Act VIII, the Court cannot open it up in investigating the case again with regard to the other defendant.—8 W. R. 260.

15. In a suit for declaration of title, under a kiblamana, in certain lands sold in execution, notwithstanding plaintiff’s unsuccessful intervention under s. 246 Act VII, the kibalamana having been found to be false, plaintiff was held not entitled to an — against the auction-purchaser, merely because the latter had been made a defendant and summoned under s. 168 and had not appeared, when it was shown at the hearing itself that the summons had been served with irregularity on the auction-purchaser.—V. W. R. 423.

16. If a party means to contest an — on the ground that he had no notice of the summons, he must come in with his plea of not having noticed the summons within 15 days from the date of the order under s. 119 Act VIII; or within 15 days in cases tried under s. 58 Act X.—4 F. B. R. 9 W. R. 286. See also 9 W. R. 286; 15 W. R. 165; 19 W. R. 129.

17. Where a decree for possession is passed without any special orders under s. 116 Act VIII regarding defendant who did not appear, there is no appeal.—9 W. R. 597.

18. Where an — is set aside and a new trial granted under s. 119 Act VIII, an attachment made under that decree falls to the ground, but a sale made after the decree has been set aside is not invalidated under s. 240.—10 W. R. 99.

19. Where a defendant, when duly summoned, fails to appear, the Court may pass an — under s. 170. But if the defendant has entered appearance and filed a written statement, and the Court has proceeded to take the evidence of plaintiff’s witnesses, the case cannot be treated as an ex parte one, and defendant is entitled to cross-examine plaintiff’s witness by its vakil.—11 W. R. 9.

20. Where one defendant who did not appear applied, under s. 119 Act VIII, to get an — set aside, and another, who also did not appear, did not in like manner apply, but came in with a petition at the second hearing, alleging that summons had not been duly served, and the case was dismissed in toto.—Hold that the second defendant had a good locus standi and could take advantage of the order of dismissal.—11 W. R. 18.

21. Where a defendant was absent when the adjourned hearing of his case commenced, but came into Court before judgment was recorded and his evidence was on the record, the case was held not to be an — within the meaning of s. 119.—12 W. R. 160.

22. No — can be passed without proof of due service of summons.—12 W. R. 210, 17 W. R. 857.

23. It is not necessary that the judgment-debtor should have special notice of any process for enforcing an —: he is bound to seek the remedy provided by s. 119 within 30 days of any process to execute the judgment.—13 W. R. 436.

24. A decree founded on a document over which the defendant cannot be disturbed by a resort to s. 119 Act VIII.—14 W. R. 299.

25. No appeal lies from an — passed under s. 58 Act X, where the reasons assigned for the absence of the defendant are wholly unsatisfactory.—14 W. R. 349.

26. A Small Cause Court may, at the instance of one of the defendants, set aside an — as to all,—15 W. R. 371.

27. No application under s. 119 Act VIII.—20 W. R. 267.

28. A case decided ex parte notwithstanding that defendant was present and through his pleader repeatedly asked for time to enable his witnesses living in distant and different districts to be present, was not treated as an ex parte judgment.—15 W. R. 503.

29. The Court declined, on appeal from an order rejecting an application under s. 119 Act VIII to set aside an —, to receive an affidavit which had not been previously filed, and hold that s. 356 was not meant to apply to such a case.—17 W. R. 390.

30. Where a Deputy Collector refuses to set aside an — for rent below 100Rs, the remedy lies in an appeal to the Collector under s. 14 Act VI of 1862 (H. C.), and not in a civil suit.—17 W. R. 418.

31. The appearance of a defendant by a vakil for hearing to be heard in answer to the suit under s. 111 Act VIII is not an appearance within the meaning of s. 119 sufficient to prevent an — being passed against him.—18 W. R. 400.

32. Where defendant was prevented by plaintiff’s fraud from appearing on the last day of hearing, the suit was held to have been decided ex parte notwithstanding that he had been represented on the first day of hearing, and the first Court was held to have done right in restoring the case to the file under s. 119 Act VIII.—19 W. R. 457.

33. The words in s. 58 Act X as to a summons or proclamation having been “duly served according to the provisions of this Act,” refer to the mode of service of the same to the agency by which it was actually served: and the summons or proclamation was not served through the Collector of the District (as required by s. 47), but by an officer of the Court itself, would be no ground for not proceeding with the case (if the summons had been duly served, though required by the Act) and the irregularity of this kind, by which the party is not injured, does not vitiate the proceedings or render the — void.—19 W. R. 234.

34. Where the discretion which a Civil Court possesses, other under s. 197 or s. 170 Act VIII, was held to have been not rightly exercised.—20 W. R. 165, 22 W. R. 270.

34. Where a judgment-debtor applies to set aside an order on the ground that there was no effectual service of the summons upon him, he should be called upon (under s. 119 Act VIII) to give his evidence or to make out a prima facie case.—21 W. R. 242, 22 W. R. 428.

35. M sued A and others on a bond-debt and obtained a decree against A alone. He appealed to the District Judge, who, after a decree declaring all parties liable, was reversed by the High Court of Judicature on the ground that the proper course for the parties was to apply to the Sub-Judge under s. 199 Act VIII. Held that the Sub-Judge had no jurisdiction in the matter, inasmuch as he had passed no order; but that the proper course for the parties was to apply to the District Judge under s. 199. 22 W. R. 537.

36. Where an order was passed against three defendants and instead of serving summons on each as required by s. 48 Act VIII, there was no attempt to prove service of summons beyond the fixing of it to the house of only one of them, Held that the Court should have granted a new trial under s. 199. 25 W. R. 394.

37. Where an order was given against a party and her application for a rehearing under s. 119 was refused and she did not appeal, Held that she could not sue to have the judgment set aside on behalf of another party to whom she alleged she had sold her rights and had bound herself to bring this suit.—25 W. R. 420.

Execution of Decree 99, 159. (Review) 20, 98, 78, 90. (Suit) 49.

Extortion.

1. The tenor of a criminal charge is a fear of injury under s. 385 Penal Code, and—under s. 386 and 389 may be equally committed whether the charge threatened be true or false.—7 W. R. Cr. 28.

2. The making use of real or supposed influence to obtain money from a person against his will under threat, in case of refusal, of loss of appointment, is within the meaning of s. 383 Penal Code.—18 W. R. Cr. 17.

Factors.

1. Protection of bond-debt and other suits by agents under the 6 and 94 Viz. c. 29 extended to India by Act XX of 1844.—(P. C.) 1 W. R., P. C. 58 (P. C. R. 471).

False Charge.

1. What is not a sufficient ground for a suit under s. 211 Penal Code.—6 W. R., Cr. 16.

2. Where a man burns his own house and charges another with doing so, he should be convicted under s. 211, not s. 198.—8 W. R., Cr., 65.

3. Destruction between s. 182 and 211.—8 W. R., Cr., 67; 16 W. R., Cr., 1.

4. S. 211 applies not only to a private individual, but also to a Police Officer who brings a suit of an offence with intent to injure.—11 W. R., Cr., 35.

5. In trying a case of theft, the decision in the theft case is not sufficient, but evidence should be taken as to the falsity of the complaint of theft.—11 W. R., Cr., 35.

6. In a case of theft, the Magistrate gave the accused permission under s. 169 Act XXV of 1861 to prosecute the complainant for an offence under s. 211 Penal Code. The Magistrate tried A’s complaint as one under s. 211, but subsequently proved an offence under s. 182 Penal Code and punished him under that section. Held, with reference to s. 168 Act XXV of 1861, that the Magistrate was wrong in framing the charge under s. 182 without the previous sanction of the Criminal Court which heard the previous complaint of theft.—13 W. R., Cr., 67.

7. Where a charge of theft was reported by the Police to be false, Held that the Magistrate ought to have enquired into the charge of theft and passed some orders upon it, before proceeding under s. 211 Penal Code to enquire into the offence of— 16 W. R., Cr., 77.

8. What was held to constitute— under s. 211 Penal Code.—19 W. R., Cr., 6.

9. Where the charge is one of instituting a suit of an offence with intent to injure, the actual information which the prisoner made at theannah ought to be given in evidence and form part of the record.—23 W. R., Cr., 52.

See Abetment 2.

False Evidence.

1. Contradictory statements without other evidence are not sufficient to convict a person of giving.— If the last statement made be a true one, the witness should not be punished. In case of contradictions, if there is to be a prosecution for perjury, the last statement made upon oath should be shown to be false.—1 R. J. P. J. 244. See also 1 R. J. P. J. 65; 9 W. R., Cr., 25, 62.

2. Where a witness who had sworn falsely before the Magistrate retracted his statement before the Court of Sessions, the Court was divided in opinion as to whether any favor should be shown him on this account. In such a case it was held that he could not be convicted of an intention to procure the conviction of the accused.— W. R. Sp., Cr., 10 (2 R. J. P. J. 115).

3. There is nothing in s. 169 Act XXXV of 1861 which gives a Judge, not sitting in appeal, any original jurisdiction.

to entertain a charge of giving — before another Court. No other Court than that before which — is given can direct a prosecution thereof. — W. R. Sp. 14.

4. In a prosecution for — there must be some specific charge of making some particular and specific false statement, and some direct and distinct evidence that each specific statement is false. — W. R. Sp. 14; 5 W. R. Cr. 71, 77; 8 W. R. Cr. 96; 9 W. R. Cr. 28, 54, 58, 66; 10 W. R. Cr. 33, 53 W. R. Cr. 25. But see 5. Quere. Whether a case can be transferred from one Court to another under s. 6 Act VIII of 1869 after the evidence has been taken in the former Court. — W. R. Sp. 14.

5. A Judge should not make a prosecution for — depend upon the issue of an appeal. — Sec. 740.

7. A Sessions Judge is competent, under s. 435 Act XXV of 1861, to order the committal of a person accused of giving — after the discharge of such person by the Magistrate, s. 359 notwithstanding. — W. R. Sp. Cr., 3.

8. Where a plaintiff before a Moonciff came and petitioned the Judge complaining that the Moonciff had improperly refused to examine his witnesses although informed that they were in attendance, and had dismissed his suit, and the Judge, upon examining the petitioner upon solemn affirmation and finding the charge improved, ordered proceedings to be taken against the false accused. Held, that the Judge had no authority to examine the petitioner upon oath in such a case, and that the oath having been made and the evidence given coram non judice, could not be the subject of a prosecution for. — W. R. Sp. Cr., 15.

9. A prisoner's intention is immaterial to his conviction, under s. 203 Penal Code, of having given false information respecting an accused committed, without notice of his commission, s. 18.

10. But to justify a conviction for giving false information respecting an offence under the section, it must be proved not only that the person charged had reason to believe that an offence has been committed, but that the offence, having actually been committed, and that the accused knew or had reason to believe that the offence had actually been committed. — 20 W. R., 66.

10. A Collector trying a suit under Act X of 1850 has power, under s. 173 Act XXV of 1861, to commit for perjury. — 1 W. R. Cr. 47 (4 R. J. P. J. 651).

12. Corrupt intention in giving — may be inferred from circumstances. — 2 W. R. Cr., 63 (4 R. J. P. J. 854).

13. Discussion as to the propriety of a conviction on a charge which has been made to the Police under compulsion. — 3 W. R. Cr., 6 (4 R. J. P. J. 423).

14. A Deputy Collector having committed an agent, under s. 374 Penal Code, for false evidence, the Assistant Magistrate acted without jurisdiction in having taken security for the appearance of his principals before having obtained the Deputy Magistrate's sanction to proceed against the principals. — 4 W. R. Cr., 7.

15. A charge of — was held unproved, without proof that the statement on which it was founded was given on solemn affirmation under Act V of 1840 instead of on oath. — 4 W. R. Cr. 24; 7 W. R. Cr. 76 (4 R. J. P. J. 359).

16. An enquiry by an Assistant Magistrate with a view to tracing the writer of an anonymous letter, and nothing more, is punishable under s. 193 Penal Code. — 5 W. R. Cr. 72.

17. A false statement by a witness as to his position or character ought not to be punished so severely as a false charge on a false claim. — 5 W. R. Cr., 95.

18. The discretion vested in a Civil Court, under s. 169 Act XXV of 1861, of sanctioning a criminal charge of — on any part that should be most carefully exercised. — 6 W. R. Cr., 11.

So also in cases of perjury and forgery under ss. 14 and 15 Act XXIII of 1861. — 7 W. R. 482.

A general charge of perjury. — 9 W. R. Cr., 77.

19. Where a witness intentionally gives — and it is doubtful whether the false statement was made before the Magistrate of the Sessions Judge, the witness may be convicted of giving — upon an alternative finding. — (F. B.) 6 W. R. Cr. 65. See 12 W. R. Cr., 11.

20. The deposition voluntarily given before the Sessions Judge is admissible in evidence against the witness, to show the falsehood of his deposition before the Magistrate, anything in s. 52 Act II of 1855 notwithstanding. — (F. B.) Jh.

21. A Sub-Registrar is competent for any purpose contemplated by Act XX of 1866, to examine any person, and any statement made by such person before an officer in any proceedings or to an officer who, if intentionally false, renders such person liable to a Criminal prosecution. — 6 W. R. Cr., 81.

22. In a case of — reading extracts from the alleged conflicting statements of the prisoner is not sufficient; the whole deposition should be laid before the jury. — 6 W. R. Cr., 92.

23. Nor are written reports of deposition evidence except in the case provided for by s. 309 Act XXV of 1861. — Jh.

24. The punishment for — should be in proportion to the character of the offence. — 7 W. R. Cr., 37.

And is a matter entirely in the discretion of the Sessions Court. — 14 W. R. Cr., 53.

25. Discussions as to the extent of punishment to be passed upon certain rioters who, in a case of criminal trespass brought by an indigo planter, falsely swore that cotton, and not indigo, had been raised on the land in question during the past year. — 8 W. R. Cr., 7.

26. Although a Civil Court acted irregularly in sending to the Magistrate for investigation a case of using or attempting to use — when no suit was pending in that Court, yet as the Court had given its sanction to the prosecution of the offence, the Magistrate was held competent, under s. 68 Act XXV of 1861, even without a charge or complaint, to investigate and commit for trial if necessary. — 6 W. R. Cr., 9.

27. Where a person makes one statement before the Magistrate, and a directly different statement before the Civil Court, his testimony as to the offence having been actually committed. — 1 W. R. Cr. 92. See also 10 W. R. Cr. 37.

28. A charge of giving — under s. 193 Penal Code should be precise; and where the accused is charged with giving — on three different occasions, each occasion should form the subject of a distinct head in the charge. — 9 W. R. Cr., 79 (4 R. J. P. J. 359).

29. Before an accused person can be convicted of giving — because he has made two contradictory statements it is necessary to prove that he made the statements which form the basis of the charge. — 9 W. R. Cr., 32. See also 10 W. R. Cr. 37.

30. Documents which were tendered in the civil suit, if relied on in a prosecution for giving — must be proved in the Criminal Court, before they can be received as evidence. — 9 W. R. Cr., 58.

31. The verification of an application filed in the civil suit, in which it was stated that the applicant did not sign an alleged deed of compromise does not subject him to punishment for giving. — Jh.

32. The failure of the Civil Court in a case of — to make a memorandum of the evidence of the accused when examined before it does not vitiate the deposition if the evidence itself was duly recorded in the language in which it was delivered in such Court. — 9 W. R. Cr., 69.

33. Quere. Whether a party who makes a false verification, when no verification is required by law, has committed an offence under s. 192 Penal Code or s. 24 Act VIII of 1859. — 10 W. R. Cr., 81.

34. A charge of giving — under s. 193 Penal Code should state the particular stage of the proceeding in the course of which the prisoner made the alleged false statement. — 10 W. R. Cr., 37.

Also the date on which the offence charged was committed, and the Court or officer before whom the — was given. — 16 W. R. Cr., 47.

And the statement should be clearly proved to have been made by him. — 18 W. R. Cr., 58.

35. Where a false statement is made in a stage of a judicial proceeding before a Magistrate, he ought not to convict under s. 181 Penal Code, but commit to the Sessions under s. 185. — 11 Jv. R. Cr., 24.

36. Rule as to evidence in a case of giving.—[11 W. R., 28. See also 12 W. R., 46.]
37. How the charge is to be drawn up, according to s. 199 Act XXXV of 1861, in a case of — in which it is doubtful which of two statements made by the accused is false. —[12 W. R., 23.
38. When a Civil Court sends an offence under s. 193 Penal Code to a Magistrate for investigation and commitment if necessary, the Magistrate cannot return the case to the Civil Court, nor can the Civil Court, after it has sent a case to the Magistrate, commit it to the Sessions; but the Magistrate should proceed with the case himself. —[12 W. R., 41.

39. In a case of giving — by making contradictory statements, a Court of Sessions cannot, without making further enquiry, commit a person for trial under s. 172 Act XXV of 1861, when both contradictory statements are made before it.—[12 W. R., 49. See also 12 W. R., 35.

40. A conviction may be had for giving — under s. 193 Penal Code even if the evidence be given in matters not judicial (such as before a Collector acting in his fiscal capacity under Reg. XIX of 1814), but it must be proved that the false statement was made under the sanction of the Act.—[14 W. R., 24.

41. The evidence of one witness in cases of — is sufficient to establish the factum of the statement charged as being false.—[14 W. R., 53.

42. The words of s. 191 Penal Code are very general and do not contain any limitation that the false statement shall have any bearing upon the matter in issue. It is sufficient to bring a case within that section if the false statement is intentionally given.—[16 W. R., 37.

43. The issue of a warrant by the Magistrate against a prisoner charging him with giving — was held to be a sufficient sanction under s. 199 Act XXV of 1861 on the part of the Magistrate.—[16 W. R., 37.

44. A number of persons cannot be jointly charged with giving — under s. 198 Penal Code.—[16 W. R., 47.

45. The Magistrate before whom the offence of giving — is committed, may himself try and commit the person so offending.—[18 W. R., 15.

46. A statement, untrue to the prisoner’s knowledge, made upon oath in the course of a judicial proceeding, amounts to perjury, notwithstanding the fact that the statement itself is immaterial to the matter before the Court.—[15 W. R., 50.

47. It is not necessary under s. 194 Penal Code, that the — which is given should be evidence given in a Court of Justice. Such statement, if made to a Police Officer, would amount to the offence of giving — as defined by s. 194 taken together with s. 118.—[20 W. R., 41.

48. There can be no offence of abetment of giving — unless the person charged with abetment intended not only that the statement should be made but also that the statement should be made falsely.—[16 W. R., 39.

49. A charge framed on the model given in 8th, II, Act X of 1872, charging the accused upon two charges with having made contradictory statements in the course of judicial proceedings under s. 199 Penal Code, is a good charge, and the Court or jury, if convicting, need not by direct evidence find which of the two statements is false; all that is necessary being that the Court or jury should find that the allegations made in the charge are proved.—[P. R.) 21 W. R., 72. See also 22 W. R., 22.

50. A charge of giving — should be based strictly upon the exact words used by the person charged, and no evidence which does not profess to give those exact words can alone be a safe foundation for a conviction.—[25 W. R., 28.

51. A Magistrate cannot, on the petition of a third party, entertain a charge of false complaint, compel the complainants to appear, and convict them under s. 193 Penal Code.—[24 W. R., 52.

Current page appears to be a continuation of legal text from a previous page, discussing various legal cases and principles. The content includes references to specific cases, statutes, and legal practices, indicating a detailed examination of legal precedents and principles. The text appears to be from a legal digest, possibly from the "Digest of Indian Law Reports." The page contains a mix of case summaries, statutes, and legal principles, typical of legal reference materials or textbooks. The text is formatted in a standard legal style, with citations to statutes and case law, indicating a rigorous and formal approach to legal analysis.

This page includes references to various sections and cases, such as the "Hindoo Law (Coparœnumerary)" and "occupancy" cases, indicating a focus on property law and tenancy issues. The text also touches on general legal principles, such as the "Practice (Criminal Trials)" and "Foreign Judgment." The presence of terms like "Evidence (Estoppel)" and "Practice (Execution of Decree)" suggests a comprehensive coverage of different legal areas.

The page seems to be part of a larger volume dedicated to legal reports, providing a structured overview of legal cases and rulings that are relevant for understanding the evolution of legal principles in India. The text is a valuable resource for legal students, practitioners, and researchers interested in the Indian legal system and its historical development.

Overall, this page is an integral part of a larger document that offers a detailed and structured approach to understanding complex legal issues, highlighting the importance of detailed analysis and citation of authority in legal practice.

The text is a testament to the rigorous legal framework in India, emphasizing the importance of historical precedents and the application of statutes in modern legal contexts. The page is an essential piece of a larger body of work aimed at providing a comprehensive understanding of the legal landscape in India, with a focus on the evolution and application of legal principles over time.

Case in which an ineffectual attempt was made to set up a death-bed deed of — as executed in the form of a deed of sale in order to defeat the operation of the Mahomedan law of wills, by which a testator is precluded from giving more than one-third of his property by will. — 5 W. R. 198. See 16 W. R. P. C. 32.

39. Under Hindu law, a person who becomes a heer after succeeding to property is not incapable of making a — of said property. — 6 W. R. 56.

40. The absence of seizin is no objection to the validity of a — by a Hindu. — 6 W. R. 215.

41. When a eald member of the Doonuman family gave, for the support of his illegitimate sons, certain properties which he purchased out of the savings and profits of his appanage, even admitting that he was in possession of such properties during his lifetime, his possession would be that of an illegitimate son. — 16.

42. A Mahomedan widow or other woman may give away property held in her own right; but such a — made on her death-bed, being looked upon as a will, will be inoperative by reason of the language used. — 16.

43. In establishing the validity of a deed of — taken from a woman (a Hindu widow) stricken with a mortal disease and in expectation of death, proof at least of equal strictness to that required to prove testamentary disposition must be given, and the pove to support such a transaction ought to be sufficient to establish that she knew what she was abst, and intended to make such a disposition of her property. — (P. C) 10 W. R. P. C. 3.

44. Where a Mahomedan transferred certain Government paper to his son, reserving the interest to himself for life, the object of the disposition being to give the son a larger share of the father's property than would come to him by succession ab intestate. — Held that the transaction could not be impeached on moral grounds; nor did it violate any provision of the Hadana. — (P. C) 10 W. R. P. C. 3. See

45. The Mahomedan law, although it allows revocation of a — at any time before delivery, is precise as to the impossibility of revoking a — after delivery without the decree of a Judge or the consent of the donees. — 11 W. R. 320.

46. Where, when a Hindu widow, during his last illness and two or three days before his death, handed over certain Government securities to one of his sons without reading them, the — was under Hindu law a good —, and passed not only the paper, but also the debt and the interest required by the notes, or whether it was under the English law a good donation mortis causa, or whether it was a non-acceptance will. — 12 W. R. P. C. J. 4.

47. Every — of any part of a judgment-debtor's property is not void if he has sufficient other property to satisfy a decree against him. — 12 W. R. 187.

48. A petition to the Collector declaring a son's widow to be petitioner's heir, and that her daughters and their children were and would be the heirs and devisees whilst the management would be kept in his own hands during his lifetime, and praying that the widow's name might be substituted for the petitioner's as the recorded proprietor of his estates on the Government rent-roll, was held to be a document the describe of a —. — 13 W. R. 285.

49. Held contra to be a testamentary disposition, and that the daughters' children would not be the heirs of the testator, took no interest under the will, but that the widow had the property for her life, and subject to that estate, the daughters took it absolutely as joint owners. — 13 W. R. 316.

50. Where such a document was construed to convey an absolute to a son's widow and the donee came into possession, — Held that not being expressly restricted from alienating, she was not, by any provision of the law, which binds a Hindu family, prevented from alienating the estate. — 13 W. R. 285.

51. A deed of a — purports to have been executed by a purposed woman, the Court must see that it was fairly taken from her, and that she was not a free agent and duly informed of what she was about. When the disposition is in the nature of a death-bed disposition, the Court ought to be satisfied that it was the free voluntary act of the party by which it purports to have been executed and expresses his real intentions. — (P. C) 14 W. R. P. C. 7.

52. Under the Mahomedan law, a — is valid until possession is given by the donor and taken by the donee. — 16 W. R. 88.

53. A Khiba-bil-evar differs from an out-and-out sale as well as from a —, while it partakes of the character of both, and, if supported by sufficient consideration, is binding under the Mahomedan law upon the heirs of the party executing such deed. — 16 W. R. 175.

54. Where from the whole tenor of a deed of a — it appeared that the real intention of the donor was to pass all property qualifying worse used in the deed were held not to control its operation. — 16 W. R. 300.

55. A benignant construction should be used in the case of transfers by a —, the real meaning of the document being enforced, if it can be so construed from the language used. — (P. C) 18 W. R. 569. See 24 W. R. 288.

57. Under the Mahomedan law, possession is absolutely requisite to establish the validity of a Khiba-bil-evar. — 22 W. R. 314.

58. Where a father executed a deed of — in favor of his son with the condition that the son should take the property subject to the same liability in respect of the maintenance of the family as it was in the hands of the father. — Held that this was not an obligation entered into by father osuon as a matter of contract, but a reservation in the father's — which did not give the son a greater right to be maintained at the expense of the father, or in the family house, than he had before. — 25 W. R. 236.

59. Where by its terms a annuity to a Hindu female determined with the life of the donee and the children born of her womb, the — becomes that of a life-interest only, and she can make no disposition of the property after her death. If she wills away the will is inoperative and without legal effect. — 21 W. R. 288.

26. S. 15 of the High Court's Act (24 and 25 Vic. c. 103) does not give it a superintendence over a Collector's Court.—6 W. R., 260; 9 W. R., 3.

27. S. 35 Act XXIII of 1861 only applies where there is an order of a Court in appeal acting without jurisdiction.—5 W. R. (Act X) 35.

28. The case of hearing a suit, a Civil Court commits a party to the suit for trial on a charge of perjury or forgery, or directs that the case be made over to a Magistrate for investigation of such a charge, the —, in the exercise either of civil or criminal jurisdiction, cannot, in the event of a regular or special appeal being lodged, in the decision of the Lower Court, interfere to stay the criminal proceedings until after the appeal shall have been heard and determined.—(F. B.) 5 W. R., Mis. 24. See 16 W. R., Cr. 522.

29. The — cannot, either under its Charter by way of motion, or as a Court of Appeal or Court of Revision under s. 12 or s. 33 Act XXIII of 1861, interfere with the order of a Lower Court setting aside a sale of moveable property in execution of a decree, even though the Lower Court has thereby acted wholly without jurisdiction and done injury to a bond filed purchaser.—(F. B.) 5 W. R., Mis. 25. See 15 W. R., 109; 12 W. R., 406; 11 W. R., 9.

30. Only questions that arise in the course of a trial of a suit can be referred to the — by a Small Cause Court under ss. 22 Act XI of 1865,—6 W. R., 8; C. C. 7, 21; 12 W. R., 17.

31. And not as aric in applications for execution of a decree.—(F. B.) 5 W. R., 8; C. C. 19, 21 W. R., 376.

So also as regards a Recorder's Court under Act XXI of 1861.—9 W. R., 478; 13 W. R., 27.

Nor can there be a reference to — upon an application for a review of judgment by a Small Cause Court.—17 W. R., 91.

No case under s. 28 Act XXIII of 1861.—17 W. R., 92.

32. Where — set aside an order of confession.—5 W. R., Cr. 8.

32a. The — as a Court of Revision can interfere with a judgment of conviction and can also enhance punishment.—(F. B.) 5 W. R., 45. See 11 W. R., Cr. 27; 15 W. R., Cr. 23; 68, 83.

The above ruling applies only to cases tried by assessors but not by a jury.—5 W. R., Cr. 45.

32b. Can act as a Court of Revision, after it has acted as a Court of Appeal, in order to correct an error in law which could not be set right on appeal.—(F. B.) 5 W. R., Cr. 45. See 82 post.

33. Improper advice given by the Judge to the jury upon a question of fact, or the omission of the Judge to give that advice which a Judge ought to give the jury upon questions of fact, amounts to such an error in law as to summing up as to justify the —, on appeal or revision, in setting aside a verdict of guilty.—(F. B.) 5 W. R., Cr. 80. See also 7 W. R., Cr. 3; 18 W. R., Cr. 66; 19 W. R., Cr. 71; 20 W. R., Cr. 41. See 82 post.

34. The power of setting aside convictions and ordering new trials, for any error or defect in the summing up, will be exercised only when the Court is satisfied that the accused person has been prejudiced, or failure of justice has been occasioned, thereby.—1b. See also 24 W. R., Cr. 24, 77.

35. — the power of — to remand a case when Lower Court has refused to enforce attendance of plaintiff's witnesses.—6 W. R., 14.

36. Where the Lower Court had not heard the witnesses and — formed an independent opinion upon the evidence.—5 W. R., 26.

37. Where there is an error of law in the judgment of the Lower Appellate Court, although the judgment may not be very clear, yet if the facts have been sufficiently proved by the Lower Courts, the — is bound to give the proper judgment in the case, instead of sending the case back to the Lower Appellate Court for a fresh judgment.—6 W. R., 97.

38. Cannot interfere with the refusal of a Lower Appellate Court to comply with an application under s. 355 Act VIII to file additional exhibits.—6 W. R., 196. See 17 W. R., 47.

39. Where — declined to allow plaintiff to examine witnesses at the last moment just when judgment was about to be passed.—6 W. R., 215.

39a. In a Court where the concurrence of two or more Judges is necessary to a judicial determination, the Judges shall confer together and if they cannot agree the case is referred to other Judges, if those other Judges have jurisdiction to go into the whole case.—9 W. R., 260. See also 9 W. R., 1.

40. The — case of applicating for an order of a Deputy Collector for the sale of a under-tenure in execution of a decree for rent (such order of the Deputy Collector being final), not even where the Collector by mistake assumed jurisdiction and determined the order of the Collector pending an appeal upon review of judgment, set aside his former order is made without jurisdiction.—(F. B.) 6 W. R. (Act X) 53. See 15 W. R., 53.

41. Quere. Whether the Collector's Court is subordinate to the — within the meaning of the same section.—1b. See also 6 W. R. (Act X) 68.

42. Under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15 the — has a power of superintendence over Collector's Courts, and can interfere to restrain a Collector from exercising a jurisdiction which properly belongs to the Zillah Judge.—6 W. R. (Act X) 68. See contra 26 ante.

So also as to Inferior Courts generally.—11 W. R., 5.

43. Cannot interfere under s. 35 Act XXIII of 1861, where a Small Cause Court acts without jurisdiction, but only when the Small Cause Court has been moved to reverse the case to the — under s. 22 Act XI of 1865.—6 W. R., Mis. 26.

44. Under s. 35 Act XXIII of 1861, the — can interfere either where a subordinate Court exercises an appellate jurisdiction which it has no power to exercise, or where the Subordinate Court in the exercise of a jurisdiction which it has, exceeds its jurisdiction. When a Court exceeds its jurisdiction, the — may set aside that part of the order which is in excess of jurisdiction; and when the Court has no jurisdiction, the proper order is to set it aside altogether. When an appeal is heard by a Court which has no jurisdiction and another Court has, the — may set aside the judgment of the Court which has, if it think right, refer the case to that which has, even if it be too late to prefer a fresh appeal to that Court.—(F. B.) 6 W. R., Mis. 77.

45. The — declined to interfere under s. 35 Act XXIII of 1861 with an order of a Judge complained of as made without jurisdiction, confirming an order of the Sudder Ameer affining a sale, the order of the Judge having been passed more than a year and a half ago and having been acted upon by the petitioner.—5 W. R., Mis. 96.

46. Reading ss. 405 and 428 Act XXV of 1861 together, the — can reduce a sentence passed by a Magistrate and confirmed in appeal by the Sessions Judge, or a sentence passed in appeal by the Sessions Judge on a sentence passed by a Magistrate, on the ground that the sentence is excessive.—(F. B.) 6 W. R., Cr. 7.

47. Orders passed by Sessions Judges confirming orders by Magistrates calling upon parties to give security for their good behaviour, though not subject to appeal, are open to revision by the — under s. 404 Act XXV.—6 W. R., Cr. 18.

48. Cannot reverse a conviction on extraneous evidence derived from another case.—6 W. R., Cr. 42.

48a. Where two Judges of the — differ in opinion in a criminal appeal, the opinion of the Senior Judge prevails under s. 36 of the Charter, Cr. 77 in that case.—6 W. R., Cr. 80.

So in a civil case.—6 W. R., 118. See 54, 55, 66 post.

49. Under ss. 24 and 25 Vic. c. 101 s. 16 the — cannot, where an Inferior Court has jurisdiction to try a case and has tried it, merely because there is an error apparent in the decision on the facts, alter that decision where the law allows no appeal.—7 W. R. 130. See also 9 W. R. 386,

52. According to s. 22 Act XI of 1869, a Small Cause Court is required, in referring a case for the decision of the Court, to draw up a statement of the case, and to refer it with the Court's own opinion.—7 W. R. 165.

53. When a joint undivided estate has been attached under s. 26 Reg. V of 1812 and made over to the management of a Collector under Reg. V of 1837, the Zillah Judge has jurisdiction to divide the property, and execute the estate among the several shareholders according to their respective shares, and the ——, under 21 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15, interfere with the order of the Judge.
—(F. R.) 7 W. R. 276.

54. A judgment of the Senior Judge of a Division Bench of the —— is final within the meaning of s. 36 of the Charter, even when the Junior Judge entertains doubts and expresses no final opinion.—(F. R.) 7 W. R. 277.

55. The Junior Judge cannot refer a question for the decision of the Full Bench, without the concurrence of the Senior Judge.—(F. R.) 7 W. R. 277.

56. The Lower Court added a third party as plaintiff, in the absence of the original plaintiff, improperly dismissed the suit, the suit was held to be still pending and the Lower Court was directed by the ——, under 15 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15, to take up and try the case accordingly.—Id.

57. The —— has no jurisdiction to compel a Small Cause Court to re-hear a suit dismissed by the latter Court on the ground of res judicata.—7 W. R. 316.

58. It is in the discretion of the Judge to consider whether sufficient cause has been shown for the non-presentation of an appeal in proper time, owing to delay on the part of the Collector or to which the appeal was wrongly preferred in the first instance, and the —— has no authority to interfere with the exercise of such discretion by the Judge.—7 W. R. 337.

59. The chairman of a minor's ward (either under 21 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15 or s. 16 of the Charter) to order the release of a person arrested and lodged in jail in 1867 in execution of a summary decree for rent obtained under Reg. VII of 1799 against the prisoner's father and another.—7 W. R. 430.

60. If the order allowing plaintiff to sue as a pauper has been improperly obtained, the proper course is to apply to the Court of a higher grade for an order to set aside such order which is final under s. 311 Act VIII, or can it stay proceedings on the ground that plaintiff has no interest in the suit.—7 W. R. 486.

61. A judgment under s. 12 and 15 of the Charter, to the — at large from the judgment (not being a sentence or order passed or made in a criminal trial) of a Division Court in the exercise of appellate jurisdiction, when the Judges of such Court are equally divided in opinion, and do not amount in number to a majority of the whole of the Judges.—(F. R.) 7 W. R. 52, 512. See 15 W. R. 209, 62. The —— refused to interfere, under 21 and 25 Vic.

c. 104 s. 15, with an order of a Lower Court which, though apparently arbitrary and indiscreet, that Court was author-

63. In a suit under Act X of 1830 plaintiff got an ex-parte decree for arrears of rent in the Court of the Deputy Collector. He took out execution for the full amount, pending an appeal which eventually modified the decree. He then applied to the Deputy Collector for an order for restitution of the excess. The Deputy Collector refused his application and referred him to a regular suit.
The ——, under 21 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15, ordered the Deputy Collector to enforce restitution, thus compelling him to exercise a jurisdiction which belonged to him and which he had refused to exercise.—(F. R.) 7 W. R. 520,

So also a plaintiff refused to attach property in execution which he was bound to attach.—13 W. R. 246.

64. After a sentence has once been passed by a competent authority, the —— has no power to interfere with it except upon appeal or on reference or by way of revision provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure.—7 W. R. 65, 1.

65. The —— may make an order upon motion to compel a Lower Court to make absolute a sale made by that Court and not confirmed.—8 W. R. 101.

66. Where a Full Bench was equally divided in opinion, the opinion of the Senior Judge prevailed under s. 36 of the Charter.—(F. R.) 9 W. R. 1.

67. The ——, under 21 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15, admit an appeal which Act VIII of 1859 and s. 11
Act XXIII of 1861 do not allow.—9 W. R. 115.

68. Cannot interfere with refusal of Zillah Judge to justify a decree.—10 W. R. 394.

69. Where a respondent in a Collector's Court applied in special appeal to the —— to exercise the powers of supervision vested in it by s. 35 Act XX of 1861 and 21 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15, to set aside the Collector's proceedings as made without jurisdiction, it was held that, as he had allowed the appeal to be heard without objection, he was not entitled to the relief sought.—10 W. R. 254.

70. Where a suit should have been dismissed under a recent ruling of a Full Bench, the ——, upon its own motion reversed the decree notwithstanding the objection was not taken in the written grounds of appeal.—10 W. R. 215.

71. The ——, on cause shown, can require a decree-holder who has been put into possession in execution of a decree against which an appeal has been preferred to the Privy Council, and is still pending; to give security.—12 W. R. 296,
11 W. R. 205.

72. Act X of 1853 confers upon the Revenue Courts merely a limited jurisdiction, and the ——, under its general power of control has the right to prevent its exercise from exceeding that jurisdiction; as where an attachment in execution of a decree for rent payable in respect of a salable under-tenure, of the debtor's personal immovable property, was set aside, because under s. 105 it is only after a sale of the under-tenure itself that the other immovable property is attachable, and because under s. 109 immovable property can only be attached in execution of a money-decree if satisfaction of the debt cannot be obtained against the person or the movable property of the debtor.—10 W. R. 311.

73. Where a difference of opinion arises between two Judges of the ——, in a criminal trial the appeal cannot set aside the judgment of one Judge or confirm the opinion of the Senior Judge prevails under s. 36 of the Charter, notwithstanding s. 120 Act XXXV of 1861.—(F. R.) 10 W. R. 45.

74. The ——, under its general power of superintendence can order an order made by the Collector for a warrant in a case in which he had no jurisdiction to do so.
—11 W. R. 25.

75. An appeal, under s. 15 of the Charter, from the judgment of a Division Bench of the —— must be preferred within 30 days from the date of the judgment, unless good cause is shown to the contrary.—11 W. R. 107.

76. The 30 days count from the date when the written judgment is put in and not when the judgment was delivered orally.—12 W. R. 458.

77. The ——, interfered under 21 and 25 Vic. c. 101 s. 15 where a Lower Court erred in law in not exercising a jurisdiction which it was competent to exercise, namely, to investigate the claim of a person objecting to the sale of certain mortgaged property declared liable to be sold in satisfaction of a money-decree.—11 W. R. 292.

78. Also where the Lower Court erroneously refused to confirm a sale in execution.—19 W. R. 227 (affirmed by P. C.).

79. Also where a Lower Court wrongly refused to try a case as it ought to have done under s. 13 Act XIV of 1859, 80. The interference of the —— under 21 and 25 Vic.

c. 101 s. 15 should be confined to cases in which the Lower Court has acted without jurisdiction, or improperly detained jurisdiction, and ought not to extend to cases in which that Court has put an erroneous interpretation upon a provision of law.—11 W. R. 25, 302. See also 31 R. B. 212; 15 W. R. 91; 18 W. R. 290, 306, 422, 511;
23 W. R. 402.

It was exercised where a case was tried by the ordinary Civil Courts instead of the Small Cause Court.—16 W. R. 397.

The — never acts on this section unless it is satisfied
(1) that there has been a capital error in the judgment of the Lower Court complained of, and (2) that plaintiff has entitled himself to the special interference of the —.
— 25 W. R. 341.

37. The — cannot under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15 interfere with an order of a Lower Court rejecting security offered with a view to stay execution.—11 W. R. 494.

39. In a suit of a Small Cause Court nature (to recover the value of casks cut and carried away) which had been decided upon the real issues between the parties, the — refused to interfere under the above section, merely on the ground that, when a part of the dispute was whether the land was or was not in the jurisdiction of the Independent Tippera, the Lower Appellate Court had no jurisdiction to entertain and determine that point.—11 W. R. 506.

The — declined to interfere under the same section with an order of a Collector recalling a previous order passed by himself in execution.—11 W. R. 512.

The — interfered under the same section in declaring a judgment passed without jurisdiction to be ineffectual.—11 W. R. 517.

The — cannot upon revision set aside a verdict of guilty or not guilty on account of misdirection of the jury by the Judge.—(F. B.) 11 W. R., Cr. 29. See also 15 W. R., Cr. 68.

43. It was not the intention of 24 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15 to confer any rights on litigant parties, but only to give the — control over the Courts subject to its appellate jurisdiction.—12 W. R. 54.

44. Quere: Whether a conflict between a Judge's order and a direction of law is a ground for the interference of the —.—12 W. R. 547.

45. Where a party is a regular applicant, the — cannot interfere by the exercise of its extraordinary powers under 21 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15 to confer any rights on litigant parties, but only to give the — control over the Courts subject to its appellate jurisdiction.—12 W. R. 57.

46. Where of five analogous cases governed by one decision of the —, two were appealed to the Privy Council and the decision was reversed; the — reviewed and reversed its own decision in the other three cases.—12 W. R. 57.

47. An order of a — being a final decision by way of appeal on a question arising in a suit, cannot be interfered with except by the Privy Council.—12 W. R. 374.

48. Before granting a rule to show cause why execution should not be stayed, the — must be satisfied that, if no cause is shown, the rule must be made absolute.—12 W. R. 413, 13 W. R. 310, 16 W. R. 55.

49. In cl. 1 of the Rules of 8 August 1867 regarding the additional powers under 15 of the Charter, the words "unless the Court in its discretion, etc., shall grant further time" refer to the Appellate Bench of the — and not to the Division Bench.—12 W. R. 458.

An order of the — is not a "judgment" within the meaning of s. 15 of the Charter.—12 W. R. 459.

50. Points not raised before the Division Bench cannot be allowed in appeal under s. 15 of the Charter.—12 W. R. 459.

51. The — as a Court of Revision cannot say that a Sessions Judge is wrong in law because he does not, under s. 367 Act XXV of 1861, postpone a case for the evidence of a witness.—12 W. R. 44, 14 W. R., Cr. 44.

52. The — cannot interfere under s. 405 Act XXV of 1861 except in cases coming from the Courts of Session.—12 W. R., Cr. 47.

53. An advocate of the — is entitled to appear and plead on the Appellate side, but not to file an appeal in the Registrar's office.—13 W. R. 60.

54. He may appear when instructed by the party in person and not by a pleader.—24 W. R. 15.

55. The — interfered upon a reference from a Small Cause Court to set aside an illegal order passed by the officiating Judge, but left the parties to apply to the — under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15.—19 W. R. 98.

56. The — should have the power to make a special appeal under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15 is substantially a special appeal which cannot be allowed with reference to a case under s. 246 Act XVII.—13 W. R. 121.

The even refused to interfere in a case where the Judge below thought he was not, and the — considered that he was competent to proceed under s. 346 to inquire into the question whether the charge of personal injury alleged he had purchased were purchased by him bene esse for the judgment-debt or not.—20 W. R. 203.

57. The — declined to exercise the extraordinary powers described in the same section (15) directing the Magistrate did not interfere with the arrest in his Court, under a civil process, of a person who had been accused before the Magistrate but was acquitted at the time of his arrest.—13 W. R. 268.

58. There is no necessity that a motion for the cancel lation or return of a security-bond, given to stay execution till the appeal is disposed of, should be presented to the Judges who heard the appeal; a Division Bench may receive motions from all districts without reference to the division into groups.—13 W. R. 403.

59. As the — has authority under s. 338 Act VIII to make an order calling for security, so it has power at any time to modify or cancel such order or to direct the restoration of the security when no longer required. In carrying out such orders of the —, the Judge below acts, not judicially, but ministerially; and the party aggrieved by the Judge's proceeding cannot appeal to the — by way of motion, and not by way of appeal.—13 W. R. 428.

60. Where the — under ss. 342 and 106 Act VIII required the assignee of an insolvent plaintiff to give security for costs.—15 W. R. 442.

61. Where a Deputy Collector who had passed an informal decree refused to execute it on application, the decree-holder was held entitled to an order from the — under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15 directing the Deputy Collector to do his duty.—14 W. R. 9.

62. Under s. 22 Act XI of 1865, a Small Cause Court should not make a reference to the — on a simple question, merely on the application of the parties, unless it entertains a doubt upon the question.—14 W. R. 248.

63. Where a suit for 254 Rs. was decreed by a Deputy Collector for 490Rs, and the Collector in appeal decreed to full amount originally claimed, the — under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15 set aside the Collector's decree as made without jurisdiction.—14 W. R. 251.

64. The Court of the Recorder of Moulins is subject to the appellate jurisdiction of the — at Calcutta, and is consequently subject to the powers of superintendence vested in that Court by 24 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15.—14 W. R. 257. See 15 W. R. 351.

65. In cases heard by the — in its appellate jurisdiction, where the Judges are equally divided in opinion, a party desirous of appealing to the Privy Council must, according to s. 39 of the Charter, first appeal under s. 15 of the Charter.—14 W. R. 290. See 16 W. R. 191.

66. A question of fact cannot be reserved for determination by the — under s. 7 Act XXVI of 1864 when there is a difference of opinion between two Judges of the Small Cause Court at Calcutta. Where the Judges differ on a question of law, it ought to be expressly stated. In a case of a difference of opinion between two Judges upon the point as to whether there should be a new trial or not, no rule can be granted.—14 W. R. 312.

67. Quere: Whether the — can give costs in a case in which it has declined jurisdiction.—15 W. R. 351.

68. Only a Sessions Judge or the District Judge of a District, and not a Joint Magistrate, can make a reference to the — under s. 404 Act XXV of 1861.—14 W. R., Cr. 25.

69. The — ought not, under s. 404 Act XXV of 1861, to set aside a conviction, if otherwise good, and the prisoner be not really prejudiced, on a mere technical ground, such as the mistake of a section or the like.—14 W. R., Cr. 41.

70. An order passed by a Magistrate under s. 62 Act XXV of 1861 is not of the nature of a judicial proceeding and cannot therefore be interfered with by the —. See 16 W. R., Cr. 44.

110. No order passed by a Magistrate under s. 62 Act XXV of 1861 is not of the nature of a judicial proceeding and cannot therefore be interfered with by the —. See 404.—(F. B.) 14 W. R., Cr. 46. See also 15 W. R., Cr. 66; 17 W. R., Cr. 37; 15 W. R., Cr. 22.

So also an order passed under s. 518 Act X of 1872, which cannot be interfered with to attempt to have the order set aside, should be treated as being — 20 W. R., Cr. 53; 21 W. R., Cr. 22; 22 W. R., Cr. 52.

If made without jurisdiction, it may be interfered with under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15.—23 W. R., Cr. 24; 23 W. R., Cr. 34; 24 W. R., Cr. 30. See also 24 W. R., Cr. 26.

But proceedings under ss. 308 and the other sections of chap. XX Act XXXV of 1861 are judicial within the meaning of s. 404.—16 W. R. 63. See also 16 W. R., Cr. 66.

112. The - cannot interfere under s. 404 Act XXV of 1861 with an order of a Magistrate refusing to deliver the property of a deceased person to his widow who held a consent under Act XXV of 1861.—15 W. R. 302.

113. The refuses to interfere under s. 35 Act XXII of 1861 to set aside an order of the Collector in appeal, because, although the Collector had no jurisdiction to make the order which he made, the Deputy Collector’s order was contrary to s. 92 Act X.—15 W. R. 551.

114. A Judge of the — making an order in the Original Criminal Jurisdiction of that Court is not a Court subject to the control of the Court under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15—16 W. R., Cr. 60.

115. Power of —, under s. 29 of the Charter, to transfer a criminal case from a Court in the Mofussil for trial before another,—15 W. R., Cr. 60.

116. Power of —, under s. 35 Act XXV of 1861, to order the transfer of criminal cases from one Mofussil Court to another.—16 W. R., Cr. 65.

117. The — refuses to interfere, as a Court of Revision under s. 404 Act XXV of 1861, with a legal sentence, although light, inasmuch as, under s. 405, the Court could not say that the sentence was contrary to law.—15 W. R., Cr. 83.

118. Power of — interfere under s. 161 Act X by way of revision or appeal, with an order in execution.—16 W. R., Cr. 115.

119. The distribution of a penalty adjudged by a Magistrate under s. 105 Act XXXVII of 1857 is not part of his jurisdiction, and therefore not a matter upon which he can exercise control under s. 401 Act XXV of 1861.—16 W. R., Cr. 65.

120. Application for revision by the —, under s. 104 Act XXV of 1861, of an order passed in appeal by the Sessions Judge, must be by motion,—16 W. R., Cr. 72.

121. A party cannot obtain a right of appeal to the — under s. 27 Act XXI of 1863 by valuing his appeal at 3100Rs, when his own statement shows that the value is only 1500Rs, and the difference is made up by damages not claimed in the suit.—17 W. R. 243.

122. The grounds for the issuing of a mandamus is not a "judgment" within the meaning of s. 15 of the Charter, and is therefore open to appeal.—17 W. R. 361.

123. The word "judgment" in s. 15 means a division which affects the question between the parties determining some right or liability, and which may be either final or preliminary or interlocutory.—17 W. R., Cr. 115.

124. The — may interfere with an order passed by a Magistrate under s. 62 Act XXV of 1861 when the order exceeds the Magistrate’s jurisdiction.—17 W. R., Cr. 37.

See also 18 W. R., Cr. 115.

125. Criminal appeals to the — may be disposed of by a single Judge. No second petition of appeal can be entertained after a first one has been rejected by a single Judge.—17 W. R., Cr. 41.

126. The extraordinary power given to the — by s. 404 Act XXXV of 1861 should only be exercised in cases of jurisdictional obduracy and patent injustice.—17 W. R., Cr. 58.

See also 18 W. R., Cr. 3, 8, 23.

127. A Small Cause Court cannot, under s. 22 Act XI of 1866, submit to the — a question as to the validity of an information, submitted to the — under s. 15 of the Charter, from the decision of the Senor Judge of a Division Bench (differing in opinion from the Junior Judge) dismissing a petition for a writ of habeas corpus challenging his removal from office by the English Committee. Held that no Division Bench has any power to reconsider or review or set aside a decision of the English Committee, or to order the Judges of the English Committee to reconsider or review or set aside their decision.—18 W. R. 209.

128. Upon an appeal, under s. 15 of the Charter, from the decision of the Senior Judge of a Division Bench (differing in opinion from the Junior Judge) dismissing a petition for a writ of habeas corpus challenging his removal from office by the English Committee. Held that no Division Bench has any power to reconsider or review or set aside a decision of the English Committee, or to order the Judges of the English Committee to reconsider or review or set aside their decision.—18 W. R. 209.

129. Quere. Whether an appeal lies under s. 15 from the decision of the Senior Judge in such a matter.—17 W. R. 195.

The — declined to entertain the objection that, when the appellant’s argument was closed) that no appeal lay to it on the ground that the amount or value did not exceed 3000Rs.—18 W. R. 218.

The — refused to interfere under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15 to set aside an order rejecting a document made by a Court under s. 129 Act VIII, an appeal from such order being barred by s. 355.—18 W. R. 811.

The — cannot interfere under s. 404 Act XXXV of 1861 in a case of difference of opinion between the Magistrate and the Judge as to the credibility of certain witnesses.—18 W. R., Cr. 7, 39.

The — acting under s. 129 Act XXV of 1861, declined to interfere where the accused were convicted of criminal trespass instead of a nuisance under s. 290 Penal Code but had not been sentenced to a heavier punishment than if convicted of a nuisance.—18 W. R., Cr. 38.

So also where the accused was tried by a jury instead of assessors and was not shown to have been prejudiced.—18 W. R., Cr. 55.

134. If a Magistrate decides any point of law erroneously (e.g. under s. 308 Act XXXV of 1861) the case falls under s. 101; but not so if he decides erroneously upon the evidence; neither is an erroneous decision upon the evidence an exercise of jurisdiction justifying the interfering with the judgment—under its general power of superintendence.—18 W. R., Cr. 41.

135. The — refused to interfere with a verdict of a jury which was not only contrary to the charge of the Sessions Judge but incorrect.—18 W. R., Cr. 15.

136. The — under s. 451 Act XXXV of 1861 quashed a Deputy Magistrate’s order of acquittal under s. 272 and directed a re-hearing if complainant wished it.—18 W. R., Cr. 59.

137. The — has no power to interfere with an order of a purely executive nature, with or without a special constable.—17 Act V of 1861 instead of proceeding under s. 15 to apply for sanction to an increase to the Police force.—18 W. R., Cr. 67.

138. The — declined to interfere under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 101 s. 15 and Act VI of 1871, on behalf of a party complaining that the District Judge had acted ultra vires in dismissing him from the post of the Sub-ruralist of the Moonisf’s Court, on the ground that the applicant was open to seek his remedy from the Local Government.—19 W. R. 148, 20 W. R. 470.

139. The — declined to interfere under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 105 s. 15 and s. 4 Act XI of 1865 with the decision of a Small Cause Court refusing defendant’s application to send for a letter filed in another Court.—19 W. R. 306.

140. Where a case is referred to the — under s. 287 Act X of 1872, the Court is bound under s. 288 to go into the case of the court, although the conviction was by the verdict of a jury.—19 W. R., Cr. 57.

141. The — interfered, under s. 287 Act X of 1872, in the case of a prisoner who had not appealed.—19 W. R., Cr. 57.

142. Evading a sale in execution without taking security or having the amount of the decree deposited, is not an act either without jurisdiction over the subject matter or in the proceeding, or in excess of jurisdiction, so as to justify the interference of the — under 24 and 25 Vic. c. 105 s. 15—20 W. R. 10.

Neither can the — interfere under the same section with an order refusing attached property, on any ground of irreversibility, unless failure of justice has occurred.—22 W. R. 277.

143. Where a Magistrate could, under s. 16 Act X of 1872, have re-issued a case himself, a reference to the — under s. 287 was considered unnecessary.—20 W. R., Cr. 13.

144. Where the — enhanced the punishment passed by the Sessions Judge on a prisoner who was convicted of desertion.—20 W. R., Cr. 21.

145. The interference of the — should not be sought under s. 286 Act X of 1872 only because the Magistrate considers a more severe sentence on a different charge necessary; but there must be matter on the record to show that the charge has been improperly framed, or that the sentence is clearly inadequate.—20 W. R., Cr. 22.

146. The — has jurisdiction (having regard to ss. 297 and 64 Act X of 1872) to take cognizance of and revise the proceedings of a Magistrate while they are in an interlocutory state of pending investigation, and may suspend such proceedings without having the record before it, and order to be taken from the accused.—22 W. R., Cr. 23.

14. Where a case under s. 297 Act X of 1872, exercise a discretion as to whether he will refer a case to the court, and is not bound to refer every case in which he may detect an error.—20 W. R., Cr. 40.
148. The questions which the High Court has to determine under s. 294 and 297 Act X of 1872 are questions of law or procedure which affect the decision, and not questions of fact depending upon conflicting evidence which has been considered by the Sessions Judge and upon which he has given his opinion adversely to the accused.—20 W. R., Cr., 40, 61.
See also 24 W. R., Cr. 60; 25 W. R., Cr., 10, 74.
119. How Sessions Judges should make their report to the High Court under s. 297 Act X of 1872.—20 W. R., Cr., 50.
150. S. 17 Act XVIII of 1862 does not apply to a trial before a Sessions Judge but only to trials on the Original side of the Court.—20 W. R., Cr., 11.
161. Conduct of a Sessions Judge in the exercise of his discretion to give the statute to the accused, and orders as distinct from judgments. The former may be altered or set aside by the High Court for illegality or imprudence; but the latter cannot be interfered with (except in such cases where the High Court has in its discretion interfered with the judgment) unless it is shown that there has been some material error of law which renders the conviction illegal and improper in law.—20 W. R., Cr., 61.
162. Where a Deputy Magistrate convicted an accused of causing grievous hurt, and the Magistrate considered that the accused ought to have been committed to the Sessions Court on a charge of culpable homicide, and recomnended the accused should be committed to the Sessions on charges of culpable homicide and grievous hurt.—20 W. R., Cr., 63.
153. S. 297 Act XVII of 1873 was not intended to deprive the accused of the protection of his appeal to the High Court.—21 W. R., Cr., 59.
154. In a suit to set aside a release alleged to have been executed in Calcutta under fraudulent representations made by the first defendant, and for an account and ad-mis sions in the case of a deceased Mahomedian who died intestate in Bombay where he left moveable and immo-table property, leave was granted to institute the suit in the Supreme Court in Calcutta subject to objection by the defendants. Some of the defendants were residing in Bombay and having appeared, the court refused to allow the plaint to be taken off the file on the objection of the first defendant who was subject to its jurisdiction. Held on appeal that the court in the exercise of the effect of the release is not entitled to the plaint, and the plaintiff's share of the property was in Bombay, and that the suit came within that part of s. 11 of the Charter of 1855 which provided that the leave of the Court might be obtained by the proper place where the account asked for should be taken, and where the cause of action in the suit ought to be, would be where the property was situate, and that the dwelling or carrying on business necessary to give the Court jurisdiction under the above section must be of all the defendants, the expression "defendant" being used not as indicating an individual defendant in a suit, but the party defendant to the suit, which may be one person or several.—O. J. 21 W. R., 153.
155. An order under the above Section is an appealable order.—(O. J.) 15.
156. Held on reference under s. 297 Act X of 1872 that the order of a District Magistrate appointing to the jury persons who had been appointed by the opposite party, holding that the error of procedure was a material one and affecting the merits of the case.—21 W. R., Cr. 43.
160. Where the Lower Appellate Court's decision is fundamentally wrong, and the liability of the defendants in the essential matter of suit has not been properly tried, the appeal, though not warranted to interfere in special appeal, is justified in interfering under their general powers of supervision.—22 W. R., 44.
161. The appeal was refused to under 24 and 23 Vic. c. 104 s. 15 to assist parties who were chargeable with great and unexplained delay.—22 W. R., 44.
162. Or who have contributed by their own conduct to being placed in the position from which they seek relief.—23 W. R., 510.
163. The decision under s. 297 Act X of 1872, altered a conviction from grievous hurt into one of murder and enhanced the punishment accordingly.—22 W. R., Cr., 5.
164. The — refused to interfere under 24 and 23 Vic. c. 104 s. 15 to assist parties who were chargeable with great and unexplained delay.—22 W. R., 44.
165. Or who have contributed by their own conduct to being placed in the position from which they seek relief.—23 W. R., 510.
166. The —, under s. 297 Act X of 1872, altered a conviction from grievous hurt into one of murder and enhanced the punishment accordingly.—22 W. R., Cr., 5.
167. The notice of appeal was not, as it was held, a notice of appeal for prosecution for giving false evidence unless there were strong grounds for granting the sanction.—22 W. R., Cr., 11.
168. In an appeal case where no one appeared for the appellant and papers were not filed with the High Court either by the appellant or the respondent, the appeal was dismissed without costs.—(O. J.) 23 W. R., 136.
169. A case should not be sent to the High Court under ss. 7 and 8 Act XXVI of 1864 until the petition to the Petition Committee of the Legislative Council is disposed of by the Council and that is given has given security for the costs of the reference and for the amount of the judgment; and it is the duty of the Small Cause Court, before sending the case, to see that such security is given.—(O. J.) 23 W. R., 136.
170. Quere. Has the Bengal Legislative Council power to give to the — any appellate jurisdiction not conferred by the Charter.—23 W. R., 171.
171. Where the High Court ordered the removal of a case to itself as a regular appeal.—23 W. R., 266.
172. The — declined, under 21 and 25 Vic. c. 104 s. 15, to interfere to set aside a sale in execution of a decree, the instance of the representative of the judgment-debtor who had abstained from appearing to show cause why the decree should not be executed against him, although notice for that purpose had been served on him under s. 216 Act VIII before the sale took place.—23 W. R., 339.
173. Where the decree was passed, and the suit decided by the High Court that the suit was cognizable by the Small Cause Court and not the ordinary Civil Court.—23 W. R., 116.
170. Where the —, under s. 272 Act X of 1872, set aside an order of an acquired and convicted the accused of arrest, employed in the service of the State, and sentenced him to death.—22 W. R., Cr., 1.
171. The difference of opinion on a question of proof between a Magistrate who did, and another who did not, hear the witness, is not a ground on which the — will be disposed to exercise its powers of revision.—23 W. R., Cr., 56.
172. The — cannot interfere under 24 and 23 Vic. c. 104 s. 15, with a decision declared by lower Court to be subject to appeal, e.g. the rejection of an application to sue in forma pauperis.—24 W. R., 62.
173. Where the Judge in the Privy Council Department of the — refused an application for a certificate but was stopped from giving his reasons by the petitioner's Council who had hopes of effecting a compromise, and the attempt at compromise having failed, the Judge, when referred to, being unable to deliver any judgment, held that, under such circumstances, no appeal lay under s. 86 of the Charter.—23 W. R., 150.
174. No appeal lies under the same section, from an order of a Bench of the — granting a certificate that a case is a fit one for appeal to the Privy Council.—23 W. R., 150.
175. The —, under the same section, from an order of a Bench of the — granting a certificate that a case is a fit one for appeal to the Privy Council.—23 W. R., 150.
176. The —, under the same section, from an order of a Bench of the — granting a certificate that a case is a fit one for appeal to the Privy Council.—23 W. R., 150.
177. The —, under the same section, from an order of a Bench of the — granting a certificate that a case is a fit one for appeal to the Privy Council.—23 W. R., 150.

176. In an ordinary suit commenced in the — a writ of ieri fatty cannot issue except within the limits of the Court's original jurisdiction; but where the suit in which the ieri fatty issued was originally commenced in the Supreme Court, the — was held to have power under 24 and 25 Vic. cl. 101 s. 12 to issue the fieri fatty and to sell under it the property in dispute.— (O. J.) 24 W. R. 266.

177. The decision of one Division Bench of the — as to the meaning of a Bengalee expression occurring in a parcular plaint, cannot be binding upon another Division

Bench for the purpose of a different suit.—24 W. R. 414.

178. The — has power, under s. 297 Act X of 1872, to annul what is illegal whilst passing a legal sentence (i.e.

annul the imposition of a daily fine for continuing an obstruction, and leave untouched the imposition of a substantive fine for making it).—25 W. R., Ctr. 6.

179. Where a Deputy Commissioner's order requires, under s. 36 Act X of 1872, the sanction of the Sessions

Judge, the — has no jurisdiction to entertain an appeal from it until so sanctioned.—25 W. R., Ctr. 18.

180. Where a Magistrate takes up a case under s. 295

Act X of 1872, his only proper course is to proceed under

s. 296 to report the case to the — for orders.—25 W. R., Ctr. 36, 67.

181. Under s. 297 Act X of 1872 he — ordered a Magistrate to draw up a charge and try an accused whom he had improperly discharged.—25 W. R., Ctr. 35.

182. Apart from s. 167 Act 1 of 1872, the — can, under

s. 26 of its Charter, when a case is submitted to it for review, either quash or confirm the conviction as it thinks proper.—(O. J.) 25 W. R., Ctr. 36.

Hindoo Law (Adoption).

1. A distinct suit for the recognition of an adoption having failed, plaintiff cannot fall back on his right of inheritance.—W. R. F. B. 4 (1 May 22).

3. The adoption of a grand-nephew is not repugnant to—W. R. F. B. 121.

4. An adopted son cannot succeed to his adoptive maternal grandfather's estate when there are collateral male heirs.—1b.

5. The adoption of an elder son, though improper, is not illegal.—1 May 260.

6. In proof of permission to a widow to adopt, the Court will exact slight evidence of the performance of ceremonies; but the Court cannot, from the observance of ritual forms, infer the husband's authority to adopt.—1 May 311.

8. A son adopted by a female, without the permission of her husband, has no right to the property of his adoptive mother, until her death.—2 May 110.

9. Although the pooratrikajay and such ceremonies may not be essential to a Soodra adoption, it is conformed with religion and law that they should be performed; and if performed, they are the best proof of the real intention of the adoption.—Sev. 338. Dil see (F. B.) 70 post.

10. A mother alone may give her son in adoption without the consent of the father who at that time is insane and unable to give his assent.—1b.

11. The adoption by a Nanda of an only son as a harta-poore is not illegal under Hindoo law.—W. R. Sp. 133.

12. When a Hindu lady adopted a son, and carried on a law-suit during her husband's lifetime, calling herself his wife and the mother of the adopted son, and the adoption was never denied, this circumstance is strong corroborative evidence that the adoption was made with the husband's consent and its ceremonies performed in his presence.—W. R. Sp. 155.

13. Sable. The Hindoo law does not prevent a leper from giving his son in adoption.—W. R. Sp. 173.

14. A sister's daughter cannot become an appointed daughter or her son a poortikas poore, nor is the adoption of a poortikas poore valid now.—W. R. Sp. 191.

15. Long possession under an adoption will avail nothing if the adoption fails.—(P. C.) 5 W. R., P. C. 69 (P. C. R. 4).

16. In Batival the authority of the husband is essential to the validity of an adoption.—1b.

17. According to Hindoo law, an adopted son succeeds, not only in his father's lands, but also collaterally, to the inheritance of his father's relations.—(P. C.) 5 W. R., P. C., 100 (P. C. R. 25). See also 9 W. R. 423.

19. In no case should the rights of wives and daughters be transferred to strangers or to more remote relations, unless the fact of adoption by which this transfer is effected be proved by evidence free from all suspicion of fraud, and so consistent and probable as to give no occasion for doubt of its truth.—(P. C.) 5 W. R., P. C. 109 (P. C. R. 36).

20. Although the Hindoo law does not require written acknowledgment of adoption, yet it is usual for zamindars, when adopting sons, to acknowledge such adoption in writing, to give notice to the ruling power, and to invite the neighbouring zamindars and others to be present at such adoption.—1b.

21. According to Hindoo law, a second adoption (the first adopted son still existing and remaining in possession of his character of a son) is invalid. The acquiescence of the first adopted son, after he came of age, in the division of property made by the adopting father between his two adopted sons, was not equivalent to a previous consent (binding on the first adopted son) to the disposition of the ancestral property by the father, but was binding on the first adopted son with regard to other property of which the father had the power of disposing by an act inter vivos without the consent of the first adopted son.—(P. C.) 7 W. R., P. C. 177 (P. C. R. 197). See also (P. C.) 10 W. R. 12.

22. An adoption may be made either by a man in his lifetime or by one of his wives after his death under a power conferred upon her for that purpose by her husband.—(P. C.) 7 W. R., P. C. 116 (P. C. R. 294).

23. The absence of such power invalidates an adoption by a widow.—(P. C.) 15 W. R., P. C. 16.

24. According to the Hindoo law, a power to adopt may be given verbally.—(P. C.) 4 W. R., P. C., 116 (P. C. R. 294).

25. The widow of a childless member of a divided Hindoo family is entitled to a life interest in her husband's estate after the death of an adopted son before attaining majority.—1b.

26. Where the validity of an adoption was disputed on the ground that it was made when the adopter was under influence in consequence of the death of a relative, and there was a conflict of evidence as to the time of the relative's death, the Privy Council decided in favor of the adoptee.—(P. C.) 1 W. R., P. C. 25 (P. C. R. 538).

27. A registered deed of permission to adopt, which contained no words of devise, was held not to be of a testamentary character.—(P. C.) 3 W. R., P. C. 15 (P. C. R. 574).

28. An adopted son takes by inheritance, and not by devise.—1b.

29. A son cannot be adopted to the great-grandfather of the last taken after the lapse of several successive years, when all the spiritual purposes of a son would have been satisfied.—1b. Int see 22 W. R. 121.

30. A new heir by adoption cannot acquire a widow of her vested interests in her husband's unlimited estate.—1b.

31. More gift of power of adoption to a widow cannot defeat the estate of the heir of a deceased son vested in possession.—1b. See 21 W. R. 114.

32. Rule for testing validity of deed of adoption.—1 W. R. 114.

33. Under what circumstances an adoption may be recognized in the absence of original deed.—1b.

34. Where a sale, in execution of a decree against an adoptive mother, is good as against the adopted son.—1b.

35. The name of the adoptee is not liable for a debt of the adoptive mother without proof that the debt is other than personal.—1b.

36. The Hindoo law does not allow the adoption of a male poore.—2 W. R. 281.

37. An adopted son is not precluded from questioning his mother's acts during his minority or before his adoption, in like manner as any other reversioner; but a sale made by the widow, with the consent of all legal heirs then existing, and ratified by decrees of Court, is binding on the reversioners as well as on an adopted son adopted after the same.—3 W. R. 11.

38. An adopted son has all the rights of a son born, and can succeed to a hereditary jardooder; but if he rejects his title, to succeed on a confirmatory summons, he is bound to prove the summons.—3 W. R. 21.

39. An adopted son has all the rights of a son born, and can succeed (whether with or without a will) to his mother's estate and in the absence of daughters.—3 W. R. 49.

40. A son adopted by one wife may succeed to a co-wife's estate and in the absence of daughters.—1b.

41. A Hindoo widow taking no steps to adopt until the death of the last male member of her husband's family, forfeits her right to adopt.—3 W. R. 66. See 15 W. R., P. C., 5.

42. A had permission from her husband (B), with the consent of his father (C), to adopt three sons in succession. B died before C, and C, before his death, executed a will leaving his property to A's adopted son and appointing D executor, and directing him to take possession of the property, after which he was to be the heir apparent, and then to be the proprietor of his entire estate. After C's death A adopted E, who died before he came of age. Held (1) that the property vested in B on his adoption, although he was not his father's heir apparent, and (2) that, under the Hindoo law, A was the legal representative of her adopted son B, and consequently entitled to a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860 as his legal heir; and (3) that A's title to the property was not contingent on her adopting three sons in succession, as a Hindoo widow, having permission to adopt, cannot be compelled to act up to that permission.—3 W. R., Mias., 6.

43. A widow succeeding as heir to her own son does not lose the right to exercise the power of adoption. By making an adoption, she diverts her own estate only.—7 W. R. 392.

44. Under the Mitila law, a Hindoo widow has power to adopt a son in the krivin form with or without her husband's consent; but such adopted son would not lose his position in his own family, or succeed to his husband's family, but to hers only.—7 W. R. 500, 8 W. R. 155. See also 25 W. R. 255.

45. Though a cousin cannot sue, as next heir, to set aside an adoption, he has a right to question the adoption if he takes under a deed such an interest as may be affected thereby.—10 W. R. 211.

46. An adopted son represents his adoptive father, and is entitled to his share, and takes the same share with heirs other than the legitimately begotten sons of his adoptive father.—3 W. R. 123.

47. A stranger, having no interest in the matter, has no right even with the consent of presumptive reversionary heirs, to sue for an order declaring an adoption to be valid.—3 W. R. 240.

48. A writing under the hand of a deceased husband declaring that he gave his wife power to adopt, though not complete as a testamentary disposition, may yet be evidence of a declaration of fact by the deceased husband.—3 W. R. 240.

49. The adoption of an only son is contrary to the Hindoo law, and is therefore invalid.—10 W. R. 347.

Except by his father's brother, in which case he becomes the heir; but this is not the case where a brother's son does not deprive the uncle of the right to adopt any one save that son, the selection being finally a matter of conscience and discretion, not of absolute prescription.—10 W. R. 211.

50. Power of a childless Hindoo widow to adopt a son to her husband, with or without his permission, under the various schools of Hindoo law, considered. The difference between them relates to whether to be taken to constitute in cases of necessity evidence of authority from the husband, than to the authority to adopt being independent of the husband.—(P. C.) 10 W. R., P. C., 17.

According to the law practiced by the Hindoo widow, not having her husband's express permission, may, if duly authorized by his kindred, adopt a son to him. Rule indicated as to the kinsmen whose consent is essential.—(P. C.) 39.

51. A must be given by some one within the undivided family, and having a direct interest in the estate, and not by a distant relative.—(P. C.) 25 W. R. 291.

There should be such proof of ascent on the part of the party adopting as shall support the inference that the adoption was made by the Hindoo widow, not from capricious or corrupt motives, or in order to defeat the interest of her or that of [a mistake, but upon a fair consideration, the permission must be given by some one within the undivided family, and having a direct interest in the estate, and not by a distant relative.—(P. C.) 25 W. R. 291.

52. The giving and receiving of a child, in order to constitute adoption, must be actual, and not only con-

1. A Hindu widow is entitled to invoke every presumption which reasonably arises from the long recognition of his legitimacy by members of the family or other persons.—(P. C.) 15 W. R. P. C. 41.

2. A childless Hindoo is bound to adopt a son.—18 W. R. E. 548.

3. An adoption is not invalid, or liable to any civil disability, by the mere fact of the adoptive father being a minor, if he has attained to years of discretion.—15 W. R. P. C. 20 W. R. E. 258.

4. The performance of the pujaatbrahajj is essential to the validity of an adoption in the Dattaka form.—18 W. R. 179.

5. The consent of the party adopted is essential to the validity of an adoption in the Kritima form.—Ib.

66. Registration of deeds giving widows power to adopt, recommended.—(P. C.) 18 W. R. 261.

67. Where the presumption against an adoption arising from the neglect of the widow of the Rajah of Mattore to adopt for 6 or 7 years after the death of the Rajah was considered not so great as the presumption in favor of the Rajah having the power to adopt.—(P. C.) 18 W. R. 261.

68. No suit can be maintained for an order directing a minor Hindoo widow to make an adoption; nor is this a case in which a decree can be made declaring the validity of such adoption.—19 W. R. 127.

69. Amongst Sudder in Bengal no ceremonies are necessary to make a valid adoption, in addition to the giving and taking of the child in adoption.—(F. R.) 21 W. R. 286.

71. The adoption of a son after payment of price is not recognized in the present (or Kali) Yuga; the only adoption now recognized being that of a dattaba or son given.

72. A contract as to such an adoption could not be enforced, for it would come within the meaning of s. 23 Act IX of 1872 as immoral and contrary to public policy.—Ib.

73. A Hindoo executed an annoumon gid patro to his wife to adopt a son in succession, and on the death (10 or 12 years later) of the first adopted son, she adopted another son, whose adoption it was now sought to have declared invalid on the ground that the first son lived long enough to secure the spiritual benefit which a son was capable of conferring on his deceased father.—23 W. R. 218.

74. Where a Hindoo widow succeeds to the estate of her adopted son on his death as his heir, and then allinates the property, the subsequent adoption by her of another son effectually extinguishes all the allinates under which the alienation originally effected.—24 W. R. 189.

75. Where a deed was executed signifying that the intention of the party executing it was, if certain approval was obtained, to take in adoption his son, and the boy was not given or accepted, and no ceremonies of any kind were performed, Held that the adoption was invalid, and that the deed being provisional and intended to be acted upon during the life of such executor party, who moreover had not sufficient capacity to make a testamentary disposition, was not a will.—25 W. R. 192.

76. Where a minor is not under the Court of Wards, but has attained years of discretion according to the Hindoo law, he is not incapacitated from executing an instrument authorizing his widow to adopt a son by reason of his not having attained the age of 18 years.—(P. C.) 25 W. R. 255.

77. Where an estate descends to the natural-born son of the original seminard, and on the death of the son the widow of the original seminard takes it as mother and heiress of her son and not immediately from her husband, the widow may adopt a son to her husband.—(P. C.) 26 W. R. 37.

78. Where a will was to the effect "I declare that I give my property to K whom I have adopted," followed by the direction "and shall perform the ceremonies according to the sashtra and bring him up," the Privy Council held that the gift of his property by the testator to a designated person was absolute, and that the provision "Should this adoption be refused by any younger brother or have more than one son, then my wife shall adopt a son of his" further indicated that the testator did not contemplate his widows having the power of cancelling the adoption of K, and Hindoo Law (Alienation).

1. By Hindoo Widow.—See Hindoo Widow.

2. So far as the grantor of a debuttar csta retains any beneficial interest in the property, such interest capable of alienation by himself or his heirs.—2 Hay 160 (Marsland 302).—See 15 W. R. 299.

3. An alienation made by the managing member of a joint Hindoo family cannot be questioned by another member, if he stands by and seizes to the application of the purchase-money for the benefit of the whole family without refusing to participate in it.—2 Hay 161.

4. A son under the Mitrasa law must sue to recover ancestral property improperly alienated by his father, within 12 years from the father's death.—W. R. 36. In support of this view, according to the Mitrasa law, a suit by a son to set aside alienations by his father must be brought within 12 years from the date of alienation, or within 12 years from the date of the son assuming majority, supposing the alienations to have been made during his minority.—W. R. Sp. 215.

5. Under the Mitrasa law, a son's power to prevent alienations by the father extends to acts of waste, and not to alienations for the payment of joint family debts and for the maintenance of the family.—W. R. 29.

6. Under the Mitrasa law, the alienation by the father extends to acts of waste, and not to alienations for the payment of joint family debts and for the maintenance of the family.—W. R. 96.

7. Under the Mitrasa law, limitation can be pleaded as a bar to a suit to set aside an alienation by a grandfather, the case of action in such a case arising, not from the date of the grandfather's death, but from the date of the alienation.—1 W. R. 283.

8. Where neither want of inquiry nor sua false is shown, the existence of legal necessity must be presumed.—Ib.

9. In a suit to set aside alienations made by plaintiff's grandmother, plaintiff's mother (the immediate reversioner) being in possession of a part of the property comprised in the alienated estates, and not being in a position to institute proceedings, Held that plaintiff, as the next reversioner, was entitled to sue to protect his own future rights.—2 W. R. 293.

10. A suit by a son to annul an alienation of ancestral property by his father, the one is not on the son to prove the absence of necessity for the sale, but on the purchaser to prove the existence of necessity.—1 W. R. 293.

11. The paying off of an ancestral debt incurred for the due performance of marriage and funeral expenses, etc., was held to be a legal necessity in such a case.—Ib. See 16 W. R. 52.

DIGEST OF INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

12. Under the Mitraschara law, a son may sue to obtain a declaration that sales by his father cannot affect any rights possessed by him in the property, and that the property still in the father’s hands is ancestral and cannot be alienated except under certain circumstances.—3 W. R. 102.

13. According to the Mitraschara, a conveyance or transfer of joint property by one member of a family is illegal without the consent of the other members.—3 W. R. 210. See also 12 W. R. F. B. 1, 15 W. R. F. B. 6, (P. C.) 25 W. R. 285.

14. By the kurta in the absence of such necessity as will vest the kurta power to alienate.—20 W. R. 192, 22 W. R. 652.

So also an alienation by a son without his father’s consent.—7 W. R. 449, 12 W. R. 116.

The Mitraschara makes a distinction between ancestral and self-acquired property, with regard to a father’s right to dispose of it; but such right is not affected by the fact of his being an outcaste.—6 W. R. 77.

15. The incapacity of joint owners confers powers of alienation in certain cases of necessity upon the managing owner.—7 W. R. 5.

16. An alienation made by a Hindoo with the consent of his son, cannot, under the Mitraschara, be questioned by the grandson.—9 W. R. 357.

17. A mokurrura lease of ancestral property granted by the father of a family to his Dewan without the consent of his infant children, is invalid under the Mitraschara law.—11 W. R. 345.

18. The alienation of debitter land by a Sebait, like an alienation of ancestral property by a Hindoo widow, is only justifiable on proof of necessity. 12 W. R. 229. See also 15 W. R. 228.

19. If a larger sum of money be borrowed or raised by sale than is required for a legal necessity, and a larger portion of the estate mortgaged or sold than is necessary for the purpose of raising the sum legally required, the vendees or mortgagees will be entitled to a charge upon the lands mortgaged or sold to the extent of the money required and taken up for purposes for which the Hindoo law justifies alienation of a minor’s estate during his minority.—12 W. R. 478.

20. The fact of there being a decree, an attachment, and a proclamation for sale, was held to be a sufficient pressure justifying an alienation. —18 W. R. 477.

21. Under the Mitraschara, a son cannot control his father’s power of alienation in respect of property the succession to which is liable to obstruction.—18 W. R. 177.

22. W. R. Mitraschara law requires the son’s consent to an alienation by the father; but the fact of the son being in debt does not incapacitate him from consenting. — P. C.) 20 W. R. 137.

23. In a suit to avoid alienations effected by plaintiff’s father at a time when plaintiff was of age and was living in commensality with his father and enjoying the property as a member of the joint family, which suit was brought after their 13 years without any objection by plaintiff such the filing of a petition of protest in a Court of Justice whereof the vendees were not made aware, the plaintiff was held to have consented to the alienations.—21 W. R. 12.

24. An alienation of property during the owner’s minority is open to be questioned when the minor comes of age, even if it was effected partly through the intervention of a Civil Court, e.g. under a decree or foreclosure proceedings.—22 W. R. 119.

25. A specification of the cases showing the limitations on the power of a single member of a Hindoo family to alien the family property.—25 W. R. 632.

2. Deeds of sale and mortgage and mutations of names in the Collector’s register as amongst members of a Hindoo family, are evidence of separation. — W. R. F. B. 18 (Case 1).

3. Where a party sues for a moiety of certain property on the ground that it is joint, he is bound to prove that the property is joint.—W. R. F. B. 18 (Case 1).

4. Properties purchased in one brother’s name in a joint Hindoo family must be held to be joint, as far not self-acquired and separate; and the onus of rebutting such a presumption falls upon the party making the special plea.—1 H. R. 374 (Marshall 169), 3 W. R. 31, 29 W. R. 428.

5. The possession of the managing or one member of a joint Hindoo family is not adverse possession against the other members.—2 H. R. 311, 1 W. R. 71, 2 W. R. 181.

6. When a property is seized under a decree of a joint Hindoo family, the presumption, according to Hindoo law, is that it is purchased out of the joint fund.—2 H. R. 335. See also 18 W. R. 490, (P. C.) 19 W. R. 350, 20 W. R. 165.

7. The mere circumstance that one of several brothers of a Hindoo family occupied a separate dwelling-house, does not relit the presumption of the family being joint, if it appear that they dealt with the family property as joint property.—Marshall 671.

8. Joint possession by the widow and elder brother of a deceased person is not prior facie evidence of her title to her husband’s share of the property, or of her right to grant a pasture of it. Even if it were so, the husband’s will, deesated by the widow to be genuine, under which she had no power to grant a pasture, would rebut the prior facie claim.—1 R. J. P. 52.

9. Where a loan of money was made by the manager of a Hindoo family when it was joint, the presumption is that it was made from the common stock.—See 40.

10. Where the rights are interests of one of the propicees of a joint family dwelling-house were sold in execution of a decree, the Court, taking into consideration the known usages of joint Hindoo families and the hardship and perhaps disgrace which the intrusion of a stranger into premises 1therto held joint would occasion to the joint family, required the purchaser to elect to receive either her purchase-money with interest from date of pay-

The increment must follow the same rule as the corpus. - 17 W. R. 358.

14. The original status of all Hindoo families must be presumed to be joint and undivided. The onus probandi is on those who put forward claims upon the basis of separation and non-excitation under the Hindu law. The burden of proof rests upon those who wish to show that the property is not joint and undivided. - See 1 W. R. 384; 3 W. R. 21, 31; 5 W. R. 145, 278; 6 W. R. 556; 12 W. R. 21; 12 W. R. 124; 18 W. 15. Where no consideration has been paid or applied towards meeting any necessary expenses of a joint Hindoo family, the elder brother cannot claim a permanent lease of land, and long possession will not establish title to the property. - See 15 W. R. 102.

16. Where a father and son live as a joint family and property is purchased in the name of the son, the presumption is that it is joint estate, with a resulting trust in the father. - See 15 W. R. 106.

17. Where a Hindoo estate is held joint and undivided, the succession to it must be determined only by the state of the Hindu Law. - See 15 W. R. 383.

18. The managing member of a family cannot transfer the property of the debtor (his father) to one member of the family unknown to the creditor. - See 15 W. R. 383.

19. Where disputes in a joint Hindoo family with respect to property acquired by the father, the parties agreed to refer the matter to arbitration, and pending arbitration they agreed to pay certain expenses of the party in successful arbitration out of the common family property, and not to allow the payment under this agreement to be delayed by any division of the family property or by the settlement of the partition of the estate due to the family, Held that the parties were bound by the agreement to contribute towards payment of the debt according to the interest they respectively had in the family estate. - (P. C.) 5 W. R. 21, (C. J.) 39 (P. C. R. 61).

20. Where a Hindoo family lives joint in food and estate, the presumption of law is that all the property they are in possession of is joint property until it is shown by evidence that one member of the family is possessive of separate property. - (P. C.) 6 W. R. 1, (P. C. R. 4) (C. J. 117).

21. The partition of a portion of the property in the name of one member of the family, and the existence of interest in his name respecting a particular portion of property, gives rise to a perfected cause of action against the rest of the family. - See 11 W. R. 305, 436; 21 W. R. 313.

22. Illegitimate sons of a Christian father by different Hindoo women, although by agreement they constituted themselves parencers in the enjoyment of their property after the manner of a joint Hindoo family according to Hindoo law, on the death of each, his lineal heirs representing their parent world, by the effect of the agreement, enter into that partnership. - (P. C.) 2 W. R. 1, P. C. 4 (P. C. R. 152).

23. Where there is a coparcenaryship between the different members of a joint family and in survivorship following upon it, there is a community of interest and unity of possession between all the members of the family, and upon the death of any one of them, the others take by survivorship that in which during the deceased's lifetime they had a common interest and a common possession. - (P. C.) 6 W. R. 1, (P. C. R. 4) (C. J. 117).

24. A covenanted joint tenancy, or a whole estate of the joint. 12 years is on the appointee. But proof by him of receipt of payment on account of his share within 12 years will save his suit from limitation under s. 1 Act XIV. of 1869, and throw on the defendant the onus of separate property. - See 19 W. R. 175. See also 19 W. R. 192.

35. In suit for a share in a joint family property, the onus of proving joint possession of the property for more than 12 years is on the plaintiff. But proof by him of receipt of payment on account of his share within 12 years will save his suit from limitation under s. 1 Act XIV. of 1869, and throw on the defendant the onus of separate property. - See 19 W. R. 175. See also 19 W. R. 192.

36. One shareholder cannot resist the revocation by another of the authority given to him, when there is no express stipulation in the deed providing for the appointment of a manager, that the authority should continue for a definite time. - 3 W. R. 41.

37. In suit for a share in a joint family property, the onus of proving joint possession of the property for more than 12 years is on the plaintiff. But proof by him of receipt of payment on account of his share within 12 years will save his suit from limitation under s. 1 Act XIV. of 1869, and throw on the defendant the onus of separate property. - See 19 W. R. 175. See also 19 W. R. 192.

38. According to the Mitcchar, where (notwithstanding a separation in food and residence) no formal partition of the family estate has taken place, the family must be considered joint and undivided; and in such a case a widow cannot succeed to, or retain possession of, her husband's share as against his surviving brothers, but is only entitled to maintenance.—9 W. R. 78, 176; 9 W. R. 61. See 10 W. R. 148, 25 W. R. 384.

39. In such a case also, the withdrawal by her husband's brothers of their claim to his share, cannot give the widow a title to succeed to it.—5 W. R. 176.

40. In a suit by the purchaser of a decree for the debtor's share in a family dwelling-house with gardens and tanks, where the suit is for ground as well as for chambers, the plaintiff is entitled to an adjudication of his claim to the land.—5 W. R. 167.

41. An admission by one brother that a lease was joint property, is, though not an estoppel, yet good evidence against his widow that it was not self-acquired.—6 W. R. 38.

42. The rule that a leaseholder's share is held not bound by limitation under cl. 5 & 1 Act XIV and s. 246 Act VIII.—6 W. R. 69.

43. Before female heirs can be excluded from succession to a property settled and handed under the Mitakeshara, on the ground that the estate was joint, it must be shown to have been so at the time of his death.—6 W. R. 101.

44. Where neither misdescription of shares in another suit, nor partition made by some of the coparceners in opposition to the description of the shares now given by plaintiff, was held to operate as an estoppel.—6 W. R. 176.

45. An admission made under mistake by a co-purchaser as defendant in another suit was not held binding on him as plaintiff in the present suit.—10 W. R. 46.

46. In a suit for possession of a judgment-debtor's share in a family residence, possession was ordered to be given to him, so as not to annoy or insult the inmates of the house; but as plaintiff could not use the family staircases without exposing the ladies of the family to annoyance and it was obliged to build a separate staircase, he was declared entitled to compensation to the value of his share in the family residence.—6 W. R. Mis. 72.

47. Re-union of a joint Hindoo family. See Hindoo Law (Inheritance and Succession) 61. See also 56, 68, 72 post.

48. The brother's share in a joint family estate was held not liable under a sale by reference solely to the rights and interests of his elder brothers who did not represent him.—7 W. R. 144.

49. The presumption of Hindoo law as to joint property cannot be made in a case where the property is claimed through a son-in-law living in the house of his father-in-law.—7 W. R. 219.

50. Where the Mitakeshara prevails, the widow of a member of a joint Hindoo family cannot succeed to her husband in preference to his brother, nor is she heir to her brother-in-law or his widow after their death.—7 W. R. 292, 440.

51. So long as no partition of a joint estate is proved, the presumption is that the property is joint. The fact that certain parcels are admittedly held in severity does not rebut the presumption as regards the rest of the joint estate.—7 W. R. 461.

52. Where money was borrowed by a near relative of a joint Hindoo family holding part of the ancestral property and appearing before the world as a co-partner of the family, to pay off a bond due on ancestral debt, the loan was held to be a family and not a personal debt.—7 W. R. 489.

53. The fact of an old factory remaining joint when the rest of the joint property was partitioned, is no proof that the shareholders agreed to continue working it, or never to raise the question.—5 W. R. 87.

54. If a member of a joint Hindoo family converts the proceeds of the joint ancestral property in the purchase of other estates, he does so for the benefit of the joint family, without the consent of the members of the family, legal necessity, or a declaration and acts amounting to a division, he cannot alienate so as to bind even his own share.—8 W. R. 182.

55. If a member of a joint Hindoo family converts the proceeds of the joint ancestral property in the purchase of other estates, he does so for the benefit of the joint family, without the consent of the members of the family, legal necessity, or a declaration and acts amounting to a division, he cannot alienate so as to bind even his own share.—8 W. R. 182.

56. Until a division is affected no members of the family can give a stranger any interest in the property or a right to sue.—21 W. R. 190.

57. Where the existence of joint family property is admitted, the presumption is that all acquired property belongs to the family, and the case is on him who sets up a plea of self-acquisition, to prove that the joint property was so small that, after providing for the maintenance of the family, nothing remained to form a fund for the purchase of other properties for the benefit of the joint family.—3 W. R. 226.

58. Character of the strict proof required of an auction-purchaser of the rights of a member of a joint Hindoo family to rebut presumption in favor of joint estate.—8 W. R. 294.

59. A member of a joint Hindoo family can sue alone to obtain compensation for loss to himself personally caused by wrongful destruction of property in which he had a joint share.—9 W. R. 558.

60. Position of the karta or managing member of a joint Hindoo family with regard to the other adult and minor members.—9 W. R. 483. See 19 W. R. F. R. 75.

61. The presumption of Hindoo law is that the joint property does not apply to a case in which eleven years after separation one of the parties sues the others, alleging that certain immovable property possessed, by them on the allegation of exclusive purchase was acquired by joint ancestral income.—9 W. R. 558.

62. The evidence of members of the family is the best evidence as to whether parties are joint or separate, account books being simply corroborative.—10 W. R. 149.

63. Where a plaintiff failing to prove the claim to property as the separate property of his vendor, cannot have a decree for a share to which the vendor is entitled as a member of a joint Hindoo family.—10 W. R. 213.

64. Where property is purchased by a member of a joint Hindoo family, the fact of his living jointly or in composition with others affords no presumption as to the source of the purchase-money.—40 W. R. 328.

65. The managing member of a joint Hindoo family can be sued by the other members for an account, even if the parties suing were minors during the period for which the accounts are asked.—(P. C.) 13 W. R. F. R. 75.

66. A Hindoo family, consisting of persons in a near connection to each other, may separate and then re-unite: part also may re-unite, and such re-united members may impress on their re-united property, by common family consent, such trusts as their law will support.—(P. C.) 13 W. R. F. R. 14.

67. Where the Privy Council upheld the concurrent finding of the Lower Courts upon the evidence that property which had been originally self-acquired had come into a common stock and become joint property.—(P. C.) 15 W. R. F. R. 1.

68. By the common law of Hindustan, the descent is in coparcenary where no other custom or right is proved.—(P. C.) 15 W. R. F. R. 10.

69. Where one member of a joint family separates and the others continue to live and mess together, these others must be presumed to have re-united.—15 W. R. 200.

70. The fact of plaintiffs and judgment-debtor being members of a joint family does not create the presumption that certain property sold in execution is joint; and plaintiffs having once allowed separation, the onus is on them to prove that it was held joint.—15 W. R. 298.

71. Where part of the family property is proved to be joint, and the members live in composition, there is a very warrantable presumption, according to Hindoo law, that the family is joint.—15 W. R. 301.

72. The wives and mothers of a joint Hindoo family are as much members of the family as their husbands and sons; and where property is purchased in the name of a female member during the lifetime of her minor son, the presumption of joint acquisition is not rebutted by the fact of her name being entered in the Collector's books.—5 W. R. 357.

73. The mere fact of two brothers living in the same dwelling-house is not conclusive proof of their living as a re-united or joint family.—15 W. R. 442.

74. The manager of joint property cannot sell any right to a part of it on the presumption of consent of the other members; however such presumption may avail the purchasers.—15 W. R. 467.
67. Regarding dispute relative to the rebuilding of a veranda in a family house which was pulled down by one of the members.—16 W. R. 286.

68. In a suit for property acquired from the proceeds of an alleged joint trade, the joint character of which is neither admitted nor proved, the cause lies in the first instance on the plaintiff, who is not entitled, under the circumstances, to the peculiar property or the proceeds of money arising from the existence of joint family estate.—16 W. R. 163.

69. The fact of a settlement being made with one member of a joint family does not negative the rights of the other members to participation; nor is it necessary for the settler, if living in company with the former, to make a written contribution of money towards the acquisition of the property.—16 W. R. 265.

70. No such custom exists as makes every member of a joint family bound by an agreement made by the head of that family, so as to allow (as in this case) the rent of a joint tenancy to be enhanced on the strength of an eknur executed by one of the coparceners.—16 W. R. 126.

71. The partition of joint property and joint acquisition was held to apply where one brother remitted money to another without receipt or statement of accountability.—20 W. R. 532.

72. Also where all were sued jointly on a bond and one discharged the debt.—76.

73. The esoter of manumission serves to remove and qualify the presumption, which the Hindu law might otherwise raise, that an agreement made in the name of an individual son of the family was made by the head of the family and as part of the family estate. (P. C.) 18 W. R. 69.

74. It must not be presumed, that because the elder branch of a joint family pari passu from the younger branch, the members of the younger branch have separated among themselves.—18 W. R. 459.

75. In a suit between brothers who had been in joint possession of property of various kinds and carried on joint business until an alleged recent partition, where plaintiff sought to recover a proportion, equal to his share, of a sum of money said to have been taken by defendant from the joint funds, held that, unless plaintiff could show that all the joint property had been divided excepting the sum in question, or that all the property had been divided and on an adjustment of accounts of past expenses there was a loss equal in amount to that item, he had no cause of action to sue for a moiety thereof.—19 W. R. 43.

76. Every Hindu family is presumably joint in food, worship, and estate; and the presumption is that it remains undivided.—19 W. R. 170.

77. If a member of such family is found to be in possession of any property, the family being presumed to be joint if estate, the presumption would be that he was in possession of a joint property, not that he was in possession of the property on the person who sets up a different state of things, to rebut the presumption.—76. See also (O. J.) 22 W. R. 248 (and the cases therein considered), 25 W. R. 232. But see 20 W. R. 65.

78. Members of a joint family residing on joint premises are entitled, on the occurrence of a dispute among themselves, to come into Court and ask to have their proper share assigned. The fact that one or more of the heirs has not been in possession of a particular portion of those premises is no bar by way of limitation to a claim for such portion.—21 W. R. 181.

79. There is no ground for the exclusion of a Hindu widow from such claim; for, as the law now stands, she may marry and have issue.—76.

80. Property purchased by a member of a joint family with money belonging exclusively to himself, is his separate property; and the other members are not entitled to share.—19 W. R. 223.

81. Property purchased by a member of a joint family with money out of the common estate is family property; even in the name of his son. If also the son is a certified purchaser at a sale under Act I of 1845, the other members of the family are not debarred by s. 21 from claiming a share of the purchase-money.—21 W. R. 237.

82. Under Hindu law, the exclusive possession of a plot of a common dwelling-house, or set of dwelling-houses, which one member of a joint family obtains very commonly without actual partition, must be referred to the continuing consent of his co-sharers. So long as no actual partition is come to, and this peculiar state of exclusive possession is allowed to remain, it must be taken to involve a concession of all such reasonable rights of user as are necessary for the ordinary purposes of existence, having regard to the circumstances of Hindoo life.—20 W. R. 160.

83. Where one member of a joint family is allowed by the other members to have separate and exclusive possession of family property for many years, they knowingly give him the opportunity of creating subordinate rights and cannot afterwards repudiate them.—20 W. R. 288.

84. Where, on the execution of an ex-partes decree for money to be paid out of the estate of a deceased party, his son, being one of the defendants representing the estate, instead of objecting under s. 203 Act VIII, asks for time to pay the amount, it was presumed that the property was not the self-acquired property of the son, but the joint property of the family.—21 W. R. 117.

85. Where the joint property of an undivided family governed by the Mitakshara law is enjoyed in its entirety by the whole family and not in shares by the members, one member has not such an interest therein as is capable of being taken charge of and separately managed under Act XL of 1865.—21 W. R. 143, 23 W. R. 200.

86. Although the members of a joint Hindoo family have all, in strict law, a right to participate in every portion of the joint property, that right may be modified by the conduct of the parties; e.g. when a particular member is allowed to retain sole possession of a garden and securitise and beautify it and to adapt it to his own purposes.—21 W. R. 222.

87. In a suit to establish plaintiff's right to a share in joint property belonging to a family subject to the Mitakshara law, where a part of the property sued for was admitted to be joint, held that the presumption of joint Hindoo law was that the residue of the property was also joint, and that the answer lay with the defendant to prove separate acquisition without the aid of joint funds.—21 W. R. 343.

88. Where the members of a Hindoo family are living in a joint family house enjoying in common the produce of the building, the decree of the Court with regard to the land which plaintiff was to get in lieu of plaintiff's share of the site of the building ought to have specified what the land was to be or what the adequate or proper compensation for it was.—22 W. R. 343.

89. The use of the names of all the brothers of a joint Hindoo family in the title-deeds by which certain property in dispute was held, and in subsequent proceedings, was held sufficient to presume joint property; though it was not held sufficient to prove joint property.—24 W. R. 321.

90. The presumption that any acquisition by a joint Hindoo family is a joint acquisition unless the purchase-money is shown to have come from a separate source, is inapplicable to any case in which the acquisition is not shown to have been anterior to a partition which is alleged and proved to have occurred after the separation, and it is sufficient to rebut the presumption that a partition was never in fact made.

in a family arrangement whereby each member of the family might take out and use assets derived from a partnership firm for the benefit of his sole and separate speculations.—Hold that plaintiff had failed to make out his right to throw his own and his brother's acquisitions into hotchpot and to claim an equal division of them.—(P. C.) 26 W. R. 17.

101. The above arrangement being of such an extraordinary character as to leave it in the power of each member to draw to an unlimited extent upon the assets of the firm, the Privy Council declined to extend the operation of such an agreement one iota beyond its terms, and therefore of opinion that the High Court was right in drawing a distinction between pledging the credit of the firm and drawing out money actually belonging to the firm.—(P. C.) lb.

102. Where, as a reward for good services rendered to the British Government during the Mutiny by an untried Hindoo family in Oude, their lands had been exempted from confiscation and other forfeited lands were transferred to their possession,—Hold that the grant of this property was made to one member of the family for the benefit of all the members; that Act 1 of 1859 conferred title in landed property; that the grantee acquired a permanent, heritable, and transferable right in the property; that he had, by an alienation inter vivos, transferred the property to the family to be held by them as joint property; and that the property was divisible among all the members of the family permanently, which was the prevailing mode, according to the Mitawara law, in the absence of a family custom.—(P. C.) 26 W. R. 55.

Hindoo Law (Inheritance and Succession).

1. According to the Mitawara law, a daughter or son's daughter does not inherit.—(P. C.) 26 W. R. 17 (2 Hay 222).
4. An uncle's son succeeds in preference to a childless widowed daughter.—1 Hay 67 (Marshall 29).
5. In certain extreme cases of crime or religious dereliction, the Hindoo law renders a son incapabe of inheriting, and divests him of all his rights; but mere undutifulness and profligacy do not enable a father to disinherit his son of those rights which are inherent in him, irrespective of the mere will and pleasure of the father.—2 Hay 205 (Marshall 317).
6. Under the Mitawara law, the son has a vested right of inheritance in the ancestral immovable property, the ancestral property being only that actually inherited from ancestors, and not that which has been acquired or recovered, even though it may have been acquired from the income of the ancestral property, for the income is the property of the tenant for life: but the father can dispose as he likes of all acquired and personal property.—ib.
7. According to the Bengal school, a brother's daughter's son or such relations are not heirs, the presumption being against the person claiming through a female.—2 Hay 401 (Marshall 398). (Overruled by F. B.) 13 W. R. F. B. 49.
8. The son of a Soodra by a slave girl is not entitled to share with legitimate sons in the inheritance of an uncle by the father's side.—Marshall 610. See 82 post.
9. The issue of the son of a Soggi wife first married was entitled to inherit the property of the grandfather, in priority to the issue of a son of a subsequent wife.—Marshall 644.
10. According to the Mitawara, a sister's son cannot inherit, the enumeration of Bundlow or cognates who succeed, given in s. 6 cl. 2 being an exhaustive one.—I. R. 167. See also Sec. 460, 4 W. R. 18. But see 12 post.
11. By Hindoo law, a woman leading a profligate life forfeits all her rights of inheritance. Her being alive is no bar to an action by one who, after her exclusion by Hindoo law, is unquestionably the legal heir.—Sec. 44.
12. Whether a sister is legal heir to her brother.—Sec. 11.
13. A half-brother cannot inherit according to Hindoo law, and must be conclusively shown to have succeeded to property of his half-brother before he can be made liable for the latter's debt.—Sec. 101. See also 23 W. R. 395.
14. Held, in the absence of any positive authority on the

35. No words of inheritance are requisite to convey to his heirs a Hindoo's interest in a freehold estate.—(P. C.) 4 W. R. 52 (P. C. R. 382).

37. The succession to a zamindar in the nature of a principality (impartible and incapable of enjoyment by any member of the family at a time) is governed (in the absence of a special custom of descent) by the general Hindoo law prevalent in the part of India in which the zamindar is situated, with such qualifications only as the impartibility of the character of the subject.—(P. C.) 2 W. R. 52, P. C. 31 (P. C. R. 530); 12 W. R. P. C. 21; 13 W. R. P. C. 21; (P. C.) 21 W. R. 89; 22 W. R. 17. See 2 W. R. 154, 109, 247.

38. The succession to such a zamindari may be governed by a particular or customary canon of descent.—ib. See (P. C.) 21 W. R. 255.

39. According to the Hindoo law, in Bombay at least, sisters are heirs of their brothers; and the marriage of daughters and their marriage portions do not exclude them from participation.—(P. C.) 3 W. R. 52, P. C. 41 (P. C. R. 540). See 22 W. R. 496.

40. The rule of Hindoo law is, that in case of inheritance, the person to succeed must be the heir of the last full owner. On the death of the last full owner, his wife succeeds as his heir to a widows' estate; and, on the person to succeed in the hands of that time the last full owner.—(P. C.) 3 W. R. C. 15 (P. C. R. 574). See 11 W. R. O. J. 11; 11 W. R. 498; 12 W. R. 187; 15 W. R. 412.

42. According to the Hindoo law, a brother's daughter's son has no heir, but (considering the extinguished state of the law on the point till recently) was allowed in this case to succeed as against a party holding under no title whatever.—1 W. R. 13.

43. Except in Bengal, a sister's son cannot inherit;—according to the Mitacshara or Mitshila school.—1 W. R. 74. Hot see 72 post.

44. A grandson born after the death of his maternal uncle, but during the lifetime of his maternal grandmother, may inherit from her the property which she inherited from the uncle (her son).—1 W. R. 123.

45. According to the Hindoo law, a Rajah has full right to nominate a jodheraj or heir-apparent, and a whole or ultimate heir has a preferable title to a half-brother.—1 W. R. 177. See 12 W. R. P. C. 21; 23 W. R. 355.

46. Byrages are not excluded from inheritance.—1 W. R. 209.

47. According to Hindoo law, a sister's son cannot inherit as heir to her brother.—1 W. R. 227, 5 W. R. 211.

48. Under the Mitacshara law, a grandson (his father being dead) shares equally with a son the self-acquired property of the grandfather.—1 W. R. 317.

49. A son's next heir is entitled to succeed after the mother in preference to a sister's son born after the death of the mother.—1 W. R. 335.

50. According to Hindoo law, a brother's sister's son is not heir.—1 W. R. 359.

52. According to the Mitacshara, a step-brother inherits after the widow if she survives them, otherwise a uterine brother succeeds.—2 W. R. 125.

53. Where it is contended that a Hindoo is incapable of inheriting by reason of an incurable disease (e.g. leprosy), the strictest proof of the disease will be required.—2 W. R. 125.

54. Married daughters are not excluded from succession by either the Dayabhaga or the Mitacshara.—2 W. R. 176. See also 6 W. R. 61.

55. According to Hindoo law, neither a sister nor a sister's daughter can inherit.—2 W. R. 180.

56. Rules of succession for a daughter's sons to the estate of their grandfather.—2 W. R. 277.

15. According to the Bengal law, a posthumous sister's son, conceived at the time of the deceased uncle's death, but born after the deceased uncle's death, is not entitled to succeed. —See 289.

16. A nephew, born after the death of his uncle, cannot take as heir to his uncle.—See 248.

17. According to the Mitacshara, a brother's daughter's son cannot inherit, and by parity of reasoning a brother's daughter cannot do so.—See 435.

18. According to the Mitacshara, a sister cannot inherit. —See 450. See also 742.

19. Where a father survived the son, Held that the son never inherited from the father, and that the son's widow could not inherit from his husband.—See 741.

20. A grandfather's daughter's son is an heir.—See 742.

21. A grandfather's daughter's son has no right of succession.—See 798. See contra 18 W. R. 351.

22. On the death of a son adopted by a Hindoo as the son of one of his two wives, the property descends not to the adopted son, but to the next legal heir.—W. R. Sp. 71.

23. In certain cases a priest may, according to Hindoo law, be the heir of a deceased hudee or disciple.—W. R. Sp. 146.

24. The right of succession accrues to nephews (sister's sons), whether born before or after the death of their maternal uncle, not on the death of the maternal uncle, nor on the death of his widow; and the nephews can sue to quash the validity of alienations made by the widow without legal necessity.—W. R. Sp. 159.

25. Somanadabhis belonging to the gotra of a deceased person are sufficiently cognate to succeed to property in the title of the paternal kin.—(P. C.) 2 W. R. Sp. 194.

26. A sister's son, in order to have a preferential title over his paternal uncle, must have been born or conceived when the succession opened.—W. R. Sp. 223. See 15 W. R. 452.

27. An inheritance cannot remain in abeyance for an unbegotten heir (such not being a posthumous son); but the succession must vest in the heirs existing at the time of the death of the person whose inheritance descends.—W. R. Sp. 314 (L. R. 92).

28. Proprietary right is born by creation and not by conception. A child in the womb takes no estate. In cases, when the succession opens out, a female member of the family who has conceived, the inheritance remains in abeyance until the result of the conception can be ascertained. If the child be still-born, then the estate goes to her heir but to the heir of the last owner.—W. R. Sp. 240 (L. R. 110).

29. A son's or a grandson's right of prohibition to his unprovided father making a gift, donation, or sale of effects inherited from his grandfather, cannot be exercised in favor of an unworthy son.—P. C.) 5 W. R. P. C. 114 (P. C. R. 41).

30. According to Hindoo law, a person cannot succeed as the adopted son of a daughter who has brothers alive, and who cannot be an appointed daughter, if she has brothers when the married daughters have not had an acknowledged claim under a bought son.—(P. C.) 5 W. R. P. C. 114 (P. C. R. 41).

31. The question being whether the succession in this case was regulated by the Bengal or Mitshila law,— Held, in accordance with the Court below, after an examination of the evidence, that the Mitshila law was applicable.—(P. C.) 7 W. R. P. C. 41 (P. C. R. 178).

32. The question being whether the descent in the family is regulated by the Dayabhaga or the Mitacshara,— Held, upon the evidence, that the Dayabhaga was applicable.—(P. C.) 7 W. R. P. C. 44 (P. C. R. 159).

33. Parity of birth is the general rule of Hindoo inheritance; but in the case of a Raaj, it is an exception.—(P. C.) 4 W. R. P. C. 42 (P. C. R. 373); 12 W. R. P. C. 21.

34. Ancestral property is not confined to such property as has not been alienated, but means at least improvable property derived from the

67. Under half brothers succeed equally to property undivided and immovable. Where no brothers are living the nephews of the whole blood have a preferential right to succeed over those of the half blood.—3 W. R. 43, 6 W. R. 58, 23 W. R. 272. (Over-ruled as to half brothers) 8 W. R. 323, and 9 R. ruling 114 post.

68. Conversion does not involve forfeiture of inheritance. —See Marriage 18.

69. According to the Mitashara, a maternal uncle or a father's maternal uncle cannot inherit.—4 W. R. 18. (Over-ruled by P. C.) See 73 post.

70. A brother's son's daughters are not heirs according to Hindoo law.—6 W. R. 131.

71. Right of inheritance, unless placed among certain members of a Hindoo family after partition, the members of the re-united family and their descendants succeed to each other, to the exclusion of the unassociated or not re-united branch.—5 W. R. 163. See 77 post.

In what cases the above rule applies.—15 W. R. 414.

There is no distinction between brothers who have never separated and brothers who have re-united after separation, in their right of inheritance to the property of a deceased brother.—21 W. R. 30.

62. Under the Mitashara, a Hindoo may die possessed of a share in joint family property and also of separately acquired succession to his own property, and neither can devolve on the same heir.—6 W. R. 101.

63. According to the Bengal law, in default of son, grandson, great-grandson, or widow, the unmarried daughter succeeds in preference to the married daughters, and should she subsequently marry and her surviving male issue, her son will succeed to the exclusion of the married sisters and their male issue.—6 W. R. 117.

64. Under the Mitashara, a brother's grandson can succeed.—6 W. R. 128, 14 W. R. 206.

65. According to the Mitashara, a maiden daughter does not succeed in preference to her paternal uncle.—6 W. R. 197.

66. According to Hindoo law, the right of inheritance is not suspended by pregnancy or until adoption.—6 W. R. 221.

67. The Jains are governed by the —applicable in that part of the country in which the property is situate.—5 W. R. 116, 249 W. R. 496.

68. Grandsons in the female line do not include sisters' sons.—8 W. R. 211.

69. A plaintiff suing on inheritance for money of land which he has not enjoyed, must prove his title, and either linear descent or such conformity of relation as entitles him to part succession. A descendant of the heir of the original accuser, and not less than six generations off, named under Hindoo law, share the property.—8 W. R. 258.

70. Where two brothers succeed to equal shares of a paternal estate, the absence of one does not deprive him of his share, unless the survivor possesses the other is adverse to the absent brother.—9 W. R. 98.

71. In default of brothers, brothers' sons succeed, taking according to numbers, and not by representation as grandchildren—9 W. R. 119.

Per capita and not per stirpes.—18 W. R. 32.

72. According to the Mitashara a sister's son can inherit the real property of his maternal uncle.—(P. R.) 10 W. R. 35, See also 18 W. R. 331.

73. The list of Bundhoo in given in Article 1, s. 6 chap. 2 of the Mitashara is not exhaustive but simply illustrative of the proposition that there are three classes of Bundhoo. Therefore, a person's father's maternal uncle is a Bundhoo, and as such entitled to inherit in preference to the king, who cannot take to the prejudice of a maternal uncle or a maternal granduncle.—(P. C.) 10 W. R. 4, P. C. 31. See also 18 W. R. 335.

74. The son of a deaf and dumb man born after the death of the former's grandfather, cannot inherit.—11 W. R., O. J. 19 (footnote).

In like manner the subsequently born son of a man born blind cannot inherit, though such son would have inherited if he had been born before his grandfather's death.—(P. R.) 11 W. R. 0. J. 11.

74a. A father separates from his sons, an after-born son alone inherits the share which his father took on partiti- tion, as well as any wealth acquired by the father; and even as regards the share taken by the father, on partition, neither the after-born son nor a son who was born blind, and whose disqualification has been removed subsequent to the partition, takes anything if the father should alienate his own share during his lifetime.—(P. R.) 6.

77. Under the Hindoo law, a united brother takes in preference to the separated brother.—11 W. R. 808. See 51 ante.

78. Under the Mitashara, the gentlest must be exhausted before the cognates can succeed.—11 W. R. 500. See 8 W. R. 118.

79. Where a party alleged to be disqualified from inheriting by leprosy voluntarily states that he has performed the penance required by the Sashtra, he thereby admits that the leprosy demanded by the law must prove the expiration to have been made.—11 W. R. 358.

80. The great-grandson of a deceased proprietor's maternal great-grandfather is a kapinda of such proprietor and equally with him entitled to offer undivided oblations to their common ancestor (the great-grandfather), and, as such, inherits the estate.—12 W. R. 399.

81. Under the Mitashara, a daughter can take a separate share, but has no right as heirress where the property is held jointly. In the latter case, it is a rule of the Mitashara law that the widow or daughter does not succeed, but is only entitled to maintenance.—12 W. R. 453. See also 17 W. R. 129, 21 W. R. 174.

82. In the Soodra caste, illegitimate children may inherit and have right to maintenance.—(P. C.) 12 W. R., P. C. 41; 23 W. R. 334. See 8 ante.

83. The mere impropriety of an estate is not sufficient to make the succession to it follow the succession of separate estates.—(P. C.) 13 W. R., P. C. 21. See (P. C.) 24 W. R. 255.

84. Under the Mitashara law, a great-great-grandson of a common ancestor is not too remote in degree to be ineligible as a gentile.—(P. C.) 14 W. R., P. C. 1. See also (P. C.) 23 W. R. 409.

85. S. chap. 2 of the Mitashara was not intended to be an exhaustive enumeration of the gentiles, but only a statement of the order in which they would inherit, and does not therefore limit the inheritance to the grandsons of the paternal grandfather and paternal great-grandfather.—11 W. R. 118.

86. A half-sister by the mother is entitled to succeed only when the deceased has left no children.—14 W. R. 356.

87. Under the Mitashara, a nephew (brother's son) succeeds, not as the heir of his father, but as the direct heir of his uncle.—15 W. R. 157.

88. A Hindoo, by becoming a brahman, does not divest himself of all title in his family estate, which on his death devolves on his heirs, and not on a kept mistress, although she may have performed all rites and ceremonies on account of his being an outcaste.—15 W. R. 197.

89. Amongst saupindas, the nearest saupinda excludes "those more remote".—15 W. R. 482.

90. There is no rule of Hindoo law regulating the descent of all Hindoo Rajas and their estates; but in every case in which a departure from the ordinary is relied on, a particular custom or holikkar must be proved.—16 W. R. 142. See 20 W. R. 154. (P. C.) 25 W. R. 412.

91. A daughter becomes entitled to her share upon the death of her father and not after her mother's death.—16 W. R. 276.

92. Upon the authority of decided cases as well as the evidence of custom in the family, it was held that the Raj or限额 of Ramghur being an ancestral imitable estate, and the family an undivided family governed by the Mitashara, the plaintiff as eldest male heir was entitled to succeed to the dignity and estates of the family in preference to the mother of the late infant Rajah and widow of his father the last actual Rajah.—15 W. R. 375, 17 W. R. 816.

93. Apart from special custom, where there are sons by different wives, priority of birth, and not of marriage, determin the succession of an imitable inheritance.—(Y. C.) 17 W. R. 552.

94. Special usages modifying the ordinary law of succession must be ancient and inviolable and established by clear and unambiguous evidence.—(P. C.) 18 W. R.

95. The wife of a Hindoo who predeceased his father without male issue, is entitled, as his widow and heiress, to succeed to his separate estate.—(P. C.) 18 W. R. 99.

96. Even if the son survived his father, but died subsequently and before a partition, his share, according to the Mithila law, would pass to his brothers to the exclusion of his widow, who would be entitled only to maintenance.—(P. C.) 16.

97. According to Hindoo law a party need not be incurably insane in order to be incapable of inheriting, nor is it necessary to show, by clear and positive evidence, the absolute impossibility of recovery of mind.—(O. J.) 18 W. R. 305.

98. A madman, though excluded from inheritance, is entitled to maintenance.—(O. J.) 16.

99. The distinctions adopted by the law of England, as to the course of inheritance, between inheritable freedom and personality, is not known in Hindoo law.—(P. C.) 18 W. R. 323.

100. A gift inter vivos or by will cannot prevail against the gift inter vivos.—(P. C.) 16.

All estates of inheritance created by gift or will, so far as they are inconsistent with the —, are void as such, and no person can succeed thereunder as heir to the estates described in terms which in English law would designate causes-tail.—(P. C.) 16.

102. Whatever may be the state of the authorities in Bombay, there is no doubt in Bengal that, where the daughter takes her father's property on the death of the widow, she takes the inheritance with a qualified power as regards alienation, in respect of which she is in no better situation than the widow. On the death of such daughter, her father's heir and not her heir succeeds.—(P. C.) 23 W. R. 64.

So held under the Mitacsara law also.—(O. J.) 23 W. R. 496, (P. C.) 24 W. R. 235.

103. Joint and separate property distinguished under the Mitacsara law, and the rule of succession or descent indicated.—20 W. R. 189, 192. See also (P. C.) 24 W. R. 255.

104. Accepting the High Court's finding that plaintiff had established his legitimacy, the estate, which was admitted to be his and presumed to be his, was held by the Privy Council, in the absence of a special family custom, to descend to him and his brother-in-law moieties. Whether plaintiff could be entitled to more would depend on the general law of succession to be applied.—(P. C.) 21 W. R. 89.

105. Under the Mitacsara as well as under the law of the Bengal school, the unmarried daughter takes the whole of the property in preference to her married sisters; but under the Mitacsara she only takes in priority to them and not to the ultimate exclusion of their right to inherit from their father. On her death, it goes, according to the ordinary rules, to the next surviving heir of the next full taker of the property.—23 W. R. 54.

106. According to the general principles of Hindoo law, a sister's son is a preferential heir to a mother's sister's son.—23 W. R. 264.

107. The succession of females (widows and daughters) to — is not regular succession and is not based upon the ordinary theory of spiritual benefit, so that, if they relinquish their rights in favor of the reversioner, the case is brought back to the normal state of succession, the effect being to vest in him a complete title.—22 W. R. 393.

108. The Hindoo law current in Bengal excludes from inheritance persons born blind and deaf, not those who have become so afterwards from some adventitious cause.—23 W. R. 78.

109. According to Hindoo law, the right once vested in a daughter by inheritance does not cease until her death notwithstanding she has become barren or a widow who has not borne a son. Circumstances of that nature do not destroy a heritable right which has once vested.—(P. C.) 23 W. R. 214.

110. Where two daughters succeeded by inheritance to their father's estate, and one of them died leaving her sister, who had then become a childless widow, the property survived to her sister; because, like widows, the two daughters collectively were one heir to their father, and the disqualification of the survivor to inherit at that time did not destroy the right of survivorship which she had previously acquired by inheritance.—(P. C.) 16.

111. A widow or cognate only cannot inherit as long as there is a sapinda or somanadha in existence.—(P. C.) 23 W. R. 409.

112. Even supposing the old rule of Hindoo law still to exist, viz., that a daughter may be specially appointed to raise a son and that the son of a daughter so appointed is entitled to succeed in preference to more distant male relatives, inasmuch as the rule breaks in upon the general rules of succession, whenever an heir claims to succeed by virtue of that rule, he must bring himself very clearly within it.—(P. C.) 16.

113. The right of inheritance of a brother's son's daughter's son is inferior to that of a brother's son's son.—24 W. R. 229.

In Bengal the brother of the whole blood succeeds in the case of an undivided estate, in preference to a brother of the half blood.—(P. B.) 24 W. R. 234.

115. Where ancestral property has been held according to the rule of primogeniture, and the family is governed by the Mitacsara law, that law, in the event of a holder dying without male issue, would, if the family were undivided, give the succession to the next collateral male heir in preference of the widow or daughters of the last possessor.—(P. C.) 21 W. R. 255.

116. Though a family might be undivided, the separate property of any member would go according to the law of succession to separate estate. Whether the general status be joint or undivided, property which is joint will follow one, and property which is separate will follow another course of succession.—(P. C.) 16.

... Hindoo Law (Migration).

1. A Hindoo migrating from one province to another, and acquiring property in the territory where he settles, must be presumed, until the contrary be proved, to carry with him and retain all his religious ceremonies and customs, and consequently his law of succession; especially when the family is shown to have brought with it its own priests, who, and their descendants after them, continue their ministrations down to the period of contest.—W. R. P. B. 67, (1 Hay 534, Marshall 282). See 13 W. R. 47.

9. Where a family originally migrated from the Mithila province to the province of Bengal, the presumption is that they have preserved the religious rights and customs prescribed by the Mitaksara law, unless the contrary be proved.—W. R. P. B. 75 (2 Hay 292).

10. The presumption is that Hindoo families migrating retain their rites, customs, and laws of succession, until the contrary is proved.—W. R. Sp. 55.

11. How the presumption may be rebutted that a family migrating into Bengal from the North-West imports its own customs and laws.—6 W. R. 295.

12. The prevalence in any part of India of a special condition of family, differing from the ordinary course of descent in that place of that class or race, stands on the footing of usage or custom of the family; and the custom is capable of attaching and of being destroyed equally whether the property be ancestral or self-acquired. The adoption by a family that came into Bengal from distant part of India where the Mitaksara prevails, of the law of Bengal for some generations, is consistent with a discontinuance of a former usage.—(P. C.) 10 W. R. P. C. 35. See 13 W. R. 47.

Hindoo Law (Religious Ceremonies).

1. An action is not maintainable by a Purushot against another Purushot for interfering with an alleged exclusive right of performing religious ceremonies at a particular place, there being no legal obligation upon the Jummu to abstain from employing another. - 1 Hay 365 (Marshall 161). See 10 W. R. 111.

2. A suit will lie by one priest against another for a share of offerings actually received by the latter, if there be any contract to pay over such shares.—W. R. Sp. 146.

4. A voluntary offering to any one does not give another a right of action against the recipient.—2 W. R. 68.

5. A suit will lie for the collection of a shrine, either in right of property in the place, or of lawful and established office attached to it.—3 W. R. 33.

6. A suit can be brought by the widower of one of the Hindu communities for her share of the fees obtained by the joint members of a family as Purushotis.—5 W. R. 222. See also 10 W. R. 114, 15 W. R. 531.

7. A suit will not lie by the assignee of a Schait to enforce payment of masjada (respect money) alleged to be a customary payment by persons of the Kanyaku caste having marriage ceremonies or shradas in their houses.—5 W. R. 224.

8. According to Hindoo law, a mother's shrada is not, like the father's, a legal necessity to justify a sale by a daughter to the prejudice of the daughter's son.—7 W. R. 116. (But see the next following case.)

9. According to Hindoo law, the raising of funds by a Hindoo widow for the performance of hordausea and husband's mother's shrada is a legal necessity justifying a sale of the husband's estate.—10 W. R. 309.

10. No suit will lie to recover damages based upon such unaccounted and merely voluntary payments as offerings to idols.—10 W. R. 457.

11. Where a compromise gave the elder of two brothers certain lands and rents coupled with the performance of a trust of a nature constantly vested in the managing elder brother of a joint Hindoo family, and the younger brother sued the elder brother for damages alleged to have been sustained in the performance by the younger brother at his own cost of religious ceremonies which the elder brother had undertaken under the compromise but had not performed.— Held that, in order to prove his cause of action, it was necessary for the younger brother to show that the non-performance of the trust was not owing to any default on his part.—(P. C.) 11 W. R. P. C. 81.

12. A party seeking to establish his right to share in the ministrations of officiating priests, is entitled to bring a civil suit to have his right ascertained and declared, if based partly on kolasas which are contested and partly on the right to succession.—15 W. R. 581.

13. The owner of an idol is entitled to appoint any one he likes to perform his puja, and the more fact of a party and his ancestors having done so for a long period creates no right in his favor.—16 W. R. 99.

14. A birth maaha Brahmaana, or right to officiate at funeral ceremonies, is inapplicable to a Hindu.—W. R. 171.

15. A suit for a declaration of a right to receive marks of respect at the hands of the Purushot in idol-festivals, and to obtain damages from the priests for withholding the same, is not cognizable by a Civil Court.—16 W. R. 198.

16. Query. Whether, according to Hindoo law, a woman can succeed to the office of priest.—16 W. R. 282.

17. The phrase "jummu right" was construed to mean the right to participate in the offerings made to the idol, and not the offerings or presents which were made to the priest himself.—20 W. R. 331.

Hindoo Law (Sale).

1. Under the Mithila law, sales made by order of Court in execution of a decree for an ancestral debt, can only be set aside when the debt was contracted for an inmund purpose. Proof of mere extravagance will not enable the son to succeed. The owner of the immovable is on the son.—W. R. Sp. 310 (L. R. 30).

2. According to the Mitaksara, a father is not incompetent to sell immovable property acquired by himself. —Sev. 472; 6 W. R. 71, 74. See 10 W. R. 287.

3. According to the Mitaksara, landed property acquired by a grandfather, and distributed by him amongst his sons, does not, by such gift, become the self-acquired property of the sons so as to enable them to dispose of it, by gift or sale, without the consent, and to the prejudice of the grandsons. But the sale by a father of ancestral immovable property, without the concurrence of his son, is not necessarily void, but only voidable unless the purchaser can show that it was made during a season of distress for the sake of the family or for pious purposes. —Sev. 472.

4. Property inherited from another and a distant branch of the family cannot be sold for a father's debts.—3 W. R. 137.

5. In a suit by younger brothers in a joint Hindoo family to set aside a sale made without legal necessity by their elder brothers as trustees, where defendant's sole ples of sale had passed to the custodian, plaintiffs are entitled to possession if their contention is proved.—5 W. R. 197.

6. A near relative who purchases joint family property and sets up a plea of the ples of the family on the part of his vendor, which plea he cannot substantiate, cannot be considered a bona fide purchaser. —Ib.

7. Under the Mithila law, a sale made by an adult mem-

A sale of a joint Hindoo family is void for want of consent of all the parties, and where there is no proof that the sale was made without legal necessity or for the benefit of the minors. — 5 W. R. 221.

8. In a suit by a son under the Mitthila law to set aside a sale, the purchasers were held not bound to show an absolute necessity for the sale, it being sufficient if they had acted bona fide and with due caution and were reasonably satisfied, at the time of their respective purchase, of the necessity of the sale in order to meet debts to which the father had a right to discharge; the onus probandi in such cases varying according to the circumstances. — 6 W. R. 149.

9. The absence of authority in the eldest brother from his brothers to sell their rights, the sale by the eldest brother is not the act of all the brothers. — 7 W. R. 238.

10. Where joint family property is sold to redeem other mortgaged property about to be foreclosed, the transaction, for the benefit of the family, is good; and where a large sum is due on mortgage, the purchaser need not enquire into original necessity for mortgage. The rule that only such joint property should be sold as will meet the necessity, does not apply where the excess is small and the required money cannot otherwise be raised. — 8 W. R. 75. See 10 W. R. 57.

11. In a case governed by the Mitthila law, the existence of a suit against the father was held to be insufficient evidence of the necessity for his selling his son's interests in ancestral property. — 9 W. R. 463.

12. The mere fact that sales of ancestral property took place in execution of decrees against the ancestor does not of itself show that the sales were for necessary or justifiable purposes. — 10 W. R. 57.

13. A deed of sale by a member of a Hindoo family acting for a guardian of minor brothers, is not invalid by reason of the father being alive. — 10 W. R. 106.

14. Where the guardian sells part of an estate, using the money in a suit for the benefit of the whole property, the sale is valid. — 12.

15. Under the Mitahara law, a single member of a family may sell immovable property to pay off family debts, only where the sons and grandsons are minors or otherwise incapable of giving their consent. — 13 W. R. 39.

16. Where a sale of landed estate by a single member for the payment of family debts is set aside because made without the consent of the son, the son can only get possession on payment of his share of the purchase-money which was applied to the liquidation of the debts. — 14.

17. In a suit to set aside sale of ancestral property by a minor's father as made without necessity and without authority, defendants pleaded pressure of a foreclosed suit on account of a demand under a former mortgage for an ancestral debt. Plaintiff having failed to establish his case, was not allowed to go back and open the consideration for the mortgage made so long as twenty-two years ago. — (P. C.) 17 W. R. 106.

3. A sale by a — of property in which she had merely a life-interest was annulled, no necessity for such a sale having been shown. Before a decree for immediate possession can be given in such cases as the plaintiffs, it must be clearly proved that the property has deteriorated owing to the sale, or is wasted by the purchasers. — 1 Hay 107.

4. During the life of a childless —, a lease granted by her is good. — 1 Hay 372 (Marshall 166).

5. In a suit for the recovery of a share of joint property, the plaintiff's maternal aunt, childless Hindoo widows, who were entitled to a prior life-interest to which the plaintiff's reversion was subject, filed a petition disclaiming their interest and assenting to the suit. Held that the Judge might take a decree founded upon the disclaimers of the widows. — 1 Hay 613 (Marshall 241). See also 8 W. R. 500.

6. An estate (or deed of surrender or relinquishment) given by a — having infant sons, cannot operate to destroy the title of the infants. — 1 Hay 553.

7. It is incumbent on a party who claims under a sale in execution of a decree for an ancestral debt passed against the widow in her representative character, and who received a conveyance specifying the rights of the widow only, to show clearly both that the debt was the debt of the ancestor, that the creditor brought suit against the widow as executrix of the estate, and obtained a decree in such a form as to render the estate liable and not the widow only. — L. R. 52.

8. Where the debts of the ancestor were of small amount, — Held that there was no legal necessity in the — to convey away the property and title of the heirs in reversion. — L. R. 110.

9. The possibility of a minor married daughter of a — having a son, and of his becoming heir on the death of the —, was held too remote a contingency to entitle the daughter's husband to sue the — for alienation and waste. — Sec. 834.

10. The title of a — to her husband's property, though a restrictive one, is not in the nature of a trust. — (P. C.) Sec. 661.

11. The widow of a brother in a divided Hindoo family governed by the Mitahara law, cannot alienate her interest in her husband's separate estate to the prejudice of reversionary heirs, except under legal necessity. — W. R. Sp. 101.

12. Where a plaintiff sues to set aside a sale by a — on the ground that there was no necessity to sell, and the Judge finds against him on that point, the suit necessarily fails, and the Judge need not enquire whether there was necessity to raise money for religious purposes. — W. R. Sp. 140.

13. The consent of all the reversioners is necessary to make a sale by a childless — valid in law. None but immediate reversioners being entitled to impeach the sale. But the purchaser is entitled to hold the property during the lifetime of the —. — W. R. Sp. 148.

11. A purchaser from a — of a portion of her husband's estate is bound to use due diligence in ascertaining that there is legal necessity for the loan, and must prove the circumstances of his loan. — W. R. Sp. 153.

15. A — has a right to kind treatment and maintenance from her father-in-law. — W. R. Sp. 177. See 9 W. R. 413; 10 W. R. F. B. 89.

16. In a suit by a reversioner to set aside a sale by a —, the Court cannot give possession to the reversioner, but can only declare the sale to be invalid. — W. R. Sp. 250.

17. A conditional sale is an alienation, the validity of which a reversioner to a — is, under the Hindoo law, entitled to question. — W. R. Sp. 263 (L. R. 42).

18. In a suit for mutation of name by a purchaser from a —, the purchaser must prove the legality of his purchase if he chooses to bring an action against the reversioner. — L. R. 42.

19. The consent of all the heirs living at the time is necessary to make a conveyance by a — binding against the reversioners. — W. R. Sp. 268 (L. R. 50). See also 12 W. R. F. C. 47; 25 W. R. 60.

20. If an estate is sold, upon which a — has a claim to maintenance, she can sue to make her claim a charge upon the property sold. — W. R. Sp. 310 (L. R. 90); 15 W. R. 263; 26 W. R. 100. See also 104 per. 72.

21. A purchaser at a sale in execution of the rights and interests of a — is entitled to question the validity of leases made by R., Sp. 581 (L. R. 137).

22. A childless — in possession of a small property belonging to her father’s estate, and without other source of maintenance, though not entitled to maintenance, cannot be ejected by a stranger without title.—W. R. Sp. 379 (L. R. 153).

23. In a sale by a — under necessity, where purchaser pays a fair price and acts bona fide, the mere fact of only two witnesses attending the purchase-money being paid to creditors does not invalidate his conveyance, as he is not bound to see to the application of the purchase-money.—W. R. Sp. 386.

25. A — is entitled by law to a life-interest in her husband’s property.—(P. C.) 6 W. R., P. C., 1 (P. C. R. 98).

30. A childless — who claim on an alienation from a — to show that the transaction was within her limited powers.—(P. C.) 79.

32. The course of succession, according to the Hindu law of the south of India, of a zamindar’s self-acquired property, is that, upon the death of the grandfather without male issue, his widow inherits; but in the case of property of which part is the common property of a joint Hindu family, and part the separate acquired or deceased husband, his widow (in default of male issue) succeeds to his separate estate, as to which the other members of the family have, according to the law of partition, no right by survivorship.—(P. C.) 19. But see 9 W. R., 471, 16 W. R., 49.

33. A conveyance by a —, without proof of necessity to justify an alienation of ancestral property, can only operate as a conveyance of his life-interest.—W. R., 47, 16 W. R., 49.

34. A — cannot endow an idol with her husband’s property or a portion thereof, to the detriment of the reversioners.—1 W. R., 48.

35. A mere declaration of necessity is not sufficient to justify a purchase from a —. The purchaser, though not bound to see to the application of the purchase-money, should satisfy himself of the existence of a legal necessity.—1 W. R., 50. See also 12 W. R., P. C., 47.

36. A defendant, being in possession under an alleged gift from a —, is not debarred from putting the plaintiff, who claims as purchaser from the widow, to the proof of his title to the property. On the other hand, the plaintiff, though failing to prove the validity of his purchase, may still be entitled to remain in possession during the widow’s lifetime, on proof of his purchase being preferable to the defendant’s alleged gift.—1 W. R., 49.

37. Alienation by a — cannot be valid.—1 W. R. 107.

38. A — cannot be compelled, without proof of waste, to give to her husband’s estate the value for the receipt by her of lands belonging to her husband’s estate taken by a Railway Company.—1 W. R., 125.
60. On what principle maintenance for a — should be awarded.—6 W. R. 285.

60a. Where only the rights and interests of a — in the property left by her husband were sold in execution of a decree against her on account of a debt contracted by her, and neither the decree nor the sale proceedings declared the property itself liable for the debt,— Held that the purchaser conveyed an interest in the estate only during the vendees lifetime.—6 W. R. 303 (affirmed by P. C.) 24 W. R. 306.

61. A party who uses as decree-holder to set aside a sale by a — as praebendi, cannot raise the question of necessity.—4 W. R. 323.

61a. Under the Mitrasahara, a — has no rights besides those of maintenance, where a valid adoption makes the adopted son the legal heir.—7 W. R. 400.

62. The existence of a debt, liquidation of which is provided for by lease of ancestral property, is no justification for alienation of such property by a — during her lifetime.—7 W. R. 400.

63. A —, as holder of a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860, has no right to receive conveyance to continue a suit for the recovery of immovable property; though she is entitled to do so as heir of the deceased, if he died without issue and was the sole owner of the property.—9 W. R. 391.

64a. In a suit brought by a third person, the object of which is to recover or to charge an estate of which a — is the proprietor, she will, as defendant, represent and prosecute the estate, as well in respect of her own as of the reversionsary interest.—(P. C.) 8 W. R., P. C. 17. See 23 W. R. 174, (P. C.) 24 W. R. 306.

65. The sale by a — of a larger portion of her husbands estate in order to raise money to meet a decree, the law is not absolutely void as against the reversionser, who can only set it aside by paying the amount she is entitled to raise with interest.—9 W. R. 407. See also 9 W. R. 284, 20 W. R. 187.

66. The sale by a — of a portion of her husband's estate, when it would be more beneficial to mortgage, cannot be set aside as against the purchaser, if both parties are acting bona fide.—9 W. R. 379.

67. Where a decree is obtained against a — as guardian of her son as well as in her own right for a debt contracted jointly by her and her husband, the husbands property is liable to the whole debt decreed; and the wife is therefore entitled to sell as much of the estate as is necessary to raise the full amount of the debt.—(P. C.) 9 W. R. 316.

68. When a — sells land in her possession on the alleged ground that it is necessary, against the widows interest, the execution of the deed of purchase, such a disposition is not conclusive in law as to the necessity, but is strong proof of the purchasers good faith.—9 W. R. 390.

69. Where a considerable time has elapsed, of enjoyment and apparent acquiescence, a purchaser from a — need not show anything more than the fact of the sale made to him suffices to estop the possessor from asserting title.—10 W. R. 306.

70. Under the Mitrasahara law, a —, takes only a limited interest in her husbands estate, similar to that taken by a childless — according to the law of the Bengal school.—9 W. R. 490.

71. A — may make the fullest use of the usufruct of her husbands estate: but the portion of it she leaves behind at her death is not liable for her personal debts, unless incurred under legal necessity, or for the benefit of the estate. Accumulations cannot be considered her strewths.—9 W. R. 491.

72. Where the assignee of a reversionsary heir obtained a decree against the — for waste, and was appointed by the Court manager of the estate for the — but did not enter upon his duties until 6 years had elapsed, a petition granted by her relative to the property was held good and valid against her and against the manager also.—9 W. R. 598.

73. A Hindu banker dying intestate left two widows (D and E) and a minor.—D obtained from a third party (H) a will of the deceased having been set aside by the Courts, an order was passed in a summary suit under Act XIX of 1841, by which the property was equally divided between the two widows and the minor. On the death of D subsequently died, leaving a will disposing of her share to her relatives. Steps were taken during D's life by the other widow (E) and by H to resist the registration of the will; and after D's death, M applied for the attachment of D's share and the application of a curator. Her application being dismissed, she commenced a regular suit. Held that M's original acquiescence in the title set up by H did not deprive her of any rights which accrued to her as one of the co-heirs of her husband's; and that claim was decreed to be untenable, nor could her alleged alienation of her share bar her present suit.—9 W. R., P. C. 20.

75. Held that also the estate of two widows who take their husbands estate by interest, in the event of death of which they are coparceners. The acquiescence of the widows to a partition only binds each not to disturb the other's possession, but does not affect the right of survivorship.—10 W. R. 548 (P. C.) 25 W. R. 214. See 11 W. R. 370.

76. Where waste is proved on the part of a —, the Court should not put a reversionser into possession, but should appoint a manager (who might be the reversionser) who should be required to render accounts periodically.—10 W. R. 878.

77. Lesses granted by a — cannot be interfered with, unless the lesses are making waste.—10 W. R. 879.

78. According to the Mitrasa, a — may dispose of moveable property inherited from her husband, a power she does not possess under the law of Bengal; but by both laws she is restricted from alienating any immovable property, whether ancestral or acquired, so disposed of, in her death the immovable and the undisposal of moveable property pass to the next heirs of her husband.—(P. C.) 10 W. R. 548, 549.

79. Under the Mitrasa the widow of a Hindu separate in estate from his brothers would succeed instead of the brothers son, and the possession of the latter for more than 12 years is adverse possession barring her claim.—11 W. R. 9.

80. A member of a joint Hindu family living under the Mitrasa law, died entitled to an undivided share in such property and leaving two widows surviving him. After his death, his widows were sued in their representative capacity in respect of debts incurred by him in his lifetime on his own account and not for the benefit of the joint family, and decrees were obtained against the widows in that capacity. In execution of one of those decrees, an interest in certain portions of the joint family property to the extent of the share to which the deceased was entitled in his lifetime was sold by auction and the purchasers were put into possession. Held that the property, to the extent of only the rights and interests of the widows; that the property did not belong to the widows or to the heirs of the survivors, it could not be made available under a decree, nor could a representative of the widows be made liable only in a suit properly laid against the survivors.—(P. C.) 12 W. R., P. C. 1. See 12 W. R. 416.

81. Where a decree was obtained in a suit instituted on behalf of a — by G upon the agreement that G should retain half of all that was recovered for his absolute benefit and repay himself out of the other half all sums spent in prosecuting the suit, and in execution of the decree sums of money was paid into Court,—Held that a suit would lie by the reversionser to restrain waste and to prevent payment of the money out of Court to G; the contract being void as against the reversionser otherwise than as a security for sums properly paid and costs properly incurred by G with interest thereon, and being void if not upon the ground of champerty and maintenance, upon the ground that it was an uncommercial bargain and a speculative, if not gambling, contract.—12 W. R. 164.

82. According to Hindu law, accumulations are not the same as income so as to be used by the — at her discretion; but should be treated in the same way as the corpus.—12 W. R. 103. See also 23 W. R. 330 and 366.

83. A son has no right under the Hindu law to turn his fathers widow and the other females of the family who are entitled to maintenance, out of the family dwelling house without providing for their reasonable subsistence for them elsewhere, nor can he give a purchaser the right to do so, the extent of which is uncertain and may be applied.—12 W. R. 103, 104.

84. A — has a right to let out portions of the family dwelling-house to monthly tenants for the purpose of maintaining herself and her infant child, and such tenants cannot be turned out on the son's coming of age without properly determining the monthly tenancies.—Th. 85.

REPO. Whether, under the Mitakshara, the elder — or the whole estate, the younger — receiving maintenance from the estate; or whether the rights of the two widows are equal.—12 W. R. 158.

86. Where the elder — was allowed to enjoy possession of the whole estate during her life, the younger — receiving maintenance, the possession of the former was not adverse to the latter, and the latter's cause of action with reference to the moiety held by the former accrues only on the death of the former.—Th.

87. Where the tenancy of a — was made over to N with the widow's consent to enable during her lifetime, N's possession was held to be not adverse to the reversor.—13 W. R. 254, 13 W. R. 52.

88. Plaintiff cannot for the first time in a later action impugn a sale by a — on the ground of fraud, when no such ground was taken in the former suit.—12 W. R. 336.

89. Under her age is properly represented in a suit, the matter stands precisely as against the reversionary heirs, the Court should not go behind that question and enquire into the factum of the sale.—12 W. R. 413.

91. Any act done by any decree given against a — as sole proprietor and not as guardian of her minor children, will not bind the minors.—13 W. R. 63.

91. Where the only question raised by the parties in a suit is whether an alleged sale by it — is valid as against the reversionary heirs, the Court should not go behind that question and enquire into the factum of the sale.—13 W. R. 172.

92. More such chastity on the part of a — does not divest her of property which has once become vested in her.—11 W. R. O. J. 23.

93. A — has a property and the apparent next taker, by joining in one conveyance, can make a complete taker.—14 W. R. 379.

94. A — by putting in petitions in the course of legal proceedings, claiming her rights to property which had descended to her son and in which she then had no interest at all, cannot be prevented from setting up her real right as heir of her son when that right actually accrued, i.e. upon her son.—(P. C.) 19 W. R. 61.

95. A — enjoying the immovable property of her de-cesscd husband, is entitled to alienate the immovable property or any property which she may have purchased out of his property.—15 W. R. 63.

96. The possession in right of inheritance of a — having sons alive is not adverse to a reversor.—15 W. R. 147.

97. A — as holder of a certificate under Act XXVII of 1867, is entitled to obtain delivery of her husband's property giving security to indemnify any claimant to the same property.—15 W. R. 302.

98. According to the Hindoo law in Bengal, a — is entitled to succeed to her husband's property and to have her name registered as proprietor and to the widow's dower of a wife of the sons of daughters, the widow was held not justified by any legal necessity in alienating the estate.—10 W. R. 79.

99. A — does not lose her right to maintenance by reason of her leaving her husband's house, provided she does not leave for the purposes of unhappiness or for any other improper purpose.—(P. C.) 20 W. R. 21.

100. A — is not trustee for the heirs, but has the whole of the inheritance in her with a limited power of alienation; her power of alienation for spiritual purposes being larger than that to which necessity gives rise.—20 W. R. 187.

101. On a partition being made of joint family property, a — is entitled to her share by way of maintenance or as a portion of the inheritance.—20 W. R. 192.

102. The childless widows of the brother and nephews of a deceased person are not entitled under the Hindoo law to be considered as the legal representatives of the deceased.—17 W. R. 189.

103. A decree in a suit against a — in temporary possession for a debt arising out of her own neglect of duty, is not binding on all persons succeeding her. A sale made in execution of such a decree passes no more than the widow's personal interest.—17 W. R. 421.

104. When a — sues to have her right of maintenance declared, she should ask not that her right should be declared generally, but for enquiry as to the fit and proper sum for her maintenance; but acting upon the rule in Courts of Equity, if a plaintiff mistakes the relief to which he is entitled under his special prayer, the Court may afford him the relief to which he has a right under the prayer of general relief (provided such relief be consistent with the case made by the by the plaintiff). The Court may dismiss the case but frame issues accordingly.—(O. J.) 17 W. R. 452.

105. As against an heir who has taken the property, the — has a right to have her maintenance treated as a debt against the property, and she may follow the property in the hands of any one who takes it with notice of her claim against the heir. But the widow's maintenance is not by the law in Bengal a charge on her husband's estate or the hands of an alien without notice of her claim.—(O. J.) 17 W. R. 452 (foot-note). See also 20 W. R. 126, 25 W. R. 100, and 29 ante.

106. In a suit by the son of the reversionary heir of a Hindoo ancestor to recover property sold by his widow 20 years ago to defendant's predecessors, the Court, considering the lapse of time, the adequacy of the consideration, the due registration, etc., of the deeds, the reversionary heir's knowledge of the alienations, his conduct up to the time of his death, and the delay in bringing the suit, held the defendants entitled to a strong presumption that their predecessors had purchased after due enquiry and after satisfying themselves of legal necessity.—18 W. R. 77.

107. The institution of a suit a — may be beneficial to her as well as those who will succeed her, and yet need be a necessity.—16.

108. There is no necessity for a — to borrow money, when she has an income more than sufficient to pay the expenses of litigation.—16.

109. Where an estate which devolved to a — was sufficient to pay a small debt due by the husband, the Government not being able to all other cases, the Court must consider the estate of the husband's sons, the widow was held not justified by any legal necessity in alienating the estate.—19 W. R. 79.

110. A — does not lose her right to maintenance by reason of her leaving her husband's house, provided she does not leave for the purposes of unhappiness or for any other improper purpose.—(P. C.) 20 W. R. 21.

111. A — is not trustee for the heirs, but has the whole of the inheritance in her with a limited power of alienation; her power of alienation for spiritual purposes being larger than that to which necessity gives rise.—20 W. R. 187.

112. On a partition being made of joint family property, a — is entitled to her share by way of maintenance or as a portion of the inheritance.—20 W. R. 192.

113. The digging of a tank, though a meritorious act and a great convenience to the public, is not a legal necessity for which a — can alienate property left to her for life only.—21 W. R. 49.

114. Where property to the immediate possession of which a — is entitled, is conveyed away by partible having

7. An indorser of a — returned dishonored to him, may sue the drawer upon it, and may recover if he is the lawful holder of it.—W. R. 86.

8. Although the English law of prompt notice by return of post does not apply to hoidense drawn by natives upon natives and indorsed by natives, yet reasonable notice of dishonor is essential.—W. R. 501. See also 21 W. R. 62.

9. A drawee in return of a sum of money the borrower gives the lender two hiodenses for a larger sum, taking back the balance with a discount, the only right of action left to the lender is on the hiodenses themselves.—7 W. R. 179.

10. One who draws a — on his own factory, and delivers it to another, is not entitled to credit for the amount drawn.—7 W. R. 179.

11. A promise to pay indorsed upon a — after it had been dishonored, though not amounting to a waiver of notice, was held to be good and sufficient evidence that the indorser had received notice that the bill had been dishonored.—12 W. R. 129.

12. The non-acceptance of a duplicate, where the original has already been accepted, is no cause of action.—16 W. R. 501.

13. Where a duplicate provides that it shall not be accepted if the original has already been accepted, no custom can override the terms of the contract.—16.

14. Before acceptance at any rate, a — payable to hajang would pass by delivery merely.—16 W. R. 10, O. J., 10 (foot-note).

15. D K having dishonestly obtained possession of a — before acceptance, forged a special indorsement to himself, got it accepted in favor of himself, and then indorsed it to defendant. The Court declined to look behind the acceptance.—16.

16. In a suit for the recovery of a — or its value, the question was whether defendant, by reason of having purchased the — for valuable consideration without notice, acquired a good title to it, notwithstanding a forged special indorsement to his vendor before acceptance and a forged indorsement to himself, got it accepted in favor of himself, and then indorsed it to defendant. The Court declined to look behind the acceptance.—16.

17. Plaintiff sought to recover the amount of a — drawn by defendant at Patna on defendant at Calcutta payable 41 days after sight. The defence was that the — was an accommodation bill given to S A without consideration, and that plaintiff, after the — had become due, and after plaintiff had notice that defendant was only surety for S A, gave time to the principal to release his surety. Held that the new arrangement did not alter the position of the parties so as to release defendant from his original obligation as principal debtor.—16 W. R. 10, O. J., 16.

18. In balance due on a — brought by the drawee against the drawer on the insolvency of the acceptor, there was evidence not only that the drawers were merely the ordinary garnishees of the acceptor, but also that they had no interest whatever in the bill when drawn: that by local custom they were not liable for the deflections of their principal; that the money when procured on the — was applied solely to the purposes of the acceptor; that the drawees received part payment of the — from him and gave him time to pay the remainder; and that the notice of dishonor was not sent to the drawers till ten months afterwards. Held that the drawers were not liable.—17 W. R. 442.

19. The drawer, acceptor, and intermediate indorsers of a — which is dishonored, are all liable to the holder; but their liability is not joint as it arises out of different contracts; and a dishonor obtained against any one of them without satisfaction cannot be pleaded as a bar to a suit against any of the rest of them.—23 W. R. 444.

12. A sale by a husband to his wife may be collusive and in fraud of creditors, notwithstanding the payment of the purchase-money by the wife out of her funds. — 1 W. B. 319.

13. A charge of adultery by a Mahomedan against his wife does not operate as a divorce, though, if false, it might be an item of ill-usage towards making up a sufficient answer to his claim for re-stitution of conjugal rights. The husband cannot enforce his right to his wife till he pays the dower, in the absence of that is of any sufficient answer to his claim. Ill-treatment by him and his second wife would justify the first wife in leaving him, — 3 W. R. 93.

14. A Mahomedan wife may (except with any fraudulent intent) purchase property as her own, during her husband's lifetime, with money given to her by him on account of dower. — 1 W. R. 6.

22. In a suit to declare certain sales null, where the property of a husband was sold to realize a fine, and passed from him to the purchaser until it reached in possession when the sale of the husband's rights and interests took place, it was held that the plaintiff was entitled to a clear finding as to whether the wife held the property in her own right or in trust for her husband, and that the issue of showing whence the money came was on the wife. — 6 W. R. 312.

23. It is not for the Court to presume, but for the plaintiff to prove, that there was substantial consideration. — 24 W. R. 477.

24. A conveyance of property by a husband to his wife in fraud of creditors, is void whether in satisfaction of claim or not. — 7 W. R. 392.

25. A husband after divorce for recovery of property belonging to her, the cause of action arises at the time of separation; and until the husband has proved his right to the property, the presumption is that he only held in behalf of his wife. — 9 W. R. 158.

26. Where a Mahomedan husband was found to have paid the purchase-money for a putnee talook standing in the name of his wife, it was held that his being in possession of the money was prima facie evidence that the putnee talook belonged to himself and not to his wife, and that that presumption was not rebutted by the fact that he purchased the putnee in the name of his wife. — 6 W. R. 238.

27. Where a widow was, on the death of her first husband, made defendant in a suit pending against him, and married again between the original and final judgments against her, her second husband is not liable to the suit by the judgment in the first part of s. 105 Act VIII being held not to include the judgment on appeal. — 9 W. R. 442.

28. Where rights of ownership had been exercised for years by a Mahomedan husband, and never for any property descended from the wife's father, and which was afterwards sold in satisfaction of the husband's debts, the wife was held not entitled to recover possession. — 1 W. R. 17.

29. Under Mahomedan law, it is only by payment of the prompt dower that the husband is entitled to consummate the marriage or enforce his claim to conjugal rights. — 15 W. R. 296.

30. Where property is bought from a wife as the ostensible owner, the husband consenting to the sale, and the transaction is bona fide on the part of the purchaser for a consideration, the purchase is a good one even if the property is not the wife's but the husband's. — 15 W. R. 19.

31. Where a Mahomedan wife re-conveys to her husband the property received from him in lieu of dower, and he gives a written agreement containing to pay her a certain annuity, he cannot avoid payment on any of the plea that on a Mahomedan husband may avoid payment of maintenance. — 15 W. R. 296.

32. When the fraudulent intention of a conveyance is not carried out, a bona fide intention is left to a wife entitling her to ask for quiet possession if it has been prejudicially affected by her husband's own act ends by a fictitious decision under Act X. — 15 W. R. 812.

33. Sagar: wife. See Maintenance 32.

34. The mere taking of a first wife's jewels, or the marrying of a second wife by a Hindu, cannot be set upon as a bar to his claim against the former for restitution of conjugal rights. — 17 W. R. 622.

35. Where a Mahomedan husband, on contracting a second marriage, executed an agreement giving his first wife a monthly allowance and stipulating to give her or (at her death) her children a certain share of what he was to receive, and the first wife died leaving children of whom plaintiff was one, — Hold that, as to property acquired in the wife's lifetime, the right to have the agreement enforced would at the latest accrue at her death, plaintiff having three years from attaining his majority to bring his suit for non-performance of that part of the agreement; and as to property acquired since the wife's death, the agreement was a studium patriae, there having been no consideration for the promise. — 18 W. R. 472.

36. Where a husband writes and signs a bond in the name of his wife, there is a tacit or implied contract by her to hold the bond for him, if he had not authority, the obligor may sue for damages for breach of contract or for false representation. — 18 W. R. 249.

37. For an order for maintenance having been made under s. 836 Act X of 1972, the husband applied for an order enforced. The defendant being called on to show cause why the order should not be enforced, divorced his wife (the plaintiff) in the presence of the Court. Held that, even if such divorce made such an alteration in the circumstances as to justify the Court, on the application of the husband (the defendant), in altering the order for maintenance of the defendant would not be relieved from obeying the order during the time which had elapsed up to the date when and until that change of circumstances had occurred.—19 W. R., Cr., 78.

33. A decree for the divorce of the plaintiff's minor wife and certain jewels from defendant's illegal possession and keeping was upheld in appeal, it was held that the 'Lower Appellate Court could only enjoin defendant to take away any obstruction in the way of the wife returning to her husband.—20 W. R. 92.

34. S. 4 Act X of 1860 cannot prevent the operation of a marriage settlement restraining a wife from anticipating or using property allotted to her separate use; such restraint cannot be created not by the marriage but by the settlement.—(O. J.) 22 W. R. 176.

35. Simile. Where a contract is made after Act III of 1874 (R. 139) the operation, there will be a remedy against the separate property of the wife although there is a clause against alienation or anticipation in the marriage settlement.—(O. J.) 17.

36. A purchase by the wife (of land attached in execution of a decree against the husband), supported by possession, is not to be deemed bad only on the ground of suspicion of possible mafia fide; there should be a clear finding that instead of being a purchase by the wife, it was a purchase by the husband in the wife's name.—28 W. R. 402.

37. Where a woman seeks to recover money advanced in a bond executed in her name by her father-in-law, it is open to the defendant to plead that the money was not lost but to the woman, but that the bond was merely an acknowledgment of indebtedness from him to her husband.—22 W. R. 413.

38. Where it was the universal custom of the community to which the plaintiff belonged that a child wife should remain away from her husband until a certain event had occurred, Held that the Lower Appellate Court was justified, while such contingency had not happened, in refusing to order such a wife to return to her husband although the marriage was valid.—23 W. R. 22. Ser 23 W. R. 178, 25 W. R. 386.

40. Where a husband stipulated in such a contract to do nothing without the permission of his wife on pain of immediate divorce and realisation of her mahar, and also to pay over to her all the money he might earn, the stipulations were held to be illegal because contrary to public policy. The last stipulation, however, was construed to mean payment after reasonable deduction on account of his necessary expenses; and in a suit to enforce such a contract, the Court decreed to the plaintiff (the wife) a fair sum for her maintenance, holding that under s. 67 Act IX of 1872 such part only of the agreement should be enforced as was legal.—17.

41. According to Hindu law, after marriage a husband is the legal guardian of his wife's person and property, whether she is a major or minor.—23 W. R. 178. See 25 W. R. 386.

42. A husband who puts his wife into the position of the being the true owner of an estate, and allows her to deal with the world as the true owner, deprives himself of the right to set up or rely on his banns marriage. title.—24 W. R. 79.

43. Where a suit to have it declared that defendant was plaintiff's wife and was bound to live with him, was dismissed on the ground that custom required that, in order to constitute such a right, there should have been a second marriage, Held that such an issue should have been framed as to whether or not such a custom existed.—24 W. R. 228.

44. Where are living together, and the wife has property of her own which the husband is in possession of and must, in his possession must be considered to be his wife's and not adverse to her; but he has no right to part with such property without her consent.—24 W. R. 274.

45. Where a wife had colluded with her husband to buy up a decree, under and others being judgment debtors, and the husband subsequently sought to establish his claim to the purchase on the ground that it had really been made with his own money, and the wife pleaded that the husband's fraud had disqualified him, Held that, as the wife was also a party to the fraud, there was no reason why, as against her, the decree should not be made in favor of the husband, thus enabling the Court to rectify the fraud and do justice to the other judgment debtors who were the parties really defrauded by the result of the execution proceedings.—25 W. R. 219.

46. Where a Mahomedan wife never asserted any right to certain land under a khabis-nama, but allowed her husband to remain the apparent owner even when she found him dealing with and attempting to sell the land, and took no steps to prevent him from putting the defendants out of possession as purchasers, such conduct on her part was held to deprive her, and any one claiming under her, from coming into Court to eject those who have purchased bona fide in ignorance of her ever having had any title.—25 W. R. 281.

1. In the absence of any covenant by the assignee of the lease of an — factory to take the liability for previous rents on himself, he is only liable for rent which accrued after the date of his assignment. Meaning of Dena powna. — (F. B.) W. R. F. R. 107 (L. R. 7). See also 6 W. R. (Act X) 89, 10 W. R. 311.

2. By a contract for the cultivation of — defendant agreed, in consideration of certain payments, to prepare the land, sow, reap, etc.; and it was stipulated that, if defendant neglected to cultivate the portion of the factory might do so and deduct the expense from the money payable to defendant; and that if the land were not prepared by a certain time, defendant should pay compensation at the rate of 124s. per bigha. Held (1) that plaintiff was not bound to enter upon and cultivate the land upon default by defendant; (2) that the stipulation for the payment by defendant of 124s. per bigha was a reservation in the nature of liquidated damages, and that plaintiff was not entitled to recover more than that sum in respect of the breach of that stipulation although loss to a greater extent may have been sustained. — 2 Hay 391 (Marshall 386).

3. A suit for arrears of rent due on account of an — factory is not a suit for arrears of rent due on account of land within cl. 4, 23 Act X of 1859, and must therefore be brought in the Civil Court. — 2 Hay 239 (Marshall 401).

4. Where a valuable — crop had been raised by an appellant to the Privy Council upon the property decreed against him, the possession thereof was postponed until he could remove it in due time. — 2 Hay 674.

5. There is nothing inconsistent in the fact of an — factory taking a lease for a term of a whole village, and still retaining their jotedar title over a small area comprised in the village. If they have more lands in their occupation as jotedar than they ever, the lessor has his remedy for possession of the excess lands if any. — Sev. 349.

6. Where the holder of a lien on an — factory pledged as security for the rent has obtained a decree for such rent, and the factory cannot realize it from the estate of the lessee or his assigns, he must sue in the Civil Court to enforce his right to follow the property pledged. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 127.

8. A planter is not absolved from liability to rent for lands which he claims to hold under various tenures other than from plaintiff and which he has so covered with — as to have obliterated the boundary marks. — 2 W. R. (Act X) 49.

9. The account books of an — factory regularly sworn to by the manager are legal evidence of payment of rent. — 2 W. R. (Act X) 75.

10. Damages have to be assessed for the period during which plaintiff was illegally put out of possession of an — factory and its appurtenances, and agreement for rent had been entered into between plaintiff and her lessor and she was deprived of all benefit from other lands fit only for —. — 5 W. R. 194.

11. Where there has been a breach of contract to sow and cultivate — both liquidated damages and the amount advanced to the cultivators cannot be recovered under s. 3 Act X of 1836. — 5 W. R. 277.

12. The personal service in conveying from the field to the vats is not a contract the breach of which is punishable by s. 490 Penal Code. — 6 W. R., Cr., 80.

13. Where a ryot takes advances from an — factory not to be repaid until expiration of agreement, and then to be repaid either at cash or with produce, he cannot be sued for a refund of the balance in consequence of the factory being closed before the expiration of the contract. — 7 W. R. 338.

14. An instigator can, under s. 3 Act X of 1836, be made liable to the extent of the damage sustained; but a plaintiff in such case cannot obtain liquidated damages calculated on the penal amount due by the ryots under their contracts, but must prove the amount of damage done. — 8 W. R. 257.

15. In a case of tort where defendants maliciously and from gross negligence allowed their cows to trespass and destroy — plants, the plaintiff was held entitled not to the mere value of the growing plants destroyed, but to substantial damages compensating for loss of profit. — 9 W. R. 156.

16. The dana persoa clause in a deed of purchase of a share of an — factory does not render the purchaser liable for a decree against his vendor in an action of tort after the death of the latter. — 9 W. R. 271.

17. Where the lease of certain factories is set aside by superior authority, and the lessor, after agreeing to deliver up all the manufactured — failed to do so, the remedy is by suit for damages for breach of contract. — 9 W. R. 357.

18. The non-completion of an agreement of compromise does not exonerate defendant from performing his part of the contract for sowing. — 10 W. R. 420.

19. Where a shareholder and manager of an — factory stipulated that, in the event of non-payment of rent, the lessee was at liberty to take khas possession, and that, on another mukhtar or manager being appointed or the property being sold, the factory as well as the land under it or manager-chip servitor would be responsible for all arrears of rent, and then mortgages the factory to L, — Held that the plaintiff, in executing his money-decree under Act X, could have proceeded under s. 111 and then under s. 111 if L objected to the sale, but that he, having no prior lien upon the factory which would give him a preference over L, had no cause of action as against L. — 11 W. R. 194.

20. S. 8 Reg. VI of 1823 refers only to cases where a joint contract is made with several persons having separate interests and liabilities in the subject-matter of the contract; but where the interests and liabilities are joint, there is no reason why the names of all the parties should not be included, for where there is no separate liability no specification is required. — 12 W. R. 309.

21. An — contract is not without consideration because, during the period it has to run, the debt due by the ryot is extinguished by the delivery of — leaves. The contract is entire and upon one consideration, and cannot become void by any change in the situation of the parties. — 47 W. R. 91.

22. In a case in which the sillaadar of an — factory preferred a charge against certain persons for cutting and carrying away — crop which was in his charge, the Joint Magistrate was held to have wrongly dismissed the charge on the ground that a more responsible servant ought to have laid the complaint. — 18 W. Insolvency.

1. A single creditor is not entitled to make the assets of an insolvent debtor solely liable for his debt.—2 Hay 606.

2. A decree, and an Order nisi, in an action for account with the receiver or receivers of the estate of an deceased debtor, are personal, and not assignable to the sureties for the payment of the debt to the receiver, and are not chargeable with interest:—2 W. R. 222.

3. To an action brought, prosecuted, or defended by the Official Assignee, it cannot be objected that such action was brought, prosecuted, or defended without leave first obtained from the Court. Should, however, the Official Assignee bring, prosecute, or defend any such action without such leave, he will do so at his own risk in regard to the matter of costs.—2 Hyde 150.

4. The agent of a company or private individual, who procures and receives parcels for transmission by his employers, or who by his personal exertions obtains passengers for their dawk, although he may be entrusted with the receipt or price of carriage, and is paid by commission, is not a broker or trader within the meaning of the Insolvent Act.—2 Hyde 177.

5. The amending of the first contemplated by the proviso of s. 111 of the Insolvency Act of 1869 applies only to cases in which the original judgment has been the result of mistake of fact, misapprehension, or fraud.—2 Hyde 180.

6. Reckless trading on the part of a debtor is no bar to his discharge at the time of his apprehension, provided he be not possessed of means to satisfy the decree.—4 W. R., Mis., 8.

7. Where money deposited in Court is paid to an insolvent’s creditors instead of to the Official Assignee, the latter’s remedy is a suit for an injunction to restrain the creditors and an application for an order under s. 52 of the Act VIII.—12 W. R. 103.

8. Where a widow was administering her husband’s estate, she was entitled to recover certain movables property appropriated by her son, who pleaded that it was fraudulently kept out of his husband’s estate, that the latter possessed of the property in dispute, no third party can set up a claim, the right of ownership being vested in the plaintiff notwithstanding the alleged fraud.—12 W. R. 136.

9. Where the parties omitted to have the evidence recorded as required by s. 72 of the Insolvent Act (11 Vict. c. 21) or at the time of the pension to the Official Assignee, the latter’s remedy is a suit for an injunction to restrain the creditors and an application for an order under s. 29 of the Act VIII.—12 W. R. 103.

10. If a suit is brought, prosecuted, or defended by the Official Assignee, it cannot be objected that such action was brought, prosecuted, or defended without leave first obtained from the Court. Should, however, the Official Assignee bring, prosecute, or defend any such action without such leave, he will do so at his own risk in regard to the matter of costs.—2 Hyde 150.

11. A suit for the recovery of the proceeds of an attachment may be brought by a person having an interest in the proceeds of the attachment.—2 W. R. 282.

12. A suit for the recovery of the proceeds of an attachment may be brought by a person having an interest in the proceeds of the attachment.—2 W. R. 282.

13. The question of the adequacy of the security tendered by an insolvent that he is entirely for the Lower Court to determine.—12 W. R. 267.

14. An authority (assuming it to be sufficient) given by the Official Assignee to settle the outstanding of one who has signed a petition of—does not enure after the dismissal of the petition, and cannot entitle the person so authorised to sue at all.—17 W. R. 85.

15. The mere fact that a payment was made to a person at a time when his petition was upon the file of the insolvent Court, which petition was afterwards dismissed, does not invalidate the payment.—12 W. R. 185.

16. Except under very special circumstances, a Judge ought not to make an order for the discharge of an insolvent under s. 275 Act VIII.—21 W. R. 185.

17. S. 275 does not apply to the case of — where the whole of the debtor’s property is vested in the Official Assignee.—12 W. R. 282.

107. In making an account of — in the execution of decrees, the balance of the amount — should not be added to the principal so as to produce compounding. — 22 W. R. 625.

108. An application for execution having been refused as barred by lapse of time, the applicant appealed to the High Court which made an order for the amount due, the party with this qualification that, as the decree did not give — the judgment-creditor could not have — Held that if the judgment-creditor was taken at a disadvantage by that order, he could apply for a review, but the order could not be set aside by a miscellaneous appeal after a special application in the same matter. — 22 W. R. 531.

109. The Court refused to allow — at 75 per cent. in a case when defendant's property being about to be sold by plaintiff in execution of decrees for money, he defendant was made to appear to borrow money at that rate, defendant deriving any other benefit than that the money was applied in part payment of the debt, and plaintiff not binding himself to stay execution. — 23 W. R. 49.

110. A Court, in passing judgment according to an award of arbitrators, has no power, under s. 10 Act XXIII of 1861, to decree — which the arbitrators have not awarded. — 23 W. R. 103.

Interpleader Suit.

Where B's goods held in pledge by C are seized by a bailiff, C is entitled to maintain an action against the defendant under s. 73 Act VIII of 1859 but allowed him to file his proofs and then rejected his claim, the — was held entitled to appeal notwithstanding the want of a regular and formal order constituting him a defendant; and the Lower Appellate Court was held competent, under s. 355, to decide the case without remanding it, if the evidence on the record appeared to him sufficient to enable him to pronounce a satisfactory judgment.— 2 Hay 491.

In a suit by a Dur-putneeedar for arrears of rent, a third party alleging himself to be the Se-putneeedar having intervened under s. 77 Act X of 1859, the Court should not go into the question of title but determine which party is in possession of the rent up to the commencement of the suit.— 1 R. J. P. J. 46 (1881) 11.

In a suit for a kubodan an — can appear and be heard under s. 77 Act X of 1859.— 1 R. J. P. J. 47 (1880) 20.

If an — shows conclusively by a final decree of the Civil Court that the right to receive rents has been decided in his favor and against the plaintiff, the Collector cannot give plaintiff a decree notwithstanding he might have been collecting the rents. But if the effect of the decree of the Civil Court be a matter of proof, the Collector should enquire, as directed by s. 77 Act X of 1859, into the fact of previous enjoyment of the rents.— 1 R. J. P. J. 49 (1882) 20.

Under s. 77 the Court should only enquire as to whether the — or the plaintiff has been in receipt of the rents of the disputed share and not go into the question of title, but reserve such question to be determined in a regular suit.— 1 R. J. P. J. 47 (1880) 20.

Even when plaintiff holds a certificate under Act XXVII of 1859.— 13 W. R. 356.

An — cannot be heard in a suit brought by a tenant under cl. 6 s. 23 Act X of 1859 to recover possession of his tenure of which he has been illegally dispossessed by defendant.— 1 R. J. P. J. 49 (1880) 20.

In a suit for rent of 8 annas' share of an estate, where an — claimed 6 annas of the rent, the Judge, in finding in favor of the —, should not have dismissed the whole claim but decided as to the remaining 2 annas.— 1 R. J. P. J. 113 (1865) 1368.

s. 8 Where the Lower Court did not by mistake make an — a defendant under s. 73 Act VIII of 1850, the High Court held that he had no locus standi to appeal against a judgment to which he was no party; but that, should the property in his hand title possession be sought to be made available to satisfy the decree in this suit, he could prefer his claim to it as pointed out by s. 216 and have his rights decided.— 1 Sev. 51.

s. 9. The only ground on which an — can be heard under s. 77 Act X of 1859 is that he or the person through whom he claims has been in the receipt of the rents paid by defendants, and not that he had purchased the land in dispute at a sale in execution of a decree and had become entitled to the rents.— 12 Sev.

s. 10 In a suit for arrears of rent against a tenant, an — claiming to have purchased part of the tenure from the tenant, cannot be made a party to the suit, but the decree should be against the tenant only for the arrear proved to be due from him.— 3 R. J. P. J. 129.

s. 11 An objector who does not claim to be in possession "on his own account or on account of some person other than the defendant," but intervenes as holding a hand title derived from the defendant, is not entitled to be heard under s. 290 Act VIII of 1850.— 10 W. R. Sp. 341.

s. 12 When the right to receive the rent is not disputed, the event upon which s. 77 Act X of 1859 gives a third party the right to intervene, does not arise.— W. R. Sp. (Act X) 72.

s. 13 According to s. 77, when a third party intervenes, the only question is whether the plaintiff or the — is in the actual receipt of the rents.— W. R. Sp. (Act X) 73; 1 W. R. 117, 142.

s. 14 S. 290 Act VIII of 1850 is applicable to the case of a person who, though personally the defendant in the original suit, was legally other than the defendant as regards the particular portion of land in dispute in execution.— W. R. Sp.,Misc., 18.

s. 15 Where an Ameen was appointed to measure and give possession of land in execution of a decree, the one month allowed for preferring a claim under that section must be calculated from the date when the Amean gave over possession and not from the date of his final report.—7b.

16. A party whose application to intervene in a suit has been refused by the decree in that suit.— (P. C.) 8 W. R. 63 (P. C. R. 631). See 14 W. R. 401.

17. The claims of an — under s. 77 Act X need not be gone into if plaintiff's demand is dismissed.—1 W. R. 44.

18. When a defendant in a suit for rent refuses to pay on the ground that a third party claimed the land, the — should be referred to a Civil Court.—1 W. R. 91.

19. Not admissible in a dispute between two purchasers as to right and possession.—1 W. R. 297.

20. In a suit for rent in which the defendant admits tenancy and a third person intervenes, the only question between plaintiff and — is as to actual receipt of rent up to the time of suit.—1 W. R. 289.

21. When defendant admits his liability to pay the amount of rent demanded, the fact that another person as rrobat has executed a kuboolan to a third person for the same land and possession is of no force against an intervenor for an intervention.— 1 W. R. 308 (3 R. J. P. J. 342). See 12 W. R. 81.

22. S. 77 Act X only applies to the case of an — who claims a present right to receive rent supported by a prior actual rent.—7 Act X 66. W. R. (Act X) 56. W. R. (Civil Court's decree, adverse to the rights of plaintiff, does not bar his claim.—1 W. R. 331 (3 R. J. P. J. 347). See 11 W. R. 90.

23. Not admissible in a suit under s. 21 Act X.— R. P. J. 156.

24. In a suit for rent against a rrobat by the under-tenant of an irajar who had been ejected by decree, in which the remittal intervened, neither the irajar nor his tenant were considered as the landlord fide in the receipt and enjoyment of rent under s. 77 Act X.—2 W. R. (Act X) 67.

25. — claiming to be the real tenant should be heard if the defendant does not appear.—4 R. P. J. 461. But see 51 post.

26. In a suit brought by an — under s. 230 Act VIII, the Court should confine itself to the questions arising under the words of the section, instead of dismissing the suit on the ground that the property was not within the time of the original decree out of the jurisdiction.—3 W. R. 4.

27. To entitle a person to come in under s. 230 Act VII by petition, and to have his case tried in like manner as if he had full stamp duty on a regular plaint, he must prove that he was in possession of the land in suit, and was dispossessed by another party alleging the land to form part of land decreed to him.—3 W. R. 201. See also 8 W. R. 30.

28. An — under s. 77 Act X is not entitled to an award in butwara.—3 W. R. (Act X) 11 (4 R. J. P. J. 392).

30. In a suit for a kuboolan, an intervenor under s. 77 Act X can only show receipt of rent, but cannot raise a question of title.—3 W. R. (Act X) 25. See also 8 W. R. 516.

31. If a Deputy Collector decides a case under s. 77 Act X upon the title of the parties, the appeal lies to the Judge, and if the Judge having admitted the appeal, should, under s. 353 Act XI of 1830, decide the whole case upon the proper issue if the evidence is complete.—3 W. R. (Act X) 27 (4 R. J. P. J. 414), 154; 4 W. R. (Act X) 34, 6 W. R. (Act X) 26, 8 W. R. (Act X) 1, 4 W. R. 25, 10 W. R. 67. See also Appeal 117.

32. A decree for possession without actual possession cannot avail — under s. 77 Act X.—8 W. R. (Act X) 152.

33. Effect of non-intervention under s. 106 Act X.—See Under Tenures 5.

34. The right of third parties to intervene is not restricted by Act X until a tenure is put up for sale.—3 W. R. (Act X) 9 W. R. 519.

35. Where — claims a share of attached property, the Court should decide the rights of the debtor and of the — if it does not, there is no decision under s. 248 Act VIII, and the — is not obliged to sue within the year.—1 W. R. 85.

36. An intervention by a minor, and not through his guardian or some friend, is not allowable.—4 W. R. 106.

37. Effect of a decision under s. 77 (as regards finality) where no suit to determine the question of title is instituted within a year.—4 W. R. (Act X) 21.

38. S. 77 Act X does not permit a stranger to intervene; the — must claim for himself, by some title direct or derivative, that which plaintiff is seeking.—4 W. R. (Act X) 29.

39. Third parties may intervene in a suit for rent, otherwise than under s. 77 Act X, when their rights and interests are manifestly put in jeopardy.—4 W. R. (Act X) 30. But see 8 W. R. 87, 497; 9 W. R. 519, 10 W. R. 84. And see 51 post.

40. In a suit for a kuboolan, the decree of a Civil Court adjudging the land to plaintiff cannot extinguish the right of an — (not a party to the decree) under s. 77 Act X.—5 W. R. (Act X) 1.

41. In a suit for rent, the mere failure of an — under s. 77 Act X to establish his claim, does not entitle plaintiff to a decree.—5 W. R. (Act X) 26. See 10 W. R. 97, 13 W. R. 239. But see 30 W. R. 81.

42. A party who may fall under s. 77 to show receipt of rent, may yet have a good right and title to possession, capable of being declared by a suit in a Civil Court.— 5 W. R. (Act X) 66. But see 11 W. R. 331.

43. Before a claim can be investigated under s. 246 Act VIII, it is necessary to ascertain whether the proprietary title claimed by the — arose through a right originating before or after the attachment made by the decree-holder.—5 W. R. (Misc. 451). 10 W. R. 160.

44. In a suit for possession by an auction-purchaser at a sale in execution, an intervenor cannot question the legality of the sale.—6 W. R. 160.

45. The words "the actual receipt and enjoyment of the rent" in the second part of s. 77 cannot mean the actual receipt irrespective of the question of honor fide alled to in the first part of the section.—7 W. R. 86, 8 W. R. 493, 9 W. R. 306, 10 W. R. 67, 11 W. R. 90, 371. See also 10 W. R. 216.

46. Where the Appellate Court confines its decree for possession to the original defendant, but awards costs against an — made co-defendant by the first Court, the latter continues a defendant and can appeal under s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861 and need not come in under s. 230 Act VIII.—8 W. R. 114.

47. Intervention by a farmer in a suit for rent.— 10 W. R. 110.

48. An expired decree (i.e. one not executed within the time allowed by law) declaring plaintiff's title, is no evidence against an — under s. 77 Act X.—10 W. R. 215, (Corrected by F. R.) 23 W. R. 128.

49. S. 77 Act X does not allow an — to set up an allegation of receipt of rent against a recent declaration of title.—10 W. R. 320.

50. A third party who has given a farm of her share of the estate to defendant, cannot appear as an — in a suit for rent.—10 W. R. 331.

51. In a suit for arrears of rent at an enhanced rate, an intervener claiming to be the real tenant has no right to be made a defendant.—(F. R.) 11 W. R. F. R. 23.

52. The application of an — under s. 77 Act X should not be rejected merely because it does not contain the words "that he claimed to receive and enjoy the rent."—11 W. R. 14.

53. Where both parties agree that the questions of the actual receipt of rent by the — shall depend on whether the land is part of his estate, the Lower Appellate Court should decide whether the first Court is right in its finding.—11 W. R. 20.

54. In a suit for rent by a dur-mukgrvusaree, where his right is contested by a third party under s. 77 Act X on the ground that it is extinguished under s. 16 Act VIII of 1865 (B. C.), the issues to be framed would be in the first instance as between the plaintiff and the —.11 W. R. 563.

55. In order to get rid of the effect of a Collector's decision in favor of an — the party entitled must bring a suit to establish his title.—11 W. R. 575.

56. Reading s. 21 Act VI of 1869 (B. C.) and s. 77 Act X further, an — in a suit for measurement is entitled to have his claim determined.—12 R. 322.

57. Where a suit to recover possession is decreed without prejudice to the rights of an —, the —, having been a party to the decree, has no remedy under s. 230 Act VIII.—12 W. R. 475.
DIGEST OF INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

INTERVENOR (continued).

58. Where in a suit for possession and mesne profits an intervenor had her own name substituted in the decree for that of the original defendant, she was held responsible for mesne profits and costs.—12 W. R. 81.

59. Where an intervenor was made a defendant and a decree was passed in favor of plaintiff with costs payable by the original defendants,—Held, that, in the absence of any agreement, a suit for contribution would not lie against the intervenor.—14 W. R. 70.

60. A judge has no jurisdiction to try the same objector's claim under s. 246 Act VIII a second time against the same attachment, or to re-open a question finally decided on the former occasion.—14 W. R. 144.

61. The title of the objector as compared with that of the defendant, is not a ground for adjudication under s. 246.—15 W. R. 311.

62. Where a party complains under s. 230 Act VIII of having been dispossessed in execution of a decree to which he was a party, there are reasonable grounds for thinking that his claim is good, it is the duty of the Court to treat the case as a regular suit between the claimant as plaintiff and the decree-holder as defendant:—15 W. R. 209.

63. Where the application of an intervenor under s. 246 Act VIII is dismissed on default, the order of dismissal is of equal force with a finding on the merits after investigation.—15 W. R. 311.

64. Directly the name of an intervenor has been struck off on the ground that he has no interest in the case, all the evidence he has put in should be removed from the record.—15 W. R. 572.

65. It is not necessary to admit an intervenor in a rent suit under Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) if his interest cannot be injured by a decree thereon.—16 W. R. 132, 23 W. R. 168.

66. When an application is made by a party on the ground that he was in possession and that he has been dispossessed in execution of a decree in a suit in which he was a party, the proper order to be made under s. 230 Act VIII in the first instance is to examine him.—16 W. R. 233.

67. Intervenors are not bound to intervene, because he cannot be affected by any decision passed in a suit brought not against him, but against certain representatives of his ancestor's vendee.—16 W. R. 311.

68. Persons who choose to buy property in another person's name and allow that person the opportunity of dealing with it as his own, cannot be allowed in equity to intervene in a suit brought by such person for the rent of such property.—18 W. R. 526, 24 W. R. 349. See 22 W. R. 440.

69. Where a third party omitted to apply to the Lower Court under s. 230 Act VIII, the High Court was unable to interfere although it thought that the Lower Court should have made some enquiry.—18 W. R. 62.

70. In a suit against a ryot for rent of certain land, where a third party got himself a party under s. 73 Act VIII and as between him and plaintiff an issue was raised whether the property formed part of one mou adolescent another,—Held, that this gave an entirely new scope and character to the suit; and that the remedy of any third party who might have been dispossessed by the proceedings of the other parties lay in a civil suit to recover possession. All issues relating to the suit were struck out of the record and the decree was affirmed against the original defendant simply.—20 W. R. 393. See 22 W. R. 440, 24 W. R. 357.

71. In a suit for rent where a third party intervenes, the Court does not err in law in going into the question of title to decide who has been in the enjoyment of rent.—22 W. R. 440. See also 24 W. R. 101.

72. But the issue to be tried is, who has been in receipt of the rent.—22 W. R. 438.

73. Where a rent-suit was remanded by the Lower Appellate Court for the trial of certain issues, the first Court was held to have done wrong in admitting certain parties to intervene, whose names had not been registered in the servand's sheristan, and who had no right to question in this suit the decree passed against the registered tenants.—24 W. R. 161.

74. An intervenor has no right to be made a defendant, or to introduce into the suit an entirely new issue, e.g. one concerning title between himself and plaintiff; still less is he entitled singly to appeal against the judgment in the case.—24 W. R. 207. See 25 W. R. 29.

75. In a suit for rent, an intervenor who has acquired a share of the property from which the rent is claimed, may, at the discretion of the Court, be made a defendant under s. 73 Act VIII.—24 W. R. 350.

76. When a suit for rent in which an intervenor appeared and the Moonisif raised the question as to who had up to that time been in the actual receipt of rent,—Held, that the suit was wrong in raising the question of title.—24 W. R. 121.

Quere, Is the Moonisif's procedure in this case right, now that s. 77 Act X has been repealed and not re-enacted?—17 W. R. 143.

Where an accused was charged under certain sections of the Penal Code of an offence committed before the Penal Code came into operation, the error or — was held, with reference to s. 4 Act XVII of 1862 and s. 426 Act XXV of 1861, not sufficient to vitiate the conviction so long as the punishment awarded as under the Penal Code did not exceed that which was the legal penalty for the offence before the Penal Code came into operation. — 15 W. R., Cr., 48.

So also where the accused was convicted under s. 49 Act XIV of 1866, instead of under the Penal Code for criminal breach of trust. — 17 W. R., Cr., 60.

13. A conviction under certain repealed sections of the Penal Code was not set aside with reference to s. 426 Act XXV of 1861, where no substantial injury was done to the accused. — 15 W. R., Cr., 48.

14. The proceedings before a Magistrate preliminary to commitment are not impeachable for — because some of the depositions were taken before the accused persons were brought before him. — 17 W. R., Cr., 15.

15. Nor where the original examination into the witnesses was not such an — as to be interfered with in a trivial case, unless it appears probable that a fresh investigation would produce a different result. — 17 W. R., Cr., 36.

16. Although no examination of a complainant and not reducing his examination into writing is not such an — as should be interfered with in a trivial case, unless it appears probable that a fresh investigation would produce a different result. — 17 W. R., Cr., 36.

17. Although a decree-holder, seeking to have a 4-anna share attached and sold, made his application in a general way including the entire mortah, the — was held not material, it being clear that what was intended to be sold and was so understood by the objector, was the right, title, and interest of the judgment-debtor. — 18 W. R., 106.

18. A prisoner originally charged with an offence under one section and acquitted of that charge, was committed, on the day following that on which she was acquitted, for trial under another section without any witnesses being examined on the second charge, and without having any opportunity of cross-examining the witnesses on the first charge with respect to the second charge. Held that the — was not one which was covered by s. 283 Act X of 1872, and that the prisoner had been prejudiced thereby in her defence. — 22 W. R., Cr., 14.

19. The rule in s. 283 Act X of 1872 as to — is intended to extend to all proceedings before Magistrates. — 22 W. R., Cr., 81.

20. The maxim omnia presumuntur rite donea, cannot apply where it is plain that the greatest possible irregularities have occurred. — 23 W. R., 367.

21. The omission to comply with prescribed formalities before issuing the summons will not vitiate the proceedings after summons so as to enable a complainant to re-open the case. — 23 W. R., Cr., 63.

22. A suit was brought under s. 15 Act XIV of 1859 for possession of bhoomidhar land, but defendant contesting plaintiff's right, the Moonisf had the suit numbered as a regular suit, taking adequate stamps from the plaintiff. The disputed land was then decreed in favor of plaintiff as lalheraj, and the decree was upheld in appeal. Held that the regular procedure for the Moonisf would have been to require plaintiff to file an entirely fresh suit upon the proper stamp; but that the — objected to did not affect the decision upon the merits according to s. 390 Act VIII. — 21 W. R., 167.

Joiner of Causes of Action.

1. There is no impropriety in a plaintiff claiming in one suit to recover possession of two distinct portions of a property from which he has been dispossessed at different periods and under different circumstances. -1 Hay 522.

2. Work and labor, goods sold, and debts, may be combined in one cause of action on one homogenous account. -W. R. Sp. 68.

3. Where a village was divided into four separate portions, with four different parties, and they were dispossessed under one and the same summary award which demarcated the village as pertaining to defendant’s estate, the four parties were held to have a common cause of action, and could sue jointly under s. 8 Act VIII.—2 W. R. 219.

4. There is no misjoinder of causes of action in a suit for money contracted to be paid, and for the cancellation of a kist[bundee and for money deposited on account of that kist[bundee.---8 W. R. 127.

5. Combined causes of action may be brought in the Court which has jurisdiction to the full extent of such combined causes of action.---7b. See also 7, 8, 16 post.

6. The claims of parties setting up different leases from A. may be joined in one suit brought by the purchaser of the estate from A. to set aside their leases and to recover profits misappropriated by them.---4 W. R. 109.

7. A Sudder Amenc may join two causes of action, one of which is for possession of a kist[bundee the value of which is within the corpus of the Moosami, and the other for mesne profits, provided the value of the whole suit is within the jurisdiction of the Sudder Amenc.---6 W. R. 138, 297. See also 5 ante and 8 post.

8. The words "cognizable by the same Court." in s. 8, Act VIII refer to the nature of the suit and not its value. Thus a Principal Sudder Amenc has jurisdiction to try a suit for land and mesne profits, the value of the combined suit being within the limits of his jurisdiction, though the value of the suit for the land was below the value cognizable by him.---(F. B.) 7 W. R. 174.

9. A claim for a hoondee may be joined in one suit with a claim for the return of money paid in excess of rent due.---7 W. R. 409.

10. ss. 8, 9 Act VIII allows --- in the same suit by and against the same parties; but there is no clause which covers different causes of action stated in the same suit against parties where each of those parties has a distinct and separate interest.---(F. B.) 8 W. R. 15. See also 8 W. R. 164; 9 W. R. 220, 522; 10 W. R. 273, 297; 12 W. R. 11, 478; 13 W. R. 429; 15 W. R. 48; 18 W. R. 288, 464; 20 W. R. 147; 21 W. R. 206; 23 W. R. 389, 400; 25 W. R. 60.

11. The High Court in appeal declined to disjoin a suit on the ground of mis--- where the suit had been fully tried below.---10 W. R. 45. See 11 W. R. 397.

12. Where the First Court tries a case as a whole, notwithstanding that it finds the causes of action to be several and distinct against several defendants, the Lower Appellate Court ought to try the case as made up of separate suits.---10 W. R. 187. See 11 W. R. 397; 14 W. R. 381.

13. A suit to recover the amount of the hoondees, in which four persons were made defendants, viz. the drawer, the acceptor, the indorsor, and the drawer's principal, was held to be a combination of four suits in one.---10 W. R. 263.

14. There is a misjoinder when a plaint contains separate causes of action on the part of distinct plaintiffs, though but one prayer.---10 W. R. 270.

15. It was urged that the Judge had, under s. 9 Act VIII, a discretion to divide the case into two separate cases, but did not exercise that discretion properly in dismissing the case altogether.--- Held that the Judge should have been called to exercise the discretion.---11 W. R. 367.

16. A suit to recover possession of a house as well as the rent due thereon was held to be no mis--- but warranted by s. 8 Act VIII.---11 W. R. 542.

17. The provision of s. 9 Act VIII. under which a Court has the discretion to order separate trials of different causes of action, applies only to causes of action mentioned in s. 8, i.e. by and against the same parties.---12 W. R. 70.

18. Was allowed in respect of three several and distinct items, one on a general adjustment of accounts, another on account of deposit, and the third on account of a deed, as in no way affecting the jurisdiction of appeal.---12 W. R. 529.

19. The omission to join causes under s. 8, Act VIII is no ground for the infraction of the penalty prescribed by s. 7.---13 W. R. 196.

20. Though there is not in Act X any express provisions to the same effect as s. 8 Act VIII allowing --- yet on general principles a suit for rent ought not to be dismissed in consequence of its having been so framed as to include the demands of two parties.---13 W. R. 264.

21. The mere claiming of shares of money due under a bond executed in favor of plaintiff and others jointly, under different titles derived from different persons in different ways, cannot affect the unity of the cause of action.---17 W. R. 628.

22. Two causes of action, one by plaintiff as purchaser of arrears of rent, and the other for rent due, were held to be properly joined in one suit, cognizable by the Civil Court, under s. 8 Act VIII, without any such distinction as that of different sides of the Court.---10 W. R. 458.

23. Where the question is whether there was only one, or more than one, cause of action, it is not enough to say that the title of the defendant rested upon different and distinct transactions, and was supported by distinct and separate evidence.---20 W. R. 103.

1. In a suit by two plaintiffs for the value of their personal property plundered, if the cause, time, place, and the parties charged, be the same, the fact that both plaintiffs have not a joint interest in the whole, is insufficient to put them out of Court.---W. R. 86.

2. No person ought under s. 73 Act VIII of 1859 to be added as a plaintiff whose right of action is barred by limitation.---W. R. 162.

3. The dismissal, by the Judge on appeal, of a suit for rent as multifarious because brought against a number of tenants holding separately, was upheld in special appeal, though that plea was not taken in the first Court.---W. R. Sp. (Act X) 86 (2 B. J. P. 371).

4. s. 73 Act VIII is permissive, not imperative.---1 W. R. 228 (3 B. J. P. 281); 15 W. R. 534.

5. There was no improper use of judicial discretion in this case in the Court refusing to join certain persons as defendants after the case had been gone into.---10.

6. The discretion of a Court to add persons as defendants under s. 73 Act VIII will not be interfered with by High Court unless it is manifestly unjust and wrong.---2 W. R. 158, 6 W. R. 109.

7. Where a third party's cause of action is different from that of a plaintiff in a suit, he cannot be made a co-plaintiff.---2 W. R. 280.

8. A Court may, under s. 73 Act VIII, add parties to a suit, or transpose a party from his position as pro forma defendant and place him among the plaintiffs after amendment of plaint under s. 59.---9.

9. A person cannot be made a party to a suit under s. 73 unless he is interested in the subject-matter, or is likely to be affected by the result of the suit. Where an intervenor claimed a portion of the subject-matter of the suit adversely to both plaintiff and defendant, it was held wrong to add him as a party, as his interests would not be affected by the result.---7 W. R. 201. See also 9 W. R. 168; 10 W. R. 283, 284; 11 W. R. 961; 12 W. R. 324; 13 W. R. 78, 79, 362, 443; 14 W. R. 90; 16 W. R. 97; 16 W. R. 19, 191; 19 W. R. 248; 21 W. R. 51. But see 18 W. R. 313.

10. A purchaser of property pandente lite need not be a party to the suit; he purchases with notice and is bound by the title of his vendor.---7 W. R. 225.

11. In a suit between mortgagee and mortgagee, a third person who alleged that the mortgagee was collusive and adverse to his interests, was made a party under s. 73 Act VIII.---7 W. R. 315. See also 11 W. R. 381.

12. A Judge has discretion to add a fresh respondent to the record, he having been a party to the original suit.---8 W. R. 367.

13. Persons not parties in the original suit are not entitled to have themselves added as appellants in the Appellate Court.---9 W. R. 269.

14. When an intervener in a suit to recover rent is made a party at the request of the plaintiff, the latter cannot afterwards, by special appeal, get rid of the effect of his own act.---9 W. R. 338.

15. Where a Hindu widow sues as guardian of her daughter by her first husband, claiming the estate of her son who died after her re-marriage, and then applies to be made a co-plaintiff in her own right, the Lower Court is not, in a suit for possession among the parties to the suit under s. 73 Act VIII. —10 W. R. 34.

16. If a party, whose interests are identical with the plaintiff's (e.g. they are both co-sharers), declines to join as a plaintiff, the Court may at its own discretion make him a defendant under s. 73 Act VIII. —10 W. R. 108. See 11 W. R. 270, 15 W. R. 432.

17. Where a suit by a guardian without a certificate under Act 34 of 1858 was dismissed by the Lower Appellate Court, and the minor on coming of age applied to have his name substituted on the record, the High Court, under s. 73 Act VIII, ordered that his name should be added as plaintiff and the suit be proceeded with, plaintiff to pay costs of defendant.—12 W. R. 102.

18. The placing of an intervenor upon the record as a defendant and the deciding of an issue between him and the other parties to the suit, was declared wholly irregular in a suit for the enforcement of a contract of sale, where the intervenor claimed a preferential title under a subsequent registered conveyance.—13 W. R. 73.

19. There is no more reason why the amendment of a plaint should be allowed under Act X of 1859 than a —— 13 W. R. 126.

20. In a suit for confirmation of possession where an intervenor states that he is in possession, he is rightly made a defendant under s. 73 Act VIII. —13 W. R. 362. See 16 W. R. 235.

22. S. 73 Act VIII is not restricted to suits for title to moveable property only, but applies to moveable property also. —14 W. R. 285.

23. In a suit to recover possession of property held by a Hindoowal, the reversee was held to have been erroneous made a co-defendant and to have no right to appeal from the decision passed against the reversee only. —15 W. R. 6.

24. Parties whose interest in the subject-matter of the suit is, according to their own allegation, of a very remote and contingent character, should not be added as defendants in the cause under s. 73 Act VIII. —15 W. R. 12.

25. A Court was held justified in refusing under s. 73 Act VIII in a corporation a party in a suit which was brought against the agent of that corporation and not against the corporation itself.—15 W. R. 534.

26. An Appellate Court has no authority under s. 73 Act VIII to strike out a respondent's name and in lieu of it to make other parties defendants and then send the case down to the Lower Court for re-trial as against those parties. —16 W. R. 183.

27. A Court must limit its enquiry to the issues necessary for the trial of plaintiff's right to relief, even when an intervenor is made a defendant under s. 73 Act VIII, unless his intervention raises a new issue.—16 W. R. 235. See 19 W. R. 248, 24 W. R. 101, 26 W. R. 29.

28. A party who has been irregularly admitted as an intervenor in a suit for rent before a Moonissif as if it was being tried under Act X of 1859, is not entitled to be treated as if he had been made a party under s. 73 Act VIII. —17 W. R. 176. See 19 W. R. 248.

29. The addition of a party does not affect the merits of a suit according to s. 365 Act VIII; but the addition of a party without the adjournment of the hearing as provided for by s. 78, may be an error or irregularity. —17 W. R. 370 (foot-note).

30. The joinder as co-plaintiffs of two persons claiming to be the re-registered owners of a deceased plaintiff was held to be an irregularity which was waived in this case by the consent of parties. —17 W. R. 475.

31. A suit in which plaintiff alleged that the defendants (including one who had been unacquainted with the Collector's Court) had in combination fraudulently availed themselves of a fabricated jummaalundoo paper as evidence to support certain salekurrung claims, and had thereby deprived him of the full enjoyment of his suit right, was held to be single in its character and not multifarious. —19 W. R. 208.

32. Where two plaintiffs suing jointly to recover khas possession of a specified portion of land, fall to make out their title to that portion or any part thereof, and succeed only in making the title of one of them to an undivided moiety of the whole land, this does not give them or either of them a title to an indefinite decree for such moiety. —20 W. R. 368.

33. A third party who intervenes in a suit for rent stating that he has acquired the rights of the tenants and has paid plaintiff a smaller rent, can be made a defendant under s. 73 Act VIII; the object of making a third party a defendant under such circumstances being that a decision may come to between plaintiff and the right defendant and relief given where it is due.—22 W. R. 385. See 25 W. R. 29.

34. In a suit for arrears of rent, where certain parties intervened alleging that they were co-sharers with plaintiff, — Held that the intervenors could not be made co-plaintiffs against their will unless there was such an equity as to compel them to be such, and that the Lower Court was right in placing them upon the record as defendants. —22 W. R. 229.

35. But where no part of the rent is paid, one co-sharer cannot ask to have a decree for his share only. The whole rent ought to be sued for in one suit, and the persons jointly entitled to receive the rent ought to be the plaintiffs. If the co-sharer desiring to be sued alone as such as others as plaintiffs with their consent, he might claim the whole rent and ask the Court, under s. 73 Act VIII, to make the other co-sharers plaintiffs, which would be a simpler and better plan than making them defendants. —22 W. R. 394.

36. Although difficulty might in some cases arise as to the right of the lessee of one owner to claim a partition with the other owners, yet where that difficulty was removed by plaintiff's lessors having expressly covenanted in their memorandums that he should be entitled to claim partition, the Court was held to have power, under s. 73 Act VIII, to transfer the lessors on the record from the position of defendants to that of plaintiffs.—22 W. R. 437.

37. In a suit to recover possession where defendants alleged that a portion of the land sued for was held by third parties not before the Court, — Held that the Court had no right to insist on these third parties being added as defendants against the plaintiff's will when she wished to abandon, as against the original defendants, her claim to the property in which alone the third parties were interested. —24 W. R. 100.

not forming a portion of settled estates, is cognizable only in the ordinary Civil Courts. Bog. II of 1819 is not the regulation under which Government should proceed in such cases.—1 W. R. 116.

9. To obtain a decree for a — as part of an estate settled with him, of which adverse possession has been obtained by Act IV of 1840, plaintiff must show not only original boundaries but modern possession.—2 W. R. 804.

10. Mere occupancy of a — for a scope of years by a tenant-at-will, can give him no preferential right against his landlord’s lease. Act X of 1859 does not apply to such a case.—2 W. R. (Act X) 19.

11. The mere act of fishing in a tank is no proof of ownership.—5 W. R. 281.

12. Rights of — cannot be claimed in half a flowing river.—5 W. R. 286.

A Right of fishery is not affected by a change in the source wherein the water comes or the course which it takes—6 W. R. 17.

14. Where co-proprietors have a right to fish, one of them cannot sue for trespass for fishing merely because the — by a change in the course of a river, runs over the land allotted to plaintiff under chutwarra, nor can plaintiff in such a suit obtain a share of the fish on the ground that he had a share in the.—6 W. R. 41.

15. The provision in a — that the lessee cannot sue for recovery if he fail to catch fish, is no bar to his claiming a refund of rent if the lessee (and consequently the lessee) is deprived of possession by order of Court.—7 W. R. 405.

16. One sharer of an jumla — is not barred from collecting his separate jumma simply because another sharer prefers a consolidated bhatti jumma.—11 W. R. 374.

17. Plaintiffs sued for possession of certain — lands as belonging to their estates. Plaintiffs and defendants were respectively the proprietors of two adjacent estates which originally formed one taluka in the occupation of the defendant's ancestors, which taluka was severed into two estates at a sale for arrears of revenue. It was found as a fact that defendants were in possession under an Act award, and that they and their ancestors exercised the — and other rights when the land was covered with water. Held that plaintiffs could succeed only by establishing a better title than defendants to the — lands, and by proving that the effect of the revenue sale was to transfer to them, as part of the taluka which belonged to them, any soil which might be recovered from the bhatti.—(P. C.) 11 W. R. 1. See also 1 I. W. R. 566.

18. In a dispute about — between the proprietors of adjoining estates, where the title-deeds do not specify the piece of land or water in question, the title must depend on possession.—12 W. R. 164.

19. The right of fishing in a navigable river does not belong to the public, nor is the Government prohibited by any law from granting to individuals the exclusive right of fishing in such a river.—15 W. R. 212. See 16 W. R., 478.

20. The Lower Appellate Court was held to have been wrong in law in reversing a decree establishing a — right in a river, on the ground that it was possible that the narrow inlet connecting the river with the disputed body of water which occupied what was once its bed, might silt up later in the year.—18 W. R. 460.

21. Parties exercising a right to fish in a — mehal under a lease from part-owners cannot be regarded as trespassers in relation to other parties holding a similar lease from the other co-sharers.—20 W. R. 302.

22. A party owning the right of fishing in a river from the time of the Permanent Settlement, is at liberty to exercise that right in the open channels abandoned by the river up to the time when the channels became finally closed at both ends, i.e. as long as fish can pass to and fro.—21 W. R. 27.

23. Where a jational had exercised rights of fishery over two julkurs for more than 12 years, not as the owner of the jote (with which the julkurs were not connected), but as a tenant under a landlord, — Held that such possession did not confer upon him a right of occupancy based on the river up to the time when the channels became finally closed at both ends, i.e. as long as fish can pass to and fro.—24 W. R. 453.

24. The right to a — by no means involves a right to the soil when the — is either dried or filled up by accumulation of soil.—24 W. R. 200. See also 11 W. R. 272.

25. In a suit by a landlord to recover possession of a — on the allegation that defendants never had any but JULIUS (continued).

The temporary tenancy and that they had retired from the fishery, where defendants in answer set up a reversion right. — Held that the suit should be looked upon as a demand for possession from the defendants, and if it were a notice to give up possession, and that the question to be tried was whether the defendants were entitled to retain possession.

— 24 W. R. 481.

36. A plaintiff is not prevented from bringing a suit to establish his right to a portion of a fishery, because at some previous time he had claimed to collect rent over the whole fishery. — 25 W. R. 481.

Where a box containing money was missed during a halt at Sambhoogunge in the of Tipperah from a boat which was on its way to Chittagong. Held that the journey was not broken by the halt, and that under s. 67 the case should be tried at Chittagong and not at Tipperah.—21 W. R. 45.

481. S. 70 Act X of 1872 contemplates only such order of — as may arise from the trial of a case in one district or sessions division instead of a neighbouring district or sessions division of the same province, and does not apply to cases where the right of appeal is a — to the High Court to show that he had been in any way prejudiced.—21 W. R. 88.

482. The High Court declined under s. 70 Act X of 1872 to interfere with an order in a case under s. 530, in which the objection as to — was not seriously taken in the Court below and in which the petitioner failed in his application to the High Court to show that he had been in any way prejudiced.—22 W. R. 11. See 22 W. R. 333.

483. In determining the limits to be placed upon the — of the Court by the requirement in s. 4.5 Act VIII that the cause of action shall have arisen within the limits of the Court’s — Held that an action may be brought either in the former of the places where the contract was made or in that where the performance was to have taken place; or where no place of performance is prescribed by the agreement or custom by the circumstances of the case, the intention of the parties must be looked to, to be ascertained from their acts and the surrounding facts.—22 W. R. 79.

485. The ordinary rule is that the obligor is bound to seek the obligee and tender the money due at the place where the engagement was entered into, or at the residence of the creditor, and failure to fulfill this obligation is a cause of action.—ib.

486. A paspa application to sue in a Subordinate Judge's Court having been opposed on the ground of over-valuation, was renewed successfully in the Moonstein's Court, where plaintiff obtained a decree for the amount of — raised, and the Additional Judge decided that the suit was of a value beyond the Moonstein's competency to try. Held that as it was at defendant's opposition that the original application was rejected, he was not at liberty at this stage to turn round and object to the — of the Moonstein.—22 W. R. 120.

487. S. 6 Act VIII does not take away — from a Court which has already decided that the irregularity had in no way prejudiced the appellant, the High Court thought it unnecessary to go into the question of valuation with a view to determine in what Court the case ought to have been begun.—22 W. R. 27.

488. A suit will lie under s. 15 Act VIII for a declaration that a nullah, in respect of which criminal proceedings for mischief had been successfully taken against plaintiff's tenant under s. 490 or s. 492 Penal Code, was his own exclusive property and therefore not such a stream as could come under those sections. — 22 W. R. 329.

489. Where a plaintiff desires to obtain a partition of his estate, and where that claim to partition is complicated by a dispute in respect of the amount of that share, he may bring his case for Civil Court to have it heard and decided, and to have the partition itself referred to the Collector as provided by s 5 Reg. XIX of 1814. — 22 W. R. 383.

491. A Partition in a joint estate has no right to bring a suit in the Civil Court to separate from the estate a small portion which he desires to occupy for his own convenience.

R. 457.

195. Under s. 9 Act X of 1868 the Judge has no power to appoint the Collector as manager of the estate of a minor until he is satisfied that the minor has established the title to a certificate under a will or deed, and that there is no relative willing and fit to be entrusted with the charge of the property. — 22 W. R. 490.

496. A suit cannot be brought for the purpose of obtaining a certificate of title (e.g. in the case of awarding damages for breach thereof) which has reference to social and religious customs, and which cannot be enforced by a Civil Court. — 22 W. R. 517.

497. The suit which was given by s. 532 Act X of 1872 is a — which is intended for the purpose of keeping the public peace. — 22 W. R. 548.

498. The Governor-General of India in Council has power to appoint either a High Court bar, a higher than that of the High Courts — viz. that of the Subordinate Judges, in the Moonsiff. — 22 W. R. 54.

499. Where plaintiffs' cause of action consisted in defendant's refusal to pay the price of certain indigo seed supplied to them, which payment ought to have been made at plaintiffs' residence in a certain district, the "cause of action" was held to have arisen within the — of the Subordinate Judge of that district, within the meaning of s. 6 Act VIII, 1872, 22 W. R. 63.

500. Where a decree is ultima ratio, the debtor's remedy is an application by the Court for a warrant to the Court which passed it, or by an application to the High Court to exercise its general powers of supervision under 25 Vic. c. 191 s. 15, 25 W. R. 271. See (P. C.) 26 W. R. 14.

501. A suit for arrears of rent of the description known as paykunar is cognizable by the Moonsiff under Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.). A Small Cause Court has no — to try it.

22 W. R. 504.

502. Where two suits brought by different sharers of one property against the same defendant were tried by the Moonsiff, the objection to the Receiver joining himself was overruled, and the Lower Appellate Court raised the issue whether the suits were brought separately in order to bring them within the Moonsiff's — and concluding that this was the object, reversed the decree. — Held that the Lower Appellate Court ought not to have raised the issue on its own motion, but to have heard the appeals on the merits. — 22 W. R. 408.

503. A suit not only for payment of appears, but for assessment of rent at the rate for which arrears were claimed before, is not cognizable in the Small Cause Court. — 22 W. R. 426.

504. A Magistrate was held to have no — under s. 518 Act X of 1872, to interfere in a case where a tree had been cut down and thrown across a small nullah and thereby the water passage was obstructed. — 23 W. R. Cr. 44.

505. A case of assault, tried by the Assistant Magistrate of Puranah, having been appealed to the Sessions Judge of that district, who ordered an enquiry and found that the assault had been committed in Madhaur and thereupon released the accused, as the Magistrate was already in office, — Held that the Judge had no — under s. 70 Act X of 1872 to make such an order, the accused not having been prejudiced in his defence; and that he ought not to have ordered the enquiry as to the place where the assault was committed, that question having no bearing on the guilt or innocence of the accused under s. 282. — 23 W. R., Cr. 34.

505. A certificate of non-satisfaction under s. 20 Act XI of 1865 having been obtained from the Small Cause Court at Arrah, the decree was transferred to the Moonsiff's Court there, when the judgment-debtor objected that execution was barred by limitation. Held that the Moonsiff's successor in power of the abolished Court of Small Causes (who — had been transferred to the Moonsiff's Court), had — to decide the objection. — 24 W. R. 181.

507. A claim for money not ascertained in s. 6 Act XI of 1865 does not include a case for a declaration that the bond has been satisfied and is ineffectual. A suit of that description, if maintainable, must be brought in the regular Court. — 21 W. R. 190.

508. Where a tenant obtained an decree directing the withdrawal of a distress under s. 95 Act VIII of 1869 (B.C.), and the landlord, by refusing to deliver up the full amount of the distrained property, is guilty of refusing to withdraw the distress within the meaning of s. 98, the tenant's remedy is a suit in the Moonsiff's Court under that section; the Small Cause Court has no — in the matter. — 24 W. R. 222.

509. The Civil Court has — in a suit between joint owners of talocks, who have been occupying and using separate and distinct parts of premises within the estate, where the object is to prevent encroachment by defendants upon the part occupied by plaintiffs, without any division of the Government revenue or alteration of the joint liability to pay that revenue. — 24 W. R. 243.

510. Where a plaintiff, in the first instance, brought his suit before a Moonsiff, and was referred by him to a higher Court (viz. that of the Subordinate Judge), from whose file the District Judge withdrew the case to try it himself, but finding a portion of the claim untenable, referred the plaintiff to the Moonsiff's Court for the trial of the remaider, — Held that the Judge should have decided the remaining issues himself. — 25 W. R. 43.

511. Where a guardian and manager of the property of a minor granted to himself the farming lease of a melior belonging to the minor, a suit by the minor, on attaining majority, for rents collected by such guardian and manager but not accounted for to him, was held not cognizable by the Small Cause Court, as the defendant could not be considered simply as an agent to collect plaintiff's rents, but was bound as a trustee to account to plaintiff for the proceeds of the property. — 25 W. R. 75.

512. Where land of the value of 100l. or upwards was mortgaged on a bond which was not registered, as it ought to have been, under the Registration Act in force at the time, — Held that the bond could only be saved upon as a money-bond; and though the same bond might be brought in a Court within whose — the land was not situated, the Judge would have no right, even with the consent of the parties, to deal with it as a mortgage, or to make any decree affecting the land at all. — 25 W. R. 74.

513. Where execution has been issued by a Sudder Ameen, and, notwithstanding the proceedings were struck off the file, an attachment was still pending. Held that the execution had been abolished by Act XVII of 1869, and that the Judge had no power to take up the case, and issue execution proceedings. — 25 W. R. 105.

514. In a dispute regarding certain land over which the

1. A Judge may give the — — his opinion of the guilt or innocence of the prisoner if he shows them that the decision rests with them — W. R. Cr., 9.

4. Warning in case of substantially consistent evidence, not a misdirection to the — — 1 W. R., Cr., 17.

5. The omission of the Judge to enter into details regarding the identification of stolen property is not a misdirection to the — — 1 W. R., Cr., 22.

6. — not entitled to pronounce as to what was law, or to declare his idea of the crime.— 1 W. R., Cr., 50 (4 R. J. P. J. 124).

7. Verdict of — though against the weight of evidence, cannot be refused by Judge: e.g. where in a trial for robbery the — bring in a verdict of guilty of theft, the Judge cannot refuse to receive it as contrary to the evidence.— 2 W. R., Cr., 13 (4 R. J. P. J. 166).

8. There is no misdirection, in a case of false evidence, in a Judge pointing out to the — the contrast between the evidence for the prosecution and the prisoner’s denial of the charge and refusal to examine the witnesses in attendance, so long as the Judge left it to the — to decide between the opposing statements and to credit whichever they thought most worthy of belief.— 2 W. R., Cr., 60 (4 R. J. P. J. 369).

9. — may ignore the graver charges on which a prisoner is tried and find him guilty of a lesser one on the evidence.— 3 W. R., Cr., 56.

10. It is in the province of a — to weigh the evidence as to its truth or falsity and to judge of the intention.— 3 W. R., Cr., 58.

11. A Judge ought to explain to the — the legal construction to be put on a document relied on by the prosecution.— 3 W. R., Cr., 69.

12. The statement of a prisoner, who afterwards repudiated it as made under compulsion, should not have been submitted to the — as a confession.— 1 W. R., Cr., 7.

14. So where it was held that there was misdirection.— 8 W. R., 68; 16 W. R., Cr., 7; 16 W. R., Cr., 20.

15. A Judge ought to record distinctly whether or not he agrees in the verdict of the — — 7 W. R., Cr., 9.

16. A Judge has no power to control the verdict of the — — 7 W. R., Cr., 22.

17. In charging a — in a case of culpable homicide not amounting to murder, the Judge should call upon the — to state which description of culpable homicide they consider the accused to have committed.— 12 W. R., Cr., 35; 15 W. R., Cr., 18.

18. A Judge, in summing up, is bound to advise the — on questions of fact, and may tell the — the impression which the evidence has made upon his own mind.— 13 W. R., Cr., 81.

19. A Judge ought not to introduce into his direction to the — any question as to recommending the prisoner to mercy, but should leave that entirely to the — — 14 W. R., Cr., 16.

20. The proceedings upon a trial by — in the Mofussil how to be construed.— 14 W. R., Cr., 59.

21. Finding by — how to be returned.— 22.

22. A — appointed under s. 310 Act XXV of 1861 is not legally constituted when the Magistrate appoints only the father of the — — 16 W. R., Cr., 23.

23. The award of the — under the same section long after the time fixed for giving an award is illegal and cannot be upheld by a Magistrate, who should in such a case take up the case himself and decide it.— 16 W. R., Cr., 45.

24. The allowing of an objection to a juror is in the discretion of the Court — 16 W. R., Cr., 90.

25. There is no right of appeal from the decision of a — appealed under s. 310 Act XXV of 1861. — 16 W. R., Cr., 66.

26. It is no misdirection on the part of a Judge in not calling the attention of the — to cl. 2 s. 160 of the Code, when he particularly called attention to cl. 6.— 17 W. R., Cr., 45.

27. Quaere. Whether the accused should have notice of any such law proposed to be then by the High Court under s. 263 Act X. of 1872, when the Sessions Judge, differing from a majority of the — in a verdict of acquittal, referred the case to the High Court under that section to be dealt with as an appeal.—20 W. R., Cr., 54.

28. Where the Sessions Judge, differing from the — in a verdict of acquittal, refers the case to the High Court under s. 263 Act X of 1872, the High Court will not interfere without the clearest proof that the — were mistaken. 19 W. R., Cr., 45, 67; 20 W. R., Cr., 16, 70, 72; 21 W. R., Cr., 4; 24 W. R., Cr., 80.

29. A Sessions Judge may, under s. 263 Act X of 1872, submit to the High Court a case in which he disagrees with the — in their finding of facts as well as when he complains that the — has not followed his directions as to the law.—20 W. R., Cr., 1.

30. In a case referred to the High Court under s. 263, where the Sessions Judge differed from the verdict of the — the right to begin was held to be on the party who called for a conviction.—20 W. R., Cr., 33.

31. A Judge ought not to put questions to any of the — as to his reasons for the verdict he has given.—20 W. R., Cr., 50.

32. In dealing with a reference made by a Sessions Judge under s. 263 Act X of 1872 in consequence of his disagreeing from the verdict of the — the High Court must deal with it as an appeal by the prosecution, and has authority to convict the accused person on the facts and to pass sentence accordingly: s. 267, by which the Court has to decide which view of the facts is correct, being read as qualified by s. 263.—20 W. R., Cr., 70.

33. A Sessions Judge referred to the High Court under s. 263 contemplates only a case in which the Sessions Judge, disagreeing with the — refers the whole case without rendering any order of acquittal or conviction; but not a case where the Sessions Judge has approved of a verdict on some of the charges and after finally acquitting and discharging the accused as to those charges, refers the case as to another charge to the High Court.—20 W. R., Cr., 73.

34. There can be no verdict delivered and no verdict finally recorded until the last of the questions put by the Sessions Judge under s. 263 is answered, and the verdict then given should be entered as the verdict of the — 21 W. R., Cr., 1.

35. The question of proof of previous conviction is one of fact which ought to go to the — and must be determined by a — 21 W. R., Cr., 10.

36. A Magistrate, acting under s. 523 Act X of 1872, should exercise his own independent discretion in selecting the members of the — and the persons so selected by him should not be nominees of the party interested in upholding the Magistrate’s order.—21 W. R., Cr., 43.

Nor the complainant and his witnesses.—22 W. R., Cr., 47.

37. A Magistrate has no power, under s. 523 Act X of 1872, to appoint a fresh — merely because the first — failed to send in their report.—21 W. R., Cr., 54.

38. Where a Magistrate ordered a person either to remove an obstruction to a path leading to a road or to show cause why such order should not be enforced, and subsequently, on the application of the party charged, appointed a — under s. 523 Act X of 1872.—[Held that the question for the — to try was whether the first order of the Magistrate was reasonable and proper, and for that purpose to consider whether there was a bona fide question between the parties as to the right of way over land. — 21 W. R., Cr., 61.

39. A Magistrate who refers a matter as to whether a pathway is a thoroughfare or not or to the consideration of a — under s. 523, is bound to make an order upon the report of the — 22 W. R., Cr., 86.

40. A party who objects to the verdict of the — ought to give some reasonable ground for the opinion either that the — did not in fact apply a judicial discretion to the case, or that the verdict was such as the — could not have arrived at by a proper exercise of their discretion upon the facts before them.—23 W. R., Cr., 15.

41. The words “heads of the charge to the —” in s. 104 Act X of 1872 must be construed reasonably and include such statement on the part of the Sessions Judge as will enable the appellate court to decide whether the evidence has been properly laid before the — or whether there has been any misdirection.—28 W. R., Cr., 82.

42. The law requires a juryman to exercise his own understanding on the case submitted to him, and to decide on evidence.—25 W. R., Cr., 4.

43. Wherever trial by jury exists, the verdict of the — must be accepted and must stand unless it is manifestly and certainly wrong.—25 W. R., Cr., 25.

44. Where, under s. 523 Act X of 1872, a Magistrate receives the report of a —, he is bound to act according to the recommendation of the majority.—25 W. R., Cr., 81.

33. A landlord cannot claim a — from a tenant having no right of occupancy, i.e. mere tenant-at-will. — 4 W. R. (Act X) 46.

34. In a suit for a — at an enhanced rent, a claim to the narrak may be considered to be a claim to the parganna rate, i.e. the rate paid by the same class of ryots for similar land in the neighbourhood. — 4 W. R. (Act X) 47.

35. Suits may be brought under 1, 1 s. 23 Act X against parties other than mere ryots in the ordinary sense of the term. — 4 W. R. (Act X) 19.

36. In a suit for a — at an enhanced rate, where the rents of the adjacent lands have already been adjusted, the enhancement will depend on the rates paid by those lands, assuming that to be of the same kind, and not on any doctrine of proportion. — 5 W. R. (Act X) 57.

37. In a like suit, where the defence is that the tenant is kaimee and not liable to enhancement, the Court will decide the liability before going into that of the rates. — 5 W. R. (Act X) 59.

38. A suit by the mutwalas of a mosque to obtain a — from a khadi or subordinate servant attached to the mosque will not lie under Act X. — 6 W. R. (Act X) 8.

41. A suit for a — will not lie for a right to fish in certain waters. — 6 W. R. (Act X) 101.

42. In a suit for a — at an enhanced rent, where, in spite of the deficiency of the crops, their value has increased owing to additional care and labor expended by the ryot, the Court must determine what the ryot is entitled to as a set-off, and whether the zamindar is not entitled to some portion of the increased value in the shape of enhanced rent. — 6 W. R. (Act X) 103.

43. Where a decree under ss. 22 and 78 Act X for the ejectment of a ryot from the plots of land was executed against only two of the plots, the pottah is not in force as regards the third plot also and the landlord may sue for a — in respect of it. — 7 W. R. 234.

1. In a suit to recover possession of — lands from which the plaintiff alleges he has been illegally dispossessed by defendant, where the defendant denies the order but claims the lands as appertaining to his mad lands, a reference to the Collector, under s. 30 Reg. II of 1819, to report upon the validity of the summons filed by plaintiff, is wholly unnecessary, since the question at issue is not whether the lands are mad or —, but whether plaintiff ever was in possession and ever was ejected by defendant. — 1 Hay 419.

2. A semiadar cannot sue to resume, under s. 30 Reg. II of 1819, — lands held under grants in excess of 100 bighas.
—II, 32. See also W. R. Sp. 132.

3. In a suit to resume — lands, the defendant having founded his case on documentary evidence, cannot establish a case founded on the presumption arising from the fact of his and his predecessors holding the land rent-free before 1790. — 2 Hay 95.

4. A zemindar coming into Court, under s. 10 Reg. XIX of 1793, for possession of weekly lands fraudulently alienated as — after 1790, must first establish that the occupant of the land has paid rent subsequent to that date. — 2 Hay 655.

5. In a suit to recover land from which the plaintiff, claiming to be a lakherjad, has been forcibly evicted by the zemindar, the plaintiff must show a prima faire case of — tenure. — 2 Hay 719 (Marshall 250).

6. A decree for the resumption of land held under a — tenure, before rent can be recovered against a tenant holding under a — tenure. — 2 Hay 663 (Marshall 531).

7. A person wishing to put another in his place, not knowing whether his — tenure originated before or after 280, is not bound to sue under s. 28 Act X of 1850, but may proceed under s. 30 Reg. II of 1819. — R. J. P. J. 162
(Sev. 68).

8. The mere fact of defendant holding certain — lands under weeklys apparently genuine, is sufficient to bar the plaintiff from asserting him without a resumption suit.—

9. In a suit for resumption, the zemindar having failed to prove either that the land was held, as claimed by the defendants, under several grants or titles, or that it was not held by the defendant as de facto — prior to 1st December 1790, — Held that, even assuming that the defendant had failed to show that he had a valid title and that his plea of limitation had failed inasmuch as he did not show that he held possession from before the 1st December 1790, and that the land was therefore liable to resumption, it would be one proved by the plaintiff, now the Government, and not the zemindar, was the party entitled to resume. — Sev. 115.

10. There is nothing in s. 10 Reg. XIX of 1793 which precludes a proprietor of lands (not a quotative of a — mehala) from giving any part of his estate to another on any terms he chooses, even free from the payment of rent.
— Sev. 392.

11. The registry of a tenure in 1802, with specification of its previous acquisition at a remote period, is sufficient proof of its existence as a — holding previous to 1790.
— Sev. 733.

12. Suits for the assessment or resumption of lands alleged to be held on invalid — titles created since 1790 must be brought under s. 28 Act X of 1850: but suits for the resumption of other — tenures on the ground of invalid title, must be brought under s. 30 Reg. II of 1819. — R. J. P. J. 27, 130.

13. A person who has failed under s. 28 Act X of 1850, may still sue to resume under s. 30 Reg. II of 1819, but he exposes himself to be met by a plea of limitation. — 16 Oral evidence in general terms is not sufficient to establish fraud in the conversion of weekly lands of a — into rent-free lands, so as to entitle the present pattrondeh to resume. — W. R. Sp. 137.

15. A — held prior to 1790 cannot be assessed until a declaration is obtained in a resumption suit of plaintiff's titles to resume. — W. R. Sp. 204.

16. Where a zemindar engages to pay a certain amount of revenue on certain — lands on condition of Government stopping resumption proceedings in respect of such lands, he has a right under that engagement to resume and assess invalid — tenures below 100 bighas in extent, where he had been the nature of agreements with Government in previous years; but he cannot resume and assess lands of greater extent than 100 bighas covered by one summons.
— W. R. Sp. 298.

17. Where a plaintiff sues a zemindar to resume and assess — land, he is bound to give some evidence of his title to the land before the Court can be warranted in ordering a suit to assess and enquire. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 119
(3 R. J. P. J. 109).

18. A suit to obtain possession of land held under an — title, is bound by 12 years' limitation, even under cl. 12 s. 1 Act XIV of 1858. — 1 W. R. 20.

19. A — tenure must be first shown to have a real existence before any question of the validity of the — can arise.
— 1 W. R. 320.

20. A suit for assessment against a zot claiming no — holding, will not lie under s. 28 Act X of 1859. — 1 W. R. 360.

21. A grant of land made by a zemindar is void under
s. 10 Reg. XIX of 1793, except when made for a consideration beneficial to the estate (e.g. use by the tenants of the water of a tank dug by the grantee). — (F. R.) 2 W. R. 16 (4 R. J. P. J. 26). But see 27 post.

22. So also the grant of land by the general manager of a Company, for the purpose of digging a tank, although not charged with rent, was held not to be, because the water thus supplied was a sufficient consideration, being in the nature of a rent reserved. — 2 W. R. 245.

23. A claim to — shall not be thrown out merely because the — inadad contains no boundaries.
— 2 W. R. (Act X) 60 (1 R. J. P. J. 154).

24. By a — subsisting tenure is meant one which existed before the 1st December 1790. — 3 W. R. 207.

27. A — grant made by a zemindar of a specific portion of lands, after a permanent settlement of the estate to which it belongs, is valid as against the grantor and his heirs, or a purchaser by private sale of the estate; and such purchaser is not, under s. 10 Reg. XIX of 1793, entitled

28. Where a zemindar having resumed a — holding of plaintiff's ancestor, afterwards causes it to be sold in execution of a decree as the — of his debtor, the judgment in the resumption suit is no evidence of plaintiff's title as

29. The production of a — summons is not necessary to prove that land is held ; the fact may be legally established by long and uninterrupted possession without payment of rent. — 10 W. R. 461.

By oral evidence notwithstanding the failure of documentary proof. — 14 W. R. 108.

30. Reg. XIX of 1793 refers to grants to hold land free of revenue, and not to grants made by a private individual free of rent. — 12 W. R. 251.

31. A party holding under a jutshack grant containing no reservation of rent, is entitled to hold rent-free. —
12 W. R. 256.

32. Where excess land is claimed — plaintiff's remedy lies in a suit for resumption and assessment. — 12 W. R. 459.

33. In order to be released from Government assessment, — land must be shown to have existed as — at the time of the Permanent Settlement; proof of possession for 12 years will not be sufficient. — 13 W. R. 334.

34. A fullbada bkrmatur tenure is not a — tenure, a suit for the resumption of which must precede a suit for enhancement of its rent. — 14 W. R. 241.

35. The mere fact of a reference to Reg. II of 1819 or that the procedure under that Reg. was adopted in part, affords no presumption that the suit was a suit for — held under a grant prior to 1st December 1790. —

Land Dispute.

1. A regular proceeding should be recorded previous to a decree—being adjudicated under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861. The final order should only declare the party whose the Magistrate may find to be in possession, to be entitled to retain possession. To order the Police to give possession is irregular.—W. R. Sp., Cr. 2 (2 R. J. P. J. 37). See 6 W. R., Cr. 61.

2. A Magistrate exceeds his power in restoring possession to a person who has been wrongfully dispossessed. He must refer the matter to the Civil Court and take measures for the preservation of the peace.—W. R. Sp., Cr. 5 (2 R. J. P. J. 111).

3. S. 318 Act XXV of 1861 does not say that the party who can show in a Civil Court a possession prior to the Magistrate’s order, shall be entitled to have the award set aside and to be put in possession, but only that the party out of possession must prove title.—W. R. Sp. 295 (L. R. 79), 7 W. R. 212.

4. A tenant dispossessed by order of a Magistrate under s. 318 is not bound to sue for the reversal of that order in order to recover possession.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 51 (2 R. J. P. J. 217).

5. Where there is a dispute as to the actual possession of land, not between two co-proprietors, but between rival ryots, the Magistrate, instead of attaching the whole estate under s. 319, should settle the dispute as between the ryots.—W. R. Sp., Cr. 28 (2 R. J. P. J. 279).

6. A Criminal Court has no jurisdiction to enquire into and ascertain titles to property but ought to confine itself to the question of possession.—P.C. 3 W. R., P. C. 45 (P. C. 322). See 6 W. R., Cr. 61; 7 W. R., Cr. 12; 16 W. R. 240; 17 W. R., Cr. 3, 69.

7. Where a suit for possession was dismissed on the ground of plaintiff’s incapacity to explain how, in execution of an Act IV of 1840 award for a small portion of the land in dispute, he was ousted from the whole, it was held that the Court should have tried the question of the hereditary nature of the tenure pleaded by the defendant, as well as the fact of possession and subsequent dispossession alleged by the plaintiff.—1 W. R. 32.

8. Under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861, a Magistrate is bound to enquire into fact of possession only, and to decide accordingly.—1 W. R., Cr. 25; 18 W. R., Cr. 4. See 6 W. R., Cr. 60; 7 W. R. 26.

See 27 W. R., Cr., 37.

13. A Magistrate may direct a Deputy Magistrate vested with the full powers of a Magistrate, to pass orders in a case of —— directed by him under s. 318; but he cannot withdraw the case from the file of the Deputy Magistrate, and instituting a fresh case, dispose of it himself.

—3 W. R., Cr., 53.

15. In the case of — — the Magistrate instead of merely binding down the parties to keep the peace, is bound to dispose of the question of possession under s. 318.

—4 W. R., Cr., 12.

16. Commission of a Magistrate to record a proceeding in a case of — — is not a mere informality in procedure, but renders the whole of his proceedings illegal.

21. A Magistrate ought not to interfere, under s. 318, with the execution of a decree of the Court.

If calls in to interfere at all because he is apprehensive of a breach of the peace, he should, under s. 318, maintain in possession the person who has actually been put in possession by a decree of the Civil Court. —6 W. R., Cr., 10.

22. Taking evidence in two distinct cases of — — together, and refusing a full enquiry upon each one of them, was held to be an error in law. —8 W. R., Cr., 63.

23. When the Magistrate, instead of deciding a — under s. 318, may proceed to try whether the accused should not be charged with unlawful assembly. —9 W. R., Cr., 18.

24. There are certain powers in a law which authorize a Magistrate to issue orders directing a party to be kept in peaceful possession of land. The procedure prescribed in s. 318 should be followed. —9 W. R., Cr., 20.

25. It is not necessary that an order issued by a Magistrate under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861, whereby a breach of the peace was prevented, should be supplemented by a proceeding under s. 318—10 W. R., Cr., 1.

26. In investigating a case of — under Chap. XXII Act XXV of 1861, the Magistrate is bound to know that one party was in possession; but these being a charge against both parties of robbing under s. 147 Penal Code, he punished both parties.

—104 Penal Code in maintaining possession — 10 W. R., Cr., 64.

27. Documents filed in a case of — under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861 cannot be accepted as evidence in a suit afterwards brought on the question of title. —11 W. R., 171.

28. When the land is attached under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861, the attachment must remain in effect until a decision has been obtained by a Civil Court in a regular suit. A certificate to collect the debts of the estate under Act XXVII of 1860 gives no right to obtain possession.

—11 W. R., 652.

Nor does such certificate entitle the holder to an order under s. 330 Act X of 1872 declaring him to be in possession.

—26 W. R., Cr., 16.

29. A Magistrate has discretion under s. 320 Act XXV of 1861, whether or not he will interfere in a case: — it is for the complainant to make out a sufficient case for the summary interference of the Magistrate. —11 W. R., Cr., 3.

30. A Magistrate cannot proceed under s. 318 in a case of — arising out of a right of succession to a man and his appurtenances, but should apply to the Judge under Act XIX of 1841 to appoint a curator, or make some order with regard to the property, till the right of succession is determined. The grant of a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860 does not decide the title to such land. —11 W. R., Cr., 23.

31. The interference of the Magistrate under s. 62 Act XXV of 1861 is expressly restricted to immovable property of the kind set forth in chap. XIX—12 W. R., Cr.

See also 15 W. R., Cr., 56.

32. S. 62 Act XXV of 1861 does not apply to cases of — but refers specially to nuisances, etc., in which immediate action is necessary in order to avoid the risk of irreparable consequences. —12 W. R., Cr., 66.

33. The power of a Magistrate to attach disputed land under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861 extends to disputes as to possession of land of which rival squatters are in possession by their rents. —15 W. R., Cr., 85.

34. So also under s. 350 Act X of 1872. —25 W. R., Cr., 18.

35. When both the disputing parties are examined and state that men are collected for the purpose of committing a breach of the peace, the Magistrate is justified, without enquiring who was the aggressor or the aggrieved party, to proceed under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861, and to take whatever steps are in his opinion necessary to prevent a breach of the peace. —15 W. R., Cr., 85.

36. Where a Magistrate, proceeding under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861, decides on the evidence in favor of a party as being in possession of the disputed land, the High Court cannot reconsider the Magistrate’s decision, even if the party in possession is in actual possession. —15 W. R., Cr., 85.

37. A mere local enquiry and statement of facts not on oath are not sufficient data for a Magistrate’s interference under s. 318. —16 W. R., Cr., 13.

See also 25 W. R., Cr.

38. When a Civil Court decree has been passed regarding any disputed land, it is the Magistrate’s duty to maintain that decree, and not to interfere with the execution of it by instituting proceedings under s. 318—12 W. R., Cr., 24.

So also reading s. 530 Act X of 1872 in the place of s. 318 Act XXV of 1861. —24 W. R., Cr., 17.

39. The mere service of a notice upon a Moslem naib who takes no steps whatever to consult his employer or act under her directions, is not such a notice as is contemplated by s. 318 in a case of — —17 W. R., Cr., 9.

40. In a — as to religious property, the Magistrate has no jurisdiction to try the case under s. 318, but must proceed according to s. 26 Reg. V. of 1812 as modified by Reg. V. of 1827. —17 W. R., Cr., 9, 35 p. 18 W. R., Cr., 56.

In like manner the Magistrate has no jurisdiction in such a case under s. 530 Act X of 1872. —25 W. R., Cr., 2.

See also 25 W. R., Cr., 16.

41. What is meant by possession in s. 318 Act XXV of 1861. —18 W. R., Cr., 11.

And in s. 530 Act X of 1872—20 W. R., Cr., 51;

23 W. R., Cr., 46; 24 W. R., Cr., 73.

42. Where a proceeding by a Magistrate under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861 was held sufficient notwithstanding that the order passed by him was adverse to an absent co-owner.

43. In a — the Magistrate having found one party to be in possession, had no power to give the other party found not to be in possession permission to cultivate the disputed land pending the decision of a possessor action he might bring under s. 15 Act XIV of 1869. —18 W. R., Cr., 27.

43. Notice need not be served upon all the co-sharers of an estate which forms the subject of litigation under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861. The only parties entitled to notice are those who are parties in the dispute which is likely to induce a breach of the peace.—21 W. R., Cr. 57.

44. In cases of — under s. 318, it is the duty of the Magistrate, if the parties cannot produce their witnesses, to issue summons for their attendance.—21 W. R., Cr. 64.

45. A party to a suit under s. 318 should be made without any delay.—19 W. R., Cr. 39.

46. In a case of — commenced under the old Criminal Procedure Code, the evidence must be recorded in the notice annexed for s. 284 et seq. Act X of 1872.—20 W. R., Cr. 14.*

47. In a case of — under s. 530 Act X of 1872, the writen report of an Aunee who was deputed to hoist a line in the dispute, instead of making an order under retaining a party in possession until ousted by due course of law.—20 W. R., Cr. 57.

48. An award of a Magistrate under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861 cannot be set aside by a decree of the Civil Court for possession, but is by terms good to remain the party in possession which is passed in the latter. The possession was the one last held by the opposite party has established his right thereto by civil suit.—21 W. R. 79.

49. When a Magistrate found that an order of his predecessor passed two years ago under s. 318 Act XXV of 1861, with regard to possession of certain land, had not been complied with, he enforced the order and changed the possession in accordance with that order. Held that the Magistrate had acted under s. 401 Act X of 1872, to have been without power to make an order which if executed even if it was inconsistent with his predecessor's order, and ought not to have been made because it was a proceeding in the matter unless some actual possession and legal possession by that order, came to pass, which made it certain that possession of the consolidated portions of the land, piece by piece.—21 W. R., Cr. 55.

50. An order under s. 534 Act X of 1872 must be founded on a finding that the person in whose favor it was made was dispossession of immovable property by the use of the criminal force, and must in turn restore such person to the property from which he had been dispossession.—23 W. R., Cr. 54.

51. Where a Dispute is not subject to the proceedings of a Deputy Magistrate who, on succeeding his predecessor who had gone into the case, instead of taking the evidence de novo, deviated the question of possession on the evidence which had been taken by his predecessor.—23 W. R., Cr. 62.

52. Where a Magistrate came to a decision under s. 530 Act X of 1872 that a certain party was in possession and passed an order maintaining him in possession.—Held that, although no particular proceeding was recorded under s. 530, yet the preliminaries therin prescribed had been substantially complied with.—24 W. R., Cr. 16. But see 19 W. R. 74.

53. Where a — exists which is likely to lead to a breach of the peace, s. 530, and not s. 491, Act X of 1872 applies. —24 W. R., Cr. 67.

54. The act of the Civil Court in delivering over possession of immovable land to the tenant under the tenure sold in execution, does not take away the power of a Magistrate to inquire into the question of possession between the parties under s. 530 Act X of 1872.—25 W. R., Cr. 18.

55. Where several parties dispute about the proprietary right in a burial-ground which is in the possession of a manager on behalf of them all jointly, such manager cannot constitute himself a judge of their respective rights; and the case is one which cannot be dealt with under s. 530 or s. 532 Act X of 1872, but only by a Civil Court.—25 W. R., Cr. 24.

56. Where a Magistrate, being in doubt as to which of two persons was rightful owner of some disputed property, attached it in order to prevent a breach of the peace, and released it on their coming to an agreement, but subsequently re-attached it on the appearance of a third claimant, from whose attempt to obtain possession a breach of the peace was apprehended.—Held that the Magistrate could only order a fresh attachment after taking the preliminary steps under s. 530 if he found himself in the position described in s. 531; and that if there was any new dispute, he ought to have proceeded de novo; but that the best course to pursue would be to exert his powers under Chap. XXXVII.—25 W. R., Cr. 68.

Landlord and Tenant.

2. In India the doctrine "once a tenant always a tenant" holds good, and land which is admitted to have been within the estate of a proprietor, can, by no successful fraud or by the omission of a legal obligation on the part of a tenant (e.g., non-payment of rent), convert a tenant's right into a right of ownership.—2 Hay 4.

3. A tenant was authorized by his landlord to pay a certain portion of his rent to a creditor of the landlord. T afterwards obtained a decree against the tenant for the amount of rent he was required by his landlord to pay him. The landlord brought a suit for the entire amount of the arrears. Held that he was entitled to recover only the surplus beyond the amount for which T had obtained a decree, notwithstanding such decree was unsatisfied.—2 Hay 447 (Marshall 365).

4. Contemporaneously with the execution of a pottah, it was verbally agreed that the tenant should supply the zemindar with a certain quantity of rice, and that a deduction in the rent reserved in respect thereof. The zemindar took proceedings against the tenant, under Reg. VIII of 1819, for the recovery of the entire amount of rent, notwithstanding the tenant had supplied the rice and was entitled to deduction. The tenant, without contesting his liability or demanding an investigation as to the amount due, paid the entire amount. Held that this was not an execution from the ryot of a sum in excess of the rent specified in the pottah within the meaning of s. 10 Act X of 1859, and that a suit was not

5. The possession of a tenant by a third party will not relieve the former from liability to pay rent to the landlord, nor disturb the landlord's possession, unless the tenant can claim rent for the period during which he kept the tenant out of possession. — 2 Hay 519 (Marshall 420).

6. If a tenant encroaches, the presumption is that he does so on the part of the land which is also the part of the land which he takes possession of. — Day 524, 591.

7. A landlord is entitled to a decree for arrears of rent notwithstanding that the tenant has sued for abatement. — 1 R. 8. J. 104 (Ser. Title).

8. By permitting B to build a barn on his land, impliedly admits him as a tenant, and can claim rent from him, but not a share of the profit. — W. R. Sp. 165.

9. A tenant who holds over after the expiration of a lease, does so on the same rent and terms as before, until a notice is given him to quit. — Act X. 542; (2 R. J. P. 201). See also 22 W. R. 394, 25 W. R. 284.

10. One who holds and cultivates another's land is that other's tenant, and is bound to pay him a fair rent and give him full account. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 542; (2 R. J. P. 361).

11. Proof of tender by landlord, and of refusal by tenant, of a potthaw, is not necessary or practicable in a suit for determination of rent and a kouboblet thereupon. — Th.

12. A tenant holding over on a lease, allowing a tenant to hold on after expiry of a new arrangement is made, does not entitle the tenant to claim a fresh arrangement with the zeemdar direct. — W. R. 250 (3 R. J. P. 323).

13. A third party, who is not in fact a tenant, and who has no interest in the land, is entitled to have possession of the land as a trespasser. — W. R. 251 (3 R. J. P. 321).

14. To justify a holding over after expiry of a lease, a direct proof in the part of the tenant is requisite; otherwise the tenant will be regarded as a trespasser and liable to damages. — 4 W. R. 24. See 15 W. R. 133.

15. A tenant holding over a number of years on a yearly rent is not a tenant if he may recover possession if ousted without notice to quit, or to have his rent increased. — 5 W. R. (Act X) 17.

16. The mere denial by the landlord of the tenant's right is not a sufficient answer to the tenant's claim to possession as adverse to his landlord. — 6 W. R. 216.

17. The settled law that such denial works a forfeiture of the tenant's right. — 22 W. R. 418, 25 W. R. 117.

18. A landlord who, after the expiration of a lease, continues to receive rent for a fresh period, must be considered to have acquiesced in the tenant continuing to hold upon the same terms as tenant for year to year, and cannot turn out the tenant, or treat him as a trespasser, without giving him a reasonable notice to quit. — W. R. 153, 16 W. R. 155, 25 W. R. 271.

20. A landlord by taking rent from a party and snuffing him for the arrears of his predecessor's rent, acknowledges him as a tenant and cannot eject him or enhance rent, except according to law. — 7 W. R. 250.

21. The mere omission by the tenant to pay his rent does not constitute an adverse possession so as to make limitation applicable. — 7 W. R. 400.

22. A landlord by taking the deposited rent of the plaintiff's purchased lands, admits his status as purchaser from the former ryot; and as this payment was made long before the landlord sued such ryots for enhanced rent, the decree obtained by him in that suit must have been conclusive. — 7 W. R. 460.

23. A landlord's cause of action to recover possession from a tenant or any one claiming under the tenant accrues from the time when he determines the tenure; and there can be no limitation or adverse possession as against the landlord so long as the tenancy continues. — 8 W. R. 55. See also 25 W. R. 519.

24. A tenant holding land for a term and under-letting his interest to B, and the landlord determines the interest of C, the under-lessee, and cannot determine the interest of his under-tenant by surrendering his own term. — 10 W. R. 884.

25. The payment of rent by defendant to a third party, under a deed of assignment from plaintiff's father, does not prove that the relation of — did not exist between plaintiff and defendant. — 10 W. R. 498.

26. When plaintiff and defendant both hold pottahs from the same landlord, but plaintiff's pottah is of later date is for a modesty which includes the land for which plaintiff's landlord does not make him defendant's landlord. — 11 W. R. 128.

27. The landlord is liable for tenant's furniture burnt in a house which catches fire for want of a proper rent to the county which extended the roof. — W. R. 560.

28. An ex parte decree for rent is good evidence of the existence of the relationship of. — 15 W. R. 475.

29. A tenant occupying in pursuance of a contract cannot maintain possession free from payment of rent, because the landlord has lost the paper containing the terms of the contract. — 12 W. R. 520.

30. A tenant's mere statement of willingness to pay rent is not sufficient to constitute the relation of. — 12 W. R. 94.

31. A kouboblet is a matter of agreement. If a ryot has a right of occupancy and insists on that right, he implicity undertakes to give a kouboblet at fair and equitable terms if his landlord requires him to do so. But if the right of occupancy is absent, the ryot can only remain on the land by the permission of the landlord, i.e., on such terms as may be agreed upon between the landlord and himself. — 12 W. R. 117.

32. A tenancy which is to continue year-by-year is a continuing tenancy so long as the parties are satisfied; and though terminable at the option of either party at the end of any year, is not in fact terminated. — 13 W. R. 190.

33. In the case of, the tenant is not liable for damage done to the landlord's premises, unless the premises are used in an unreasonable and improper manner, or for a different purpose from that for which they were let. — 14 W. R., O. J. 45.

34. Thus the tenant of an upper floor was held not liable for damage done to his landlord's goods below by reason of the floor falling in though not unreasonably loaded. — 15 W. R. 571.

35. Where a landlord assigns his right to another, his lessee cannot put an end to the obligation to pay rent, if, after becoming aware of the arrangement, he made no objection. If the assignee dispossesses the lessee, he cannot sue the latter for rent. — 14 W. R. 83.

36. As a general rule, when a person takes land from another and pays rent to him, he cannot deny the title of his landlord; but he is not required to prove or examine, whether the rent paid was to the landlord or to the lessee, unless the landlord has refused to make the lessee, or the tenant, or to his assigns or to his order. — 14 W. R. 467.

37. Where the rents of lands admittedly in possession of D are recoverable under an assignment from the registered tenant C, the suit should proceed against both. — 16 W. R. 107.

38. A landlord may restrain a tenant from building a brick-house on land let for cultivation; but if he allows it, he cannot afterwards say that the tenant has done wrong. Should the tenant determine, the landlord would be the owner of the soil, and the tenant of the house. — 16 W. R. 360.

39. A tenant's being allowed to hold over for a year beyond the term of his lease creates no right of occupancy in favor, and the landlord's cause of ejectment, either at present or after the expiration of the term of the lease. When he is refused the right of re-entry. — 17 W. R. 883. See also 21 W. R. 400.

40. No tenant is entitled, without specific agreement, to change the nature of the land, or make permanent alteration in the state of the landlord's property. The making of excavations for making bricks should be the subject of specific agreement at the same time as when the land is taken for building purposes.—17 W. R. 416. See 28 W. R. 298.

41. The erection of a mud-house by one who holds either as a sub-lessee or trespasser, and dwelling there for more than 2 years, affords no presumption of acquiescence on the part of the proprietor.—18 W. R. 17.

42. A tenant's statement that he has a good title as against a person alleging himself to be the assignee of the original landlord does not constitute a forfeiture of the tenure in favor of the landlord, or warrant the latter in suing for khas possession.—18 W. R. 466.

43. In a suit for rent where the plaintiff sues as adopted son of the deceased landlord, and defendant, being the stepson of the deceased tenant, denies the relationship of the—between them,—Hold that plaintiff's adoption having been declared by a competent Court, the mere fact of an appeal to the Privy Council did not alter the position of the parties, and that the fact of plaintiff not having received rent for many years and having tried to eject defendant did not alter the relationship of ——19 W. R. 18.

44. A landlord suing for ejectment, who admits that the defendant has been his tenant, cannot succeed upon any other ground than that the period of tenancy has elapsed or in some way terminated.—19 W. R. 215. See also 25 W. R. 319.

45. There need not be an express agreement between the parties to pay rent; and where a party occupies land within a demesne as a tenant-at-will on terms of paying rent, a purchaser of the same would have a right after his purchase to treat him as a tenant.—20 W. R. 99.

46. Where A holds under B's tenant, his possession is not adverse to B, and if he continues to hold, the presumption is that he holds as before. If setting up a title to any portion of the land, he obtains a decree against B's alleged tenant, this will give B a cause of action against A.—20 W. R. 398.

47. A lease is bound to pay to the lessor the rents reserved in the lease as long as the relationship of sub-tenant. A tenant denying the landlord's claim must show that the relationship has terminated.—21 W. R. 5.

48. A party in possession and receiving from the occupant of the entire rent, the rent payable to the landlord, has a right to collect rent from the vom as his personal tenant apart from any title to the property.—21 W. R. 153.

49. Where a tenant has not any guevadora right, or any right of occupancy or fixed rent may be determined at any time by reasonable notice. The landlord's right to turn him out does not depend on whether the tenant has executed a kuboobut for a limited term to the landlord's predecessor.—21 W. R. 266.

50. Where a tenant continues to hold land after his term, his potthu will be evidence of the rent at which he is holding over, in the absence of evidence of subsequent alteration of the rent.—22 W. R. 31.

51. Parties in possession make themselves tenants by use and occupation, and may be sued for rent even though not registered by the tenant.—22 W. R. 314.

52. Where tenants hold land by different arrangements, the landlord has no right, without their consent, to break up existing holdings and re-distribute lands so as to alter the extent and nature of the holdings.—22 W. R. 336.

53. A decree which directs that a kuboobut shall be given by a defendant amounts to an adjudication that the relation of sub-tenant between the parties. —22 W. R. 389.

54. Where certain premises were left under an agreement in which the tenant covenanted as follows: "I will make the necessary repairs to the building at my own cost; in event of any repair at a certain rent, amounts to an adjudication that the relation of sub-tenant between the parties. —22 W. R. 388.

55. Where certain premises were let under an agreement in which the tenant covenanted as follows: "I will make the necessary repairs to the building at my own cost; if by reason of any injury to a building, or become broken, I will repair it," hold that the tenant was not liable to restore the buildings if, whilst in good repair, they were blown down or injured by a cyclone; but only when the buildings had become necessary to restore in consequence of his not repairing, and that any loss occasioned by the natural operation of time ought to fall upon the landlord and not upon the tenant.—22 W. R. 124.

56. In the absence of any express agreement to the contrary, a landlord is under the implied obligation to indemnify his tenant against cost or disturbance of possession by his own act, or by the acts of those who claim under him or have a right paramount to his, but not against the wrongful acts of third parties.—23 W. R. 121.

57. A landlord is entitled to eject his tenant after notice, unless deterred by certain rights of the tenant. He is not required to prove the absence of the circumstances which entitled that tenant to retain possession.—23 W. R. 288.

58. Where a putneecedar and his tenant were defendants in a suit brought by the landlord for setting aside the mortgage, and both were by the decree made liable for the mesne profits which the tenant eventually paid out of his own pocket,—Hold that the effect was to cancel all relation of ——between the putneecedar and his tenant, and to give the tenant a right to receive back what he had paid.—23 W. R. 305.

59. A purchaser of land is bound by a contract between his vendor and a tenant, which is secured by the rent of the land remaining in the hands of such tenant; the contract being in the nature of an assignment of rent of the property sold.—24 W. R. 68.

Limitation 141.

Land taken for Public Purposes.
1. Government held liable for rents of land not legally and formally taken possession of by its officers for embankments.—W. R. R. 18 (1 Hay 122, Marshall 56).
2. A farmer being, under s. 39 Act VI of 1857, a person interested in land, is entitled to compensation for—(for a railway as in this case).—1 Hay 157 (Marshall 91).
3. Where land is taken compulsorily, the principle upon which the amount of compensation is divisible amongst the landlord and the holder of several subordinate tenures, is by ascertaining the value of the interest of each holder of a tenue, and to give him a sum equivalent to the purchase-money of each interest.—2 Hay 666 (Marshall 490).

See also 18 W. R. 91.

4. In a suit to recover the proportion of money paid into Court as compensation for—(for a railway as in this case), to which the plaintiff, a sub-tenant, may be entitled, and in which suit the landlord and sub-tenant are defendants, the plaintiff cannot claim an abatement of rent under s. 18 Act X of 1869, since such a claim is cognizable only in a suit instituted under that Act.—7 W. R. 183.

5. In a case of—where, in consequence of counter-claims, the amount of compensation is invested by the Collector in Government securities, the successful claimant cannot demand from the other claimants interest over and above the principal and accruing interest in the hands of the Collector, if there was a doubt of the former’s title justifying the latter’s suit.—W. R. Sp. 329 (L. R. 104).

A suit for rent does not lie against Government for—.-3 W. R. 121.

7. A suit by a sub-tenant for his share of compensation paid by Government to the landlord for—, is only cognizable in the Court of Queen’s Bench.—4 W. R. 39.

8. The sub-tenant is entitled to such compensation, although there was no agreement to that effect.—7 W. R. 121.

9. A suit for compensation for—under Act VI of 1857 will not lie against a lessee by a lease who did not appear and claim compensation before the arbitrators.—W. R. 327.

10. A seminar receiving rent in full is not entitled to share in compensation given to a puttee for loss of—.-10 W. R. 12.

11. In a case of—, the party in possession at the time is prima facie entitled to the money paid for it until some one establishes a prior claim.—10 W. R. 48.

12. The principle of compensation for—applicable to the case of several putnees or intermediate tenants.—10 W. R. 391.

Or to the case of a single putnee.—20 W. R. 370.

13. The party prima facie entitled to compensation for—^is the proprietor. Any party claiming the same against the proprietor by virtue of a right created by the latter, is bound to prove the right he pleads.—12 W. R. 270.

14. Where, in a suit for the compensation deposited in the Collectorate on account of—under Act VI of 1857, plaintiff’s calculation secures to the seminar a more favorable result than the latter contends for, the suit may be decreed without determining the principle on which compensation should be allowed.—12 W. R. 340.

15. An appeal does lie under s. 30 Act X of 1870 whenever there is a difference of opinion between the Judge and the Assessors whether the Assessors agree with each other or not.—17 W. R. 221.

16. In such cases under Act X, the evidence should be recorded by the Judge according to s. 172 Act XVII.—18.

17. The seminar is entitled to a share of compensation for ghatwale—by a railway company.—18 W. R. 91.

18. One of several claimants to money deposited with the Collector for—meets his opponents and the Collector. On a written statement from the Collector, a decree was made against all the defendants, and the Collector was adjudged entitled to his costs. Upon application for execution, a correspondence passed between the Subordinate Judge and the Collector, resulting in a former directing the Collector to pay plaintiff only so much as remained after payment of other claims. Held that no appeal lay to the Judge from the order of the Subordinate Judge, and that the proper course would have been a suit, not against the Collector, but against those who opposed plaintiff’s claim.—18 W. R. 108.

19. Where a decree provides for the execution of a conveyance of land, but not for the payment of money, and a portion of the land is taken away by Government for railway purposes subsequently to decree, the decree-holder must bring a separate suit to recover compensation-money.—18 W. R. 189.

20. Where the compensation-money for putnee—is in deposit with the Collector without specification of shares, the putnee’s cause of action against the seminar arises when the former seeks to obtain his share and is prevented by the seminar not joining him.—20 W. R. 256.

21. In proceedings under Act X of 1870, the order of distribution contemplated by s. 39 is not a final order on adjudication of the rights of the parties to the property for which compensation has been assessed and awarded, but the question determined may, under the proviso in s. 40, be re-heard in a regular suit.—22 W. R. 38.

22. An appeal was held to lie to the High Court from an award of the Judge appointed under Act X of 1870 for the town of Calcutta where the amount of compensation awarded was below 5000s., s. 35 of that Act as well as s. 2 Act I of 1868 notwithstanding.—22 W. R. 186. See also 23 W. R. 260.

23. In determining the compensation to be allowed for—, how the Court distinguished between occupied and unoccupied land.—22 W. R. 296.

24. Where a Judge appointed under Act X of 1870 and one of the Assessors differed as to the amount of compensation to be awarded, but the difference was so slight that the Judge waived his doubts and did not express a dissentient opinion, Held that there was no difference of opinion as entitled the party claiming compensation to an appeal.—22 W. R. 305.

25. Where compensation was offered for certain—on the banks of the Hooghly, so much for the portion above high-water mark, and so much for the portion below the Judge appointed under Act X of 1870 and the Assessors.

ought to have determined what was a proper compensation for each description of land instead of applying the whole compensation to the land above high-water mark and allowing none for the other.—23 W. R. 290.

The duty of the Judge under the Act being to determine the money value of ascertained interests, and not to try questions of title.—28 W. R. 75.

30. In a suit for compensation for ghatwalee (for the construction of a railway).—Hold that the seminars were not entitled to compensation as they had sustained no loss but would continue to receive from Government, under s. 4 Reg. XXIX of 1814, the same profits as they had been hitherto enjoying; that the representatives of a deceased under-tenant were not entitled to compensation as the deceased had not during his lifetime any valid title to any portion of the lands taken but was in possession by the mere sufferance of the ghatwal; and that the ghatwalee, not being absolute owner, was entitled only to the interest of the compensation-money which he was bound to keep intact as a part of the ghatwalee property.—23 W. R. 876.

31. An award under the Land Acquisition Act cannot be affected by a suit to recover from the party to whom compensation has been awarded and to have plaintiff’s title declared to the land claimed.—25 W. R. 193.

Lease.

2. By putneeckars afterwards defaulting.—W. R. F. B. 10, (1 Hay 75).
5. Where a — provides that, in case of a default in the payment of rent, the lessor should have the power of re-entry without expressly mentioning the mode of effecting it, the lessor must proceed according to s. 22 Act X of 1859.—1 Hay 673.
6. If no term is mentioned in a —, the must not be considered one in perpetuity, but either an annual tenancy or one for the life of the tenant according to the terms of the —.—2 Hay 4.
7. A — purporting to be for a term of 7 years contained a provision that, if at any time the lessee should make default in payment of rent, the lessor should be at liberty to let the lands to another lessee,—Hold that the introduction of this proviso did not make the — operate as a grant in perpetuity so long as the rent was paid, but merely had the effect of enabling the lessor to determine the — within the term, in case of default by the tenant in paying the rent.—2 Hay 14 (Marshall 260).
8. A — contained the following words, “You shall continue to pay the sum of 51/2 s. 6d., fixed on the whole as ticia jummas of the said mouza every year; and having cleared the village of jungle, and having brought the lands under cultivation, yourself and through others, as usual, enjoy and occupy the same with your sons and grandchildren in succession,” etc.,—Hold that the — conveyed an absolute interest; that the grantee and his heirs were entitled to transfer it; and that a transferee, not an auction-purchaser, was not liable to enhancement of rent.—2 Hay 488 (Marshall 380).
9. A — for a term of years contained a proviso that, if in any year the rent should be three kists in arrears, the lessor might appoint a seacawal, and the lessee would pay his salary; and if, notwithstanding the appointment of such seacawal, the arrears of rent were not paid by the end of the year, the lessor should be at liberty to rescind the —,—Hold that it was a condition precedent to the right of the lessor to rescind the —, that he should have appointed a seacawal.—Marshall 474.
10. Where defendant took under a — from the lessor pending a suit brought against him to determine the —, and was liable under s. 223 Act VIII of 1859 to be turned out under the decree which gave plaintiff the possession of the land,—Hold that plaintiff never became a tenant of defendant and could not sue under Act X of 1859 and urge before the Revenue Court that the Civil Court was wrong in turning plaintiff out of possession in execution of that decree.—1 K. J. P. J. 52.
11. Forfeiture of — under cl. 5 s. 23 Act X of 1859 not to be favored when no damage ensues or where a money compensation is a sufficient remedy. What acts are sufficient to cause forfeiture, and what constitutes a sub-lease.—W. R. Sp. (Act XXI) 81 (2 K. J. P. J. 156).
12. A covenant in a — for years to grant a new — on the expiration of the existing term, under and subject to all covenants as in the former — contained, is satisfied if such new — contain the like covenants as the former — except the covenant for renewal.—2 Hyde 217.

17. There is no restriction upon zamindars in respect of their powers to grant pottahas and leases on any terms they please.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 180.

18. No lease is in writing, but the terms of holding are specified in a notification addressed by the lessor to his servants, such an acknowledgment is, as against the lessee, conclusive evidence of the terms of the agreement.—(P. C.) 1 W. R. 134; (P. C. R.) 48 (P. C. R. 19). See also 27 post.

19. Where a— for a fixed term of 7 years containing words to import a continuance of the interest after the death of the grantee, nor any expressions which point to any earlier determination of the interest, the prior saiere meaning is a continuance for seven years, and that the lease did not terminate with the death of the original lessee, but survived during the remainder of the term to the heirs and representatives.—lbr.

20. Where an agreement to grant a— was incomplete and conditional upon an advance within eight days to meet pressing demands, a delay of 19 days was held to be unreasonable and likely to defeat the object of the—.—(P. Legitimacy.

1. The Hindoo law makes no distinction between legitimate children born of mothers of the same caste.—W. R. Sp. 20.

2. According to the Mahomedan law, a child born in wedlock is deemed to be the child of the mother’s husband.—(P. C.) 6 W. R., P. C. 46 (P. C. R. 150).

3. According to the Mahomedan law, the — or legitimation of a child of Mahomedan parents may be presumed from circumstances without proof either of a marriage between the parents or of any formal act of legitimation.—(P. C.) 3 W. R., P. C., 37 (P. C. R. 400). See also 2 W. R. 52, 5 W. R. 4, 15 W. R. 403, (P. C.) 18 W. R. 253, 25 W. R. 444.

4. Under the Mahomedan law the — of a son was held not established where there was no acknowledgment of the son by the alleged father and the other evidence was doubtful.—1 W. R. 303.

5. According to Mahomedan law, the acknowledgment of a father renders a son or daughter a legitimate child, unless it is impossible for the son or daughter to be so.—5 W. R. 132. Ncr 10 W. R. 409, 11 W. R. 426, 12 W. R. 497, 15 W. R. 403, 20 W. R. 104.

The acknowledgment by the father throws on the party denying or disputing it the onus of proving the impossibility.—19 W. R. 250.

6. The acknowledgment of such legitimacy renders the son or daughter legitimate, whether the mother was or was not lawfully married to the father.—10 W. R. 45.

7. Notwithstanding Mahomedan law, a Court of Justice cannot pronounce child to be the legitimate offspring of a particular individual, where such a conclusion would be contrary to the course of nature and impossible.—16 W. R. 261.

8. The legal presumption in favor of a child born in his father’s house of a mother lodging and apparently treated as a wife, who was treated as a legitimate child by his father and whose — was disputed after his father’s death, is a safe and proper one to be made, and the opposite case ought to be strictly proved.—(P. C.) 17 W. R. 1.

9. Quere. Whether a son of a Scottishman retaining his domicile though resident in India, can, if born out of wedlock, become legitimate per subsequentum matrimonium.—(P. C.) 17 W. R. 35.

10. The acknowledgment of legitimacy under the Mahomedan law should be distinct with respect to each child; and those of the children who have reached years of discretion should come forward and acknowledge their father.—30 W. R. 382.

1. A suit for — (contained in an answer to a suit) in describing the plaintiff, who was a Joomapore tanna, a Telco, whereby the plaintiff had lost his caste, etc., was held to be not maintainable, as it did not appear that the plaintiff had lost his caste or otherwise been disinnamoured, or that the defendant had knowingly misdescribed the plaintiff.—1 Hay 539 (Marshall 284).

2. A letter was written by order of the manager of a firm reflecting upon the character of a professional man, and signed by him, and handed over to a clerk to copy in the ordinary way in the office copy letter book which was open to all the members of the firm. Held that such instructions to copy amounted to publication.—2 Hyde 274.

3. Where the parties litigate, the credit of either is little affected by the use of one or two expressions, more or less strong, in the petitions filed by them in Court, and does not entitle the party so abused to large damages.—2 W. R. 168. See 30 W. R. 60.

4. A party applying to the Judge for the transfer of a copy from the Moonsifh on the ground of hostility between them, is not privileged in charging the Moonifh with other matters.—3 W. R. 198.

5. In a suit to obtain damages for defamation contained in a letter written and sent by defendant to plaintiff, where the only damage alleged was the injury to plaintiff's feelings, it was held (1) that such injury was not in itself a ground for giving damages in a civil action, and (2) that, as the letter was received and read by plaintiff alone, this did not constitute publication.—10 W. R. 184.

6. It is a question for the Court whether the words complained of in an action for — constitute a ground of action, and they must be set out in the plaint. If they are not a — the plaintiff cannot make them one by alleging intention to injure, etc.; nor can he make them libelous by alleging that they are ironical, if they do not appear to the Court to be so.—(O. • Law (Act I of 1845) 1.
Limitation.
1. The day on which the cause of action arises should be included in the period of --- W. R. F. B. 45 (1 Hay 301, Marshall 174).
2. The days on which a former suit respectively commenced and ended should count in deducting from the period of --- the time during which the former suit was pending.

Adverse possession --- against a Hindoo widow which would bar her right of property in the suit, is also a bar to a suit by the reversioner brought after the death of the widow. (F. B.) W. R. F. B. 166, 8 W. R. 256, 11 W. R. 9. See 60, 164 post.

4. Presentation of plaint at Small Cause Court's clerk's office within the period of 60 days after Court hours, owing to difficulty in procuring stamps earlier, was held good. C. C. S. 36.

5. Commencement of --- in suit for damages for breach of contract to cultivate Indigo. 1b, 45.

6. A suit for re-appraisal of lakheraj land under s. 30 Reg. II of 1819 is barred by --- where defendant is shown to have been in possession as lakheria before 1790. 1 Hay 26. See also 2 Hay 33, Sec. 52a, 1 W. R. 218. See contra Sec. 50.

7. No possession, however acquired, from a Hindoo widow, can be adverse to a reversioner until his right to possession accrues, viz. not until after her death; nor does the mere setting up a false and fraudulent title by the widow, and the conveyance under it to a third person absolutely, even with the knowledge of the reversioner, alter that rule. 1 Hay 69 (Marshall 33). See 164 post.

9. The defendant appeared on the point of ---, and the judgment was not appealed. The case was referred to be tried on the merits. The defendant again appeared upon the merits, and being deposed against him, brought a special appeal to the High Court, urging that the suit was bad, and that he could not have appealed upon this ground after the case had been remitted, and that he ought to have appealed when the point was decided. 1 Hay 131 (Marshall 66). (Overruled by F. B.) See 123 post.

10. The operation of the law of --- is not prevented by the circumstance that the plaintiffs have, during the interval, been engaged in suing or litigating against other persons. 1 Hay 303.

11. No wrongful possession under an erroneous order of a Magistrate can constitute such bond flow, possession as will suffice to preclude the law of --- from running against a plaintiff. 1 Hay 306. See 10 W. R. 49.

12. The party in possession is applicable alike to possessory awards under Act IV of 1840 and s. 15 Act XIV of 1829. 12 W. R. 9, 22 W. R. 259.

13. In a suit to recover money on a kistabunche, where the defendant pleaded to certain of the kishtas as barred by --- the time during which a suit by the defendant for the cancelment of the kistabunche was having pending, should be deducted in calculating the period of --- 1 Hay 444.

14. --- was held to apply in a suit to set aside certain deeds affecting the plaintiff's title to property held during his lifetime jointly with his brother, although such suit was brought more than 12 years after his brother's death, his claim is not barred by --- unless the brother has for a period of 12 years been held adversely to her. 1 Hay 475 (Marshall 1097).

15. With reference to ss. 6 and 10 Reg. XIX of 1798, a suit brought under s. 30 Reg. II of 1819 to assess lakheraj lands under 100 bengals in area, in the tenure of the lakheraj tenant cannot be shown to have existed prior to the 1st December 1790. 1 Hay 477.

16. In a suit to set aside an adoption of a son, the period of --- is not to be reckoned from the date of adoption but from the date of the declaration. 1 Hay 497 (Marshall 221).

17. --- is no bar to a suit for the recovery of a share of joint family property, where the plaintiff and defendants, Hindoo, have been living together in communality up to within 12 years of bringing the suit. 1 Hay 518 (Marshall 241).

18. In the case of a running account with items on both sides, --- will not operate as a bar to items beyond the period of --- if there has been a continuous account, and no conduct or conduct subsequent to the making of the account, by the parties to the account, which has led the plaintiff to believe that the account was at an end, or that he has been wronged in the raising of the issue. 1 Hay 669 (Marshall 218).

19. Where --- was applied to a former suit for possession between landlord and tenant, and that decision was not appealed against, the decision was held to be binding on the representatives of the parties to that litigation. 1 Hay 4.

20. Where the plea of --- was not taken by the defendants in the Court of first instance, the Lower Appellate Court was held to have been wrong in raising the issue. 2 Hay 10. See also 1 W. R. 15, 1; 1 W. R. (Act X) 47. But see 11 W. R. 288.

21. In a suit to recover possession of lands, plaintiff, in order to take his case out of the statute of limitations, must prove that he was in possession within 12 years previously to the filing of the plaint. 2 Hay 127. See also 1 W. R. 140, 2 W. R. 89, 6 W. R. 327.

22. --- will not run against a wife in the case of a husband being trustee of valuable property for her benefit. 2 Hay 190 (Marshall 286).

23. A suit to recover lands in the Sounderbunds demarcated during the plaintiff's minority was held barred under cl. 2 s. 13 Reg. III of 1837, the suit not having been filed within 3 months from the date of his attaining majority. 2 Hay 308. See also (P. C.) No W. R. 14.

24. When, after a plaint is returned as not containing the particulars required by an Act of 1829, it is amended by a supplemental plaint filed on the subsequent day, the date of filing the original plaint should, for the purpose of computing, --- be considered the date of its filing; --- the date of the supplemental plaint. 2 Hay 314 (Marshall 336). See also 5 W. R. 207, 6 W. R. 39, 7 W. R. 157, 19 W. R. 47, 23 W. R. 417.

25. Under s. 33 Act X of 1850, a suit against an agent for an account is barred after the expiration of one year from the determination of defendant's agency; but if the agent delivers an account showing himself to be indebted, a new cause of action arises upon the admission by the settlement of account; and if the account delivered be fraudulent, the suit may be brought within one year from the discovery of the fraud. 2 Hay 309 (Marshall 405), 6 W. R. (Act X) 63; 6 W. R. (Act X) 20, 30. See also (as to new cause of action) 5 W. R. (Act X) 21, and see Principal and Agent 10; 20 W. R. 386.

26. Semble that a suit might be maintained upon such account stated, in which the period of --- would be regulated, not by Act X of 1850, but by Act XIX of 1829.

27. B being entitled to the reversionary expectation on the life of estate of A, a Hindu widow, A made a deed of gift of the estate to B, which however was not acted upon, A remaining in possession down to the period of his death. After the death of A, B brought a suit to recover possession of the property. Held that --- commenced to run from the date of A's death, and not from the death of B. 2 Hay 408 (Marshall 547). See 164 post.

28. Where there is proof of the existence of a lakheraj prior to 1790, a seminar wishing to contest the title must sue within 12 years from the date of his possession. Where there is no such proof, no — will apply.—1 R. J. P. J. 126 (Ser. 68).

49. The point to be looked to in adjudicating where — can be successfully pleaded by a lakherajdar against a squatter who does not sue to assess for 12 years, is the validity of the claim, however false, of the plaintiff to the lands, but proof of the existence of the tenancy as rent-free before 1st Dec., 1790. — R. J. P. J. 111.

50. — cannot be allowed to be pleaded for the first time orally at a suit.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 6 (R. J. P. J. 19).

But see 6 W. R. 129.

51. The Lower Appellate Court was held to have been wrong in raising the question of — when such question had not been raised by the defendant.—L. R. 22, 17 W. R. 429.

32. The invariable rule of Court is to deduct in favor of a plaintiff the whole period of his or her minority, and to count from the date when he or she ceases to be a minor. —Ser. 44.

33. — must be specially pleaded before it can be applied, except where it is patent on the plaintiff that — has been exceeded.—Ser. 80; 4 W. R., Misc., 21; 6 W. R. 129; 10 W. R. 69.

34. A suit for resumption of an invalid lakheraj tenure, brought by an auction-purchaser within 12 years after his auction-purchase, is not barred, by —Ser. 80a.

35. A defendant may deny plaintiff’s right and interest in the property in dispute, and yet plead —. —Ser. 219.

36. A reservation, if he chooses to sue for reversal of illegal decrees, the heir in possession, must bring his action within 12 years of the cause of action; but he, or any other person entitled to inherit, may, as heir vested with rights of successional, bring his action within 12 years of the death of the intestate woman or other party in possession, and thus will be entitled, whether such errors in finding any reliable evidence in support of them.—W. R. Sp. 171. —See also 11 W. R. 339. "But see 216 post.

37. The ground of —, if not pleaded by a party, should not be taken by the Court; and if not pleaded at first, must be held to have been waived.—W. R. Sp. 207. — But see 6 W. R. 129.

38. The plea of —, when not taken in the Court below, was not allowed to be urged in special appeal.—W. R. Sp. 212. —See also W. R. Sp. (Act X) 9, 10 W. R., 425, 11 W. R. 32, 12 W. R. 215, 18 W. R. 252, 21 W. R. 298. —But see 6 W. R. 125.

39. The rule that mutual accounts, if they contain some item or items within 12 years, will not be barred by — though the rest of the items be beyond time, is confined to accounts between two parties who show a reciprocity of dealings, i.e., mutual credits and debits.—W. R. Sp. 235. — But see 16 W. R., P. C., 1.

40. How applied in a suit to recover excess rents collected by one of two co-sharing owners who hold their shares separately and collect their rents separately.—19. — But see 16 W. R., P. C., 1.

41. — prescribed by s. 246 Act VIII of 1858 cannot be applied to suits to question orders made before that Act came into operation.—W. R. Sp. 257. —See 3 W. R. 62, 7 W. R. 138.

42. A decision on the plea of — in bar is not necessary where the decision on the merits is clearly and wholly against the plaintiff.—W. R. Sp. 247 (L. R. 96). —See 190 post.

43. In a suit by a daughter to inherit immovable property by setting aside defendant’s adoption by her mother, a Hindoo widow, the cause of action was held to have arisen from the date of the adoption, and the suit governed by 12 years — from that date.—W. R. Sp. 272. —See 11 W. R. 458.

44. A claimant for pre-emption may sue any time before expiry of a year from the date of transfer of possession. A mortgagee’s absolute right to his claim to pre-emption arises from the time the sale becomes absolute.—W. R. Sp. 293 (L. R. 67).

45. The non-receipt of a share of the profits of an estate is no cause of action between shareholders from which — runs.—W. R. Sp. 296 (L. R. 79).

An application of possession for 30 years, in reply to plaintiff's claim to recover possession, raises the plea of — though it may not be raised in so many words. — W. R. Sp. 358 (L. R. 132).

According to s. 20 Act IX of 1859, a suit for possession of confiscated property under title must be brought within one year of attachment or seizure. Proceedings to foreclose are not the suit contemplated by that law. — W. R. Sp. 377 (L. R. 150), 14 W. R. 114.

suit in a suit by the purchaser of a Mahomedan lady's share in her father's property against her brother, for while the property is in the brother's hands, it is in the hands of a trustee and not in adverse possession. — W. R. Sp. 377 (L. R. 161).

Where the time for bringing a suit to resume lakhrajs has run out in the lifetime of a father, the suit to sue is lost by his heir. — W. R. Sp. (Act X) 192 (R. J. P. J. 121).

Claims by Meynoolars to recover arrears of village dues are limited by s. 4 Reg. V of 1827 (Bombay Code) to 12 years. — (P. C.) 5 W. R., P. C. 121 (P. C. R. 84).

The exception contained in cl. 2 s. 27 Reg. V of 1827 is held to apply to a case where the claim was preferred to the authority that was then the supreme power in the State, although a satisfactory and binding decree was not obtained. — (P. C.) 6 W. R., P. C., 38 (P. C. R. 141).

In a suit by the Official Assignee of a deceased insolvent to recover a talook conveyed (several years before his insolvency) by the insolvent, who was sole or chief acting executive in his lahkar, no security for his own debt to his father-in-law, not to any other person in trust for the benefit of any parties who might be entitled to the estate, but to the insolvent's wife who was tenant for life. — Held that, in the absence of any proof of fraud, the widow's continuous and adverse possession for more than 12 years barred the suit. — (P. C.) 4 W. R., P. C. 103 (P. C. R. 278).

The words "other good and sufficient cause" in cl. 3 s. 18 Reg. II of 1803 include insanity whether there has been or is a Commission of Lunacy or the like, or not; and the word "precluded" in the same clause does not mean precluded during the whole term of 12 years or merely at its commencement, but means in effect precluded during any part of it. — (P. C.) 4 W. R., P. C. 117 (P. C. R. 287).

In computing the 12 years' period of — there should not be reckoned any time elapsing when the person for the time being entitled to seek redress was not free from disability. — 1B.

A suit is not barred by — under cl. 4 s. 18 Reg. II of 1802 (Madras Code) if plaintiff proves his claim within the prescribed period to a Court of competent jurisdiction or is prevented from doing so by the irregular proceedings of the Court to which his claim is preferred. — (P. C.) 1 W. R., P. C. 30 (P. C. R. 460).

Subsequently defendants sold their zemindari to a third party reserving to themselves the clays. Ultimately the Commissioner of Revenue declared the clays to be settled with the purchasers (the third party) as appertaining to the zemindari; and defendants being thus unable to give plaintiffs possession were sued for a refund of the consideration-money. Held that defendants were entitled to have called in question the Commissioner's decision, and that their manager's admission of their liability to repay the consideration-money put an end to any claim for damages for the original breach of contract and constituted a fresh cause of action from which — ran. — 15 W. R. 299.

39. As pleaded against a person who, having had possession of a moiety of certain land conveyed under s. 224 Act VIII, obtains an Act XV award whilst another suit is pending and defendant's pleader admits in Court that the only question remaining to be decided is one of costs. — 15 W. R. 307.

40. And as applied against a person who, having had possession given to her under s. 224, took no steps to obtain actual possession. — 23 W. R. 407. See also 24 W. R. 418.

41. Adverse possession cannot be set up, nor — pleaded, as between persons jointly entitled to land and registered as joint proprietor thereof. — 16 W. R. 42.

42. S. 29 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) only applies to suits for arrears of rent, and not to suits involving mixed questions, the — applicable to both which is prescribed by Act XIV of 1850. — 16 W. R. 61, 287; 18 W. R. 8. See also 23 W. R. 132. See 19 W. R. 347.

43. E.g. a suit to recover wadher and bhanee rent. — 21 W. R. 382.

44. A suit under s. 80 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) against a gomasta to obtain accounts after the agency has determined, must be brought within a year from such determination. — 16 W. R. 148, 20 W. R. 386.

45. Under the proviso in that section, which refers to suits for money, where a fraudulent account has been given in by the agent, concealing the fact of the receipt of certain moneys, the zemindar has one year from the discovery of the fraud to bring his suit for such money. — 17 W. R. 398.

46. The — applicable to a suit to void a betwerra by the Collector. — 16 W. R. 271.

47. In the case of a promissory note payable on demand, the parties to which are Hindus, time begins to run from the date of demand. — 17 W. R. 97.

48. The period of — which bars the claim to a settlement does not begin to run so long as the proprietary right of the zemindar is formally recognized by the Revenue authorities (e.g. by temporary settlements) and no permanent settlement is made with any other person. — 17 W. R. 414.

49. Reckons against the revolutioners or heirs heirs of a deceased person only from the death of the widow or the immediate heir of the deceased. — 17 W. R. 327.
LIMITATION (continued).

208. During pendency of a suit (which was finally decided) to establish a right to a fishery, plaintiff sued to recover damages from defendant for obstructing him from fishing; but his suit was dismissed as premature. After final determination of his title, he sued again to recover damages; and the suit was held to be one for mesne profits and governed by the six years' limitation. 17 W. R. 399.

209. After adverse possession of immovable property for more than 12 years, a new period of limitation is run by the mere transfer of rights. 17 W. R. 377.

210. The cause of action to a co-sharer for damages caused by the digging of a tank by a party to whom a pattah was given by plaintiff's co-sharers without plaintiff's consent, was held to accrue when the tank was dug. 17 W. R. 387.

211. Plaintiff brought a suit within the very verge of the period of limitation, but did not obtain a decree as it was held that no fresh order was required in that suit, and that an order passed in a former suit was sufficient for the purpose of that case. Instead of appealing from that decision, he brought the present suit, which was held barred by — his cause of action remaining intact for 17 years after the suit was purchased the rights of B at a sale in execution and obtained symbolical possession; but on attempting to take manual possession, were ejected by defendants. Held that his cause of action arose from the title. 17 W. R. 431.

213. The plea of — was held to fail in a case where it was impossible to distinguish the defendant's possession in his own right from his possession as farmer of the plaintiff. 19 W. R. 34.

214. The "year" within which a suit is to be brought under s. 27 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) should be calculated according to the British Calendar. 18 W. R. 403.

215. The "months" under s. 27 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) were not calculated from the date on which the suit was purchased, but from the date on which the suit was disposed of. 26 W. R. 376.

216. A suit to establish a right to a beneficial interest in the surplus proceeds of debenture land after providing for the worship of the idol, where the parties were sejukas, was held to be, not a suit between co-trustees to the share claimed, but one to which the law of — applied. 19 W. R. 35.

217. Of an estate left by H, his son's widow (R) became the rightful owner of a moiety and his daughter's husband (S) to the remaining one by a deed of gift two annas out of his eight-anna share; and within the period of —, commenced a suit against the executor for the whole of H's estate, but pending the suit, J was substituted as plaintiff under a deed of sale from S to J. Held that a decree for an eight-anna share, R (one of the defendants) appeared against the decree and had it modified against her to a five-anna share. The suit did not appeal and the decree remained against them for eight annas. In another suit B's title to two annas under the deed of gift from S was established against J, who afterwards sold to the Mo the five annas which he had obtained and all his right, title, and interest under the decree. The suit thus got possession of the two-anna share which J ought to have held in trust for B. Held that B's cause of action for the recovery of his two-anna share arose at a period subsequent to the execution of the decree by J, and was within the period of —. (P. C.) 19 W. R. 101. See also 25 W. R. 329, 24 W. R. 418.

217. A suit, not simply one to recover occupancy of land from which plaintiff as tenant has been ejected by the person who is entitled to receive rent for the same, but claiming a right to enjoy possession of the land for a term of years upon the footing of a mortgage transaction, is not governed by — prescribed by s. 27 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), which only applies to transactions between parties between whom the relation of landlord and tenant subsists. 19 W. R. 160.

218. In a suit to establish a right of enhancement of rent of an under-tenure, the holder of which contended that even if the seminaries right had passed to plaintiff by purchase, he had no right, his claim was barred by — and with reference to a compromise under which, at the close of a former litigation, a certain sum had been paid to plaintiff as mesne profits, it was argued that the last item of the rent of the under-tenure, entering into that sum, must have accrued more than 12 years previously. Held that the payment of the sum within the 12 years was evidence of a renunciation of title sufficient to exclude the notion of an adverse possession for more than 12 years. (P. C.) 19 W. R. 171.

219. Where a judgment-debtor who has appealed to the Privy Council obtains a rule nisi from the High Court suspending execution until security is given and the rule is subsequently made absolute, it does not operate against the decree-holder in the matter of time; not running against him until the result of the appeal is known, or the rule otherwise fails to the ground. 19 W. R. 186.

220. Ignorance of the cause of action having accrued does not give a plaintiff a longer time for suing, unless the ignorance has been produced by the fraud of the defendant. 19 W. R. 269.

221. Where parties are living together in commonality and in joint possession of property, no cause of action arises to one of them for the recovery of his share until he is dispossessed by the other, and — runs from the date of such dispossession. 19 W. R. 344.

222. An agreement of the parties to refer the question to arbitration implies an undertaking by defendant to give up possession if the decision be against him; and his refusal to deliver up possession constitutes a continuance of the action very different from any mentioned in s. 27 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.). 20 W. R. 19.

223. Where land situated within a taluk is used by neighboring villages as a grazing common, the pasturing of their cattle, the promptness with which it is transferred to the consent of the talukadar, against whom — cannot run by reason of such use as if he were out of possession. 20 W. R. 285.

224. The object of s. 29 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) is to fix the maximum of time within which suits for arrears of rent at enhanced rates ought to be brought, and not to create a bar to the institution of such suits before the expiration of the year on account of which the arrears are claimed. 20 W. R. 329. See 23 W. R. 184, 25 W. R. 381.

225. S. 27 of the same Act does not apply to a suit for abatement of rent in consequence of plaintiff having been dispossessed of two months included in his lease for which separate rents were fixed. 20 W. R. 347.

226. To what cases the — under s. 246 Act VIII of 1859 is and is not applicable. 20 W. R. 393, 22 W. R. 56.

227. Quere. Whether, upon consent of parties or otherwise, the Court has power to extend the period of — under s. 28 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.). 20 W. R. 306.

228. The — prescribed by s. 27 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) applies only to simple cases of possessory actions against persons entitled to receive rent, and not to suits setting out title and seeking to have rights declared and possessed given in pursuance thereof. 21 W. R. 53, 122; 23 W. R. 490. See also 25 W. R. 217.

229. A suit against an agent for the recovery of money under s. 30 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), though brought within three years after the termination of the agency, was held barred as not brought within a reasonable time from the date of the discovery of the fraud alleged against the agent. 21 W. R. 107.

230. The claim in a suit to recover money due on payment in kind for the use of land by stacking timber on it is of the nature of one for rent and is governed by — applicable to money-claims of that kind. 21 W. R. 124.

231. In a suit for possession of land with mesne profits, proof of payment of a part of the profits is sufficient to prevent the operation of the law of —. 21 W. R. 180.

232. There is no — but that prescribed in s. 30 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) to the bringing of a suit against an agent with regard to seminaries matters (e.g. a talukadar) for the recovery of money or delivery of accounts and papers. 21 W. R. 240.

233. A — of 3 years is applicable to a suit upon a verbal contract. 21 W. R. 247.

234. The — prescribed in s. 20 Act IX of 1859 cannot be construed as implying any saving with respect to persons under disabilities. Act XVI of 1859 notwithstanding. (C. C.) 22 W. R. 818.

235. An objector's claim under s. 246 Act VIII having been disallowed, he brought a regular suit to establish his right and stay the sale, and this being dismissed, he brought a second suit for declaration that the property which was still in his possession was his and was not affected by the sale.—\textit{Hold} that, in calculating — no deduction could be made for the time consumed in the first suit.—22 W. R. 162.

236. In a suit to recover possession of certain villages belonging to a taluk had which had been sold by Government for arrear of rent, where it was alleged that the estate ought not to have been sold as they were not subject to revenue but were Mocassia villages which had been alienated from the sambilance and paid a quit-rent only to the landlord, the second defendant the purchaser and in actual possession pleaded — as a bar, and plaintiff urged that a fresh cause of action arose in consequence of some proceedings of the Government by which they made a new grant of the villages to the second defendant at an increased revenue. \textit{Hold} that such grant would not give a new cause of action and cannot affect the time when the only cause of action arose to plaintiff.—(P. C.) 22 W. R. 187.

237. In a suit for abatement of rent founded on an agreement that, at a certain time, the land should be measured, and if found less than the quantity named in the agreement, there should be an abatement of rent, it having been found that plaintiff never claimed abatement but continued to pay the rent for 6 years, the suit was held barred by — 22 W. R. 275.

238. Payment of molikkaum by \textit{R} on account of land held jointly by \textit{R} and \textit{A}, will save the operation of — against \textit{A}.—22 W. R. 551.

239. Where a plaintiff sued to establish his right to recover certain rents, and after obtaining a decree, brought another suit for arrears of rent, he was held entitled to a decree for the rents of three years only, as there was nothing to prevent his including in the former suit a claim for rent as well as for declaration of right.—23 W. R. 280.

240. In a suit for possession against a mowadur who pleaded — the Judge was held to have been in error in alleging his time as a fresh cause of action, and held under the mowadur lease, the period of possession by the lessee, because the one is not in continuance of the other; the holding of the lessee being quite a different thing from the holding of the lessor.—23 W. R. 331.

241. Where a decree declared plaintiff entitled to get possession of a certain quantity of land on a butwaraar being made, and the decree-holder, after allowing his right to be barred by lapse of time, applied to the Collector and had a butwaraar effected and obtained merely formal possession, such possession was held to give him no fresh cause of action.—24 W. R. 35.

242. A purchaser at a sale of a Government khas malal does not require any peculiar right different from that of any other proprietor; nor does the fact of his purchasing from Government give him 60 years within which to bring a suit for possession or any further time than is allowed to any other purchaser by the ordinary law of — 24 W. R. 64.

243. The Courts of this country have no power to refuse relief on the ground of mere delay (as where plaintiff claimed to have a drain passing through his land closed), where plaintiff establishes a right not affected by — 24 W. R. 97.

244. In a suit for possession, where defendant admits tenancy and there is no finding to the contrary, the Court cannot regard his possession as adverse, and apply the law of — even if plaintiff has not had possession for 12 years.—24 W. R. 112.

245. Where plaintiff made over a Government promissory note to defendant for the purpose of drawing interest, but fraudulently kept it notwithstanding a promise (wherein plaintiff consented) to return it within a given time, which promise had not been fulfilled although repeated demands had been made, plaintiff's cause of action was held to accrue from the date of the note.—24 W. R. 224.

246. The rights and interests of plaintiff's co-sharer having being sold under a decree, the purchaser possessed himself of plaintiff's share as well as of his own. \textit{Hold} in a suit to recover possession that plaintiff was not bound to bring his action within one year from the date of dispossession, but that he had a right to the — of 12 years.—24 W. R. 302.

247. In a suit for resumption of lakheraj land, in which defendants (inter alia) pleaded — alleging that they had been in possession more than 12 years without acknowledging plaintiff as landlord, both the Lower Courts decreed the claim holding that plaintiff's cause of action arose on the date of the resumption decree obtained by him against a third party.—\textit{Hold} that the decision was erroneous in law, as the resumption decree did not give plaintiff a cause of action against the present defendants, and that it was for him to show that his claim was not barred.—24 W. R. 389.

248. Where a plaintiff, who has obtained a decree for possession of immovable property, undergoes the mere ceremony of receiving formal possession on the spot by beat of drum and postng of lamboos (as provided by s. 58 of Act VIII of 1869), and then allows 12 years to elapse without taking any steps to acquire and assert actual possession, he loses the title conferred by the decree.—24 W. R. 418.

249. In ascertaining the amount of a judgment with a view to determining whether execution of the decree is barred by s. 58 of Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), the interest which accrues subsequently to the date of the decree is not to be included.—24 W. R. 442.

250. A joint decree against two defendants for a sum exceeding 5000Rs. cannot be divided so as to fall within the scope of s. 58 of Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.).—25 W. R. 55.

251. A suit, which was one not for reversal of a sale alone, but for declaration of title and recovery of possession by setting aside the decree and the bond upon which it was based, is not barred by the — of one year.—25 W. R. 148.

252. Does not bar a suit brought to establish plaintiff's right to sell mortgaged property in satisfaction of the mortgage debt.—25 W. R. 189.

253. On an application for refund of money deposited as costs, which was alleged to be barred by — \textit{Hold} that as litigation was protracted between the parties for many years, and the question of liability for costs remained unsettled all that time, — would run, not from the date of the original order entitling applicant to refund, but from the date of the conclusion of the proceedings in the final appeal.—25 W. R. 309.

Survey award the full effect of a decree of a Civil Court by taking away from the Courts the power of entertaining any suit for costing the justice of such award after a limited time.—2 W. R. 173.

See Limitation 20.

Survey 8, 9.

Limitation (Act X of 1859).

1. The words “time of passing of the Act” in Act X of 1859, reckoned from the date on which the Act received the Governor-General’s assent, and not from the date on which it came into operation.—(F. B.) W. R. F. B. 126 (1 R. J. P. J. 112; Sec. 86).

2. The suit brought within 3 years from the date of the Act must be taken to mean the date when the Act received the Governor-General’s assent, and not the date on which it came into operation.—2 Hay 510 (Marshall 410).

3. A suit under Act X of 1859 against the surety of an agent is governed by the period prescribed by s. 30 and not s. 33.—1 W. R. 479; No. 2 W. R. 116.

4. The time limited by s. 144 for suing in respect of distrain for rent, is to be reckoned in the case of a suit for a week’s rent after the arrears are abandoned, from the abandonment of the distress, and not merely from the date of the original seizure.—2 Hay 597 (Marshall 470), 3 W. R. (Act X) 189.

5. The words in s. 39 “after the passing of the Act” refer to the date when the Act was passed, and not the date on which it came into operation.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 5; Marshall 637; 2 R. J. P. J. 17. See also W. R. Sp. (Act X) 19.

6. A Puttee sale was after long litigation finally set aside on account of irregularity. Held that the time occupied in that proceeding could not be deducted in reckoning within which an action could be brought for the original arrears.—3 R. J. P. J. 147, (Overruled by Pring Council) 11 W. R. P. C. 5; see 37, 29, 8; 18 W. R. 5, 8.

7. The words in s. 127 “after the passing of the Act” refer to the date when the Act was passed, and not the date on which it came into operation.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 5; Marshall 637; 2 R. J. P. J. 17. See also W. R. Sp. (Act X) 19.

8. Where a seaman discharges the crop of a piece of land, and two different parties each claim to be the tenant of part of it, the claim of one of them is barred by the limitation laid down in s. 140, which only applies to the case of two rival seamen claiming the rent of the same piece of land.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 70.

9. The limitation under s. 32 does not admit of exceptions.—1 W. R. 100 (3 R. J. P. J. 184) of W. R. 142 (3 R. J. P. J. 221).

10. Suits under Act X of 1859 are governed by the rules of limitation therein mentioned.—1 W. R. 319.

11. The limitation under s. 77 is not applicable to a suit for possession of the whole estate brought after a claim against the tenants had been dismissed under that section.—2 W. R. 197.

12. The limitation prescribed by s. 28 applies only to suits brought under that section.—(F. B.) 2 W. R. 205 (4 R. J. P. J. 194).

13. A landlord, after having obtained a decree for enhancement against his tenant, sued him for arrears of rent. Held (with reference to ss. 30 and 32) that the suit might be brought within one year from the date of the final decree fixing the rent in the suit for enhancement, or within three years from the end of the month of Jeot of the Fugly or Willainty year for which such rent is claimed.—2 W. R. (Act X) 91 (4 R. J. P. J. 146). See 100, 100.

14. An arrear of rent is not due within the meaning of s. 32 until the rent itself has been determined.—2 W. R. (Act X) 82.

15. Ss. 77 and 140 do not apply to a suit in a Civil Court for the recovery of possession of land regarding which plaintiffs had unsuccessfully sued before the Collector to establish that it was their own rent-free land.—2 W. R. (Act X) 85.

16. The fixing of the rate of rent in an execution proceeding of the Civil Court will not save.—3 W. R. (Act X) 2.

17. Where a suit is pending to determine the rate of rent, back rent can be sued for only within one year of the determination of the rate.—3 W. R. (Act X) 2.

18. Will not take a fresh start from an action which, though partly declaratory, admitted of a decree for rent.—3 W. R. (Act X) 19 (4 R. J. P. J. 401). See 30 post.

19. How applied in a suit by a tenant brought under s. 24 Act X for money improperly charged in agent’s accounts.—3 W. R. (Act X) 121; 8 W. R. 159.

20. Under s. 92 no process of execution can issue after the lapse of 5 years from the date of judgment for a sum not exceeding 600Rs.—3 W. R. (Act X) 181, 187; 4 W. R. (Act X) 27. See also 15 W. R. 295.

Unless a proper application for execution has been made within 3 years from such date.—6 W. R. (Act X) 84. (affirmed by F. B.) 13 W. R. F. B. 18.

No hold also under s. 28 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.).—29 W. R. 595; 24 W. R. 16.

21. The time allowed to contest a decision under s. 77 is one year from the date of the Collector’s decision and not from that of the Judge in appeal. Although the decision may have been favorable and the Judge’s adverse to the plaintiff.—3 W. R. (Act X) 155. (Overruled by F. B.) See 5 W. R. (Act X) 23.

22. The limitation under s. 77 only lays a suit within the same section, the date of the decision must be excluded.—4 W. R. (Act X) 30. See 16 W. R. O. J. 1.

23. The dismissal of a former suit to contest a notice of enhancement on the ground of protestation as a strickatross holding under a potnah is sufficient to take the present suit for arrears of rent at the enhanced rate out of the operation of the proviso in s. 32—5 W. R. (Act X) 51.

24. Limitation under s. 77 only bars a suit within the competency of Revenue Courts to decide, but not suits on matters of general proprietary title.—6 W. R. (Act X) 85, 87, 92; 7 W. R. 102; 8 W. R. 294; 25 W. R. 65, 481, 560. See also 14 W. R. 454.

25. The mere asylum of an agent on a certain date is not such a determination of the agency as to cause limitation to run from that date, if the agency be one for a fixed period.—6 W. R. (Act X) 29.

26. How applied where a party who had unsuccessfully intervened in a suit for rent suits for possession.—6 W. R. (Act X) 38.

27. How applied under s. 30 in a suit for arrears of rent of a talook which, by a decision of the High Court, was taken out of the class of those protected by s. 51 Reg. VIII of 1735 and declared liable to enhancement.—6 W. R. (Act X) 12.

28. s. 32 does not authorize the recovery of only 3 years’ rent.—6 W. R. (Act X) 61.

29. In a suit for arrears of rent at enhanced rates commenced within one year after the decree of a Civil Court declaring plaintiff’s right to enhance: more than three years after the end of the last year in respect of which any portion of the rent sued for was claimed, the non-payment of the enhanced rent and not the declaratory decree was the cause of action; and the suit is governed by s. 32 and not s. 30.—(F. B.) 6 W. R. (Act X) 77. But see 7 W. R. 405.

30. The limitation of 6 months prescribed by s. 6 Act VI of 1842 (R. C.) applies to deposits made under s. 5 after rents have become due, and does not interfere with the limitation for suits for enhanced rent under s. 32 Act X.—6 W. R. (Act X) 98, 8 W. R. 323.

31. The word “Collector” as used in the proviso of s. 140 Act X, means the Collector or Deputy Collector who makes the final decision from which limitation will begin to run.—6 W. R. (Act X) 105.

32. The limitation prescribed by s. 30 applies only to suits institutad under this Act.—7 W. R. 243.

33. Where defendant failed in a contract to plant 2000 bottle-nut trees within 5 years of date of lease plaintiff’s cause of action is not an annually recurring one, but occurs at the expiration of the 5 years, and he is bound under a 30 day notice for cancelation of lease within one year from that date.—11 W. R. 482.

35. The limitation of 3 years for a suit to recover arrears of rent must, under s. 32, reckon, not from the date of instalments, but from the last day of the year in which the arrear becomes due.—11 W. R. 537. See also 13 W. R. 523.
36. The limitation specified in Act X has reference exclusively to arrears of rent paid and determined under the Act, and not to suits to enforce liabilities arising out of equities as against parties who were not the tenants 37. Suits in a suit for arrears of rent, deduction must be allowed to the landlord for the time he was suing to eject defendants as trespassers.—
38. During the part of the period that is going on under cl. s. 32 and s. 78 Act X for ejectment and arrears of rent, the defendant's tenancy and obligation to pay rent are in suspense; but by payment of rent under the latter section, a continuance of the tenancy is effected, the obligation to pay rent again arises, and the under s. 32 then begins to run.—17 W. R. 413.
39. The right of suit of a claimant under s. 107 is not subject to the year's limitation therein mentioned, unless his claim has been only heard in the manner prescribed by the section.—24 W. R. 260.

Limitation (Act XIV of 1859).

1. A suit to recover personal property (e.g. crop of indigo plant) carried away and appropriated, or for the value of such property, is not a suit for damages for injury to personal property within the meaning of cl. 2 s. 1, but is
2. In a suit for mesne profits, under cl. 16 s. 1,—
(F. B.) W. R. 163 (L. R. 1). See also 6 W. R. 130.
3. A payment of interest upon bond does not take the debt out of the limitation of the Statute.—8 C. C. 46.
4. The limitation of 3 years applies only where the written engagement is not registered within 6 months.—1b.
5. A writing on the back of a bond acknowledging the debt and payment into court, after the limitation of 3 years from the time when the debt became due has elapsed, unless there is a written engagement signed by the party engaging to be bound thereby.—8 C. C. 42 : 4 W. R., 8 C. C. 1.
See 75 note.
6. A suit for balance of money lent with interest does not come under cl. 8, but under cl. 9 s. 1 ; and a payment on account does not keep alive the claim if 3 years from the time when the debt became due have elapsed, unless there is a written engagement signed by the party engaging to be bound thereby.—8 C. C. 26 : 4 W. R., 8 C. C. 1.
See 75 note.
7. The limitation of time runs from the period when the contract was broken and not from the time that knowledge of the breach of contract first came to plaintiff, whether the breach of contract was patent and discoverable, or concealed and undiscoverable. Thus, where a lease cut bears contrary to the provisions of his first lease and the lease was renewed, limitation was held to run from the breach of contract, and not from the lessee's knowledge of it.—9 B. R. 378 (14 S. C. 257).
8. Property being attached under a decree before ACT VIII of 1859, a third party claimed to be entitled as against the judgment-creditor, under a bill of sale. The Judge enqu'd into his claim, found that the assignment was fraudulent and void, and the property sold under the decree.
Hold that the order of the Judge was a summary decision of a Civil Court within cl. 5 s. 1, and that a suit by the claimant for the recovery of the property instituted after the expiration of a year from the date of the order was barred by the clause.—Marshall 530. But see 8 W. R. 21.
9. Cl. 5 s. 1 applies to the grant of a certificate under Act XXVII of 1880, and also to an order passed under Act XIII of 1841 refusing to put a person in possession of property as a tenant.—2 Bay 653 (Marshall 573).
10. Suits pending or instituted in Assam before 1st July 1862 are not affected by Act XIV of 1859.—1 R. J. P. 102
(Serv. 68).
11. The provisions of s. 5 (allowing a deduction for pendency of suit in wrong Court) are not applicable in suit under Act X of 1859.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 18 (2 R. J. P. 85). 2 W. R. (Act X) 96, 5 W. R. (Act X) 44. See also
9 W. R. 570.
12. A suit brought under Reg. II of 1819 was held barred by cl. 14 s. 1.—L. R. 159.
13. Money paid by a co-sharer in excess of his own liability under a joint lease, is money paid for the use of his co-sharer, and not money lent. Cl. 16, and not cl. 9 s. 1, applies to such a case.—L. R. 165.
14. Cl. 14 does not apply to suits to which cl. 30 Act X is applicable.—Serv. 105.
15. Periods computed from the passing of the Act are computed from 5th May 1859, although the Act came into operation at a subsequent date.—Serv. 699.
16. S. 7 applies to a case where plaintiff is one of the parties to a final order in an Act XIV of 1840 case, where he not only did not apply for possession under that order, but denied any and all dispossession.—Serv. 836.
17. The admission to a third party in writing that a sum is due, is not such an acknowledgment of a debt under s.
4, as to remove such debt out of the statute.—Hyde 14.
See contra 3 W. R., 8 C. C. 6, (6 C. C. 141).
18. Cl. 13 s. 1 applies to suits for the recovery of maintenance, whether the right to receive maintenance arises out of the general law, or under a specific deed granting such maintenance.—W. R. Sp. 13. See also
31 W. R. 351.
19. Under Act XIV a suit for mesne profits may be brought within 12 years from the date on which a decree for possession was passed.—W. R. Sp. 79.
20. According to cl. 11 s. 1 a, suit by a dur-patner, who purchased at a sale under Reg. VIII of 1815, to assume an alleged invalid lalunbas tenure, must be brought, not within 12 years from the date of the purchase, but within 12 years from the date when the right to sue accrued unto the person with whom he claims.—W. R. Sp. 170, 21. Where a suit to recover property comprised in an Act IV of 1840 order was originally instituted, through fraudulent under-valuation of claim, in a Sudder Ameen's Court before Act XIV came into force, but the plaint having been returned was subsequently filed in a Presidency Ameen's Court after that Act came into force, the suit was held governed by cl. 7 s. 1.—W. R. Sp. 280 (L. R. 62).
22. No other cause of disqualification, than those menzeci mentioned in Act XIV, can save limitation in this case.
23. The object of s. 11 is merely that no limitation will apply to a case in which the person suing was dis-qualified when the cause of action arose, though the suit might be brought after the ordinary period, provided it is within 3 years after the disqualification ceased.—W. R. Sp. 392.
24. Cl. 2 s. 1 does not apply to a suit for damages for the total and illegal appropriation of property.—
W. R. Sp. 322 (L. R. 98).
25. In a suit for a share in joint family property, the Court should ascertain whether plaintiff has received anything within 12 years or within what time. If he has, or is otherwise shown to have been in joint possession, cl. 13 s. 1 will apply.—W. R. Sp. 340 (L. R. 125); 11 W. R. 73, 182;
15 W. R. 400 ; 17 W. R. 461.
26. That defendants by means of collusion with others obtain possession of the property in dispute originally by unfair means and therefore held it fraudulently is not the kind of fraud provided for by s. 9.—W. R. Sp. 360.
27. How applied under s. 14 where an unsuccessful claimant, after consuming time by bringing an illegal appeal (which is subsequently thrown out) brings a regular suit to establish his right as provided by s. 248 Act VIII of 1859.—W. R. Sp. 371 (L. R. 144).
28. S. 14 is not applicable to suits barred by limitation under Act X of 1856, which are expressly excepted from the operation of Act XIV by s. 9.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 118
(8 R. J. P. 3, 102).
31. Quere. Whether a. 15 applies to a case where a Deputy Collector, acting as agent for a minor, uses his powers of resumption in unlawfully disposing the previous holder.—2 W. R. 240.

32. Rules for disposing of resumption suits before the date on which Act XIV came into operation. In suits instituted after that date, the effect of cl. 14 s. 1 should be taken into consideration.—2 W. R. 258 (4 R. J. P. J. 200).

See also 6 W. R. 58.

33. Cl. 16 s. 1 is applicable to a suit for reimbursement of rateable shares of a joint decree.—2 W. R. 266.

34. Cl. 3 s. 1 did not prevent a reviver from questioning the validity of an execution-sale after the expiry of one year, where the widow was dead.—1 W. R. 115.

35. But it would prevent a reviver from questioning the validity of the sale during the widow's lifetime.—2 W. R. 271. See (5 R. J. P. J. 113).

37. Suits for arrears of rent under Act X of 1830 are not affected by Act XIV of 1859; the time given by s. 32 Act X was not reduced by cl. 8 s. 1 Act XIV; the ground being that, while the two Acts were separate Acts as far as limitation was concerned and that the limitation clause was not unaffected by Act XIV.—(F. R.) 2 W. R. (Act X) 21 (1 R. J. P. J. 32); 2 W. R. (Act X) 41. and (affirmed by P. C.) 19 W. R. 5. ib. see 8 W. R. 23. 25.

38. Meaning of "rent free" in cl. 14 s. 1.—2 W. R. (Act X) 33 (R. J. P. J. 108.)

39. Where application for revival of execution was made to the Principal Subadar Ameem in January 1861, and the Judge’s permission for the Principal Subadar to try the case was asked for and obtained in June 1864, the Judge’s sanction legalized all the previous acts of the Principal Subadar Ameem.—2 W. R. 3; (affirmed by P. C.) 18 W. R. 319.

41. 8. 20 how applied to the execution of a decree dated the 30th December 1861.—2 W. R. 3.

42. Mortgages written acknowledgment to a third party of mortgager's right or title is sufficient within the meaning of cl. 15 s. 1.—2 W. R. 3.

43. Under s. 11 a minor may sue, within a year of his majority, to set aside an order passed under s. 10. Act VIII relating to a "well-wisher"'s application to stop a certain lands attached in execution during his minority.—3 W. R. 8.

44. Ss. 11 and 12 Act XIV apply to s. 216 Act VIII.—11 W. R. 389; (affirmed by P. C.) 11 W. R. 285.

45. A minor plaintiff was held to be under disability within the meaning of ss. 11 and 12, although he had a guardian who might have brought the suit.—16.

46. But he cannot have the benefit of these sections (i.e., to be i.e., being a suit by his guardian after the expiration of the 10 year) whilst the disability continues.—14 W. R. 339; (overruled by P. C.) 25 W. R. 285.

47. In a suit for mesne profits, Act XIV allows no deduction for the pendency of the suit for possession.—3 W. R. 13, 6 W. R. 113.

48. Cl. 14 s. 1 applies to all suits to resume or assess... to a certain share of property by right of succession, is a summary order and therefore subject to s. 22 Act XIV.—4 W. R., Mis., 6.

85. When a party, admitting his liability for an ancestor's judgment-debt, settles a suit in Court brought against him for the recovery of that suit by entering into a written contract by which he engages to pay the debt by instalments, limitation cannot be applied to prevent execution being taken out within 8 years from the date when the suit was thus disposed of, because such written contract, the decree-holder was in laches.—4 W. R., Mis., 11.

86. S. 19 applies only to Courts in India established by Royal Charter, and not to the Privy Council, the execution of whose decree is subject to the limitation prescribed by s. 20.—4 W. R., Mis., 10. See 134, 137 post.

87. S. 14 does not apply to a case of execution of decree.—4 W. R., Mis., 18; 7 W. R. 327. (Overruled) see 208 post.

88. Where a decree-holder was not under a legal disability when his right accrued, his son claiming through him was not allowed extra time under s. 11, although he was under a legal disability (i.e. a minor) at the time of his father's death.—4 W. R., Mis., 21.

89. Where an indigo planter and a ryot contract, the former to make advances of money or seed for the cultivation of indigo plant, and the latter to deliver the indigo plant grown, a mere verbal admission by the ryot of the correctness of an account concerning the advance of money, without a written acknowledgment (as under s. 4) from him that the balance is due, does not operate to create or renew any liability with reference to the law of limitation.—4 W. R., S. C. C., 1; 10 W. R. 253.

90. A suit to recover deductions made on account of revenue by the Collector from a deposit made by a sharer of a joint estate in order to protect his share from sale by reason of the default of his co-sharer, is governed by cl. 16 s. 1.—4 W. R., S. C. C., 9.

91. A suit by a principal against an agent to recover money received by the latter during his agency and not accounted for, is governed by cl. 16 s. 1.—4 W. R., S. C. C., 9.

92. In case of fraud, limitation will run (according to s. 2) from the time of knowledge or means of knowledge of the fraud.—ib. See also 6 W. R. 165, 10 W. R. 101.

93. Under s. 11 an adopted son out of possession should sue within 3 years of his majority to set aside illegal acts of his adopting mother done 12 years before the suit.—5 W. R. 32, 295.

94. No deduction allowed to an adopted son for the period of pendency of suit brought by or against him to prove or disprove the validity of his adoption.—ib.

95. An iidomand without signature is not a written engagement which can be registered under cl. 10 s. 1.—7 W. R. 45.

96. Quere. As to what is a payment under protest within the meaning of cl. 4 s. 1.—5 W. R. 47.

97. No deduction under s. 11 for minority of sons claiming as representatives of their father.—5 W. R. 169.

98. Where the guardian of certain minors had obtained a decree on their behalf and then sold it to a third party because for the defendant in that suit, and the minors on coming to age would set aside the sale as fraudulent and void, considering the fraudulent nature of the whole transaction, and reading s. 20 along with ss. 9, 10, 11, and 12, it was held that execution of the old decree might issue even although more than three years had elapsed.—4 W. R. 173. See also 6 W. R. 292. 99. Cannot be applied to the negotiation of a decree passed in 1857, saving out execution within 8 years from the passing of Act XIV.—5 W. R. 239.

100. Only bond fide purchasers from trustees are entitled to the benefit of s. 5.—5 W. R. 338. See 11 W. R. 13, 36.

101. S. 2 applies to the case of a suit against the purchaser from a trustee who is not a bond fide purchaser although he is himself a trustee in law.—ib.

102. Cl. 18 s. 1 applies as well as to Euxoida families.—ib. See also 11 W. R. 46. But see 20 W. R. 270.

103. By bond fide purchasers s. 5 does not necessarily mean a bond fide purchaser without notice, but are honest purchasers without actual fraud, and thus the defendants in this case, who were purchasers from a mortgagee for valuable consideration of an estate with a doubtful title, were held, as bond fide purchasers, protected by s. 5, and entitled to plead, in a suit brought for the redemption of the mortgaged property.

123. Under cl. 12 s. 1 limitation runs against a mortgagee, who is empowered by his mortgage to take possession on default of payment, from the date of such default; no new cause of action arises on foreclosure.—6 W. R. 168, 22 W. R. 390.

124. According to s. 14, a plaintiff is not entitled to deduct the time occupied by him in prosecuting a former suit in which he was not-suitable, nor the time occupied in repealing from that decision, nor the time intervening between the non-suit and the filing of the appeal.—(F. B.) 6 W. R. 184. See 7 W. R. 160.

125. So long as the relation of landlord and tenant lasts, no limitation runs against the landlord under cl. 1 s., because there is no cause of action.—6 W. R. 216, 8 W. R. 55.

126. Cf. s. 1 applies only to suits to set aside sales on account of irregularity and the like, but not to suits to set aside fraudulent deeds under color of which a sale was made.—6 W. R. 305.

127. Where a suit is dismissed for want of jurisdiction, and the order of dismissal is affirmed in appeal, and a suit is afterwards brought in the High Court, the period which elapsed between the decision of the first Court and the disposal of the appeal should be deducted under s. 14.—6 W. R. 308.

128. A suit to recover the balance of a partnership account is governed by cl. s. 1.—6 W. R. 308.

129. Proceedings taken in execution of decree under either ss. 20 or 21, are without authority of law unless taken within the time allowed by law.—6 W. R. 317.

130. Act XIV contains no provision by which the execution of a decree is bound by limitation on account of minority or other legal disability.—6 W. R., Mis., 37.

131. Act XIX of 1861 only shows that certain sections of Act XIV should not take effect before 1st January 1862, but did not defer the operation of the Act in every case which might thereafter come before the Courts.—6 W. R., Mis., 11.

132. An attempt at settlement of accounts in Court is sufficient to keep a decree alive.—6 W. R., Mis., 43.

133. A decree must be kept alive as against a suitor by proceedings irrespective of those taken against the judgment-debtors.—6 W. R., Mis., 41.

134. The right to enforce decrees of the Privy Council is not affected by Act XIV or any Law of Limitation.—(F. B.) 6 W. R., Mis., 65. See 17 W. R. 292.

135. Where a decree passed before 1859 authorized the judgment-debtor to pay by instalments extending over a period of 13 years, and no proceedings in execution were taken within the time prescribed by s. 20 and 21, the execution was held barred by the limitation, even as to those instalments which were within time,—6 W. R., Mis., 92. See 11 W. R. 570.

136. The execution of decrees of the High Court are governed as to cl. 19 and 20 as s. 22.—6 W. R., Mis., 94; 8 W. R. 227. See 293 post.

137. Where a decree passed by the late Sadar Court in 1859 was appealed to the Privy Council, and the decree-holder neither appealed to the Sadar Court or the High Court to take out execution, nor appeared before the Privy Council by whom the appeal was struck off for default, -- Held that the execution of the decree was barred by — under s. 20, no proceeding having been taken to execute it within 3 years; and that in such a case the word "judgment" in that section did not mean the final judgment.—6 W. R., Mis., 95.

137a. The words "some proceeding" as in 20 include all acts done either by the Court or by an officer of the Court, or bond fide by the applicant for enforcing the decree or keeping it in force.—(F. B.) 6 W. R., Mis., 39; 11 W. R., P. C., 21; 20 W. R. 31. See 22 W. R. 104.

138. A suit by a mortgagor for a mortgage is not governed by cl. 2 s. 1, but if plaintiff is discharged upon a distinct contract that he would be paid a fixed monthly salary, cl. 9 would probably apply.—6 W. R., C. B., 11.

139. Not a mahmud or a "servant" within the meaning of cl. 2 s. 9, 15 W. R. 160.

140. Where a servant is appointed on a fixed monthly salary and there is nothing to show that the salary is to be paid in advance, the limitation as to each month's salary commences from the time at which the salary became due.—6 W. R., C. B., 33.

140. The attachment in property in execution of a decree (although attachment is afterwards set aside) is a sufficient issuing of process of execution within the meaning of s. 9. —7 W. R. 9.

141. An appeal from an order setting aside an execution is a bond for proceeding to keep alive the decree under s. 8. 6.

142. Where a suit was brought on an instrument bond where all was done on the first default, and not upon any fresh agreement between the parties, the period of — (with reference to s. 4) was held to run from the time when the deed was made in payment of the first instrument in consequence of which the whole amount became due. —(P.B.) 7 W. R. 21. See also 11 W. R. 570, 12 W. R. 71.

143. A suit for an account and for plaintiffs' share of profit after an admitted dissolution of partnership is governed by cl. 6 s. 1. —7 W. R. 36, 19 W. R. 277. See 14 W. R. 184.

Where there was a clause in the agreement by which defendants (the working partners) undertook to be liable for any outstanding debts in respect of goods sold or credit, the sale of goods on credit was held not to be any breach of contract bringing the suit under cl. 9. —19 W. R. 277.

144. A suit in writing as required by s. 4 cannot be supplied by oral evidence of the admission. —7 W. R. 46, 8 W. R. 296.

145. S. 170 Act VIII does not empower the Court to determine the place of it by. —11 W. R. 176.

146. A suit for breach of contract not in writing against a del credere agent who, for a certain commission, was employed to sell plaintiff's goods, is governed by cl. 9 s. 1 and is not taken to be an action upon a bill or bond for services as provided in s. 8. —7 W. R. 67, 16 W. R. I. C. 35. See 14 W. R. 184, 19 W. R. 277.

147. S. 4 is not applicable to the execution of decrees. —7 W. R. 79, 24 W. R. 292.

148. It is said that there is no uncertainty at the time that the cause of action arose, a subsequent disability will not take the case out of — under s. 11. —7 W. R. 131, 12 W. R. 1.

149. How applied in a case of possession, by a stranger, to a portion of the family estate, where a son is born subsequently to such possession. —Dh.

150. S. 5 does not apply to a case of priority of bond for purchase. —7 W. R. 138.

151. The final decision, award, or order contemplated by cl. 5 of Act XIV is a final decision of the Court on the dispute between the parties, which is held to be at once the time when the decree is deemed to have been delivered. —7 W. R. 164.

153. A summary order made under Act XIX of 1841 and intended only to affect the question of possession, does not bar a regular suit to try the title. Such suit may be brought within 12 years under cl. 12 s. 1. —(P.B.) 7 W. R. 193.

154. Where a proclamation under s. 219 Act XIX declared that the right, title, and interest of 5 were to be sold in execution, and the sale certificate under s. 290 by mistake recited that the right, title, and interest of 5 as well as 8 had been sold, and gave the defendant possession, it was held that the plaintiff, who claimed through 5, could bring a suit for recovery of possession at any time within 12 years under cl. 12 s. 1 Act XIV, and that he was not bound to apply under s. 290. —(P.B.) 7 W. R. 253. See also 17 W. R. 428.

155. A person dispossessed under a sale in execution against another parties, is entitled to sue to establish his title and to recover possession at any time within 12 years from the time he was dispossessed, according to cl. 12 s. 1. —(P.B.) 7 W. R. 256. See also 20 W. R. 165.

156. S. 2 of Act XIV and s. 21 on an application to execute a decree. —7 W. R. 330.

157. Seeing anterior possession only, without title of or title void of, cannot avail a plaintiff suing to recover possession after an order, in 6 months from the alleged order as prescribed by s. 15. —7 W. R. 632.

158. A suit for malikahana is governed by cl. 18 s. 1. —7 W. R. 336, 10 W. R. 302.

159. A suit for possession of land was held applicable to such a suit. —9 W. R. 102, 19 W. R. 94. See also 12 W. R. 46, 485; 22 W. R. 520.

159. The case of a reversionary heir, contingent upon the death of a Hindu widow, does not fall within s. 11, as the cause of action does not accrue till the widow dies and his right becomes absolute. —7 W. R. 587. See 15 W. R. I. P. C. 41.

160. A suit to set aside the alienation of ancestral immovable property, made by a childless Hindu widow during her life tenancy, must be brought within 12 years from the death of the widow, as prescribed by cl. 12 s. 1. —7 W. R. 480.

161. Even though the widow has never possessed. —7 W. R. 453. See (P.B.) 9 W. R. 490, 505.

162. A suit to recover movable property seized under a sham decree against another is governed by cl. 16 s. 1. —7 W. R. 439.

163. In a suit by a son to set aside an alienation by his father, limitation runs from the date of alienation or of possession under it, unless the son was a minor, in which case (according to s. 11) the suit must be brought within 3 years from the time when the disability ceased. —7 W. R. 502. See also 11 W. R. 532.

164. According to s. 20 and 21 read together, process of execution may be issued upon decrees in force at the time of passing of the Act within 3 years after the passing of the Act, no execution shall be issued upon it, unless some proceeding shall have been taken to enforce it or to keep it in force within 3 years next preceding the application for execution. If such proceeding has been taken, it is not too late although the decree may have been in force at the time of the passing of this Act, and the application for execution made more than 3 years after the passing of the Act. —(P.B.) 7 W. R. 515. See 8 W. R. 88, 9 W. R. 655, 11 W. R. 90, 12 W. R. 281.

165. The period of limitation prescribed by s. 20 is to be calculated from the date of the judgment, decree, or order in which the person in whose favor it is given is at liberty to enforce by execution, whether such judgment, decree, or order be that of the Lower Court or on review or appeal. —(P.B.) 7 W. R. 521. See also 9 W. R. 397, 11 W. R. 570, 16 W. R. I. P. C. 17 W. R. 292.

Where a decree is affirmed in review or appeal, the decree of the Appellate or reviewing Court is the final decree to be executed. —23 W. R. 57.

166. A more application for a review or a petition of appeal by the person against whom the judgment was given, without something done by way of opposition by the person in whose favor the judgment was given, is not an act done by the latter for the purpose of keeping the same in force under s. 20. —(P.B.) 7 W. R. 521. See 13 W. R. 78, 16 W. R. 266, 18 W. R. 7, 19 W. R. 185.

167. A suit to recover possession with mesne profits, if part of plaintiff's suit, where the defendant is alleged to be holding an invalid lankheri tenure, must, under cl. 12 s. 1, be brought within 12 years from the date on which defendant began to hold the land in dispute. —7 W. R. 231.

168. S. 4 is confined to an acknowledgment in writing signed by the debtor himself and not by his agent. —8 W. R. 1, 10 W. R. 175.

169. How applied in a suit to recover money paid by government for land taken for public purposes, which plaintiff alleges to belong to him and not to defendants. —8 W. R. 23.

170. How applied under cl. 12 s. 1 where, before getting at mortgagee, plaintiff had to contest the adverse title of original mortgagee's daughter-in-law. —8 W. R. 34.

171. Act XIV contains no such provision as the 5 Law of Limitation did, by which a party was not precluded from proceeding with his suit within 6 months on the ground of a sufficient reason for not bringing it within the period of limitation. —8 W. R. 55.

172. Where judgment-debtors appear and admit the debt and promise to pay within a given time, execution may proceed though the period of 5 years from the passing of Act XIV has expired. —8 W. R. 68.

173. But when property is devised by will to executors.

any admission by other parties does not bind the estate; nor does the admission of one executor bind another.—19. —173. Accordingly, where a decree has passed against several defendants each of whom is declared to have a separate liability in respect of a definite amount, execution against one or more of such judgment-debtors keeps the demand alive against all the other judgment-debtors. See contra 10 W. R. 10, (affirmed by F. R.) 19 W. R. 30, 25 W. R. 310.

So held as to an application under s. 119 Act VIII.—20 W. R. 187.

174. A suit brought not to set aside an order of release under s. 246 Act VIII, but to recover possession from the successful claimant of the property, is not governed by cl. s. 8 W. R. 53. See also 11 W. R. 134.

175. An unsuccessful suit by a decree-holder to have specified property made liable under his decree, is a proceeding under s. 20 to keep the decree in force.—8 W. R. 99, 19 W. R. 248, 11 W. R. 205.

176. The holder of a decree for possession and mesne profits is not obliged to apply for execution of both within 3 years from the passing of the decree, but may first apply for possession and costs, and then (within 3 years from the date of such application) seek to enforce the decree as to mesne profits.—8 W. R. 99, 274.

177. Execution of a joint decree may, under s. 207 Act VIII, be taken out by one of several decree-holders for the benefit of all, and an application by one keeper of the decree alive under s. 20 for the benefit of all.—6 W. R. 99, 75; 8 W. R. 100; 9 W. R. 485; 10 W. R. 95; 11 W. R. 318, 421; 12 W. R. 128; 15 W. R. 419; 16 W. R. 9, 123 W. R. 123. See also 13 W. R. 126.

178. A suit to set aside a summary order passed under Act XXVII of 1869 may be brought within one year from the date of the order; but such order does not bar a suit upon title after the year.—8 W. R. 184.

179. The fact of the decree-holder getting possession of property from the debtor within 3 years is sufficient to take the case out of the Law of Limitation.—8 W. R. 199.

180. Cl. 8, s. 1 will not make a person to come in within 3 years after the date of the awards therein mentioned, and recover possession of lands in respect of which his suit has been barred by other provisions of the Law of Limitation.—8 W. R. 186.

181. The taking out, by a decree-holder, of money deposited in Court by his judgment-debtor is an effectual proceeding under s. 20 to keep the decree in force.—8 W. R. 274.

182. Where the holder of a decree made in 1861, though annually praying for execution of the decree, has not put in possession, and in 1864 issued notice to judgment-debtors, such notice was held to be not bonâ fide, and the proceedings to be not sufficient to keep the decree alive.—8 W. R. 186.

183. A suit to recover money secured by a mortgage deed, but seeking only for a money-decree, is governed by cl. 10 s. 1, but a suit to recover the lands mortgaged and to hold them as security for the debt would come within cl. 12.—7 W. R. 354. See also 121 note and 8 W. R. 334.

184. Memoranda of payments made, indorsed on the 15th and signed by the defendant, are not acknowledged in writing within the meaning of s. 4.—8 W. R. 324.

185. The sale at the instance of a judgment-creditor is a proceeding to keep the decree alive under s. 20, but the confirmation of the sale is no proceeding of the judgment-creditor.—8 W. R. 359, 9 W. R. 100, 11 W. R. 117, 15 W. R. 286. See also 10 W. R. 224. Not see 260 post, and 18 W. R. 166.

186. The Civil Courts may, notwithstanding s. 15, give a decree for immovable property on the ground of illegal discrimination brought after a decree from date of such dispossession, and where plaintiff has not proved his title.—8 W. R. 386.

187. Irrespective of s. 15, possession for 60 years gives a right to immunity under Act XI, 1861, and is a title even against the rightful owner; and prior possession, however short, is a title against a mere wrong-doer.—19. See 11 W. R. 550.

188. Jurisdiction of Civil Courts in regard to cases of dispossession illustrated with special reference to s. 13 of above Act, and ss. 818 and 819 Act XXV of 1861.—19.

other co-owner's cause of action accrues under s. 10, at date of sale.—9 W. R. 553. 208. Where an award of a Collector under Reg. VII of 1822 was in favor of the mortgagee in possession on the ground that the period of redemption had expired and he settled with him, cl. 6 s. 1 was held to apply.—9 W. R. 564.
209. S. 15 does not affect the general law on the matters to which it relates, but provides a special remedy for a particular cause of avoidance, e.g. a declaration in possession persons wrongly convicted and to prevent the improper shifting of the burden of proof.—9 W. R. 602.
210. By the word "proceeding" in s. 20 is meant a proceeding by limitation. Thus an application made within three years of another application which had been refused because it was beyond time, is itself beyond time, although the rejected application was bona fide.—
(P. R.) 10 W. R. 8, 8. See also 11 W. R. 209, 12 W. R. 255, 15 W. R. 530, 18 W. R. 190, 24 W. R. 339,
25 W. R. 546.
211. The three years "proceeding the application" allowed by s. 20 are exclusive of the day on which the application is made.—10 W. R. 8. But see 13 W. R. 122.
212. A suit to contest a khatusab award and map made under Regs. VII of 1822 and IX of 1825 is barred under
c. 6 s. 1, unless brought within 3 years, whether plaintiff is legally entitled for not.—10 W. R. 22.
213. But c. 6 s. 1 does not apply where plaintiff remains in possession, for his suit is not a suit to recover property.—7b.
214. A Survey award was unsuccessfully appealed, first to the Deputy Collector and then to the Board of Revenue, time began to run (under c. 6 s. 1) from the date of the order of the Board of Revenue.—10 W. R. 51.
215. Where a merchant or trader advances money on loan (the transaction being a single one), the repayment by the debtor does not constitute a mutual dealing between merchants and traders under s. 8.—10 W. R. 56.
216. How applied in a suit to recover money advanced on the death of the owner, and how where the creditor seeks to have his lien realized.—7b.
217. A claim to set aside a Survey award and for possession, aliens during possession subsequent to date of award, came under cl. 12 and not cl. 6 s. 1.—10 W. R. 71.
218. In a suit for immovable property, the fact that plaintiff claims as lessee under Government does not take the case out of cl. 12 s. 1 or bring it within s. 17.—
10 W. R. 14, 11 W. R. 30.
219. The cause of action against a lessee who, by agreement, having for some time made annual payments to lessor's creditor out of the rent in liquidation of lessor's debt, withholds them while a balance of the debt is still due to the lessor, and to whom under a lease, or from the date of the lessee's breach of contract, i.e. of his failure to pay.—10 W. R. 80.
220. Steps taken towards placing the assignee of a decree in the position of the original decree-holder are not enough to keep the decree alive under s. 20.—10 W. R. 127.
221. The date from which the limitation of 60 years will count under cl. 15 s. 1 is the date of the original mortgage.—
10 W. R. 219.
222. The period of 60 years which the law allows mortgagors cannot be diminished on the ground of races in the pro-223. The receipt of the proceeds of a sale in execution of a decree is a proceeding within the meaning of s. 20.—
10 W. R. 224.
224. A dispute between the purchaser of a decree and a third party, and the proceedings connected therewith, are not within the meaning of the preceding section within the set aside the mortgage lease.—11 W. R. 102.

225. Resistance to legal proceedings taken by another person will count as a proceeding under s. 20 just as effectually as proceedings actually initiated by the judgment-creditor under s. 17.—7b.
226. By adverse holding for more than 12 years, a tenant wins a right of occupancy under s. 6 Act X as against one absent involuntarily in consequence of, transportation, there being no exception in Act XIV with regard to plaintiffs who are beyond sea whether voluntarily or involuntarily.—
10 W. R. 255.
227. A tenancy is not a "servant" within the meaning of cl. 2 s. 1.—10 W. R. 261.
228. A Hindu widow in possession of an undivided half of her husband's estate, after his decease, is barred by limitation from recovering the other half if she allows adverse possession of it for more than 12 years.—10 W. R. 264.
229. In a suit for pecuniary damages on account of a false and malicious statement made by the defendant before a Magistrate, in consequence of which criminal proceedings were taken against plaintiff, limitation under cl. 2 s. 1 runs, from the date on which the case was closed and discharged, but from the time the alleged statement was made,
or from the date of any resulting damage.—
10 W. R. 308.
230. The transmission by the Court of one district to the Court of another, of a copy of its decree and a certificate, under s. 285 and 286 Act VIII, with a view to execution in that other district, is a "bona fide proceeding within the meaning of s. 20 Act XIV.—10 W. R. 357.
Even though the latter Court may neglect its duty.—
11 W. R. 408.
231. Cl. 7 s. 1 does not apply to an award passed under Act IV of 1840 against a benamdear for the present plaintiff.—10 W. R. 311.
232. Where the amount of mesne profits cannot be ascertained till after the end of the year, the cause of action does not arise until the end of the year.—10 W. R. 465, 11 W. R. 208, 22 W. R. 126.
233. How applicable to a suit to recover compensation for lands taken by Government when plaintiff was referred to the Civil Court after the period of limitation had expired.
—11 W. R. 1.
234. In a suit to recover a deposit paid as part of purchase-money of an estate where the residue not having been paid within the stipulated time, the property was re-sold and plaintiff obtained a decree for specific performance which was reversed in appeal, the cause of action for the recovery of the money under cl. 9 s. 1 was held to have arisen from the date of the Judge's decision in appeal.—
11 W. R. 24.
235. Cl. 13 s. 1 does not prevent a Court from drawing its own inferences as to what constitutes payment, from the facts legally proved before it.—11 W. R. 46.
236. The decree of the Appellate Court is an original decree in respect of all the costs both of the Appellate and the first Court; and whether it provides for, or in detail refers to, the costs in the Lower Court, or merely incorporates that order as to costs, in either case it is a "judgment decrees or orders" as to costs within the meaning of s. 20, inasmuch as a new period of limitation can be computed.—
11 W. R. 67.
237. The rights of Government to stamp fees under s. 309 Act VIII is a public right to which Act XIV (as expressly provided by s. 12) does not extend, and to which therefore
s. 20 has no application.—10b.
238. A benamdear transaction does not create the relationship of trustee and custodia trust within the benamdear and the real principal, so as to make a benamdear a trustee for the real owner within the meaning of s. 2.—
11 W. R. 73.
239. Act X of 1861 does not apply to decrees which were not in force at the time of the passing of Act XIV of 1869.—11 W. R. 100.
240. Where rents have been claimed on behalf of plaintiff in the full knowledge of the existence of the puttee puthee, and payments enforced under Reg. VIII of 1819 by the puttee puthee, and these proceeds within the proceedings are not res judicata by plaintiff on coming of age, cl. 12 s. 1 applies to a suit to set aside the puttee lease.—11 W. R. 102.
241. The words "summary decision or award" in s. 29 mean a decision of a Civil Court or a decree made in regular suit or appeal.—11 W. R. 117.
242. A possessory award under s. 16 is a summary award in which s. 22 is applicable, and is not a final one on the matter at issue between the parties.—11 W. R. 188.

confirming the sale, limitation was held to be of the application of Honourable Court itself, and extending to one year under cl. 3 s. 1. — 11 W. R. 261.

244. A suit by a intervener who has made himself responsible for the whole amount of a defendant's debt on the latter being shot, in the event the decree is a suit to recover money on a written contract by reason of a breach thereof, and comes under cl. 10 s. 1. — 11 W. R. 330.

245. The case of a Hindu widow residing in her late husband's family dwelling-house and being maintained there, comes under cl. 13 s. 1. — 11 W. R. 338. See also 26 W. R. 37.

Proof of division of money or of payment not being necessary. — 17 W. R. 630.

246. As applied under cl. 16 and not cl. 15 s. 1 to a case in which the purchaser of B's share of an immovable property finds that the balance in his favor of Government revenue paid in on account has been drawn by B's judgment-creditors. — 11 W. R. 491.

247. In the case of an instalment made payable at a future date by the terms of a decree, there is no present right to realize the instalment at the date of the decree; and when the instalment becomes due, then the present right to enforce it accrues. An application to enforce payment of such an instalment is within time if made within 3 years from the date fixed for payment by the terms of the decree. — 11 W. R. 570, 11 W. R. 414; 23 W. R. 41. See 253 post.

248. A suit for mesne profits instituted after Act XIV came into force is subject to its provisions although founded on a cause of action for possession in a suit instituted before the passing of that Act. — 12 W. R. 5.

250. — never begins to run until there has been a cause of action. — 12 W. R. 167.

251. Where the High Court rejected an application for a renewal of a judgment passed by the late Sudder Court, it was held that, while the decree of the Sudder Court was governed by ss. 20 and 21, the only law applicable to the decree of the High Court was s. 15. — 12 W. R. 313.

252. An acknowledgment made by an agent, which was not expressly authorized by the principal (a mortgagee) and was not a necessary part of the agent's duty on the occasion, cannot be dealt with as an acknowledgment under cl. 15 s. 1. — 12 W. R. 419.

253. The fact of a decree-holder agreeing to accept payment of his decree by instalments, and binding himself not to issue execution within a certain time, does not affect the question of limitation, but the Court executing a decree is bound to execute it as it finds it, and cannot add to or in any way alter the terms of the original decree in consequence of any consent of the parties. The relinquishment by the decree-holder of an attachment of the judgment-debtor's property is not a proceeding to keep the decree in force within the meaning of s. 20. — 11 W. R. 353; 22 W. R. 44. See also 13 W. R. 164; 14 W. R. 415, 430; 17 W. R. 399; 19 W. R. 165; 23 W. R. 129; 21 W. R. 282. But see 28 W. R. 497.

254. A suit for refund of excess rent is governed by cl. 16 s. 1. — 13 W. R. 31.

255. In a suit for possession of land, where defendants alleged that the widow from whom they bought received it by hibhib in lieu of dowry, and plaintiffs contended that in the event of her being unable to borrow money to which they held her, the devisee from whom they bought died in the time the widow had held the guardian. — Held that the issue of limitation raised in the first Court was a special issue as to minority under s. 11, plaintiffs were entitled to be heard upon the issue of general limitation under cl. 12 s. 1. — 13 W. R. 62.

256. Though it is the duty of the Court under s. 2* Act XXXII of 1861 to issue process after application has been made for execution, yet the law fully intends that, when the decree-holder sees that the Court has taken no steps to issue any process, he shall be diligent and move the Court from time to time, as required, to keep him within the period of limitation. — 13 W. R. 83.

257. A suit for a doctor's fees, where no arrangement is made at the time, is governed by cl. 9 s. 1. — 15 W. R. 96.

258. An act done in furtherance of a decree in which the decree-holder cannot in reason expect success and which is not followed up by any other proceeding for more than three years, cannot be said to arise from the Decree. — 13 W. R. 161. (Revised by P. C.) See 207 post.

259. In applying — the time must be reckoned according to the English Calendar. — 13 W. R. 183.

260. Where possession of land and of immovable property is decreed, and defendant appeals from the decrees alone, the proceeding of the Appellate Court on a modified decree, does not keep in force the decree for the possession of the land. — 13 W. R. 905.

261. A suit by a legatee where plaintiff's mother, who was to have received the principal of certain money and land on the birth of a male child, died before she had drawn the principal or taken the allotment of land, was held barred under cl. 11 s. 1. — 13 W. R. 450.

264. A suit by the indorser of a Bill of Exchange against the acceptor thereof was held barred by —, more than 6 years having elapsed since the due date of the Bill of Exchange. — 11 W. R. 3, O. J. 6.

265. Cl. 9 s. 1 was held applicable to a suit for balance of "aurandtarea" account and for commission and interest; the cause of action in such a suit accruing from the close of the year in which the last item was admitted or rejected, indicating the continuance of mutual dealings. — 11 W. R. 4, O. J. 7.

266. The period of 3 years allowed to a merchant by s. 8, to sue another on a balance of accounts as on mutual dealings, was intended to be reckoned from the time when the balance of accounts is struck, such balance being struck yearly. — 14 W. R. 3, O. J. 41.

267. A suit upon an unregistered promissory-note extinguished at a time when Act XVI of 1864 was in force, is governed by the three years' limitation prescribed by cl. 10 s. 1 Act XIV. — 14 W. R. 4, O. J. 51.

268. In applying cl. 9 s. 1 to a suit for principal and profits of money lent to be laid out in trade, where the matter had been referred to arbitration, and the arbitrators, in making their award, were unable to settle the exact sum due to plaintiff, — Held that plaintiff's cause of action arose when she made her demand for the money after the arbitration award. — 14 W. R. 359.

270. How applied under s. 8 to a suit, although for balance of account between merchants and traders who had mutual dealings, yet in reality founded upon a contract, and that contract not in writing. — 11 W. R. 181.

271. A suit for a declaration that certain property ostensibly bought and held by one of the defendants was in fact the property of another of the defendants who was the judgment-debtor of the plaintiff, is not governed by cl. 3 s. 1, but by s. 216 Act VIII. — 14 W. R. 192.

272. A suit to set aside a transfer of land made by the Revenue authorities for arrears of Government revenue comes within cl. 4 s. 1. — 14 W. R. 283.

273. How applied under cl. 16 s. 1 to a Revenue sale under Act VIII of 1865 (B. C.) — 14 W. R. 284.

274. A suit to recover certain "ornaments" (or their value) obtained by defendant from plaintiff's ancestor was held to be governed by cl. 16 s. 1, and the cause of action to arise when defendant set up an adverse claim in respect of the ornaments. — 14 W. R. 322.

275. A plea of limitation under s. 20 can only be raised by the defendant in the suit and not by third parties. — 14 W. R. 391. See also 19 W. R. 226.

276. Provisions in execution shall be considered as being bona fide carried on every day of the time and every hour of every day, until a final decision is passed upon any

276. Cl 13 s 1 does not apply to a suit in which one member of a joint Hindu family, the rest of whose members are owners of a mortgage in which the title of the plaintiff to redeem is questioned, and the question of joint or not joint property has only to be decided incidentally for the purpose of determining whether title at the time of the mortgage was against strangers.—(P. C.) 17 W. R. 292; 23 W. R. 327. See 15 W. R. 530, 17 W. R. 396.

277. Before a person can obtain the benefit of s. 5, he must clearly show (1) that he is a purchaser (the meaning of which term defined), (2) that he is a purchaser bonâ fide, and (3) that he is a purchaser for valuable consideration.—(P. C.) 9 W. R. 99.

278. No period is fixed by cl 10 s 1 within which suits may be brought for breach of a contract which could not be registered by any law at the time of its execution, the time of limitation applicable to such suits is cl 16, and the time is 15 w. R., o. j., 1.

279. A claim to exercise a right to a tenement of an idol held in common by right of purchase, and not to a suit to enforce such a right is governed by cl 16 s 1.—15 W. R. 29.

280. Until the order is passed confirming a sale in execution, the decree-holder must be left to execute his decree, and limitation begins to run against him only from the date of such order.—15 W. R. 51.

281. How applied under cl 12 s 1 in a suit by a member of a joint Hindu family, the rest of whose members are owners of the joint property, and title to certain villages in a family estate in which the rule of primogeniture prevailed to meet ancestral debts, and against which the Political Department in Chota Nagpur had taken out attachment.—15 W. R. 102.

282. An application to execute an aliquot part of a decree, though irregular and ineffectual for the purpose, must, if made bonâ fide under a misapprehension of the law, be regarded as a proceeding which keeps the decree alive.—15 W. R. 449, 16 W. R. 267.

283. An application to execute a compromise entered into after decree is not a proceeding taken on the basis of the decree and cannot keep the decree alive.—15 W. R. 514.

284. Whether a decree of a Lower Court be reversed or modified or affirmed on appeal by the High Court, the decree is a decree of the High Court, and is governed not by s. 19 but by s. 20; the decree passed by the Appellate Court, whether the judgment be affirmed or reversed, is governed by cl 16 s 1.—(P. C.) 18 W. R. 74, 16 W. R. 274. See also 18 W. R. 21.

285. The day on which a promissory note payable on demand is made should be excluded in computing the period of limitation under cl 16 s 1.—16 W. R. 8, 9.

286. Where a contract of loan was alternative, i.e. either to pay 6 Rs. monthly by way of interest or to repay the principal on demand, and the loan was fully paid within the period that, where by the terms of contract, either express or implied, it is stipulated that a request or demand of performance shall be made, such demand must be made in order to charge the cause of action, i.e. that the suit was brought within 3 years from the date when plaintiff first made demand for repayment, was not barred under cl 16 s 1.—16 W. R. 164.

287. Before deciding that proceedings taken by a decree-holder are not bonâ fide, a judge ought to give him an opportunity of proving bonâ fide.—16 W. R. 296.

288. S. 15 contemplates the recovery of immovable property, and not of a mere right, e.g. a right of way.—17 W. R. 70.

289. A suit for refund of proceeds of sale in execution of decree paid to a wrong party under s. 270 Act VIII in reality a suit as to the validity of an allotment of Civil Land is governed by cl 5 s 1.—16 W. R. 11, 17 W. R. 227.

290. The words “or other cause” in s. 14 apply to cases where the action of the Court is prevented by causes not arising from lack of the part of plaintiff; in other words by accidental circumstances beyond his control.—17 W. R. 266.

291. Statements made by a mediator in petitions filed in Court are not admissions under Act XIV to take a case out of the ordinary rules of limitation.—17 W. R. 375.

292. R. 4 applies to what is merely an acknowledgment of a debt being due, and not to a writing of which time is given for the payment of the debt, and which comes within cl 10 s 1.—17 W. R. 406.

293. A suit by a guardian on behalf of a minor is the suit of the minor, and is governed by the — applicable to the minor.—17 W. R. 410.

294. Plaintiff’s title to the property in dispute having been invested by an award under s. 15, the present suit was brought to establish that title, and held to be governed by the limitation of 12 years from the date of the award.—17 W. R. 468.

295. S. 22 was held applicable to a process of execution to enforce a summary decision of the Revenue authorities under Reg. VII of 1799.—17 W. R. 471.

296. Limitation under cl 8 s 1 in a suit for patrimony rent held to run from the time that plaintiff knew of the non-payment of the rent.—18 W. R. 59.

297. A petition presented bonâ fide by a decree-holder for execution in one suit of a sum of money attached in another suit is a proceeding taken on the basis of the decree, and must be treated as a proceeding which keeps the decree alive.—18 W. R. 76, 18 W. R. 97. See also 20 W. R. 31, 21 W. R. 418, 171.

298. A suit, not for rent, but for use and occupation of lands demised, is governed by cl 16 s 1.—18 W. R. 132.

299. More informalities in a petition for execution of decree cannot affect the bona fide of the proceeding so as to bar limitation.—18 W. R. 264.

300. A village chowkidar appointed under s. 21 Reg. XX of 1817 is a servant within the meaning of cl 2 s 1 of Act XIV.—18 W. R. 286.

301. Where plaintiff supplied articles to defendant on condition of receiving chitlras or notes to be returned at intervals after payment on presentation, and defendant on receiving chitlras did not pay their amount but subsequently paid a portion.—Hold that the breach of contract occurred when defendant failed to pay on presentation, and that plaintiff’s suit thereon was governed by cl 9 s 1.—18 W. R. 450.

302. Plaintiff, while in C’s service, entered into a joint adventure or partnership with C and a third party, it being arranged that C should retain in his hands plaintiff’s monthly salary and appropriate so much as might be necessary to plaintiff’s share of the expenses and account between the parties had been signed by plaintiff and a balance struck.—Hold that all partnership transactions had ceased between the parties; that plaintiff could sue C for the balance of all salary and moneys in C’s hands, but that his claim was not a partnership demand to be regulated by cl 16 s 1; and that the account did not fall within s 8, but that the case was governed by cl 9 s 1.—18 W. R. 466.

302a. The words “rent of any buildings or lands” in cl 8 s 1 are large enough to comprehend all lands.—(P. C.) 19 W. R. 5, 23 W. R. 134.

303. How applicable to a suit for a declaration of title to land.—19 W. R. 32.

304. The only way in which effect can be given to the words “in the meantime” in cl 16 s 1 is by holding that they refer to the periods which had been previously mentioned; and the proper construction of the clause is that the acknowledgment must be given within 30 or 60 years according to the nature of the property.—19 W. R. 78.

305. The date on which the act of action arose to be excluded in computing the period of.—19 W. R. 94.

306. Wages due to an employee leaving his employer’s service would be due on the date when he left the service; and any suit for those wages must, in the absence of any subsequent account stated and settled between the parties, be brought within 3 years from such date.—19 W. R. 169.

307. Under cl 18 s 1 a suit to enforce the right to a share of joint family property must be brought within 12 of which, unless got rid of, the defendant purchaser’s title must prevail over that of the plaintiff’s, comes within the purview of cl. 3 s. 1.—22 W. R. 84.

321. In a suit to recover possession of land alleged to have belonged jointly to plaintiff’s late husband and his late elder brother, in which it was found that the two brothers lived in commensality, and that the elder brother collected the rents and profits and therewith managed the family expenses,—Held that if the younger brother did not receive money from the elder, he received money’s worth, and that would suffice to bring the case within cl. 13 s. 1, or if that clause did not apply, cl. 12 must.—22 W. R. 185. See also 21 W. R. 1.

322. A suit to recover plaintiff’s share of mesne profits from a co-sharer who has received it from a judgment-debtor with plaintiff’s permission but withholds payment to plaintiff is not governed by the 3 years’, but the 5 years’—22 W. R. 263.

323. A suit by a banker to recover the balance of an account between himself and a customer, is governed by cl. 9 s. 1.—22 W. R. 263.

324. An agreement to grant a lease is governed not by cl. 12 but by cl. 16 s. 1.—22 W. R. 287.

325. Cl. 16 s. 1 applies to a suit to have an adoption declared invalid, the only exception to limitation beginning to run from the date of the adoption which is the cause of action, being that provided in s. 9, viz. when the cause of action is concealed by fraud.—23 W. R. 42.

325. Quere. What is the effect, under s. 20, of not executing a decree for three years.—23 W. R. 23.

326. Where money deposited in a bank is withdrawable at the depositor’s will and pleasure, and the deposit carries compound interest with it, a debt becomes due at the end of each year without demand, and the depositor’s claim is limited to 3 years from the date of deposit.—24 W. R. 42.

327. A commission agent using his principal as such is not entitled to the limitation provided by s. 8.—24 W. R. 440.

328. Where a settlement of accounts is made between two, and a sum found and admitted to be due by one to the other, the date on which this is done may be regarded as that of a new contract to pay within the meaning of cl. 9 s. 1 from which limitation must be counted.—24 W. R. 440.

329. In an action brought upon a mortgage-bond which combines a personal obligation with the pledge of property, where the claim is founded not upon the contract to pay the money, but upon the hypothecation of the land, and the object is to obtain a sale thereof as against purchasers under a subsequent mortgage-bond, cl. 12 s. 1 applies.—(P. C.) 25 W. R. 81.

Limitation (Act LIII of 1860).

1. An application under s. 2 Act LIII of 1860 is not for a review of a judgment, but for revival of a suit, and therefore not governed by s. 364 C. P., with reference to appeal, do not apply to it.—W. R. F. B. 11 (1 Hay 90, Marshall 38).

2. S. 64 Act X of 1860 precludes a plaintiff from again instituting a suit, struck off under that section, if barred by.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 128.

See Practice (Review) 7.

Limitation (Act IX of 1871).

Under Act IX of 1871 the period of limitation for an appeal runs from the date of the decree appealed against, and the days which, under s. 13, may be excluded are only the days requisite for obtaining a copy of the decree, not a copy of the judgment.—21 W. R. 386 (affirmed by F. B.).

1a. Under Article 167 Sch. II an application for executing a decree is not a proper one unless it is in accordance with s. 312 Act VIII.—21 W. R. 349.

2. Quaere. What is the effect of Act IX of 1871 upon the High Court's decisions as to the bona fide of proceedings to keep a decree in force.—1b.

All the days provided for are now excluded, and a defendant-holder is absolutely entitled to have his decree executed provided he compels within the period specified in Article 164 Act VII. Sch. —22 W. R. 215. See also (F. B.) 22 W. R. 612, 22 W. R. 927, 23 W. R. 191.

3. The order for costs made by the High Court on appeal comes within the scope of Article 165 Act VII. Sch.—21 W. R. 391.

4. The term "court" in the same Article means the court whose business it is, either by transfer or otherwise, to execute the decree.—21 W. R. 410.

5. S. 27 does not apply to a claim to restrain one co-sharer in a joint property from appropriating to his own particular use a portion of that joint property, not only without the consent, but against the express will of, other co-sharers.—22 W. R. 286.

6. Where one of several joint-decree-holders, under s. 207 Act VIII of 1858, a proper application for execution, the date upon which the application was made was held to constitute a point of time from which the period of limitation expired as to the payment of the bond-debt. The Mooniff decree the suit, but the Subordinate Judge in appeal found that the Mooniff had no jurisdiction and ordered him to return the plaint, which was filed in the Small Cause Court on the same day. The defendants pleaded limitation. Held that under s. 15 the plaintiff was entitled to exclude the time during which he had been prosecuting the suit in the regular Courts up to the date of the Lower Court's judgment, but not the time during which he waited to get the plaint back; and that plaintiff could not claim the benefit of s. 5 cl. (a) as to the time during which the Mooniff's Court was closed, because the suit was not instituted in the Small Cause Court on the day that Court reopened.—24 W. R. 26.

8. A decree-holder applying for the execution of a decree is entitled, under Act IX of 1871, to have such execution upon his showing that his application is made within 3 years next following a previous application to the Court to enforce the same decree, or from the date of issuing notice under s. 216 Act VIII in the same manner.—(F. B.) 22 W. R. 512. See 23 W. R. 292, 24 W. R. 227, 459; 25 W. R. 546.

10. The enjoyment described in s. 27 by the words "as of right" does not mean user without trespass, but user in the assertion of a right.—23 W. R. 63.

12. The effect of an order striking off execution proceedings in consequence of an adverse decision against the decree-holder under s. 216 Act VIII of 1860 is not to dispose of the application for attachment and sale. And if the result of a regular suit prosecuted with due diligence is a final decree in his favor, he makes an application for execution of this decree, such application is in substance one for the continuation of the former proceedings, and is therefore not an application to execute the decree within the meaning of Article 167 Sch. II. —23 W. R. 129.

13. The words "adoptive father" in Article 129 Sch. II must be construed strictly and not so as to include mother.—23 W. R. 285.

14. Where the father died before an adoption took place, the period of limitation for a suit to set aside the adoption begins to run from the date of the adoption.—1b.

15. A minor on coming of age cannot avail himself of the benefit of s. 7 in respect of a right of suit which occurred before his birth.—1b.

16. A party who claims under a contract the re-opening of a way is not required by s. 27 to prove user for 20 years. —23 W. R. 290.

17. In a suit to establish a right of way, it is not sufficient for plaintiff, according to the same section, to prove use for 20 years, which ended more than two years before the institution of the suit.—23 W. R. 401.

As to right to flow of water from plaintiff's to defendant's land.—24 W. R. 295.

18. An instalment-bond is not a "promise or acknowledgment" within the meaning of s. 30, but is complete in itself and does not require any reference to the old bond which it supersedes. It is a new contract with new stipulations and terms, and limitation runs from the date therein mentioned.—23 W. R. 462.

19. Where a person whose right to sue is limited (say) to 13 years, laborers under a disability such as is specified in s. 7, and the disability continues up to his death, which occurs within those 12 leaves some (say 8) years to run, his representative in interest has only the 8 years within which to sue. The fact of the representative being himself a minor does not give him any more time, as he can sue through his guardian or next friend.—24 W. R. 7.

20. An application not made by the decree-holder at the time on the record, cannot be considered to be an application to execute the decree.—24 W. R. 10.

21. The date mentioned in s. 1 (1st April 1873) applies only to the institution of suits, whilst the Act applies to execution of decrees as from the 1st July 1871.—24 W. R. 20, 24 W. R. 205, 25 W. R. 249.

22. A consent-decree for payment of instalments is governed by s. 23, and, on default in the payment of one instalment, the whole amount becomes due.—1b.

23. A sum realized by an execution-sale cannot be considered a part payment under s. 27 as to give a new period of limitation.—1b.

24. A bond-suit was filed in a Mooniff's Court on the day on which the Court re-opened after the Dussehra vacation, during which the period of limitation expired as to the payment of the bond-debt. The Mooniff decreed the suit, but the Subordinate Judge in appeal found that the Mooniff had no jurisdiction and ordered him to return the plaint, which was filed in the Small Cause Court on the same day. The defendants pleaded limitation. Held that under s. 15 the plaintiff was entitled to exclude the time during which he had been prosecuting the suit in the regular Courts up to the date of the Lower Court's judgment, but not the time during which he waited to get the plaint back; and that plaintiff could not claim the benefit of s. 5 cl. (a) as to the time during which the Mooniff's Court was closed, because the suit was not instituted in the Small Cause Court on the day that Court reopened.—24 W. R. 26.

25. The special period for bringing a suit, allowed by s. 7 to a minor or his representative in interest after his death, cannot be claimed by any other person in whatever way connected with the minor.—24 W. R. 181.

26. Act IX of 1871 does not warrant a decree in favor of parties, on the strength of a wrongful possession for more than 12 years.—24 W. R. 217.

27. Where, in consequence of default in the payment of rent, an adjustment of accounts was entered into between landlord and tenant, and a balance found to be due from the tenant,—Held that an action to recover such balance with interest was not a suit for arrears of rent under Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), but a suit for the recovery of money on account governed by Act IX of 1861, Article 62 Sch. II.—24 W. R. 216.

28. Plaintiff's bulk-benches having been seized in execution of a decree obtained by defendant against third parties, plaintiff put in a claim and the bulk-benches were released on 16th January 1874. On 19th January 1875, plaintiff instituted an action for damages caused by the detention of the bulk-benches. Held that the suit was barred under Article 80 Sch. II.—24 W. R. 298.

45. The words "not otherwise specially provided for" in Article 145 Sch. II refer to suits for possession of immovable property, and not to suits generally or for specific performance of contract which may come under Article 113—25 W. R. 521.

See Ex-parte Judgment or Decree 18.

Limitation (Act XIV of 1859) 204.

Limitation (Execution of Decree).

1. Where the original decree-holder fails to execute the decree in time, any right of sale under the decree may be obtained by a share in the decree, can give her no further time.—1 W. R., Misc. 31.

2. Where an application for revival of execution has been admitted and acted upon without objection, and a sale takes place, and the debtor succeeds in setting aside the sale on the ground of irregularity, the Court executing the decree cannot of its own motion raise the question of—now can the debtor urge such a plea, at so late a stage as after the reversal of the sale.—5 W. R., Misc. 3.

3. Property held by a party for 21 years under a sale from another, cannot be attacked in an execution against that other—6 W. R. 161.

4. A corrected application for execution of a decree is not barred by limitation if the original application was in time—6 W. R. Misc. 15.

5. When a decree contains separate decedent orders against separate individuals, limitation may apply against the different defendants as if there were separate decrees—6 W. R. II, Misc. 18. See 8 W. R. 80.

6. Where one of two defendants appeals against a decree, if the decree was joint and several and the appeal impelled the whole decree, the time for execution will count from the date of the decision in appeal—6 W. R. Misc. 13.

7. Proceedings in execution, originating in illegality, and which have been the subject of contests by the judgment-debtor and are still under consideration in appeal, cannot be regarded as bond for proceedings to keep alive the decree—6 W. R. Misc. 61.

8. Where execution is barred by limitation, subsequent proceedings taken by the decree-holder, without objection on the part of the debtor, cannot get rid of the bar of limitation and revive the decree—6 W. R. Misc. 118; 9 W. R. 390.

9. The principle that persons who are not parties to a suit are not bound thereby is not applicable to proceedings taken out to keep a decree in force—12 W. R. 485.

10. Where a creditor has been misled by a covenant of the decree-holder and a judgment-debtor as to service of notice, execution proceedings cannot be carried on further till the question is decided, and limitation in respect to further proceedings must run from the date of such decision—11 W. R. 172.

11. An application for execution cannot be thrown out summarily as barred by limitation, because the decree-holder has failed to find any of his judgment-debtor's property or been himself in his endeavours to satisfy his decree—15 W. R. 67.

12. Certain sharers in a decree of which execution was sought, were allowed to count the time of pendency of a special appeal made by their co-respondents in which they did not appear but of which the grounds were common to all the respondents—21 W. R. 243.

13. An Appellate Court ought not to conclude against the bond for an application for execution when not objected to in the first Court—21 W. R. 211.

14. An application to the Court to ascertain and determine how much a judgment-creditor has been over-paid, is not barred by lapse of time if the applicant has not been guilty of laches and has come to the Court with due diligence—22 W. R. 211.

15. Where, instead of suing out execution against P's estate as directed in his decree, a decree-holder brought a suit to have it decided who were P's legal representatives and obtained a decree, his application for execution of the original decree was held barred because made after three years from the date of it—23 W. R. 160.

16. So long as one part of an indivisible decree is being executed, the whole is kept alive so far as the Statute of Limitations is concerned.—25 W. R. 70.

LIMITATION (Reg. II of 1805).

1. A general allegation of violent dispossession, without setting forth distinctly the particular violence, fraud, or unjust and dishonest means by which the defendant obtained possession of the property claimed, is insufficient to challenge the defendant to show cause why the special law of limitation, as laid down in s. 3 cl. 2, should not be applied to the case. — 1 Hay 6.

2. Not only does the same provision of law require that the plaintiff should set forth distinctly the grounds on which he claims the extension of limitation, but that there should be a preliminary enquiry on the point so pleaded. Moreover, plaintiff’s allegation of fraud should be a distinct one, and the forms prescribed by this law must be strictly observed. — 1 Hay 55 (Marshall 22).

3. A suit by Government to establish its right and title to a julkur or other property is barred by — under s. 2 if brought after the expiration of 60 years after adverse possession against Government. — 5 W. R. 116 (Siv. 366).

See also 5 W. R. 136.

4. Peaceable possession by A for 15 years before the date of suit, was held to be a bar, under Reg. II of 1805, to any inquiry into the title of the defendants who held by purchase from A. — W. R. Sp. 5.

5. The nullum tempus clause of s. 3 does not apply to a case where the occupant was not a mortgagee or defeasory otherwise than as he was subject to pay a portion of the produce of the property to another during her lifetime. — (P. C.) 5 W. R. P. C. 68 (P. C. R. 3).

6. This case which was originally instituted in the Zillah Court when s. 18 Reg. II of 1805 was in force, but which, having been appealed from the Zillah Court, was pending when Reg. II of 1805 was passed correcting Reg. II of 1803, was held to be subject to Reg. II of 1805. — (P. C.) 5 W. R. P. C. 62 (P. C. R. 20).

7. The recovery of costs by the East India Company for prosecuting appeals by virtue of the 3 and 4 William IV c. 41, does not constitute “a public right” within the meaning of Reg. II of 1806, enabling the Government to sue notwithstanding the lapse of time. — (P. C.) 3 W. R. P. C. 51 (P. C. R. 406).

8. A suit for rent is barred under cl. 3 s. 3 against a person who has been, by himself or by those under whom he claims, in peaceable possession without payment of rent for 60 years before the commencement of the suit. That clause takes away from the Courts all cognizance of any suit whatever if the cause of action shall have arisen 60 years before the institution of the suit; precludes all inquiry into any original defect in the title under which the possession commenced; and makes it unavailing to show that the possession commenced under a grant made null and void by Reg. XIX of 1793. — (P. C.) 5 W. R. P. C. 1 (P. C. R. 302). See 8 W. R. 232.

9. S. 3 must be construed with some strictness (otherwise the door would be opened widely to a large class of claims which ought properly to be barred), and the alleged fraud or forcible dispossession must be clearly established. — (P. C.) 22 W. R. 165.

3. When a necessity for part of a — is established, the Court may decree that the debt be set aside and plaintiff recover possession upon paying the amount legally taken, up for necessary purposes recognized by law, or that the debt be set aside in proportion.—1b.

4. The doctrine of the *Common Law Courts in England, under which the cause of action in respect to money lent, with or without interest, accrues the moment the money is lent, does not apply to suits in the Indian Mofussil Courts.—14 W. R. 224.

5. Where money is lent repayable on demand, with interest payable at a certain rate, so long as the borrower observes his part of the contract by paying interest, and so long as he is not apprised of the lender's desire to have back his principal sum, there is no cause of action, and ligation does not begin to run.—1b. R. 109.
16. A Judge, in making an order under Act XXXV of 1868 for the care of the estate of a —, was held to have gone beyond the purview of the Act in specifying what that estate consisted of.—12 W. R. 518.
17. Act XXXV of 1868 contemplates only the question of lunacy or sanity at the time of the enquiry; there is no provision in the Act that the enquiry shall extend to the ascertaining of the period when the — first became of unsound mind. The report of an officer in such enquiry has not the effect of res judicata upon the issues between two parties who allege that the lunacy commenced at two different periods.—(P. C.) 15 W. R., P. C. 1.
18. Where a petition from the mother of an alleged — was forwarded by the Collector to the Judge for orders, no application was held to be before the Judge under Act XXXV of 1868; for, if by the mother, it wanted verification: and if by the Collector, he was not her agent and did not move the Judge under s. 3, or if he acted under s. 19 or s. 27 Act IV of 1870, he needed the authority of the Court of Wards.—17 W. 30. As a general rule, a widow takes no share in the return, i.e., on failure of residuaries; but some authorities seem to hold that, if there are no heirs by blood alive, the widow takes the whole estate to the exclusion of the fie. — (P. C.) 16.

31. In a dispute between two grandsons as to proprietary right in a village registered in a name of a member of the elder branch of the family, the ratio decidendi according to which the legal presumption was in favor of one grandson claiming against another, and the one probandi on the one claiming to be sole possessor, was held more consistent, with equity and common sense than requiring the party who claims a joint interest to prove that the registered proprietor had accounted to him for his proportionate share of the profits. — (P. C.) 17 W. R. 185.

32. The question of legal necessity does not necessarily arise in cases of sale by a guardian under the Act, although it may properly be an element for consideration when the conduct of the guardian is called in question. The — looks to the benefit of the minor, and permits the guardian to dispose of movable property if it be for the benefit of the minor. — 17 W. R. 238.

35. According to — , the acknowledgment of illegitimate children as sons and heirs does not constitute them brothers and heirs to each other. — (P. C.) 21 W. R. 113.

36. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the presumption of — is that a girl attains puberty when she reaches the age of 9 years. The Scimitars hold marriages by minors to be voidable only (i.e., complete unless avoided) by dissent to be declared by the girl as soon as puberty is developed. The Sheyka, on the other hand, hold that they are faciole only and incomplete until ratified by assent. The marriage of a minor is binding and irre dissolutive if contracted by the father or grandfather, but not unwifed or nullified by guardians of a lower degree, as the mother or grandmother, who can only contract a faciole marriage. A faciole marriage requires the assent of the minor, after attaining puberty and mature understanding, to perfect it; there being evidence either of express assent or of facts from which it may be presumed. Unless the assent of a girl after attaining puberty can be shown or presumed, the marriage is imperfect, and can create no rights or obligations. — (P. C.) 26 W. R. 26.

Malicious Prosecution.

1. The mere failure to obtain a conviction on a criminal charge against a person does not entitle him to sue for false and —. In order to maintain such a suit he must show that the criminal charge was instituted maliciously and without probable cause.—3 W. R. 169; 5 W. R. 134, 282; 10 W. R. 439; 13 W. R. 276; 14 W. R. 398, 425; 17 W. R. 101, (P. C.) 283; 19 W. R. 177; (O. J.) 23 W. R. 188.

2. A charge of trespass against persons in possession of land decreed to another, whether notice of the decree has been given to the alleged trespassers or not, is not necessarily frivolous, vexatious, and false.—$ W. R., Cr., 32.

3. When a party has been acquitted of a criminal charge preferred against him, the presumption is that the charge is malicious; and it is for the accuser, when in his turn a defendant, to rebut that charge, and not for the accused (as plaintiff) to bring strict proof of malice.—6 W. R. 29, 92.

4. In an action against N for bringing a false and malicious charge, and against M as instigator, failure to prove instigation on the part of M does not affect the claim against N, who, if the charge proves false, must still show reasonable cause for bringing it, otherwise malice is inferred.—11 W. R. 942; 20 W. R. 177. See 12 W. R. 462, 14 W. R. 425.

5. A suit cannot be brought for a — when the prosecution ends in the conviction of the person against whom it is directed.—15 W. R. 118.

MASTER AND SERVANT.

1. A servant is not liable for misconduct, to forfeit any portion of his arrears of pay as had become due to him at the expiration of a month's service. The servant's misconduct may have justified his discharge in the middle of a month; if so, he is entitled to no pay for any portion of such month.—1 Hay 297.

2. Plaintiff sought to recover the value of bullocks hired by the defendant's gomashah to convey salt from the Government golas, which, proving to be in excess of the quantity ordered in the Government pass, was seized by the Salt Officials as contraband, and the bullocks were sold at under Reg. X of 1819. Held that neither the want of authority on the part of the gomashah, nor even the ignorance of the salt-merchant (the principal defendant), could be pleaded to exonerate him from the consequences of his servant's fraudulent act in adding the contraband salt to the lawful quantity.—1 Hay 461.

4. Alleged wrongful dismissal. —2 Hyl 172, 228.

5. Every employer or master has a right to dismiss his agent or servant at any time. The remedy for wrongful dismissal is by an action for damages.—2 W. R. 307.

6. A master cannot be compelled to keep in his service, and to continue to employ, a servant whose honesty he thinks he has reason to doubt.—4 W. R. 86.

7. A master who usually instructed his servant to buy goods upon credit, will be bound by his acts even when he has specially prohibited him from buying on credit.—6 W. R. 309.

8. A master is not criminally responsible for the wrongful act of a servant unless he can be shown to have expressly authorized it.—6 W. R., Cr. 60.

9. A master who accompanied a servant knowing the servant's intention to commit murder, and was present at the commission of the murder, is guilty as a principal although he struck no blow.—6 W. R., Cr. 83.

10. A master is not answerable for the tortious acts of his servants unless it be shown that they were authorized and subsequently ratified by him.—11 W. R. 101.

11. Where a master's authority for the carrying off of crops by her confidential servant was presumed.—18.

12. A dismissed servant is entitled to wages for any broken period during which he may have served, at the rate he was earning when dismissed.—16 W. R. 60.

13. An employee is entitled to wages notwithstanding his subsequent misconduct.—21 W. R. 405.

MEASUREMENT (continued).

against the ryote, with a view to resumption, does not restrain the right of—of the talook itself as against the grantee under Act VI of 1862 (B. C.)—5 W. R. (Act X) 47.

12. Where ryotes combine to withhold necessary information, one suit maybe brought against a number of them under s. 10 Act VI of 1862 (B. C.) for—by Collector of the tenure of each.—6 W. R. (Act X) 4.

13. A Collector’s jurisdiction to allow a—where the proprietary right to the land is contested, is not harassed by ss. 9 and 10 Act VI of 1862 (B. C.) if he is satisfied that the party seeking his assistance to measure is in receipt of the rents. If the Collector disallows the—on the ground, that the party aggrieved may appeal to the Civil Court.—6 W. R. (Act X) 13; 14; 14 W. R. 121, 399. See 7 W. R. 186.

But the fact of a party’s land having been measured under s. 10 Act VI cannot take away his right to intervene under s. 77 Act X.—16 W. R. 51, 22 R. 508.

Nor is the intervenor deprived of that protection under Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.)—23 W. R. 508.

14. In an application in such cases may be written on the stamp used for miscellaneous petitions, 6 W. R. (Act X) 13. See 8 W. R. 11.

15. It is not necessary that oral testimony should be taken, in particular acts.—7 W. R. 96.

16. It applies to a proprietor who, from inability to ascertain who are liable to pay rent to him, cannot measure his estate ; but not to a pattadar who seeks the Collector’s assistance in a minute—only with a view to harass and oppress the ryote.—8 W. R. 11. See also 10 W. R. 361, 18 W. R. 332.

17. A single suit for—may be brought under s. 9 against several defendants having different rights and tenure.—8 W. R. 94.

18. S. 9 Act VI of 1862 (B. C.) does not give a proprietor the right of making a general survey or of laskanad lands held under an independent title.—10 W. R. 361; 11 W. R. 295, 414.

19. In an application under s. 9, a Collector has no jurisdiction to determine what is the standard pole of —of the parganna, or the standard pole by which the —is to be made ; the direction contained in s. 11 being obligatory on the Collector or persons making the —, and all questions arising out of the pole used being reserved for after proceedings taken upon the result of the.—11 W. R. 610, 562 (overruled by F. B.) 11 W. R. 2, F. B. 4.

A party aggrieved under s. 10 Act VI of 1862 (B. C.) is entitled to measure only such lands as are comprised in his estate and for which he is entitled to receive rent.—14 W. R. 392.

20. An applicant should be required to put in some evidence of the necessity of his resuming to the special provisions of s. 10 Act VI of 1862 (B. C.)—15 W. R. 23, 322.

So as to s. 38 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.)—21 W. R. 331.

The same principle was held applicable to a suit for—of laskanad lands under Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.)—19 W. R. 280; 20 W. R. 885.

The applicant under s. 10 Act VI of 1862 (B. C.) must be the landlord or the person entitled to receive the rents.—22 W. R. 392.

21. A —made by Government from whom plaintiff derives his title was, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, held admissible in evidence of the area actually found under cultivation.—17 W. R. 258.

22. S. 10 Act VI of 1862 (B. C.) was intended to assist a proprietor to measure the lands comprised in his estate when he cannot ascertain who the ryote are, what lands are in their occupation, and what rents they have to pay—but not to enable him to enhance the rents of the ryote, to resume rent-free lands by throwing the onus on the laskanad to prove his rent-free holding.—18 W. R. 165.

23. Where an auction-purchaser at a sale for arrears of rents applies under s. 38 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) for—of the purchased estate, and no objection is made by the ryote on the score of his ability to measure, the applicant’s right to measure is undoubted.—21 W. R. 103.

24. Query. Whether the Seminar can insist upon a—simply by alleging inability to measure, and without proving such inability.—16.

27. Where an application is made to a Collector under s. 38 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) for—the of certain lands without any special application to him to determine the rates of rent, any proceedings regarding the rates of rent are inadmissible.—22 W. R. 450, 24 W. R. 272, 29 W. R. 136.

28. According to ss. 38 and 39, until the Collector has ascertained upon his inquiry, there is but one party concerned, and no proceeding in the shape of a suit or appeal can find place until after the Collector has completed his—and record.—22 W. R. 491.

29. It is for the Collector to decide as to the necessity or otherwise of a—of land under s. 10 Act VI of 1862 (B. C.) ; and when he has proceeded to measure the land and has ascertained tenures and rates of land, the tenants are bound by such.—24 W. R. 142.

30. In a suit under s. 38 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), the Collector cannot dilate his powers to an Ameena except absolutely without reservation the whole report of that officer, and order assessment according to the rates found by him ; such report being only part of the evidence to be taken into consideration.—21 W. R. 181.

31. The standard pole of—alluded to in s. 41 of the same Act must mean a standard officially known, i.e., known to the Collector.—16.

55. Where a plaintiff names by estimation a certain sum as the amount of his claim — the Court to ascertain the amount, definitely by local enquiry, he is entitled to receive the sum which the local enquiry may show to be really due. — 6 W. R. Mis. 28.

56. The defendant, if he obtains a decree declaring him entitled to possession, under a mortgage, of one-third of the property in dispute with —, B subsequently obtained a decree against A and the other co-sharers for possession of the whole estate with — under another mortgage, but instead of taking full advantage of his decree, he received from all the co-sharers the amount due to him on the original transaction and restored the property to them. Held that A was entitled to recover — due to him under the original decree. — 6 W. R., Mis. 29.

57. Under a decree for possession with — from 8th Bysack 1261, plaintiff was held entitled to the rents of 1263 and whatever else was realised by defendant after 8th Bysack 1261 during his wrongful possession. — 6 W. R., Mis. 33.

58. The same decree being allowed to — after suit, the High Court could not, under s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861, give — expressly provided for by the decree, but required the decree-holder to apply to the Court which made the decree, to amend its order regarding the same. — (F. R.) 6 W. R., Mis. 109; 13 W. R. 11; 16 W. R. 30; 19 W. R. 164; 25 W. R. 160; 25 W. R. 269.

Where a decree is silent touching interest or — subsequently to the institution of the suit, the Court executing the decree cannot under s. 11 assess or give execution for such interest or — but the plaintiff is still at liberty to assert his right to such — in a separate suit. — (P. C.) 24 W. R. 193. See also 25 W. R. 215.

59. There is no provision of law which forbids a Court to accept oral testimony in support of the amount of — without the support of dakhilas. — 6 W. R., Mis. 39.

60. A person cannot get rid of the effect of a decree for — by bringing a fresh suit to set aside a compromise entered into by his legal guardian where execution was taken out against him. — 7 W. R. 77.

61. Where execution is ordered to be taken out against the estate of a deceased judgment-debtor and the property is sold, the representative of the debtor cannot be called to account for execution for the — of the property whilst in his hands. — 7 W. R. 308. But see 15 W. R. 285.

62. S. 11 Act XXIII of 1861 does not affect the adjustment of — when it is determined that they are due, and does not bar a mortgagee, after a suit for redemption, from suing the mortgagee in possession for — payable between the date of suit and the execution of the decree where the question has not been left to be adjusted. — 7 W. R. 77.

63. S. 11 Act XXIII does not bar a separate suit for — where there was no adjudication whatever in the matter of the former suit for possession. — 7 W. R. 129. See also 12 W. R. 45.

64. Where — were payable but not decreed for want of evidence, the Court executing the decree was held not prevented from ascertaining the amount that had accrued between dates of decree and possession. — 8 W. R. 42. See 11 W. R. 339.

65. — cannot be decreed against a dārutnāсадār. — 8 W. R. 181.

66. A party in wrongful possession is liable for — from the date he withheld possession from the rightful owner. — 8 W. R. 450.

67. Where a decree provides for the ascertainment of — at the time of execution, the decree-holder is not concludingly by what he may have said in his plaint as to the amount thereof. — 9 W. R. 217.

68. Interest on — cannot be awarded for the period previous to such ascertainment, where the decree does not give interest on. — 9 W. R. 311.

69. The admission by judgment-debtors of a certain rate of — concludes them in law. — 9 W. R. 211.

70. The proper principle on which — are to be calculated when the person liable to pay them has not let the land to tenants but has himself occupied and cultivated it, growing on it indigo and other crops, is to ascertain what would have been a fair and reasonable rent for the land if it had been let to a tenant during the period of its unlawful occupation by the wrong-doer. — (F. R.) 9 W. R. 415. See also 9 W. R. 467; 10 W. R. 463; 11 W. R. 371, 533; 12 W. R. 52; 13 W. R. 37; 14 W. R. 294; 15 W. R. 258; 16 W. R. 21, 171; 17 W. R. 237, 348; 19 W. R. 122; 21 W. R. 246; 23 W. R. 386; 24 W. R. 271. But see 17 W. R. 156.

71. Sarinjangar should be allowed upon the amount collected, and not upon the net proceeds coming to the landlord. — 9 W. R. 157.

72. A decree awarding immediate — at the rate admitted by defendant and larger — contingently on a higher rate being proved at the time of execution, was held to be irregular. — 10 W. R. 24.

73. So far as s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861 (read in connection with ss. 196 and 197 Act VIII) operates to deprive Civil Courts of the jurisdiction to entertain a claim for damages put forward by a plaintiff, it applies solely to damages sought in the character of — which have been already awarded by a decree of a Civil Court in a previous suit.—10 W. R. 62. See also 11 W. R. 399, 19 W. R. 11.

74. A decree for possession or judgment includes restitution to —10 W. R. 131 (adopting F. B. 9 W. R. 402); 23 W. R. 441. See 11 W. R. 389.

75. No difference should be made between — paid in kind and — paid in cash, but the value of both should be calculated in specie and the usual rate of interest allowed.—10 W. R. 209.

76. A decree in a suit under s. 15 Act XIV of 1859 for recovery of possession in favor of plaintiff, is sufficient prima facie evidence of his title to warrant a decree for — 11 W. R. 83.

77. Where the time that plaintiff obtained a decree for land and — a third party got possession in satisfaction of some other claim, Hold that, as plaintiff might under s. 223 Act VIII have executed his decree, defendant was not liable for the — for the period during which he was kept out of possession by the third party.—11 W. R. 414.

78. A decree for possession and — must, with reference to s. 196 Act VIII, be held to mean — down to the date of delivery of possession.—12 W. R. 75. See 15 W. R. 203.

79. When the amount of — is not expressly admitted, the Court is bound under s. 197 to deal with it as if it were disputed, and the amount at the trial or to reserve it for assessment in execution.—12 W. R. 127.

80. The — payable in respect of the subject-matter of a suit, under s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861, are only such as are made payable in order of the Court which passed the decree. In respect to — due after the decision of the first suit, the decree-holder is entitled to institute a fresh suit.—12 W. R. 127.

81. Where a suit for possession with — was dismissed by the first Court, and plaintiff appealed only as to possession and obtained a decree for possession only, his subsequent suit for — from the time of dispossession up to the time of the decree of the Appellate Court was held not barred by ss. 2, 7, or 196 Act VIII nor by s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861.—(F. B.) 13 W. R. F. R. 15.

But every suit brought to recover — must by s. 7 Act VIII include the whole claim arising out of the cause of action which gives the ground for the claim and which cannot be divided.—21 W. R. 223. See also 22 W. R. 424, 25 W. R. 113.

82. Where in a suit by I. for recovery of certain lands with — a decree was given by the Prity Council declaring I. absolutely entitled to two mouzhas, and also to certain lands with regard to which the High Court was ordered to institute certain inquiries, Hold that he might have waited the result of those inquiries before applying for execution in limine moris in the mouth of — although the same decree of the Prity Council did not specifically mention anything about the — of those two mouzhas, the right to — was consequential on the declaration for possession in the decree and upon possession.—(P. C.) 14 W. R. P. C. 23; 21 W. R. 195. See 14 W. R. 485, 16 W. R. 26.

83. As a general rule, a suit for — will lie against parties who have been found, in a previous suit for recovery of the land, to have been in wrongful possession, and against them only. If the plaintiff, in the former suit, has recovered a decree against several persons as joint wrong-doers, he cannot single out one or more of them only as defendants in the suit for — 14 W. R. 78.

They are all equally liable for the —; and any question as to who was in possession of a particular portion of the property, and as to how much he was in possession of, will have to be disposed of amongst themselves in any suit that may arise out of the partition.—14 W. R. 149.

84. A Judge cannot interfere with the award of — which is a final award so far as the Appellate Court is concerned.—14 W. R. 160.

85. Where a suit for — is included in one for possession, plaintiff must value his claim at real amount, and cannot be allowed, in the course of a mere enquiry into the amount of damages after decree, to depart from the claim made by his plaint and set up a substantially new and distinct claim.—14 W. R. 160.

86. Where — are decreed, the mode of ascertaining them is rightly reserved for the proceedings in execution.—15 W. R. 133.
MISCELLANEOUS (continued).

108. What is wrongful dispossession rendering the party committing it liable for — as a wrong-doer.—18 W. R. 216.

109. Where the accounts of an estate are made up at the end of the ordinary year, they are rightly treated as due at the end of each year, and interest may be added by way of damages.—19 W. R. 87.

110. Where plaintiff is exonerated from the imputed enjoyment of land by the joint action of defendants who have divided the property among themselves, the defendants are all equally responsible for the damage sustained by plaintiff, and plaintiff is entitled to — up to such time as he gets real and substantial possession in execution of his decree.—19 W. R. 218.

111. Where the words of a decree could be completely interpreted under s. 197 Act VIII, and could only be brought under s. 196 by a reference to certain words in a suit omitted in the decree, the Court held itself bound to regard the decree as 197 only for the purpose of the — claimed.20 W. R. 51.

112. Where a decree giving possession and — is reversed by the Privy Council, the Judge making an order for the restitution of the property should also order repayment of the — derived therefrom by plaintiff during his possession.20 W. R. 239, 22 W. R. 445.

113. Where in execution more land is taken possession of than is covered by the decree and afterwards relinquished, the question of —, being one which arises between the parties to the suit with reference to the execution of the decree, and under s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861, it is determined by the Court executing the decree and not by a separate suit.20 W. R. 415.

114. In order to establish a claim for —, it is incumbent on plaintiff to prove that (1) he was entitled to possession during the period for which they were held, and (2) that he was wrongfully kept out of that possession by the defendants for such period.21 W. R. 256.

115. A decree limiting possession with — from the date the land was rightly construed as a decree — until the date when delivery of possession shall be effected, and preserving the question of the amount for adjustment in execution.22 W. R. 328.

116. Where a plaintiff-purchaser, who paid for possession as well as —, obtained a decree for possession which said nothing about —, and no reason appeared why they should not be refused, the High Court allowed the — in execution.22 W. R. 496.

117. Where a mortgagee, after obtaining a decree for foreclosure, sued for possession and —, and the mortgagee did not prove that he had given plaintiff possession or directed his lessee to pay rent to him. — Held that the mortgagee (defendant) was liable for — from the date of foreclosure so far as it was not barred by limitation.22 W. R. 590.

118. In a suit for possession with —, where the first Court set aside the Amicus’s report and awarded — on the evidence of witnesses, the Lower Appellate Court ought not to depute another Amicus, but should have asked the question as to — due to the materials on the record.23 W. R. 184.

119. Where the Privy Council gave plaintiff a decree for possession with —. Held that the intention was to award such a sum as would compensate plaintiff for his actual loss in each year with interest.23 W. R. 449.

120. Executors may issue with respect to ascertainment — pending enquiry as to unascertained —. 24 W. R. 444.

121. In ascertaining and declaring the amount of — due under a decree, the Court executing it has no power to alter the decree in respect to interest awarded.—24 W. R. 88.

Minor.

1. Right of suit by a — on attaining majority without joining other parties in the suit. — 18 C. C. 19.

2. The first Court having decreed the plaintiff's claim to recover possession and to have the sale of their estates, effected during their minority, cancelled, so much of the Judge's order as declared that the restoration of plaintiff's rights must be preceded by the payment of the price of a sale by which they had been wronged, was annulled. — 11 Hay 5.

3. Where the only property claimed by a — is in dispute between him and another claimant, the Judge should give such a certificate as will entitle the holder to act in any matter for the — but the Judge cannot appoint a manager to take charge of the disputed property. — 11 Hay 583.

4. As 19 Act XL of 1858 has provided a special procedure for impounding the accounts of a manager viz, by a regular suit by a relative or friend, a District Judge ought not, on mere application of a friend, to call for and go into the accounts in a summary way under s. 21. — 2 Hay 113 (Marsh. 244).

5. Actual delinquency or incompetency must be proved, before a manager appointed under a will according to s. 7 can be removed. — 18.

6. A decree obtained by collusion against an infant represented by a legal guardian is not void, but voidable at the election of the infant, and such election cannot be exercised so as to interfere with the rights of an innocent purchaser without notice of the fraud. — 2 Hay 196 (Marshall 313).

7. Where several co-proprietary by an illness exchanged a piece of land with another person (the defendant) for mutual convenience and the avoiding of disputes, and the defendant erected buildings on the land, the Court, considering how many of the co-proprietary had joined in the act, refused to allow one of them, who was a — at the time of the exchange, to disturb defendant's possession without proof that he was injured by the exchange. — L. R. 64.

8. A — should be made a party to a suit under s. 73 Act VIII of 1859, and his guardian may then appear and defend the suit. If there be no guardian already appointed, the mother may apply to the Court for liberty to defend as his guardian under s. 3 Act XI of 1858. — See 32 W. R. 48.

9. The appearance of an alleged — may be taken into consideration in disposing of his plea of minority, but the decision must rest mainly upon positive evidence which he is bound to produce. — W. R. 86 p. 304, 365.

10. Liability of minors for payment of debt of their executor and guardian (which they had undertaken to pay by instalments) notwithstanding no adjustment of accounts has taken place. — (P. C) 2 W. R. 4, C. C. 47 (P. U. R. 445).

12. A person apprehending danger to the health or life of a — should ask the Court's interference under s. 21 Act XI of 1858. — 2 W. R., Mis. 6.

15. A — when he comes of age, is not precluded from suing in his own name for anything that his guardian, either through ignorance or negligence, has omitted to prosecute. — 3 W. R. 13.

16. Limit of minority. — See Majority.

17. Suits for or against minors can only proceed when they are duly represented by a guardian or next friend. — 3 W. R. (Act X) 189, 11 W. R. 300. See 14 W. R. 468.

18. It is not optional with a — to sue in his own name or through a guardian; he must be represented by a legally constituted guardian. — 23 W. R. 397.

20. In appointing a manager of the estate of a — a Judge has to consider not only the needs of kindred, but also the suitabilities of the person to be appointed. — 1 W. R., Mis. 22.

21. A — has a qualified power of contracting; and an invalid or ex parte contract for necessaries is binding absolutely on him. — 5 W. R. 2.

22. As a — cannot himself state and settle an account as to be bound thereby, so neither can his authorize another party to do that which he cannot do himself. — 18.

23. Authority given by the father of a — and other members of a joint Hindu family to borrow money, cannot bind the — with regard to debts incurred after his father's death, in the absence of proof of the money having been borrowed for the use of the — 5 W. R. 231.

24. A — being a member of a joint Hindu family would not necessarily make the sales good against him if the proceeds did not benefit him or his father's estate. — 18.

25. There is no reason why a judgment obtained in any suit by a — should not be enforceable in favor of the — 5 W. R. 231.

27. But it is liable for an act done by a guardian naturally arising out of the management of the property of the — 16 W. R. 292.

28. A kuse or other transaction for a — which is not absolutely void but only voidable, must be considered valid until it is avoided by some distinct act on the part of the — after his coming of age. — 13 W. R. 316. See also 13 W. R., 172.
MINOR (continued).

26. The Judicial Commissioner in Assam is the officer to whom, under Act XL of 1856, the charge of the person and property of a — is committed.—12 W. R. 424.

27. The plea of minority may be used to protect a —, but not to injure third parties; as where a sale is deliberately made by a — when sufficiently advanced in years to understand the nature of the transaction, and he receives the full amount of the purchase-money, although the conveyance is invalid by reason of his minority, he must refund the purchase-money before he can get back the property.—16 W. R. 268.

28. So also in a suit to recover property sold by plaintiff's guardian during plaintiff's minority, where defendants fail to show a good title to the purchase-money, the court has power to order them to account to plaintiff and pay him the moneys received and disbursed by them.—18 W. R. 257.

29. A Court ought not to make a decree by consent against an infant without ascertaining that it is for the benefit of the infant that such a decree should be pronounced.—16 W. R. 232.

30. Where a —, the issue of a Christian marriage, was removed from the custody and guardianship of her mother and the mother's second husband, who had both become Mahomedans and contracted a Mahomedan marriage while the second husband was already the husband in Christian marriage of a living Christian wife.—(P. C.) 67 W. R. 77.

31. In the selection of a school in such cases, it is desirable to have some independent trustworthy person as guardian, to whom the — can apply and whose duty will be to communicate to the Court any matter which may arise.—(P. C.) Jb.

32. From the necessity of the case, a child in India must be presumed to have his father's religion and his corresponding civil and social status, and therefore it is ordinarily and in the absence of controlling circumstances, the duty of a guardian to train his — want in such religion.—(P. C.) Jb.

33. Where two parties were fighting to get hold of the property of a — who was likely to suffer if it remained in the hands of either, the Court ordered it to be made over to the Collector under s. 12 Act XL of 1858, with direction to appoint a manager and guardian.—17 W. R. 269.

34. A Judge was held not to have improperly exercised the discretion vested in him by s. 3 Act IX of 1861 in not removing a — 64 years old from the custody of his natural mother.—17 W. R. 54.

35. A guardian is in right or interest of the property of the —, and the Courts ought to be extremely careful with regard to allowing the property of a — to be sold in execution.—18 W. R. 53. See also 20 W. R. 576.

36. As to his major's consent, it is not required by law to give notice of his intention to repudiate an adoption improperly made during his minority by his guardian.—19 W. R. 444.

37. A — ought not to be compelled by an act done to his prejudice by his mother acting as his guardian; nor, on the other hand, ought she to be allowed to avoid her own act by setting up the interests of her son; but some third person should come forward to take the place of the — and make the mother a defendant in the cause.—19 W. R. 263.

38. Under the Hindoo law, a — cannot make a contract for himself, and no one can make a contract which shall bind him and his property unless he has authority under the law to do it and under legal necessity.—20 W. R. 38.

39. In trying an issue between a person of mature years and a —, the Court should take nothing as admitted against the — unless it is satisfied that the admission is made by some one competent to bind the — and fully informed upon the facts.—21 W. R. 226. See also 23 W. R. 348.

40. Although it is more regular and very desirable to have a formal order under s. 3 Act XL of 1858 granting permission to his representative to appear in a suit for a — without a certificate, yet where a plaint was admitted without a certificate, it was assumed that the Court did intend to grant that permission.—22 W. R. 325.

41. A — was held not affected by a decree in a suit in which his interests were not properly represented and in which he was not made a party strictly in the manner prescribed by s. 69 Act IV of 1870 (B. C.).—23 W. R. 348.

42. A Judge has no power to appoint a party to be the guardian of a — and to direct the Collector to take charge of the estate, and then it will become the duty of the Collector to appoint a manager and a guardian in the same manner, etc., as if the minor's property and person were subject to the Court of Wards.—Jb.

1. A suit by a zamin for possession of land and for arrears of rent of those lands under a kuhoolat, given by the defendant and to have it declared that a Blauckar hitenre set up by the defendant is a fabrication, is not multiform or bad on the ground of — of causes of action. — (1. 1901) 5 W. R., P. C., 5 (P. C. R. 628).
2. In a suit by a son against a father and certain purchasers to obtain a declaratory decree in respect to certain property, the fact of each purchaser being concerned only in a portion of the case does not render the suit multiforms, — 3 W. R., 102.
3. An Appellate Court can under s. 37 Act XXIII of 1861 separate misjoindens suits and try them separately. — 4 W. R., 109.
It need not dismiss the whole suit on the ground of —. — 20 W. R., 482. See also 14 W. R., 184.
4. Where the three widows of three out of five sons sued for their husbands’ shares of property, the death of the husbands of two of the plaintiffs before their father was held fatal to the suit of all three, and the plaint was held bad on the ground of multiplicity. — 8 W. R., 401.
5. There was held to be no — in a case where plaintiffs endeavoured to obtain an adjudication in one suit instead of resorting to two separate suits, viz., one suit against defendant No. 1 for the recovery simpliciter, preceded as it must have been by another suit against defendant No. 2 for declaration of the shares to which the plaintiffs were entitled. — 20 W. R., 504.
6. Where in a suit for arrear of rent two of the defendants plead transfer to one M A who intercedes and in the decree is made jointly liable for costs, the judge was held to have been in error in allowing the three to appeal together, as their joint appeal ought to have been treated as two separate appeals. — 20 W. R., 443.
7. In a suit to recover rent from defendants with whom engagements had been entered into separately, plaintiff obtained a decree making each of them liable for the whole sum claimed. Held that there was a — of the defendants and that the decree was wrong in law, but that if the first Court had made each defendant liable in proportion to the rent he had engaged to pay, the objection of — would not have been allowed to prevail.—22 W. R. 133.

8. Where a single suit for rent against the holders of several tenures is objected to on the ground of — the mere fact of non-registration as separate holdings is no answer to the objection. The Court should inquire whether the tenants have not in fact been dealt with as holders of separate tenures.—22 W. R. 334.

9. A suit by plaintiffs having separate interests was not dismissed on appeal on the ground that by their suing together no substantial injustice was done to defendant, and that the dismissal of the suit now would be to throw away all the money which had been expended on it and to leave plaintiffs with a claim which might be barred by limitation.—22 W. R. 121.

Mokurruruse Tenure.

1. 8, 11 Reg. XXVIII of 1828 (requiring successors to be reported to the Collector within 6 months) refers only to the security of the Revenue, and not to private interests. —W. R. R. 34 (1 Hay 207).

2. Where a Mokurruruse potiah is for a specified area, the landlord may under s. 17 Act X of 1850 assess all the

3. Where plaintiff sued to set aside a mokurruree lease under which defendant and his ancestors had held for more than seven years without authority, the lease being void because defendant's ancestor was not in possession of the property, the lease was held not to be extinguished by the death of the lessor who died in 1852, the Court refused to admit the doctrine that such mokurruree lease gave a proprietary title so as to enable the lessee to claim adverse possession and the Statute of Limitation.—L. R. 5.

4. Where a — was held on condition of service to be rendered to the proprietor of the estate to which it appertained, and the estate has been forfeited for rebellion, it cannot be recovered by the mokurrureedars.—W. R. Sp. 5.

5. A mokurruree ryt may build a well or do anything that does not endanger the zemindar's ground rent.—W. R. Sp. 279 (2 R. J. P. J. 320).

6. A Collector has no power to grant a potjah giving a —W. R. Sp. (Act X) 58 (2 R. J. P. J. 256).

7. A mokurruree title, judicially established, cannot be disturbed by a decree for arrears of rent at different times passed on various adverse rents and mortgagee to such title.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 65 (2 R. J. P. J. 370).

9. The heirs of the granter of a — who dies before taking under a conditional and personal grant, cannot claim under it.—W. R. 82.

10. A zemindar cannot sue in the Civil Courts to set aside a mokurruree lease which has been once held valid in the Revenue Court under Act X of 1850, but he may sue to eject a party holding on an alleged — he never having recognized him as a tenant, but treating him simply as an trespasser.—W. R. 292 (2 R. J. P. J. 273).

11. Where a ryt alleges a mokurruree right by purchase, the nature of his vendor's title should be enquired into, and whether it was transferable or not.—W. R. (Act X) 4; 4 W. R. (Act X) 16.

12. Excess lands held under a mokurruree potjah dated prior to 1790, are not liable to separate assessment.—2 W. R. (Act X) 35 (4 R. J. P. J. 168).

14. A lessee cannot be summarily evicted from a — by resolution of the management committee of his lessee and a third party which never went beyond the lessor's receipt of earnest-money from that party, and of which the lessee had no notice.—6 W. R. 234, 7 W. R. 463.

15. For the further protection of the lessor, it is necessary to convey mokurruree rights.—7 W. R. 394. See 8 W. R. 597; 9 W. R., P. C., S; 10 W. R. 403; 17 W. R. 486; (P. C.) 19 W. R. 141. But see 14 W. R. 262.

16. The grant of a mokurruree is beyond the scope of a mahi's general authority.—19 W. R. 409.

17. When a mokurrureedars resigns his tenure, the durmokurrurees created by him come to an end; but the position of zemindars holding rights of occupancy is not affected by the extinction of either the tenure or the under-tenures.—10 W. R. 408.

18. Under-tenants bond fide holding and cultivating lands within a — cannot be summarily ejectted by an auction-purchaser merely because they fail to show that their holding is antecedent to the creation of the —. 11 W. R. 263. See also 13 W. R. 410, 26 W. R. 104.

19. A ryt having a right of occupancy can create a mokurruree lease; but the terms of a lease granted by him to a third party can only be binding between them both. If the landlord dispossess the sub-lessee without the sanction of law, he is guilty of trespass.—13 W. R. 291.

20. In a suit by an auction-purchaser of an under-tenure, to recover land covered by a mokurruree, where defendant/plaintiffs right of occupancy, the latter is protected from ejectment by section 6 Act X; and even if the lease is avoided under s. 16 Act VIII of 1865 (R. C.), ejectment would not necessarily follow.—18 W. R. 410.

21. A Deputy Collector's decree for rent cancelling a — with reference to Act X, as not creating a permanent or transferable interest, though erroneous, cannot be treated as a nullity or as passed without jurisdiction. The tenure, however, is not cancelled as long as the decree is not executed.—18 W. R. 441.

22. Where a joint undivided estate is subjected to private partition, and a portion of one share is granted by the owner in mokurruree, the grantee's mokurruree title cannot be got rid of by a regular inzerauree subsequently made.—13 W. R. 447.

23. Where there are no words in a lease extending its provisions to other parties beyond the lessee, its terms must be interpreted as applicable to the lessee only, unless the Court is able, from the conduct of the parties and the surrounding circumstances, to come to a different conclusion.—14 W. R. 262.

24. Where a lease contains a condition whereby the lessor agrees not to put an end to the — of his lessee except on the occurrence of a fresh settlement on the part of Government, it does not follow that the lessor intends to constitute a tenement lease if no Government settlement takes place.—1b.

25. In such a case a lessor's right to re-enter arises on the death of the lessee; but if the representatives of the lessee have been allowed to hold over by the heirs of the lessor to whom they have paid rent, the cause of action to a purchaser of the lessor's rights and interests arises on the refusal of lessee's representatives to permit him to re-enter.—1b.

26. Parties holding a permanent settlement from Government cannot question the validity of a mokurruree potjah previously granted by themselves when they held the property under a temporary settlement.—15 W. R. 394.

27. The effect of a saleasuch confirming the rent of a tenure on the part of the manager of ancestral property, and agreeing that it shall not be enhanced, was held to create a mokurruree — at a fixed rent.—15 W. R. 434.

28. A — granted in perpetuity cannot be resumed by the granter even if the grantee dies without leaving heirs.—15 W. R. 649.

On the failure of heirs of the last possessor, the zemindar takes neither by right of reversion, nor by escheat as the superior lord, but the tenure escheats to the Crown.—(P. C.) 25 W. R. 239.

29. Though a lease contained no words importing an hereditary character, yet it was held to have the effect of being hereditary on the ground that the period of its continuance was not dependent on the life of any party, whether lessor or lessee, but on the continuance of the superior tenure.—17 W. R. 485.

30. Only a reversioner and those having some interest in the estate can contest allotments by Hindoo widows of shares in a hereditary —. The zemindar may, if necessary, cause the sale of the tenure for arrears of rent, but he cannot take absolute possession by force.—19 W. R. 406.

31. The auction-purchaser of a — cannot set aside rights of occupancy existing from a period prior to the creation of such tenure, s. 16 Act VIII of 1865 (B. C.) referring to inuances granted subsequently.—19 W. R. 106.

32. The liability to ejectment of the holder of a mokurruree inzerauree isjar is to be determined by the conditions of his lease, and not by the provisions of s. 21 Act X.—19 W. R. 349.

The same principle was held applicable to saleasuch.—22 W. R. 376.

33. When a party who makes a mokurruree grant has enough in him to feed that grant, i.e. to make it substantial and valid, he cannot in a Court of Equity be allowed afterwards to deny its efficacy.—20 W. R. 291.

34. A mokurrureedars who has got his lease from the members of a joint Hindoo family who are in actual possession and managing the joint property, cannot be ejected or interfered with by another member not in possession, unless it can be shown that he has acted dishonestly.—24 W. R. 319.

Suit for Money.

Money Decree.

1. Money recovered under a decree or judgment cannot be recovered back in a fresh suit or action whilst the decree or judgment under which it was recovered remains in force; but if the decree or judgment be reversed or superseded, the money recovered under it should be refunded and is recoverable either by summary process or by a new suit.—(F. C.) 8 W. R. P. C. 11 (P. E. B. 870).

2. Where a defendant's property is purchased at a sale on a money decree, whether the holder of a — can follow the property previously pledged to him for the bond-debt, after its conveyance to another party.—W. R. Sp. 311.

3. When a person, to whom a decree is purchased for a debt, objects to the claim of his debtor, he cannot execute that decree against the property pledged to the prejudice of a subsequent bond fide purchaser. He may enforce his lien by separate action against the party in possession of the property pledged to him, but he cannot execute the — against the property in the hands of the subsequent purchaser.—(F. B.) 1 W. R. 315; 5 W. R. 115; 6 W. R. 312; 7 W. R. 30, 206, 483; 8 W. R. 29; 10 W. R. 27, 88, 468; 11 W. R. 149, 322; 12 W. R. 522; 20 W. R. 408; 21 W. R. 160. See also 7 W. R. 232, 8 W. 4. Under s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861, the recovery of money taken in execution of a decree, which is afterwards reversed on appeal, is not the subject of a new suit, but must be tried into by the Court which passed the decree as a matter arising between the parties relating to the execution of such decree.—2 W. R. 275, 4 W. R. 66.

5. A plaintiff who by his plaint seeks a — is not estopped from proceeding against land in execution of that decree.—2 W. R. 282.

6. Power of a widow, to whom a certificate to collect her husband's debts has been granted, to sell a — belonging to her husband's estate.—2 W. R. Mis. 19.

7. A mortgagee who took not a — for the amount of his loan was held entitled to proceed against any property belonging to the debtor, though, by so doing, he would throw up his lien on the property pledged to him.—3 W. R. Mis. 16.

8. Where the holder of a —, who has acquiesced in an order for the sale of certain property, credits only a portion of the proceeds in satisfaction of the decree, he is not entitled to have his lien declared upon other property.—4 W. R. 67.

9. If a — in a suit for damages on account of illegal covenant and sale, remains unsatisfied after execution against moveable property, plaintiff may under s. 109 Act X apply to the Collector for execution against the immovable property of his judgment-debtors.—6 W. R. (Act X) 67.

9a. Where property hypothecated for a debt is sold in execution of a — passed under the bond hypothecating it without any additional order in the decree for enforcing the lien on the property, and the holder of a subsequent similar bond, who has attained an order on his decree directing the sale of the property, seeks to enforce his lien upon the property so purchased, the purchaser is entitled to go on the previous lien, as he not only stands in the shoes of the debtor, but has purchased all rights in the property hypothecated by the debtor when his hypothecation was made, and has thus also acquired the rights of the decree-holder to satisfy whose due the property was sold when the purchaser purchased it.—7 W. R. 252. See also 24 W. R. 94. But see 19 W. R. 83.

10. A decree for rent under the old law was a simple — and did not burden the immovable land bond fide passed by private purchase out of the hands of the debtor.—7 W. R. 376.

11. A decree for mesne profits to be ascertained in execution is a — under s. 232 Act VIII, and is properly followed by attachment and (when the amount of mesne profits has been determined) by sale.—8 W. R. 9.

12. The sale of a Hindoo widow's rights and interests in her husband's estate, in execution of a — against her, does not touch the estate.—8 W. R. 519.

13. An ordinary — in a suit on a bond with a mortgage clause, but silent about that clause, cannot be executed against property no longer belonging to the judgment-debtors.—9 W. R. 82.

14. Where a defendant dies pendente lite and plaintiff obtains a decree for money lent on a deed of conditional sale, he may follow any assets left by his debtor but has no lien on the land.—11 W. R. 228.

14a. Where a mortgagee brings a suit upon his bond and obtains a — which says that execution shall be had against the property pledged and then against the person, it is competent for him to waive his right as mortgagee, and resting upon his — to go back to have the surplus proceeds of sale under s. 271 Act VIII.—14 W. R. 269.

So also under s. 287.—24 W. R. 386.

15. A party obtaining a farming lease as security for a loan, and then obtaining a — in a suit on the bond executed by the lessor, cannot retain his former status.—14 W. R. 463.

16. Where a mortgagee electing to take a simple — purchases the mortgaged land sold in execution, and is afterwards ejected by a party claiming to hold on a prior con-

17. A mortgagee taking out a — is not bound by s. 7 Act VIII to bring his suit for the whole of the property belonging to his judgment-debtor if it has come to different parties under separate title-deeds, but may follow the property upon which he has a lien into the hands first of one purchaser and then of another.—15 W. R. 486. See also 22 W. R. 305. (F. D.) 23 W. R. 187, 400.

18. Where a form of mortgage or charge created by a bond does not vest any estate in the mortgagee, but only establishes a lien as incident to the money debt, such lien continues when the debt passes from a contract into a judgment-debt, and when such judgment-debt is assigned to another by sale of the decree.—19 W. R. 255, 22 W. R. 98.

19. If at the date of the sale of the decree the property over which the lien extends has already been attached, seeing that an attachment under a — on a mortgage, bond and the mortgage lien cannot co-exist separately in the property hypothesized, the attachment in question must be treated as enforcing the lien; and if the property is sold pending such attachment, the lien becomes transferred from the property to the purchase-money.—ib. See 23 W. R. 373.

20. If the purchaser of the decree applies for attachment of the purchase-money and his application is rejected, he may institute a regular suit to establish his title to them under s. 270 Act VIII; but failing to do so, he forfeits his lien both in the land and in the purchase-money; though he does not forfeit his right to execute the decree otherwise.—ib.

21. A decree for the payment of a loan with costs and interest, and for recovery of the amount by sale of the properties pledged, does not limit plaintiff's right to recover only by sale of the property in question, but defendant's personal liability arises on receipt of the money, and the mortgage money gives additional security.—19 W. R. 281.

22. When there is a simple mortgage and a — obtained on the bond, if the creditor chooses to proceed against the mortgaged property and to sell it, he must be taken to sell the whole interest of his debtor. The interest of the debtor is not thereby reduced by the hypothecation, and no part of his estate passes to him from the creditor. The property is simply pledged as a security.—22 W. R. 98.

23. Where a mortgagee comes to an arrangement with three out of five joint mortgagors by which he consents to take payment of a — against three of them, the amount of the decree must be considered as a sum paid in reduction of the liability of the three.—22 W. R. 310.

24. A decree of the first Court declaring decree-holders entitled to satisfy their decree by the sale of certain hypothecated properties, being reversed by the High Court, and affirmed by the Privy Council,—Held — that the lien established by the Privy Council decree was not lost to the decree-holders by their previous conduct in receiving a portion of the decretal money by the sale of part of the mortgaged premises, which money was subsequently returned to them by the judgment-debtor, on the decision of the first Court having been reversed by the High Court.—23 W. R. 193.

25. Where a decree which had been passed on a mortgage-bond is to the effect that the decree-holder is entitled to have his lien satisfied by the sale of the rights and interests of the judgment-debtor in all the properties hypothecated, the High Court cannot modify its terms and direct the Court charged with the execution to sell first the judgment-debtor's rights and interest in one portion of the properties hypothecated, provided the proceeds are not sufficient, to proceed against the remaining portion.—23 W. R. 193.

Mookhtar.

1. The grant of a mookhtarnamah by the widow of a son who died during his father's lifetime is invalid.—2 Hay 162.

2. Raja pla and their mookhtars.—2 Hyde 250.

3. Special power not necessary where a general mookhtarnamah conveys authority to borrow. Where special power exists for sale of land, proof of motive of sale not necessary.—1 W. R. 39.

4. A Magistrate has no power to dismiss a — generally, unless he be convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude or infamy.—1 W. R., Cr., 34.

5. The — being unable to sue, the plaintiff was entitled to either appear or send one who could reply to the questions of the Court. He failed to do either, and it was held that the Court was justified in dismissing the suit under s. 127 Act VIII of 1865.—2 W. R. 101.

6. A Magistrate cannot refuse to permit an accused to attend at the sessions by —. — 2 W. R., Cr., 50 (4 L. J. P. J. 357).

7. The High Court will not interfere with Zillah Judges in the selection and admission of Mookhtars under cl. 39 of the new Pleaders' and Mookhtars' Rules.—5 W. R., Mis., 49.

8. Intention and meaning of the same rule relative to the admission of Mookhtars.—6 W. R., Mis., 29.

9. There is no limitation of time for the grant of a certificate by a Judge under the same rule.—6 W. R., Mis., 120.

10. The mere bringing a plaint to a vakuil for his signature by a — not duly qualified, is not an acting as a — which renders the party liable to a fine under s. 15 Act XX of 1865.—6 W. R., Cr., 29.

11. The Judge of a Small Cause Court has no jurisdiction in such a matter unless the plaint was one to be presented to his Court.—ib.

12. A mookhtarnamah under seal is valid as one under signature. A Judge is not bound to require proof of the genuineness of the seal.—7 W. R. 475.

13. A mookhtarnamah was held to be invalid, those being no legal proof of its execution, and the whole of the transactions relative to the execution being of a very questionable character.—8 W. R., P. C. 22.

14. There is nothing in Act XX of 1865 to restrain any person from supplying information to the vakuels in the presence of the Judge. The word "appearance" does not mean actual presence before the Judge in Court, e.g. of a — standing behind the pleader.—10 W. R. 555.

15. A general — must be considered to have a certain discretion, unless the contrary is shown, to do such acts as come within the ordinary scope of his duty with authority.—14 W. R. 36.

16. Before a Magistrate can suspend a —, he must observe the requirements of s. 16 Act XX of 1865.—15 W. R. 171; 17 W. R., Cr., 6; 21 W. R., Cr., 41.

17. Suspension or dismissal of — under ss. 16 and 16 Act XX of 1865.—18 W. R., Cr., 16.

18. Case of a — who was reinstated by the High Court to his practice after suspension.—16 W. R., Cr., 41.

19. Renewal of certificate to — to practise in another district.—18 W. R. 290.

Money Order.

See Stolen Property 12.
20. The mere writing of a petition for a party who afterwards presents that petition himself, is not "acting" as a — in a Criminal Court within the meaning of s. 11 Act XX of 1861 (C. M. W. L., Cr. 15). 5.
21. The word "act," in s. 5 Act XX of 1865 means the doing something as the agent of the principal party which shall be recognized or taken notice of by the Court as the act of that principal. There is nothing to prevent a person as private agent from going between the prisoner or the duly authorized vakil. — W. R. C. 8. 8.
22. Where a party resists liability for a deed of sale executed by his own —, it is necessary for the purchaser claiming under that deed to show that the — had authority either by virtue of a general or special power of attorney to execute that deed, and to bind his principal by executing it. — W. R. 119.

Mortgage.

1. A deposit made in Court during foreclosure by mortgagor with a prayer that it be kept pending enquiry as to the amount due, is not a legal tender. — W. R. F. B. 14 (1 Pay 23, Marshall 3).

2. In a suit by a mortgagor against a mortgagee to recover possession of property mortgaged under a zar-i-pezah lease, the only question at issue was held to be whether all the debts had been paid, or whether the plaintiff could re-enter. The correctness of the account might be questioned by the defendant in any future suit. — W. R. F. B. 37 (1 Hay 19, Marshall 112). But see 18 W. R. B. 65.

As to payment of the whole debt. — See also 29 W. R. 262.

3. When the original transaction was an unenforceable —, the mortgagee is entitled to nothing beyond the re-payment of his principal and interest from the unfruitful of the property. The Court will not allow additional advantages to be obtained, through the necessity of a debtor, by the conversion of a — into a transaction of a different nature. Once a — always a — is a principle not to be departed from. Consequently an estate mortgaged is always redeemable. — W. R. F. B. 79 (2 Hay 256).

4. Under s. 11 Reg. XV of 1798, a mortgagee in possession is bound to produce the accounts of collection and reimbursement, and to swear to them. A plea of non-payment would not exempt him from acting up to these requirements. — 1 Hay 182, 5 W. R. 53. See also 89, 92 post.

5. A mortgagee is not bound to serve notices to all claiming rights under a mortgage. — 1 Hay 156. But see 19 W. R. 170.

6. In a suit for possession of land after foreclosure of a —, neither Reg. XVII of 1806 nor any other law requires the mortgagee to deposit any extra charges (e.g. costs) between the parties, over and above the principal and interest. — 1 May 373 (Marshall 167).

7. In 1855 A, a mortgagee, obtained a decree in a foreclosure suit, subject to two prior mortgages. In 1844 B purchased the rights of the mortgagor in the mortgaged property, and in 1854 redeemed the two prior mortgages. Held that A was not barred by limitation from asserting his title to the land, subject to the prior mortgages. — 1 Hay 437 (Marshall 191).

8. The Judge below dismissed the suit brought upon a bond with interest, at the time of the execution of which bond an assignment was given to the plaintiff in the rent of certain meadows farmed out to other parties, ruling under s. 9 Reg. XV of 1793 that a deduction of a certain sum from the jumma of the assignment was a decree to gain more interest than the legal rate. Held on appeal that that section did not apply where the transactions of the bond and of the assignment were one and the same, and where the plaintiff has a claim to be treated as an usufructuary mortgagee under s. 10 of the same law. — 1 Hay 483.

9. By a zar-i-pezah lease granted upon the advance of 5,517.6s., the lessor was to hold possession of certain villages for the term of 5 years and to pay himself out of the proceeds of the villages interest on the loan; and the lessor undertook not to mortgage or alienate the property during the term, and not to rest the less, or, if he had sold, that he would pay him 1000Rs. Before the expiration of the term, the villages were taken in execution, and sold under a decree at the suit of a third party, and the lessce turned out of possession. Held that the lessor had no claim against the villages for the principal money and that the 1000Rs. were forfeited. — 1 Hay 632 (Marshall 209).

10. A mortgagor who has recovered possession of the mortgaged property by the deposit of the principal amount under Reg. I of 1796, is, in a suit subsequently brought by him for the adjustment of accounts during the period the mortgagee was in possession, entitled to force the defendant to file his account, and swear to it according to Reg. XV of 1793. — 2 Hay 17.

11. A mortgagee need not serve a notice of foreclosure upon the purchaser of the equity of redemption after one has been served upon the mortgagee. — 2 Hay 152 (Marshall 292).

12. Much less is such purchaser entitled to notice in a foreclosure suit, if the purchase has not been made until after the institution of the suit. — 16.

13. One co-sharer of a joint estate cannot sue, in respect of his particular share, to get rid of a — entered into jointly by all the co-sharers. — 2 Hay 165, 10 W. R. 476.

14. An advance was made of 933Rs. on a farm for 7 years at a yearly rent of 871, from which the deduction of 871 was to be made on account of interest, and it was further stipulated that if, on the expiration of the lease, the loan was not repaid, the lease should continue. Held that the transaction was a —. — 2 Hay 152. See 8 W. R. 310.

15. A mortgagee cannot retain possession of the mortgaged property by the payment of the mortgage-money to a third person, but must proceed to redeem it under Reg. I of 1796. — 2 Hay 166.

16. Service of notice of foreclosure against an infant is not legal and valid unless it is served upon his or her lawful guardian. — 2 Hay 196 (Marshall 315).
Mortgage (continued).

18. In a suit for possession after foreclosure, it is no good defense that a portion of the — money was not paid for, when the money actually due was not tendered during the foreclosure proceedings. — 2 Hay 231.

19. A mortgagee who sues for possession after foreclosure, is entitled to immense profits from the date of the foreclosure decree. — 1b.

But he cannot sue the ryots for rent which they may have paid to the party in possession. — 12 W. R. 303.

20. A chattel mortgage on the personal effects of the debtor, in favor of the mortgagee, is a good security for the payment of the debt. — 2 Hay 408 (Mathew 337).

21. The admission of a mortgagee, after his property has passed to a third party, is not admissible as evidence against such third party. — 2 Hay 390.

22. The purchaser from the mortgagee of the equity of redemption in the mortgaged property is not entitled to notice of foreclosure, previous to a foreclosure suit instituted by the mortgagee, but it is sufficient if such notice is given to the mortgagee. — 2 Hay 408 (Mathew 337).

23. While a mortgage was in possession of the mortgaged premises, the lands were sold for arrears of Government revenue and purchased by the mortgagee. Held that his possession as mortgagor was superseded by the sale, it being evident that a limitation of time to run from the beginning of his possession as such purchaser. — 2 Hay 475 (Marshall 391).

24. The heirs of a deceased Mahomedian mortgaged some property of their ancestor. After the — a judgment creditor in respect of a debt due from the estate of their ancestor, attached and sold the mortgaged property in execution of his decree. Held that the sale was subject to the —, and that the question with respect to the powers of the heirs, and the rights between the latter, was to be determined, not by Mahomedan law, but by the principles of justice, equity, and good conscience. — 12 W. R. 239.

25. A mortgagee under a simple — cannot assert his lien on the mortgaged property, unless so expressly provided for in the mortgage, and in his favor. — 2 Hay 625.

26. A mortgage under a simple —, cannot be a mortgagee on a conditional sale, unless so expressly so provided for in the mortgage, and in his favor. — 2 Hay 625.

27. Where interest is not reserved by the debt, it is evidence of payment of the principal only, or a payment into Court, within a year after the institution of a foreclosure suit, of the principal only without interest, satisfies s. 7 Reg. XVII of 1806 and entitles the mortgagor to the redemption of the property. — Marshall 617. 14 W. R. 278.

28. A deed of sale executed in 1291 was subject to the condition that, if for the benefit of the condition there was to be a sale of the property to whom the vendor should be in default and default there were no such person or that the vendor should be in default and default there were no such person or that the vendor should be in default and default there were no such person. Held that Reg. XV of 1793 did not operate to prevent the assignment becoming absolute after the expiration of the time limited for repayment of the consideration, and that Reg. XV of 1793 did not operate to prevent the assignment becoming absolute after the expiration of the time limited for repayment of the consideration, and that Reg. XV of 1793 did not operate to prevent the assignment becoming absolute after the expiration of the time limited for repayment of the consideration, and that Reg. XV of 1793 did not operate to prevent the assignment becoming absolute after the expiration of the time limited for repayment of the consideration. — 2 Hay 627.

29. Where interest is not reserved by the debt, it is evidence of payment of the principal only, or a payment into Court, within a year after the institution of a foreclosure suit, of the principal only without interest, satisfies —. — 7 Reg. XVII of 1806 and entitles the mortgagor to the redemption of the property. — Marshall 617. 14 W. R. 278.

30. A — creates a right of property or special lien on the land mortgaged, which can only be discharged by the mortgagee's own act or by the actual satisfaction of the debt. It cannot be affected by any proceeding to recover the debt until the debt is satisfied. The mortgaged property, if it remain in the hands of the debtor, may be seized and sold under the mortgage decree. — 12 W. R. 303.

31. Suits for recovery of the —, and to enforce the lien or right of property in the land created by the —, against a second encumbrancer, are distinct and not identical, and may be instituted. — 12 W. R. 303.

32. Where a mortgagee agrees to take the usufruct in lieu of his interest, he has no right to an account; but the mortgagee who has a right to one under s. 10 Reg. XV of 1793, may be allowed to redeem on payment of the debt. — 12 W. R. 303.

33. If a mortgagee accepts as satisfaction of his interest an assignment of certain rents due to the mortgagee from a tenant, the mortgagee's claim to interest must be taken to be satisfied to the extent of those rents even though he may never have actually received the rents from the tenant. — 12 W. R. 303.

34. As Reg. XVII of 1806 is silent as to the costs of the notice of foreclosure, a mortgagee is not bound to pay them unless so expressly provided for in the —. — 12 W. R. 303.

35. Where a mortgagee pays into Court as principal and interest a sum which the mortgagee could not vesture to take out of Court without prejudice to the mortgagee is not entitled to deduct interest on such sum. — 12 W. R. 303.

36. Where plaintiff borrowed money of defendant 11,000 Rs. and made an absolute deed of sale accompanied by a written declaration (the most common practice in India of providing for an equity of redemption), making the transaction nothing but a redeemable sale identical with a —, although there was the expression that the 11,000 Rs. should

The right of redemption. The benefit of Reg. XVII of 1806 cannot be applied to mortgages made prior to Reg. 1 of 1798.—W. R. Sp. 138.

57. Payment by order of the Judge into the Collector’s treasury, before the expiration of the year of grace, of a debt due to a mortgagee, entitles the borrower to redeem.—W. R. Sp. 1184.

(Overruled) see 149 post.

59. Indulgence or waiver of rights between a mortgagee and mortgagees cannot be carried beyond those parties.—15.

60. A mortgagee who omitted to plead in the foreclosure suit that he did not obtain the whole of the consideration money, cannot set up that plea in the subsequent suit for possession.—W. R. Sp. 206.

61. A mortgagee in possession, in paying the Government revenue to save the estate, has a claim on the mortgagee with whom bound under the — deed to pay the revenue.—W. R. Sp. 209.

62. Where the decree of the first Court does not define with certainty the property in respect of which the mortgage is declared entitled to foreclose, the Lower Appellate Court should either itself remit the defect or remand the case for that purpose.—W. R. Sp. 215.

63. A mortgagee cannot redeem a share of the mortgaged property. This rule is not affected by the sale of part of the mortgaged lands for arrears of revenue.—W. R. Sp. 216.

64. A mortgagee under a zur-i-poshage is entitled, under s. 2 Reg. 1 of 1798, to demand back his land immediately after making his deposit; his demanding more land than is comprised in the — does not justify the mortgagee in keeping possession of what is comprised in it.—W. R. Sp. 219.

65. Where rent-free property granted in zur-i-poshage lease is resumed by Government, if the mortgagee does not pay his money or make a fresh agreement, he must be regarded as asserting to receive the profits minus the Government revenue as security.—W. R. Sp. 227.

66. A mortgagee’s absolute right and his claim to precumption arise from the time the sale becomes absolute.—W. R. Sp. 228 (L. R. 67).

67. Where two persons jointly hold a — in equal shares and the equity of redemption becomes vested in one of them, a notice of foreclosure confined to a one-half share only is sufficient, and the foreclosure proceedings will not be bad because they relate to only a part and not the whole of the mortgaged property.—W. R. Sp. 285.

68. Notice of foreclosure should be served on the mortgagee or his legal representative.—W. R. Sp. 286.

69. The omission to do so vitiated the whole of the foreclosure proceedings.—15 W. R. 263.

What is a proper issue of notice of foreclosure on the part of the mortgagor.—17 W. R. Sp. 491.

70. Where a portion of the mortgaged property is sold to satisfy a decree-holder’s prior claim, the balance (if any) of the sale proceeds will go in diminution of the mortgagee’s claim.—W. R. Sp. 287.

71. Where a person obtains a decree upon a deed which hypothecated certain property for a debt, and such property is sold by his debtor, he cannot sue to enforce that debt as a — against the same property.—W. R. Sp. 325 (L. R. 102). See also 14 W. R. 209.

72. A — made by way of security for money advanced remains in force until the debt is satisfied, and a decree may be obtained by mortgagee without regard to the proceedings of any subsequent mortgagee or subsequent purchaser by payment of an earlier — and, by obtaining a decree for the money so paid, does not acquire any rights belonging to that —— W. R. Sp. 345 (L. R. 121). See also 17 W. R. 491.

73. Where an auction-purchaser at a sale in execution of a mortgagee’s rights forcibly dispossesses the mortgagee, the mortgagee is not liable for such illegal acts.—W. R. Sp. 348 (L. R. 124).

74. A mortgagee is not entitled to a decree for redemption so long as anything is due upon the —— W. R. Sp. 349 (L. R. 125). See 9 W. R. 572.

75. Where one of several mortgaged estates is sold in

Execution of a money-deed by a third party, the mortgagee must try and recover his dues from the remaining estates, and the balance, if any, from the sold estate.—W. R. Sp. 374 (L. R. 147).

26. The rule that the date of expiry of the year of grace is the date from which a mortgagee's cause of action to obtain possession of the mortgaged estate is to be calculated, applies only to a mortgage in reconveyable and undervalued possession of the estate. But where the mortgagee is dispossessed and his title disputed, and another person obtains possession of the estate, the possession of the new holder becomes adverse to both mortgagee and mortgagor. The mortgagee's cause of action against the new holder will count from the date on which the latter obtained such adverse possession, unless where the mortgagee contests the title of the new holder and a litigation ensues between them, in which case the mortgagee is not bound to take action upon his — until that litigation is decided. But if the mortgagee's title is rejected and his possession is disturbed by an adverse one, the mortgagee's cause of action against the new holder commences from the date on which the latter obtains possession on his title adverse to the mortgagee, which has been confirmed by the Court.—W. R. Sp. 375 (L. R. 148).

77. Where a mortgage for a certain amount annually as rent is, so far as a tenant, and liable to be sued for arrears, was under Act X of 1829.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 65.

80. A mortgagee who stipulates to pay a mortgagee a certain amount annually as rent, is so far a tenant, and liable to be sued for arrears, under Act X of 1829.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 93 (3 R. J. P. J. 22).

92. Where a mortgage for a certain amount annually as rent, is so far a tenant, and liable to be sued for arrears, under Act X of 1829.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 121 (P. C. R. 88). See also 17 W. R. 492.

98. A mortgage for a certain amount annually as rent, is so far a tenant, and liable to be sued for arrears, under Act X of 1829.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 121 (P. C. R. 88). See also 17 W. R. 492.

82. According to s. 8 Reg. XVII of 1806, where mortgaged property is situate in two districts, an order of foreclosure relating to the whole property may be obtained in the Court of either district.—(P. C.) 7 W. R., P. C. 66 (P. C. R. 207).

83. The order of foreclosure having been served on the widow of the deceased mortgagee, who had a life interest and also the guardian of the minor adopted son and legal representative of the deceased, the service was held to be sufficient.—Ib.

84. A person, having an equitable — in certain villages of the title was in the holder-committer's son, instituted a suit against the mortgagee to recover the amount of his demand. Pending the suit, and while the suit, the representative of the mortgagee, was a party to it, the Collector sold the property, if it was the son's undervalued possession, and the sale was approved by the Chief Commissioner. No notice of the sale was published, and the mortgagee was not notified of the sale, and the mortgagee, until by the date of publication of the sale, which he had notice) in the advertisement of the sale, conveyed away the estate to the purchaser in unmencumbered, and received the full value as if it were free from — Held that the Collector was not liable to repay the amount which had been realised by the sale.—P. C. R. 281.

85. Bye-bil-wuffas or kut-kubalas are redeemable like an ordinary — Limitation and mode of procedure in such cases.—(P. C.) 6 W. R., P. C. 67 (P. C. R. 287). See also 29 W. R. 298.

86. Tender of — money, when valid and when not.—Ib. See also 25 W. R. 299.

87. A — executed by an insolvent who has not obtained a certificate and discharges, is subject to the lien of the mortgagee in priority to the claim of the Official Assignee under the insolvency.—(P. C.) 4 W. R., P. C. 61 (P. C. R. 426).

88. The Sheriff Court should not have decided the equity of redemption on the question of foreclosure, when in question, though raised upon the pleadings, was not made an issue in the first Court.—(P. C.) 1 W. R., P. C. 19 (P. C. R. 383). See 11 W. R. 544.

89. If a sale takes place before notice of foreclosure is filed, the notice, to be effectual, must be served on the purchaser.—Ib. See also 23 W. R. 96.

90. Accounts how to be taken.—Ib. See 92 post.

92. Suit by purchaser under deed of conditional sale for possession and messuage profile of the mortgage premises of which he is already in possession under a tenancy lease to his son.—Ib.

93. Production of accounts by mortgagee in possession.—Ib. See also 6 W. R. 271; 6 W. R. 84, 127; 7 W. R. 20.

95. Sheriff Court's order remanding suit for trial on the production of the accounts, was an interlocutory one, and plaintiff's omission to appeal against it did not preclude him from now insisting that the claim for the non-production of the accounts was erroneous, or that the cause should have been decided in his favor notwithstanding his non-production of the accounts.—Ib.

96. The effect of a foreclosure decree in the Supreme Court in a suit between Hinduos is equivalent to a decree in a suit to enjoin proprietary rights, in the Madras Court, in similar suits of the like instruments.—(P. C.) 5 W. R., P. C. 83 (P. C. R. 635).

97. A suit for redemption and for possession instituted many years after a fraudulent sale for arrears of revenue is not barred by s. 24 Act 1 of 1846.—Ib. See also 10 W. R. 478, 11.

98. A fraudulent purchase by the mortgagee in possession of the mortgaged estate at a sale for arrears of revenue will not defeat the equity of redemption.—Ib. See also (1821) 21 W. R. 292.

226. The principle that, when a creditor sues for his principal and interest (the latter being equal or more than equal to the principal at the time of the commencement of the suit), he is not deterred from charging subsequent interest for the period during which he is kept out of his money by his debtor’s resistance of the demand, is not applicable to a case in which a mortgagee in possession is not a party suing for the money, but the party resisting by every means in his power a claim and redemption and the final settlement of the account. —(P. C.) 16 W. R. 353.

227. A party who, by paying off a — debt, becomes an usufructuary mortgagee in place of the original sur-i- peshgee, does not need to sue for the amount due, but is entitled to remain in possession until the whole debt has been discharged by the usufruct. — 14 W. R. 29.

228. The right accruing to a lender of money under a bond is to have his lien on the land declared and the power to recover possession of the property if he after sale the debt is not satisfied, to proceed against the debtor for the balance. — 14 W. R. 214.

229. In a suit between Mahomedians by the heirs of a sur-i-peshgee, mortgagee to recover possession, all the heirs of the mortgagee must be represented as plaintiffs or defendants, or those who sue must claim in proportion to what they are entitled under the Mahomedian law. — 14 W. R. 216.

230. As Regs. 1 of 1798 and XVII of 1806 taken together, a mortgagee preserves his right of redemption if he deposits in Court the whole amount due to the mortgagee within the time when the final foreclosure may be effected under s. 8 Reg. XVII. —14 W. R. 275.

231. In cases in which the mortgagee has held possession of the land and therefore has receipts and profits to account for, only the principal sum borrowed need be deposited as the "amount due," and the amount of interest left to be settled on an adjustment of the mortgagee’s account. — 14 W. R. 455.

232. Notice of foreclosure may be served on mortgagee, when not at home, by affixing it on the door of his house. — 14 W. R. 429.

233. A bond which hypothecates property for money advanced is a deed of simple —, not the less so because it does not provide any remedy for a breach of the conditions therein mentioned. — 14 W. R. 461.

234. Where a decree under which mortgagors obtained possession of mortgaged property was reversed by the Privy Council, the mortgagors were held entitled to be replaced in possession and to get redemptions and to be placed in the same position as they were in before the erroneous decree was made, even though the decree reversing the erroneous decree did not provide that the mortgagors should recover possession. —14 W. R. 455.

235. Where a mortgagee obtaining a decree for a former — paid it off and got a final decree for foreclosure, and then sued to set aside a puttee granted by the mortgagee between the dates of the two mortgages. — Held that, not having kept on foot the final mortgage as a distinct and distinguishable security, the puttee lease was valid and binding on him. — 14 W. R. 491.

236. It is open to a mortgagee in India to deny that the money, the receipt of which is formally acknowledged under his hand and seal, ever was advanced. — (P. C.) 15 W. R. P. C. 14.

237. In cases to which the Bengal Reg. XVII of 1806

does not apply, the interest of a mortgagee under a deed of conditional sale becomes absolute according to the terms of contract, by the non-performance of the vendee to redeem within the stipulated period.—(P. C.) 15 W. R., P. C., 35.

And the mortgagee has a right of re-entry immediately afterdefault.—22 W. R. 80.

235. A party who obtains a decree enabling him to recover a debt, by sale of two mortgage properties, is entitled in law to proceed against both or either of the properties as he thinks proper.—15 W. R. 170.

And the right to proceed for the debt has not extinguished, if he has mortgaged indefeasible, and cannot be interfered with by unauthorized acts of the mortgagor, e.g., a bonnuslire entered into by the latter.—15 W. R. 363.

237. A decree for sale made by the Supreme Court in a suit for foreclosure of a — has no operation upon the title of a person in the Mofussil who was no party to the foreclosure suit.—(P. C.) 16 W. R., P. C., 10.

238. The title of a judgment-decree cannot be put on the same footing as the title of a mortgagee or of a person claiming under a voluntary alienation from the mortgagor. The possession of such purchaser, if it is safe and without notice of the — is the possession of an owner; and a suit by a mortgagee against the purchaser, founded on a title to enter into possession by reason of a default having occurred, ought to be brought within 12 years after the commencement of the purchaser's possession.—(P. C.) 12. See also 22 W. R. 516.

239. Mortgages of a share of an estate, having a valid lien on the estate to the extent of their share, are entitled to priority over any right under a prior lease.—16 W. R. 54.

240. When a mortgagee has a mortgage on the bond, whether held by the mortgagee or mortgaged, resulting bond is subject to a lien for the amount of the money secured by that instrument; and when such property is sold for arrears of revenue not accrued through default of the mortgagor, any proceeds which may arise from the sale, in excess of the arrears, belong to the mortgagee, and he has a right of action for their recovery.—16 W. R. 222.

241. When money is lent upon the security of immovable property of a nature incapable of division, and the mortgagee, on one of the instalments becoming due, has to sell the property, he does not thereby lose all lien over the surplus proceeds.—16 W. R. 246.

242. In a suit by a mortgagee to have the bond sold, and to enforce the payment of the balance due thereon, the mortgagee is entitled to the mortgage, if so mortgaged, to foreclose at that time in the event of repayment not being then made.—1b.

243. Where plaintiffs (appellants) claimed to be entitled to redeem property alleged to be held by respondents as mortgagees, and the latter claimed to hold it as an enan from the payment of Government revenue, and were found to have held it under this title since 1824, the Privy Council refused to disturb their title thus fortified by long enjoyment without clear and unmistakable proof of the alleged.—(P. C.) 17 W. R. 8.

244. Where defendant, in consideration of money advanced by a, entered into a — with plaintiff, who sued for possession after foreclosure.—Held that it did not lie in plaintiff's mouth to object to the suit being brought by a in plaintiff's name.—17 W. R. 92. See 22 W. R. 413.

245. Where it was contended that, according to an agreement the mortgages was entitled to the payment of the principal and interest on the debt, but that the payments of interest carried no interest themselves, the intention of the parties was construed to be that the interest might be set off against the rents and profits, and that the mortgagee was entitled to the payment on the same which he might receive over and above the interest due to him upon the debt, a, Reg. XV of 1793 not applying to transactions of this kind.—(P. C.) 17 W. R. 261.

246. The balance of interest is never added to the principal so as to produce compound interest.—22 W. R. 535.

247. Where plaintiff, by agreement, claimed to be entitled to redeem property alleged to be held by respondents as mortgagees, and the latter claimed to hold it as an enan from the payment of Government revenue, and were found to have held it under this title since 1824, the Privy Council refused to disturb their title thus fortified by long enjoyment without clear and unmistakable proof of the alleged.—(P. C.) 17 W. R. 8.

248. Where defendant, in consideration of money advanced by a, entered into a — with plaintiff, who sued for possession after foreclosure.—Held that it did not lie in plaintiff's mouth to object to the suit being brought by a in plaintiff's name.—17 W. R. 92. See 22 W. R. 413.

249. Where it was contended that, according to an agreement, the mortgages was entitled to the payment of the principal and interest on the debt, but that the payments of interest carried no interest themselves, the intention of the parties was construed to be that the interest might be set off against the rents and profits, and that the mortgagee was entitled to the payment on the same which he might receive over and above the interest due to him upon the debt, a, Reg. XV of 1793 not applying to transactions of this kind.—(P. C.) 17 W. R. 261.

250. The balance of interest is never added to the principal so as to produce compound interest.—22 W. R. 535.

251. Under an assignment executed by the mortgagee, it was arranged that the mortgagee should pay himself from the rents of a tenancy lease at a certain rate annually until the realization of the — debt with interest. Held that, until something happened to disturb the arrangement, the mortgagee could not call for payment of the balance, or realize from the sale of the mortgaged property.—17 W. R. 263.

252. A mortgagee holding under a mortgage has right to redeem when the — comes to an end.—17 W. R. 271.

253. A mortgagee cannot ask for a decree for possession without tendering the whole of the — debt.—17 W. R. 542.

Where the sum tendered is insufficient, he has no right to a decree contingent upon his paying such sum as shall be found due.—17 W. R. 408.

254. A purchaser from a debtor was held entitled to recover the amount paid by him on account of previous mortgages, when in making those payments he merely acted for the debtor who had borrowed the money from him, and what he did was to see that money so borrowed was properly applied.—17 W. R. 480.

255. A bond which covered that, until the debt was paid off, the mortgagee should not create any new incumbrance upon the property mortgaged, was held to prevail over a subsequent lease assigning the rents in liquidation of a debt.—17 W. R. 560.

256. In a former suit plaintiff, mortgagee under a usufructuary claim, recovery of the mortgaged property on the allegation of satisfaction of the principal by reason of the profits exceeding 12 per cent. interest, but having failed to prove that allegation, his suit was dismissed. He now sued for the recovery of the property under an ikarnama which did not stipulate for payment of interest. Held (1) that as no objection was taken at first on the score of plaintiff not having deposited the principal in Court, it must be considered to have been waived; (2) that the case being brought by plaintiff did not amount to an admission that there was an agreement to pay 12 per cent; and (3) even if it did, as the ikarnama upon which plaintiff now sued did not stipulate for payment of interest, plaintiff was entitled to restoration of the property on payment of principal alone.—18 W. R. 63.

257. In a suit to recover land in the possession of the mortgagee under a usufructuary —, if, upon taking an account, it appears that the mortgagee has been fully satisfied, the mortgagee is not only entitled to have his property back, but the Court is bound as a Court of Equity to finally determine as far as possible all questions concerning the subject of the suit, the parties not being at liberty to re-open the — account without another suit.—18 W. R. 65. See also 22 W. R. 172, 209; 24 W. R. 275.

258. In such a case, the enan is on the mortgagee to prove that the principal has been paid, and on the mortgagee to show what is due to him as interest.—1b.

259. Failure of the mortgagee in his duty, as trustee for the mortgagee, to keep accounts, and to produce proper accounts, is to be regarded as misconduct which ought to be taken into consideration upon the question of costs.—1b.

260. Before obtaining possession under a decree obtained after foreclosure, a plaintiff is bound to pay off a prior lien subsisting at the time he obtained a conditional sale of the property.—18 W. R. 292.

261. A party with whose money a — has been satisfied may bring a suit for the enforcement of his lien as assignee of such—, but not for obtaining possession of the mortgaged property in the capacity of an absolute owner.—18 W. R. 401.

262. In a suit for possession by parties as mortgagees against two defendants, viz. (1) the representatives of the original mortgagees, and (2) certain parties alleged to have effected a fraudulent transfer of the property into another name,—Held that the suit being one for possession and being barred by limitation against defendants No 2, no decree could be given against defendants No 1, who were not in possession.—19 W. R. 44.

263. The acquiescence of one mortgagee is not binding on another.—19 W. R. 170.

264. Transferees in possession are entitled to notice of foreclosure.—1b.

265. Plaintiff's ancestor purchased a property sold in execution of a decree obtained in 1848 by B L against

R C and R L, and took possession. In 1861 K R sued K C's representatives on a bond and obtained a decree against the defendants personally, which did not direct the sale of the mortgaged property. In 1868 K R in execution sold the right, title, and interest of her judgment-debtors to defendants who paid the consideration-money and obtained possession. Plaintiff now sues for ejectment. Held that defendants were entitled to stand in K R's shoes as an inculpable so far as their money had gone to pay K R's charge on the whole suit been taken to be a redemption suit and that plaintiff could not recover the property without paying defendants what was due to them.—19 W. R. 422.

265. A mortgagee failing to fulfill one of the two conditions prescribed by s. 8 Reg. XVII of 1866, i.e. furnishing the mortgage or his legal representatives with a copy of his application to foreclose, cannot be said to be in a position to foreclose.—20 W. R. 363, 22 W. R. 90. See 45 ante.

266. Where the contract between a mortgagee and a mortgagee provides for the payment of the principal sum on a specified date and for the payment in the meantime of interest thereon, the mortgagee cannot have a partial redemption of the property under Reg. 1 of 1798, which was not intended (92) to allow the parties to a contract settled between the parties except as regards illegal interest. Should the mortgagee consent to allow the principal sum, or part of it, to be paid off before the time fixed, he would be entitled, when agreeing to this, to make the payment of interest a condition of such redemption.—20 W. R. 387.

267. A redemption suit against the representatives of a mortgagor whose appointed agent or his legatees in bankruptcy brought beyond 12 years from the date on which the mortgaged property had been wrongfully sold away by the mortgagee.—21 W. R. 13.

268. Where a suit against the auction-purchaser from a mortgagee, it is necessary to determine whether the defendant obtained the land under such circumstances that he is bound by the bond.—1b.

269. A person having represented to an intending purchaser that he has not a security in the property to be sold and induced him under that belief to buy, cannot as against that purchaser subsequently attempt to put his security in force.—21 W. R. 21.

270. An unassisted mortgagee, who has no power of sale under his lease even for the purpose of realizing the money due to him from the mortgagee, cannot give a third party a power of sale over the property as security for his own debt. The utmost he can do is to assign his rights and remedies against the mortgagee; but whatever the character or extent of those rights and remedies, they cannot be pursued in a suit to which the mortgagee is no party.—21 W. R. 186.

271. Where a mortgagee is deprived by dilution of the possession of land over which he holds an unassisted lease—before he has repaired himself the amount advanced, he has a right to repudiate the terms of the lease are very special, to call upon the lesor for the unpaid balance of the loan.—21 W. R. 226.

272. Where the owner of an undivided share in a joint and undivided estate mortgaged his undivided share, he cannot by so doing affect the interests of the other sharers; and the persons who take the security (i.e. the mortgagees) take it subject to the right of those sharers to enforce a partition, and thereby convert what is an undivided share of the whole into a defined portion held in severalty.—(P. C.) 21 W. R. 283.

273. Where such a partition is effected under Reg. XIX of 1814 before the mortgagees have completed their title by foreclosure and the consequential decree for possession, the mortgagees of the undivided share of one co-sharer, who has no priority of contract with the other co-sharer, would, have no recourse against the land allotted to such co-sharer, but must pursue the remedy against the lands allotted to the mortgagee, and, as against him, would have a charge on the whole of such lands.—(P. C.) 274. A payment of money into Court by an auction-purchaser with notice of a mortgagee's lien is not a payment into the mortgagee's hands, unless the mortgagee had the means of immediately taking the money out of Court, and if he could do nothing to show or make it appear that he received anything into Court as a payment to himself.—21 W. R. 270.

275. A suit for the redemption of mortgaged property comes all on a due determination until all the mortgagees are made parties.—21 W. R. 428.

276. A tender by one or more of several mortgagees is not such as a mortgagee is bound to accept, unless it is tendered jointly by the whole of the mortgagees or on their behalf and with their consent.—1b. See 169 ante.

277. Where a — deed gives the mortgagee an option, in the event of a sale of the interests of the mortgagees, to allow a certain sum to be withdrawn from the surplus sale proceeds, — Held that, before the mortgagees can withdraw the surplus proceeds, they must give notice of their intention to do so.—21 W. R. 47.

278. Although it is irregular for a guardian to pledge the property of a minor without obtaining the sanction of the Court under s. 18 Act XL of 1828, the irregularity ought not to prevail when the — transaction was a proper one and there was subsequently a decree in a suit in which the minor was represented, under which decree the property was sold.—22 W. R. 77. But see 24 W. R. 46, 25 W. R. 449.

279. A mortgagee of a minor's property must show not only bona fide in the transaction, but also necessity for the alienation and mortgagee's authority to give a good title as the minor's agent.—22 W. R. 119.

280. The only person on whom effectual service of notice of — can be made is the person really interested in protecting the estate.—22 W. R. 108.

281. Where land has been for many years in continuous possession under a usufructuary not lease, it cannot be mortgaged to a third party to the prejudice of the leasee's interests; such — can only be given subject to the usufructuary right.—22 W. R. 196.

282. Where a mortgagee sues on his — bond and his claim is decreed, the decree should be satisfied out of the mortgaged property, and not out of the right, title, and interest which remain in the mortgagee. The purchaser at the execution sale acquires all the interest which passed by the — to the mortgagee and any interest which remained in the mortgagee, i.e. his equity of redemption.—22 W. R. 360.

283. If there was a second —, all that it could pass from the mortgagee was his equity of redemption, and the decree in such a suit — could only authorize the sale of the equity of redemption unless the first mortgagee was made a party and his — shown to be invalid and the second — to have priority.—1b.

284. Where a bonâ fide purchaser from a Hindoo widow of an ancestral estate beyond her own life paid off a — upon the property which was mortgaged at the time of the deed, and the revenue reclaimed the estate after the death of the widow, — Held that the purchaser was entitled to credit for such payment.—(P. C.) 22 W. R. 489.

285. In a suit by a mortgagee for possession of the mortgaged property on the allegation that some of the defendants under subsequent mortgages and purchases had opposed him in obtaining possession, and to have it declared that the said mortgages and purchases were inoperative, — Held that the plaintiff had but one cause of action under the deed, and was right in joining all the defendants in this suit.—22 W. R. 532.

286. By a — bond the mortgagee agreed to pay a specified rate of interest in instalments and to repay the principal in 12 years (the mortgagee not being bound to accept payment earlier); and it was provided that, if any objections were raised by the mortgagee in respect of any of the conditions of the bond, the mortgagee would be competent, after two months' notice, to sell the property or portions thereof, and pay himself the principal and the interest thereon for the unpaid portion of the 12 years.

A portion of the interest having come into arrear, the mortgagee gave notice of sale, but the mortgagee disputed his right to sell on the alleged ground as not being an obstruction within the bond; and the parties not being able to agree as to the conditions of sale, the mortgagee brought this suit claiming the full amount of the money with interest for 12 years. Held that the clause relating to sale was in the nature of a penalty which could not be enforced only upon default in the payment of interest, and that the suit was not maintainable either as an action for damages for the amount which plaintiff could have obtained by the sale, or on the bond itself. (P.C.) 23 W. R. 91.

287. Where in a suit for possession under an usufructuary interest obtained a decree giving him possession but requiring him to restore the property after satisfaction of his claim, held that he must certify the amounts received and outstanding, and that the Court executing the decree was bound to require from him, from time to time, a statement of the amount received, and to deal with the matter under Rule 56 of Order 3. 25 W. R. 156.

288. A party purchasing a mortgage property after a suit had been instituted to enforce the security, takes nothing as against the mortgagee, or as against one who claims under a decree which directs the sale of the property in satisfaction of the defendant's indebtedness, even though the bill of sale is registered and the mortgage was for less than 100. (In re: A) 23 W. R. 382.

289. No appeal lies from an order refusing an application by a mortgagee for the return of excess payment alleged to have been made by him in a proceeding under Reg. XV of 1756 by which he redeemed his mortgage. 24 W. R. 17.

290. A party succeeding to a mortgagee's interest are not entitled to redeem a part of the property on payment of part of the debt. Nor is a mortgagee who has purchased a part of the mortgagee's rights and interests entitled to throw the whole burden of the debt on the remaining portion of the equity of redemption in the hands of a purchaser at a sale in execution of a decree against the mortgagee. Each has a proportionate share of the burden. (Adopting 3 Agra H. C. Rep. 88) 24 W. R. 24. See also: 25 W. R. 388.

291. Regarding issue of chellan on deposit of money to be applied in satisfaction of decree on - bond. 24 W. R. 416.

292. A mortgagee who does not take possession of the mortgage property at the expiration of the period of grace, but elects to give the mortgagee time to pay his debt, cannot complain if the latter sells the property to other parties who are willing to pay off the debt. 24 W. R. 429.

293. The only payments which purchasers of the equity of redemption can claim to deduct from the debt, are sums actually received by the mortgagee in reduction thereof, not money owed by the mortgagee to the mortgagee on some other account. 24 W. R. 460.

294. An unregistered - deed which did not require to be registered was held valid as against a later registered conveyance. 24 W. R. 468.

295. A mortgagor who was deprived by the wrongful acts of the mortgagor of a portion of the land which constituted the only security for the loan, was held entitled to recover from the mortgagor so much of the consideration money as was in proportion to the land of which he had been deprived. 25 W. R. 7.

296. Where money was lent on - without a stipulated rate of interest, and it was mutually agreed that the mortgage was to retain possession for a given period precisely calculated, the stipulation was held to be a condition that the property was not to be taken out of the hands of the mortgagor before that time. 25 W. R. 10.

297. A mortgagee cannot maintain a suit for khas possession of an undeveloped area of the mortgaged land with out making his fellow mortgagees parties to the suit. 25 W. R. 89.

298. Where money is lent on - deed on the condition that, if returned with interest within a given period, the property pledged shall revert to the mortgagee, and the mortgagee finds afterwards that the property in question is subject to a prior - of which he had no notice, he is at liberty to sue for the return of the money advanced with interest without waiting for the expiry of the stipulated period. 25 W. R. 51.

299. In a suit on a single - bond where part of the property concerned is conveyed, or allotted to be conveyed, to different persons, all these are entitled to notice and to be made parties, and such a suit is not multifarious. 25 W. R. 60.

300. In a suit for redemption, it is peculiar province of the Lower Court to go into and adjust the accounts between the parties. 25 W. R. 74.

301. Where a mortgagee was liable for only a portion of the mortgage property, but paid in the whole amount to secure himself against his co-sharers, he was held entitled to mesne profits for the whole. 25 W. R. 259.

302. A creditor taking a - from an accredited agent cannot be expected to prove that no other person has an undisclosed interest in the hypothecated property. 25 W. R. 632.

303. Where the purchaser of certain property, which had been mortgaged to some one else, brought a suit for redemption and recovery of possession, alleging that the lien of the mortgagee had been satisfied by the usufruct, and the original owner intervened and got the suit thrown out on the ground of limitation because plaintiff had not taken possession within 3 years of the purchase, held that the Lower Court had acted wrongly in making the original owner a party to the suit and that the suit was not barred by limitation. 25 W. R. 555.

1. Mat-luts of ryots are — within the meaning of s. 11 Act XI, 11 of 1860.—8 C. C. 29. But see 10 W. R. 238 and 3, 4 post.
2. The Magistrate may direct restoration to the owner of — of which he has been wrongfully dispossessed, if it comes into his hands.—W. R. Sp., Cr. 5 (2 K. J. P. J. 111).
3. Huts are not — within the meaning of s. 19 Act XI of 1865 and cannot be seized in execution. The words — in that section do not comprehend everything which a judgment-debtor has a right to remove, but means property which is capable of being moved in its existent state; and the words “personal property” in s. 6 seem to be used in the sense of —, for, as regards Hindoes and Mahommedans, there is no distinction between real and personal property, the distinction being between moveable and immovable.—10 W. R. 416. See 15 W. R. 490.
4. Growing crops are not — within the meaning of s. 19 Act XI of 1865, though for the purposes of the Registration Act they are dealt with under the latter Act, and cannot therefore be seized in execution.—13 W. R. 272. See also 17 W. R. 309.
5. Crops and trees are clearly not.—24 W. R. 894.
6. Huts are not — within the meaning of s. 19 Act XI of 1865.—(F. B.) 17 W. R. 309. See also 20 W. R. 8.

1. By what authority fines are to be imposed under Act III of 1864 (B. C.)—8 W. R., Cr., 35.

2. Occupiers of land are liable for nuisances committed therein by others. 8 W. R., Cr., 33, 57; 8 W. R., Cr., 45.

3. The owner of the land is not liable for the tax levied under s. 26 Act III of 1864 (B. C.) upon a house built upon his land by a lessee.—8 W. R., Cr., 50.

4. The length of notice for taking out fresh licenses to carry on slaughter-houses under Act VII of 1865 (B. C.) depends upon the circumstances of each case.—6 W. R., Cr., 77.

5. Under s. 87 Act III of 1864 (B. C.) a notice of action against — Commissioners is absolutely necessary for declaring a private road to be a public road. A notice objection to and asking for a reconsideration of the order concerning the same will not suffice.—7 W. R., 213.

6. The — Commissioners are entitled under s. 73 Act III of 1864 (B. C.) to recover the expense of clearing jungle on an occupant's land on his failure after notice to clear it himself within the specified time.—7 W. R., 213.

7. A Deputy Magistrate has no authority to order arrears of — tax due by a person to be paid out of a fine levied on him.—8 W. R., Cr., 17.

8. Under s. 87 Act III of 1864 (B. C.) — Commissioners are entitled to notice of action only where they acted in the bona fide belief that they were exercising powers given by that Act.—9 W. R. 279. See 9 W. R. 536, 13 W. R. 441.

9. An order of — Commissioners under s. 64 of same Act to take down a house or building was upheld, even where their written statement did not expressly state that they deemed the building to be in a dangerous state, and there was no allegation that they acted under that belief, it being assumed that both parties to the suit considered the defence to be that such a statement and allegation would have made it.—16.

10. The mistake of a few words in a notice, caused by an error in addition, is not sufficient to impeach or affect a demand otherwise legally made under Act III of 1864 (B. C.).—9 W. R. 562.

11. A — Commissioner, invested with the power of a Magistrate under s. 6 Act III of 1864 (B. C.), is protected by Act XVIII of 1850 in respect of every act done by him in such capacity judicially; and so long as he acts within his jurisdiction and in good faith, no action will lie against him in a Small Cause Court to recover by way of damages a fine levied under his orders.—18 W. R. 340. But see 24 W. R. 287.

12. A — Commissioner has no power, under s. 57 Act III of 1864 (B. C.) to impose a fine on a person for blocking up a drain which is not shown to be public property or along the side of any highway.—14 W. R., Cr., 28.

13. Whether the owner of a slaughter-house, by giving it in lease to another, is liable under s. 7 Act VII of 1865 (B. C.)—14 W. R., Cr., 67.

14. A conviction for a breach of s. 77 Act III of 1864 (B. C.) in not taking out a license for a wood-yard was quashed because the Magistrate refused to try the question whether the wood-yard existed prior to 1864.—15 W. R., Cr., 84.

15. The High Court declined to interfere in a matter which was purely within the discretion of the — Commissioners (e.g. repairing and cleansing petitioner's tank) on the ground that the rates charged by them were higher than those which could be obtained by other persons.—16 W. R. 285.

16. A Magistrate or — Commissioner has no power or authority under Act III of 1864 (B. C.) to issue a warrant for the arrest of a person who has failed to appear on a summons to answer a charge under s. 77 of that Act.—16 W. R., Cr., 1.

17. Meaning of the words "none or any promises" in the same section.—16 W. R., Cr., 4.

18. Who is guilty of the offence of using a slaughter-house without license within the meaning of s. 1 Act VII of 1865 (B. C.)—16.

19. A previous sanction to the establishment of a slaughter-house does not entitle the proprietor to carry it on after it has become a public nuisance to the neighbourhood; nor can any prescriptive right be acquired to maintain, or any length of enjoyment legalize, a public nuisance involving actual danger to the health of the community.—16 W. R., Cr., 6.

20. Where the discretion of a — Commissioner in levying a fine under s. 67 Act III of 1864 (B. C.) was interfered with as not properly exercised.—16 W. R., Cr., 70.

21. By s. 19 of the Bye-laws of the Howrah Municipality framed under s. 84 Act III of 1864 (B. C.) and confirmed by the Lieutenant-Governor, it is within the discretion of the Municipality to refuse permission for the excavation of a tank, and the Courts have no power to interfere with the bona fide exercise of such discretion.—17 W. R. 215.

22. Every — Commissioner, being vested by s. 6 Act III of 1864 (B. C.) with the power of a Magistrate under s. 22 Act XXV of 1861, is authorized to administer an oath.—19 W. R. 309.

23. A proceeding taken under s. 79 Act III of 1864 (B. C.) is not a judicial proceeding, and the "evidence" referred to therein means evidence without oath. Regular reports signed by medical men would constitute evidence within the meaning of that section.—16.

24. The same section does not authorize — Commissioners to interfere with a burning-guild or burial-ground except when it is dangerous to the health of the neighbourhood.—16.

25. A — as well as any public Board is answerable to the restraining and regulating jurisdiction of the Civil Courts when it acts ultra vires.—16.

26. In a suit for the recovery of damages on account of a daily fine imposed by a — Commissioner acting as a Magistrate, and the seizure and detention of an omnibus (the fine having been set aside by the High Court and the detention pronounced illegal), — Held that the suit was barred by s. 87 Act III of 1864 (B. C.); that where a possession is illegal and may be a cause of action, it is not necessary to wait until the illegal proceeding is set aside; that the plaintiff's cause of action (if any) accrued upon the seizure of the omnibus, and not upon the order which averted the conviction to stand as a lawful one; and that the continued detention was not a fresh cause of action from day to day.—19 W. R. 335.

27. S. 77 Act III of 1864 (B. C.) refers to the burning of books for trading purposes, and not to cases where bricks are made for the particular use of the person burning them; such person need not take out a license for that purpose.—20 W. R., Cr., 65.

Murder.

1. A having resold ammunition with B and C for driving their cattle into his crops, was attacked and beaten by them and in the course of the assault received a blow from a bamboo which fractured his skull and he died. The Assesee found B and C guilty of assaulting A and causing his death, and the Judge convicted them of voluntarily causing grievous hurt. The High Court considered that II and C might have been convicted of — and that if circumstances existed which rendered a capital sentence unsuitable, it was within the discretion of the Judge to pass a sentence otherwise than of death. — 1 R. J. P. 250.

2. In a case of — in which five persons were concerned, there were convictions on their own confessions, and the other two upon the evidence of one somewhat unsatisfactory eye-witness, whose evidence, however, was supported by the circumstantial evidence of the two prisoners having been at enmity with the deceased, and of their having seen on the night of — in company with the prisoners who admitted the crime. — 2 R. J. P. 33. See also 3 W. R., Cr., 11 (4 R. J. P. 678).

3. Where two persons killed the deceased in the act of having sexual intercourse with the wife of one of them., Held that there was such grave provocation as to reduce their crime from — to culpable homicide. — 1 W. R., Cr., 17; 5 W. R., Cr., 42; 6 W. R., Cr., 25.

4. The evidence of a single witness is sufficient for a conviction of —. — 1 W. R., Cr., 48.

5. The absence of intention or premeditation will not reduce the crime from — to culpable homicide not amounting to —. — 3 W. R., Cr., 40; 4 W. R., Cr., 33.

6. Corpus delicti not essential to a conviction for — when the accused confesses in the most circumstances of murder to having committted a. — 4 W. R., Cr., 18.

7. The offences of — and culpable homicide not amounting to — each supposing intention or knowledge of likelihood of causing death. In the absence of such intention or knowledge, the offence committed may be grievous hurt. — 4 W. R., Cr., 23.

8. Where two members of an unlawful assembly use spears and deliberately pierce another man through the chest and abdomen, with the knowledge that death is likely to ensue, although without proof of any intention to cause death, all the members of the unlawful assembly are jointly guilty of —. — 4 W. R., Cr., 28.

9. Where four men beat another at intervals and so severely that death ensues, they must be presumed to have known that they were likely to cause death; and if they do all this when there was no grave or hidden provocation, or no sudden fight or quarrel, the offence committed is —. — 1 W. R., Cr., 35.

10. A charge under s. 302 Penal Code need not set out all the facts necessary to constitute the offence of —, and negative all the exceptions contained in s. 303. — 5 W. R., Cr., 1; 10 R., Cr.

11. A Judge should clearly acquit a person of — when so charged, instead of merely finding him guilty of culpable homicide not amounting to —. When a Judge acquits a person of —, the High Court cannot, either as a Court of Appeal or as a Court of Revision, find that, according to the evidence, the prisoner caused death with the knowledge mentioned in cl. 4 s. 300 Penal Code; nor can the High Court, however wrong it may think the Judge to have been in acquitting of —; or however inadequately it may think the sentence to be, correct the error or enhance the sentence. — 5 W. R., Cr., 2, 32. See 13 W. R., Cr., 58.

12. The punishment of death shall not be inflicted in a case where there was no intention to cause death, but merely a reckless assault with a deadly weapon which inflicted a bodily injury in the ordinary course of nature. — 5 W. R., Cr., 29.

80 also where a was not premeditated. — 21 W. R., Cr., 28.

13. Under the Penal Code, no constructive, but an actual, intention to cause death, is required to constitute —. — 5 W. R., Cr., 42.

16. Powell of High Court as a Court of Revision in wrong convictions and acquittals in cases of. — (F. B.) 26 W. R., Cr., 41; 21 W. R., Cr., 39.

17. Where a person wilfully killed another whilst endeavouring to escape after having been detected in the act of house-breaking by night for the purpose of theft, the offence committed is — and cannot be considered to have been committed in the exercise of the right of private defence either of person or property, nor under grave and sudden provocation. — 5 W. R., Cr., 73. But see 6 W. R., Cr., 50.

18. The sentence of death was reduced to transportation for life in a case of — committed rather by way of retaliation for an injury than under the influence of any worse passion. — 6 W. R., Cr., 46.

19. In a case of — by reason, that evidence of consent which would be sufficient in a civil transaction, must be equally sufficient in exculpation of a prisoner's guilt. — 6 W. R., Cr., 57.

19. Where a person through fear did not interfere to prevent the commission of murder, and afterwards joined in murdering in concealing the body, he was held guilty, not of abetment of — but of causing disappearance of evidence of a crime under s. 201 Penal Code. — 6 W. R., Cr., 46.

20. The sentence of death was commuted into transportation for life in a case of — of a supposed wizard. — 6 W. R., Cr., 82.
DIGEST OF INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

21. A conviction of — on a prisoner’s own confession was affirmed.—6 W. R., Cr., 83.
22. Distinction between — culpable homicide not amounting to —, and grievous hurt.—6 W. R., Cr., 86; 3 W. R., Cr., 28.
23. Corpus delicti not essential to a conviction for — where the man alleged to have been murdered was struck on the head in a boat with a heavy paddle and knocked overboard in a large river in the height of the waves, and has never been heard of since.—7 W. R., Cr., 14.
24. If a prisoner is charged with — and also with culpable homicide not amounting to — with reference to one and the same act of killing, and if he is convicted by the Sessions Judge of the latter, he is substantially acquitted of the former, not the High Court cannot upon appeal hold that the evidence was sufficient to warrant a conviction of — and alter the conviction accordingly, or reverse the finding and send the case back for a new trial.—(P. R.) 8 W. R., Cr., 47.
25. Where a quiet peaceable man, suddenly and without provocation, runs a-muck against all around him, his case is different from an ordinary case of deliberate — deserving of the extreme penalty.—9 W. R., Cr., 53.
26. In cases of — the dying declaration of the deceased should form part of the record.—9 W. R., Cr., 2.
27. To give an accused the benefit of Exception 1 s. 300 Penal Code, it ought to be shown distinctly not only that the act was done under the influence of some feeling which took away from the person doing it all control over his actions, but that that feeling had an adequate cause.—10 W. R., Cr., 26.
28. A Judge was held to have exercised a proper discretion in not passing sentence of death in a case in which the dead body was not found.—11 W. R., Cr., 20.
29. Consent given under a misconception of fact, e.g., to being bitten by snakes at the instance of a charmer, will not protect the charmer from a conviction of ——12 W. R., Cr., 7.
30. In a case of affray attended with — in which the offence was committed before the Penal Code came into force, a Sessions Judge has power himself, under s. 4 Act XVII of 1862, to pass sentence of death, instead of referring the matter for confirmation to the High Court.—11 W. R., Cr., 76.
31. A Sessions Judge is bound to decide whether the offence committed is — or culpable homicide not amounting to — even if the person who struck the fatal blow is not under trial.—23 W. R., Cr., 58.
32. The law does not require that a charge of — should be proved by the evidence of one or more eye-witnesses.—25 W. R., Cr., 86.

NOWABAD.

1. A sub-lease of lands, with a stipulation as to acknowledged pasturage lands being rank-free, allows of rent being demanded from pasturage lands not acknowledged at the time of sub-lease.—1 W. R. 339.

2. Where lands once held by tasafla as a part of the tasafla are resumed by Government and separately settled, such resumption and settlement do not affect the of 1861 in a case where the public are charged with committing a — by a private individual in the exercise of an admitted right. — 14 W. R. 177.

14. An order in writing under s. 62 Act XXV of 1861 is necessary to sustain a charge under s. 188 Penal Code. — 17 W. R., Cr. 57.

15. With reference to ss. 521 and 526 Act X of 1872, a Magistrate can only deal with existing and not future obstructions. — 21 W. R., Cr. 10.

16. No order can be made under s. 528 Act X of 1872 unless there is imminent danger or fear of injury of a serious kind to the public; and where a Magistrate, who had made an order under s. 521, subsequently directed further enquiry to be made, it was held that he must be considered to have abandoned his proceedings under s. 528, and that he should have proceeded under s. 525 instead of fixing the party charged under s. 188 Penal Code. — 21 W. R., Cr. 86.

17. A Magistrate’s powers under s. 521 are confined to the instances specifically mentioned therein, and do not enable him generally to pass any order he may consider necessary for the protection of the public health. — 22 W. R., Cr. 19.

18. It is only from a thoroughfare or public place that, under the above section, a Magistrate is at liberty to direct the removal of a —. — 139. See also 25 W. R., Cr. 4, 72.

The petitioners, by agreeing to the appointment of a jury, cannot be taken to admit there was a prima facie — so as to be bound by the verdict; nor would any mistake on the part of the petitioners give power to under s. 521 if the act complained of did not come within the purview of that section. — 25 W. R., Cr. 72.

19. An application to have it declared that a certain place could not be used for cremation purposes, would not come under s. 521 Act X of 1872. — 24 W. R., Cr. 6.

20. Before a prohibitory order under s. 518 Act X of 1872 can be made, there ought to be information or evidence before the Magistrate that the act prohibited was likely to cause a riot or affray, and that the stoppage of that act would prevent such riot or affray. — 21 W. R., Cr. 30.

21. S. 521 Act X of 1872 does not authorize the removal of a prostitute from her house simply on the ground of her profession, so long as she behaves herself orderly and quietly, and creates no open scandal by riotous living. — 21 W. R., Cr. 88.

child 9 years old who had been examined without oath, although she was a competent witness under s. 118 Act I of 1852, was held to be competent under s. 118 Act X of 1873 notwithstanding.—22 W. R., Cr. 1.

6. The evidence of a child of immature age (who, the Sessions Judge considered, understood the questions put to her, and who was therefore a competent witness under s. 118 Act I of 1872), which was taken by the Sessions Judge on a simple affirmation because she was not aware of the responsibility of an oath, was held to be admissible as evidence under s. 13 Act X of 1873. See also 14 W. R., Cr. 14.

7. The word "oath" in s. 13 Act X of 1873 is not limited to accidential or negligent omissions, but includes any omission — e.g. an omission to make an affirmation, done deliberately and under the direction of the Judge.—(F. R.) 23 W. R., 12.

17. A ryot has no right of—respect of jotes held by him for less than 10 years, but is entitled to a pottah—
1 W. R. 211. See also 5 W. R. (Act X) 17, 11 W. R. 556. (Over-ruled by F. B.) See 83 post.
16. Payment of uniform rent must be clearly found to create a ryot to the benefit of the presumption under s. 4 Act X of 1859.1 W. R. 243.
15. Failure to prove a mekaurruke tenure in a former suit does not destroy the presumption arising from 20 years'—
1 W. R. 261 (3 R. J. P. J. 289).
14. A ryot who has set up a false mekaurruke cannot, on the failure of that allegation, be allowed to fall back upon a right of—under s. 6 Act X of 1859.—2 W. R. (Act X) 1 (4 R. J. P. J. 17), 12 W. R. 80. See 29 note, and 36 post. But see 5 W. R. (Act X) 61, 10 W. R. 506.
13. The presumption of s. 4 Act X only applies to a case where existing circumstances are stated to have been continued from the Decennial settlement and proof of such continuance for more than 20 years is given. Where it is alleged that, though a re-arrangement of jummas has taken place since the Decennial Settlement, yet the new terms are identical with the old, the proof of this should be enquired into.—2 W. R. (Act X) 2 (4 R. J. P. J. 17).
But see 19 W. R. 95.
12. A tenant holding a term under a farming lease of land which he might sublet, is not a ryot, and therefore does not, by 12 years' occupation, acquire a right of—under s. 6—Marshall 479.
11. A right of—cannot be acquired by occupation for 12 years under s. 6, where such occupation has been by virtue of a lease granting a term of years, and during the whole or part of such occupation the term had not vested in the tenant, though on a de facto passage against him for whatever rent is due and equitable.
1 R. J. P. J. 103.
10. Only those tenants who cultivate their lands, and sublet them to actual cultivators of the soil are entitled to rights of—under s. 6 Act X of 1859.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 1 (2 R. J. P. J. 10).
9. See also 12 W. R. 401.
8. 18 Act X of 1859 applies to the case of a party holding a fixed rent not under an express contract, but only by virtue of a right of—Sev. 95.
7. A person who has held land for more than 18 years, has irrespective of s. 6 Act X of 1859, acquired a right of—under which he is entitled to hold possession as a tenant, though liable to pay enhanced rents to any extent that they may, in due course of law, increased after service of notice. Sev. 227.
6. A sub-lessee from a ryot having a right of—can gain no benefit of such possession under s. 6 Act X of 1859. 1 W. R. Sp. (Act X) 72, 77. See also 6 W. R. 168, 7 W. R. 81.
5. The presumption cannot be overcome by holding that a share of the rent, but has simply a right to occupy the land in preference to any other tenant so long as he pays a fair and equitable rent.—W. R. F. B. 131.
4. A ryot having a right of—has not such an interest as to give him a share of the rent, but it is a mere right to carry on farming on the land in his possession, and to have a share of the rent, but has simply a right to occupy the land in preference to any other tenant so long as he pays a fair and equitable rent.—W. R. F. B. 282.
3. Occupation as of cultivation by a tresspasser cannot confer a right of—under Act X of 1859, nor be taken into account in considering whether adscrespasser has occupied as a ryot for 12 years.—W. R. F. B. 146 (2 R. J. P. J. 113).
2. Occupation as of cultivation by a tresspasser cannot confer a right of—under Act X of 1859, nor be taken into account in considering whether adscrespasser has occupied as a ryot for 12 years.—W. R. F. B. 147, 8 W. R. 238, 18 W. R. 19.
1. A ryot holding a right of—has not a right of—cannot sue for abatement of rent under s. 18 Act X of 1859; nor is he entitled to a pottah under s. 8, unless there is an agreement with his landlord fixing the rate of rent.—2 Huy 430 (Marshall 225). A ryot holding a right of—has not a right of—cannot plead dilution as a ground for diminution of rent.—Hy.
11. By s. 6 Act X of 1859 a ryot who has cultivated or held land for 12 years, has a right of—whether the land be a pottah or not.—2 Huy 432 (Marshall 341).
10. A ryot holding a right of—cannot plead dilution as a ground for diminution of rent.—Hy.
9. Where notice of enhancement has been served, under s. 13, upon a ryot who has no right of—and whose rent has not been fixed by agreement with his landlord, such ryot cannot maintain a suit to set aside the notice of enhancement; his remedy, in case the rent is excessive, is under s. 14.—2 Huy 433 (Marshall 341).
8. A ryot holding a right of—cannot plead dilution as a ground for diminution of rent.—Hy.
6. Occupations or cultivation by a tresspasser cannot confer a right of—under Act X of 1859, nor be taken into account in considering whether adscrespasser has occupied as a ryot for 12 years.—W. R. F. B. 146 (2 R. J. P. J. 113).

R. 129. 56. Where the produce of land cultivated by plaintiff is taken away, he cannot recover value unless he has a right as against defendant to occupy the land, or is led by the defendant to suppose so, or to cultivate with defendant's knowledge.—10 W. R. 300. 57. The mere transfer of a right of — does not work as a forfeiture of the rights and interests of the occupant ryot.—11 W. R. 94. See (F. R.) 22 W. R. 23. 58. A ryot of — may be gained under s. 6 in land used for grazing purposes.—11 W. R. 291. 59. A tenant having a right of — can create a lease, and the lessee from him is entitled to hold the lands under the terms of the lease, the landlord being entitled to nothing but the rent which the ryot who holds from him immediately has agreed to pay.—12 W. R. 110. See (F. R.) 22 W. R. 23. 60. Where a plaintiff seeks to recover possession of a monsoon jote by establishing his_khunna mokurraini title, the Court cannot decree to him a right of — under s. 6 Act X.—12 W. R. 203. 61. The fact of land being_nijjote (or khunna) does not per se prevent a cultivator from acquiring a right of — in it under s. 6 Act X.—12 W. R. 277. 62. When a tenant has a permanent right to occupy land subject to the payment of fair and equitable rent has a right to sublet the land to the extent of his own interest therein.—12 W. R. 151. See 13 W. R. 291. 63. A tenant suing for possession of the jote land and relying on a monsoon potthi given by a prejurer when in office, must prove a right of — under s. 6 Act X, and his title is bad if based on a grant from a person having only a limited interest in the land.—13 W. R. 241. 64. More possession for 12 years as a servant, without payment of rent, does not create a right of — under s. 6 Act X.—13 W. R. 322. 65. A tenant's right of — is not avoided by the operation of s. 16 Act VIII of 1863 (B. C.).—15 W. R. 410, 22 W. R. 153. 66. A person who fails to prove a tenure which he claims, may prove a right of — in himself or others which would defeat a suit by the zamindar for the recovery of immediate possession—14 W. R. 108. See also 17 W. R. 375. 67. Whether a tenant of a jote cannot claim a right of — under s. 6 Act X, by adding the time during which his predecessor held it, even though the jote be transferable with the consent of the zamindar and such consent be procured, unless the original jote is held to lands under a perpetual jote.—15 W. R. 152. See (F. R.) 22 W. R. 22. 68. A zamindar occupying his own lands as_nijjote cannot, when the zamindar passes into other hands, lay claim to them on the ground that he is a ryot with a right of —15 W. R. 430. 69. By holding for 12 years, a ryot does not acquire a right of — if the land has been sublet to him for a term, or year by year, by a ryot having a right of — 15 W. R. 490, 19 W. R. 96. 70. A khudens tenure may be a goonastra tenure; and a ryot who pays rent in kind and is in possession of or cultivates land for a period of 12 years, has a right of — so long as he pays the rent in kind.—15 W. R. 471. 71. A ryot who has held or cultivated a piece of land continuously for more than twelve years, but under several written leases or potthals each for a specific term of years, is entitled, under s. 6, 108, 7 Act X, to a right of — the more existence of the right of re-entry being insubstantial, without express stipulation, to bring the case within s. 7. (F. R.) 17 W. R. 62. See also 17 W. R. 552, 25 W. R. 183. 72. In order to establish a right of — under s. 6 Act X, a ryot is not entitled to add to his own possession the possession of his vendor, even with the consent of the zamindar to the transfer to him.—17 W. R. 179. See (F. R.) 22 W. R. 22. 73. A possession which amounts simply to a _maysanges right to collect rents from ryots is not such a possession as confers a right of —17 W. R. 242.
* OCCUPANCY (continued).

88. Where a person held ryottee lands alternately as cultivator and farmer continuously for about 50 years,— Helped by cultivation for broken periods would not deprive him of his right of — under s. 6 Act X, and that the doctrine of merger did not apply to such cases.—17 W. R. 374. See also 23 W. R. 305.

87. A "fisc dude" occupying land merely as the assignee of the seminal and cultivating because of the opportunity thus afforded, cannot, under color of that character, claim the right of — under s. 6 Act X.—19 W. R. 177.

88. A right of — cannot be gained under Act X in respect of a tank used only for the preservation and rearing of fish, and not forming a part of any grant of land or an appurtenance to any land, even though possession may have been held for more than 12 years.—19 W. R. 300, 21 W. R. 385.

89. The mere fact that the person to whom a ryot has for some years paid rent had no title, cannot take away from him the character of ryot, by which he is entitled to the counting those years in the time necessary to give him a right of — under Act X.—19 W. R. 338.

90. The heir of a person with a restricted right of —, though not entitled to transfer his right out-and-out by sale, may make during and for his life such arrangements as he thinks fit for the cultivation and management of the land.—20 W. R. 132.

91. A lease is by a seminal for a term of years, and upon the expiration of that term tacitly let to the same tenant from year to year for a long period, the tenant does not thereby acquire a right of — under s. 6 Act X.—23 W. R. 306.

See also to s. 6 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), 23 W. R. 284.

92. A "subaun jota" is very much the same as a "mudder", and there is nothing in an "outponder" tenancy incompatible with the right of —.20 W. R. 329.

93. A right of — is not acquired in a tank except where the tank is appurtenant to the land and there is a right of — in the land to which the tank is appurtenant; but not where the tank is the principal subject of the lease and only so much land passed with the land as was necessary for it, viz., for the banks.—20 W. R. 311.

94. Defendant's failure, in a suit for enhancement, to prove his plea that the land in question is scummar, is no bar to his setting up a right of —.20 W. R. 116.

95. In a suit to recover arrears of rent from a tenant having a right of —, where the only dispute is as to the rate of rent which the defendant is bound to pay, the rent which was paid is prima facie correct and should be presumed to be fair and equitable within the meaning of s. 5 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.).—21 W. R. 108.

96. The words "cultivated or held" in s. 6 of the same Act have the effect of excluding lands occupied exclusively by buildings, from the right of — therein described.—21 W. R. 400.

97. A right of — which a ryot has under s. 6 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) is not transferable when such ryot sells his holding, his right of — ceases and it cannot protect the purchaser against ejectment.—(F. R.) 22 W. R. 22. See also 22 W. R. 109, 200, 493; 24 W. R. 6; 25 W. R. 101.

98. Possession for 12 years, which is the subject of s. 6 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) must be possession under one and the same right. This right may be in its inception joint with other persons, and, by the death of one or both, ultimately become a sole right without a continuous nature being affected.—22 W. R. 51.

99. Land held as aforesaid is either subject to a right of — as a whole, or it is not subject to any right of — as to any part of it; if within 32 years the tenant shall have been allowed to take possession of fresh lands and such addition was intended to create a fresh tenancy, a right of — has not been acquired as regards the whole, although a portion has been held for 12 years.—23 W. R. 298.

100. Under Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), before a tenant can own a landlord by remaining on his land, he must show a right of — in the land by 12 years' possession.—29 W. R. 448.

101. In a suit by a seminal for ejectment, when the ryot pleads continuous — for 12 years and it is found that the ryot was evicted during that period but got back into possession, the ryot's right of — would depend on whether the eviction was wrongful or not, the same being on him to prove that the eviction was wrongful.—24 W. R. 324.

102. A party who has been in the — of land without paying any rent, is not entitled to the protection of s. 6 or s. 22 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.).—23 W. R. 42.

103. Where a lease provided that, at the expiration of the term, the landlord should be at liberty to enter into a settlement with any one he pleased, and so put an end to the lessee's tenure, and the tenant not withstanding allowed the tenant to continue the occupation paying rent.—Held that there was nothing in the stipulation which of itself operated to negative or destroy the tenant's right of —.29 W. R. 111.

104. An "Indigo Concern" or a "Firm" has no corporate or legal existence so far as the question of a right of — is concerned, which can only be recognized in particular individuals.—25 W. R. 117.

105. Every piece of land (cultivated or uncultivated) which the seminal keeps under his own special control would be shram or land within the meaning of s. 6 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.); and long possession in respect of such land does not per se give a right of —.25 W. R. 181.

106. The prohibitory clause of s. 6 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) will not apply to the case of a ryot holding under a person having a permanent transferable interest in the land so as to deprive the ryot of a right of — in the land if he has fulfilled the other requirements of the law. The mere fact of his holding under a potthar which reserved only an annual rent year by year should not be sufficient to deprive him of the privilege, unless there were some words in the potthar prohibiting him from acquiring that right.—25 W. R. 213.

107. A lease lease cannot confer a right of — on the lessee however long it lasts.—25 W. R. 554.

1. In a suit for possession of land attached under s. 3 of Act IV of 1840 the — is on plaintiff. — W. R. P. 7 (1 July 44).

2. In a suit for possession under the allegation that the property in dispute was under the management of the defendant who joined management and set up a title by purchase and proved a possession for more than 30 years, the — was held to lie on plaintiff. — W. R. P. 8 (1 July 46).

3. In a suit for a knabooler where the defendant admits partial tenancy. — W. R. P. 16 (1 July 229, Marshall 54).

4. In a suit for a share of certain property on the ground that it is joint, the — is on plaintiff. — W. R. P. 57 (1 July 5), 10 W. R. 198, 20 W. R. 65. But see 19 W. R. 176.

5. In a suit by a wife against her husband in which the defence is bona fide sale and payment of consideration-money, the burden of proving is on the defendant. — The ex-endorseer of a Government securities (which, in the case of strangers or third parties, would throw the — on the person alleging fraud) did not apply when the relation was that of husband and wife. — W. R. P. 60 (1 July 399). See also 8 W. R., P. 3, 3.

8. In an lakhiraj ejected by the ceilings under s. 10 of Reg. XIX of 1793. — (F. R.) W. R. P. 174. See also 1 July 418, 2 W. R. 303, 8 W. R. 160.

9. As to the power of a muti to grant a nominee potshot. — 1 July 7.

10. In a suit relative to a disputed boundary of which defendant holds possession under an Act IV award. — 1 July 7.

11. Where defendant admits execution and registration of a bond, the onus is on him to show the amount of consideration-money which actually passed between him and plaintiff. — 1 July 57 (Marshall 27). See 23, 98 post.

12. In a suit putting presumption of property purchased in one's brother's name in a joint Hindu family and not self-acquired and separate. — 1 July 374 (Marshall 169).

13. Where a seminal brought several paiks in Midnapore (holders of service lands) into Court and admitted that they cultivated their lands in several portions, the onus was held to be on him to prove that, notwithstanding this apparent separation of interests, a joint liability attached to the holding of the land as constituting a single tenure which could not be severed or alienated without his permission, and that such permission had never been conveyed by him or his predecessors. — 1 July 478.

14. Where a creditor sued for declaration of the rights and interests of his judgment-debtors in a certain patum talook and of the liability of that patum to sale for the satisfaction of the decree, the property ostensibly standing in the name of their benamdar, and the benamdar alleged that the judgment-debtors had no right and interest in the property but that the property belonged to him, it was held that, if the plaintiff succeeded in showing just grounds for suspecting the good faith and validity of the title interposed between the creditor and the realisation of his dues, the Court would require the ostensible owner to prove the reality of his ownership. — 1 July 486.

15. Where it is sought to find a person not of the Muslimah law with liability for the debt of a deceased person, by reason of the receipt of assets, it is incumbent on the creditor to give some evidence of assets having been received. — Marshall 250 (July 59).

16. The onus of proving that a tenure is lakhiraj, is not affected by the circumstance that the person alleging that it is, bought the tenure as such at a sale in execution of a decree. — 2 July 28 (Marshall 175). See 20 W. R. 278.

17. The onus is on the plaintiff to prove that a dependent talookdar under s. 51 Reg. VIII of 1798 is liable to enhance under that section. — 2 July 290; 13 W. R. 4, R. P. 11. See also (P. C.) 19 W. R. 388.

18. The onus of proving separation according to Hindoo law, is on the party setting it up. — 2 July 835. But see 219.

19. In a suit by an auction-purchaser for the laksar possession of land alleged to be void being fraudulently alienated by the former seminal as lakhiraj, the onus of proving that it is void land is on the plaintiff. — 2 July 882.

20. When, in a suit for money under a bond, both the execution and the receipt of the consideration, are denied, the onus is on defendant to prove the latter plea if plaintiff establishes the execution of the bond. — 2 July 881. See 12 ante and 98 post.

21. In a suit for assessment, the party setting up a lakhiraj title must prove it. — 2 July 897. See also 44B.

22. In a suit for possession of a share of lands where the plaintiff and defendant were joint owners of land in the Collector's rent-roll, and defendant had, on a parition and limitation, and wholly failed to prove the first plea, the onus of proving the second plea was held to be on him. — 2 July 470.

23. In a suit for possession of land, the defendant's setting up a plea of limitation does not constitute an admission of plaintiff's title so as to relieve him from the onus of proving alteration of rent. — W. R. 89. (Act X) 25 (R. R. 11, J. 142).

24. Plaintiff, on coming of age, received from his mother, as his portion of his father's property, a certain share of his estate, and believing his statement that the remainder of the estate had been sold bona fide to pay off his father's debt, executed a release which he now says was set aside on the ground that he has since learnt that the sale was fraudulent. Held that the onus was not on the plaintiff to prove that, at the time he executed the release, he did not know that the sale was fraudulent; but that the defendant was bound to prove the bona fide of the sale. — L. R. 166.

25. Where plaintiff sued for possession of land as heir of R, and defendant pleaded limitation, the onus was held to be on plaintiff of proving the death of R and its date. — 214.

26. There is no inflexible rule upon the point, and it must always depend much on the circumstances of each case, whether the — lies with the plaintiff or with the defendant. — 257.

27. In a suit where plaintiff sought to dispossess permanent lessees in actual possession under an Act IV award. — 16.

28. When a man is put before the world as the owner of property (e.g. Government Paper) and has dealt with it as his property, then as respects all dealings with third parties the onus is on the plaintiff who claims the property to prove that it belonged to his ancestor. — 889.

29. It is not enough for a party trying to reverse a sale after the lapse of a long interval to prove that the record per se does not contain the process of attachment. The onus is on him to show directly and clearly that no process of attachment did issue. — 894.

30. By Regs. XIX of 1768 the — lies on the claimant to lakhiraj, to establish his title to exemption. — (P. C.) 301.

31. In a suit for a knabooler, where the rent admits the plaintiff's title but disputes the sale and party inter vines under s. 77 Act X of 1859 and claims the right to receive the rent, the — is on the plaintiff to substantiate the intervenor. — 8 R. J. P. 54.

32. In a suit for enhancement under s. 17 Act X, if the defendant pleads that the productive powers of the land have been increased by his own exertions, the — is upon him. — 1 W. R. 23 (3 R. J. P. 144).

33. Overruled by F. B., but held that the — is on plaintiff. — 9 W. R. 190, 15 W. R. 109.

34. The — is upon a defendant who admits the rent but pleads payment.—1 W. R. 155, 264 (9 R. J. P. 155, 229); 17 W. R. 509; 24 W. R. 341. See also 8 R. J. P. 1, 146.

So also in a suit by a patrnatu where ycret admitted tenancy at a lower jumma but pleaded payment.—Sec 478.

42. Where the ancestor of a joint Hindu family purchased a property in the name of his youngest son, the son was held to be on those who claimed under the younger son's, to the property was his separate possession.—W. R. Sp. 10.

43. In a suit by three brothers to recover an estate sold by their two elder brothers as their guardians during their minority, without any necessity and in collusion with the purchaser, the sons was held to be on the plaintiffs to prove that the act of the said was for the purpose of the property was separate possession, W. R. Sp. 37.

44. In a suit between rival tenants of the same landlord, where one admits the other's tenancy but pleads resignation and a lease to himself, the sons of proving the resignation was held to be on the former.—W. R. Sp. 17.

45. A Hindus widow, seeking to exempt property from responsibility for her husband's debts, must clearly prove that she had stremcha, and that she purchased the property with her own acquired funds.—W. R. Sp. 60.

46. Where defendant pleads party title and party purchase, asserting his own possession on ancient titles, and denying that plaintiff's father or ancestor had been in possession, the son was held to be on the defendant to prove his possession within the period of limitation is on plaintiff.—W. R. Sp. 107.

47. In the case of an ordinary joint undivided, the presumption of Hindu law would be that it would prove that the whole of the estate and the — is party to claim any property as the separate estate to establish the fact. But where a plaintiff, though admitting that the family is undivided, contends that the family estate is a joint family estate, it is for the defendant to prove his possession within 12 years before suit and that he or some person through whom he claims is in possession during that period.—(P. C. 4 W. R. P. 57 (P. C. R. 367).)

48. Where a Hindu wife is party to the sale of property, the son was held to be on the plaintiff to prove his occasion of the purchase and the son was held to be on the defendant to prove the occasion of the purchase.—W. R. Sp. 111.

49. Where the defendant is party to the sales of property, the son was held to be on the plaintiff to prove the occasion of the sale and the son was held to be on the defendant to prove the occasion of the sale.—W. R. Sp. 37.

51. Where a share of an estate is purchased in execution, and purchaser's representatives absorb more land than belonged to that share and bring a suit to declare their rights, the — is on them.—W. R. Sp. 151.

52. In a suit by a mortgage of an estate purchased in execution, and the defendant's representative above more land that was absorbed by the mortgage, the son was held to be on the plaintiff to prove the mortgage and the son was held to be on the defendant to prove the mortgage.—W. R. Sp. 169.

53. Where a party claiming a right of pre-emption, imposed the correctness of the price stated in the deed of sale, the son was held to be on the plaintiff to prove the correctness of the price stated in the deed of sale, and made no effectual demand till they sued in 1868, though a separation took place in 1266, they were entitled to interest only from date of suit, and not from the date the deed was registered and appropriated the money.—W. R. Sp. 305, 348; 18 W. R. 1145.

54. In a suit to recover excess payment of Government revenue from a在一个 estate, the son was held to be on the plaintiff to prove his shares and the amount of revenue payable on them.—W. R. Sp. 300 (L. R. 89).

55. Where son traces possession from ejectment by administrator under the Act X of 1879, the son was held to be on the plaintiff to prove the character of his holding.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 128.

56. Where a vyat claims protection from ejectment by a Hindus widow in a suit by a Hindu widow under the Act X of 1879, the son was held to be on the plaintiff to prove the character of his holding.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 128.
Onus Probandi (continued).

73. In a suit in which plaintiff claims arrears of rent upon an account in which he alleges having credited defendant with sums collected from the ryot, the — is on the defendant. — 2 W. R. 210.

75. When a defendant pleads limitation, the — is on the plaintiff. — 1 W. R. 285 (8 R. J. P. J. 292); 2 W. R. 115; 7 W. R. 153; 24 W. R. 159.

215. A plaintiff starts his case sufficiently lif-seekin un the announcement of the issue he is entitled to show that a deed of sale has been executed in his favor by the judgment-debtor and that consideration-money has passed and possession been given. The — is on defendant if the deed has not been sold.—15 W. R. 153.

216. Where plaintiff claimed certain lands as belonging to his putative estates and defendant alleged that the lands in question formed part of the land for which he had obtained a decree for a resumption of suit of which he had never been in possession, and it appeared that the lands were not the same as those given to defendant by the resumption decree,—held that plaintiff was not bound to show that the lands appertained to his estates. —15 W. R. 183.

217. In a suit for possession, where plaintiff claims under a putative and defendant does not deny the execution of the deed but only the power of the lessor to grant it, the — is on defendant.—15 W. R. 238.

218. In a suit to recover possession of land within plaintiff's estate where defendant set up a rent-free title, all that plaintiff is required to show is that either he or his predecessors had received rent for the land at some time subsequent to the Perpetual Settlement, in which case the onus of proving title falls on defendant.—15 W. R. 289. See also 22 W. R. 510.

219. No further parcourse is necessary for possession by an auction-purchaser at a sale for arrears of rent; plaintiff is bound to show that he or his predecessors had received rent for the land in the possession of defendant.—25 W. R. 285.

220. The 'ona' had paid no consideration-money, but was entitled, under a special contract, to a putative at a fair and equitable rate, ss. 5 and 8 Act X were held not applicable to the case, and the ona lay on him to show what was the reasonable rate. —15 W. R. 517.

221. In a suit for rent due by a rhet after the expiry of his lease, the ona is not on the rhe to prove relinquishment, but on the landlord to prove holding over.—15 W. R. 454. See also 22 W. R. 510.

222. Where plaintiff started a prima facie case, by alleging that the lya-mahala set up by defendant's wife was executed in fraud of creditors and by showing a sufficient motive for the fraud, the ona was held on defendant to prove the bona fides of the deed. —15 W. R. 517.

223. In a suit for confirmation of possession on an adjudication of a particular title, the plaintiff is bound to show that not only that he was in possession at the date of suit, but that the title set up by him is a good and valid title.—15 W. R. 286, 16 W. R. 27, 19 W. R. 282.

224. In a suit for possession with mesne profits on the ground that the rent was payable under Reg. XIX of 1814, where defendant admitting the allegation, attached that plaintiff had given up possession as soon as the hut was completed, the — was held to be on plaintiff.—16 W. R. 200.

225. When defendants pleaded that the mangal-nuk or division to which they had littihoo claimed as their purchase for valuable consideration, was a mere fiction, the — was held to lie on them. —17 W. R. 13.

226. A compromise of a claim of debt, confirmed by a decree under the Act of 1846, cannot be set aside, even by a party (under the Act of 1846) without distinct proof of fraud, the — lying with the party who alleged fraud. —(P. C.) 17 W. R. 117.

227. Where one brother of a joint Hindu family transferred his interest in the joint property to the other brothers after a decree had been passed against him although before attachment, the ona was held to be on those brothers to prove the bona fides of the transaction; the mere fact of the passing of some money from one hand to another not being necessarily constituting such a transfer of interest as would indicate a bona fide transaction. —17 W. R. 499.

228. Where a decree of compromise clearly showed that the lands were in exchange for the alleged khmant lands of her father, the — was held to be, not on the defendants as to the fact of the exchange, but on the plaintiff to start her case by some prima facie evidence. —17 W. R. 559.

229. The rule which, in cases where defendant pleads lakheraj lays on plaintiff the onus of proving that the land is not, is not inflexible but may be altered according to circumstances. —18 W. R. 119.

230. In a suit to establish plaintiff's title to and for possession of a jote which was admittedly the raj-karve jote of defendant's ancestor, the real point is how such a jote came into the hands of plaintiff, and the ona is on defendant to show that defendant's ancestor or his heir relinquished the jote to the zealmand and that the zealmand had authority to pullen the jote to plaintiff. —18 W. R. 192.

enforce the right to a share of joint family property under cl. (c) of Art. XIV of 1880, the Xth P. was a plaintiff to show, not merely that the property is joint family property and that he has had possession of it in some way within 12 years. - 29 W. R. 192, 23 W. R. 361. But see 24 W. R. 1. 242. Where a second party has apparently descended in the ordinary way of Hindu law, no right to | and for property, and is a tenant in the same to the mortgaged property, and that he has had possession of it in some way within 12 years. - 29 W. R. 192, 23 W. R. 361. But see 24 W. R. 1.

230. Where R's title was declared by a decree as a brother by adoption to L and a co-sharer of his family property, but no possession was actually directed to be given to it except of the zemindari which was the principal family estate. - Held that R's title to two other lots which were part of the zemindari proper was the same as his title to the zemindari, and that the - lay upon those who insisted that the two lots did not form part of the joint family estate. - (P. C.) 19 W. R. 231.

230. The - is on a plaintiff whose claim is not based upon the ordinary Hindu law of inheritance but upon a special hypothesis. - 29 W. R. 192.

241. In a suit by a shareholder for his share of the rent, the - is on a plaintiff to prove that which he alleges is the amount of his share, rather than on defendant to prove that plaintiff's claim is not based upon a special hypothesis. - (P. C.) 19 W. R. 231.

242. Where a party purchases at an execution-sale the rights and interests of a vakil-adjutant, and another claims a mortgagee's interest in the property so purchased, the claimant is bound to establish his - and acquire title by - in an Art. XV case. - (P. C.) 19 W. R. 231.

243. The - is on defendant who objects under s. 7 Act VIII that plaintiff relinquished or omitted to include in a former suit the portion which he now claims and in which the - has been adjudged. - (P. C.) 19 W. R. 231.

244. Where an auction-purchaser brought a suit to obtain possession of certain julkars which he alleges are part of the zemindari, the defendant being in possession thereof, and his possession having been confirmed by the - of 1890, - (P. C.) 19 W. R. 231.

245. Where the - was on plaintiff to show that the julkars in dispute formed part of the assets of the zemindari at the time of the Permanent Settlement. - (P. C.) 20 W. R. 11.

246. In a suit for recovery of possession, if defendant contends that he is not bound to pay otherwise than by entirety to the person entitled to the whole rent, the - is on plaintiff to show that he is entitled to sue for a fractional portion. - 20 W. R. 76.

247. In a suit for the sale of property mortgaged as security for a loan under a zar-i-peshee ijara lease and of which plaintiff has been dispossessed under color of a decree, he having for many years had the benefit of the land for the purpose of pasture, the - was held to be on him to show that there was anything remaining due to him, and that the ijara gave him the right to sell the property upon the condition that the - is on defendant to show that the plaintiff has not been dispossessed, or that the grant is not for a mortgaged lease. - (P. C.) 20 W. R. 11.

248. In a suit to recover possession of land of which plaintiff had failed to recover possession in an action under s. 13 Act XIV of 1880 plaintiff's - acquisition by purchase from plaintiff's father, the - was held to be on plaintiff. - 20 W. R. 111. See also 23 W. R. 82.

250. Where a zamindar uses a talookdar for enhancement of rent upon a kuboolkut which he does not produce, he is bound to produce the - before he can call upon the defendant to produce his potthar. - 20 W. R. 469.

251. Where a judgment-creditor admits having obtained a portion of the - of the judgment-debtor, the - is on him to show that he was unable nevertheless to obtain possession of the remainder. - 21 W. R. 241.

252. The - is on the person who alleges that a party is disqualified under the Hindu law to succeed to property owing to his being a leper. - 21 W. R. 241.

253. Where a decree-holder, after purchase at an execution sale of his judgment-debtor's rights and interests, sues for a declaration of title and for possession, the defendant's plea that neither plaintiff nor his judgment-debtor was in possession within 12 years prior to suit, throws the - on plaintiff and not on defendant. - 21 W. R. 282.

254. In a suit against a zamindar to reverse the sale of a particular tenure on the ground of non-service of notice, the - of proving service lies on the defendant. - 21 W. R. 282.

255. In a suit by a Hindu widow to recover a share of property alleged to have been inherited from her husband and which had been mortgaged by her brother and sold under a decree obtained on the mortgage, where the question raised was whether the money for which the property was mortgaged had been borrowed by the brother for his own use or for the benefit of the family, - Held that it was for the defendant to prove that the plaintiff had any benefit from the money, and not for the plaintiff to prove that she had no benefit, unless it was found that there was no collusion, in which case the - would be shifted. - 22 W. R. 171.

256. The party who seeks to exclude one of the heirs to property, from a share of the inheritance, is bound to show the cause of the exclusion. - 22 W. R. 348.

257. In a suit for ejectment, if defendant establishes possession as a tenant, plaintiff is bound to show that the tenancy has been put an end to. - 22 W. R. 368.

258. In a suit brought against a minor, the - of establishing the material facts of the case was held to be on the plaintiff, who could derive little or no benefit from admissions made on the part of the minor defendant. - 22 W. R. 469.

259. In a suit for possession where plaintiff sets up a late purchase against a defendant whose title is derived from a sale in execution of a decree which was made on a mortgage-bond, and alleges that the earlier transaction was fraudulent, the - is on plaintiff to start the burden of showing certain facts from which the Court ought to infer collusion between the mortgagee and mortgagee. - 23 W. R. 55. But see 23 W. R. 321.

260. Where a party sues under a zar-i-peshee mortgage, not only for possession, but also for setting aside a mortgagee's lease which was alleged to have been granted by the mortgagee prior to the mortgage and under which defendants had been in possession for some time in accordance with a Magistrate's order, the - is on defendant to prove to the satisfaction of the Court that he was entitled to possession of the property and that the lease in controversy was not granted by the mortgagee, and was intended to be operative as between the mortgagee and the lessor. - (P. C.) 23 W. R. 111.

261. The presumption that a Hindu family is joint may be rebutted; and where this is done, the - is thrown on the opposite side. - 23 W. R. 141.

262. In a suit to have a purchase made at an execution sale set aside upon the ground that it was not bona fide, the - is upon plaintiff, and it is not sufficient for him to show circumstances which create a suspicion of the bona fides of the transaction. But in a suit for possession of land and for a declaration of plaintiff's title by virtue of his purchase, it is not sufficient for him to produce a deed executed by a judgment-debtor, but he must first prove his case of such suspicion as may arise from his own position with reference to the vendor and from any such circumstances as the improbability of such a purchase having been made. - 23 W. R. 141. See also 24 W. R. 209.

263. In a suit for arraignment of rent and for ejectment in consequence of non-payment of rent, where defendant challenged the rate claimed as well as plaintiff's right to sue alone, - Held that the - was on plaintiff to prove his claim to the rate of rent sued for and to show that he was sole proprietor of the property. - 23 W. R. 288.

264. In a suit for khas possession against a lessee who sets up a title to defeat plaintiff's admitted right as zamindar, it is for defendant to prove the title so set up. - 23 W. R. 291.

265. Where a decree in execution of which formal possession has been obtained, is impugned by the person in actual possession as fraudulent and collusive, the onus lies on the imputers to prove their allegation.—23 W. R. 329.

265. When a suit is brought under s. 27 Act VIII of 1869 (R. 1), it is for plaintiff to prove that the land is a part of his tenure and that he has been illegally ejected.—23 W. R. 383.

266. Where the fact of payments by a banking firm is distinctly put in issue, the books of the firm being at most corroborative evidence, the mere general statement of the banker to the effect that his books were correctly kept is insufficient to discharge the onus which lies upon him, particularly if he has the means of producing much better evidence.—(P. C.) 23 W. R. 390.

267. A defendant who pleads plaintiff as a bar to the suit, is bound to substantiate the plea.—23 W. R. 395.

268. A tenant who has executed a kudosalt in the name of A and pleads non-liability to A for the rent on the ground that A was bound for somebody else, is bound to prove who that somebody else is, and that the ostensible owner is not the real owner.—21 W. R. 41.

269. In a suit to recover possession when plaintiff proves previous possession and that the property is his hereditarily holding, the defendant who pleads that plaintiff relinquished it is bound to prove relinquishment.—21 W. R. 62.

270. In a suit to recover possession of a distinct share of a kudosalt to be had which plaintiff had purchased by plaintiff (the wife of one K) at a private sale from M and others and to have been in her separate possession by collecting rents until she was forcibly dispossessed by defendant, where defendant pleaded that in the same year she had purchased at a sale in execution the rent-free lands of K and others, that she was in possession and knew nothing where plaintiff’s lands lay,—held, that plaintiff was bound to prove the existence of the distinct share said to have been purchased by her.—21 W. R. 126.

271. Where a claim was founded upon a distinct statement of an account signed by the defendant in which he acknowledged a particular sum to be due to the plaintiff.—held that it was for defendant to produce evidence to rebut the prima facie case made against him.—(O. J.) 21 W. R. 202.

272. In a suit to recover possession of a house with arrears of rent, where defendants pleaded that plaintiff had sold his rights by a kudosalt, the execution of which was admitted.—held that as plaintiff was found to have been in possession all along by realization of rents, the onus of proving the bona fides of the transfer would be on defendant.—21 W. R. 212.

273. A plaintiff coming into Court for confirmation of possession is bound first of all to prove his own possession.—21 W. R. 220.

274. In a suit for compensation for money admittedly paid by plaintiff into the Government treasury on account of defendant’s share of the revenue, where defendant pleaded previous payment to plaintiff.—held that the onus of proving such payment was upon defendants.—21 W. R. 250.

275. Under s. 119 Act VIII the onus of proving non-service of summons is on the party claiming the benefit of that section.—21 W. R. 262.

276. Where joint family property is sold in execution of a decree against the head of the family, and purchased head to head for and on account of credit, the onus lies on members of the family who impugn the sale to show that the decree was an improper one.—21 W. R. 281.

277. Where an application is made to the Court to attach, as due and owing to the applicant from A, a sum of money which has been placed in the hands of B by C, it is incumbent on the applicant to prove that the money belongs not to B but to A.—25 W. R. 20.

278. In a suit for possession and for establishment of title against parties in possession under an award of the criminal authorities under s. 530 Act X of 1872 the onus is on plaintiff.—25 W. R. 30.

279. Where two Mahomedan women sued for confirmation of their right to certain property on the allegation that they had purchased the same with their own funds (dower-money), and defendants pleaded that plaintiffs’ husbands had for the purpose of evading payment of debts purchased the property in the names of their wives, the onus was held to be on plaintiffs.—25 W. R. 44.

280. In a suit for ejectment by a landlord against a tenant the term of whose tenancy was alleged to have expired,—held that the onus was on the landlord to show that the tenant had ceased to exist.—25 W. R. 55.

2. Although in cases of adoption by dharma-putro (partial adoption) it is in dispensable necessary that a declaration should be made on the third day after the decease, yet it is usual to make such a declaration and to take a writing from the dharma-putro.—1b.

3. In the absence of any such writing, and upon the whole evidence, the adoption in this case was pronounced as a paud-putro and not merely as a dharma-putro.—See Husband and Wife 5.

Partition.

1. — of a dwelling-house may be claimed as of right by a Hindoo. The difficulty of making a — is no ground for the denial of the right.—1 Hay 71 (Marshall 39).

A suit for — of a family dwelling-house may be brought either by one of the members of the family or by a purchaser from such member.—22 W. R., 294.

2. Members of a joint Hindu family, by ikramnamah, mutually declared their intention of enjoying their own shares and discharged all rights as joint owners in the shares of their co-owners, and appointed arbitration of division of the shares, but one of the parties to the submission died before any award was made in pursuance thereof.—The that the ikramnamah, coupled with separation in mass, operated as a —, and that it was wholly immaterial whether any actual division of the property had taken place.—See, 503.

3. A deed of — between two brothers on a compromise of suit, ratified by a decree of the Sudder Court, and putting an end to litigation previously entered into by their brothers, cannot be set aside without strict proof of haste and precipitancy of the settlement, inequality, restraint, coercion, or fraud.—(P. C.) 3 W. R., P. C., 51 (P. C.) 383.

4. In a suit instituted by one of the illegitimate children of a Christian father by different Hindu women who had by agreement constituted themselves parasites after the manner of a joint Hindu family, a deed of compromise was executed by the parties providing for the mode of enjoyment and against the sale, mortgage, lease, or separate title of the property, and, as to the provisions of the deed did not extend to prevent alienation by devise, nor affect the right of inheritance; and (2) that the arrangement between the parties included the right of survivors, and the claims of the heirs of the deceased on the property of the heirs of the last survivor.—(P. C.) 2 W. R., P. C., 4 (P. C.) 429.

4a. An actual — by metes and bounds is not necessary to render a division of undivided property complete. But when the members of an undivided family agree among themselves with regard to particular property that it shall henceforth be the subject of ownership in certain defined shares, then the character of undivided property and joint enjoyment is taken away from the subject-matter so agreed to be dealt with, and each member has in the estate a definite and certain share or interest in the same; he may claim the right to receive and to enjoy in severality although the property itself has not been actually surveyed and divided.—(P. C.) 8 W. R., P. C., 1 (P. C.) 687; 8 W. R., 82, 116, 302, 303; 13 W. R., 387; 12 W. R., 475; 48, P. C. 40. But see 14 W. R., 31, 345; 17 W. R., 102.

Even without actual — by metes and bounds, if two co-owners enjoy the rents and profits of their shares without throwing them into a common fund, it must be held that such an arrangement, and that they are not members of a joint family.—15 W. R., 442.

So also as to different members of a joint family holding separate portions of the banks of a tank severally.—17 W. R. 36.

But the question in each case of disputed — must be one of intention; whether the intention of the parties, to be inferred from the instruments which they have executed and the acts which they have done, was to effect such a —.—(Afrinam 8 W. R. 116) (P. C.) 21 W. R., 214; (P. C.) 23 W. R., 412.

5. A suit will lie for the separate possession (without any distribution of the jamma) of a share of an estate in proportion to the plaintiff's share.—1 W. B. 206.

6. A decree restoring possession of a share of property held in joint possession, does not necessarily confer separate possession.—1 W. B. 206.

7. A private —, if full and final as among the parties to it, will have the same effect as the most formal — on the right of pre-emption.—3 W. R., 47.

7a. Any act or declaration showing an unequivocal intention on the part of any shareholder to hold or enjoy his own share separately, and to renounce all rights upon the shares of his co-owners, constitutes a complete severance or —.—3 W. R., 47.

A suit by one member of a joint Hindu family for a declaration of his right, was held not to be a sufficient indication of such intention.—12 W. R. 610. See 17 W. B. 102.

7b. Under what circumstances alone a number of a joint Hindu family is barred from claiming a — of the family property.—3 W. R., 61.

8. In a suit for — of joint family property in which the defendant pleads that a — has already taken place, the cause is on the defendant to prove the allegation. Everyone entitled to a share must account for such portion of the joint estate as may have come into his hands.—17 W. R., 121.

He cannot claim — of one portion without bringing the other into hotchpot.—15 W. R., 111, 25 W. R., 533.

9. Co-owners may — retain possession severally of such joint lands as they may have taken separate possession of in the consent of at least a majority of the co-owners.—3 W. R., 208.

10. According to Hindu law — amongst brothers should be made after paying the debts of the mediator: but where division of the estate (not by metes and bounds) is made by the brothers whilst a decree against their late father remains unsatisfied, each brother is bound to satisfy his proportion of the decree so far as the assets which he takes will go.—11 W. R., 125.

11. Although direct evidence of a — is not necessary, yet prudential presumption is not lost sight of, viz., that every Hindu family is joint until the contrary is proved.—11 W. R., 336.

12. According to the Vivada Chintamannice, which is an authority in the province governed by the Maccabara, where there is a deal with regard to — among co-heirs, it may be removed by the evidence of kinsmen and the like.—1b.

13. An agreement by a joint tenant that he will not sue out a writ of — does not prevent him from selling his interest in the estate, or bind the purchaser, who becomes tenant-in-common. From partitioning his estate.—11 W. R., O. J., 12.

14. In all cases of joint ownership each party has a right to demand and enforce —.—12 W. R., 169.

15. A suit in the nature of a — suit cannot be properly dealt with unless all who are admittedly shareholders in the joint property are before the Court.—12 W. R., 256.

16. On partition of an estate, the Hindu law recognizes the right of a grandmother to maintenance, but not to any share of the estate.—12 W. R., 100. See also 13 W. R., 66.

17. The purchaser of a share of an undivided lakheraj estate has a right to apply for — of his share from those of the other shareholders.—13 W. R., 74.

18. In such a case (as distinguished from the case of a revenue-laxheraj estate) the Civil Court alone, and not the Collector, would have jurisdiction to make the —.—1b.

19. In drawing up the final decree for possession by — of komunt land and for mesne profits, the Judge should state the boundaries and extent of each share and the exact amount due as mesne profits and costs.—12 W. R., 98.

18a. The principle that a family ceasing to be Hindoo in religion may still enjoy their property under the Hindu law, is applicable, inter alia, to the members of a Hindu family entering into possession of an estate, under a compromise by which the members divide the estate among themselves on certain terms.—(P. C.) 14 W. R., 8, P. C., 83, PARTITION (continued).

14. Though, under s. 27 Act X of 1850, the zamindar is not bound to recognize any of a registered tenure without his consent to such —, such consent need not be in writing but may be inferred from his acts.—15 W. R. 285. See 13 W. R. 320.

15. Where a coparcener in jinakal land, by erecting a building, takes possession of more land than he would be entitled to under the custom —, the remedy is not to take any — and not for demolition of the building.—16 W. R. 10.

16. Where joint property is divided among the members of a joint Hindu family in pursuance of a compromise, each takes his share of the property not as ancestral property, but as his own absolute property.—16 W. R. 221.

17. In a suit for —, the plaintiff’s right cannot be questioned unless barred by limitation or by any right of easement which the defendants enjoy.—17 W. R. 71.

18. In giving a decree for —, the Court refused to make any decree permitting plaintiff to build a house, but left him to do what he pleased with his own land consistently with the legal rights of others. As he had the lathkori tenant cannot be affected under the provisions of Reg. XIX of 1814, yet a Civil Court, in effecting such a —, may well be guided by the rules laid down by Regulation so far as they are applicable.—17 W. R. 137.

20. A Hindu widow being competent to claim —, against her co-sharers, a purchaser of her estate at an execution-sale may do so likewise.—18 W. R. 25.

21. Items of property held not to form the subject of —. — 76.

22. A private person, though not binding against the Government, or against a purchaser at sale for arrears of revenue who purchases title directly from the Government, is binding as between the parties to it and persons claiming title under them.—18 W. R. 327.

23. The Privy Council agreed with the findings of the Court, that the documents proving the agreement to refer the dispute to arbitration and the award of the arbitrators, were not spurious, and that the property in question was joint property and was partitioned in the way declared in the award.—(I. C.) 20 W. R. 25.

24. A descendent immoveable estate may be held separely after separation of the holder from the other members of the family.—20 W. R. 151.

24a. Where ancestral property mortgaged by the father was sold in execution of a decree, and the sons (members of a joint family) sued for determination of right and —. — Held that the mortgagee could not stand in a higher position than the father against whom the sons had a right to require — so far as the property was ancestral. — 20 W. R. 170.

24b. In a joint family under the Mitrasastra law, a father during his life may at his pleasure — the whole of the property in his hands or any of it; and if he does so, he must allot a share to his wife for her maintenance in addition to the share which he takes himself: also the sons may at any time during the father’s life, at their pleasure (even when any of the contingencies which entitle them to divide the whole estate have not happened), call upon him to — the ancestral property: and by that event also the mother must have her share as before. After the father’s death, the sons may divide the property among themselves; but then too they must give a share to their father’s widow, and to an unmarried sister if there is one. In all the cases above the mother’s share in the ancestral property must be equal to that of a son.—20 W. R. 336.

25. — of property between members of a family is not evidence against a third party unless it is shown that there has been some possession in accordance with the —.— 21 W. R. 149.

26. Where one of several joint owners desires to have a — of a compound hitherto held in common, mere inconvenience to the others is not a sufficient obstacle to such —. — 21 W. R. 132.

27. Nor is the fact of the public or other persons having acquired rights of way over the property sought to be divided, a reason in law against such —, as those rights remain notwithstanding the —. — 21 W. R. 137.

28. It is not necessary that there should be evidence of disputes and quarrels, or of any pecuniary loss or gain, between the joint owners of a property, before a Court can interfere to make a —; nor can a right to perform the worship of an idol deprive any of the joint owners of the right to a — and compel the Court to say that the service shall be performed by them jointly instead of by turns.—22 W. R. 437.

29. A — in respect of which no formalities have been observed, and no record preserved, except a list representing the result arrived at, is not in itself obligatory on a minor who has the option of repudiating it when he comes of age or within a reasonable period after that date.—23 W. R. 68.

30. In a suit for possession of land which plaintiff’s vendee had purchased jointly with those under whom defendants claimed, — Held that it was not necessary for plaintiff to show an actual formal —, but that it was sufficient for his case to show that his vendors, and he himself after them, had in fact for a considerable time held their share in a separate form.—23 W. R. 295.

30a. Where a nonmuptra executed by the father of a joint Hindu family prohibited — amongst his four sons, and one preceeded the father without issue, and another also preceeded the father, leaving two sons who were not bound by the prohibition, — Held that, as these grandsons were parties having interest in the property, conditions which did not not and could not affect them, ought not to restrain the other co-sharers.—23 W. R. 927.

31. A zamindar may recognize the division of a holding, either formally by actually dividing it into parts, or implicitly by receiving rent from parties holding separately.—23 W. R. 19.

32. Where a property has been divided, and one of the parties affected by the division complains of what has been done, he is not at liberty to ask the Court to order the rectification of a small portion of the property so divided; if the arrangement is not to be carried out as it stands, it must be entirely revised, i.e. the whole of the property divided must be again brought before the Court, and there must be a division de novo of the property in its entirety.—23 W. R. 359.

33. The respondent’s absolute title (under a final decree in — suit) to an estate, was declared unencumbered by any prior rights in the appellants.—(I. C.) 26 W. R. 93.

4. Private — is only good evidence towards showing what lands are comprised in the estate at the time of the — W. R. 238 (1 R. J. 16).

5. A — does not extinguish rights of tenants; nor does the fact of one of the proprietors being the tenant destroy his tenant-right because another has had the land allotted as part of his share. — W. R. Sp. 271.

6. Rights created under a — in regard to certain land, are not affected by a decree for that land obtained upon a previous compromise. — 1 W. R. 286.

9. An auction-purchaser who takes the place of a defaulting shareholder, and makes objection to the — proceedings, is a party to the — 1 W. R. 323.

10. A — may be awarded between the shareholders themselves, but not between them and other parties holding under-tenures, etc., at the time. — 4 W. R. 86.

11. It is not binding upon the ryots. —21 W. R. 29.

12. A — of an estate cannot be demanded after a private partition thereof more than 50 years ago and subsequently maintained in a judicial decision, even though a regular separation of one share has been simultaneously obtained by the Court. — 4 W. R. 51.

13. Before a purchaser at an execution-sale of a share of a specific metal in an estate is entitled to possession and to a — of his purchase, his nature and extent must be clearly defined and described in the Civil Courts. — 3 W. R. 49.

14. Where an estate is held in separate possession, the whole of the purpose for apportioning land according to the interests of the shareholders who have severally entered into engagements with Government, cannot be insisted upon by one of the proprietors under s. 30 Reg. XIX of 1814. — 5 W. R. 186.

15. The right to — of an estate paying revenue to Government can only be determined by the Civil Court, but the — itself can be made by the Collector alone under Reg. XIX of 1814. — 6 W. R. 15. — See 13 W. R. 74; 15 W. R. 212, 471; 16 W. R. 34; 18 W. R. 147.

16. Where a Collector, in laying down the boundaries of an estate under — does not proceed under Reg. VII of 1822, the map made is not a binding award on the proprietor of the neighbouring estate; within the meaning of cl. 6 s. 1 Act XIV. — 6 W. R. 75.

17. The disposition of a party from land assigned to him under a — made in legal form and duly sanctioned, although a wrongful act, is no ground for restoration to the status quo ante existed before the — 4 W. R. 314.

18. Lands held in joint possession, each proprietor receiving his proportion of the rent according to his interest in the land, cannot be divided under the Butwara laws.— W. R. 291.

19. The Lower Appellate Court's order for the — of a shikmeen tenure was upheld on the ground that it did not affect the rights of Government, nor of the zamindar, nor of the plaint!it's co-shikmeens. — 8 W. R. 128.

20. Where a Collector calls upon the proprietors of an estate to pay the fees of the Butwara Ameen, the payment of the whole amount by plaintiff is not voluntary, and a suit for contribution is governed by Act XI of 1888. — 8 W. R. 388.

22. The division of a parent estate does not reduce a — party, who did not hold as a ryst, to the position of a ryst not liable to ejectment.— 7b.

23. Under s. 19 Reg. XIX of 1793 the gross produce of each village of an estate must be calculated with the proportion of the public jumma assessed thereon. — 7b.

24. A — was decreed by the Civil Court which made provision in its decree for the payment of the expenses of — by certain co-sharers indicated. On proceedings taken before the Collector in pursuance of an order of the Civil Court, to pay the expenses (Ameen's fees) remaining due, and on failure by such co-sharers to comply with this direction, the Collector put up the share for sale as for an arrear of Government revenue. The co-sharers whose share was sold, without making an appeal to the Commissioner of Revenue under s. 35 Act XI of 1869, brought a suit to set aside the sale and to recover the property, alleging that there was no satisfactorily evidence concerning the arrears of Government revenue, and that the provisions of the Act did not apply. Held that the suit would lie and was cognisable by the Civil Court. — (P. B.) 10 W. R. 3 P. 86; 10 W. R. 381.

25. S. 20 Reg. XIX of 1814 is not applicable to a case where no partition has been made and plaintiff is not a co-sharer. — 12 W. R. 134.

26. Where, on a separation of shares under s. 11 Act XI of 1859, one share remained which was sold for arrears of revenue, and one village of it was sold by the purchaser W to 'I, who, agreeing to a certain sum as his share of Government jumma, applied to the Collector to pay the sum at the rate agreed upon. Held that there was no legal objection to P's having his separate share opened at the rate mentioned, even if the jumma on the share remaining in W's possession was excessive. — 12 W. R. 241.

27. The Collector's notice to the shareholders of a property in a — case under Act XI of 1838, to pay their respective quota of expenses, is not sufficient to constitute such a demand as will render defaulters liable, even if his report is subsequently adopted by the Commissioner. — 13 W. R. 381.

28. Before the remuneration of an Ameen employed to effect a — can be levied, the parties concerned must be paid like manner as an arrear of revenue, it must be sanctioned by the Board and Government, and the periods and proportions in which it is to be levied must be determined by the Board. — 7b.

29. Where two or more proprietors of a joint estate appear to have it divided in the same proportions, and no other shares are opposed, the Collector may at once, under s. 4 Reg. XIX of 1814, proceed with the — and if no objection is raised when the parties have opportunity, the shares cannot again be remitted by a Civil suit. If the Collector has notice of a dispute, his jurisdiction is questionable. In every suit to do away with the — he must be made a party. — 13 W. R. 471.

30. When in the preparation of a — under Reg. XIX of 1814 it is ascertained that the parties are, at variance on a question of title, the Collector's proper course is to stay proceedings until all such questions are decided by a competent Court, the Revenue authorities not having authority under the law to decide them finally. — 14 W. R. 336.

32. And a sufficient cause of action. — 16 W. R. 190.

exact proportion to the amount of revenue paid.—
78 W. R. 461.
33. S. S. Reg. XIX of 1814 applies only where revenue is payable to Government, which must be apportioned when a division of the estate is made but not where the revenue is already apportioned by each of the owners. A suit for partition in such a case may be entertained by the Civil Court.—20 W. R. 182.
34. One of the co-sharers of a joint estate, being jointly with the others, would, under Reg. XIX of 1814, be entitled to a separation of a moiety from the rest of the moiety, on an assignment upon it of a proper proportion of the whole jumna; and having done this, he would alone be entitled to have an order for — of that moiety as between himself and his co-sharers therein.—21 W. R. 225.
35. When the zemindar is so mixed up with the neighbouring settlements that the line of boundary cannot be ascertained, the plaintiff cannot call upon the Collector to make a new line; but if the Collector has the means of ascertaining where the boundary lies, he is bound to carry out a —.—19 W. R. 269.
36. The Civil Court has no authority to order the Collector to make a — of the jumna payable to Government in respect of melas which are intermixed in a portion common to all.—21 W. R. 372.
37. In a suit by a shareholder of a joint estate, to establish a right to a —, the Collector need not be made a party unless the public revenue is jeopardised by the contemplated —.—22 W. R. 245.
38. Principle adopted where the — of an estate under Reg. XIX of 1814 was supplemented by an assignment of land by defendants in exchange for land originally held by plaintiff.—22 W. R. 153.

Partnership.

1. Plaintiff and the members of a banking firm jointly for payment of certain deposits in their hands. Defendants pleaded that, by an arbitration and agreement between them after they had quarrelled with each other, one of the partners was to be liable. Held that plaintiff was not in any way bound by the award, which affected the partners only in their respective rights towards each other.—1 Hay 491.
2. Where parties dissolve — without giving notice to customers having current accounts with them. They are liable for payments made to one partner in the belief that he represented the firm.—23 W. R. 89, 94.
3. Duty of Subadar Court under s. 16 Reg. VI of 1793 to have used the evidence supplied by certain original account-books, to have ascertained that the sum mentioned as the balance due on a — account subject to certain objections, was a balance due without objection.—(P. C.) 35 W. R. 76, P. C. 76 (P. C. R. 12).

4. A contract was entered into at Ratlam for the establishment of a — to be carried on principally at Muttra. Held that the cause of action in a suit for the balance resulting from the transaction arose at Muttra.—(P. C.) 1 W. R. 84, P. C. 35 (P. C. R. 226).
5. Service of a summons intended for one partner upon another partner of the same firm is not a sufficient service. Partners are not the recognized agents of each other within the meaning of cl. 2 s. 17 Act VII.—1 Hyde 97.
6. In a suit for money advanced and for half profits upon an alleged —, plaintiff (although his claim to half the profits failed or was abandoned) was held entitled to a decree for the balance of the advance still due to him.—1 W. R. 300.
7. Liability of mercantile firm for frauds committed by one of its members or its agents while acting for it or in its business.—2 W. R. 186.
8. Nature and extent of evidence required when dissolution of — is pleaded in a suit for shares of assets and property of a trading firm.—3 W. R. 223.
9. The doctrine of liability of a dormant partner for every debt incurred by the active partner is not absolute in Courts in England, and is not to be followed except when consonant with justice, equity, and good conscience.—9 W. R. 325.
10. Where plaintiff entering into a contract of — to work certain mines, receives a bonus and six monthly payments as “rent” for the land, stipulating to refund in case coal should not be discovered, it is a damage, and the money is consideration-money.—9 W. R. 499.
11. An agreement of — for carrying on business under contract with the Public Works Department, by an Overseer in that Department, who by the rules of his office is prohibited from entering into any trade or contracts with the Department, is a fraud upon the public and not valid.—11 W. R. 441.
13. Every one of the partners in a mercantile firm whether his name appear on the face of the instrument or not, and whether he be a sleeping and secret partner, is liable upon a bill drawn up by a partner in the recognized trading name of the firm for a transaction incidental to the business of the firm, unless it be shown that the holder of the bill knew, at the time he received it, that the transaction was the private affair of a single partner.—(P. C.) 13 W. R. 39, P. C. 29.
14. Proof may be given of a — in which there are dormant partners.—11 W. R. 24.
15. Procedure necessary to obtain a dissolution of — and discharge from liability in respect thereof.—13 W. R. 47.
16. In a suit to recover money on an adjusted — account between plaintiff and defendant, where the plaintiff allowed the issues to be framed, not mainly but solely on the alleged adjustment and failed to prove that adjustment.—Held that the plaintiff was not entitled to go into the question of general account with his late partner.—16 W. R. 24.
17. In a suit for dissolution of —, there should be no absolute decree for a specific sum of outstanding balances; and no amount should be decreed without proof of its having been realized and misapplied.—15 W. R. 62.
18. A member of a subsisting — cannot sue his partner for profits which had accrued up to a particular time, but must sue for an account.—16 W. R. 141.
19. A person paying to an officer of a — a duty jointly due to all the members, is bound to show that he is acting bona fide on the understanding that it is for the benefit of the —:—16 W. R. 238.
20. To constitute a —, the parties must have agreed to carry on business and to share profits in some way in common.—(P. C.) 18 W. R. 384.
21. The relation of principal and agent ought not to be implied, any more than that of a tenant from the fact only of his management on profits and powers of control being given, when such relation is opposed to the real agreement and intention of the parties.—(P. C.) 19.
22. If a civil action by one or more members of a — against another member for contribution to recover money paid in liquidation of a debt due by the firm, if there has been no adjustment of accounts, it is necessary to make all the partners parties to the suit.—18 W. R. 408.

22. A managing partner of a tea-garden was held, so far as third parties were concerned and in the absence of notice to the contrary, to have power to bind his partners in matters incidental to carrying on the business in the usual way.—(O, J.) 21 W. R. 161.

21. In a suit against co-partners in a joint firm to recover money deposited as plaintiff's share and to have accounts rendered of the profits, before any order can be made, suit must be brought by any one of his partners or out of the assets of the firm the actual money advanced, the whole accounts of the firm should be taken and the ultimate liability of each of the partners assessed.—25 W. R. 130.

23. The partners of a concern are bound by the acknowledgments of their manager as their avowed agent.—24 W. R. 34.

24. A partner executed by the managing partner in a firm, within the scope of a manager's authority to raise money for the joint purpose of the firm, is binding on the other partners.—24 W. R. 63.

25. Where A, a partner, advanced money to others to carry on business, and an instrument was executed whereby the latter agreed and bound themselves to account yearly to the former for a share of the profits,—Hold that the transaction amounted to an agreement that A should be a party to the business pro tanas, and that, in re Const. 10, 223 Act IX of 1872, the — between A and the others was dissolved by the death of A. and that A's representatives, by receiving, some six months after his death, an account with a portion of the money advanced and of the profits, did not reconstitute —, but rather indicated an opposite intention.—25 W. R. 19.

26. A firm becomes dissolved when the original partners die: and if somebody comes in their place and carries on the business of the firm, the business, whether carried on under the old name or not, is not that of the old firm, but of an entirely new firm.—25 W. R. 118.

27. Where a firm had purchased a moiety in a tea-estate and engaged to pay all its working expenses on the condition that the purchase-money should be a charge on the estate and be paid from its produce before any profits were declared, and that, if some money should be repayable in the same manner as the purchase-money of the moiety,—Hold that the firm had a charge upon the original owner's moiety in priority to a subsequent mortgagee or mortgagee in respect of it, and that it may be allowed to take over such moiety at the market-value of the estate at the death of such owner.—(O, J.) 25 W. R. 213.

28. Where, by a contract of —, one of the partners was to manage the business, and his remuneration was not to be by salary, but by a commission upon sales during his lifetime: and on its being found that the concern could, not go on except at a loss, and the Company had to be wound up by an order of Court,—the Privy Council, acting upon the distinction between the position of a man who is to be paid by a fixed salary and that of a man who is to be paid by commission, and upon a careful construction of the whole the conclusion came to the conclusion that, by no fair and reasonable implication could it be inferred that the partners relinquished their right of dissolving or applying to have the Company dissolved under the circumstances, or that they agreed, if they did exercise this right, to pay the managing partner commission for the loss of commission not earned.—(P, C.) 26 W. Pauper Suit or Appeal.

2. There is no necessity for an inquiry whether an alleged representative of a pauper is a pauper or not; but the Court, if satisfied that he is the legal representative, ought to admit him to carry on the suit under s. 102 Act VIII.—3 W. R., Misc. 20.

3. Where the grounds stated in s. 301 Act VIII appear, the Court is bound to refuse an application to sue as a pauper; but if the Court should not see reason to refuse, and should fix a day for hearing evidence on the question of pauperism, and if, upon such further hearing, the opposite party should bring to notice any ground upon which the Court would have been bound under s. 301 to refuse the application, it will be at the discretion of the Court, upon being so informed, to refuse leave. The words "within the meaning of the Act" in s. 301 mean within the local jurisdiction.—14 W. R. 281.

4. Where a judgment-creditor whose sale in execution had been set aside was held to have a good ground to appeal with form 'pauperia'—17 W. R. 118.

5. An Appellate Court has no power, under s. 370 Act VIII, to demand security for costs from the petitioner after his appeal had been admitted; the provision in s. 342 not being applicable to appeals in form 'pauperia'.—17 W. R. 68.

6. Where the appellant was, according to his own statement, a pauper, and it appeared that others presumably able to furnish security for costs were interested in the matter, the case was considered a proper one in which security should be given.—18 W. R. 102.

7. The Court rejected a petition of appeal presented on behalf of a pauper by a vaked who was retained under an agreement for the return of any money: and, as the case was considered a proper one in which security should be given.—25 W. R. 316.

In consideration of the services of Rajah Anwar Shahu, the Delhi Emperor built a tomb over his remains and made a grant of land to his family for the purpose of maintaining it in the manner usual amongst Malomels. Government from the time of the Permanent Settlement up to 1873, when, in consequence of disputes in the family, Government reduced the money payment and appointed a Mutwalee for the tomb. One of the descendants of Anwar Shahad now sued Government and the Mutwalee for a share of this annual payment. Held that the grant to the family was not a gratuitous — or allowance; that the money payment by the settlement was rent justly due to them for the use and occupation of their land; and that the fact of the payment being continued by Government did not alter its nature so as to prevent the Civil Court from taking cognizance of the suit under Act XXIII of 1871. — 29 W. 2. Plaintiff not punishable for false verification of — by his agent. — 17.
3. Where the verification of a — was held not false within the meaning of s. 24 Act VIII of 1863. — W. R. F. R. 41 (1 Hay 269, Marshall 127).
4. If — asks for relief which Court can afford, and also asks to open up matters not adjudicated upon in another suit, Court (instead of rejecting the — as prolix under s. 29) should entertain the suit and adjudicate upon matters not adjudicated upon. — 17.
5. Verification of — to be by plaintiff only save under the exceptions allowed by s. 28 and which must be separately pleaded and considered, in each case. — W. R. F. R. 64 (1 Hay 379; Marshall 170); 6 W. R., Mis., 93; 6 W. R. 218; 7 W. R. 168; 24 W. R. 215.
But after — has been admitted, the suit shall not be dismissed on the ground that the — should have been verified by plaintiff himself and not an agent, but Judge should, under s. 28 Act VIII, require the verification by plaintiff to be supplied. — 2 Hay 317 (Marshall 844).
6. Where a Court has not jurisdiction, the — should be returned for presentation to the proper Court, and an appeal from such an order is not an appeal contemplated by s. 348.

7. Not to be construed literally but according to the meaning of the plaintiff. Thus, where a — charged defendant with plundering an orange grove, the suit was held sufficiently maintainable though actual "plundering" was not proved. —W. R. F. R. 159. See also 21 W. R. 59.

8. When a — is necessary for the grant of a new trial in a Small Cause Court.—S. C. C. 82.

9. Presentation of — at Small Cause Court’s Clerk’s private residence after Court hours owing to difficulty in procuring stamps earlier.—S. C. C. 86.

10. Under s. 26 Act VIII a — by a firm should set forth the names of all the members of the firm; otherwise it may be either rejected or returned for amendment.—S. C. C. 88. See also 26 W. R. 196.

The omission of the principal partner and debtor from amongst the parties sued is fatal to a suit brought against the firm.—26 W. R. 203.

11. A Small Cause Court is not tied down to the strict form of s. 4.—S. C. C. 84.

12. A — wanting in precision, or defective in form, should be returned for amendment and not rejected.—W. R. Sp. 50. See 8 W. R. 265.

13. A — should be entered in the register under date of presentation although not registered on that date.—W. R. Sp. 81.

14. If a — valued at 1000 Rs, is registered by mistake in a Small Cause Court, it would be rightly dismissed for want of jurisdiction; but instead of being registered, it should be returned to the plaintiff.—W. R. Sp. 162.

15. A — should state the mode in which plaintiff’s claim arose as nearly as the amount of the claim. Thus, where a case was decided as one of enforcement between landlord and tenant, plaintiff cannot be allowed in appeal to rest upon his alleged stipulation in a farming lease, the extent of which was suppressed in the Court below, reserving to him the right of collecting an enhanced rent.

17. A plaintiff — on the presentation of his — produce in Court the originals of the documents on which he relies in support of his claim.—1 Hyde 288.

18. When a plaintiff can satisfy the Court at the hearing that some document on which he desires to rely was not presented with the — because he was ignorant of its existence at the time, the Court will probably allow it to be received as evidence.—19.

19. An errata in a — is the ground for dismissing the — suit.—1 W. R. 87.

20. A Judge has no authority to allow a plaintiff to file a supplemental — after the Amen’s report has been given in.—1 W. R. 278.

22. A suit instituted within time is not prejudiced by delay in registration of — 3 W. R. 1, 19 W. R. 150.

23. Upon the presentation of a —, a Judge should cause the date of presentation to be noted on the petition.—2 W. R., Misc. 22.

24. A — not duly verified, is out of time if not presented or registered within more than 6 months after the expiration of the period of limitation.—4 W. R. 81.

25. A — is that on the face of it ought not to be admitted; nor ought it to be amended after the issues have been fixed.—5 W. R. 234.

26. A deposition by one of the plaintiffs does not cure the defect of non-verification of the — by all the plaintiffs.—5 W. R. (Act X) 6.

27. Where a suit is, by a Collector’s order, instituted at the Collector’s station instead of at the Sub-Divisional Officer’s collector’s office, the — may be returned to plaintiff to be filed in the proper quarter.—6 W. R. (Act X) 104.

28. When an application is made to a Court to permit a — to be subscribed and verified by a person other than the plaintiff, the Court must make the enquiries pointed out by s. 25 Act XXIII.—6 W. R., Misc. 24.

29. A — in Persian should be rejected or returned for presentation in the ordinary language of the district.—8 W. R. 496.

29a. Where, on the face of the —, no relevant case was made against the defendants, but it appeared that in a suit properly framed, if he proved his case, plaintiff would be entitled to a decree against one, and it was probable that a new suit would be found barred by limitation, the plaintiff was allowed to amend his — so as to make it a — against one defendant only.—16 W. R., F. C. 3. See also (O. J.) 16 W. R. 242, 25 W. R. 426.

30. Deficiencies in — do not justify the dismissal of a — suit.—10 W. R. 460.

31. In a suit to recover possession, the — ought to state as accurately as possible the date on which the plaintiff was dispossessed.—11 W. R. 238.

32. Where a — does not sufficiently disclose the cause of action, the proper course is not to dismiss the suit altogether, but to reject and return the — to plaintiff, or more properly to allow it to be amended under s. 32 Act VIII. Where this was not done, plaintiff was held at liberty to prove any cause of action not inconsistent with the —.—12 W. R. 318.

33. The object of s. 26 Act VIII is to identify the parties to the — suit, and the term “description” applies rather to the patronymic than to a title such as Roy Bahadur.—12 W. R. 450. (Overruled by P. C.) See 42 post.

34. The verification of a — by an agent, instead of the plaintiff himself, cannot be objected to by a Judge of a Small Cause Court, after such verification has been expressly sanctioned by him at the commencement of the — suit.—12 W. R. 465.

35. A — must state the relief sought for, the subject of the claim, the cause of action, and when it accrued; and in suits for damages for injury done, the nature of the injury ought to be set out.—13 W. R. 248.

36. When a — is rejected under s. 32 Act VIII the plaintiff can bring a suit on the same subject-matter, provided he is not barred by lapse of time.—14 W. R. 229. It is first required the plaintiff to amend his —, and afterwards in rejecting the —, if its order is controversial, disallowed. —(F. C.) 18 W. R. 301.

37. Under s. 26 Act VIII a — need not set forth boundaries, but should only describe the property sued for in such a manner as may suffice for identification.—18 W. R. 461. See also 20 W. R. 142, 25 W. R. 426.

38. Where plaintiff claimed several plots of land but did not specify the boundaries in respect of one of them, — Held that the proper course was for the Court to call upon plaintiff to amend his — to 21 W. R. 187.

39. Where a Judge, after registering a — and allowing the parties to go to issue on the question of jurisdiction, found that he had no jurisdiction, he ought, instead of dismissing the —, to have returned the — to plaintiff under s. 3 Act XXIII of 1861.—29 W. R. 205.

R. 173.

30. Construction of the words "karnibaliah" and "nij- jote" as used in a —. — 17 W. R. 401.

31. A — may be a confirmatory grant only; and there is nothing in asserting such a grant inconsistent with the presumption that a prior title existed. — (P. C.) 19 W. R. 353.

32. Where plaintiffs as ryots sued the 12-anna shareholders for a — corresponding with their kuboolan and according to an alleged promise, as failed to make out the ground on which they relied, but the Lower Appellate Court being of opinion that they had made out a right of occupancy and were entitled to a — at a fair and equitable rate of rent, and finding no evidence as to what such rate would be, gave them a decree at the old rate. — Held that the decision was erroneous as there was no evidence on which the question of a fair and equitable rate could be determined, and as it rested on a ground not supported by the plaintiffs who came into Court on a special contract; and that if the Lower Appellate Court thought that plaintiffs' right to a — had rested on their right of occupancy, it ought to have remanded the case to the first Court with directions to make the other 4-anna shareholders parties to the suit, and to try the case upon new evidence as if it were a suit for a — from all the 16-anna shareholders jointly. — 20 W. R. 75.

33. In construing a — in this case (such construction being, according to the practice of the Court, treated as a question of law), the Court held that it must look to the surrounding circumstances, one of which was that possession was given by the grantor of the — and accepted by the grantee under the —. — 22 W. R. 296.

34. In order to determine whether a — granted by a zamindar conveyed an estate for life or an estate of inheritance, — Held it was necessary to arrive as well as possible, at the real intention of the parties, to be collected chiefly from the terms of the instrument, but to a certain extent also from the circumstances existing at the time, and further by the conduct of the parties since its execution. — (P. 3. There is no power in the Court to amend a plaint after it has once been admitted. If, after admission and pending decision, any amendment is necessary, it must be done under s. 111 Act VIII of 1859 by adding a fresh issue.

4. Where a plaint was amended on grounds other than those authorized by s. 29 Act VIII of 1859, but no injury resulted to defendant and no objection had been taken before the Lower Appellate Court, the High Court on special motion refused to interfere. — L. R. 170.

5. The High Court refused on special appeal to convert an order rejecting an appeal into one returning it for amendment. — W. R. 84, 86.

6. Where a decree awarded mockitar's fees contrary to
   s. 71 Act X of 1859, and it was amended in execution instead of by application to the Court of first instance, the amendment was not interfered with, no injustice having been done thereby. — W. R. 84, 85, 87 (Act X) 11 (2 R. J. P. J. 38).

7. Act VIII gives the Court no power to allow a plaint to be amended after it has been admitted, except for the purpose of adding parties under s. 73. — 1 Nay 98. But see 10 post.

8. The proper course, with regard to an error in a decretal

13. Variation of title by plaintiff not allowable. —
    5 W. R. 197, 6 W. R. 1, 18 W. R. 274.

14. The power of the Lower Courts to amend a plaint extends by a curi sumptum to the elevation of what is ambiguous in the claims of the contending parties, to the amendment of what is erroneous, and the supplying of what is defective, but not to the conversion of a suit of one character into another inconsistent with and opposed to it. — (F. R.) 6 W. R. 211.

15. The effect of Magistrate to charge under different heads several offences chargeable under the same section, as provided by ss. 258 and 211 Act XXV of 1861, may be amended by Sessions Judge under s. 241.— 7 W. R., 8, 8.

16. Where a defendant was sued on a contract, and the plaintiff failed because it turned out, on the evidence, that the defendant was not liable, being only an agent and with no authority, the plaint was not allowed to be amended so as to make him liable for misrepresenting that he had authority. — 9 W. R. 206.

DIGEST OF INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

Practice (Amendment) (continued).

So where a Court intended and ordered the sale of the whole premises mortgaged, the conveyance by mistake dealt with a part of the premises, the Court rectified the instrument.—25 W. R. 332.

18. Amendments in a charge ought to be made formally, and should appear on the face of it. See 11 W. R. 14.

19. The refusal of a Court, in exercise of the discretion vested in it by s. 28 Act VIII, to allow a plaint to be amended, is no ground of special appeal.—10 W. R. 87.

20. Where a Judge or is of opinion that a plaintiff has misstated his cause of action, he ought to direct him to amend his plaint instead of refusing to try the suit.—11 W. R. 223.

21. The limitation prescribed for an application for review does not amount to an alteration of a clerical error in a decree.—12 W. R. 65.

22. Power of Court to recall order.—See Fraud 17.

23. In a suit in which plaintiff sued as partners for damages for non-delivery of certain goods, and in which it was found on the evidence that two of the plaintiffs were not partners at the time the cause of action accrued or when the goods were to be delivered, the Lower Court ordered that the names of the two plaintiffs who were not partners should be struck out and a decree be given to the rest of the plaintiffs.—Hold on appeal that the Judge had power to amend the issue, and that that was the correct mode of amending errors in a plaint, with reference to s. 141 Act VIII.—14 W. R. O. J. 11.

24. After a decree is confirmed by the High Court on appeal, the Subordinate Court has not the power of making any alteration whatever in it; the decree having become a decree of the High Court. See 11 W. R. 268.

25. A plaint cannot be allowed to amend its case only when he has an honest case but either through mistake or some misapprehension has not placed the real facts before the Court.—See 11 W. R. 123.

26. Even if a plaint has been misjudged, by various representations of the defendant, into framing his suit in a particular way, still he can only recover according to his allegations and proofs, and cannot be allowed to set up an entirely new case not set up or hinted at in the plaint.—(P. C.) 10 W. R. 12.

27. Where a plaint has been erroneously brought under s. 30 Act VIII of 1869 (P. C.) and plaint applies to have his plaint amended, the suit should not be dismissed, but some order should be passed on the application.—19 W. R. 51.

28. Where the principal defendant, after the evidence of both parties had been taken, applied for an amended written answer raising a new question, Hold that the Lower Court ought, under s. 141 Act VIII, if it thought the question was the real one between the parties, to have amended the issues in order to determine the matter. —20 W. R. 206.

29. Although a plaint need not be tied down to the exact form of his plaint, yet, when he seeks to introduce any change, he must show that the view of the matter which he now puts forward had been in the contemplation of the parties, so that they had an opportunity of bringing forward evidence on the point, and that the evidence on the record was directed to the substantial case set up.—22 W. R. 346.

30. Where a plaint was amended upon a new allegation by the plaint.—Hold that defendant ought to have been allowed an opportunity to make his defence upon the new allegation, and upon that defence new issues ought to have been recorded if necessary, and further evidence taken.—28 W. R. 172.

31. Where an accused was charged and convicted under s. 44 instead of s. 45 Act XV of 1866, and it appeared that he had not been convicted as to the charge against him and consequently in no way prejudiced, the conviction was allowed, to be altered so as to bring it under s. 48—24 W. R. Cr. 3.

Practice (Appeal).

1. A Lower Appellate Court cannot decide on a point not pleaded.—W. R. P. R. 13 (1 Hay 95, Marshall 40).

2. On appeal by plaintiff whose deed of sale had been rejected by the first Court, the Lower Appellate Court not only confirmed the judgment of the Lower Court as to that deed of sale, but also declared defendant's deed of sale to be spurious. Hold, in special appeal, that the Lower Appellate Court should have confined its decision to the validity or otherwise of plaintiff's deed of sale only.—1 Hay 110.

3. A Lower Appellate Court is bound, under s. 347 Act VIII of 1859, to decide upon the application for rehearing, whether or not the appellant be prevented from appearing when the appeal is called on.—2 Hay 495.

4. Where there was reason to suppose that the plaintiff's claim which had been dismissed by the first Court and reversed by the Lower Appellate Court, would be found to be barred by limitation, the High Court in special appeal remanded the case to the Lower Appellate Court with a direction to raise and try the issue.—Marshall 647.

5. If a Judge thinks that a co-defendant (a co-sharer with plaintiff in the disputed property) needs to be made a co-respondent in the appeal, he should, under s. 73 Act VIII of 1859, cause him to be made such instead of dismissing the appeal.—W. R. Sp. 136.

6. One of several defendants who appeals in respect only to the sum decreed against him, is not entitled to take advantage of s. 357 Act VIII of 1859 and question the full amount claimed.—W. R. Sp. 389 (L. R. 153).

8. Where the parties in two or more suits are the same, and the decision in one case governs all the cases, the filing of copies of the judgment and decree passed in the principal case is a sufficient compliance with the law.—W. R. Sp., Mis. 9, 28. See 9 W. R. 276.

9. A pro forma defendant cannot be allowed in appeal to raise objections which he neglected to raise in the suit.—W. R. Sp., Mis. 31.

10. A Lower Appellate Court cannot, under s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861, reverse an order of the Lower Court and allow a person, representing himself to be the purchaser of a decree from the decree-holder, to execute the decree.—W. R. Sp., Mis. 85. See also 5 W. R. 216.

11. An appellant, whose time for appealing expires during a vacation, may put in his appeal on the first day the
DIGEST OF INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

12. An objection which, if taken, might have been cured, and which has not been taken in the Court below, cannot be taken in the Court of Appeal.—(P. C.) 6 W. R., P. C. 43 (P. C. B. 147).

13. In an appeal from part of a decree, the whole decree is not open to the respondents. Under the peculiar circumstances of this case, leave was given to present a cross-appeal, and the appellant not objecting, the appeal was heard from the whole decree.—(P. C.) 2 W. R., P. C. 4 (P. C. B. 260). See also 24 W. R. 389.

14. The decision of a Court of original jurisdiction upon a question of fact ought not to be reversed by a Court of Appeal unless the latter is satisfied beyond all reasonable doubt that the decision is wrong.—Hyde 128.

45. A Court of Appeal cannot refer to the evidence in another case or act upon the impression made by it on the Court below.—Hyde 223.

15. The Privy Council not to disturb a judgment of a Court in India upon a question of fact unless it is clear from the probabilities of the case that the judgment is wrong, however necessary as regards a Court of Appeal far removed from India, it is equally necessary not to annul a judgment, with the same strictness, to a Court of Appeal in India.—Hyde 78.

17. A remand is allowable only under the circumstances contemplated in s. 351 Act VIII. When the Judge requires facts, he should call for it under s. 354. 1 W. R. 6. 288. See also 15 W. R. 316.

If the Judge is of the opinion that the plaintiff is endeavouring to obtain something other than what he claims in the plaint, he should dismiss the suit; but if he thinks that the plaint can be reconciled with the argument on appeal and the case is supported by the evidence, he is bound to determine the appeal and not make an order under s. 351. 1 W. R. 121.

18. Lower Appellate Court bound to determine the issue of limitation where first Court had tried it.—W. R. 59, 25 W. R. 13.

19. An Appellate Court cannot render a case for re-trial without instructions to frame new issues. It may refer any issues for trial by the Lower Court, whose finding and evidence are to be returned to the Appellate Court for a final decision.—W. R. 69.

20. Where a decree gives title to land to defendant and right of way to plaintiff, and plaintiff alone appeals, Appellate Court must not raise an issue as to right of way without cross-appeal from defendant.—W. R. 77.

An appeal is not entitled to an adjudication on a point included in his grounds of appeal.—W. R. 93. See also 12 W. R. 525.

22. When a suit has been heard and determined by a Court of first instance, the Appellate Court should not adjudge the case merely upon the allegations contained in the plaint.—W. R. 198.

23. A decretal against several defendants cannot, upon the appeal being allowed, be revised, under s. 337 Act VIII, as against all where it did not proceed on a good cause to all.—W. R. 233. See also 1 W. R. 229; 2 W. R. 170, 227, 267; 2 W. R. Act X 31; 9 W. R. 472, 498, 538; 10 W. R. 239; 11 W. R. 239, 149; 12 W. R. 130, 119; 16 W. R. 246; 17 W. R. 353; 18 W. R. 26, 39, 331; 20 W. R. 149; 21 W. R. 112; 23 W. R. 166; 25 W. R. 29.

24. The hearing of an appeal having been fixed for the 14th December, 1915, the question of whether or not the plaintiff, who was present on the 12th (when the pleadings were complete) is no such defect in procedure as to render interference in special appeal necessary.—W. R. 246.

25. A Judge on appeal may take up the question of jurisdiction even at a late stage, after having himself remanded the suit for local investigation.—W. R. 259.

26. An Appellate Court should state reasons for dissatisfaction with the Lower Court’s finding as to the genuineness of a deed.—W. R. 389.

27. The Lower Court, in taking evidence ordered under s. 355 Act VII, acts in a ministerial capacity. An objection may be raised to documents on appeal, though not made before.—W. R. 80.

28. An Appellate Court has no power to interfere with an order of a Court of first instance enlarging the time for filing documents.—W. R. 287.

29. An appeal to the Judge for a decision of a Deputy Collector in a suit under Act X of 1859, must, according to s. 16 Act VII, be presented by the appellant in person by a pleader, and not by a mookhatar.—2 W. R. (Act X) 67.

30. The time during which an application for a review of judgment is pending is not to be taken into account within the 90 days allowed for appeals.—W. R. 38, 35. See also 3 W. R. 242, 15 W. R. 86, 22 W. R. 78.

31. Where plaintiff has been offered by an Appellate Court a remand to enable him to produce fresh evidence and he has elected to go to trial on the record as it stood, he cannot, after failing to prove his case, be permitted what he once refused.—W. R. 5.

32. When the Judge reverses a Collector’s decision in appeal as passed without jurisdiction, he should proceed to decide on the merits the appeal as from the decision of the Deputy Collector.—3 W. R. (Act X) 14 (1 R. J. P. J. 389).

33. When a long holiday intervenes, a new date should be fixed for the hearing of a cause which was not heard, but not called on before the holiday.—W. R. (Act X) 164.

34. A respondent must be held to the grounds on which he rested his case when the appeal was before the Court prior to the case being remanded to enable him to prove a particular allegation.—3 W. R. Mis. 5.

35. A special appeal is not converted into a regular appeal, because the Judge, sitting as a Court of Appeal, recorded further evidence and pronounced a judgment on the evidence recorded, which had not been considered by the first Court as described in s. 355. 1 W. R. 43.

36. One of two defendants may, under s. 337 Act VIII, appeal as respects the whole, and not half, of the property in dispute, in the absence of proof that they owned the property in two equal shares.—W. R. 68.

37. A Court hearing an appeal from an order made by a Principal Sudder Ameer cannot reject a plaint, because the suit was within the Moonsiff’s jurisdiction, may at the same time direct the Principal Sudder Ameer to try the suit as a Moonsiff.—W. R. 83.

38. A plea not taken before the Lower Appellate Court was allowed to plaintiff (appellant) on special appeal, where some of the defendants were released by the first Court from all liability without any trial on the merits as between them and the plaintiff.—W. R. (Act X) 5.

39. Under s. 161 Act X read together with s. 333 Act VIII, it is in the discretion of a Judge to allow an appellant a deduction for the time during which the appeal was before a Court without jurisdiction.—W. R. (Act X) 41.

40. According to s. 152 Act X, the appeal from an order of a Deputy Collector must be presented within 15 days; the Collector has no power to extend the time for appeal provided for by s. 333 Act VIII, in this respect is entitled to an appeal.—W. R. 77.

41. An appellant is in time if his appeal is lodged within 6 months of the order rejecting his application for review of judgment.—W. R. 86. See also 1 W. R. Mis. 12.

42. For the restoration of possession with mesne profits of lands over in execution of a decree subsequently reversed on appeal, a specific order is not necessary to be inserted in the decree of the Appellate Court.—W. R. 90.

43. An Appellate Court has no power to interfere with the discretion vested in the Lower Court under s. 377 Act VIII, of admitting a review of judgment after 90 days.—W. R. 90.

44. Plaintiff’s suit against three sets of defendants interested in three different plots of land A, B, and C, was decreed by the first Court as regards A. On appeal regarding A, the Judge not only reversed the Lower Court’s decision as regards A, but gave plaintiff a decree as regards B and C. On special appeal regarding A, plaintiff did not succeed; but the defendants interested in B having been served with a notice to appear, were treated as respondents, and upon these objections, under s. 348 Act VIII, the Judge’s decision was reversed not only as regards B, but also as regards C, although the defendants interested in C did not appear.—W. R. 104.

45. Where, on the appeal of one of several judgment debtors, the bond on which plaintiff sued is found to be false, the other parties to the deed are also released though they did not appeal.—W. R. 104.

46. Where a suit was wrongfully brought in the Civil Court, the Judge on appeal should have refused to jurisdiction.
Practice (Appeal) (continued).

A verification for the re-admission of an appeal is not evidence, but must be accompanied by evidence in support of the allegations on which it is founded.

If in a suit against two parties a decree is given against one alone, the other cannot be made liable either on the appeal of the first party or on plaintiff's cross-appeal.

Where Lower Court decided the issue of limitation against, but the other issues in favor of defendants, and the Appellate Court remanded the case for further investigation without passing any judgment on the issue of limitation, the Appellate Court had jurisdiction, when the case again came before it, to try the question of limitation.

So much of s. 354 Act VIII as relates to the trial of additional issues is only applicable to regular and not special appeals.

A pro forma defendant who appears, cannot, by making the real defendants respondents, open up the part of the case which has not been appealed against.

A Judge ought not to make a case for a plaintiff which he does not make for himself.

An Appellate Court cannot, after admitting and registering an appeal, reject it at the hearing, because it was not presented within the prescribed time.

No court other than the Appellate Court should not affirm a decree on any part of a claim, when it reninds the substantial part.

Where a decree in a action of tort has been appealed from, the purchaser of a share of the property of defendant (appellant) who died after the purchase, is not entitled to carry on the appeal in the place of the deceased under ss. 102 and 103 Act VIII extended by s. 37 Act XXXIII of 1869.

Where the finding on an issue referred to the Lower Court under s. 354 Act VIII is returned with the evidence, and no memorandum of objection is filed within the time fixed, objection cannot be allowed to be taken when the appeal comes on for final determination.

The words "cases in appeal" in s. 37 Act XXXIII of 1869 apply solely to cases where the actual subject of appeal is the decree which has been made, and therefore s. 37 cannot make s. 7 applicable to cases in which the Judge has dismissed the appeal for default under ss. 5 and 6; if an application is made to the Judge for the rehearing of the case on the ground of an application for review of judgment, it must be treated as an application for review of judgment, and the decision upon it is final.

A new statement of the law by the High Court is no ground for refusing to allow an appeal in appealing against a judgment.

Held in appeal that plaintiff's case could not be supplemented by examining parties or books not produced in the Court below.

Where, in an appeal against part of a decree, the party in whose favor the decree is made, is made sole respondent, the Appellate Court has only to determine whether, as between appellant and respondent, the order of the first Court is correct.

In a suit for enhancement of rent remanded to the Lower Appellate Court with the instruction that sufficient evidence had been adduced to raise the presumption of uniform payment of rent, the Judge may direct the first Court to hear further evidence upon the point.

Under ss. 11 and 38 Act XXIII of 1861 the ordinary rule of procedure applicable to civil suits before final judgment will apply to an appeal arising out of an order made in execution.

An appellant is entitled to the whole time allowed by Act XXXII of 1861, to the Appellate Court in transmitting notice of an appeal to the Lower Court, before the latter Court can make a return.

One defendant cannot appeal as against his co- defendant; but if he is allowed to, the decision is decided against him, it does not lie in him to ask that the decision may be set aside on the ground that the Court had no jurisdiction.

Where an appeal is not able to serve notice of appeal on plaintiff (respondent) from inability to trace his residence, the case may be dealt with in analogy to the procedure relating to summons under s. 57 Act VIII.

Procedure in appeals to the High Court under s. 81 Act XX of 1866.

A fair and reasonable objection may be allowed at the hearing though not taken in the written grounds of appeal.

Where no new matter was brought forward by a respondent, and the High Court came to a conclusion after research into the record, the Court did not deem it necessary to hear the appellant in reply.

A decree under s. 116 Act VIII is not an ex-parte decree even against absent defendant, and may under s. 337 be modified in appeal even in favor of defendants before the Appellate Court.

s. 337 applies to ex-parte decrees as well as to other decrees, the only question being whether the decision of the Lower Court proceeded on a ground common to all the defendants.

Where plaintiff appealed from a decision dismissing his suit, and although the defendant's death was notified to the Court, and the plaintiff did not attempt, under s. 37 Act VIII, to bring in the heirs of the deceased or have the deceased in any way represented, the Court tried the appeal and passed a decree against the deceased's estate.

That the decision of the lower Appellate Court was unaffected in law.

A Judge on appeal should not entertain a point wholly different from the case made in the Court below.

Not can but entertain a point which was abandoned in the first Court.

A Judge on appeal, in decreasing a suit (between two rival decree-holders) for satisfaction of plaintiff's claim from the sale proceeds of a house, did not supply the appeal with the necessary facts and adjudge the value of the house, and not refer that duty to the Execution Department.

A plaintiff obtaining a decree which is appealed against, is not bound to bring a cross appeal because the First Court did not accept the evidence; but the Appellate Court must examine and weigh the whole of the evidence adduced by the parties.

A Judge is bound to go into all matters raised before him in appeal, even if the Court which heard the case made a false statement, or if he sought to palm off a spurious document upon the Appellate Court.

A case should not be thrown out by the Lower Appellate Court on a technical objection, such as that the plaintiff had not been filed by a recognized agent within the meaning of s. 17 Act VII; when the merits of the case are not affected.

Where a suit under Act X was decreed by the Collector on the ground of an ex-parte enquiry made by the plaintiff's mohurrir, and plaintif in appeal chose to rely on the Collector's opinion that the maharari's report was evidence, he was not allowed to supplement his case by further evidence after the Judge had decided the point against him.—15 W. R. 290.

88. How a party may satisfy the High Court that grounds of appeal omitted to have been noticed by the Judge were actually before him.—15 W. R. 296.

89. When both parties and subject-matter are different, a Judge should, not without the consent of the parties, allow his judgment in one case to govern his decision in another case.—15 W. R. 342.

90. When parties have had an opportunity to put in such evidence as they consider sufficient to entitle them to a judgment upon the material issues of the case, the evidence ought to be held sufficient under s. 353 Act VIII to enable the Appellate Court to pronounce a satisfactory judgment.—16 W. R. 211.

91. A finding of a Court of first instance not appealed against cannot be interfered with in appeal.—16 W. R. 300.

92. An Appellate Court may, under s. 352 Act VIII, admit additional evidence.—17 W. R. 47. See also 21 W. R. 325.

93. And take the evidence of witnesses omitted to be summoned by the Lower Court.—22 W. R. 208 (reversed in appeal) 23 W. R. 51.

94. In a suit to recover accounts and papers, the Appellate Court, instead of leaving it to be ascertained in execution what accounts and papers are in the hands of the defendant, gave the case for the trial of that issue, and whether they have been wrongfully refused.—17 W. R. 409.

95. Where, in the last stage of appeal, a case is made which is purely consistent with the false case originally set up and which was never made the real issue between the parties in any previous stage of the litigation, it cannot be relied on in any degree so far as it affects the case made by the plaintiff.—11 P. C. 18 W. R. 525.

96. Where a Subordinate Judge in appeal, having remanded a case for trial upon a fresh issue under s. 351 Act VIII, directed the Moonsiff to give plaintiff a decree in accordance with the finding, and the Moonsiff decided the case accordingly,—Hold that the Additional Judge, in appeal from the Moonsiff's decision, had no power to go behind the order of the Subordinate Judge on the previous occasion.—19 W. R. 251.

97. Where an appellant failed for 12 months to serve notice of appeal upon his respondent, the Court refused to allow him the opportunity to have a fresh summons issued and served.—20 W. R. 62.

98. Where the party serving the notice of appeal finds the respondent absent from home and is told where he is and yet affixes the notice to the door of his house, such service is void and of no effect.—17 W. R. 629.

99. A judgment passed in review is the final judgment as regards the parties to that review; and the right of appeal from the decreal order runs from the date of the final order on review, even if the Appellate Court should put aside the review order.—20 W. R. 104.

100. Where two parties to a suit appeal, so that the upper appeal is but the cross-appeal of the other, there ought to be only one final decree made between the two parties.—20 W. R. 284.

101. A District Judge has no authority, when hearing an appeal from a Moonsiff's decision, to vary or ignore the directions made by an Appellate Court of coordinate jurisdiction such as that of the Subordinate Judge, but should be guided by the practice which obtains in the High Court where, when one Division Bench sees fit to give certain directions, any other Bench before which the case may afterwards come on has to keep itself within those directions.—21 W. R. 199.

102. A plea may be taken in special appeal, though not set out in the plaint, if the plaint did set out all the facts necessary to support the plea, and there was no omission calculated to mislead the Court.—22 W. R. 73.

103. An agreement founded upon a case which is not set forth in the pleadings and is inconsistent with the case thereby made, cannot be allowed to be raised for the first time in the appellate stage of the case.—22 W. R. 218.

104. Where a plea of limitation has been overruled, and the first Court has adjudicated upon the plaintiff's title, the Lower Appellate Court is bound to adjudicate upon the title also.—22 W. R. 292.

105. Where an Appellate Court remanded a case under s. 356 Act VIII for evidence to be taken on one of the points raised, and at the same time recorded the impression which its mind had received on the other parts of the case, the opinion so recorded was held not to be a judgment on appeal.—23 W. R. 77.

106. Where no objection is taken before the first Court to an account which is there stated to have been prepared as agreed to by both parties, it cannot be taken in the Appellate Court.—23 W. R. 215.

107. An Appellate Court exceeds its authority in giving plaintiff a relief for which he does not ask, s. 351 Act VIII notwithstanding.—24 W. R. 179.

108. Where the plaintiff in a suit has been decreed to be the heir of a deceased person to the exclusion of one of the defendants who does not appeal, the rights of the latter cannot be asserted in appeal by the other defendants for the purpose of defeating the plaintiff's suit.—24 W. R. 365.

109. On a question of simple credit to be given to a witness, an Appellate Court having before it mere written depositions, is not authorized to set aside the opinion of the first Court which heard the witness and recorded that his demeanour was not satisfactory.—25 W. R. 26.

110. The Lower Appellate Court, on appeal, can set aside the whole decree, although the appeal is only on behalf of the intervenor.—25 W. R. 29.

111. Where a suit which had been decreed in the first Court, was dismissed in appeal after the death of the plaintiff, and the representatives of the latter had not aided in keeping the appellant ignorant of his death, the High Court met the difficulty, as to executing a decree against a dead man, by directing the Lower Appellate Court to try the appeal de novo, making the dead man's representatives respondents.—25 W. R. 108.

112. A suit for enhancement of rent was defended on two grounds, the first of which was overruled but the second succeeded and the suit was dismissed. Plaintiff appealed, and the second ground having been overruled in appeal, the respondent (defendant) again put forward the objection which had been overruled by the first Court. Held that, under the circumstances, it was not too late for him to take that objection.—25 W. R. 110.

Practice (Attachment).

1. The attachment of a decreed debt may be made under s. 236 Act VIII of 1850, there being no distinction under that section between private debts and decreed debts—S. C. C. 81.

2. Where any money is in deposit in Court, the attachment should be made under s. 237, and all questions of title or property referred to be determined by the Court in which the money is in deposit.—S. C. C. 84. See also 16 W. R. 11, 207; 20 W. R. 72, 73.

3. S. 18 Reg. VIII of 1819 provides for the deposition of a secauzal only after a balance of rent has remained undisputed for a whole month; otherwise the attachment is illegal, and the landlord is bound to give a true and full account of all collections so illegally made by his agent, allowance being only made for such disbursements as are shown to be necessary and bona fide. 2 Hyde 317.

3a. In an application under s. 81 Act VIII, the Court must be satisfied that a removal of goods is being made, or about to be made, with a view to execute a decree in a specific suit, though it is not necessary that the suit should be actually commenced at the time of its removal. 2 Hyde 183.

3b. An attachment once legally made is revived upon the reversal of the sale in execution.—W. R. Sp. 26. See 10 W. R. 390, 12 W. R. 142, also 21 W. R. 65 and 65 post.

4. S. 88 Act VIII of 1850 is not applicable to an attachment made previously to that Act coming into operation.—W. R. Sp. 224.

4a. The attachment of a property is adverse possession causing limitation to run against the party in possession of the property.—W. R. Sp. 305 (1 W. R. 85).

5. Under ss. 86 and 87 Act X of 1850 a decree may be attached as part of a judgment-debtor's effects; it does not fall under the head of immovable property.—W. R. Sp. 69.

5a. A qualified decree directing realization by attachment only, and not by sale, is not authorized by law.—W. R. Sp. 69.

6. Each of several decrees held by attaching creditors must be satisfied according to priority of attachment.—1 W. R. Mis., 16; 15 W. R. 158; 26 W. R. 737.

7. When property is attached by two different decree-holders and sold at the instance of one of the one who made the second attachment, the claim of him who made the prior attachment must be first satisfied from the sale proceeds, but he cannot again sell the rights and interests of his debtor in the property.—2 W. R. 296. See also 17 W. R. 80.

He may, however, proceed against other property belonging to the judgment-debtor.—18 W. R. 174.

8. Procedure where attachment is sought of property situate out of the jurisdiction of the Court by which the decree was passed.—2 W. R., Mis., 55.

9a. A decree-holder cannot be allowed to attach his judgment-debtor's right to appeal or right to future maintenance.—3 W. R., Mis., 16. See also 6 W. R., Mis., 64; 7 W. R. 311; 8 W. R. 41; 23 W. R. 427.

9b. A right of action is not liable to attachment under s. 205 Act VIII.—3 W. R., Mis., 18.

9c. Compensation under s. 88 Act VIII can only be awarded, on the application of the defendant, by the Court which disposes of the case, and cannot be given by another Court in whose custody certain property belonging to the defendant has been found and attached at the instance of the plaintiff; and no appeal lies from such an order.—3 W. R., Mis., 28. See also 8 W. R. 339.

10. An attachment cannotsubsist when the suit has been struck off for neglect to pay in talabana for the service of the necessary sale processes.—5 W. R., Mis., 4. See 18 W. R. 517, also 21 W. R. 65 post.

11. A Court ought not to order property belonging to a judgment-debtor to be attached and placed under management in respect of a decree-holder who never applied to the Court to have his claim included among those for the repayment of which the judgment-debtor's property was attached.—5 W. R., Mis., 21.

12. Priority of attachment must be established by clear proof.—6 W. R. 21.

13. Distinction between ss. 81 et seq (relating to attachment before judgment) and s. 92 which applies to injunctions and to the appointment of a receiver or manager.—6 W. R., Mis., 24.

14. An attachment of immovable property is not voidable merely because all the forms prescribed in s. 299 Act VIII have been not followed, when the irregularities complained of are immaterial and not productive of any substantial injury to the person complaining.—6 W. R., Mis., 22.

15. Government promissory notes in the custody of a Collector are sufficiently “in custodia legis,” and need not be brought into Court under s. 238 Act VIII. 8 W. R. 315.

16a. A Deputy Magistrate has nothing to do with the legality or formality of an attachment by the Civil Court.—8 W. R., Cr. 17.

17. Priority of attachment does not give a decree-holder a right to set aside a sale made by another decree-holder on a subsequent attachment, but merely to be paid out of the proceeds of sale as provided by s. 270 Act VIII.—9 W. R. 243. See also 17 W. R. 89.

17a. The attachment of an estate under Reg. II of 1806 includes its mesne profits.—9 W. R. 450, 12 W. R. 391.

18. The Court of a Deputy Collector was held to be a Court of justice competent, under s. 237 Act VIII, to determine the question of priority.—10 W. R. 43.

19. Money payable to servants as wages of coolies is not attachable under s. 236 Act VIII in execution of a decree against the said.—10 W. R. 140.

20. To render an attachment of immovable property efficacious so as to render a subsequent alienation void (with reference to ss. 235, 239, and 240 Act VIII), the several processes prescribed in s. 239 must be gone through.—10 W. R. 264, 13 W. R. 196.

21. Attachments made before judgment, though perfected by judgment and not requiring fresh process of attachment to be taken out, do not prevent possession of the attached property from being taken by the Official Assignee, should it not have been sold before that officer is appointed in the charge of the property.—10 W. R. 535. See 14 W. R. F. R. 83.
DIGEST OF INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

21a. Where property is under attachment, the mere fact of the execution case being struck off the file does not put an end to the attachment.—10 W. R. 169; 12 R. 142, 290; 17 W. R. 15, 254. See 38 and 10 cases 65 post.

22. Debts actually due, such as salaries from a Railway Company to any of its servants, can be attached under s. 236 Act VIII. In the case of a Railway Company, the registered letter to be sent under s. 230 should be addressed, directed, and sent to the Agent of the Railway Company at the head office of the Company. It is not necessary that the registered letter should be sent or delivered by the High Court, notwithstanding the head office is within the jurisdiction of the High Court and out of the jurisdiction of the Court executing the decree.—10 W. R. 447.

23. The order of the judgment-debtors (in the above case) upon the Paymaster to pay out of their salaries does not alter the case, as the Court executes its decree as directed by law, and not according to the consent of the judgment-debtors.—11 W. R. 69.

23a. A remission or annuity, granted by deed as maintenance, payable from grantor's estate and recoverable therefrom if not paid, is liable to attachment under s. 263 Act VIII.—11 W. R. 198, 17 W. R. 251.

24. Sale of property. If attached, and sale of a judgment-debtor's right to an allowance by way of maintenance allowed by a decree of Court cannot be ordered, yet in view of an instalment becoming due, the Court may direct an order for non-payment.—15 W. R. 188, 21 W. R. 5.

25. A creditor attaching an estate paying revenue to Government must give the special information indicated in the clause of s. 213 Act VIII, as well as that required by the first clause.—11 W. R. 175.

26. An attachment once made will subsist, if not expressly abandoned by the party at whose suit it was issued, until every step to vest in the party, so far as the execution can be completed, is taken, even if no further steps are taken on the attachment within a reasonable period.—11 W. R. 517. See also 15 W. R. 222.

27. Where a judgment-creditor applying for a second attachment of his own accord, the first must be deemed to be abandoned; but where the second attachment is taken out only because the Court requires him to begin de novo, the first attachment remains in force.—1b.

28. Question. Whether a person making an attachment under Reg. 11 of 1806 is entitled to have his claim satisfied before the other decree-holders.—12 W. R. 48.

29. Liability of a decree-holder for the wrongful attachment of the goods of a stranger in the execution of a decree.—12 W. R. 299.

30. Reg. 11 of 1806 does not give a judgment-creditor, holding an attachment made prior to judgment, any priority over another who comes in and attaches the same property.—12 W. R. 301.

31. If a debt to secure which an attachment was made is subsequently satisfied, the subsequent alienation is not void under s. 210 Act VIII merely because the attachment has not been formally withdrawn.—12 W. R. 347.

32. The right of attachment after judgment exists for the purpose of realizing sums actually due under a decree, not of securing property for the realization of money that may not be forthcoming.—1b.

33. The intendment of s. 213 Act VIII is not that the notice of attachment should issue according to the register of a particular district, but that it should contain a description sufficient to identify the property in question.—12 W. R. 458, 18 W. R. 411.

34. A judgment-creditor, who has caused the property of his debtor to be attached prior to decree under s. 81 Act VIII, is bound under the decree to attach the property anew before he can proceed against it in execution. The attachments mentioned in s. 270 refer to attachments after decree, not only, and not to attachments before judgment.—P. (C.) 139, R. 6, B. 3.

35. A refusal by a judgment-debtor made pending execution proceedings in the case of a decree for possession and money profits before final assessment of the mesne profits.—21 W. R. 65, 17 R. 257 Act VIII gives no authority to a Civil Court to devise or create a mortgage or charge in default of the Collector, nor does s. 242 to dispose of claims to money under attachment.—13 W. R. 301.

36. In execution of a process of attachment of movable property issued by a Civil Court, a Nain can remove any lock upon a door or from any receptacle in which the property is placed, and put his own lock thereon in order that he may keep the property in proper custody.—18 W. R. 339.

37. An estate does not cease to be under attachment merely by the appointment of a manager under s. 213 Act VIII.—13 W. R. 423.

38. A vesting order of the Insolvent Court does not prevail over a previous attachment made after decree, so as to give a purchaser from the Official Assignee priority over the attaching creditor or the power of interfering with rights acquired under the attachment.—(P. R.) 11 W. R. 30, 13 W. R. 257, 17 W. R. 231.

39. An alienation which is null and void under s. 240 Act VIII, because made whilst an attachment was subsisting, cannot be validated by the removal of the attachment.—11 W. R. 25.

40. Where an attachment of money in the hands of a Deputy Collector was made by a Civil Court without any such direction as is enjoined by s. 237 Act VIII, that the money should be held subject to the Court's order, the attachment was held to cease to be binding when once the suit was dismissed.—14 W. R. 101.

41. A decree is property within the description of "other property" in s. 265 Act VIII and is therefore liable to attachment and sale in execution. The mode of attaching the decree and the money due under it would be that laid down in s. 237.—15 W. R. 34.

42. A party attaching landed property in execution of a decree, is bound by a lease obtained for it prior to his attachment.—15 W. R. 75.

43. The mere fact of attachment of a property does not destroy a judgment-debtor's right in that property.—15 W. R. 158.

44. An application, by way of motion, to discharge or get rid of an attachment, is not the proper form in which those acts done by a Receiver for a judgment-debtor can be performed.—17 W. R. 299.

45. An order may be passed under s. 243 Act VIII even in a case where a decree has been passed on a specially registered bond.—15 W. R. 477.

46. A Small Cause Court cannot, after attachment of a necessitous judgment-debtor's salary, allow him out of the money held in attachment a small sum for subsistence; nor can the High Court interfere in such a matter.—15 W. R. 334.

47. A Court cannot refuse to order attachment on the application of a decree-holder; and till such attachment is made, the Court cannot proceed, under s. 243 Act VIII, to appoint a manager.—16 W. R. 274, 17 W. R. 106.

48. Where plaintiff claimed priority of attachment under s. 270 Act VIII.—Held that he was bound to prove that he had obtained a written order under s. 235 and that he had published that order in the manner prescribed by s. 239, 17 W. R. 25.

49. There is nothing in Act VIII which exempts from attachment property to be found in the zenana of a judgment-debtor.—17 W. R. 86.

50. Under Act VIII, property may be attached without view to immediate sale. The process of attachment and the order for sale may be distinct and separate, and there may be complete execution of a decree under an attachment without an order for sale.—P. (C.) 18 W. R. 292.

51. Where lands are situate in other zillahs, Act VIII contemplates the issue of separate orders subsequent to the attachment for the sale or disposition of them, and allows the transmission of a decree with certificate to several Courts concurrently for execution. At the same time it would in any case be a right exercise of the discretion of any Court not to act on the power and to bind the decree-holder not to proceed to sale under all the attachments at once.—(P. C.) 16.

52. To invalidate an attachment on the ground that no copy of the decree was sent (assuming that it could be so invalidating), it would be necessary to prove non-transmission of the maxim non asservatur rite et quae acta must prevail until the contrary is shown.—(P. C.) 16.

53. Where one decree-holder attached the house and another both land and house to a Civil Court, each one having taken out attachment first was entitled to be satisfied first, the latter was declared to share pro rata in the sale proceeds.—17 W. R. 471.

54. The salary of a Government officer (in this case a element in his cause of action and had sought to have the property protected, then the right jurisdiction in which such a suit should be brought was the — within which the property lay; but that no, instead of doing so, he had sought to set aside the bond and decree as collusive and fraudulent, and as he had failed to show that he was directly affected under the bond and decree each of which was between other parties, he had no cause of action.— 21 W. R. 266.

56. The rules in s. 270 Act VIII as to prior attachment is a mere rule of procedure by which the Courts are to be guided in determining questions between rival decreed-bidders, but was never intended to alter or limit the rights which a party may have by contract independently of the rules embodied in the Code of Civil Procedure.— 22 W. R. 96.

57. Where a judgment of the Privy Council ordered execution for mesne profits to be taken out first against one defendant and only on failure to obtain satisfaction against the others.— Held that before the assets of the former had been exhausted, attachment could not be against the property of the latter, even by way of a preliminary and protective step. The proper mode of making enquiry in such cases explained.— 22 W. R. 104.

58. Where a Judge has made an order in the terms of s. 26 Reg. V of 1825 as modified by Reg. V of 1827, he is functus officio and it then lies upon the Collector, as manager and holder, to take at his own proper risk and upon his own responsibility everything that he finds to be part of the joint estate.— 22 W. R. 272.

59. The possession of the Collector under an attachment made under the above Regulations is on account of all the parties interested in the estate; and in a suit in respect of it brought by one of them against the others, the cause of action arises after the withdrawal of the attachment.— 22 W. R. 265.

60. Where a Judge was of opinion that an application for the appointment of a manager under s. 245 Act VIII was made only to put off payment of the debt.— Held that he was not wrong in exercising his discretion and refusing to appoint a manager.— 23 W. R. 287.

61. Where an attaching creditor, dissatisfied with the share allotted to him in a distribution of sale proceeds under s. 270 Act VIII, brings a suit against the other attaching creditors, and claims to have made the first attachment, he is bound to include as defendants all who have shared in the distribution.— 23 W. R. 431.

1. Suit to be dismissed if plaintiff fails to appear before Commissioner appointed under s. 180. No appeal lies from such judgment by default, but application should be made for an order to set aside the judgment, and, if refused, an appeal will lie from order of refusal. — W. R. P. 3 (1890) 119.

2. Instead of having accepted an unserved report of a Magistrate as evidence resulting from a local investigation, the proper course is to pursue the way of a writ to send for and examine the witness resident more than 100 miles distant from Calcutta. — 1 Hyde 68.

3. A Commission for the examination of witnesses will be issued, even though the cause is entered upon the paper charge before the day, if the father of such Commission is not calculated to prejudice the defendants or to subject them to loss or inconvenience. — 4 Hyde 209.

4. The Court will not issue a Commission for the examination of an infant of tender years. — 2 Hyde 152.

5. One Principal Saddler Ameer’s order for a local investigation should be carried out before retrial of the case by his successor. — 1 W. R. 102.

6. The direction of a local investigation is a mere matter of discretion in which no special appeal will lie of right. — 1 W. R. 114, 196, 249 (3 R. J. P. J. 322); 5 W. R. 218 : 10 W. R. 43 ; 12 W. R. 76.

7. The head of a Commission for the examination of an absent witness, without notice to the opposite party, if not illegal, is objectionable. — 3 W. R. 117.

So also as to a local investigation under s. 180 Act VIII. — (F. B.) 3 W. R. (Act X) 153.

8. Where a Judge reverses the decree of the Principal Saddler Ameer, and remits the ease for fresh local investigation by the Moonис, and subsequently authorises the Moonис to appoint a suitable officer on whose report the Principal Saddler Ameer acts, the plaintiff cannot, on appeal to the High Court, object to such report as unauthorised, invalid or illegal. — 6 W. R. 61.

9. A local investigation under s. 180 Act VIII should only be ordered for the purpose of elucidating matters which cannot be gone into by the present proximate constituted officer according to s. 78 Act X. — 6 W. R. (Act X) 81.

10. Where a local enquiry is necessary, a Collector cannot be made the person to examine the witnesses resident. — 7 W. R. 27.

11. A Magistrate is not bound to execute a Commission of a Small Cause Court directing him to take the evidence of prisoners in jail, in the absence of circumstances warranting the issue of such Commission. — 7 W. R. 349.

12. S. 180 Act VIII makes it imperative on the Court to employ in the first instance the regular officer of the Court to hold a local enquiry; but not doing so is no ground of special appeal. — 8 W. R. 6.

13. Where an application to have the evidence of witnesses residing beyond British territories taken, falls owing to circumstances beyond control, application to have other witnesses examined within British territories should be granted. — 8 W. R. 448.

14. That the evidence was given in the absence of the other side, is not enough to make the deposition of a witness taken on Commission inadmissible. — 10 W. R. 286.

15. A Deputy-Collector is competent to depute an officer of the Court to take evidence on Commission if the place where the witness is examined is within his jurisdiction. — 11 W. R. 468.

16. No one armed or candidate for office, not being an officer of the Court, cannot be deputed for a local enquiry under s. 73 Act X, nor can his report be properly received as evidence. — 13 W. R. 281.

17. A party who has not joined in a Commission is entitled to cross-examine the witnesses who are examined under the Commission. — 11 W. R. O. J. 17.

18. Where a Commissioner took the evidence of witnesses when the last return day of the Commission had expired, the depositions of the witnesses were held not admissible in evidence in the case. — 12 W. R. 330.

19. Reading s. 73 Act X with ss. 172 and 180 Act VIII, rough notes taken down by the officer holding a local investigation of what was said by witnesses whose depositions were not recorded, are not legal evidence, and the investigation so held is invalid. — 14 W. R. 269.

20. An Appellate Court in India ought not to interfere with the result of a local enquiry except upon clearly defined and sufficient grounds, which must be expressed in its judgment. — (P. C.) 15 W. R. P. C. 20. See also 15 W. R. 423; 18 W. R. 472.

21. Where the deputation of a Moharrir to make a local investigation under s. 180 Act VIII was upheld and his report and the depositions taken by him were viewed as legal evidence. — 15 W. R. 291.

22. A Judge has no power to order a Sub-Judge, whose judgment is before him on appeal, to go and inspect the locality and make a report; and such report cannot be treated as evidence. If further evidence is necessary, the procedure to be followed is that laid down in ss. 351 and 355 Act VIII, and it is competent to the judge to order an Ameer or suitable person to make a local investigation under s. 180. — 17 W. R. 30.

23. An application for the issue of a Commission under s. 175 Act VIII should be supported by some reason other than the mere distance of place of residence of the witness. If the witness is a stranger, a Commission will be right and reasonable; but not if he is a servant of the person applying. — 20 W. R. 253.

24. The refusal of a Court to allow the deposition of a defendant taken by Commission to be taken in evidence, was held to be justified under s. 179 Act VIII. — 22 W. R. 391.

25. When an enquiry has been made by a Commissioner under Act VIII, the Court to which it is reported ought not, unless it annuls the proceedings of the first enquiry, to order another on the same matter. — 23 W. R. 39.

26. Where a Commissioner in behalf of defendant had been returned unexecuted, and the defendant’s petition to have it sent a second time was refused by both the Lower Courts on insufficient grounds, the High Court in special appeal remanded the case for the issue of the Commission. — 28 W. R. 457.

54. S. 420 Act XXV of 1861 was held to apply to a case where the Sessions Judge amended a charge after the case had been decided, instead of directing a new trial.—18 W. R., Cr., 8.

55. Where a Magistrate removed a case to his own file from that of the Deputy Magistrate, the latter had issued warrants upon the footing of the complaint, and immediately suspended the warrants and dismissed the complaint under s. 67 Act XXV of 1861.—Held that the Magistrate ought to have taken notice of the complaint at the stage at which he found it, and that he had committed a material error by not doing so.—19 W. R., Cr., 28.

56. It is not irregular in a warrant case for a Deputy Magistrate to take the examination of the complainant and certain witnesses on behalf of the prosecution in the absence of the accused. All that the accused has a right to expect after the charge has been framed is that the complainant and witnesses should be examined for purposes of examination.—21 W. R., Cr., 61.

57. A Magistrate, in the exercise of the discretion conferred on him by s. 192 Act X of 1872, ought to have good reason for allowing witnesses for the prosecution to be interposed in the midst of the case of the accused.—18.

58. The High Court, under ss. 64 and 69 Act X of 1872, directed the preliminary investigation in a case in which the accused was charged with criminal breach of trust, to be held in Calcutta, where the offence charged was partly if not wholly, committed.—22 W. R., Cr., 6.

59. A prisoner whose trial is supplemental to that of others, is entitled to as full and complete an investigation of all the facts of the occurrence upon which the charge depends as if no previous trial of other persons for participation in these occurrences had ever taken place.—22 W. R., Cr., 38.

60. An Advocate of the High Court may appear on behalf of the prosecution in the Court of Sessions and conduct the prosecution without being specially empowered in that behalf by the Magistrate of the district under s. 325 Act X of 1872.—23 W. R., Cr., 8.

61. If an accused has not his witnesses present, the Magistrate should, under s. 261 Act X of 1872, if he sees good reason for proceeding, first call upon him for his defence, and then postpone the case.—24 W. R., Cr., 58.

62. The Magistrate of the District should not himself try a case in which he instituted the prosecution as Collector.—24 W. R., Cr., 1.

63. The Magistrate of the District has authority to call up to his own Court any criminal case without limitation as to the stage of proceeding at which it may be called. If the Magistrate, having in the exercise of his authority withdrawn any case, finds that it is not within the jurisdiction of his magistracy, he would not merely be competent but bound to refuse to proceed further with the case.—21 W. R., Cr., 4.

64. A Court of Sessions is not at liberty under s. 249 Act X of 1872 to ground its judgment on the depositions taken by the Magistrate without taking the examinations of the witnesses before it.—24 W. R., Cr., 11.

65. S. 328 Act X of 1872, which allows a Magistrate to decide a case on the evidence partly recorded by his predecessor and partly by himself, only applies when the Magistrate, after hearing part of the evidence in a case, ceases to exercise jurisdiction and his successor takes the case without the Magistrate's record of it; and applies to the procedure in such a case, as also to the case of another who has and who exercises jurisdiction in such case; and as s. 322 only applies when the Magistrate is unable to complete the enquiry himself. When, however, a case under trial is removed under s. 47, the whole proceedings must commence de novo as provided by s. 46.—24 W. R., Cr., 55.

66. The omission of an Appellate Court to fix a reason-to withdraw any suit instituted in any court subordinate to such District Court, and to try such suit itself, or to refer it for trial, etc., does not justify an order by the District Court for the calling up of execution cases from the file of the Subordinate Court, and for the appointment of a manager.—1 Hay 450 (Marshall 153), 21 W. R. 196, 25 W. R. 1, 13 W. R. 222.

6. After a decree had been satisfied, and the case struck out at the request of the decree-holder, he discovered that, by resorting to a different mode of calculation, he might have recovered more under the decree. The Court refused to reopen the matter, or to allow execution for the difference.—1 Hay 687 (Marshall 211).

69. Where liability on a bond is denied by the son of the deceased obligor on the ground that the son has no record to any property left by his father, the question cannot be left to be determined at the time of execution of decree.—2 Hay 84.

6. The consent of the decree-holder is not necessary to the appointment of a manager by the Court under s. 248, Act VIII, but the manager cannot, under s. 270, realize any claims not based on judicial awards.—2 Hay 112 (Marshall 261). See 10 W. R. 6, 15.

7. Where a decree of one Court is transmitted to another for execution, the latter Court cannot entertain any objection to the decree or to the amount thereof or to the amount mentioned in the order for execution, but must execute the decree.—2 Hay 112 (Marshall 244). See 10 W. R. 95, 13 W. R. 330.

9. A decree-holder who, having a joint decree against several persons, deals with some of them as severely liable for certain respective shares, cannot execute the same decree as a joint one against the remaining judgment-debtors.—2 Hay 297.

10. A judgment-debtor is justified in withholding the money decreed when the decree itself is attached by a judgment-creditor of the decree-holder. The decree-holder, when a mere speculative purchaser, is not entitled to interest.—2 Hay 301.

11. Where one of several judgment-debtors purchases the decree against them, he cannot, in execution thereof, realize from any one of them more than his own particular quota of contribution.—2 Hay 430 (Marshall 339). See 10, 110 post.

12. Where an arrangement for the liquidation of the debts of a judgment-debtor is allowed by a Court under s. 214, Act VIII of 1869, the attaching-creditor is entitled to preference.—2 Hay 337 (Marshall 413).

13. The Court will not interfere to stay execution upon the application of a person, not a party to the suit, who claims immovable property liable to be taken under the decree. The remedy of such a person is under s. 250.—Marshall 478.

14. Execution may be stayed, pending an appeal to the Privy Council, upon the decree-holder's failure to give sufficient security, a like security being thereupon taken from the appellant.—2 Hay 674.

15. Between two rival decree-holders, he who has taken out attachment is entitled to priority.—2 Hay 675.

16. A party disturbed in his possession by execution proceedings must go separately.—Sec. 362.

17. The taking of security or not is discretionary in granting execution of decree.—Sec. 698.

18. Under s. 212 Act VIII of 1869 it is not necessary to file a copy of the decree in order to procure execution thereof in the Court which passed it.—Sec. 680, 9 W. R. 362, 10 W. R. 144, 11 W. R. 28, 271.

19. Construction 1129 is strictly applicable where the lands sued for were actually taken in execution of a former decree and no question of identity remained to be decided.—W. R. Sp. 208.

20. In case of execution of a decree of 12 years standing the presumption is that the usual notices were served unless evidence to the contrary can be produced.—W. R. Sp. 314 (L. B. 92).

21. After the striking off of an execution case, the omission to re-issue the process accompanied by an admission of a third party as decree-holder, is not a material irregularity in the case.—W. R. Sp. 359.

22. Where the records of a case are destroyed, plaintiff may prove his first decree and get the execution of it; but failing to do so, he cannot bring a second suit for the same subject-matter.—W. R. Sp. 378 (L. B. 162).
24. A regularly executed decree cannot be over-riden or annulled by a miscellaneous petition. If the judgment-debtor wishes to proceed against the decree-holder, he must do so by a regular suit. — W. R. Sp., Mis., 3. 51.

25. A judgment-creditor is entitled to take out execution without giving security, and the judgment-debtor cannot stay a sale without giving security. — W. R. Sp., Mis., 42.

26. When execution of decree fails or is set aside and the proceedings regarding that execution are taken off the file, the whole suit is not necessarily discontinued thereby, nor are the further proceedings for the same purpose to be commenced in a new suit. — (P. C.) 6 W. R., F. C., 7 (P. C. 448).

27. The High Court in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction has not the power to execute its own decree or serve the process of the local courts in such jurisdiction. — Held Aff'd. — 10 W. R., 346. See 8 W. R., 346. 347.

28. The words "otherwise as the case may be" in s. 212 Act VIII mean that the mode of execution is to be adapted in each case to the nature of the particular relief sought to be enforced under the decree. — Held Afd. — 10 W. R., 346.

30. When plaintiff, in execution of a decree, is met by defendants claiming as being mortgagees in possession after foreclosure and under a decree thereupon passed more than 12 years before suit, — 1 W. R., 349. 350.

31. Effect of striking off a case for execution with regard to attached property. — 1 W. R., 351.

32. Party applying for execution as representative of deceased decree-holder must be required to prove his right to represent him. — 1 W. R., 352; 10 W. R., 351.

33. Mode of procedure in execution of a joint-decree against two debtors. — 1 W. R., Mis., 14.

34. If a decree be executed by other than the decree-holder, it is in application to the court granting execution. — 1 W. R., Mis., 23.

35. The Court passing a decree cannot interfere with the order of the Court asked to execute it. If, however, it be appealed, an appeal will lie from that order. — 1 W. R., Mis., 17.

36. The order of the Court to which a decree has been transferred for execution, which is open to appeal, if any such order is open to appeal, must be made by the Court in the course of the actual execution of the decree. — 21 W. R., 357. 358.

37. A decree-holder entitled under his bond to proceed against property belonging to his judgment-debtor upon the attachment of certain property of theirs, filed a petition praying that such property, if sold, might be subject to the decree, and the court ordered the same to be sold, and the decree-holder was notified of the sale, and the decree-holder was not notified of the sale. — Held that the petition was not properly before the court, and the decree-holder was not notified of the sale. — Held that the petition was properly before the court, and the decree-holder was notified of the sale. — 2 W. R., 359. 360.

38. Procedure by Small Cause Courts, under ss. 19 and 20 Act Xi of 1865, against immovable property if the sale of movable property has not satisfied the decree. — 2 W. R., 361. 362. See (F. B.) 9 W. R., 363.

39. A suit may be brought for the removal of an obstruction (a fraudulent conveyance) to the execution of a decree. — 2 W. R., 364. 365.

40. The mode of procedure to be followed in the execution of a decree for immovable property in the occupancy of a minor is held to be that prescribed by s. 224 and not s. 230 Act VIII. — 2 W. R., 366. See also 11 W. R., 367.

41. A decree-holder cannot, after selling his decree, set out execution upon it. — (F. B.) 3 W. R., 368. See also 11 W. R., 369.

42. The holder of a decree against a deceased person should proceed against the property of the deceased before attaching the private property of the deceased's widow. — 2 W. R., 250. 251.

43. Where execution has been struck off without execution being ordered against the heir, notice under s. 216 Act VIII should be re-issued before execution is taken out. — 2 W. R., 252. 253.

44. When execution case has been struck off without execution being ordered against the heir, notice under s. 216 Act VIII should be re-issued before execution is taken out. — 2 W. R., 254. 255.

45. A decree may be set aside when a decree-holder has omitted to do what he is legally bound to do. — 10 W. R., 256. 257.

46. A decree transmitted to, and struck off by, another Court than the Court where it was obtained, can only be sought to be revived in the latter Court. — 9 W. R., Mis., 258. 259. 260. See also 11 W. R., 261. 262.

47. A decree-holder was allowed to execute his decree without security, notwithstanding that his debt had appealed to the Privy Council from an adverse decision in another suit. — 11 W. R., 263. 264.

48. Moveable property beyond jurisdiction of a Small Cause Court is not liable to be taken in execution. — 8 W. R., 265. 266. (Overruled) See (F. B.) 9 W. R., 267. 268.

49. The procedure prescribed by s. 292 Act VIII is applicable to a case in which, though the decree was passed before that Act came into operation, execution was taken out afterwards. Under this section, a bond fide claimant other than the defendant, obstructing the execution of the decree, must be regarded as one of the parties to the suit, and an appeal therefore lies from an order passed in favor of the bond fide claimant. — 9 W. R., 269. 270.

50. Reaching ss. 235, 239, and 250 together, process of attachment and sale, in regard to immovable property, should be issued successively; but if issued simultaneously, and the attachment has been made, the proclamation issued as required by law, with an interval of 30 days between the sale and the sale, such irregularity is not a sufficient ground for setting aside the sale, as no material injury can accrue to the decree-holder. — 8 W. R., Mis., 271. 272.

51. A party cannot be said to be acting bond fide when he applies to a Court for the execution of a decree. — 8 W. R., Mis., 273. 274.

52. A judgment-debtor may, at any stage of the execution proceedings, object to pay more than the decree awarded, notwithstanding his having on previous executions made payments in excess of the decree under a mistake. — 8 W. R., Mis., 275. 276.

53. Property substantially conveyed for the benefit and support of a judgment-debtor and his family, is liable for his debt, even though it was purchased in the name of his son. — 8 W. R., Mis., 277. 278.

54. In a suit brought under ss. 230 Act VIII, the real question to be tried is whether the defendant has a better title to the property in dispute than the decree-holder. — 8 W. R., Mis., 279. 280.

55. The judgment-debtor was ordered to pay by the decree of execution in a case appealed to the Privy Council. — 11 W. R., 281. 282.

56. A Court to which a decree is referred by another Court for execution, has jurisdiction under s. 288 Act VIII to decide that the decree-holder's right to execute his decree has lapsed by limitation. — 8 W. R., Mis., 283. 284. See also 6 W. R., Mis., 285. 286. 287. See also 7 W. R., 288. 289. (Affirmed by F. B.) 10 W. R., E., 10. 11 W. R., 290.

But the question of limitation must be one arising antecedently to the date of transfer upon facts which came out in the course of execution, and not one which could have been heard and determined by the Court which passed the decree. — 21 W. R., 291. 292.

57. The question of limitation must be one arising antecedently to the date of transfer upon facts which came out in the course of execution, and not one which could have been heard and determined by the Court which passed the decree. — 11 W. R., 293. 294.

58. Lower Court must give reasons for accepting on remand, as sufficient, security which it had before remand rejected as insufficient, tendered by the decree-holder to order the execution in a case appealed to the Privy Council. — 11 W. R., Mis., 295. 296.

59. The Court executing a decree has no discretion to order the decree-holder to proceed first against one debtor, and afterwards (if his debt is not then unsatisfied) against the other debtors. — 8 W. R., Mis., 297.

60. A joint debtor who satisfies the entire decree may

In the case of a named purchaser of a mortgage-decree by the judgment-debtor.—24 W. R. 459.

60. A judgment-debtor cannot object to the share which one or more decree-holders may claim under s. 207 Act VIII. —6 W. R. Mis. 46.

61. A purchaser from the defendant after decree is not a third party within the meaning of s. 230 Act VIII.—6 W. R. 396.

62. A decree debtor cannot object to the share which the same decree debtor may attempt to enforce them all against the same property. If the opposition to his claim is well-founded, he cannot do this successfully, and there is a short and simple method, under s. 248 Act VIII; and if the decree-holder acts vexatiously, the Court can punish him by compelling him to pay the costs of the applicant. —6 W. R. 396.

63. A decree for rent, &c., under Act X may be passed with a proviso that it should be executed by mortgaging the property under a bond.—6 W. R. (Act X) 47.

64. A Court cannot, under s. 26 Act XXIII of 1861, direct the Lower Courts to take security in case of execution, when no appeal has been preferred.-6 W. R., Mis. 15.

65. S. 15 of the same Act does not authorize a Judge to reject an application for the execution of a decree on the ground of an irregularity in form. Procedure to be observed in such cases.—6 W. R., Mis. 15.

66. A joint mortgage-debtor under s. 207 Act VII has executed as a separate decree against the defendant in respect of their respective shares.—6 W. R. Mis. 61; 7 W. R. 10; 16 W. R. 159. See 11 W. R. 188.

67. When a case is transferred by one Court to another for further execution, and the proceedings on the application for execution have been struck off for default, the Court which passed the decree, and not the Court to which the decree was transferred for execution, must be applied to for a fresh order for execution.—6 W. R. 241.

69. Under s. 203 Act VIII, a decree against the representatives of a deceased person can only be executed against the property of the deceased which has come into the hands of the executor or executrix, and not against the estate of the decedent.—6 W. R., Mis. 48, 116. See also 8 W. R. 161; 19 W. R. 199; 12 W. R. 177, 233, 517; 11 W. R. 362; 15 W. R. 285.

70. Under s. 362 Act VIII, a Zillah Judge cannot send his own decree to a Principe Sustderr for execution.—6 W. R., Mis. 51. But see 9 W. R. 163.

71. Under s. 8 Act XXV of 1837.—17 W. R. 45.

72. One who has a decree for possession of a share of lands jointly with others, is not entitled, under s. 225 Act VIII, to obtain exclusive possession of any specific portion of the lands.—6 W. R., Mis. 69.

73. Execution of joint decree by one or more of several decree-holders. —See Limitation (Act XIV of 1859) 177. See 122 post.

74. A person against whom execution has once been duly issued as representative of a deceased person, cannot dispute his representative character on the occasion of any subsequent issue of execution against him or as representative.—6 W. R., Mis. 61. See 20 W. R. 280.

75. In the absence of any order in a joint decree awarding particular share to each of the decree-holders, one decree-holder cannot be allowed to take out execution of such portion of the decree as he may consider due to himself.—6 W. R., Mis. 76.

76. Service of notice under s. 216 Act VIII, effected by sticking it up on the door of the judgment-debtor’s house, even if defective, is a valid notice proceeding under s. 20 Act XIV to enforce the decree.—6 W. R., Mis. 97. See also 20 W. R. 15; 15 W. R. 396; 20 W. R. 394.

77. In the first instance under s. 216, a judgment-creditor should apply for the execution of the decree and not for the issue of a notice; it is the duty of the Court to issue a notice.—(P. B.) 6 W. R., Mis. 98.

77. Until the debtor receive a written notice under s. 239 Act VIII, he can pay his debt to his creditor and is not bound to enquire whether or not his creditor is entitled to receive the money.—7 W. R. 139.

78. With reference to ss. 208 and 210 Act VIII, execution cannot issue against the estate of a deceased person if there is no one representing it.—7 W. R. 62. See 10 W. R. 199.

79. A decree cannot be executed against a person who, though originally named as a defendant in the suit, was not named in the decree as one of those against whom the decree was given.—7 W. R. 62.

80. When a Principal Sustderr Amoenus’s Court was abolished after passing a decree, it was held, with reference to ss. 362 Act VIII, that the decree might be executed in the Judge’s Court to which the case had been transferred, notwithstanding the abolition of Amoen’s Court, the latter not being the Court which passed the decree.—7 W. R. 124. See 8 W. R. 9.

81. Under ss. 102, 103, and 208 Act VIII, where a plaintiff in a suit died and the defendant was one of his representatives, the other representatives were held not debarred from executing the decree according to their rights.—7 W. R. 136.

82. Receipt of rent from a tenant subsequent to a decree for his ejectment, passed under s. 78 Act X, renders execution of that decree impossible.—7 W. R. 132. See 10 W. R. 314.

83. S. 208 Act VIII puts a party to whom a decree is transferred into the position of the original decree-holder, and entitles him to have the decree executed as if application were made by the original decree-holder.—7 W. R. 202; 22 W. R. 355.

84. When a property is sold in execution of a decree subject to a lien under a previous decree, the purchaser cannot appear in the execution proceedings taken by the holder of such previous decree, seeing he was no party to the decree.—7 W. R. 221.

85. When an attachment is made under s. 235 Act VIII, the only further process to bring the property to sale is the issue of the proclamation of sale; if the property be not within the jurisdiction of the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree, the course to be followed by the decree-holder is that prescribed by s. 285 et seq.—7 W. R. 267.

86. A person who has filed a petition in a suit, stating that all the interests of the judgment-debtor have been transferred to him, and afterwards opposes all attempts at execution, becomes liable as defendant and execution can be issued against him.—7 W. R. 267.

87. A stranger cannot (save with decree-holder’s consent) so deal with a judgment-debtor as to acquire an interest in the suit, which will enable him to prevent execution, without rendering himself liable to be put upon the record as a judgment-debtor.—7 W. R. 267.

88. Where plaintiff in endeavouring to obtain possession of land decreed to him, and to pull down buildings, was opposed by defendant, and on applying to the Court executing the decree, was referred to a fresh suit on the ground that the decree was silent about the demolition of buildings, —Hold that he should have appealed against such order as a matter to be determined in execution, and that no fresh suit lay.—7 W. R. 372.

89. Separate applications to execute the same decree do not constitute separate causes of suits. Thus when a Judge, ex vii necessitate, executes the decree of a Principal Sustderr, Amoenus, he is at liberty to carry out the execution to whatever extent may be necessary.—8 W. R. 9. See 7 W. R. 121.

90. When execution has been act addito to after being proceeded with to a certain point, the property cannot be considered as still under attachment for the benefit of the decree-holder.—8 W. R. 49, 415.

91. Procedure to be observed (under ss. 224, 225, and 237 Act VIII) where, when execution of decree is going on against immovable property, the decree-holders allege that they are obstructed in getting possession of certain lands included in the decree.—8 W. R. 79.

92. R. 294 makes no express provision for decrees which may be partly executed within the jurisdiction of the Court.
DIGEST OF INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

Practice (Execution of Decree) (continued). • which passed it; and there is nothing to prevent a plaintiff from executing his decree in the first instance, as far as he can, and, afterwards proceeding to carry it into another.—8 W. R. 80.

93. A Mussafir Small Cause Court has no jurisdiction to execute a decree against Government. If the Court should attempt to do so, any party who applied for execution would be liable to be sued for damages.—8 W. R. 88.

94. Where execution of a decree against A is, on his death, taken out against his heirs, and B applies to be substituted, the Court on the ground that A was bankrupt before he died, refuses him the benefit of that order, held A's heirs are liable to the extent of any assets that may have come into their hands.—8 W. R. 101.

95. Once a joint decree has been given, that decree ever after remains a joint decree, any act oromitted to by the decree-holder notwithstanding.—8 W. R. 132.

96. Procedure to be observed for the execution of a decree in a case where the legal representative of a deceased person.—8 W. R. 196.

97. The petition of an applicant showing cause under s. 217 Act VIII is not required to be verified.—8 W. R. 200.

98. Where the liability is joint and several, the decree-holder may, at any time, apply for execution against any of the joint debtors, and the Court shall make such order as may be to his advantage.—8 W. R. 203.

99. A Principal Builder Ameen may, under s. 290 Act VII, stay execution of a decree of the High Court on the original side, in order to allow judgment-debtor to apply for a new trial, on the ground that the decree had been obtained ex parte without his knowledge.—8 W. R. 203.

100. Where a mother, having the beneficial interest in testator's property till his wife comes of age, recovers rent on her own account, a decree against her is personal, and the wife's property cannot be sold in execution of such a decree.—8 W. R. 217.

101. According to s. 205 Act VIII, the right of a Hindu woman to succeed to her father's share by survivorship cannot be sold in execution.—8 W. R. 253.

102. A decree of the High Court of 1861, if an application for execution corresponds with the terms of a decree, the Court is bound to admit it.—8 W. R. 277.

103. The Court may in its discretion refuse execution against the personal and property at the same time, and may also refuse execution against the person when, under s. 15 Act XXIII of 1861 or s. 19 Act XI of 1865, application for immediate execution is made verbally at the time of passing the decree; when the application is made in writing, in proper form, after decree, the Court is bound to issue execution according to the nature of the application.—8 W. R. 282. See 17 W. R. 165.

104. The purchase of immovable property by a Court other than that which passed the decree before the decree has been sold to it for execution, violates the sale, subsequently made of that property as not according to s. 256 Act VIII.—8 W. R. 316. See also 9 W. R. 388, 10 W. R. 137.

105. The discretion vested in a Court by ss. 200 and 201 Act VIII, to order execution against the person or property of the judgment-debtor, should be very carefully interfered with.—8 W. R. 319. See 88 W. R. 292.

106. A plaintiff not executing a decree for ejectment for some months, cannot recover damages for the period between institution of suit and execution of decree.—8 W. R. 501.

107. Under s. 47 Act XI of 1865 and s. 256 Act VIII, if a Small Cause Court cannot execute a decree for movable property within its own jurisdiction, it may, notwithstanding ss. 18 and 20 Act XI, send the decree for execution to another Court within whose jurisdiction the property lies, if the Court to which it is sent be not a Court in the same district, the decree should be sent to the principal Court of original jurisdiction in the district in which it is registered to be executed.—(F. E.) 9 W. R. 176. See also 18 W. R. 173.

108. Under s. 297 Act VIII, after a debtor has been arrested in execution of a decree and discharged at the request of his personal property may be taken up in execution under the same decree.—(F. E.) 9 W. R. 178.

109. Execution cases in which a sale or other proceedings are stayed for a fixed period at the request of the debtor, and with the consent of the decree-holder, should not be struck off till that period has expired; and if struck off for the convenience of the Court by an order which provides for the continuance of the sale or other proceedings, follow within the said period without a fresh attachment.—9 W. R. 265.

110. If one judgment-debtor satisfies the judgment-debt and takes an assignment of the decree; he cannot enforce it by execution against his co-debtors; his only remedy is to sue them for contribution.—(F. R.) 9 W. R. 290. See also 15 W. R. 392, 23 W. R. 95, 24 W. R. 359.

111. Where a Civil Court refuses to execute a decree of adjudication according to conditions of compromise, the applicant should appeal from order of refusal, and not proceed by a regular suit.—9 W. R. 296.

112. The Court in which the decree was passed should endeavour to execute it first; and it is only when that Court cannot execute its own decree that it should send it to another Court for execution under s. 284 Act VIII et seq.—9 W. R. 346.

113. Where a judgment-debtor contends that the balance due on a decree of the High Court transmitted for execution under s. 284 Act VIII is less than that for which execution is sought, the Judge has no jurisdiction to enquire into the question, but may, under s. 290, stay execution pending a reference to the High Court.—9 W. R. 361.

114. Where a Judge executes a decree against a person who holds another decree of his own Court, he should appoint a manager to realize that decree, and not sell it in execution.—9 W. R. 372.

115. The execution by a Lower Appellate Court of a particular judgment-debtor from liability, even though erroneous, cannot be called an act done or order made without jurisdiction under s. 35 Act XXIII of 1861, and cannot be dealt with by the High Court under 24 and 25 Vic. 104 s. 15.—9 W. R. 386.

116. A purchase at a sale in execution made by a Court other than the Court passing the decree, but made without any of the formalities required by law being taken, is valid as against a subsequent purchaser in execution who has gone through the regular process.—9 W. R. 388. (Rescinded on appeal by P. C.) 17 W. R. 289.

117. Execution of a decree will not be stayed under s. 256 Act VIII, merely because security is given, but good cause for stay of execution must be shown.—(F. B.) 9 W. R. 418.

118. The purchase of an under-tenant sold for arrears of rent under s. 105 Act X, being no party to the suit, cannot plead limitation against a decree-holder seeking to execute his decree against it. He can only be heard under s. 229 or 230 Act VIII.—9 W. R. 486.

119. The question at issue in such a case is, which of the parties is entitled to possession, and whether the tenancy was sold subject to previous incumbrances.—12 W. R. 490.

120. The Court is not bound to grant a second application for execution as a matter of course, but should enquire why the first was abortive, and should be satisfied that its failure was not owing to the default of the applicant.—9 W. R. 527. See 17 W. R. 165.

121. As soon as a copy of the decree which is sent for execution to another Court is filed, the Court in the Court to which it is transmitted, has the same effect as a decree of that Court; and by s. 289 that Court is to proceed to execute it according to its own rules in the like cases.—(F. E.) 10 W. R. 140.

122. Execution of a joint decree may be taken out, under s. 287 Act VIII, by the survivors of several decree-holders for the benefit of all interested.—10 W. R. 95, 11 W. R. 421.

123. A mere privy execution endorsement, unregistered and improved, is no evidence of the transfer of a decree.—10 W. R. 144.

124. Where a decree-holder, in taking out execution, imputes fraud to the judgment-debtor, the Court executing must examine the allegation.—12 W. J. 23.

189. Where a decree declares a decree-holder's lien on certain property without distinctly declaring his right to sell the same, it may be executed as against that property specially; but attachment and sale, or attachment and management, as provided for by s. 243 Act VIII, must still take place.-15 W. R. 387.

190. A decree-holder may, under s. 210 Act VIII, follow his unrecorded judgment-debtor's property in the hands of the party in possession, notwithstanding a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860 has been obtained by a third party.-15 W. R. 476.

191. Where judgment was not allowed to be executed when it was clear that the Foreign Court had no jurisdiction over the cause, subject-matter, and the parties, or that the defendants were actually summoned and had a fair opportunity of presenting their defence;—16 W. R. 360.

192. When a decree was in vague and general terms.-Hold that resort should have been had to the judgment which accompanied it.-15 W. R. 360.

193. When judgment in an attachment is not authorized by the law and not embodied in the decree, the Court executing has more reason to be bound by the decree than by the judgment.-20 W. R. 208.

194. A decree was ineffectually decreed against four shareholders instead of against five, the Court which executed the decree was held to have erred in recovering the entire amount decreed out of the shares of the four.-15 W. R. 546.

195. The appointment of a manager cannot prevent the Judge, on the application of a decree-holder, from enquiring into the state of the property attached and causing the decree to be recorded in the usual manner.-16 W. R. 46.

196. A decree-holder, after having given a release to some of the debtors, may protest against the others.-16 W. R. 49.

197. A Small Cause Court in which a decree was passed is competent to entertain an application for its execution, even if the debtor's residence and movables are situated in a place which has since the decree been transferred to a different jurisdiction; the cause pursued being that prescribed by ss. 285 and 286 Act VIII.-16 W. R. 375.

198. Where there are cross-decrees for possession and mesne profits in respect to the same land, the earlier decree comprehending only a part of the lands embraced in the later, the decree is to be set aside and the party entitled to receive mesne profits separately.-16 W. R. 256.

Mode of calculating and dividing the mesne profits.-16 W. R. 504.

199. Where a suit is pending in appeal, the original decree for costs need not be executed until the proceedings are set at rest by the Appellate Court.-16 W. R. 506.

200. Proceedings subsequent to execution, and continued after the decree has been satisfied, are illegal.-16 W. R. 269.

201. In execution of decree, a judgment-debtor cannot be ordered to pay a sum beyond what is stated in the decree, although he may have, after the decree, agreed with the decree-holder to do so.-16 W. R. 275.

202. A decree which is not for possession cannot, under ss. 223 Act VIII, be executed by an order for delivery of possession of property in the possession of a third party who has mortgaged the same, and the judgment-debtor by order of Court paid in the money, the mortgagee entering upon satisfaction.-Hold that there was an end to the decree as against persons liable for the mortgagee's share.-17 W. R. 112.

203. An application for staying execution of a decree was refused because nothing was shown in support of it beyond the fact of an appeal, and there had been great delay on applicant's part.-17 W. R. 160.

204. After an infructuous execution against the judgment-debtor's property, the Court is bound, upon application made, to issue execution against his person, and the burden of proof should not be put on the debtor, when arrested, to show that he has no means of satisfying the debt, and that he has not been guilty of misconduct.- (O. J.) 17 W. R. 165.

205. A Judge is not bound, under s. 243 Act VIII, to allow a judgment-debtor a year's time to pay his decree without the debtor assigning some good or sufficient reason for the delay.-17 W. R. 193.

206. In confirming a decree of the High Court, the Privy Council, being in doubt as to the amount to be decreed, left it to that Court to determine in execution whether a decree should be given for the full amount claimed; and as the doubt was found to be owing to a mistranslation of the word sheshadri (sterile brothers), the Court allowed execution for the whole amount.-17 W. R. 340.

207. A decree awarding land may be executed, though there may have been a claim or the property the boundaries of which by the shifting of a river, if the position of the land can be ascertained.-17 W. R. 384.

208. The Court ought to see that the service of notice of execution is served on the right person and that he should be satisfied with the return of service upon a mere mocktail and not the recognized agent of the judgment-debtor.-17 W. R. 389.

209. A subsequent declaration of illegitimacy cannot affect the right of persons, who were parties to a decree when it was made, to execute the decree which is in their names.-17 W. R. 428.

210. Parties who are decree-holders on the record are prima facie entitled to take proceedings in execution and draw the money standing to their credit, without a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860 when there are no debts to be collected as due to the estate of a deceased decree-holder.-17 W. R. 510.

211. A decree for exclusive possession of a plot of land of which the judgment-debtors are not the sole owners, is incapable of execution, when the shares of the several shareholders have not been exactly defined and no partition has taken place.-18 W. R. 49.

212. When an application for execution omit to give the names of all the parties referred to by s. 212 Act VIII, even if it shall appear from the proceedings who those parties are, the parties' names must be understood to be those against whom execution is sought.-18 W. R. 55.

213. A later decree confirmed on appeal was held to supersede an earlier decree in favour of the parties, for all purposes of execution.-18 W. R. 192.

214. A decree for the performance of a particular act (e.g. the removal of certain obstructions in a pathway) can only be enforced under s. 282 Act VIII by the imprisonment of the judgment-debtor, or the attachment of his property, or both.-18 W. R. 328.

215. Where a judgment-debtor made over property to a decree-holder on the understanding that, in case of the latter's dispossess, owing to the former's defect of title, the unaltered portion of the decree should be realized by execution of the decree, Hold that the reasonable construction to be put upon this agreement was that the transaction was to be put an end to, and the decree-holder to revert to his original right, and the judgment-debtor to have waived the benefit of the law of limitation.-18 W. R. 497.

216. Where, in execution of a decree for khas possession, it is necessary to remove any of the defendants from the land covered by the decree, the Court may, under s. 223 Act VIII, remove such of the defendants as the Court shall think fit, but if the decree is silent as to a building on the land, the Court cannot have the building pulled down.-18 W. R. 526.

217. It is only on application from the decree-holder, in case of obstruction to the execution of a decree for immovable property, that the Court can be put in motion under s. 226 Act VIII.-19 W. R. 62.

218. An order to an Aman for possession of possession in a decree-holder of such of the immovable properties mentioned in the schedule as he can find, and to acquire into the nature, amounts, and value of such as he cannot find, need not be construed as giving alternative damages. The enquiry is necessary to guide the Court in the exercise of its discretion under s. 207 Act VIII.

220. Where a question such as is provided for by s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861, instead of being determined by order of the Court executing the decree, was made the subject of a small cause suit by the plaintiff in the Court of Small Causes, although the order of proceeding was wrong, there was not a want of jurisdiction which could be made a ground of objection in appeal.
—19 W. R. 90.

221. Where it is ordered in execution that a decree-holder shall get possession of a specified plot, so long as any portion of that plot remains, he cannot touch the remaining plots.—19 W. R. 161.

222. A suit is ordered in execution that a decree-holder shall get possession of a specified plot, so long as any portion of that plot remains, he cannot touch the remaining plots.—19 W. R. 161.

223. Where application is made to execute a decree originally obtained against A, the legal representatives of A deceased, and such application is based, as it must be, upon the ground that B is in possession of property belonging to the estate of A, which property the Court is asked to order to be sold, B's answer to that application being that she holds the property not as A's representative but in her own right, such answer cannot be termed a setting-up of a claim under s. 346 Act VIII, but it is an answer made to an application under s. 210 and 211, and the case comes under s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861.—20 W. R. 280.

224. In a proceeding under s. 208 Act VIII, the Court has not the power (as though acting under s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861) to determine who is the representative or person to whom a decree has been transferred by operation of law where there is a contest about it; but the question then ought to be determined by a regular suit.—20 W. R. 280.

225. The statement of a defendant that he has brought another suit for a declaration of his right to possession, is no reason for staying execution of a decree for ejectment.—20 W. R. 280.

226. Where the assignee of a decree obtained in the Deputy Collector's Court under cover of a declaratory and mandatory decree of the Civil Court, which latter decree was set aside in appeal, and a suit was brought against him to recover the money obtained by means of the execution-proceedings, —19 W. R. 305.

227. In a proceeding under s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861 to determine who is the representative of A deceased, where a suit is brought against him to recover the money obtained by means of the execution-proceedings, —19 W. R. 305.

228. Where a judgment-debt was reduced in appeal to a sum below the amount realized in execution, —19 W. R. 305.

229. Where a judgment-debt was reduced in appeal to a sum below the amount realized in execution, —19 W. R. 305.

230. Where a judgment-debt was reduced in appeal to a sum below the amount realized in execution, —19 W. R. 305.

231. Where a judgment-debt was reduced in appeal to a sum below the amount realized in execution, —19 W. R. 305.

232. Where a judgment-debt was reduced in appeal to a sum below the amount realized in execution, —19 W. R. 305.

233. Where a judgment-debt was reduced in appeal to a sum below the amount realized in execution, —19 W. R. 305.

234. Where a judgment-debt was reduced in appeal to a sum below the amount realized in execution, —19 W. R. 305.

235. Where a judgment-debt was reduced in appeal to a sum below the amount realized in execution, —19 W. R. 305.

236. The statement of a defendant that he has brought another suit for a declaration of his right to possession, is no reason for staying execution of a decree for ejectment.—20 W. R. 305.

237. Where a decree is transferred and the name of the transferee put upon the record by the Court which passed the decree, and the transferee, in the character of decree-holder, takes out a copy of the decree and certificate and presents them to the Court of another district for execution, the latter Court has no jurisdiction to entertain any opinion as to the transferee's right to the execution sought; the transferee merely occupying the position of the transferee relative to the judgment-debtor, taking the decree subject to the same rights of set-off as those under which it was held by the transferee.—21 W. R. 154.

238. Provisions may be taken against a judgment-debtor in the execution of a decree any time within 3 years from the last application of the kind, even though they are not instituted within 30 days after an alleged wrongful obstruction by him; the 30 days prescribed by s. 226 Act VIII being only the limit of time within which the judgment-creditor may by s. 226 bring an action of ejectment against a stranger without the expense of a regular suit.—21 W. R. 154.

239. It is the duty of the Court in proceedings for the purpose of assessing mesne profits during the pendency of the application for execution, to take care that those proceedings are carried on diligently and are not without good cause prostrated.—21 W. R. 212, 241.

240. When money is duly paid into Court by a judgment-debtor in satisfaction of a decree against him, the Court is bound to pay it out immediately on the application of the judgment-creditor, and to inform the judgment-debtor, when asked to do so, what is the amount remaining due from him under the decree.—21 W. R. 274.

241. All the objections which a judgment-debtor has to make to a judgment-creditor's application for execution, should be made simultaneously.—21 W. R. 288.

242. Where a decree is transferred to another Court for execution without the knowledge of the judgment-debtor, his remedy is to apply to the Court to which the decree has been transferred to stay proceedings until he can get to the original Court for his full remedy.—21 W. R. 288.

243. If complete execution cannot be had in the District of the Court to which it has been transferred for execution, the decree-holder should have his decree returned to the

A Court which made it, and there to obtain a fresh certificate for transmission to any other district where execution may be had, and in such a Court the judgment-debtor's decree as if his own;—21 W. R. 363.

244. An Appellate Court cannot amend a decree of the first Court with reference to a share of moneys profits not objected to in the first Court.—21 W. R. 388.

245. The judgment-creditor of the decree-holder cannot call upon the Court to execute his judgment-debtor's decree as if he himself were the decree-holder.—21 W. R. 419.

246. In applying for execution under s. 210 Act VIII, it is incumbent upon the Court to make it quite clear how he claims the benefit of that section quite independently of the particulars required by s. 212.—21 W. R. 420.

247. The maxim "omnia probantur rite ait esse" applies to the issue of a notice under s. 216 Act VIII.—22 W. R. 5.

248. Where all the judgment-creditors but one (H) agreed for execution against the judgment-debtor, whose answer was that she had paid all that was due from her under the decree to H, who had, under s. 206 Act VIII, certified the facts to the Court, —the Court, without ascertaining, nor did they, whole of the decree-holders, had no right to make the application without showing (as required by s. 207) sufficient cause for such a course, viz. that they did not know of the alleged payment and that, if made, it had been made as a fraud to defraud them, and that the defendant was privy to the fraud.—22 W. R. 77.

249. Where a decree is simply affirmed by the Appellate Court, then the decree is the Appellate Court which is to be executed.—22 W. R. 102.

250. Where execution-proceedings are carried on in respect of a fractional share of a decree, for all that remains, the Court, after notice to the parties, on the application of the Court, should take necessary steps to protect the interests of other parties entitled under the decree.—22 W. R. 294.

251. Whether the creditor of a member of a joint Hindu family has not some remedy, under s. 205 Act VIII against the property to which his debtor is entitled.—22 W. R. 214.

252. Where a manager had not filed accounts and the Judge found that the management could not be continued with the manager in office, and the manager, after some years, he was held to have done right in removing the manager and ordering the property to be sold.—22 W. R. 239.

253. As also when the Judge, on the death of the manager, refused to appoint a new manager and directed execution to proceed against the estate.—24 W. R. 35.

254. X, Y, and Z obtained a decree in the Subordinate Judge against H, who afterwards obtained a decree in the Court of the Appellate Court against X, Y, and Z. Shortly after this, X, Y, and Z applied to the Subordinate Judge for an attachment of the property of B, who, pending the application, assigned it to B, after which the attachment was effected. X, Y, and Z then sued B for a declaration of their title to a set-off, and this suit was dismissed by the first Court but decreed by the Lower Appellate Court. Held that the decree was valid for possession and moneys profits, and the other decree-holders, though they virtually joined in the application by repairing their consent, subsequently retracted their consent, and the original applicants declined to proceed with the execution of the decree for moneys profits. Held that there was no application on the part of all the decree-holders to execute the decree for moneys profits, nor any application by some of them for execution of the whole decree, and that the Courts order directing realisation of the unpaid portion of moneys profits was passed without any proper application.—24 W. R. 11.

255. X. Y. and Z obtained a decree in the Subordinate Judge against B and the question was raised as to whether there was any property in B's in the decree, or from altering the decree without giving reasonable effect to the application of X, Y, and Z for a set-off in proceedings to which the decree transferred to his Court.—22 W. R. 235.

256. Where a judgment-debtor has bolted and locked the doors of a house for the possession of which a decree has been obtained, the Court executing the decree全国人民 are in effect in execution of the decree as a whole, they are good and valid.—22 W. R. 354.

257. Where A was the sole decree-holder and in execution of his decree the judgment-debtor deposited the whole amount decreed, and subsequently A and M put in a petition that they were to take out this money in equal shares, but, so far as the judgment-debtor was concerned, the decree-holder was A alone; that the fact was concealed and the money was available and that he would be responsible if he did not take M in taking out the money, yet took no steps in that behalf; A was held liable, on the suit of M, to pay M not only his moiety of this money, but also the costs of his suit.—22 W. R. 249.

258. Under s. 230 Act VIII, where one or two decree-holders apply for execution of a decree, the Court can in its discretion put the parties to terms, i.e. direct them to give security or call upon the other party to show cause why the decree should not be executed, and the Court can then execute the decree on the application of one of the parties only.—19.

259. A decree-holder, who has released his deceased judgment-debtor's representative, and excepted the property which has come into his hands from execution, cannot go against other property which only became liable by way of security for the debt due to the principal debtor.—23 W. R. 19.

260. Judgment-debtors against whom execution is sought are competent to object that it cannot proceed because, the party interested himself one of the judgment-debtors, whenever the facts come to notice, and are not deterred, by having suffered execution at one instance, from setting up the objection when a further application is made.—23 W. R. 26.

261. Where the sons of a deceased judgment-debtor, whose estate is declared by the decree to be liable to sale, are admitted on the record as his representatives, they are entitled, in the execution thereof, to prevent the execution of the whole case, and to ask for a decision as to whether the debt incurred by the father was not for the benefit of the estate, or was in some other way invalid under the Hindu law, and not binding on the joint family.—23 W. R. 127. See also 24 W. R. 361.

262. Where a decree-holder, having a certificate for possession and moneys profits, obtained possession, but delayed in respect of the moneys profits, and the case was stayed, and subsequently the decree-holder applied to the Privy Council being in his favor, applied within three years of the Privy Council's decree to complete the execution of the decree, holding that he was entitled to the moneys profits ascertained without a fresh certificate.—23 W. R. 222.

263. The objection that a decree is not operative against defendants who had not been served with notice, cannot be urged by way of a miscellaneous appeal, but by way of a review of judgment.—23 W. R. 232.

264. The purchaser of a share in a decree cannot be allowed to take out piecemeal execution; but the Court may allow the decree to be executed as a whole on his application, taking steps to protect the interests of the other decree-holders.—23 W. R. 282.

265. Where two out of several decree-holders petitioned the Court to execute their share of the decree (which was for possession and moneys profits), and the other decree-holders, though they virtually joined in the application by signing their consent, subsequently retracted their consent, and the original applicants declined to proceed with the execution of the decree for moneys profits, held that there was no application on the part of all the decreeholders to execute the decree for moneys profits, nor any application by some of them for execution of the whole decree, and that the Courts order directing realisation of the unpaid portion of moneys profits was passed without any proper application.—24 W. R. 11.

266. S. 205 Act VIII refers to the assignment of a whole decree.—13.

267. Can the purchaser of a share in a decree be added upon the record, under the above section, as co-decree-holders.—16.

268. When an application is made by a judgment-debtor to stay execution of an Appellate Court's decree, the Court executing the decree cannot enquire into the question whether any notice was served upon the applicant before the appeal-judgment was passed.—24 W. R. 35.
The consent of parties cannot alter the nature of a decree; an agreement introducing fresh parties cannot be substituted for the decree or become capable of execution as if it was the original decree.—24 W. R. 205.

If a judgment-debtor, after receiving notice that the right, title, and interest of the decree-holders in the decree have been attached, pays the decree-holders the money due under the decree, the payment is not a valid payment, and the Court executing the decree should determine whether the alleged satisfaction is binding on the auction-purchaser of the attached right, title, and interest of the decree-holders.—24 W. R. 245.

Where a decree is in favor of several persons and some of them transfer their interest to a third party, the Court may allow the purchaser to appear as co-decreeholder under s. 208 Act VIII, or allow him alone, under ss. 207 and 208 together, to execute the whole decree, if the interests of justice required it.—1b.

Where a judgment-creditor proceeding to execute a decree for land and certain papers, failed to find the papers and then instituted further proceedings either to get them or the monies payable in default,—Hold that he had adopted the only course open to him, and that there was no splitting up of the decree into different executions.—25 W. R. 58.

A decree declaring that an attachment should be removed cannot be executed for money.—25 W. R. 59.

A petition praying that the matter of an execution previously applied for should be disposed of along with a similar application in another suit, is not an application to enforce execution.—25 W. R. 94.

Where a decree only declared plaintiff's right of passage through a doorway, and to remove the brickwork with which it was filled,—Hold that, in executing it, the decree-holder was not authorized to remove a wooden door in existence there.—25 W. R. 120.

The mere fact of a decree-holder having omitted to certify the names of some judgment-debtors on any former occasion on which he took out execution, does not disqualify the decree with the effect of the original decree.—25 W. R. 156.

Where a judgment-debtor applies under s. 280 Act VIII for his release, supported by an affidavit and also by his deposition on oath to the effect that he has no property whatever to satisfy the decree, it is incumbent upon the decree-holder, under s. 281, to show that the judgment-debtor was making a false statement as to his means and ability to pay the debt.—35 W. R. 182.

A judgment-creditor has, by virtue of the judgment, without execution, no right to the property of the judgment-debtor, and is not entitled to recover it from the persons in whose hands it is. The procedure prescribed is to execute the judgment by attachment and sale if necessary, and not to proceed by action.—(P. C.) 36 W. R. 82.

5. A plaintiff required to appear, but not to give evidence, does not fall within s. 170 Act VIII of 1859.—W. R. 80.

6. An order dismissing an application under ss. 162 and 163 Act VIII is final; but when a Court of inferior jurisdiction exercises its summary powers in dismissing such an application, it should show on the face of the Order that judicial discretion was used.—W. R. 287.

7. An Appellate Court has no authority to interfere with the order of a Lower Court under s. 170 Act VIII (deciding against a party who refused to come forward and give evidence after he had been duly summoned to do so), much less to pass a contrary decision without insisting on the absence's evidence being recorded, or giving any reason for dismissing it.—W. R. 287. But see 16 W. R. 258.

8. If a case is remanded for the examination and attendance of the plaintiff, the Lower Court may dispense with attendance, and accept the evidence of his agent instead, if the plaintiff be ill and unable to attend.—W. R. 330.

9. In a remand for the examination of one plaintiff, the examination of the other cannot be insisted on.—W. R. 357 (3 R. J. R. 354).

10. If a party is certified to be a material witness and there is no special reason why he should not be summoned, a Court does not properly or legally exercise the undoubted discretion vested in it by s. 162 in refusing to summon him merely because other material witnesses are relied on or may be called.—W. R. 4.

11. Where A. a party to a suit, applies under s. 162 for the examination of another party B, it is A's duty under s. 163, after the expiration of the time given to B, under s. 163 to show cause why he should not attend and give evidence, to apply for an order requiring B to attend and give evidence.—W. R. 218.

12. A party who submits to a remand or other material step in legal proceeding, cannot afterwards object to the legality of such step.—3 R. W. 191.

15. A Judge is not justified in setting his face generally against the summons of parties as witnesses.—4 R. W. (Act X) 18.

16. A defendant cannot be deprived of his right to summon plaintiff as witness, by the Court examining plaintiff's agent.—4 R. W. (Act X) 50.

17. S. 170 Act VIII is discretionary. Under it, the first Court may decide against a defendant on the ground of his failure to appear, even without going into the plaintiff's evidence; and the Lower Appellate Court is equally within the law in going into the whole case on its merits.—5 W. R. 89.

18. The purchaser of a decree is not a party to the suit within the meaning of s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861.—6 W. R. 215. See also W. R. Sp. Min. 35. See contra 8 W. R. 197, 10 W. R. 205.

19. It is not incumbent on a Court, with reference to s. 162 Act VIII, to give detailed legal reasons for its refusal to comply with an application to enforce the attendance of a party to a suit as a witness.—6 W. R. 65.

20. A person cannot at one time set himself up as a substantial party in a suit, contending to both in the Lower Courts on the merits, and then turn round and say in special appeal that he has nothing to do with it and has been unnecessarily brought in.—6 W. R. 66.

21. Where one defendant, having ceased to have any interest in the suit, died, it was held, with reference to ss. 99 and 100 Act VIII, that the suit went on against the other defendant, without any survivor against his representatives.—6 W. R. C., R. 2.

22. Where a Judge refused to summon a plaintiff as a witness under s. 162 Act VIII, acting on a wrong assumption of facts, the High Court entertained a special appeal and remanded the case.—7 W. R. 147. See also W. R. 184.

23. In the case of an unincorporated trading Company, the plaintiff (who does not know of what persons the Company is composed) may, under s. 26 Act VIII, sue the Company under the name under which it is carrying on business, stating in his plaint his inability to describe it better.—8 W. R. 46.

24. The proceeding for compelling the attendance of a... part as a witness laid down in s. 170 Act VIII applies, under s. 38 Act XXIII of 1861, to miscellaneous proceedings.—12 W. R. 84.

25. There is no power to strike out a plaintiff's name and to substitute the name of a purchaser from him. An order doing this can be set right by the High Court under s. 24 and 26 Vic. c. 104 s. 16.—(Par. B.) 9 W. R. 307, 487. See 12 W. R. 87, 15 W. R. 121.

Nor is the purchaser entitled to appeal against an order of dismissal without joining the original plaintiff as appellee.—12 W. R. 106.

26. In an action for mesne profits of land decreed in a suit for possession after notice of foreclosure, where defendants, not having been ignorant of the real party with whom they had contracted, were in no way prejudiced by the disclaimer that the ostensible plaintiffs were not really interested, the parties in whose name the suit is brought may be regarded as trustees for the person beneficially interested.—12 W. R. 106.

27. When a defendant having been summoned neglects to attend, the Court ought to decide according to s. 170 Act VIII, and not to dismiss the suit for want of proof when the plaintiff is not to sue in his own case without the evidence of the defendant.—10 W. R. 198.

28. Under s. 170 Act VIII it is discretionary with a Court to place a party in the suit in regard to a plaintiff who disobeys its summons to attend, and it is no ground of special appeal that further steps were not taken by the first or the Lower Appellate Court.—10 W. R. 171.

29. Where a person was made a party to a suit and again dismissed from the suit before the decree was given.—Hold that he was not a party within the meaning of s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861.—10 W. R. 191.

30. Where the Court rejects her claim solely on the disposition of defendant, she cannot be allowed to examine further witnesses and to re-open the case.—10 W. R. 284. But see 13 W. R. 108.

31. Where the widow of a judgment-creditor refused to make her daughters co-plaintiffs.—Hold that she could not recover their share.—10 W. R. 397.

32. Where the property of J was sold in execution of a decree against B (being J's representative, but not having been shown to have inherited any of J's property).—Hold that J could not sue to cancel the sale of her personal property, not being a party to the suit within the meaning of s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861.—(Par. B.) 11 W. R. 114. See 21 W. R. 44.

33. The right of the heir who denies under a will by a party in a suit where it is not made a party to the suit within the meaning of s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861, but he is not debarred from the benefit of an appeal under the latter section.—11 W. R. 586. See 13 W. R. 224.

34. A warrant was issued not to have exercised an arbitrary discretion under s. 170 Act VIII in deciding the case in the absence of some defendants who were summoned as witnesses where plaintiff did not take the necessary steps to enforce their attendance.—12 W. R. 36.

35. Where the purchaser of a plaintiff's rights was substituted for the plaintiff; the irregularity was held to be cured by the consent of the defendant, implied in his offering no opposition but appealing from the judgment on the merits against the substitution of plaintiff one of the respondents.—12 W. R. 87. See also 12 W. R. 485.

36. In a suit for a declaration that certain potatoes are forgeries, all the parties interested in and holding under the potatoes should be made parties to the suit.—12 W. R. 247.

37. S. 162 Act VIII does not require observance of any formalities in making an application to enforce the attendance of a party as a witness.—12 W. R. 317.

38. S. 170 was held applicable to a case where no legal summons was served on plaintiff, but it was inferred that he knew his attendance in Court was desired.—19.

Practice (Possession).

1. In a suit under Act X of 1859, a plaintiff’s title to obtain possession cannot be decided irrespective and independently of the fact of possession and of illegal ejectment.—B. J. F. J. 44 (Sev. 8a).

2. In a suit for possession of certain land from a person claiming as lakahari, plaintiff cannot succeed, it is not necessary to enquire whether the plaintiff held it free of rent, or whether he paid rent for it, or ought to pay rent for it. —Sev. 153.

3. The assignee under an iraharamah of the rights and interests of three brothers in a certain property having established the rights of his assignees by a decree of Court in a suit in which he made all the parties interested parties to it.—Hold that he was not entitled to defer suing for possession until every possible form of appeal from that decree had been gone through by the son of the fourth brother.—Sev. 179.

4. In a suit by an auction-purchaser to obtain possession of land, the mere declaration that oral evidence and the report of an Ameen could not be sufficient were held to be contrary to law and practice.—Sev. 7046.

5. In a suit to recover possession of land from parties who have admittedly been 30 years in possession, oral evidence cannot be relied upon, where the plaintiffs are not auction-purchasers or new holders of the property.—Sev. 710.

6. In a suit to recover possession and mesne profits on the averment that the defendant without any title has by mere force taken possession of the property, the defendant is entitled to raise the question of plaintiff’s present title to the estate, but it is of no avail to him to plead that plaintiff was only nominal-purchaser for another party, when plaintiff can prove the execution of a deed of relinquishment by that other party in his favor.—Sev. 855.

7. Plaintiff having a right to sue for possession, is not bound to go to the Collector under s. 23 Act X of 1859, nor to appeal to the Collector from the decision of the Collector refusing to give assistance.—Sev. 967.

8. In a suit for possession, if defendant in possession pleads limitation of title it is entitled to a clear finding upon it before the question of title is enquired into.—W. R. Sp. 142, 99 W. R. 365, 21 W. R. 315.

10. In a suit by a shareholder to recover possession; defendant, though in wrongful possession, may object to the court extending beyond plaintiff’s share.—W. R. Sp. 240 (I. R. 26).

11. In a suit to recover possession, where plaintiff fails to prove his special plea of a memorandum title supported by a potnah, he cannot be permitted to fall back on his general rights as a lakahari ryot.—W. R. Sp. 299.

12. The purchaser of a house sold under s. 110 Act X of 1859, is not bound to bring a regular suit to obtain possession.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 61 (2 R. T. F. J. 214).

13. Where a tenant sues to recover possession after ejectment by a landlord who does not deny plaintiff’s potnah and dakhil, he is entitled to a decree notwithstanding that the new tenant in possession intimates that those documents are forgeries.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 134.

14. According to Reg. XV of 1816 (Madras Code), in a suit for possession of joint family property in which the plaintiff’s title depended on the fact of a division having taken place in the family, a distinct averment of division must be made in the cause, and a direction given by the Court for the production of evidence in proof of such an averment.—(I. C.) 6 W. R., P. G., 63 (P. C. R. 186).

15. In a suit for possession, the Civil Court’s decree is defective unless it decides the question of title.—W. R. 205.

16. A plaintiff claiming possession of land is entitled to an adjudication of his claim. The determination of the liberator’s right does not determine plaintiff’s claim.—1 W. R. 336.

17. In a suit by a ryot to recover possession, under cl. 6 s. 23 Act X of 1859, the landlord admitting a tenancy at some former time, should show that it has determined.—1 W. R. 361.

18. In a suit for possession, the manner of dispossessing is immaterial so long as the fact is proved.—2 W. R. 164.

19. In a suit for possession a decree was held to have been properly given for the correct quantity of land as specified in the supplemental plaint, though larger than the quantity mentioned in the original plaint.—18.

20. A person suing as lakahari for possession of land of which he has been dispossessed by the seznamar is not entitled to a decree merely on the ground of his possession after the resumption proceedings, but on proof of possession several years before resumption.—2 W. R. 236.

21. A person, whose suit for possession is dismissed, is not entitled to a declaration of his right to receive possession of the proprietary title, i.e. to receive rent, from those who admitted tenancy.—2 W. R. 237.

22. Where, in a suit for possession of resumed lands, the plaintiff contends that the laws (Rops. II of 1819 and III of 1828) under which the lands in dispute were resumed, contemporaneous assessment and not ejectment, the plaintiff must prove that he had formally applied for, and been refused, a settlement of the lands.—2 W. R. 239.

23. A person who has obtained symbolical possession under s. 224 Act VIII, may subsequently call for actual possession under s. 223, if the terms of his decree warrant such possession being given.—3 W. R. Mis. 2; 9 W. R. 454; 17 W. R. 80. See 10 W. R. 390, 12 W. R. 206.

24. In a suit to recover possession under cl. 6 s. 23, plaintiff must prove when his causes of action commenced, when and how he was dispossessed, and whether he has sued within time.—4 W. R. (Act X) 24.

25. A suit for possession and mesne profits in which defendants do not allege possession for 12 years, but stand on their title, cannot be dismissed on the ground that plaintiff’s possession and dispossesssion have not been specifically shown.—5 W. R. 338.

26. In a suit to recover possession, the sole question for decision is the right to possession, apart from all questions of lakahari or no lakahari, etc.—1 W. R. 111, 8 W. R. 299.

27. The possession of a single shareholder with the consent of all the co-sharing cannot be disturbed.—8 W. R. 287.

28. Where the question for trial is the right to possession, proof of actual possession is not necessary.—6 W. R. 155.

29. A decree for possession may be revoked by the Court, on the ground that plaintiff’s being put in actual possession, cannot afterwards be revoked or re-executed on the plaintiff being dispossessed.—6 W. R. Mis. 158.

30. S. 239 Act VIII contemplates a suit by a party out of possession and not by a party in possession.—7 W. R. 87.

31. It does not apply where there is no dispossesssion.—12 W. R. 506.

32. Nor where no attempt has been made to deliver possession; but the Court is not therefore barred from adjudicating a claim to a potnah right as to lands of which decrevholder has applied for kha possession.—19 W. R. 219.

31. In a suit for possession and declaration of title, s. 900 Act VIII does not prohibit a defendant from questioning plaintiff's title on the ground of fraudulent and false statements. It provides for dismissal of a suit brought to question the title of a certified purchaser, but "does not prohibit defendant from questioning that title when an auction-purchaser seeks to oust him."—8 W. R. 130.

Also 9 W. R. 380.

33. The khas possession of a dur-patricular having been established by a decree under s. 230 Act VIII, cannot be disturbed except by a regular suit for direct possession.—8 W. R. 391.

34. A ryot who has held under an invalid lakheraj and is turned out, cannot sue to recover on the ground of anterior possession.—8 W. R. 298.

35. A plaintiff in possession under a deed of conveyance subject to an undertaking to re-survey on repayment within a period which has long elapsed, is entitled to establish his right to possession against an intruder claiming on a fraudulent sale.—8 W. R. 340.

36. A plaintiff holding is permissive, plaintiff can put an end to it and recover possession by serving him with notice to quit.—8 W. R. 386.

37. Where plaintiff having purchased shares in a joint possession tarde, and seeks to recover possession,— Held that, on establishing their right, they were entitled to recover possession whether originally joint or separate.—8 W. R. 420.

38. A ryot's tenure having been sold for arrears of rent under an Act X decree, the purchaser is entitled to be put in khas possession of the entire tenure as it originally stood, notwithstanding that the ryot's sons have been occupying lands on the tenancy for more than twenty years. The circumstance that the purchaser happens to be the superior landlord does not diminish his right.—8 W. R. 478.

39. Defendants, failing to prove joint possession, cannot preclude plaintiff in a suit for confirmation of title and possession.—9 W. R. 169.

40. It is not necessary for a plaintiff to prove that he was dispossessed on the date mentioned in the plaint (or on any particular date).—9 W. R. 348; 15 W. R. 178; 17 W. R. 501, 23 W. R. 433; 24 W. R. 337.

Provided he proves he is entitled to possession at the time of bringing the suit.—13 W. R. 111.

41. Plaintiff failure to prove possession within 12 years of suit does not entitle defendant to a verdict. Possession must be weighed with other evidence for the party proving it and the evidence of the opposite party.—9 W. R. 363.

42. Where the heir of an ostensible auction-purchaser seeks to oust defendant, who has been in possession for 12 years, possession and who pleads that the sale was bhumner, long possession proves defendant's allegation to be true, and plaintiff must show that his ancestor paid for the property.—9 W. R. 438.

43. Plaintiffs in possession, though in contravention of an Act X award, do not need the Court's intervention to put them in possession; the omission to sue for possession is no bar to their suing for a declaration of title and confirmation of possession.—9 W. R. 580.

44. In a suit to recover possession of land where plaintiff shows peaceable possession, still forcibly dispossessed, the Court need not go into the factual show any right:—10 W. R. 102; 12 W. R. 175; 23 W. R. 291, 295; 24 W. R. 22.

45. In a suit for nonmarginal possession under a lakheraj more than 12 years old, where defendant pleads that plaintiff was only a heemucemad and was never in possession, plaintiff must prove not only title, but also possession within 12 years of the filing of the suit.—10 W. R. 299.

46. A suit for khar possession and obtaining a decree against defendant who set up an adverse title, is entitled to legal possession under s. 223 Act VIII.—11 W. R. 68.

47. A suit for confirmation of possession must be dismissed if the allegation of possession is unfounded, but not if plaintiff is in possession of a part of the land in dispute.—11 W. R. 257.

48. In a suit for possession, not on the ground simply of spurious possession, but upon a distinct and definite title, if plaintiff entirely fails to prove his case, he is not entitled to a decree even if there is evidence that he was long in possession in one capacity or another.—11 W. R. 301. See also 12 W. R. 208, 21 W. R. 121. But see 11 W. R. 465, 12 W. R. 111, 28 W. R. 304.

49. The conditions precedent to the success of any application or to the exercise of jurisdiction under s. 230 Act VIII are (1) that the applicant has been dispossessed, (2) that he disputes the right to possess him, and (3) that, on examination held, he shows probable cause for making the application.—12 W. R. 237.

50. A plaintiff suing for exclusive possession cannot obtain a decree for joint possession,—12 W. R. 248.

51. Where, in execution of a landlord's decree, an Amanz measured a portion of plaintiff's land as covered by the decree, and delivered over possession thereof to the defendants as in execution of their decree, a cause of action arose against plaintiff of defendants to 12 W. R. 279.

52. Zeminars suing to recover khar possession are bound to prove their right to it: but they also have a right to a decision as to the alleged wrongful possession of defendants.—12 W. R. 265; Nevada 29 W. R. 121.

53. A decree for confirmation of possession cannot be executed so as to give the deeree-holder possession of anything of which he is not already in possession.—12 W. R. 259.

54. A party suing for division of possession on a certain title is bound by the title, except in a suit to recover immovable property from which he has been ousted.—18. 16 W. R. 218.

55. In an ordinary civil suit, not brought under cl. 6 s. 23 Act X or s. 15 Act XIV of 1859, a plaintiff cannot recover possession as against the undisputed owner merely by proving his previous possession and dispossess,—14 W. R. 41.

56. In suit cases the question of possession is dependent on the question of title; whereas in lakheraj cases the title may fail, and yet if possession as lakheraj holds (i.e. possession without paying rent) is proved, that possession may be sufficient to give a lakheraj title.—14 W. R. 109.

57. Where a tabakadar sues for possession of land contained in an under-tenure purchased by him at an execution sale, from some of which he alleges to have been dispossessed and as to the remainder his title is disputed,— Held that the owners probate lay on him and that the deputation of an Amanz in such a case was improper.—11 W. R. 190.

58. In a suit to recover possession of land which both plaintiff and defendant claimed to have reclaimed from jungle and to have possessed many years, and for which both claimed to have obtained pottals from Government, the Court found the land was included in plaintiff's pottal was held to be insufficient to entitle him to a decree,—13 W. R. 43.

59. In a suit to recover possession of a share of an estate on the allegation that plaintiff had purchased it at a sale in execution of a decree: and that he had been forcibly dispossessed by a purchaser at a sale in execution of a decree for rent, it having been found that plaintiff's purchaser had not been bound to sell but that the right, title, and interest of the decree-holder had been purchased bhumner by the judgment-debtor himself. — Held that the real purchaser was the judgment-debtor and that the holder of the rent-dereet could sell either the estate or the suit right, title, and interest.—15 W. R. 74.

60. In order to a legal possession being given under s. 224 Act VIII. It is essential that all the requirements of that section be carried out.—15 W. R. 74.

61. In a suit to recover possession of property from which plaintiffs have been ousted by defendants who have no title at all, the latter cannot set up the title of a third party to defeat the claim of plaintiff, whose right moreover is not in any way affected by the fact of the suit not having been brought within the time limited by s. 15 Act XIV of 1859.—15 W. R. 278.

62. Where a plaintiff in possession seeks for confirmation of possession treating himself as being in possession, and yet sets out and states circumstances which are in themselves a dispossess, the suit should be treated as one really for recovery of possession,—15 W. R. 290, 16 W. R. 37, 24 W. R. 301, 25 W. R. 168.

63. In a suit for possession, a general consideration of the question of boundaries should not be gone into, until the spots of land claimed are accurately ascertained.—15 W. R. 314.

61. In a suit for possession of jungle lands, where there is no proof of acts of ownership having been exercised on either side, possession must be presumed to have continued with the person to whom they rightfully belong.—16 W. R. 102, 24 W. R. 410.

62. The auction-purchaser of a taluck seeking to obtain possession from the former proprietors, many of whom are cultivators holding separate possession of specific portions and having their houses on the land, cannot sue them all in one suit, but must sue them separately for those portions to which they lay claim.—16 W. R. 155. But see 18 W. R. 26.

63. In a suit by a zemindar to obtain khas possession of land within his estate, if defendant be a middleman, the right of plaintiff follows as of course unless defendant can make out his claim to exclude the zemindar; but if defendant be a ryot, plaintiff must show that he is a ryot liable to eviction.—16 W. R. 158.

64. An application in execution for possession taken for evicting an absentee from an allotment in a plaintiff's possession under s. 224 Act VIII may be refused where there are no grounds for refusing the latter except as to decrees-holder's request for an order on the ryots to pay rent to him.—17 W. R. 296.

65. Where a purchaser at an execution sale of rights and interests in a share of a mouza, seeks for possession of that share, and the sale certificate sets forth the title passed by the sale of the boundaries of the estate, the Judges, in terms of a suit of dismissing the suit because the sale certificate did not prove the boundary and the plaintiff had not proved the boundary, ought to have enquired whether the boundaries as stated in the certificate included any land other than the mouza in question, and to have decided accordingly.—17 W. R. 314.

66. A Judge need not go into the question whether petitions under s. 230 Act VIII, when the parties are agreed that defendant has dispossessed plaintiff under color of a decree.—17 W. R. 357.

67. The legal principle that no suit for confirmation of possession will lie if possession at the time of institution of the suit is not shown, refers to cases where no possession of any kind is shown within a reasonable time before suit, and not where legal possession under a decree has been found.—22 W. R. 421.

68. Appellant had obtained a decree establishing her mahavacee right as purchaser from the heir to a former proprietor, against grantees from deceased widows. In taking an execution, the judgment was only as to respondents, who claimed as holding a dbur-pattree granted in 1849 by the purchaser of the land, when it was sold for arrears due by the former pattree. This claim was tried as a regular suit, and decided in favor of the respondents. Held, that the decree was a proceeding before the Munsifs in 1841, which showed that actual possession was in the grantees of the widows, was conclusive, and that the possession of the grantees was referable solely to the title which was now vested in the appellant, and which could not be affected by the acquisition of the pattree title in 1849.—(P.C.) 18 W. R. 1.

69. Defendant's admitted possession for upwards of ten years was not sufficient to disturb the plaintiff who had failed to prove either title or possession.—(P.C.) 18 W. R. 91.

70. When a plaintiff sues for confirmation of possession and recovery of decedent's share, he must make out his title affirmatively.—(P.C.) 19 W. R. 1.

71. A pattree right was proclaimed at the time of a sale in execution of a decree, and the decedee-holder, having delayed to find security, was not put into possession, but the lands decreed were subsequently attached and sold under a decree obtained by others who purchased and entered on possession. The original decree-holder having brought obtained a decree for possession;—Held, that the only intention of the last decree was to confirm the original decree-holder in the position which she occupied when the property was sold in execution of her original order of the pattree, that she was not entitled to khas possession; and, that if she wanted a declaration as to the invalidity of the pattree right, she ought to have stated her intention unambiguously in her plaint.—19 W. R. 219.

72. Where the first Court found that, in a series of transactions with the Revenue Officers of Government, certain land in dispute had been transferred to the plaintiff's mouzah without objection from the defendant, the Appellate Court was held to have been wrong in assuming that plaintiff was not in possession merely because he had failed to prove that he had taken any produce of this particular land.—19 W. R. 245.

73. Where a case was held to fall under s. 223 and not s. 229 Act VIII.—20 W. R. 201.

74. In decrying a suit for khas possession of land on the strength of an imanu or potthah, where the defendant lessee (co-sharing) contends that the lands are imanu, the Court should ascertain the precise lands and determine whether they belong exclusively to the defendant's share.—20 W. R. 344.

75. The Lower Appellate Court before reversing a decree in a suit to recover possession on the ground that there were no funds to purchase, ought to have framed an issue whether there had been a demand.—20 W. R. 401.

76. In a suit to recover possession and mesne profits of land claimed as part of a private part of the village plot by defendant's ancestor, where the Lower Court made Government a party and concluded that plaintiff was not entitled to possession was stopped by the conduct of his father who repeatedly took from Government a form of the village plot, and had been declared not to be a portion of the estate,—Held that Government ought not to have been made a party, for plaintiff did not show his claim in any way adversely to Government, and that the father's acts did not stop plaintiff from instituting the present suit against the original defendants; also that, if plaintiff's possession was simply that of a tenant, then his right of suit, if any, would be against the Government for damages for wrongful evictions, and not against third parties.—21 W. R. 152.

77. In a suit by a pattree for a declaration of his rights and to obtain khas possession with costs and interest, on the allegation (which was found to be false) that he had been in khas possession and had been forcibly dispossessed by the defendants, where it was found that the zemindar (through whose pattee title was derived) as well as his janardar had received rents from the defendants as jodaras,—Held that plaintiff had no right to treat defendants as trespassers and sue for direct possession, and was not entitled to determine their tenancy without proceeding to do so in a legal manner.—21 W. R. 237.

78. Where, on a suit for rent having been decided in the ground that defendant was not plaintiff's tenant, plaintiff sued her co-sharer and the same defendant to recover khas possession,—Held that the Court was not at liberty on such a plaint to find plaintiff entitled to rent from the landlord and so to get symbolical possession.—21 W. R. 422.

79. Where a conveyance of property was made by a person who had been in possession and enjoyment for years before she was wrongfully deprived thereof, the conveyance was held to give a right to sue for immediate possession.—22 W. R. 99. See also 25 W. R. 223.

80. A suit instituted under s. 230 Act VIII cannot be tried as a regular suit without a proper plaint and stamp unless the plaintiffs or petitioners complain of retual order.—22 W. R. 103.

81. In a suit to recover possession of a share in an estate on the ground that a private part of the whole had been annulled by a decree, where defendant alleged that plaintiff was still in possession,—Held that plaintiff could have no cause of action unless he proved that he had been actually evicted from possession consequent upon the decree.—22 W. R. 109.

82. Where a plaintiff holding under a potthah from the zemindar suits to recover land of which defendant is in possession, he is entitled to recover unless defendant can show that he holds under a grant decree under which he acquired directly or indirectly from the zemindar.—22 W. R. 326. See also 24 W. R. 723.

83. In a suit by an auction-purchaser for possession of certain rights and interests in joint property, where a part of the plaintiff's claim was dismissed and an appeal was taken to the Appellate Court was held to have done wrong in raising the question whether plaintiff's predecessor in separate possession, seeing that the parties who had a right to contest it were not before the Court.—23 W. R. 404.

84. Where land is waste and there is no visible sign of occupation, the possession must be taken to go with the right, and the right is prista jatha in the seminar of the owner to which the waste land belongs.—22 W. R. 419.

85. In a suit to set aside a decree where plaintiff seeks to recover possession on the strength of his title, the Court is bound to try the question of title.—23 W. R. 21.

86. Defendant, the original tenant of the lands in dispute, got himself imprisoned for a long term of 16 years, making no arrangement for the management of the lands. Plaintiff went to the seminar and obtained his lease to enter upon the lands and accordingly held them for more than 15 years when he was ousted by defendant. Held that defendant’s right as well as his remedy had become destroyed by plaintiff’s possession for upwards of 12 years, whether through his misfortune or neglect.—22 W. R. 59.

87. The opinion that although the sale at which plaintiff purchased the land in dispute as the lachheri property of S, a wrong declaration was made with regard to the nature of the tenancy, that S had in it, still it being admitted that S held the property under some legal right, plaintiff in virtue of his purchase was entitled to possession under that right without proving that the land was the lachheri of S, was held to be bad in law.—23 W. R. 60.

88. In a suit for declaration of title and possession of an ancestral jota, instituted in consequence of defendant having successfully intervened as purchaser of the rights of the superior landlord of the plaintiff in a previous suit for rent brought by them against a khoja tenant, the plaintiffs are at liberty to prove its case quite as much by the fact that the landlord has received rent from them, as by the circumstance that they received rent from the khoja tenant.—23 W. R. 98.

89. In a suit for possession where the question is the right to undivided shares of property, a decree should not be given against some only of the shareholders for the recovery of a share, unless it is proved that those shareholders exclusively are in possession of it, and are interfering with plaintiff’s enjoyment thereof.—23 W. R. 261.

90. In a suit by a landlord to recover possession, whose defendant, who was a tenant-at-will, had received no notice to determine his tenancy, plaintiff may obtain a decree to come into operation at the beginning of the next year.—23 W. R. 399.

91. In a suit to recover possession, where plaintiff had held over the term of his lease and raised a crop which was appropriated by defendant (an adjacent tenant) on the ground that the dispute land was his alluvion, Held that the owner lay upon the defendant (the adjacent tenant and the seminar) to show that the land held by plaintiff was removed from the control of the owner of the estate by circumstances which brought it under the control of the defendant tenant; and that an admission made by the seminar defenstrant would not be an estoppel in the other defendant’s favor.—24 W. R. 108.

92. In a suit to recover possession of land acquired by plaintiff’s vendor at an open sale of the rights and interests of one S, where defendant claimed under a deed of sale from the same S, and the Lower Appellate Court found that plaintiff had been in possession and had been favorably received by defendant, Held that defendant’s only title was the right to sue to set aside the execution sale under which plaintiff held possession, and that this title did not avail him to eject plaintiff without a decree first obtained.—24 W. R. 117.

93. Where a tenant, holding over after the expiration of his lease, is wrongfully dispossessed, he has a right to be restored to possession; and he has the same right if, having been ejected during his lease, his lease expires pending a suit to recover possession, as against every one except the landlord, he is still the person entitled to possession.—24 W. R. 365.

94. Where a vendor is out of possession at the time when the property is sold, the purchaser is entitled to commence a suit for the recovery of the property.—25 W. R. 223.

95. In a suit for possession of land the Lower Courts were held not to refuse to refrain from coming to any adjudication merely because there was some doubt in ascertaining boundaries.—25 W. R. 77.

96. In a suit between two rival tenants, where it is found that defendant is still in occupation of the disputed land as a tenant of the seminar and that the seminar has not chosen to eject him from the land, the mere production of a petition alleged to have been granted by the seminar to the plaintiff cannot of itself determine defendant’s tenancy, nor entitle defendant to stand in the seminar’s shoes and either demand that notice to quit be served upon defendant, or that the suit be treated as such notice.—25 W. R. 192.

Practice (Review).

1. A Judge has power, under Act VIII of 1859, to review an order passed by him in execution of a decree.—W. R. Sp. 66 (1 Hay 577, Marshall 205). See also 6 W. R., Mis., 127.

2. A Judge has power to grant a review of judgment after lapse of more than 90 days.—(F. B.) W. R. Sp. 84.

3. A Court wrongly estimating the evidence in a case is not a valid ground for a review of judgment.—2 Hay 269.

4. Before a review can be granted upon the ground of the discovery of new matter, it must be stated in the petition and proved that the new matter was not within the applicant’s knowledge, or could not be adduced at the time when the decree was passed.—2 Hay 650 (Marshall 553). See also 2 W. R. 174; 10 W. R. 42, 122; 11 W. R. 197, 209; 12 W. R. 461, 536; 14 W. R. 26; 16 W. R. 7, 112; 17 W. R. 230, 458; 18 W. R. 413; 19 W. R. 189; 23 W. R. 438. See (F. B.) 97 post. But see 18 W. R. 15, 316.

5. The previous decision is not sufficient per se to show that the previous decision was wrong, or that it must be such as to cause an overpowering balance of evidence.—22 W. R. 288. See also 23 W. R. 322.

6. A Judge was held not competent by a second order passed in review to amend, arbitrarily and without any specified reason, a prior order passed in review.—L. R. 157.

7. It is not a sufficient ground for a review to urge that the applicant may be able to prove an important document upon a re-hearing. He must at least show that he had the evidence, and that it was discovered since the former hearing.—Sev. 34.

8. The notification of Act VIII of 1869 does not bar a second application for review of judgment after dismissal of the first.—W. R. Sp. 91.

9. Where a petition for review of judgment is presented after 90 days, the delay should be accounted for.—Ib. See also 17 W. R. 230.

10. Where a case admitted to review by one Judge is tried by another, the latter should try only the point directed by the order of review.—W. R. Sp. 141.

11. There is nothing irregular in granting in 1862 a review of a decision passed in 1854, and the order admitting the review was final under s. 378 Act VIII of 1809.—W. R. Sp. 252 (L. R. 16).

12. So as to justify the lower Court cannot admit a review of his predecessor’s judgment after the lapse of 90 days, unless just and reasonable cause is shown for the delay in the application.—W. R. Sp. 287. See also 6 W. R. 96, 167, 18 W. R. 286.

12. A Judge, cannot, by transferring a case to his own file, confer on himself the power to review an order of dismissal of a suit pronounced by a Principal Superintendent. His proceeding is one in excess of his jurisdiction, and may be corrected by the High Court under s. 85 Act XXIII of 1861.—W. R. Sp., Mis., 29 (L. R. 49).

13. The mere preferring of an appeal against judgment does not bar the admission of a review of that judgment.—W. R. Sp., Mis., 31.

14. Expedition in presenting a petition for review is indispensable with a view to the hearing of a review before, the same Judge who originally heard the case.—(F. C.) 3 W. R., P. C. 45 (P. C. R. 325).

15. Grant of review by Special Commissioners under Reg. III of 1828.—18.

16. Review not admissible by Revenue Courts against decrees passed by them in appealable cases.—1 W. R. 78.

17. A review of judgment can only be granted as regards those parties who appear or have applied for the review.—W. R. 292 (S. R. P. J. 274).

18. A second application for review of judgment can be admitted, although the first was rejected as founded on insufficient grounds.—1 W. R. 287, 2 W. R. 61.

20. S. 576 Act VIII applies to cases heard and decided in the presence of both parties, but not to the case of a person coming in under s. 110 and alleging that he had no knowledge of the suit.—2 W. R., Mis., 34. See 15 W. R. 451. But see 20 W. R. 284, 22 W. R. 218.

21. A petition of review ought not to be admitted after the time prescribed in s. 377 Act VIII without the leave of the High Court or a Judge.—8 W. R. 118. See also 14 W. R. 446.

22. A case should not be decided on the mere admission of an application for review; but a day should be notified for hearing.—3 W. R. 131.

23. A second application for review admitted erroneously may be rejected.—3 W. R. 191.

24. A Deputy Collector cannot review his order passed in execution of decree.—3 W. R. (Act X) 7 (4 R. J. P. 389).

25. The admission without new evidence of a review of a predecessor’s judgment is not per se a ground of special appeal.—3 W. R. (Act X) 109. See also 11 W. R. 187. See (F. B.) 97 post.

26. Second applications to the High Court for the review of a judgment or order how to be preferred.—3 W. R., Mis., 3.

27. There is no review of judgment by High Court on a reference from a Small Cause Court.—3 W. R., S. C. C., 8 (N. C. C. 130). See 41.

28. A Judge is not prevented from proceeding upon an application for review by reason of a subsequent presentation of an appeal.—(F. B.) 6 W. R. 89.

29. Quere: Whether a review can be admitted by a Lower Court after an appeal thereon has been preferred therefrom.—Ib.; 16 W. R. 112. But see 13 ante, and 36, 41, 47 post.

30. An order rejecting or admitting a review is not conclusive, but the Court may, by the exercise of its discretion, admit a second review even after a prior order rejecting it.—(F. B.) 5 W. R. 99. See (F. C.) 26 W. R. 50. But see 90 post.

31. Applications for review dismissed for mere default, may be re-admitted as appeals dismissed for defaults.—Ib.

32. Review not admissible of a judgment passed upon a compromise.—5 W. R. 226.

33. A Moonsiff cannot grant a review of his predecessor’s order on personal grounds and after 8 months’ delay.—Ib.

34. A Deputy Collector may entertain an application for a review of his predecessor’s judgment.—5 W. R. (Act X) 94. See 43 post.

35. Where a plaintiff who has obtained a decree against one of two defendants appeals to the Judge to make the other jointly liable, the decree may be reversed meanwhile on review upon the application of the defendant against whom it was given.—Ib. See 13, 29 ante, and 41, 47 post.

36. The High Court cannot entertain an application to review a judgment passed by it on appeal in a criminal case.—(F. B.) 5 W. R., Cr., 61. See also 17 W. R., Cr., 2. See also 18 W. R., Cr., 38.

37. Seemle. No Criminal Court subordinate to the High Court has the power to review its own judgment.—(F. B.) Ib.
DIGEST OF INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

58. A Court should give reasons, on review of judgment, for coming to a different conclusion from that which it had previously formed.—6 W. R. 18.

An application for review was declared within time and was possible a 2nd appeal by exclusion of the four-month vacation as due now.—6 W. R. 19. See 12 W. R. 21.

110. A review of judgment may be proceeded with after an appeal has been filed against it.—6 W. R. 110. See 13 W. R. 170. But see 12 W. R. 21.

4. Where a Court, at the time of granting an application for review, heard the whole matter, so much of the order as granted the application was final, but so much as disregarded the objection was upon appeal.—6 W. R. 301. See also 10 W. R. 367, 13 W. R. 138.

4. A Judge has power to admit a review of his predecessor's judgment unless hurried by the circumstances of the case.—579 Act VIII. 7 W. R. 316. See also 11 W. R. 197.

But the power should be carefully exercised and only upon ground of grave importance.—9 W. R. 125; 18 W. R. 195.

18. A Court may grant a review by reason of the mistake of the wrong parties.—25 W. R. 488; 24 W. R. 387, 410; 25 W. R. 43.

And only in case of necessity.—(P. C.) 3 W. R. 4, 6, 46 (P. C. R. 325) 20 W. R. 313.

4. A record should always be kept by a Judge of all appeals passed by him rejecting applications for review of judgment.—8 W. R. 108, 109.

4. A Court has power to grant a review of an order which it has passed under s. 216 Act VIII. The order granting the review is final under s. 378.—7 W. R. 79. See also 18 W. R. 175. (P. C.) 67, 175, 176.

4. Where a defendant, who was one of 27 defendants, had no reason to suppose that a decree for mesne profits against "the defendant" would have been executed against himself when he was not the person against whom the plaintiff sought for mesne profits in the original plaint, and came to Court for a review after the limited time, he was held to have had reasonable cause within the meaning of s. 378 Act VIII.—7 W. R. 166.

4. The preferring of an appeal against a decision by one defendant does not deprive another defendant of his right to apply for a review of the same decision with reference to s. 376 Act VIII.—1b, But see 19 W. 54.

4. A Lower Court has no jurisdiction to review a judgment appealed from, nor does an appeal lie from the judgment so passed on review.—7 W. R. 215.

4. When the decision of a Lower Court is admitted to review, the suit becomes a new one, to be governed by precedents in force at the time of such admission (e.g. subsequent Full Bench rulings).—7 W. R. 408. See 11 W. R. 84.

4. A previous review was refused when the first review was neither appealed against nor shown to be wrong.—7 W. R. 464.

51. The order of a Lower Appeal Court granting a new trial under the meaning of s. 375 Act VIII for a review of judgment after the date of the decree, without showing whether there was sufficient cause proved to his satisfaction for the delay, was held to be illegal under s. 378 Act VIII, and was with the subsequent proceedings thereon set aside as a special appeal.—8 W. R. 184. (Approved by P. C.) Lachman Singh.—60 E. L. R. 11.

52. A review granted without notice to the opposite party is null and void on him according to s. 378.—8 W. R. 304. See 18 W. R. 175.

53. Act VIII has removed the former inability of the Lower Courts to review their judgments without permission from the Superior Court.—6 W. R. 493.

54. A party applying, after Act VIII came into force, for a review of a judgment in appeal passed in 1840, is entitled to be governed by Rev. XXVI of 1817.—1b.

55. Neither Article XIV nor s. 375 Act VIII limits the time after which days an application for review may be filed.—1b.

56. Application for a review, on new evidence, of a judgment of the late Subder Court rejecting special appeal, was dismissed by the Court of original jurisdiction instead of to the High Court.—8 W. R. 511.

58. If the parties are aggrieved by the Court refusing to call a witness, and have appealed in a regular way without taking the objection, they cannot take it afterwards on review and make it the ground for a review of judgment.—9 W. R. 129.

59. An appeal lies from the order of a Lower Court deciding what is a just and reasonable cause for admitting an appeal for review after the prescribed period of 90 days has elapsed, and an Appellate Court has power to look at the reasonableness or sufficiency of the cause assigned for admitting such review.—(F. B.) 9 W. R. 181. See also 11 W. R. 181, 12 W. R. 94, 13 W. R. 120, 17 W. R. 163, 18 W. R. 42.

60. The mere fact that a special appeal had been preferred and admitted in the High Court against a decr*tral order of a Lower Appeal Court prevents any party to the latter from being heard on the merits.—9 W. R. 301, 11 W. R. 511, 14 W. R. 428. But see 47 W. R. 414.

61. The pendency of a special appeal is not a "just and reasonable cause," within the meaning of s. 377, for allowing time over the 90 days.—9 W. R. 394.

61a. The provisions of Act VIII regarding reviews of judgments are applicable to orders passed under Act XXVII of 1860.—9 W. R. 394, 24 W. R. 376.

62. A review can be had to set aside a clerical error in the judgment, after there has been a special appeal heard and determined; but such a review cannot be had to make a substantial alteration (e.g., as to an award of costs) in the judgment already appealed from.—9 W. R. 471. See 14 W. R. 428. But see 15 W. R. 414.

63. Reviews are not granted merely to supply defects on the part of pleaders in the conduct of appeals.—9 W. R. 586. See also 11 W. R. 105, 334; 17 W. R. 464; 19 W. R. 189; 24 W. R. 186, 430.

64. The Judges of the Subder Court, admitting an application for review, were held competent to make a qualified order leaving on the Court to review the decision, a discretion as to the extent to which the review should be carried.—9 W. R. 23.

65. Junior pleaders should be cautious how they certify for a review when they find that a case has been in the hands of more experienced counsel who have declined to certify.—10 W. R. 54.

66. An error on a point of law is a ground for a review of judgment.—10 W. R. 145. Held contra that it is a matter for appeal and not for review.—24 W. R. 392.

67. Although s. 376 Act VIII makes mention only of reviews of judgment in respect to decrees of Court, yet it authorizes reviews of orders which are not strictly speaking, decrees.—10 W. R. 345.

68. Where, in the absence of sickness of the plaintiff's pleader, a case is deemed ex parte, the proper course is to apply for a review. 10 W. R. 350.

69. Where a Lower Appeal Court, after affirming a decree to set aside a sale in execution, reviews its own judgment, the circumstances of the review being heard in the absence of the plaintiff is not an irregularity to be complained of.—10 W. R. 365.

70. The decision of a Full Bench, not upon a question of law, but upon the construction of a document, is not a ground for admitting a review of judgment after the time limited.—10 W. R. 415.

So also as to a decision of the Privy Council on a matter of fact.—18 W. R. 317.

71. Where an application to be allowed to sue as a pauper was rejected as barred by limitation, and an application for review of that judgment was granted, and the pauper plaintiff's suit decreed.—Held that the application for review not having been made within 90 days of the order to which it referred, and no just and reasonable cause having been shown for the delay, the application could not be entertained, and that the Court's decision in the suit was without jurisdiction.—11 W. R. 22. See also 18 W. R. 266. But see 13 W. R. 439.

72. Quaere. Whether a Court refuses to allow a plaintiff...

To sue as a proper, can an application for review of that order be entertained? 16 R. 57.

Though ss. 376 and 378 Act VIII contemplate two classes of circumstances, there is nothing in them to show that the finding under the one section, and the order under the other, cannot be recorded in one and the same proceeding. 11 W. R. 56.

47. Merely adding to a decree an order that it should bear interest from its date is not a review: and an application for such an order is not governed by limitation under s. 377. 11 W. R. 141.

74. Where a Small Cause Court was held to have had jurisdiction, with reference to s. 21 Act XI of 1865, to allow a review, and to grant, after such review, a fresh decree. 11 W. R. 445. See 14 W. R. 412.

75. After execution has once been taken out against a ryot under s. 78 Act X, a Collector has no power to review his judgment or put the ryot back into possession of his land. 11 W. R. 512.

76. Quaere. Whether under ss. 109 and 153 Act X a Collector has or has not power to review an order passed in execution. 11 W. R. 512.

77. The omission of the admission of evidence of an ex parte judgment by a Deputy Collector on the ground of non-service of notice, where the plaint, on notice being issued to him, appears and fails to show that the notice was served on defendant, is not a contravention of s. 56 Act X. 12 W. R. 237. See also 13 W. R. 237.

78. A Lower Appellate Court, admitting a review on grounds independent of fresh evidence, may, under s. 355 Act X, admit fresh evidence if necessary. 12 W. R. 233. See 14 W. R. 236, 16 W. R. 78.

80. Where a defendant in a suit decreed ex parte obtains a reversal of it under s. 119 Act VIII, no application for review may be entertained. 12 W. R. 409.

81. Where a case has been remanded for the trial of an issue, an application for review cannot be granted. 12 W. R. 409.

82. The decision for the rectification of a decree (e.g. in respect of interest and moneys profits) is not different from an application for a review where the object of the rectification is to alter the decision of the Court; and such a petition cannot be received after 90 days without just and reasonable cause shown for the delay. 13 W. R. 33, 11 W. R. 62. See also 23 W. R. 433.

83. Plaintiff’s suit having been decreed, the opposite party seeking to appeal setting aside the decree and declaring plaintiff’s suit barred by limitation. Plaintiff thereupon applied for a review of both judgments, although in relation to the former judgment his application was not within the time, on the ground that he had not been aggrieved by the first decree, and had therefore no occasion to ask for a review until the second decree was passed. Held that the words of s. 376 Act VIII supported plaintiff’s contention. 13 W. R. 69.

84. Where a review is admitted by the sole remaining Judge of a Division Bench of the High Court which heard the case originally, the propriety of the order for admission cannot be questioned by the opposite party, nor, if the order be wrong, can such error be corrected, on the rehearing of the appeal. 18 W. R. 82.

85. A Deputy Collector has no right to entertain a petition for review of judgment, under s. 58 Act X, after his decree has been modified by the Judge in appeal. 11 W. R. 414.

86. If a special appeal is presented and registered, it must be considered as “admitted” as used in s. 376 Act VIII, so as to bar a review of the judgment of the Lower Court. 14 W. R. 488.

87. A Special Judge of the High Court of the N. W. P. was held to have jurisdiction under s. 27 of the Charter of that Court to try a case which was heard in review before four Judges of the late Subber Court at Agra who were expired in opinion, and on which no final decision had been given in review at the time of the constitution of the High Court. (P. C.) 15 W. R., P. C., 16.

88. It cannot be treated as a universal rule that no point can be raised on an application for a review which has been already discussed and decided in the original hearing of the appeal, or that no new point which has not been raised at the hearing of the appeal can be argued on the application for review. In such case the Court of original application is made, must consider and decide whether a review is necessary to correct any evident error or omission, or is otherwise requisite for the ends of justice. (P. C.) 16 W. R., P. C., 16. See also 17 W. R. 470.

89. A Lower Appellate Court should not allow points to be explained away on review by admitting additional evidence. 15 W. R. 3.

90. Where an applicant for review is not informed at the time of his application that his petition is insufficiently stamped, he cannot at the time of hearing be refused permission to make up the proper valuation. 15 W. R. 278.

91. Omission of Judge to try any point from mistake, may be a ground for an application for review, but not for special appeal. 16 W. R. 131, 150.

92. Where a case was remanded, and the petitioner not having appeared was directed to make up an application to admit a special appeal, although it declined to do so in this case for want of satisfactory explanation. 17 W. R. 484. See also 18 W. R. 475.

93. Where a subordinate Judge hears and disposes of an appeal referred to him by the District Judge under s. 26 Act VI of 1871, he does so as District Judge, and has therefore, by implication, the same power to review his judgment as a District Judge has under s. 376 Act VIII. 18 W. R. 292.

94. Where defendants having separate interests bring separate special appeals which are dismissed, and on an application for review on the part of two of them the orders are modified but on grounds not applicable to all the defendants, held that, where the decrees are separate, the High Court cannot modify the decrees in which there is no application for review. 18 W. R. 461.

95. Where the plea that recovery of a portion of the tenure is not urged in the original hearing, and the title is found to have been procured fraudulently, it was not admitted as a ground for review. 19 W. R. 196.

96. Even if a Subordinate Judge is competent to review his order confirming a sale in execution, the inadequacy of price is not "a good and sufficient reason" according to s. 376 Act VIII and particularly without notice to the question-pursuer as provided by s. 378—19 W. R. 227, (affirmed by P. C.) 20 W. R. 14.

97. Every Court has the power to revise its own decisions so as to make them, in terms, accord with the intention entertained at the time of passing. But the Court of limited jurisdiction does not possess the general power of revision. 19 W. R. 303. But see (P. C.) 26 W. R. 50.

98. It has no power proprio iure to alter or amend its own judgment without an application for review. 20 W. R. 284. See 98 part.

99. An order granting a review of judgment on the ground of discovery of new evidence can be questioned in special appeal on the ground that there was enough or proof that the new evidence was not within the knowledge of the applicant at the hearing, or could not be ascribed to him by his conduct. (P. C.) 20 W. R. 81. See 20 W. R. 426; 22 W. R. 183, 288, 399; 27 W. R. 438; 21 W. R. 186; 25 W. R. 324, 313; (P. C.) 26 W. R. 50.

100. The inferior Courts in the Mofussil have no jurisdiction to review their own judgments except under the circumstances and with the limitations set forth in the Code of Civil Procedure. 20 W. R. 180. See 98 ante.

101. Where a plaintiff who has obtained an incomplete decree applies for and obtains a review on the ground that he was entitled, upon the allegations and proofs on the record, to the full relief which he had sought, it is not open to the defendant then to cite witnesses whom he ought to have cited at the time. 20 W. R. 225.

100. A mere refusal to grant a review of judgment cannot alter the judgment sought to be reviewed or the decree founded upon it, and nothing which the Judge says with reference to his refusal to grant the review can be consid-

105. Under s. 376 Act VIII a review of judgment was held to be properly admitted on the ground that the party applying for it, although he knew of the existence of the new matter or evidence before, was unable to adduce it at the time the decree was passed.—22 W. R. 161.

106. With reference to s. 376 and 377, there is not an absolute defect of jurisdiction in a Judge to entertain an application for review, whenever the parties have failed to show that there was either positive error in law, or new evidence to be brought forward which could not be brought forward on the first hearing.—(P. Practice (Suit).

1. A party may be a defendant is entitled to a decision on his case. See 76, 78.

2. Under Act VIII of 1850 the court will not entertain an application on summons for the discontinuance of a suit.—2 Hyde 184.

3. The Court, in ordering witnesses out of Court, will allow principals to remain except when cogent reasons to the contrary are shown.—2 Hyde 249.

4. A plaintiff will not be allowed to set up one case, and having proved another, to ask for issues to be raised to suit the proofs but when a plaintiff and its proof necessarily lead to one or more particulars issues, it is the duty of the Court, if these issues do not come out by surprise on the defendant, to raise such issues and to give the relief thereon to which the plaintiff is entitled.—2 Hyde 263.

5. The Court will not order a defendant to furnish the plaintiff with a list of documents till after the plaintiff shall have filed his written statement.—2 Hyde 270.

6. Suits partially decided before Act VIII of 1856 must be held to be pending under s. 387.—W. R. Sp. 35.

7. Under s. 138 Act VIII of 1859 a Court is not bound to send for more than the papers specifically mentioned in the application.—W. R. Sp. 272.

8. When parties themselves do not demur to an action, it may be presumed that there is no ground for it, and it is not for the Court to raise or determine on grounds not appearing in the statements of the parties before it.—W. R. Sp. 281 (1 Llt. 64).

9. The leave to file a supplemental answer given under s. 9 Reg. IV of 1793, did not warrant the defendant to make a totally new case, and state facts at direct variance with the statement in the first answer, and completely change the issue in the cause.—(P. C.) P. C. R. 231.

10. Objection to a question that it is contrary to morality or public policy, should not be allowed if no issue has been presented by the pleadings or the points recorded for proof.—(P. C.) W. R. 8, P. C. 38 (P. R. 386).

11. Where a plaintiff on a writ of certiorari failed to obtain relief and is unable to obtain a trial of the facts by reason of certain conclusions of law which the Judge forms on the case in its then condition, the Courts are bound to proceed on the facts as stated in the plaint and upon the admission of the truth of those facts.—(P. C.) 5 W. R., P. C. 83 (P. C. R. 632).

12. In trying a question of fact, no Judge is justified in setting principally on his own knowledge and belief to make a totally new case, and state facts at direct variance with the statement in the first answer, and completely change the issue in the cause.—(P. C.) 7 W. R., P. C. 27 (P. C. R. 682). See also Judgment 6.

13. A Judge may under s. 138 Act VIII send for and inspect any document filed with any record in his Court and may base his decision wholly or mainly thereon.—1 W. R. 63. See also 6 W. R. 79.

14. When the grounds invinuendo defence in one case are inapplicable to other cases, these must be separately and specifically adjudicated.—1 W. R. 85.

15. Re-examination of witnesses and taking of fresh evidence not necessary where the ground on which the former suit, in which the same point was at issue between the same parties, has, by consent of parties, become the record in the present suit.—1 W. R. 310. See also 10 W. R. 37, 15 W. R. 181.

16. Meaning of the words “Revenue Office of the district or subdivision” used in s. 162 Act X of 1859 as the place where a suit for rent is to be instituted.—3 W. R. (Act X) 12.

17. A Collector's Court is bound under s. 65 Act X to try all material issues,—3 W. R. (Act X) 105; 9 W. R. 216; 10 W. R. 169.

18. A Court ought not to decide a case merely upon the ground of variance between the allegation in the plaint and the proof.—5 W. R. (Act X) 123; 6 W. R. (Act X) 102; 9 W. R. 216; 10 W. R. 169.

19. A Court should not, without explanation and enquiry, permit documents to be filed after most of the witnesses have been examined.—6 W. R. 29.

20. Where a day has been fixed for hearing witnesses, a Court is not competent to decide the case before that day in the absence of the witnesses, on the ground that no amount of witnesses would be believed.—6 W. R. 90.

21. The Courts in India are not governed by the technical rules of pleading which obtain in Courts administering English law.—7 W. R. 39.

22. Although a case may be set down for final disposal, yet, if it is clear that further evidence is required, the Judge is bound under s. 146 Act VII, to adjourn the case, unless he is satisfied that plaintiff has, without sufficient cause, failed to produce his evidence.—7 W. R. 84, 21 W. R. 226.

23. Decree for part of claim.—See Dismissal of Suit or Appeal 2.

24. A Judge is not bound, under s. 138 Act VII, upon the application of any of the parties to a suit, to send for the record of any other suit.—7 W. R. 109, 18 W. R. 13.

25. An equitable defence may be set up at the trial, although not put forward in the written statement.—7 W. R. 120.
26. When a defendant pleads a jagerherd's proprietary rights against a malik's, the Court cannot award a subordinate right of occupancy not arising out of the right pleaded. — 7 W. R. 145.

27. The issues should be framed from all questions of law or fact upon which the parties may be at issue, and collected, not merely from the plaint, nor from the written statements, but from the oral statements of the pleaders also.— 8 W. R. 162, 15 W. R. 286. But see 10 W. R. 28.

And from the evidence adduced. — 16 W. R. 44.

28. s. 139 Act VIII authorizes a Court to frame issues on the facts collected from the oral examinations of the parties or their pleaders, notwithstanding there be a discrepancy between these allegations and the written statements.— 8 W. R. 361, 12 W. R. 512, 16 W. R. 218.

29. Courts of first instance should not, after a suit is finished, accept fresh evidence without good reason.— 8 W. R. 461.

30. Where a Judge transfers a suit to his own filo after the principal Subahir Ameen has fixed the issues and discovered the evidence, he must take the evidence de novo.— 8 W. R. 465.

31. Mode of procedure by Revenue Courts under Act X in regard to a day for hearing. — 9 W. R. 216.

32. A plaintiff cannot be entitled to relief upon facts or documents not stated or referred to by him in his pleadings. Thus where plaintiff sued upon a simple money-bond, and afterwards filed evidence to show that the principal defendant purported to secure a further advance on the security of the remainder estates, Held that plaintiff's cause of action upon the first bond on which he sued lay only against the principal defendant, and that plaintiff could not, relying on the second bond, proceed against the other defendants.— 9 W. R. 331, 15 W. R. 231, 15 W. R. 465.

33. Where plaintiff does not establish his case, the Law Court must go into evidence and give plaintiff a decree because defendant has failed to prove his case.— 10 W. R. 211, 21 W. R. 330. See 56 post.

34. Act VIII does not authorize a Court to try a different cause of action from that set out in the plaint.— 15 W. R. 212, 16 W. R. 211.

35. A Corporation must sue and be sued in its corporate name. 8. 26 Act VIII points out how a Corporation is to be described in the plaint, and s. 63 how proceedings are to be served on a Corporation.— 10 W. R. 366. See also 15 W. R. 534.

36. In a suit to recover land alleged to have formed part of a settlement when it has been unequally divided into separate shares.— 11 W. R. 301, 359; 12 W. R. 209, 248: 15 W. R. 84: 24 W. R. 414. But see 15 W. R. 155.

37. Not the written statements of parties, but the issues framed under Act VIII, are the index of what has been, and what has to be adjudicated.— 12 W. R. 229, 14 W. R. 181. See 56 post.

38. Where plaintiffs claim on an alleged title, and their allocation is not traversed by defendant, their position requires no further proof.— 12 W. R. 480.

39. Where a suit dismissed by a Deputy Collector, who dies before recording judgment, is made over for trial, the latter is not obliged to examine witnesses and take evidence de novo unless requested by the parties to be so.— 13 W. R. 76.

40. A Court is not bound in any case to raise or try an issue upon the existence of a right, unless the party who possesses the right asserts its existence and claims to have its continuance.— 13 W. R. 76.

41. A Court is not bound to decide any question not raised in the plaint.—21 W. R. 332.

42. According to s. 65 Act X, the issues are to be decided unless the pleadings be framed principally from the examination of the parties.—Jh.

43. In a suit on a registered bond in which defendant asked the Court to send for the registration books with a view to prove the non-existence of the bond at the time it purported to be certificated, but had failed to summon the Deputy Registrar.—Held that it was not necessary for the Judge to use the discretion given him by s. 130 Act VIII.— 19 W. R. 302.

45. Where there is a general pleading in a district against a party to a suit, and such party fails to notice that he is not likely to have a fair trial before the local Judge with that feeling in the district against him, his proper course, is to petition the European Judge to remove the case into his own Court and to try it in the first instance. — (P. C) 15 W. R. 5, F. C. 8.

46. Where a suit is brought against two persons, it is competent to the Court to raise an issue whether one of them is solely liable, and on finding that one only is liable to pass a separate decree against that person. — 15 W. R. 69.

47. Plaintiff's claim must stand or fall upon the strength of his own case.— 15 W. R. 91. See 39 above.

48. Where a number of cases are instituted against the same defendant relating to the same matter, and plaintiff applies to have them all tried together, the Judge ought not to try one separately and dismiss it governed by his decision in that one case.—15 W. R. 110.

49. Issues are to be fixed under s. 139 Act VIII when both parties appear. The Court is not bound to fix any issue where the defendant does not appear, but must proceed under s. 111 to hear the case ex parte.— 15 W. R. 145.

50. Before a document can be inspected under s. 138 Act VIII, the Court must decide whether it comes under the description of a public record.—15 W. R. 173.

51. Where, if defendant had not appeared, the Court would have been bound, under s. 113 Act VIII, to adjourn the hearing on the ground that sufficient time had not been given,—Held that his appearing ought not to put him in a worse position, and that time should be given him to produce evidence.— 18 W. R. 114.

52. It is the duty of a Court to act upon the issues and proofs in the case, and not to throw aside the whole evidence and give effect to its suspicion.—(P. C) 18 W. R. 183.

53. Where Kheerak papers which formed the very essence of the action were not filed or produced by the plaintiff within the time prescribed by law, the Court was held justified in rejecting them when subsequently tendered in evidence.— 18 W. R. 515.

54. How a Court which has to deal with facts should take up the evidence.—19 W. R. 213.

55. When several cases are before a Court, and the subject of suit and the defendants differ with each case, the Court has no authority to order them to be tried as one case against the will of the parties; and without the consent of the parties no such consolidation can be effected by the Court as to make the evidence give rise to two or more cases in the same Court in the same Court in the same action.—21 W. R. 196.

But where parties to other suits agree to abide by the result of the decision in one, the suits should be analogous, so that one decision might decide all questions at issue.—15 W. R. 533.

56. The parties to a suit have a right to insist upon a public hearing of the whole case before the same Judge, although they may, either expressly or implicitly, consent to the suit being determined by a Judge who has not been present throughout the trial and to his taking into consideration evidence which has not been given before him.—21 W. R. 196.

57. Where the plaintiff contained an averment that the 2nd defendant, who was the 1st defendant's servant, committed the wrongful act complained of illegally and maliciously, and the Judge below dismissed the suit against the 2nd defendant but allowed it to proceed against the 1st defendant,—Held that the plaintiff ought not to have been put to the option of abandoning his suit against either the 1st or 2nd defendant, but that the suit should have been tried out, and that, after the evidence had been heard, the judgment of the Court should have been given against the party whose liability was made out; also that the allegations contained in the plaint against the 2nd defendant were not correctly stated in the plaint; although, if malice were directly proved against the 2nd defendant, he alone might be liable, yet on the plaintiff abandoning that allegation, or failing to prove it, he might

Be entitled to a verdict against the 1st defendant.—

81 W. R. 199.

88. A defendant is not precluded from setting up a defence which does not appear in his written statement when the plaint does not set forth the true facts.—

21 W. R. 407.

69. A Court in which a suit is pending may send for the records from any other Court, the ordinary rules of that other Court notwithstanding.—

21 W. R. 355.

63. Unless a party asks the Judge to postpone his decision in order to enable him to produce his evidence in support of his side of the case, the Judge is competent to determine the causa justa the day when the issues are settled, if he is satisfied that the evidence then before him is decisive of the matter in dispute between the parties.—

22 W. R. 425.

61. A Court is not under any obligation as to the order in which it is to try the issues which are raised before it, but may dispose of them in the way which is considered most likely to conduco to the ascertainment of the truth.—

23 W. R. 64.

62. Where a number of defendants are interested in resisting a suit, judgment cannot be given against all unless there is evidence which binds them all.—

23 W. R. 80.

63. A plaintiff’s case ought not to be prejudiced by his omission to bring proof specifically on a point which was not in issue.—

23 W. R. 292.

64. A Judge was held wrong in dismissing a rent-suit because it was brought as a civil suit and not under Act VII of 1859 (B. C.); that Act merely restores to Civil Courts the powers taken from them by Act X of 1859.—

Pre-emption.

Pre-emption.

1. The right of — according to Mahomedan law may be exercised upon a re-sale of the property, after a previous sale which has fallen through and with respect to which no claim of was made.—

1 Hay 32 (Marshall 11). See also 7 W. R. 206.

2. It cannot be exercised by a judgment-creditor in respect of the sale of property in execution of his decree.—

2 Hay 631 (Marshall 555).

3. The facts which constitute the cause of action in a claim to — under the Mahomedan law should be distinctly stated in the judgment.—

1 Mack. 289.

1. The right of — under the Mahomedan law does exist by custom among Hindus in Behar and other provinces of Western India. — (F. B.) W. R. 9, 560 (Sev. 466a),

W. R. 205.

Seq. 18 W. R. 21; 19 W. R. 189; 17 W. R. 264.

It also prevails by custom among Hindus in Jessore.—

And so in Bengal.—

25 W. R. 199.

Not proved to prevail among the Hindus of Chattisgarg. —

1 W. R. 234; 5 W. R. 237; 9 W. R. 537.

Nor amongst Hindus in Tarnah.—

11 W. R. 251.

Nor between Mahomedans and Hindus in Sylhet.-

1 W. R. 203. But see 16 W. R. 223.

5. In a suit for — under the Mahomedan law, it was held necessary to find whether plaintiff had notice of the previous sale, and whether he at that time refused to pay the price for which the land was in fact sold, or whether he claimed the right of — within a reasonable time after the fact of sale came to his knowledge.—

Seq. 364.

6. An enquiry is necessary in such cases as to whether all the conditions of — required by Mahomedan law have been fulfilled.—

Seq. 572.

7. Under the Mahomedan law it is essential to the right of — to prove the performance of the sullabbi-askhad. —

8. When a Mahomedan claims — against a Hindu under Mahomedan law, there must be a distinct plea of custom as a plea of fact.—

W. R. Sp. 74.

9. In a suit for — proof of the preliminaries prescribed by the Mahomedan law is essential.—

The preliminaries being sullabbi-askhad but sullabbi-

14 W. R. 265; 24 W. R. 462; 499.

10. According to Mahomedan law, the affirmation by witness need not be made by the claim of the right of — in person, but may be made by agent.—

W. R. Sp. 219; 12 W. R. 484.

11. According to Mahomedan law, whose either seller or buyer repudiates the sale, there can be no sale: so neither can there be any right of — in such a case.—

12. A transfer without consideration is not a sale to which the right of — attaches.—

W. R. Sp. 389 (L. R. 33).

2 W. R. 78.

13. The delay caused by a claimant springing up from his seat to assert his right of — is not sufficient to entail forfeiture of that right.—

W. R. Sp. 294 (L. R. 77).

13 W. R. 259.

14. A person having been offered his right of — and having refused it, cannot afterwards re-assert that right as against a sale made with his direct permission to a third

He must be deemed to have waived his right.—24 W. R. 198.

15. According to Hindu law — is not a right, but it is only allowed and practised by custom in some places.

Before it can be claimed anywhere, its existence there as custom has to be proved.—W. R. 8 p. 311 (L. R. 96). See also 8 W. R. 204; 19 W. R. F. B. 21.

16. Where a party sues under a title — by an estate which has been sold, he cannot claim to recover money paid as rent on account of the estate, until the suit has been decided.—W. R. 8 p. 373.

17. In an imperfect, as in a perfect, putativee village, the shares in each puttee have a pre-convivial claim to — in the same rank as that of me, — 2 W. R. 10; 14 W. R. 77; 5 W. R. 163; 10 W. R. 314; 11 W. R. 71. See 62 post.

18. A right of — does not bind the claimant to carry money in his hand and tender it to the first purchaser (at the time of making his demand).—2 W. R. 10; 10 W. R. 211; 11 W. R. 71; 275; 22 W. R. 4.

19. A right of — is lost where there is a dispute as to the amount of purchase-money (e.g. where plaintiff claims so much land at such a price and that claim is shown to be unreasonable).—2 W. R. 38; 7 W. R. 210.

21. A mere declaration of an intention to exercise a right not yet accrued, is not a claim of a right of. — It is immaterial whether a formal demand of — is made any other time than after the sale becomes absolute.—16.

As soon as a contract is ratified by acceptance, and the vendor has gone so far that he cannot legally draw back, it is time for the preemptor to step in.—22 W. R. 4.

22. A claim on the ground of violation alone will not lie in the case of large estates, but only when either houses or small holdings of lord make parties such near neighbours as to give a claim on the ground of convenience and material services.—2 W. R. 261. See also 8 W. R. 2, 310, 413; 10 W. R. 356; 11 W. R. 251, (affirmed by F. R.) 14 W. R. F. B. 1.

23. A right of — cannot be asserted as to only a portion of lands to be sold.—2 W. R. 295; 10 W. R. 579; 14 W. R. 469.

Where but two perfectly distinct estates are sold, as to one of which a party has a right of — and as to the other not, it would be unreasonable to hold, either that he could claim both properties or neither. The only reasonable rule seems to be that he can claim that property as to which his right of — would attach if it were sold separately.—25 W. R. 499.

24. Where there is a plurality of persons entitled to the privilege of — the right of all is equal without reference to the extent of their shares in the property, and none is entitled to preference on the ground of being a neighbour.—3 W. R. 71; 7 W. R. 150.

25. The claimant for — must make the preliminary declaration. Going into his house to get the money before making the preliminary declaration is not a compliance with the law.—5 W. R. 203.

26. The right of — by a Mahomedan as against a Hindu purchaser can only be enforced in Tipperah after proof of the right or custom existing generally in that part of the country in cases in which Mahomedans are not, or only partially, concerned.—5 W. R. 270. See 13 W. R. F. B. 1.

27. A delay of one day will not affect a right of.—6 W. R. 173. (Overruled by F. R.) 16 W. R. F. B. 13; and see 13 W. R. 259.

28. The ceremony of affirmation should be carried out before either the vendor or the purchaser, or be performed in their presence.—16 W. R. 37.

Or in the presence of the person in possession of the lands, whether he be the vendor or purchaser.—16 W. R. 37.

29. No right of — can exist under the Mahomedan law as against a Mahomedan purchaser.—6 W. R. 401; 25 W. R. 123.

30. The custom of — as applicable to Christians in Bengal, has proceeded on the same principle as has been applied to Hindus in Behar.—16.

31. As also to Christians in Behar.—8 W. R. 446.

32. The right of — accruing during minority is not to be kept suspended until majority.—7 W. R. 86.

33. A claim to mesne profits due before the date on which a right to — arose, cannot form the subject of. — 7 W. R. 117.

34. The proceedings in two former suits where, under similar circumstances, though the exercise of the right was disputed on other grounds, the existence of the right was admitted, may be received in evidence in support of the custom, as forming a well-known exception to the usual rule which excludes res inter alios acta.—7 W. R. 210.

35. In a suit to enforce a right of — the purchaser need not be put on his oath, except the case cannot be decided on other evidence; the evidence for the plaintiff being preferred only where the evidence is evenly balanced.—7 W. R. 211, 486.

36. The Mahomedan law of — was never intended to apply to a case where the purchaser is not a stranger, but is either a shareholder or neighbour.—7 W. R. 260. See 2 W. R. 107.

37. A claim to — should be made as soon as the claimant becomes aware of the completion of the sale.—7 W. R. 428. See also 13 W. R. 359.

38. The right of — applies only to sales, and not to a lease in perpetuity with a rent reserved.—8 W. R. 107.

39. The Mahomedan law does not recognise the right of — in favour of a mere tenant upon the land.—8 W. R. 437.

40. The right of — is not matter of title to property, but is rather a right to the benefit of a contract.—8 W. R. 416. See also 15 W. R. 223.

41. When a contract has been entered into for the sale and purchase of certain property, a pre-emptor is not bound to defer the enforcement of his right till the bill of sale is delivered or registered or payment made.—8 W. R. 500. But see 8 W. R. 255.

42. More possession gives to huk shaffe according to Mahomedan law, there must be ownership (wilihi) in the contiguous lands.—9 W. R. 155.

43. A decree for — cannot be made conditional on payment of money within a specified time.—10 W. R. 53.

44. Where a plaintiff sues to enforce her right of — in property sold as belonging to several co-sharing some of whom are minors, and in appeal withdraws her claim as to the minors, such withdrawal entirely invalidates her claim to enforce her right of.—10 W. R. 111.

45. Where several purchase from one, the shaffe may take the proportion of any one of them; but when one purchase from several, the shaffe may turn the whole, but not any particular share.—16.

46. Act 1 of 1841 and s. 11 Act XXXIII of 1861 are not applicable to permanently settled estates in Sylhet, nor (unless extended) to the estates in any district in Bengal.—10 W. R. 165.

47. When property is sold by public auction in execution of a decree, and the neighbour or partner has an opportunity to bid for the property as other parties present in Court, the law of — cannot apply to such sales.—16. See also 15 W. R. 455.

48. A plaintiff suing to establish a right of — on the ground of co-partnership with the vendor, cannot obtain a decree by right of vicinage.—10 W. R. 189.

49. The right of — pertains to a partner with immunities and appendages of the land, such as the right of water.—10 W. R. 314. See 16 W. R. 223; 17 W. R. 343.

50. Possession of a separate share of an estate divided by butnara, gives the owner no right of — as a shaffe khulet after the remaining portion.—11 W. R. 109, 215. See 15 W. R. 225; 16 W. R. 110.

51. No custom prevails among Hindus, giving a right of — on the ground of vicinage.—11 W. R. 251.

52. According to Mahomedan law, before a right to — can arise, there must be a grant or assignment of the ownership in the property sold.—11 W. R. 292. See 18 W. R. 182.

53. The fact of water flowing from a dhighe over plaintiff's land to the land in dispute was held sufficient to establish plaintiff's claim as shaffe khulet.—12 W. R. 162.

54. A partner's right of shaffe is not extinguished until a formal division has taken place defining each co-

18 W. IV. 440, 24 W. IV. 95.
56. The term shereek cannot be restricted to cases in which the parties enjoy the property jointly.—15 W. II. 124.
57. A sherek (or partner in the substance of the thing sold) is preferred to a sha- or hok (partner in the rights of water or way); and where plaintiff relies as shereek, the court ought not to raise the issue as to whether he called a sha- or hok.—15 W. II. 199. See also 15 W. III. 225.
58. The tullub-i-muntasibat was held not performed where the claimant went from his own house to the land in dispute, within a day after his demand.—13 W. II. 259.
And where the claimant, though aware of the sale of the property three or four days after execution of the deed of sale, did not make his claim until a month and two days after the deed was registered.—25 W. II. 9.
The mere fact that a pre-emptor takes a short time to ascertain whether the news of the sale is correct or not does not invalidate the tullub-i-muntasibat.—13 W. II. 299.
59. The right of — to a contract by purchase and sale, and is not injured or dissolved by any subsequent dissolution of the contract.—13 W. II. 332.
As to former.—20 W. II. 216.
60. Where Hindoos have adopted the Mahomendan law of — amongst themselves, a Mahomendan may enforce that right against them.—ib.
61. A plaintiff having a right of — to property sold, is entitled to have the property repurchased by himself or by his purchaser, but not to the benefit of an arrangement by which a portion of the price has been allowed to remain in the purchaser’s hands that he may pay off a mortgage debt.—15 W. II. 435.
62. A partner, not in a house or small enclosure, but in a considerable estate, has a right, according to Mahomendan law, to — when one of his co- sharers in such estate sells his share to a stranger.—(P. B.) 14 W. II. F. R. 1.
See also 15 W. III. 266, 305; 15 W. III. 223.
63. A party who claimed certain land by right of — and failed to set up her rights in a suit in which the purchaser of that land sued her for possession and obtained a decree, is not entitled to bring a fresh suit to enforce the same rights.—14 W. III. 272.
64. In order to establish a right of — on the part of a sharer, it is not necessary that the property sold should be in actual possession of the sharer.—(P. B.) 14 W. II. F. R. 1.
See also 15 W. III. 266, 305; 15 W. III. 223.
65. Properties having separate numbers in the Collector’s rent-roll are separate estates in the legal sense of the word estate, implying such a separation as bars a claim to — on the ground of copar-ancy.—14 W. IV. 170.
66. Public thoroughfares give no right of —
15 W. III. 225.
67. It is not a binding rule of law that the tullubi-muntasibat, made within a day after the receipt of intelligence of the purchase, necessarily is in time for the preservation of the right of —; the due and sufficient observance of that formality, as to time, is a question to be decided in each case, by the Court which has to deal with the facts.—(P. B.) 14 W. IV. F. R. 11.
68. A coparcener has a higher right of — than a neighbou.—16 W. IV. 107.
69. Where the right of — was claimed by a Hindoo and the land was a European, it was held that the right arose from a rule of law by which the owner of the land was bound, and which existed no longer if there ceased to be an owner who was bound by custom; and that the right was not a mere personal one in the pre-emptor, who had it only as a co-sharer or neighbour and lost it on his ceasing to be either.—18 W. IV. 440.
70. A party who, through execution proceedings, obtains a possession of land which is bound by a right of —, ought to have the benefit of the purchase-money which the preemptor is to pay.—20 W. IV. 216.

71. A guardian is not competent to assert a right of — and make a contract of purchase on behalf of a minor, borrowing money in order to complete the purchase, and thereby binding the minor.—13 W. II. 308.
72. On the question of — the Court must act in strict accordance with the provisions of the Mahomendan law rather than on what it thinks just and equitable.—
22 W. IV. 4.
73. In a suit to establish a right of —, where the plaint is framed on a right of shieka kheliet, plaintiff ought not to be allowed to shift his ground and make out a new case as shieka yakut.—21 W. IV. 355.

Principal and Agent.

1. An agent cannot, without express authority, appoint a general agent in his own place.—Scv. 0, 1, 55.

2. Where a general manager of an indigo factory, but without any special authority to borrow money, did not sign the contract as agent, and it was not shown that the money borrowed was expended on account of the factory, he was held personally liable.—Scv. C, 61.

3. Where a party making a contract as agent, bond false but erroneously believes that such authority is vested in him, he is personally liable.—Scv. C, 94.

4. It is in accordance with the custom of the country to recognize the use in bonds of gomashas' or agent's names, instead of the names of their principals.—1 Hay 21 (Marshall 3).

5. In a suit to recover money paid to the defendant who had undertaken to carry on a law-suit as an — for the plaintiff but never fulfilled his part of the contract, it was held that the money was not advanced solely and wholly in order to furnish the defendant with funds to meet the expenses of the law-suit; and that as the defendant had taken delivery from the Government for the plaintiff of property consisting of cash and jewels amounting to five lakhs of rupees which he remitted to his principal, the plaintiff was entitled to a decree for only so much of the money sued for as remained after allowing the defendant a set-off of 1 per cent. on the gross value of the property taken delivery of by him.—1 Hay 411.

6. A suit for rent, under Act X of 1859, may be instituted by a gomasha in his name and on behalf of his employer without his being expressly empowered by a special power of attorney.—2 Hay 426 (Marshall 384). See 10 W. R. P. 59, 11 W. R. 43, 10 W. R. 254.

7. Although a general agent may not have power to borrow money for his principal, yet the authority to borrow in a particular case may be shown by a previous authority, either express or implied, or by subsequent ratification.—2 Hay 644 (Marshall 544).

8. A Rajah instituted a suit under Act X of 1859 through an agent appointed in that behalf. The Deputy Collector cited the Rajah himself to appear and be examined. He excused himself on the ground of privilege under s. 22 Act VIII of 1859 and petitioned that the evidence of his general agent might be taken. The Deputy Collector, without examining the general agent, dismissed the suit on the ground that the suit ought to have been instituted by the general agent, and that the Rajah himself was bound to obey his citation. Held that the Deputy Collector was bound to receive the evidence of the general agent, and to decide the case upon the evidence which was tendered; and that the refusal of the Rajah who had the privilege which he claimed, and his appointment of a special agent or moqullar for the purposes of his suit, instead of the general agent, were no ground for dismissing the suit.—Marshall 627.

9. An admission of an agent is not equivalent to an agreement for rent justifying a claim for 11 years' arrears of rent.—1 R. J. P. J. 160.

10. If a principal suspends an agent, the agency must be held to have been determined, within the meaning of s. 33 Act X of 1859, from the time of the suspension.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 8 (2 R. J. P. J. 21); 5 W. R. (Act X) 91; 6 R. (Act X) 27.

11. A and B appeared to bid for certain putures offered for sale by competition, but agreed, instead of bidding against each other, to take certain properties jointly. The putures were accordingly taken by C. The A sued C and D, for specific performance of C's agreement. Held that A's abstaining from competition of the putures under verbal agreement with B was a sufficient consideration for his written agreement with C for the conveyance of the one-fourth share of the putures to A, but subsequently went and paid the purchase-money and had the putures registered in the name of B, repudiating his agreement with A. A sued C and D for specific performance of C's agreement. Held that A's abstaining from competition of the putures under verbal agreement with B was a sufficient consideration for his written agreement with C for the conveyance of the one-fourth share of the putures to A, D pleaded that he was the real purchaser, and that B was his agent for whom he was not liable. Held that, as D accepted and benefited by the act of his agent B, he was bound by B's stipulation, particularly as, in B's dealings with A, B's agency was not disclosed to A, but B acted as himself the purchaser.—Scv. 9.

12. Plaintiff having sued the ex-King of Oude, and him, as the principal, for contracts made by an alleged authorized agent, was bound to adduce more full and satisfactory proof in support of his allegation of authorized agency by implication.—Scv. 597.

14. Effect of the insolvent of an agent upon contracts made by him with third parties on behalf of an undischarged principal.—2 Hyde 281.

15. If the principal adopts the acts of an agent in the purchase of a property, he must take the property subject to the conditions with which the agent encumbered it, notwithstanding any secret arrangement between them not known to third parties.—W. R. Sp. 3.

16. An agent's assent to be bound by the statement of a particular witness is not an assent to arbitration, but within his general authority to carry on his principal's suits.—W. R. Sp. 142.

16a. A telegrapher, using for the rent of the mehal of which he makes collections, must be presumed to be an agent with personal knowledge authorized by s. 55 Act X to present a statement of claim from it.—Scv. 142.

17. Where plaintiff's agent is unable to give sufficient evidence, the Court should, under s. 64 Act X of 1859, require the attendance of the principal, and not dismiss the suit with reference to s. 56, which has nothing to do with a case after it has proceeded to hearing.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 61 (2 R. J. P. J. 214).

PRINCIPAL AND AGENT (continued).

A principle and the agent accordingly goes to the auction and bids for the goods which is known to him, but collateral and add in a bye manner enters into a distinct and separate contract with an individual that, in consequence of something to be done or to be foreborne, he will pledge his principal to pay to that individual a certain sum, the principal cannot be bound by this bye transaction on the part of the agent. (P.C.) 6 W. R. 2, C. 87 (P. C. R. 469).

19. Liability of agent where he mixes up his private transactions with those of his principal by borrowing for both.—2 W. R. 186.

20. A mere admission of an agency to sell will not necessarily raise a presumption of an authority to buy on credit; or a wise to pledge the credit of the principal.—2 W. R. 231.

21. A principal can determine at his mere pleasure the authority given to an agent.—3 W. R. 41.

22. It is not within the reasonable scope of the authority of an assistant in an indigo factory to purchase any amount of indigo seed for his master, and to make his master liable, particularly where the seed was not purchased or used in the factory, and though it was purchased, in writing to the vendor for the seed, styled himself in the body of the letter as the manager of the concern, yet his signing himself for another person, and not for the owner of the factory, and the vendor, and not the owner of the factory was his principal.—3 W. R. 123.

23. Nature of proof necessary to establish a prima facie case of constructive purchase by agent out of the funds of the principal.—1 W. R. 239.

24. An agent employed in collecting rent cannot question the title of his principal to receive the rent, but must pay him all that he collects.—5 W. R. (Act X) 3.

25. The interest of an agent being employed cannot affect the right of the principal to receive money due to him.—4 W. R. 86.

26. Where defendant (a servant of Government) gave orders for bricks, and plaintiff was aware that defendant was a servant of Government, and that the bricks were required for building bridges on account of Government, the Government, and not defendant personally, was held liable.—4 W. R. 1, C. C. 12.

27. An agent who deals with another man's goods as if they belonged to his principal, may be answerable to the true owner, notwithstanding that he acts by the command or direction of his principal.—4 W. R., R. C. 1.

28. Where the co-sharer in occupancy of the land is not entitled to claim shares for his own use of co-sharer for money drawn by him under a power from his principal and not as trustee for the others.—5 W. R. 172.

29. In a contract, an agent is not entitled to sell against the will of the principal, even if the contract is valid, and if the defendant never was employed by him or acted as his agent.—5 W. R. (Act X) 15, 36.

30. Plaintiff need not be summoned under s. 64 Act X, where defendant does not allege plaintiff's knowledge as to certain deductions claimed by defendant and plaintiff admits the class and description of the deductions; but the cause is on defendant to prove the amount.—5 W. R. (Act X) 64.

31. Statements fraudulently made by an agent for his own benefit are not binding on the principal.—6 W. R. 252.

32. A man's agent for the purchase of estate is not necessarily his agent to re-convy; nor would the very common incident of the member of a joint Hindu family, suing on behalf of the family, constitute him their agent so that he could by him would bind the others.—7 W. R. 353.

33. Obligation of an agent under s. 24 Act X to render an account for moneys received, and how such account may be rendered.—7 W. R. 452. See also 9 W. R. 520, 58, 399.

34. Notice to a purchaser's agent is constructive notice to his principal, when, without it, the latter would have escaped a trust or burden relative to the subject of purchase.—8 W. R. 299.

35. An agent is not personally liable in an action brought on an implied contract which is no other than a quasi contract.—9 W. R. 206.

36. The manager of an indigo concern cannot maintain an action in his own name based on a contract to cultivate indigo not made in terms with him personally but addressed to a previous manager.—9 W. R. 254. See 23 W. R. 242.

37. A cause of action accruing against an agent for money received and accounts kept, falling within the class mentioned in s. 24 Act X, survives the death of the agent.—10 W. R. 69.

38. The only effect of s. 69 Act X is to enable the person who collects the rent to sue as agent for the person who has the right to recover the rent.—11 W. R. 43.

39. A tehsildar may take advantage of s. 69 with respect to arrears of rent accruing as well before as during his time.—17 W. R. 367.

40. Where a plaintiff, having full knowledge as to who was the principal and who were the agents, elected to sue the agents, and thereby gave up all claim against the principal, and the agents not having objected as to their liability, and having pleaded payment, held that the sole question between the parties was whether that payment had been made or not.—11 W. R. 247.

41. The extent and nature of the powers vested in an agent as not so much a matter of law as a matter of fact to be decided in each case in which a question of agency arises.—12 W. R. 130.

42. Where there is nothing in a decree or bond in respect of sums owed by the manager of an indigo concern on account of factory expenses to connect him with his principal (the proprietor) it is not sufficient to show that the manager was executed against the property of the latter.—12 W. R. 298.

43. A recognized agent is not entitled, on behalf of his principal, to institute or defend a suit, under s. 16 Act VIII, in his own name and name of his principal.—13 W. R. 341.

44. The expression gomashha of a firm no longer existing is not a recognized agent within cl. 2 s. 17 Act VIII.—15 W. R. 351.

45. A suit against an agent is bad in law; it should be brought against the principal. —14 W. R. 218.

46. A suit by a seminar against a gomashha employed by him in the collection of Akhaya rents comes within the purview of s. 21 Act X.—14 W. R. 351.

47. A vakalat may be a "duly authorized agent" within the meaning of s. 301 Act VIII. —15 W. R. 198.

48. An authority granted to an agent to purchase does not imply authority to sell; and the mere fact of his principal not questioning his agent's right to sell is no proof that he consents to the latter exercising such right.—15 W. R. 317.

49. A contract made by the principal when appointed superintendent of two estates was required to make the seminarian's principal entcherry his place of business, held that that was the place where the cause of action arose, and that the suit ought to have been instituted in the sub-division in which the principal entcherry was situated. —15 W. R. 313.

50. In a suit for rent, the fact that a third party had been plaintiff's agent and had been receiving rent for him from defendant, was held sufficient to establish defendant's liability to pay his rent to plaintiff.—17 W. R. 14.

51. An agent on the part of Government (an officer of the Public Works Department as in this case) cannot bind the Government with a contract made by him in excess of his authority; nor can any payment made by the officer who has so exceeded his authority in making the contract, make that contract binding.—17 W. R. 497.

52. Where the sole question raised in both Courts in India was whether or not certain documents purporting to be an allowance of plaintiff's accounts by the defendant's agent were signed by the agent, the Privy Council declined to hold the defendant to raise the question as to the authority of the agent to bind him (the defendant).—(P. C.) 18 W. R. 233.

53. An agent who has sold goods for his principal and reserved the price is bound to pay it over to his principal, although the contract of sale is illegal and void.—(O. J.) 18 W. R. 424.

54. Agents buying indigo seed in a rising market under an order to purchase on the most favorable terms cannot experiment by sowing a sample and waiting before they...

purchase: to see whether it will germinate. They are only bound to set to the best of their judgment and skill, and their acts cannot be repudiated unless they are shown to have been guilty of negligence.—(P. C.) 19 W. R. 65.

55. Where an account is rendered by an agent after the period of his agency has come to an end, and a balance struck and agreed upon as due by him to the principal, such balance may constitute a cause of action against the agent.—20 W. R. 300.

57. A manager's authority to make any addition which can be binding on his employers is withdrawn when he is dismissed, whether his dismissal is or is not upon such a notice as the manager has a right to demand.—21 W. R. 405.

58. Where a man steps in during an auction-sale and assumes the character of a principal agent, and disposing another who is really acting as agent, purchases the property, he cannot afterwards be allowed, in equity, to turn round and claim to have purchased not for the principal but for himself, and to obtain a part out of his purchase.—(P. C.) 23 W. R. 388.

59. In a suit for the recovery of certain articles sold and delivered to defendant No. 1 who had given an order for payment, which defendant No. 2, as his agent, had accepted by an endorsement, plaintiff gave up the claim against defendant No. 1 and demanded the amount from defendant No. 2. Held that, under the circumstances, there could be no decree against defendant No. 2. —25 W. R. 91.

Principal and Surety.

1. By a bond given for the faithful discharge of the office of Overseer to aerry Fund Committee, the surety became bound "to make good any funds entrusted to the Overseer which may be misused." Held that, under those circumstances, the surety was liable for a loss of funds arising from the mere carelessness or indiscretion of the principal, independently of any dishonesty, as by his lending the money to contractors.—1 Hay 156 (Marshall 80).

2. The liability of a surety or his heir, under s. 4 Reg. II of 1806, cases after the death of the principal.—2 Hay 116.

3. A surety of the judgment-debtor may be made liable in execution of decree, without the necessity of a separate suit.—2 Hay 673.

4. Where, on discovery of a default in the deposit account of certain zamindars, a Collector attaches the property of the sureties for the Collectorate Treasurer, the remedy open to the sureties is against the Treasurer only.—W. R. Sp. 115.

5. Where a Salt Darogah deposits security for the due performance of his duties, to be appropriated by Government in case of loss to the State from his failure to perform them, and the Government without his consent alters his position and risk, such alteration relieves him from his engagement as surety.—W. R. Sp. 137.

6. The liability of a surety will not extend beyond his undertaking, or to voluntary payments by his principal to a third party.—W. R. Sp. 284 (J. R. 66).

7. A security voluntarily signed, existing upon the record, and never taken off the file, is a valid and subsisting security. The intentions and motives of the obligor in giving it must be judged by what is mentioned in the instrument. The acceptance of the separate security of one surety is not invalidated by the acceptance of separate securities of five other sureties.—(P. C.) 5 W. R., 129 (P. C. R. 53).

8. The sureties of a Naib are absolved from liability if the principal takes bonds from the Naib in acknowledgment of the debts, giving him different periods of time for payment, without the knowledge and consent of the sureties.—1 W. R. 81; See also 15 W. R. 252; 16 W. R., 0, J., 16; and 30 post.

9. A suit against a party who became a surety under s. 8, Act VIII of 1869 for the appearance of the defendant in a former suit is not affected by s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861.—2 W. R. 65.

10. S. 204 Act VIII applies to the case of parties who become sureties under s. 76 or s. 83, but not to parties who become sureties after a decree is passed.—7 W. R. 329.

See also 13 W. R. 35, 15 W. R. 538.

11. A promise to pay a debt when made by other than the borrower is binding in many cases, although the amount of it may not be ascertained at the time.—9 W. R. 140.

12. The property of a deceased principal cannot be taken in execution of a decree against the surety.—11 W. R. 69.

13. A creditor who lends money on a joint bond or on several bonds, exercising the right which he possesses to resort to all his security till the debt is repaid, is not entitled by any arrangement between the two to the mode in which the principal shall indemnify the surety.—11 W. R. 461.

14. Plaintiff sued the widow Rames and the infant son of a deceased Rajah, and based his claim on a bond signed by the Rames. The plaintiff alleged that he was the Rajah's, but the bond recited that the Rajah had borrowed money from the plaintiff, and it drew a distinction between the dealings and estates of the Rajah and the dealings and estates of the Rames. Held that the suit against the Rames was in the nature of a claim against sureties, and that in the absence of proof that they knew the circumstances under which the Rajah contracted the loan, it could not be maintained against the Rames.—(P. C.) 41 W. R., 41.

15. Where two parties are jointly and severally liable under the terms of a bond, the principal be sued for the amount due with interest, notwithstanding that a decree has been obtained for the same amount against the other party with leave to proceed against the principal.—12 W. R. 191.

16. Where a surety dies before a surety is paid and the lender takes a fresh acknowledgment from the borrower, this subsequent arrangement cancels the surety's liability.—12 W. R. 294.

17. The rules governing Courts in England in matters of suretyship cannot be applied to a case where joint and several liability is not found as a fact, and where the sum alleged to be due is contested.—12 W. R. 462.

18. A surety who conditioned that he would be responsible for the continued presence of an accused person at one Court, was held released from liability by the permission which Court gave the accused, without the surety's consent, of leaving that place on business, and also by the subsequent transfer of the case to another Court.—13 W. R., Cr. 55.

19. Where the parties sued were found to be, within the knowledge of the sureties, the real controlling parties, the sureties were held responsible for those parties and not for a benameradar.—14 W. R. 12.

20. S. 204 Act VIII does not apply to the case of a condition precedent upon which execution cannot be carried out.—14 W. R. 63.

21. Where an agent borrowed money for his principal on a bond to which plaintiff put his name, and the lender subsequently obtained a decree with interest against both agent and principal and realized the whole amount from the plaintiff, held that plaintiff's cause of action was as surety and arose when he paid the money.—14 W. R. 173, 15 W. R. 413.

22. A bond taken by the court as security under s. 8 Act XXIII of 1861 can be enforced under s. 204 Act VIII.—15 W. R. 21.

23. Where a surety allows money placed with him as security for the purpose of indemnifying the cossaies to be withdrawn, he loses his remedy against the cossaies to the extent of the security.—15 W. R. 185.

24. Each surety should see that money placed in the hands of sureties for the purpose for which they have become sureties, is not misspent.—15.

25. In the absence of an application under s. 330 Act VIII or of anything to show whether or not the surety bound himself beyond the penal sum of the bond, held that that sum only could be required from him.—15 W. R. 538.

26. The renewal of a surety-bond was not held to operate as a discharge of the old bond in a case where, after the giving of the new bond, a discovery was made, though unknown at the time, that frauds had been committed during the time that the old bond was in existence.—16 (C. 1) W. R., P. C. 11.

27. The acquittal of a principal in a Criminal Court on a charge of misappropriating of funds, is no bar to a civil action against the sureties.—17 W. R. 131.

28. A surety was held responsible for neglect in obtaining the duplicate of a Government promissory note upon the security of which his principal had obtained a loan and which was stolen from the lender.—18 W. R. 58.

29. A surety for a Nazir, under his obligation to the Government, to indemnify the Government for any loss that it might incur, was held not liable, except to the Government, for any wrongful acts done by him.—18 W. R. 259.

30. A creditor, by accepting from the principal debtor, without the knowledge or consent of the surety, a sum on account of interest in excess of that then due on a promissory note, implicitly gives time to the principal debtor and discharges the surety from liability.—(O. J.) 18 W. R. 416.

31. Where a party engaged to be surety for a gomashta and to make good all defalcations proved to have been made by him, the engagement was held to refer to defalcations shown to have been made by the gomashta during the period of the gomashta's life, and not to apply to a time after the gomashta's death when all power of advising or controlling the gomashta had ceased.—20 W. R. 12.

32. When a surety has paid off the debt of his principal, not only are all the collateral securities transferred to the surety, but, by what is called subrogation, the right is also transferred to him to stand in the place of the original creditor, and to use against the principal debtor every remedy reserved to the principal creditor himself had he used. Accordingly, the surety is not debarred from proceeding against the original debtor upon the instrument itself which created the debt by reason of the debt having been paid by himself.—21 W. R. 347.

33. The fact of a surety for the payment of the price of goods purchased signing a voucher for them, cannot make him primarily responsible.—22 W. R. 209.

34. The ground on which a Magistrate has power to refuse to accept any surety under s. 516 Act X of 1872 must be a valid and reasonable ground.—22 W. R., Cr. 37.

35. Where two parties executed a surety-bond addressed to J. R. and M. owners of certain property, binding themselves to be answerable for the good conduct and proper discharge of duties of their gomashta B, and the property was afterwards transferred to R alone, held that, when J and M ceased to have any interest in the property, there was such entire change in the nature of the service that the sureties' liability did not continue, and they were not liable to be sued upon their bond.—23 W. R. 96.

36. Where a Court, during the pendency of an enquiry under s. 8 Act XXIII of 1861, allows the defendant to be at large upon security for his appearance when called upon, if at the close of the enquiry it is found that the defendant has appeared, the liability of the surety is at an end.—24 W. R. 292.

37. A mere recommendation by one party to another to lend money to a third party, does not render the first party liable to repay the loan.—24 W. R. 414.

38. A surety must be taken to have entered into his contract only for the time during which the relation created by the instrument of suretyship continues, and with reference only to the person to whom he made himself responsible.—25 W. R. 290.

23. The right of action to a person who is restored to possession under a decree of the — does not accrue before the decision of the original suit, and he is entitled to interest on the possession profits from the time of his ejectment up to one year after the decision of the —.—5 W. R. 125. See also 7 W. R. 173.

24. When the —, remit a case directing certain enquiries by the Zillah Court, the objects and reasons of such enquiries as set forth in the judgment of the — may be communicated to the Zillah Court.—5 W. R. 271.

25. The High Court cannot under s. 4 Reg. XVI of 1797 interfere to require security from a party who has formally been put in possession of the property in dispute in execution of a decree, where execution was taken out before an appeal to the — was preferred and admitted.—5 W. R. 4, 13. (Held by F. R.) 5 W. R. 256.

26. In the case of an appeal to the — the High Court has no power, on failure of both parties to furnish security as required by the same section, to attach any property held by the appellant beyond that decreed.—5 W. R. 35, 37.

27. Security bonds for costs of appeal to the — come within Article 12 schedule A of Act X of 1862 and ought to be executed on a stamp as therein specified.—5 W. R. 47.

28. An appeal to the — involving a question or demand respecting property of the value of more than 10,000 lacs, is admissible under s. 39 of the High Court’s Charter although the portion of the property to which the appeal relates is below that value.—6 W. R. 4, 48. But see 19 W. R. 191.

29. The High Court cannot admit an appeal to the — when the evidence to show that the value of the property in appeal, though stated at less, was really more than the power of the Court, and not within the scope of s. 4 Reg. XVI of 1797, to set aside the execution.—(F. R.) 8 W. R. 144.

46. Under s. 39 of the High Court's Charter, an appeal lies to the — from the order of the High Court in execution proceedings, when the amount involved is above the appealable value, with a full reference as well to s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861 as to s. 283 Act VIII.—(F. R.) 8 W. R. 147.

17. An order made by the High Court on an application to review its judgment in a case of appeal, is not an order made on appeal within s. 39 of the Court's Charter, nor is there to the — an appeal lies to the.—(F. R.) 6 W. R., Mis. 102; 10 W. R. F. R. 1. See also 7 W. R. 145.

49. A High Court should record the grounds of its decision in a case which is appealed to the —.—(P. C.) 11 W. R., P. C. 33.

50. A party who did not, in his grounds of appeal from the judgment of the Zillah Judge, urge that the Judge had improperly rejected evidence tendered by him, was not allowed, in appeal to the —, to raise that objection.—(P. C.) 18.

51. Pending a suit for damages, plaintiff applied that security might be required from the defendants under s. 81 Act VIII; and on their failure to give it, their property was attached. Plaintiff's suit was dismissed on appeal by the High Court, on the ground that the High Court had, in dismissing the appeal, erred in not granting security to the defendants pending the result of the appeal. Held that the Court was not competent to adopt either course.—(F. R.) 12 W. R. F. R. 16.

52. On the death of a judgment-debtor who had been permitted to retain possession of disputed property pending an appeal to the — upon furnishing security for costs and profits, his widow's life-interest cannot be accepted as security instead.—12 W. R. 187.

53. Where a decree-holder obtaining a declaratory decree that certain property belonged to his debtor, sold and himself purchased it, and an objector on appeal to the — obtained a reversal of the declaratory decree took execution for costs and profits, Held that the opposite party could appeal against the principle that he was liable without waiting the result of the Amur's investigation.—12 W. R. 411.

54. The decree of the — in the above case was held not to include restitution of everything that the decree-holder would have enjoyed, had the property not been sold in execution.—1b.

55. The tendency of an appeal to the — does not put the party who, subject to that appeal, is the owner of an estate, under a legal disability to bring a suit in that character against third parties.—(P. C.) 12 W. R., P. C. 6.

56. An objection to an appeal, on the ground that the amount, in dispute is below the appealable amount, comes too late before the — at the hearing of the appeal. The costs of the suit should be not be taken into consideration in estimating the amount in dispute.—(P. C.) 12 W. R., P. C. 29.

57. In calculating the period of 6 months for appealing to the —, the date on which the decree was pronounced or dated should be excluded.—(P. C.) 12 W. R., P. C. 17.

58. Where the High Court orders a judgment-debtor to furnish security pending an appeal to the —, the bond need not be registered under ss. 17 and 19 Act XX of 1866 till the security has been accepted, but the Judge should direct an investigation into the goodness and sufficiency of the property tendered.—13 W. R. 41.

59. S. 30 of the Charter of the late Supreme Court is still directory on the High Court with regard to appeals to the —.—14 W. R., O. L. 34.

60. Until a petition of appeal to the — presented to the High Court is admitted and allowed, a party has no right of appeal to the —. If the petition is allowed to remain on the files of the High Court in the meantime, a reasonable time, the Court has power to order its removal from the files.—1b. See 15 W. R. 255.

61. Where defendant, having the means of proving the real value of the property in dispute, makes no objection to the valuation, and the appeal does not undervalue it, that is a fraud on the Government and she cannot be heard to represent the real value for the purpose of securing an appeal to the.—14 W. R. 62. But see 18 W. R. 191.

62. Documents intended to satisfy a Zillah Judge concerning the title of parties offering immovable property as security in an appeal to the — should not be transmitted to the High Court, but only particulars concerning them.—14 W. R. 94.

63. A decree of the first Court reversed by the High Court and restored by the — is re-affirmed in its integrity, and the defendants generally are entitled to execute it though only one appealed to the —x, 337 Act VIII notwithstanding.—14 W. R. 290.

64. An appeal from an order under Act XI of 1858 appointing a person to be guardian of a minor and manager of her property, bears no value and cannot be carried to the.—14 W. R. 299.

65. When an appeal is preferred to the — from a decree of the High Court, the security to be taken from the defendant should be regulated by s. 1 Reg. XVI of 1797; the practice being to calculate for an amount sufficient to meet the mesne profits which are to go to his hands from the date of his obtaining possession to the probable date of the execution of the decree of the — during which period is generally taken to be 3 years.—14 W. R. 361.

66. Security is taken from a decree-holder under s. 1 Reg. XVI of 1797 to indemnify the appellant to the — against loss owing to execution during pendency of appeal. If the decree is not executed, the terms of the security bond fall to the ground, and the security is not liable for costs or anything else awarded by the —14 W. R. 110.

67. An infant who is entitled to an appeal to the — has no right to insist that the appeal should go on, when the infant, on coming of age, applies to withdraw from the appeal. If the guardian has incurred costs, he may have a claim against the estate (if any) of the infant.—(P. C.) 15 W. R. 17, 119.

68. Under s. 39 of the High Court's Charter, there is no right of appeal to the — from a decree made by the High Court in the exercise of original jurisdiction, if an appeal will lie to the High Court itself under s. 15; but there is a right of appeal from a decree made in the exercise of appellate jurisdiction, whether an appeal will lie or not to the High Court under s. 15.—16 W. R. 131. See 14 W. R. 288.

69. The — will not interfere with the finding of an Indian Court upon a question of boundary, except where there has been a material misstatement in the court's or decision of the case constituting a tangible ground for interference.—(P. C.) 17 W. R. 283.

70. Only the High Court, and not a District Judge, has jurisdiction to release a surety from security taken from him by the High Court to enable a decree-holder to take out execution of his decree pending an appeal to the —17 W. R. 461.

71. No appeal will lie from such an order of release by the Judge though it is an improper one.—16.

72. A decree-holder (respondent in an appeal to the —) was required immediately to elect between furnishing security and drawing the sum deposited by the appellant on condition of savings the costs and upon failure (and upon failure to do so) allowing the appellant to obtain a refund of the deposit upon giving the like security.—17 W. R. 521.

73. In ascertaining whether or not there ought to be an appeal to the — the High Court has to consider only the value of the question at issue in the litigation.—18 W. R. 21.

74. Where the — reversed a decision of the High Court (in a special appeal) based upon the assumption of the value of the evidence before them.—(P. C.) 18 W. R. 120.

75. A party desirous of excising a judgment or order of the High Court must apply to the — where an appeal was brought, and such Court ought to give directions to the Courts by which the suit was originally tried.—(P. C.) 19 W. R. 76. See also 22 W. R. 192.

76. A declaration of Her Majesty in Council amounts to a direction to the Court below to clothe it in the form of a mandatory order and to give effect to such order.—(P. C.) 18.

77. Where the — reversed a decree of the High Court with 276 as costs in England, and affirmed the decree of the Zillah Court with costs in the Courts below.— Held that (1) the "Courts below" included the High Court, and that costs in the Courts below included the costs of translation and printing incurred in the High Court; (2) that the decree of the Zillah Court having given interest on the costs incurred, the decree-holder was entitled to interest on the costs incurred on account of translation and printing; and (3) that the decree of the — had made no provision for interest on the £276.—18 W. R. 293.

78. As to last point, see also 21 W. R. 147.

79. The — will only under very special circumstances grant an appellant from a judgment of the High Court passed in special appeal, non pro tribu, special leave to appeal from the decrees of the inferior Courts in India, on the facts.—(P. C.) 18 W. R. 129.

80. Where an application was made for a review of judgment and notice was issued to the opposite party who came in the appeal and judgment was then delivered at considerable length, in which the Judge delivered it said that no sufficient reason had been made out for the admission of a review and that he dismissed the appeal.— Held that the last judgment was a rehearing, dismissing as it did not vary the application for the main relief. The case itself on the merits, and that from such judgment the application for leave to appeal to the — should be made.—18 W. R. 249.

81. Where in a suit the stamp originally paid was on an amount very much less than 10,000 lacs, and the whole course of the litigation and the stamps had reference to that valuation though the property was really of the value of 10,000 lacs, the Court refused an application for leave to appeal to the —.—16.

82. Decrees affirmed by the — must be executed with the execution of that order, and not as separate decrees.—19 W. R. 301.

83. Where a right of appeal to the — was lost by the petitioner depositing a lower sum than that stated in the estimate of costs.—19 W. R. 365.

84. The objection that the Principal Bearer Amicus acted irregularly in delegating the decision of the main point in the case to an Amicus, not having been taken before the High Court, was not allowed to be urged before the ——(P. C.) 20 W. R. 14.

85. A Court of First Instance is bound to execute a decree of the — sent down by the High Court in the same way as if it were an express decree of the High Court.—20 W. R. 419.

86. A mere copy of the printed judgment of the — is not to be regarded and acted on as if it were a decree to be executed.—20 W. R. 444.

87. Orders made by the High Court under 24 and 25 Vict. c. 104 s. 15 are subject to an appeal to the —.—21 W. R. 262.

88. Where an appeal has been filed under s. 10 of the High Court's Charter against the grant of a certificate to an applicant for permission to appeal to the —, there is no power for the consideration by the High Court of the application that the six weeks prescribed in s. 11 Act VI of 1874 will not begin to run till such appeal is finally disposed of, and the High Court has no jurisdiction to enlarge the time so prescribed.—21 W. R. 220.

89. Parties appealing to the — shall, upon the merits, not take the general decree which the High Court may have given, without asking the High Court to consider the matters of the dispute, on which that general judgment is not sufficient to found the proper execution.—(P. C.) 20 W. R. 48.

90. A suit for possession and redemption, in which a third party intervened upon the claim that plaintiff had conveyed to him one-half of the property in dispute, was dismissed. On appeal by plaintiff, in which the intervenor did not appear, the Lower Appellate Court merely reversed the decree of the first Court and affirmed the decree of the Lower Appellate Court. — The — in remanding the case to the High Court to award their decree in conformity with their judgment, by declaring affirma sideration as was not illegal.—(O. J.) 15 W. R. 424.

5. Where a — written in Calcutta for money due under a contract for the sale of land made in Dacca, was not met, and plaintiff sued on the original cause of action in the Court of the Moosuff of Dacca,—Held that the Moosuff was warranted in trying the suit on the original cause of action, and that in that view he had jurisdiction.—

Putnee Talook.

2. A defaulter cannot, under Reg. VIII of 1819, purhse a — sold on account of his default to pay the putnee rent, either in his own name or in that of any other person.—W. R. F. B. 92 (3 Hay 566). 1 Hay 397.

3. A putnee who sued his lakhojadar for possession of certain lands and was not party to a resumption-suit subsequently brought by the Government against the lakhojadar, did not become liable by any order for resumption passed in the latter suit.—1 Hay 49 (Marshall 19).

4. A putnee is presumably entitled to exercise all the rights of ownership with respect to the land, which the zamindar himself might, but for the putnee, have exercised.—1 Hay 65 (Marshall 28).

5. Grant of — by Hindoo widow.—1 Hay 339 (Marshall 113). See 11 W. R. 554.

6. Where plaintiff purchased a — from sale for an arrear of rent of a former year adjudged, by an apparently valid decree of the Collector, to be due by defendant, paid the money without giving notice to defendant.— Held that the payment was made under such circumstances as entitled plaintiff to recover from defendant.—1 Hay 309.

7. Plaintiff purchased a — at a sale held under Reg. VIII of 1819, and having failed to put in proper security, was not admitted to possession for more than two years, during which period he sued the zamindar in the Civil Court for possession with wazilat, but his suit was dismissed on the ground of his not having fulfilled the requirements of the law. Held that he thereby obtained possession through proceedings held in the Collector’s Court, and now sued the zamindar for an account of the profits during her (the zamindar’s) khas possession. Held that plaintiff was entitled to an account, and that the adverse decision in the suit for possession with wazilat was in the nature of a non-suit and did not amount to an estoppel.—1 Hay 384.

8. By cl. 8 a 17 Reg. VIII of 1819, arrears of rent for a — being personal debts, a person who was not a party to an original decree for arrears of rent on account of a could not be liable under cl. 8—1 Hay 474.

9. Plaintiff, alleging that he had taken duk-joote of certain parcels of land from several rents within defendant’s putnee, and that while he was in occupation, defendant had come and forcibly cut and carried away the crops grown by him thereon, brought his action against the putnee for damages and for possession of the lands. Held that there was no privity between the plaintiff and the putnee; and that the plaintiff had no legal status, as under-tenant of an ordinary ryot admittedly holding the land in dispute, to sustain an action for possession of the land against the superior landlord; nor could he, claiming to hold under ryots where tenancy of the particular land is disputed, maintain an action for damages against the putnee as a wrongdoer in having cut and carried away his crops.—1 Hay 480.

10. Where a — is sold under a decree against the tenant, he is not liable for any rent which may accrue afterwards, notwithstanding the transfer may not be registered.—1 Hay 565 (Marshall 212).

11. A putnee is not bound to recognise any purchaser by private sale as his dur-putnee unless he registers his name in the zamindar’s arierista; and any proceeding held against the old dur-putnee for the recovery of arrears of rent, without making the purchaser a party to it, is perfectly legal.—2 Hay 144. See (P. C) 20 W. R. 880.

12. A dur-putnee, granted upon the payment of a bonus, contained a condition that, if the annual rent remained for a longer period than one month in arrear, the lessor should have a right of re-entry. The lessee, upon default in payment of rent, without availing himself of the forfeiture, instituted a summary suit for the recovery of the arrears, and upon an award thereon, the lands were sold, for such arrears. Held that the purchaser, who bought the — without notice of the condition for forfeiture, was not subject to that condition.—2 Hay 362 (Marshall 564).

13. A putnee cannot, without covenying for the same in their agreement, claim a remission of rent on the ground of the zamindar’s having obtained a remission of revenue.—2 Hay 145.

14. Where a suit was brought by the heirs of a deceased zamindar to set aside two putnees created by him benamer in the names of his daughters.— Held (1) that, though the fund was advanced by the father, the younger sister had the right to collect it, and the zamindar’s purported act, if it was actuated by any of the reasons alleged, was not conclusive; (2) that even if this were not so, the title of a bond fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice of trust would be good against the heirs.—2 Hay 630 (Marshall 564).

15. An agreement, made before the Government, whereby the Government, it’s not been proved, that the Government, as a condition to the granting of a general licence or patent, was to receive a certain sum of money. Held that the Government, in granting the licence, was not subject to any such conditions.—2 Hay 71 (Marshall 265).

16. Where a — was created by a lease, and was, on the death of the lessee, to pass to his wife, the — was not cognizable in a Revenue Court under s. 13 Act X of 1859.—2 R. J. P. 135, 8 W. R. 504. See 44 post.

17. A dur-putnee is cognizable in a Revenue Court under s. 18 Act X of 1859.—2 R. J. P. 135, 8 W. R. 504. See 44 post.

18. A suit for abatement of rent by a putnee is not cognizable in a Revenue Court under s. 18 Act X of 1859, and is not subject to the passing of Reg. VIII of 1819, liable to sale, even though an express condition to that effect may not have been inserted in the kuboolent.—See 1873.

19. The property in suit was granted under Lease, and there were outstanding balances in the Mofussil due to the lessor, the right to collect which the putnee purchased. Held that the suit was cognizable by the Revenue Court under Act X of 1859.—See 478.

20. A dur-putnee having once been sued the Roi of the — 29 Act X of 1859, and been cast on the ground that he could not prove payment of rent, cannot now bring a suit for the same thing in the Civil Court.—2 R. J. P. 29.

21. A putnee cannot sue for abatement of rent in a Revenue Court under Act X of 1859.—2 R. J. P. 44 post.

22. According to Reg. VIII of 1819, the sale of a — for arrears of rent must take place on a day in the Bengalee month of Jyotirlinga, or the date fixed in the notice to correspond with the 17th May 1869 (Saturday), appeared on the latter day. —Ib. 44. A putnee达尔 or any other leaseholder can sue for arrears of rent under cl. 3 a. 23 Act X of 1859. — (P. B.) I W. R. 299 (3 B. J. P. 340); 2 W. R. (Act X) 47; 3 W. R. 504.

37. A putnee cannot sue for the possession of land which may be sold to the payment of the purchase-money. — W. R. 504.

38. A putnee shall be deemed to be a defendant in a suit brought to recover the possession of an estate, on the ground that he is not paying the rent. — W. R. 504.

39. A putnee may be sued for the arrears of rent, but he cannot sue for the possession of an estate. — W. R. 504.

possession are put into nominal possession, and allow the roots to cultivate and then cut and carry away their crops, their act is an abuse of the law of distraint, and they are liable for damages. — 10 W. R. 70.

65. A payment made bona fide by the party in possession to save a — (the proprietary of which was in litigation at the time) from sale for arrears of rent, is not a voluntary or officious payment, and is recoverable from the tenant. — 12 W. R. 115.

67. A puttee-ter selling a mortgage, subsequent to the mortgage and in violation of its conditions, cannot hold possession against the purchaser of the rights and interest of the mortgage sold in execution of a decree. — 10 W. R. 151.

68. A — can only be divided by an act of the seamen, or an act recognized by him. A puttee transferring his title in the seaman's consent can only do so in solido, the transfer of a portion in no way affecting the entirety of the — or the seaman's right. — 11 W. R. 204.

Therefore, the auction-purchaser of such portion acquires nothing by the process of transmission. — 20 W. R. 51.

69. The mere fact of a person having been in possession of lands for 12 years paying rent is not sufficient to establish a puttee-tenure. — 11 W. R. 539.

70. The 12 years puttee-tenure by a seaman of one of the formalities prescribed by Reg. VIII of 1819 does not render all the proceedings taken by him inoperative, or constitute his selling the tenure into an act of trespass. — (F. C.) 11 W. R. 325.

71. Where the purchaser of a — fails to obtain registry of his name in the seaman's book, a third party claiming title from the vendor has no right to treat the purchaser as a tenant. — 12 W. R. 293.

72. Permitting a puttee to take extra land, and receiving rent from him for a series of years, cannot, in the absence of a khoubonal or verbal agreement, deprive the person paying the rent of his rights. — (F. C.) 12 W. R. 418.

73. A puttee agreeing to pay the revenue out of his rent payable in monthly instalments, cannot deduct from an instalment of rent any portion of the revenue not payable after the instalment is due. — 12 W. R. 295.

But if it is contrary to the usage of the country for a puttee to pay his rents by monthly instalments without a special agreement for that purpose. — 17 W. R. 171.

74. The term — specific provides for a limited tenure. — 12 W. R. 418.

75. A tenure in the nature of a — is alienable. — 18.

76. Reg. VIII of 1819 considered with reference to the rights of seamen and puttee talookas. When a puttee talook is transferred without the express consent of the seaman and in disregard of the Regulation cited, the transfer is not binding on the seaman. — (F. C.) 12 W. R., P. C. 43.

77. A seaman is not bound to recognize all the co-sharers of the —, but only the registered puttee-ter. — 14 W. R. 489.

78. A puttee-ter paying money as rent to save the — from sale, is entitled to a refund even though his name has not been registered in the register of the seaman. — 15 W. R. 125, (affirmed by F. C.) 20 W. R. 380.

79. The status of a puttee-ter does not depend upon registration or the consent of the seaman. — 18. See also 22 W. R. 299.

80. A puttee-ter who is disturbed in possession by the seaman, is not liable for the kits which he is prevented from collecting. — 15 W. R. 380.

81. Where a — is sold for arrears, the puttee-ter who is sold out is not liable for the rent of the month in which the seaman presented the petition enjoined by cl. s. 8 Reg. VIII of 1819. — 19.

82. The special authority given by s. 77 of Act XI of 1819 to an auction-purchaser passes to his puttee-ter a portion of the estate purchased by him, and the puttee-ter can sue, within the prescribed period of limitation, to recover an under-tenure within the puttee-ter and to eject the tenant, but not where the tenant was allowed to dig a tank and to remain in possession undisturbed by the former proprietor for upwards of 30 years, the presumption being that he was holding by right of the acquisition of the former proprietor, which acquiescence must be treated as equivalent to a lease. — 15 W. R. 481.

83. There is nothing in Reg. VIII of 1819 empowering a puttee-ter to deposit rent in the Judge's Court or Collectorate before the day of sale, or giving such payment the effect of a payment to the seaman or his agent, entitling the puttee-ter to ask to have the sale annulled. — 15 W. R. 369.

84. Where the agent of a puttee-ter claimed the — in fraud of the other co-sharers, he was treated as having made the purchase on account of, and as trustee for, the other co-sharers. — 16 W. R. 80.

85. A seaman putting up his — under Reg. VIII of 1819 guarantees to the purchaser that there are some lands appertaining to the —; if there are none, the purchaser may recover his purchase-money. — 16 W. R. 128.

86. A purchase made by a seaman of a — by joint tenants, two of whom are not stopped under s. 7 Act VIII the sale cannot in equity be good or bad in part, but must stand or fall for the whole talook. But if one of the joint tenants in a former suit claimed a 2-anna instead of a 4-anna share, he cannot now be allowed to supplement the claim, or take interests independently of the sale. — 17 W. R. 129.

87. On the death of a registered puttee-ter, a seaman is not bound to recognize any one as his tenant without registration in his register, nor is he prevented from putting in a seaman to collect the rents until a declaration of the rights of the deceased puttee-ter's heir. — 19.

88. A tender to stay a decided puttee-ter without the express consent of the seaman and in disregard of the Regulation cited, the transfer is not binding on the seaman. — (F. C.) 12 W. R., P. C. 43.

89. Fraud and collusion are only impermissible where a sale is for arrears not really due. — 18.

90. There is nothing in Reg. VIII of 1819 which will allow — to be sold in separate lots even though the whole — be so sold in the same day. — 17 W. R. 182. See 20 W. R. 275.

91. One of the several grantees of a puttee-ter cannot get rid of the puttee-ter as to a share in it, by a suit as jariadar of that share for rent against the registered puttee-ter, and if the question of the voidness or voidability of the tenure is not one which can be disposed of in the Collector's Court, — 13 W. R. 69.

93. A puttee-ter not a co-debent on in a suit to set aside the sale of a —, and it is decreed that he may recover the purchase-money from the seaman's defendant, he may proceed in execution without a fresh suit. — 19 W. R. 161.

94. What was held to be a compliance with the provisions of Reg. VIII of 1819 regarding notice of sale. — 14 W. R. 36. See also 22 W. R. 202.

95. The purchase of a — under Reg. VIII of 1819 is not entitled to a refund of the costs arrived at against the defaulting puttee-ter. — 14 W. R. 283.

96. The seaman, when applying to the Collector for the sale of a —, is bound to recognize all the co-sharers of the —, but only the registered puttee-ter. — 14 W. R. 489.

the vendee cannot bring a suit to enforce his right to the property, and in that suit ask the Court to receive the unregistered instrument in evidence on the ground of the fraud of the defendant; neither can rely on the preliminary parol agreement between himself and the vendor, even though the vendor be land, which, if he be not affected by the English law, passes by mere parol. The agreement having been reduced to writing, the parol contract cannot be admitted; and the writing being unregistered, Plaintiff’s cause is to be heard according to the Act of Parliament. See 84 Act XX of 1866. (F.B.) 10 W. R. 96, 81. See 15 W. R. 189, 18 W. R. 504, 24 W. R. 320.

52. Also in a suit for possession as in one for declaration of title—11 W. R. 285.

53. The word “instrument,” in s. 50 of same Act refers to an honest bond for sale, and which does not include a fraudulent one. (F.B.) 10 W. R. 96, 81, 14 W. R. 24. 20 W. R. 110.

54. S. 50 Act XX of 1866 is not to be construed as invalidating all titles acquired prior to the passing of that Act, unless the instruments on which they rest are registered under s. 100, but must be read as applying to instruments the — of which is optional under s. 18, but not as applying to instruments registered under s. 100.—10 W. R. 65.

55. And so a mortgage completed by possession, although not necessarily good, is not necessarily good against a registered deed of sale which was executed after that Act came into operation.—22 W. R. 3.

56. But where plaintiff sued on an unregistered bond nearly 12 years after its execution and was met by an allegation of possession under a registered deed of sale by his mort- gagee, the registered deed of sale was allowed to prevail over the unregistered bond with reference to s. 50.—19 W. R. 279.

57. A summary application under s. 53 Act XX of 1866 cannot be entertained at the suit of the assignee of the obligee.—10 W. R. 84.

109. So also under s. 17 Act XVIII of 1871.—20 W. R., 291.

110. So also under the latter section as to an instrument acknowledging receipt of consideration-money on account of extinction of interest in land; but oral evidence was held admissible in proof of the receipt of the money.—21 W. R., 328.

111. When a person, alleged to have executed a deed, denies execution of it before the registering officer, the Zillah Judge, having regard to s. 84 and the form of petition given in the Schedule to Act XX of 1866, has jurisdiction to determine such a question.—P. (C.) 13.

112. The mere circumstance of a bond not being registered is not sufficient per se to counterbalance the evidence, if it is generally satisfactory, in proof of the validity of the bond.—P. (C.) 16 W. R., 24, 30.

113. s. 80 Act XX of 1866 does not empower the Registrar-General to pass a rule directing by what particular kind of evidence a person is to prove his right to have a deed registered.—16 W. R., 180.

114. Where all the executants of a deed admit before the Registrar-General that they have executed the same, he has nothing to do with the recitals of the deed or with its possible operation as regards third parties.—16.

115. The representative, assign, or agent mentioned in s. 66 Act XX of 1866 means the representative, assign, or agent of one of the executants of the deed.—16.
197. The non—of of a decree cannot be a reason why the decree should not be executed.—20 W. R. 19.

198. An unregistered kubool is not inadmissible as evidence if it was executed at a time when the law did not require.—20 W. R. 88.

199. A suit for a refund and damages on the ground of defendant’s refusal to allow a potah, for which a kubool had been given, to be registered, is brought not upon the potah and kubool, but upon an implied contract by defendant to do that which he gave his word to do to his own potah; and the question is whether plaintiffs have done all they were required to do to entitle them to the usufruct of the defendant to —20 W. R. 107.

200. Where a potah has been executed and handed over, if it specifies no pre-requisite condition, the presumption is that no such conditions exist.—1b.

Act XX of 1866, to direct the — of a deed the — of which has been refused by the Registrar and the Registrant-General.—(P. C.) 24 W. R. 75.

147. Where a deed of sale is presented for — within the period required by s. 22 and is accepted by the registering officer, who, without the vendors appearing, registers it by a mistake, and the — is declared by a competent Court to be invalid, the registering officer may, although the period of 4 months has expired, proceed to compel the appearance of the vendors, and on their admission register the deed.—
(P. C.) 1b.

148. Such — may be effected by the registering officer voluntarily and without an order from the District Court under s. 84, notwithstanding that an application by the parties concerned to have it registered has been refused by the Registrar, and that the Registrant-General has deemed the first (invalid) — to be due —.(P. C.) 1b.

149. Every — of a deed is null and void by reason of a non-compliance with the provisions of ss. 19, 21, or 36 or other similar provisions; such errors or defects should be classed under the general words "defect in procedure" in
s. 88. —(P. C.) 1b.

150. A registered document, the — of which was compulsory, cannot be regarded as having effect against a prior unregistered document the — of which was optional.—

151. A deed scribed on, not having been registered, was held not to operate as a mortgage lien upon the property.—
25 W. R. 110.

152. The — of a sale that was by agreement to have a deed of partition drawn up in a particular form (viz. in the shape of an arbitration award) is optional. —23 W. R. 376.

153. The District Courts mentioned in Act VIII of 1871 must be taken to be the ordinary Zillah Courts over which the High Court has power of superintendence.—

Relinquishment.
1. Where, in a former suit to set aside the sale of a tenure, plaintiff, in specifying the lands subject to that tenure, excluded a portion (once included) as having been by a Survey award included in the adjacent taluk, such exclusion is not a — within the meaning of s. 7 Act VIII of 1859.— W. R. Sp. 184.
2. A voluntary abandonment of a permanent and transferrable tenure is tantamount to an express — without the right to reclaim.— W. R. Sp. 270. See also 12 W. R. 304 and 2 post.
4. According to Hindoo law, a widow in possession can relinquish and thus anticipate the rival reversioners their period of succession. A — in favor of second reversioners is also valid if made with the consent of the first reversioners.—1 W. R. 98.
5. Issues arising from a — by one brother of property held jointly by two.—1 W. R. 325.
6. Where a ryot left his lands and made no provision for their management or for the payment of his rents, and the zamindar put in another ryot, it was held that no action would lie against the new ryot for misuse profits; nor for possession in the absence of the zamindar.—2 W. R. 157.
7. The rights of a tenant cannot be destroyed by the — of rights by the purchaser from whom the tenant held by pratty.—1 W. R. 76.
8. A ryot who has taken a lease in writing for a term of years, cannot, under s. 19 Act X, throw it up during its currency.—5 W. R. (Act XI) 81, 9 W. R. 80.
9. When a cultivating ryot goes away from the land which he has occupied, and another cultivates not pays rent for it, he has wholly relinquished the land. The — need not be in writing.—6 W. R. 67, 7 W. R. 155, 21 W. R. 133, 21 W. R. 344. But see 18 W. R. 41.
10. A suit for the — of a lease on the ground of fraud is only cognizable by a Civil Court. A Revenue Court can only take notice of a — when made under s. 19 Act X.— 7 W. R. 62.
11. S. 19 does not make it imperative on a ryot to apply to the Collector for service of notice of — of land. Non-service of notice by the Collector does not affect his rights, if actual notice was given to landlord or agent within the time mentioned.—8 W. R. 229.
12. Where tenant has taken steps for an intended — of land, landlord must prove continued possession notwithstanding; but where such steps have not been taken, tenant must prove that landlord took possession and enjoyed profits.—16.
13. A perpetual contract by a lease for his heirs, reserving that they shall never relinquish the jote, cannot operate against s. 19 Act X, which says that any ryot may relinquish his jote if he does so in a legal manner.—9 W. R. 89.
14. The — of a lease by the managing member of a joint Hindoo family, who has been registered as such in the zamindar’s shurat, is not sufficient in law to authorize the zamindar to make new arrangements with others.—9 W. R. 268.
15. A mere petition by a widow to the effect that she has relinquished her title in favor of others is not a legal —.10 W. R. 98. But see 18 W. R. 271.
16. The neglect of a ryot to give written notice of — under s. 19 Act X was held condoned by the act of the zamindar in granting leases of the same land to other ryots.—11 W. R. 50.
17. Whether a particular claim arising out of the same cause of action is relinquished voluntarily or otherwise (eg. by mistake), the result would be the same, and a second suit for that claim would be barred by s. 7 Act VIII.—5 W. R. 406, 6 W. R. 79.
18. There is no difference between the position of a rajah holding an impartible raj and that of an ordinary zamindar in respect of his power to relinquish the property in favor of his next legal heir. Such a — is not forbidden by the Hindoo law.—14 W. R. 197.
19. When the effect of such a — is to give the property entirely into the hands of the son, he can during his father’s lifetime question and challenge any acts done or alleged to have been done although desired by the father.—16.
20. Where a plaintiff asks for the establishment of two inconsistent rights, before he can obtain a decree for one of them, the other must in some way be relinquished or abandoned, the election between two clearly and distinctly.—16 W. R. 198. But see 20 W. R. 91.
21. The privilege given in s. 7 Act VIII to a plaintiff to abandon the excess of a claim applies also to a case where a party comes in with an application to cause an arbitration award to be filed.—20 W. R. 56.
22. The consequence of not suing for the whole of a claim, as required by s. 7 Act VIII of 1859, is not that the suit cannot be entertained for so much as the plaintiff mon es for, but that he cannot afterwards sue for what he has omitted.—21 W. R. 272.
23. Where a separation takes places in a joint Hindoo family, and one member becomes the owner in shares, being a portion of land with a house which (after living in it for some time) he eventually abandons, the zamindar is entitled to deal with it in the same way as he is entitled by law to deal with the abandoned holding of a cultivating ryot.—21 W. R. 59.
24. The mere use of the words omnouthi kari in conversation by the tenant, when called upon by the zamindar to
The Lower Appellate Court, if it be of opinion that the first Court has omitted to try certain issues, should instead of reversing the decision of the latter Court, send the case back under s. 354 for the trial of those issues.—24 W. R. 131, 25 W. R. 47.

8. An Appellate Court is not competent to — a case for retrial after a local investigation.—W. R. Sp. 363 (L. R. 136).

9. Such an order is in effect a declaratory order from which an appeal will lie.—16.

10. An Appellate Court should not — a case for additional evidence but should take such evidence itself.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 25 (3 R. J. P. J. 26). See also 25 W. R. 36.

11. There is no appeal from the order of a Lower Appellate Court remanding a case a second time, on the ground that the former order of — had not been carried out.—W. R. Sp. Misc. 39.

12. A Lower Appellate Court, in remanding a case a second time, ought not to confine itself to a vague general remark that its previous order had not been carried into effect, but should also state what the main requirements of such order were and how they had not been carried out.—16.

13. Where the Lower Court, having found the suit barred by limitation, went into the case and dismissed it on the merits, it was not necessary for the Appellate Court, in not raising the suit by limitation, to — it for retrial on the merits.—1 W. R. 32.

14. The order of a Lower Appellate Court overruling the defence of limitation and remanding the suit for trial on the merits, if not immediately appealed against as a decree, may be treated as an interlocutory order, and be objected to when the ultimate decision is appealed against.—1 W. R. 31.

15. A Lower Appellate Court upon — the trial of a particular issue, cannot decide upon a different issue.—2 W. R. 39.

16. A case remanded to a Lower Appellate Court for a statement of the Judge’s reasons for his judgment in appeal, cannot be decided de novo, on its merits, by his successor.—2 W. R. 275, 5 W. R. 124.

17. The Judge, whose reasons for his judgment were called for, and whose judgment was based on evidence not before the first Court, having left the country, the case was remanded to the first Court for re-hearing.—16.

18. An order of — is executed when the Lower Court re-opens a question already decided.—3 W. R. 32.

20. When a case is remanded for the trial of the lawfulness or unlawfulness of an alleged act, the Court is wrong in allowing the litigation before it at the last suit be a question never before raised, viz., whether the act was committed.—W. R. 198.

21. A — trial on the merits does not prevent adjudication upon any other issue (e.g. limitation).—5 W. R. (Act X) 158.

22. Held contra that it shuts off objections regarding limitation or res judicata.—23 W. R. 333.

23. The — of a case to a Lower Appellate Court for the purpose of stating reasons for reversing a judgment of the first Court, is no warrant for the confirmation of that judgment.—1 W. R. 33.

24. In a suit for share of joint ancestral property, where defendants claim under a will and deny that the property was joint, and the first Court dismisses the claim as barred by limitation, but the Lower Appellate Court remands the case for trial on a different issue, the order of — is not an interlocutory order but a judgment.—1 W. R. 101.

25. The failure of a party to take advantage of a post-sentence for the purpose of tendering further evidence, cannot give him a right to a — for such evidence, to which, without such postponement, he was entitled under s. 334 Act VIII.—5 W. R. (Act X) 8.

26. A respondent in the Lower Appellate Court who, under s. 348 Act VIII, took in writing an objection on the ground of jurisdiction which was not noticed as was held in special appeal entitled to a — to that Court for an adjudi- cation on that point.—6 W. R. 389.

27. Where a Judge enters into the merits of a case remanded to his predecessor for a legal judgment, if he admits further evidence on the part of defendant, he cannot refuse that offered by plaintiff.—6 W. R. (Act X) 16.
44. When a case is remanded to be tried under the terms of s. 148 Act VIII, a Court is not justified in taking and determining on any evidence not on the record at the time of —12 W. R. 23.

45. The effect of an order of — for a new trial is entirely to nullify the first decision and to re-open the whole case. —12 W. R. 112, 21 W. R. 7.

46. Where the evidence of a defendant had been taken by the first Court so imperfectly that the Lower Appellate Court could not pass a satisfactory judgment between the parties. — Held that it was competent to the latter Court under s. 355 Act VIII to fully examine the defendant and record his reasons for so doing but not to — the case. —13 W. R. 85.

47. Where the High Court has been led into an order of — on a false issue, and the Lower Appellate Court comes to a finding of fact which correctly disposes of the case, the default of the latter should not govern the final result. —13 W. R. 91.

48. The terms of s. 148 Act VIII do not prevent an Appellate Court, on good and sufficient cause shown, from remanding a case disposed of therein, in order that justice may be done between the parties. —13 W. R. 461.

49. Where a case is remanded for retrial, some date should be fixed for the re-hearing. —14 W. R. 401.

50. A case remanded to a District Judge for the purpose of a local enquiry, cannot be transferred to a Subordinate Judge for disposal. —15 W. R. 7.

51. The meagreness of the judgment of a Lower Appellate Court can only warrant a — when the judgment does not show that the Court has considered the evidence. —14 W. R. 127.

52. But where an Appellate Court has considered a case and come to the same conclusion as the first Court, occasional obscurity in the judgment of the former does not constitute a proper ground for a — 25 W. R. 374.

53. A Judge was held to be perfectly justified in remanding a case which was decided without a fair opportunity being given to the plaintiff to know the line of defence he had to meet. —17 W. R. 416.

54. A Judge who, after disposing of a case on the only point which the Moonsif had decided, viz. whether there was a cause of action, and satisfying himself that there was not sufficient evidence to enable him (the Judge) to decide upon its merits, was held justified in remanding the case to the Moonsif. —17 W. R. 156.

55. Where the Lower Court, though requested to send for the records of a former suit, in which it was alleged, the decree afforded important evidence in support of plaintiff’s case, omitted to do so, the case was remanded with a view to the omission being supplied. —18 W. R. 127.

56. Where no objection was taken in the grounds of appeal to the issues as framed in the first Court, and there is no such contention as that the High Court ought to direct the Subordinate Court to raise the proper issues, the Court refused to — the case with this view. —23 W. R. 188.

57. Where a Subordinate Judge’s decision in appeal was not a right decision (his orders having been impossible of execution), the District Judge was held to have been empowered under s. 351 Act VIII to — the case, after fixing an issue, for a finding. —23 W. R. 374.

58. Where a case was remanded for reconsideration of the whole evidence with the exception of one specified point, and the Judge after consideration came to the conclusion that his finding on that point had been erroneous, — Held that he was at liberty to reconsider the evidence on this part of the case, and to alter his previous finding. —24 W. R. 316.

59. To justify a — it must be shown that the Lower Court has committed some error in law, or that the case comes in some other way within the terms of s. 372 Act VIII. —25 W. R. 323.

1. In a suit for — where a third party intervenes, the question of receipt and enjoyment of — by the intervenor should alone be enquired into. — W. R. F. R. 14 (1 Huy 225, Marshall 50). See also Sec. 725.
2. A tenant paying — to the superior landlord, for the grant of an intermediate lease, but without notice of it, is not liable to the intermediate lessee in respect of the same. — W. R. F. R. 30 (1 Huy 340, Marshall 192).
3. The acceptance of — for 40 years, ratifies mokarrarnadar pottah granted prior to Reg. V of 1852. Omission to pay — may be good ground for a suit for arrears or for ejectment, but not for cancellation of a pottah not otherwise impeached. — W. R. F. R. 94 (1 Huy 207).
4. Question for decision in suit by ryot to reverse summary award for — W. R. F. B. 86 (1 Huy 208).
6. A suit for arrears of — at a certain rate decreed on a former suit, may be maintained without notice under Reg. V of 1812, the decree itself being held to be sufficient notice. — W. R. F. B. 92 (2 Huy 340, Marshall 396).
7. Different rates of — cannot be fixed for ryots expending their own capital and ryots borrowing it. — W. R. F. B. 131.
8. Rate of — which a landlord is entitled to demand, how to be fixed. — 12.
9. In a suit by a landlord for — the Judge cannot fix the term. — 12.
10. A party who attempts to recover — from his under-tenants at a higher rate than that decreed by Government to him by his mother as his guardian, must sue her first to set aside that pottah as granted beyond her power as a Hindoo widow. — 1 Huy 188.
11. The mere fact that certain lands held by the defendant are within a certain zamindar's possession by the plaintiff, may be a ground of suit for assessment of — but is no ground for decreasing — at a specific jumma. — 1 Huy 307.
12. The zamindar (defendant) refused to receive from the talookdars (plaintiffs) — at the rate asserted by the latter, who, theretoo, deposited the amounts from time to time in the Zillah Court. The zamindar, having disallowed all out these amounts, sued for arrears of — alleging that the money paid into Court covered only the principal and interest of a certain period, and obtained an ex-parte decree. The plaintiffs now sue for a refund of the money paid into Court as having without their consent been irregularly carried to the account of interest. Held that the present claim is barred as res judicata, and that, if a tenant has paid his landlord in excess, his proper course is not to sue for a refund, but to claim credit for the overpayment from the next. — 1 Huy 501.
13. When a tenant in a suit for — does not deny the rate of —, but pleads non-liability as having transferred his interests and not being in possession, if this plea be found untrue, he is liable to pay the rent claimed, though the plaintiff may fail to prove the rent previously paid by him. — 1 Huy 512.
14. In a suit for —, if a third party intervene under s. 77 Act X of 1859, and the Court finds that he, and not the plaintiff, is entitled to the —, the proper course is to dismiss the suit, notwithstanding the intervenor admits that he is liable to pay — to the plaintiff. — Marshall 258.
15. Where A, without title has collected rents due to B, B may sue A for the recovery from him of the rents so received. — 2 Huy 198 (Marshall 308).

89. The mere fact that a tenancy is written in the zamindar’s books in the name of one person while another is shown to be in possession, is not enough to support an action for — against the person in possession without a contract (express or implied) to pay.—16 W. R. 323.

90. An allegation of wrongful ejectment by defendant by plaintiff is no answer to a suit for — during the period of dispossession.—17 W. R. 278.

91. Where the jummas of different tenures are distinct, the tenures must be treated as distinct, and the — charged accordingly.—17 W. R. 346.

92. Reservation of — is a sufficient consideration in law.—17 W. R. 429.

93. A zamindar and patnecar being bound together by the terms of a written contract (the pattah pothall), the zamindar can only sue for — on the terms of that contract, but not for rent for the use and occupation of his land.—17 W. R. 494. See also 20 W. R. 400.

94. In a suit for arrears of — where defendant’s plea of payment fails to the ground, the fact of plaintiff having sued upon a false ground is no reason why he should not obtain a decree at the rate fixed by a former decree as the proper rate demandable from the defendant.—19 W. R. 253. See (F. B.) 21 W. R. 296.

95. An indivisible tenure cannot be split into parts with a view to the institution of different suits against the tenants for arrears of — 19 W. R. 293.

96. When defendants admitted having held certain bhateer land but pleaded that it was washed away, and the first Court regarded the plea as untenable, — held, that this was not an absolute finding that there had been no oblation, and that the Court was not bound to fix on defendant’s admission and hold him liable for — of the bhateer land.—19 W. R. 430. See (F. B.) 28 W. R. 205. But see 20 W. R. 64.

97. Where a landlord uses a ryot for arrears of — alleged to be due under a kolumbe, and the Court finds that such kolumbe has not been executed by the ryot, but it appears notwithstanding the ryot, occupied the ryot under the zamindar, the landlord’s right to a further trial of the question whether any — and how much is due, will depend upon the claim stated in the plaint. If that claim, in the alternative suit against the ryot, unable to prove on failure to prove the kolumbe, the landlord will claim — for the occupation of the land, the landlord is entitled to have that issue tried; but if a claim for — on account of such occupancy is not made in the plaint, the landlord is not so entitled, although it is in the discretion of the Court to amend the plaint on the issues, and when the omission has been from inadvertence or mistake, it would generally be proper to so do —. Rent (continued).

98. In a suit for arrears of rent, where plaintiff failed to make out his claim to bhadeo, and the first Court finding that there was evidence of a commutation, dismissed the suit with a reservation of plaintiff's right to bring a fresh suit for arrears, and the Lower Appellate Court finding that the defendant had admitted owes rent, it is deemed to have claimed the extent of the admission.—* Held that the Lower Appellate Court was right, and that the reservation of payment by the first Court was of doubtful operation.—21 W. R. 458.

99. In a suit for arrears of rent, where plaintiff sued the owner and the court passed judgment on the principal and interest, but the defendant had not given any security to pay the rent, it is not for the court to order the security to be given.—22 W. R. 12.

And so if a rost, for the purpose of preventing disputes with his landlord, agrees to make a definite payment to the landlord in addition to his, the additional payment cannot be treated as an illegal cess, for s. 3 Reg. V of 1812 rather favors such arrangements and provides for their being enforced.—23 W. R. 222.

100. The fact of some of the joint occupiers of a joint tenancy paying portions of the rent due from all, corresponding with the shares for which the joint occupiers are liable, cannot prevent the joint tenants from suing them all or making a formal assignment for the payment.—22 W. R. 395.

101. In a suit by a landlord to recover arrears of rent from tenants forcibly compelled by the superior holders of a tenure to execute a kumbolouk to themselves,—* Held that the act of the superior holders was not in law sufficient to constitute an onus of the plaintiff, but gave the tenant defendants a cause of action against them for damages.—22 W. R. 337.

102. In a suit for arrears of rent, plaintiff must show that there was some contract to pay, entered into by defendant; this may be shown either by the evidence of some contract or by evidence of previous payment from which a contract could be inferred.—22 W. R. 346.

103. Receipts signed by the landlord's agent, if shown to be authentic, are prima facie, but not conclusive, evidence of payment of rent.—22 W. R. 389.

104. Where the final decree in a suit for possession declared that defendant had a right of occupancy on payment of a proper rent, and was liable for rent from the date of suit, without defining the rate of rent, * Held that the decree was impotent, that the rate could not be ascertained in execution, and that another suit was necessary to determine the proper rate, i.e., to carry out the decree.—23 W. R. 228.

105. A landlord who refuses to accept bhadeo or rent in kind when offered to him, on the ground that he is not engaging for a money rent, cannot be deprived of the possession of his property by the tenant, come into Court again and sue his tenant for the value of what he refused when it was proffered.—23 W. R. 368.

106. Held, that those who were agentadars, voluntarily signed a jamaubander drawn up under s. 9 Reg. VII of 1822, specifying the amount of rent payable by them to the Government farmers with whom the settlement was made, * Held that the tenants were not entitled to a distinction from such specified rent—on account of costs of collection.—23 W. R. 136.

107. A putative's wages and allowances are in the nature of illegal cesses and cannot be recovered in a suit for rent.—23 W. R. 147.

108. Certain payments which were not so much in the nature of cesses as of a general and which were uniform and had been paid by the rost from the beginning according to local custom, were held not to be illegal cesses.—24 W. R. 4.

109. Where a lease was granted by a Deputy Collector without authority and soon afterwards set aside by the Collector, the tenant who was turned out of possession without any beneficial occupation from the short period of his lease, he was not liable for rent.—24 W. R. 91.

110. If a plaintiff's title to the roof is disputed, his suit must fail, even if he is in possession and has realized the rents of previous years.—24 W. R. 101. See also 24 W. R. 409.

111. In a suit for bhadeo where the quantity of land is disputed and the landlord produces as evidence a bhadeo or appraisal of the land, it is not necessary for him to show that the estimate was drawn up in defendant's presence and acknowledged by him, but only that defendant had notice when the bhadeo was about to be made.—24 W. R. 126.

112. Where a proposal of a bhadeo settlement is refused by a tenant who has heretofore paid rent in kind, but whose tenancy has expired, the landlord is quite at liberty to let the land to another person.—24 W. R. 218.

113. If the question of title is preliminarily arises between the parties to a suit, the Court is not compelled to dismiss the suit, but is bound to determine the question for the purposes of the suit.—24 W. R. 105. See 24 W. R. 409.

114. A rate of rent, as to a landlord for a certain year, is binding on the tenant as regards ensuing years, until the latter obtains a decree to a different effect.—25 W. R. 10.

115. A landlord who has let out land at a certain rate, the rent being payable in one sum for the whole, and the land not being let to the tenant in separate parcels in respect of each of which there is a separate assessment of the rent payable to the landlord, cannot, without the consent of the tenant, alter the position of the latter and say that in future so much of the rent shall be payable in respect of one parcel only, and so much in respect of another.—25 W. R. 35.

116. A tenant cannot afterwards be held liable for rent which he pays to a third party (co-sharer) with the acquiescence of his landlord expressed or implied, and where the relation of landlord and tenant comes with the consent of the landlord, the landlord cannot again claim, unless he shows how or when the relation revolved.—25 W. R. 114.

4. In a suit against the sons of a deceased debtor, as his representatives, the decree should be against the defendants as representatives, and the judgment-creditor left to proceed under s. 203 Act VIII of 1869.—Ser. 101.

5. In a suit against the representatives of a deceased obligor of a bond, if plaintiff makes it the foundation of his case that the defendants are in possession of property belonging to the deceased, the defendants can take issue upon that statement, and if they succeed, will be entitled to a decree absolving them from all liability. But if the suit be against the defendants simply as heirs and representatives of the deceased and plaintiff prays for a decree without going into the question of assets or no assets, he will be entitled to a decree on proving the execution of the bond and the enforcement of his decree under s. 203 Act VIII.—11 W. R. 431.

6. In a sale in execution against the — of a deceased person, the description of the property to be sold should contain the name of the defendant and should say “the right, title, and interest, of the defendant — of the deceased.”—18 W. R. 55.

7. Where a suit is brought under s. 203 Act VIII against the — of a deceased person, the defendant need not be sued in any "capacity," but should be described as stated in s. 26, and the plaintiff should contain an allegation that he is the — of such deceased person.—20 W. R. 280.

48. A suit to recover possession, as part of her own talook, of land which plaintiff had claimed in a former suit, was personal, is barred by s. 2 Act VIII,—10 W. R. 426. (affirmed by P. C.) 18 W. R. 163. See 12 W. R. 55, 13 W. R. 290, 22 W. R. 461, 24 W. R. 301.

49. Where plaintiff sued for possession of an estate purchased from I, during the pendency of a suit on the part of I against his vendor G for confirmation of possession, which latter suit was dismissed for default, the cause of action in the two suits was held to be no the same.—11 W. R. 193.

50. A dismissal for default under Reg. XXVI of 1814 is not a decision such as is contemplated by s. 148 Act VIII, and cannot be pleaded as — under s. 2 — 11 W. R. 250.

51. So also a dismissal for default generally.—11 W. R. 91, 24 W. R. 114.

52. Plaintiff's failure in a former suit to prove his claim to a different property, does not bar the present suit under s. 2 Act VIII, even though the title set up in both suits is identical.—11 W. R. 407.

53. Where plaintiff had obtained a decree for rent in a suit in which defendant's surety, from whom a bond has been taken, was made a nominal defendant, held that his present suit against the surety was not barred by s. 2 Act VIII, being on a bond never previously before a Court.—11 W. R. 117.

54. A previous decision against one member of a joint Hidkoo family suing to recover his own share, is no bar under s. 2 Act VIII to a suit by a receiver in the name of the whole family.—12 W. R. 117.

55. By taking up in its appeal stage a suit by a deceased Hindu widow (the life tenant in an ancestral estate) to set aside an agreement transferring a share to her grand-daughter, a revisioner is not barred, under s. 2 Act VIII, from suing himself to set aside the same agreement.—12 W. R. 234.

56. The reservation by a Court in India in a decree in a former case, giving the plaintiff liberty to bring a fresh suit, does not prevent the Court, when such fresh suit is brought, from entering into the question of — (P. C.) 12 W. R. 276, 25 W. R. 405.

57. A suit to recover money due as shown by plaintiff's account books is not barred, under s. 2 Act VIII, in consequence of the failure of plaintiff's previous suit to recover the money upon a bond.—13 W. R. 97.

58. The dismissal of a suit for enhanced rent does not bar a suit for rent at the rate admitted by the defendant.—19 W. R. 517.

57. In a former suit to recover property which plaintiff had been seized as a portion which had been previously purchased by one of the defendants who held a satt certificate thereof. Plaintiff's present suit to get rid of that sale was held to be different from the former suit and not barred by s. 2 Act VIII. 18 W. R. 434.

59. Where in a suit under cl. 6 s. 23 Act X the Collector restored plaintiff to possession, the question between the parties in a subsequent suit in the Civil Court was a — 19 W. R. 392 (P. B.).

60. In a suit to recover possession of land occupied by Municipal Commissioners, a decision in a similar suit brought by a sharer in which the present plaintiff was a pre former defendant is not binding as to any right plaintiff may have with regard to the land.—19 W. R. 461.

61. A suit by a widow against a childless widow as being without title, where the answer was that she had title as a testatrix of her absent husband, is not barred by s. 2 Act VIII to a suit, on the widow's death, by the same plaintiffs to obtain possession of the same lands held by defendant as the widow's adopted son.—19 W. R. 73.

62. Where a plaintiff's claim to have a property declared ijlauke was dismissed in a former suit, his suit for a partition of the same property was held to be barred against a defendant who was a party to that suit, as well as against defendants in possession in possession of the property.—20 W. R. 106.

63. A decision of a Collector under cl. 6 s. 23 Act X, in which he had no jurisdiction to go into the rights of the parties, is no bar to a suit in the Civil Court to determine the rights of the parties.—19 W. R. 177.

64. An adjudication of title by gift bars a subsequent claim by title on inheritance.—19 W. R. 168.

65. A suit for possession as the heir of S is not barred by s. 1644, when the claimants claim to have a property declared ijlauke, does not bar suit for declaration of plaintiff's title to the land as sad. —17 W. R. 181.

66. The dismissal (for want of proof of kuboolan) of a suit for enhanced rent of land alleged by defendant to be laksenaj, does not bar suit for declaration of plaintiff's title to the land as sad. —17 W. R. 181.

67. A former judgment deciding that plaintiff had no cause of action cannot operate as a — under s. 2 Act VIII. 17 W. R. 381.

68. The dismissal of a suit for rent is no bar, under s. 2 Act VIII, to a subsequent suit for mesne profits for the same period.—17 W. R. 387.

69. A court is held to apply where a question raised in the present suit was decided in a former suit wherein plaintiff's mother had appeared as his guardian, and it was presumed that she had the Court's permission so to do. —19 W. R. 492.

70. S. 2 Act VIII does not bar a suit for ejectment and has possession because plaintiff had in a former suit obtained a declaration that the land was his sad land and not defendant's laksenaj.—19 W. R. 19.

71. S. 2 Act VIII does not apply where the present plaintiff's name was ordered to be expunged from the list of defendants in a former suit but appeared notwithstanding by some mistake some two years afterwards in the decree orders, the same being on the present defendant to prove that the former suit was decided in the present plaintiff's presence.—18 W. R. 29.

72. A decree in a suit by a member of a joint Hindu family, declaring her right to a share of certain bonded debts due to the joint estate, is no bar, under s. 2 Act VIII, to a subsequent action for a share of money realized upon those debts, a fresh cause of action accruing from the time of appropriation.—18 W. R. 202.

73. In a suit against the vendor to declare plaintiff's right to a share of the property alleged to be sold, plaintiff obtaining his share out of a certain patot. Pending the suit plaintiff became a party to certain Mbarwa proceedings, but omitted to include his claim or to withhold his consent till it was ascertained when the patot was sold, he could not be a second suit against the same parties to establish the same right. —18 W. R. 200.

74. A party getting a judgment in a suit on a joint but not several contract, is prevented by s. 2 Act VIII from bringing a fresh suit against the persons jointly liable with the defendant but not included in the former suit. —18 W. R. 458.

But the dismissal of a suit on the ground of defect of parties, or a decision on the merits within the meaning of s. 2 Act VIII — 21 W. R. 272.

75. A suit to set aside the alleged adoption of defendant in which the adopting mother was made a party, was held barred by s. 2 Act VIII because the adoption had been not incidentally or collaterally, but substantially, in former suits, between the same parties, as to a portion of the property new at issue. —12 W. R. 222.

76. A landlord who fails to establish his right to get rent is not thereby prevented under s. 2 Act VIII from bringing a suit to get possession of the land. —19 W. R. 97.

And so (conversely) a suit for khas possession is no bar to a later suit for rent of the same land.—23 W. R. 233.

77. A party obtaining a decree for possession and failing to execute it, is precluded from bringing a second suit against the defendant for possession of the same property, unless upon a cause of action which has arisen since the decree was passed and which is not itself barred by limitation. —20 W. R. 412.

78. A suit dismissed for suid on the cause of misjoinder or multifariousness cannot be pleaded as — under s. 2 Act VIII. —21 W. R. 105.

79. A suit is not barred by s. 2 Act VIII by reason of a prior suit decided against plaintiff's father while plaintiff was a minor in which the father was a defendant. —21 W. R. 109.

80. The decision of an ordinary Civil Court in a suit for rent recognisable under Act VIII of 1860 (H. G.) is binding in a subsequent suit between the same parties which raises the same question in a different form. —21 W. R. 267.

It makes no difference that plaintiff in the subsequent suit took for a declaration of his right of which defendant deposed and which defendant pleaded as laksenaj.—22 W. R. 362.

81. Plaintiffs having sued for possession of property mortgaged under a sur-11pykee lease, and obtained a decree for possession on their depositing the sum found to be due on the mortgage, delayed to apply for execution till 1 years afterwards, when they alleged that the money had been paid off by the usufact of the land, and on their application being refused, they now sued for possession alleging that the debt had been discharged by the usufact,— Held that the present cause of action, within the meaning of s. 2 Act VIII, did not give the plaintiff the same rights as the former one, which was for the adjudication of the state of accounts between the parties up to a certain date, whereas the latter had reference to the accounts since that date.—22 W. R. 172.

82. A decree in a former suit for pucca rent, in which the account payable was put in issue, was held to be a bar, under s. 2 Act VIII, to a subsequent suit for a declaration as to the amount of such sums. —22 W. R. 280.

83. The fact that one of two defendants jointly and severally liable on a promissory note is excluded from a decree for want of jurisdiction, does not bar plaintiff from his remedy in a Court possessing jurisdiction with respect to the balance of claim irrecoverable from the other defendant. —22 W. R. 290.

84. A suit for a declaration of plaintiff's right to a clar which they claimed as an acretion to mouzhul, was held to be barred, under s. 2 Act VIII, by a judgment in a former suit in which they had claimed the same land as acretion to mouzhul, because, whether by acretion to the one estate or to the other, the question in both suits was that of title by acretion. —22 W. R. 464.

85. A decree in a suit for a share of ancestral property, modified in appeal as regards certain immovable to far a large extent, and confirmed to a specified share to the same parties, holding any specific declaration of value, is no bar under s. 2 Act VIII to a subsequent suit for the value of the moveables. —24 W. R. 25.

86. K died leaving a widow M as his heir. It also died a will in favor of B, who accordingly applied for letters of administration with the will annexed. This application was refused by the District Judge who granted a certificate under Act XXVIII of 1860 to one G; whereupon B sought his remedy in a suit before the Subordinate Judge, who held that the property being that of the husband, the widow’s will passed nothing to plaintiff, and that, although the evidence in favor of G being the husband’s heir was abundant, yet the Court could not say that he was not the heir. G now sued B for the rents of the property accruing since the widow’s death, contending that the Subordinate Judge’s decision operated as a bar to the questioning of his title. Held that the principle of — did not apply.—24 W. R. 111.

87. A suit to recover possession of land on the ground of purchase from the admitted owners is not barred by s. 2 Act VIII, simply because plaintiff’s claim as against the same defendant was dismissed in a former suit in which he (defendant) appeared as an intervener.—21 W. R. 248.

88. A plaintiff is bound to raise every title on which he can succeed, and to obtain a decision upon every part of his case; and if it is found that any part of the case which he made has been neglected by the Court which tried the suit, he is not at liberty to bring a fresh suit in respect of such part.—24 W. R. 304.

89. Where a suit for right of way was once thrown out on the specific ground that, according to plaintiff’s own statement, the road in suit was a public one and that the Court had no jurisdiction, to declare as such — Held that, as the real cause of action, viz. the obstruction of the road, was not decided in the first trial, s. 2 Act VIII did not bar a second suit for the removal of the obstruction.—25 W. R. 208.

90. In a suit where a Mooniff, in a suit for rent at an enhanced rate, declared that the tenure was not protected from enhancement, but finding that the grounds upon which enhancement was claimed were not established, gave a decision against the old rate, the finding of the Mooniff that the tenure was not protected from enhancement, whether such finding was contained in the decree or not, was held to be conclusive in a subsequent suit brought to recover rent at an enhanced rate.—25 W. R. 225.

91. Where a mother, in her capacity of guardian of minor sons, unsuccessfully sued a certain party to set aside certain kulas in which she had conveyed away to him the property of her late husband, on the ground that her act may have been injurious to the interests of her sons, a subsequent suit by the sons with substantially the same object in view, was held barred on the principle of — 25 W. 1. A suit for — of a lakheraj tenure under s. 23 Act X of 1869 will not lie upon the ground that the tenure is invalid, but merely upon the ground that the lakheraj was granted after 1st Dec. 1790; and the oonu probandih in such a case is on the plaintiff. —(P. B.) W. R. 61 (2 Hay 276, Marshall 301).

2. Defendant A was lakherajdar of 18 villages, out of which he made a gift of the lakheraj of 3 villages to defendant B, who gave one of them on a mukarruna tenure to plaintiff’s ancestor. The 18 villages were subsequently resumed by Government from A, who ultimately recovered them by appeal to the Privy Council. Immediately between the — and the final release, the Government had made a summary settlement of the 18 villages with A, who gave B a pritne of the 3 villages with a promise of the restoration of the lakheraj should the appeal to the Privy Council be successful. After the decision of the Privy Council A received his mesne profits from the Government for the time of dispossesee. Plaintiff now sued for recovery of his mukarruna rights and possession with mesne profits. Held that plaintiff was entitled to possession with mesne profits from the date of the Privy Council’s decree, but that, as to the period antecedent thereto, no wrong had been done to plaintiff either by A or B but by the Government, and that the Government must have been sued by any person injured by its acts of unlawful — — 1 Hay 13.

5. The special — laws are not applicable to a case in which the Revenue authorities act as private agents for a singular. Such a case is not barred by limitation under s. 21 Reg. II of 1819 and Reg. IX of 1825. —1 J. J. P. J. 229 (Ser. 794).

4. The competency of the Sudderland Commissioner to make resurrection, and the inapplicability of Reg. II of 1819 to such a case, is not a point to be raised for the first time in oral argument on appeal. The case having been dealt with as one under that legislation, is barred as not brought within one year from the date when plaintiff was referred to a civil suit.—1 R. J. P. J. 230 (Ser. 806).

6. A seminial is not entitled to resume lands in excess of 100 bighas not held under different annuums. In order to start a suit for possession or assessment under s. 10 Reg. XIX of 1723, plaintiff ought to make out a prior case at the commencement of the rent-free holding after 1723.—1 J. J. P. J. 231 (Ser. 875).

2. Suit for past mesne profits by Receiver who was also—S. C. C. 26.
4. — cannot sue for damages until the widow’s (the life-tenant’s) death.—7b.
5. A is not bound by any compromise effected by a Hindoo widow, and limitation will not run against him from the date of the compromise, but of the death of the widow.—2 Hay 477. See also 11 W. R. 168, 14 W. R. 146.
6. A may be appointed to act as trustee of a Hindoo widow who has made alienation without legal necessity.—2 Hay 582.
7. A cannot sue upon some contingent and uncertain right which may never accrue to him (as for a declaration of his right to succeed after the death of the tenant for life) but upon some positive right.—2 Hay 608, 9 W. R. 460. See also 16 W. R. 18, 24 W. R. 86.
8. The immovable property of a Hindoo widow was sold under a decree against her, and A was the purchaser at the sale. Afterwards and during the lifetime of the widow, the lands in question were sold for arrears of revenue due by A to Government in respect of other lands, and B was the purchaser at the sale. C, the widow’s lifetime to set aside the sale of the estate; but this suit was dismissed under s. 24 Act I of 1845 on the ground of limitation. After the widow’s death, the suit was revived for recovery of possession of the lands. Held (1) that the widow’s life-estate was alone acquired by the purchaser at the sale under the decree, and sold at the sale for arrears of Government revenue; and that interest having expired, the suit was barred by the decision of the Supreme Court. Held (2) that the plaintiff was not barred by the dismissal of the suit instituted in the widow’s lifetime, the object of that suit being to set aside the assignees of the widow’s interest, and not for the assertion of the plaintiff’s right to the reversion.—2 Hay 466 (Marshall 539).
9. A reversionary contingent interest subject to the life-estate of a Hindoo widow may be assigned. The assignee of such an interest is entitled to restrain the widow from committing waste.—Marshall 622.
10. Defendants urged that plaintiffs were not the reversioners of the widow, who had inherited not from her husband but from her son. But as it appeared that, if plaintiffs were born before the widow’s late husband’s death, they would still be reversioners, and defendants had not specifically met plaintiffs’ averment that they were reversioners, or brought evidence thereupon, the High Court on appeal refused to listen to their objection.—L. R. 170.
11. In a quaestio suit by a — against the daughter of an intestate Hindu in possession of a property, — Held that a Court of Equity would not interfere unless upon proof of danger from the mode in which the tenant for life in possession was dealing with the property.—P. C. 766a.
12. A person having only a contingent estate during the lifetime of a Hindoo widow, is permitted to sue simply on the ground of the necessity that the contingent — may be under of protecting his contingent interest.—P. C. 7 W. R. 1.
13. Rights of — in ancestral property how affected by sale made by Hindoo widow without necessity, or by Government for recovery of revenue.—1 W. R. 47.
14. A has no right of suit, during the lifetime of a widow, to set aside an alleged deed of alienation said to have been executed by his ancestor but alleged to be fabricated.—1 W. R. 339.
16. A suit by a — to set aside an alienation is cognizable if the title of the — has been injured by a distinct act of alienation, and if the widow who ought to have brought the suit has relinquished her life-interest and signified her assent to the suit proceeding.—W. R. 359.
18. The fact of a — being an attesting witness to a conveyance by a Hindoo widow, is an acquiescence on his part which precludes him from impeaching the sale on the ground of its invalidity.—6 W. R. 52.
19. A decree against a Hindoo widow for a loan to pay Government revenue is binding on A.—19.
20. A reversioner’s cause of action against his ancestor’s lessee does not accrue until the expiration of the lease, unless the — is evicted or deprived of his rent, or rent is received adversely to him by a stranger from the lessee.—8 W. R. 135.
21. A — suing to set aside alienations by the widow in possession, wrongly sought immediate possession, and the Lower Court decreed only such relief as to the — was entitled to. The course adopted by the Lower Court not being made the ground of appeal to the High Court, the High Court refused in special appeal to set aside the decree.—10 W. R. 133.
22. A whose rights are inchoate and imperfect cannot sue to set aside improper alienations by a Hindoo widow.—10 W. R. 301.
23. Under what circumstances a — may without showing undue fraud on the part of a Hindoo widow sue for possession during the lifetime of the widow.—(F. B.) 9 W. R. 505, 14 W. R. 322, 17 W. R. 11, 19 W. R. 419.
24. A suit by a — to restrain a widow or other Hindoo female from acts of waste, although his interest during her life is future and contingent, must be brought with that object and for that purpose alone, and the question to be discussed would be widely between him and her; he could not, by bringing such a suit, get, as between him and a third party, an adjudication of title which he could not get without it.—(P. C.) 23 W. R. 514.
25. In a suit by a — to set aside an alienation of ancestral property, where plaintiff questioned the acts of alienation effected jointly by his father and aunt, plaintiff was held entitled to maintain the suit even though his father, and not he, was the immediate.—24 W. R. 599.

Revival of Complaint.

1. Where a Deputy Magistrate revived a complaint which he had dismissed by mistake, and the Magistrate without jurisdiction reversed the Deputy Magistrate's order of revival, the High Court set aside the whole of the proceedings and restored the case to the position in which it was before the order of dismissal.—8 W. R., Cr. 5.

2. A Magistrate of a district has power to order a Subordinate Magistrate to revive a case in which the accused has been discharged.—20 W. R., Cr. 46.

3. The Magistrate can, after the accused has been discharged, receive a complaint if he sees sufficient reason for doing so and make it over to a Subordinate Officer to be heard, but he has no power to make an order of remand directing the Joint Magistrate to proceed with the case at the stage at which he left it.—20 W. Revival of Suit or Appeal.

1. The order of a Deputy Collector admitting a revival under s. 58 Act X of 1859 was final under s. 18 Act VI of 1862 (R. C.). The Collector was wrong in hearing an appeal from and reversing that order; and the Judge was also wrong in reversing the order of the Collector.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 15 (2 R. P. J. 90). 3 W. R. (Act X) 135.

2. Where an ex-parte decree has been passed by a Deputy Collector, a Collector has jurisdiction to revive the suit under s. 58 Act X of 1859, on an application made within 15 days after the sale in execution.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 47 (2 R. P. J. 364).

3. Revival of suit by defendant, under s. 58 Act X, must be within 15 days of the first process which necessarily brings the ex-parte decree to his notice.—2 W. R. (Act X) 15 (4 R. P. J. 48).

4. On an application under s. 58 Act X for the revival of a suit decreed ex-parte, a Deputy Collector acts contrary to law if he cancels the original decree before the defendant has satisfied him that there are good and sufficient reasons for granting the application.—2 W. R. (Act X) 77.

5. The depositing of talaqas in a wrong Court is no ground for the revival of an appeal dismissed for want of prosecution.—3 W. R., Mis. 29.

6. The revival of a suit under s. 58 Act X does not reopen the case so as to regard all the defendants but only as regards the party who has applied to have his particular case revived and heard on the merits.—7 W. R. 237.

7. Every Court has the discretion to restore to its files any process which has itself removed therefrom indetermined.—9 W. R. 286.

8. A Collector may alter or rescind an ex-parte decree passed by his predecessor when defendants apply under s. 58 Act X for a revival of the suit.—10 W. R. 156.

9. Before revival of a suit under s. 58 Act X, notice should be served upon the opposite party.—16 W. R. 135.

13. A claim to put down a house erected 7 years before on a path whereby plaintiff and others were accustomed to go across defendant’s land, was held unreasonable and such as no Court of equity or good conscience should enforce. — 10 W. R. 316.

14. A — may be created by passing over the land of another at particular seasons of the year only. — 10 W. R. 363.

15. A party with whose express consent the Magistrate alters an existing path to one more convenient to the public generally, is bound by such act, and has no right of adverse action. — 11 W.R. 301.

16. A — over another’s land, discontinued for the space of 10 years, cannot be re-established by suit. — 14 W. R. 79. See 16 W.R. 277.

17. Where a claim to a — is supported by evidence of user only, the Court must satisfy whether or not the user was founded on actual right; the guiding principle being that open user of another’s land for the purpose of a road or pathway, if continued without interruption for a long time and not attributable to permission or sufferance, induces the presumption that the user was of right. — 14 W. R. 724. See also 17 W.R. 11.

18. A general right of thoroughfare includes a — for marriage or other procumens unless expressly prohibited at the time of the inception of the right. — 15 W.R. 46, 20 W. R. 292.

19. No length of time can give such a right as destroy all the ordinary uses of the servient property, e.g. a straggling right as to the promiscuous use of the whole property for the purpose of driving cattle over it. — 15 W. R. 285.

20. A — from one point to another over another’s land, does not give the right to pass in a particular tortuous and indirect course between the two points. — 15 W. R. 496.

21. The purchaser of a house acquires the — to a road which had been enjoyed with the house by the vendor, if it is not merely a right to a way of necessity, but a particular right over a defined path. — 15 W. R. 328.

22. A right to a path by a door leading to a joint property is not a claim to a right of user, but a claim of obstruction. — 16 W. R. 277.

23. A — need not have its origin in an express grant.
RIGHT OF WAY (continued).

23. Where, upon the construction of a conveyance, the plaintiffs were considered to have acquired, not a right in the soil of a passage, but only a — over it. Held that they were only entitled to complain of any acts of the defendant which obstructed them in the enjoyment of that — and to an injuction to future obstructions, and that the use of doors, opened out by the defendant from his house into the passage to clean privies, was a serious obstruction to the use of the plaintiffs’.—(O. J.) 18 W. R. 379.

24. S. 52 Act XXXV of 1861 does not apply to a private dispute between two parties relative to a path.—19 W. R., Cr. 6.

25. Where plaintiff asks to have a — declared over a piece of land, he should be required to specify the direction and extent of the way; but where plaintiff seeks to close up a way, defendants proving that there is a — over the place, is a sufficient answer to the claim.—20 W. R. 94.

26. Where a new way is substituted for an old one with the consent of the person entitled, and the non-user of the original way is accompanied by acts which warrant the Court in inferring an intention to release, the right of re-accumulation is lost, and the non-user need not extend over any defined period.—20 W. R. 188.

27. In a suit for a declaration that defendant had no — over a canal belonging to plaintiff, where it appeared that defendant had obtained an order from the Magistrat under s. 320 Act XXXV of 1861, the owner was held not to lie with defendant to prove an easement, but with plaintiff to prove that he was entitled to exclusive possession.—21 W. R. 140.

28. A right of user over a pathway may be established notwithstanding that the path passes over waste land.—21 W. R. 340.

29. A temporary interruption, such as during the rainy season, cannot affect such right of user.—ib.

30. An order (under s. 320 Act XXXV of 1861 or s. 532 Act X of 1872) declaring that, as between the parties to a contention regarding a — over certain land, the land in dispute did not belong to the public, is not one the contravention of which can form the subject of an order under s. 188 Penal Code.—24 W. RIGHT TO LIGHT AND AIR.

1. Ancient lights cannot be obstructed by the owner of the adjacent land building on it, so as to obscure the light and air always enjoyed. Whether the party has or has not other windows on another side of his premises is immaterial.—3 W. R. 29.

2. Money damages will be no compensation for the injury, but the obstructions must be removed.—4 W. R. 23.

3. The owner of a house cannot by prescription claim to be entitled to the free and uninterrupted passage of a current of wind. He can claim no more air than is sufficient for sanitary purposes, and only so much light as is necessary to make the premises fit for occupation or business.—2 Hyde 125.

4. A person cannot be allowed to maintain a wall to the injury of his neighbour. But where A built an upper story to his house overlooking the inner apartments of B, who therewith built a wall which A complained deprived him of light and air, it was held that, as A was the first and greater wrongdoer, he was entitled to no relief even if it were shown that B’s wall had deprived him of light and air after long enjoyment thereof.—5 W. R. 208.

5. Defendant having built on his own ground a wall which blocked up plaintiff’s apertures in his house for the egress of smoke and ingress of air, was required to make corresponding apertures in his wall, so as to render unnecessary the pulling down of the wall.—6 W. R. 86.

6. Under the English law which prevailed before the 2 & 3 Wm. IV c. 71, in order to establish a right to light, an uninterrupted user of at least 20 years with the acquiescence of the owner of the servient tenement, must be proved. Where a building was commenced, with the manifest intention of being erected as an obstruction, before the expiration of the 20 years, although it was not raised to such a height as to actually amount to an obstruction until some days after the 20 years had elapsed, the plaintiffs had not established their case.—(1 L. C.) 194.

7. Any prescriptive — which an old house may have conferred, disappears with the construction of a new one.—20 W. R. 185.

See Easement 8.

RIGHT TO SUE.

1. An unborn son’s — does not give a perpetual right of action.—1 W. R. 283.

2. Under the Law of Procedure of India, it is necessary that the party who holds the real beneficiary interest in the property sued for, should come forward as plaintiff. A trustee may sue, but then he represents the beneficiary interest of the — or trustee, and would not put himself forward to the Court as himself the principal or caestui-guetrust, and not the trustee. A beneficiary holder may sue as trustee in behalf of a beneficial owner, without disclosing the name of the real owner; and if the defendant does not object to the suit proceeding in that form and raises no issue upon the real title of the plaintiff, the suit may proceed and be decided, the judgment being binding in the place of the real owner. But if the defendant objects to the suit being instituted by the nominal and fictitious owner, and denies plaintiff’s —, the suit cannot proceed or must be dismissed.—3 W. R. 189, 20 W. R. 72.

But plaintiff’s prind facio title under a lease and bill of sale is sufficient to give him a — for possession, and defendant cannot raise a question as to plaintiff’s nominal ownership.—18 W. R. 164, 21 W. R. 99.
8. Question. Whether a new suit will lie upon a decree pending an appeal.—5 W. R. 276.

4. An unsuccessful application by the grandmother of a minor for a certificate under Act XI of 1868 is no bar to her under a perpetuity authorising her to represent the minor.—5 W. R., 96.

5. The widow of one of three judgment-creditors, having failed to be made a party to the original suit under s. 78 Act VIII, has a — for her share of the money received under the decree.—10 W. R. 297.

6. The purchaser of a patrician's rights and interests sold in execution of a decree during the pendency of a suit brought by the latter against his tenants, acquires the property of the suit on the sale.—12 W. R. 122.

9. Where, subsequent to the execution of a bond, plaintiff took from the obligor an ijarah and a dur-ijarah and executed ijarah kulaebent agreeing to accept payment of the bond by setting off the rents due on the kulaebent, and the parties stipulated that, at the end of the term of the ijarah accounts should be settled, neither party being free to put an end to the case,— Held that plaintiff could not sue on the bond till the termination of the case.—13 W. R. 24.

10. Where plaintiff alleged that defendant took away from him for a certain purpose a document which he falsely says is lost, plaintiff was held to have a — either to recover that document, or, if lost, to require defendant to execute a similar document.—15 W. R. 189.

11. Jukkersjars whose lands have been resumed have the right, under s. 15 Reg. VII of 1822 (if not barred by limitation), to bring a civil suit to revise, annul, or alter a settlement made by the Collector, not only as against those who claimed the settlement before the Revenue authorities, but against all who have claims.—15 W. R. 537.

12. The — under s. 107 Act X is confined to one of the two parties concerned, namely decree-holder and claimant; and does not refer to the judgment-debtor who has nothing to do with the claim.—19 W. R. 106.

13. There exists no — to set aside an order of the Court which has jurisdiction, deciding that a will is not sufficiently proved and vesting the management of a minor Hindoo's property in her guardian.—19 W. R. 127.

11. A member of a joint family has no — alone for the recovery of property belonging to other members as well as himself. If he cannot induce them to join him in a suit, he must make them defendants.—20 W. R. 138.

15. Ryots interfered with in the occupation of their land have a — for an injunction restraining the trespasser; but when they are ousted, the possessor has — the trespasser to recover possession.—22 W. R. 74.

16. One of the members of a committee of guardianship and management has no — without the authority of the other members.—23 W. R. 242.

17. A purchaser from a party not in possession has a — to recover the land. — (Citing decisions on the point) 25 W. R. 223.

18. Where defendants had given a plaintif certain hoondees, on the dischannelling of which by defendants' agent defendants executed a fresh bond for the amount of the hoondees but failed to deliver it to plaintiff who therefore did not return the hoondees to defendants. — Held that the delivery of the bond was a condition precedent to the cancellation of the hoondees, and that plaintiff had a — upon the hoondees.—25 W. So also in a sale of the rights and interests of one member in a joint family.—9 W. R. 452.

14. A.—in execution of decree cannot be reversed under s. 266 Act VIII on the ground of irregularity where substantial injury is proved or alleged.—Sec. 685; 2 W. R., Mis. 1; 6 W. R. Mis. 82; 11 W. R. 114, 226; 12 W. R. 486; 19 W. R. 78; 22 W. R. 530; 24 W. R. 227, 240.

15. A member of a joint Hindu family can sue a judgment-creditor for damages in bringing his estate unjustly to — during his minority and while he was unrepresented, in execution of an ex parte decree upon a bond given to the judgment-creditor by the minor's father, and may claim compensation from the creditor in the shape of a restoration of the estate if the creditor be the auction-purchaser.—Sec. 846.

16. In the absence of a regularly appointed guardian, the party dealing with the managing members of a joint Hindu family for the share of minors or absent persons, is bound to see not only to the necessity but also to the application of the purchase-money.—Sec. 846.

17. A.—conducted by a Peshkar, by direction of his Moonib who was indisposed, was upheld, no substantial injury being shown to have resulted.—W. R. Sp. 44.

18. The notice of the intention to be put up for — is alone what must be looked at as affording an estimate of the value and extent of the purchase.—W. R. Sp. 55.

19. Where the rights of a Mahomedan widow, who has been declared under Act XIX of 1851 entitled to a fourth share of her husband's estate, but who has never had possession, are sold, and a suit is pending by deceased husband's nephew to recover that share on the ground that the vendor had been divorced, all that the vendors are entitled to is to represent the vendor in the suit.—W. R. Sp. 93.

20. A.—in execution of a decree pending appeal and subsequently reversed cannot stand, and the party dispossessed is entitled to recover with mesne profits.—W. R. Sp. 129.

21. Where land is attached in execution, its liability to under s. 216 Act VIII of 1859 depends on the fact of possession; but to set aside under that section, the right and title must be ascertained.—W. R. Sp. 163.

22. Where a — by a guardian is reversed and the bond sale purchaser ordered to be re-imbursed, the minor is liable for the purchase-money.—W. R. Sp. 208.

23. Where a decree is sold and the — is admitted by the decree-holder in Court, the judgment-debtor cannot contest the purchaser's right to execute it, except on the plea of payment.—W. R. Sp. 313 (L. R. 31).

24. Where a jote is attached and sold for two out of three decrees for rent against it, it is liable for all three decrees.—W. R. Sp. 387 (2 R. J. P. J. 122).

25. An under-tenure is liable under s. 105 Act X of 1859 — in execution of a decree for arrears of rent for even 11 years. The proprietor wishing to stay a — must proceed under s. 106.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 48 (2 R. J. P. J. 212).

26. Under s. 105 a transferable under-tenure may be sold in execution of decree, provided there be an arrear of rent adjudged.—W. R. Sp. (Act X) 91 (L. R. J. P. J. 19).

27. A.—of Mogulun dues by a Mahomedan widow was annulled as made without proof of power to sell.—(P. C.) 5 W. R. P. C. 61 (P. C. R. 77).

29. The words “attachment and —” in s. 235 Act VIII are to be taken together and not distributively. Taken in that sense, a — of mortgaged premises is to follow an attachment, and is not to be an independent proceeding unconnected with a previous attachment.—1 Hyde 196.

30. So the same words in ss. 201 and 250 Act VIII, a — without previous attachment being illegal.—8 W. R. 418, 113 Ind. 226.

31. Although purchasers are not bound to look to the application of the purchase-money, or to enquire whether there were goods sufficient to redeem a mortgage, it is the duty of the purchaser to obviate the necessity of a — of a minor's property, yet the purchaser's not proving necessity or not satisfying himself of the existence of necessity, and the unwillingness of the minor's mother to dispose of the property in his minority,

SALE (continued).

58. Under s. 258 Act VIII, where a — of immovable property is set aside, the purchaser is entitled to recover back his purchase-money. If the Court reversing the — order of the High Court, the purchaser can sue to recover the money from the person who has received it. — 1 W. R. 65; 6 W. R. 147. (O. J.) 19 W. R. 16. But see 10 W. R. 366, and (recovered by R. J.) 132 post.

59. Modifying the error caused the — of a house wrongly attached, does not involve liability for subsequent destruction of the house. — 1 W. R. 95.

60. S. 257 Act VIII applies only to a — in execution held after that Act came into operation. — 1 W. R. 204.

61. A — of land paying revenue to Government need not be held by the Collector under s. 248 Act VIII unless the Government shall so direct. — 1 W. R. Mis., 3.

62. A proclamation of 20 days is necessary when the property is first advertised, and not when the — is postponed for the convenience of the debtor. — Ib.

63. S. 255 Act VIII relates to a re-sale and not to a post-poned. — Ib.

64. A — second attaching creditor cannot be set aside at suit of first, who delayed to proceed to — 2 W. R. 62.

66. Where a tenancy has been sold under s. 103 Act X in execution of a decree for the rent of land held under a mooraee pattiha, a tenant in possession is at liberty to show that the decree was obtained by fraud and collusion against a person who then had no interest in the premises. — 2 W. R. (Act X) 63.

67. Receipt of rent from a transferee debuts the remainder from selling the tenant for prior arrears. — 2 W. R. (Act X) 86 (P. R.) 114 post.

68. And amounts to his assenting to the transfer of the tenant whether the whole is sold or a part. — 14 W. R. 211.

69. A, being mortgagee of two properties, M and P, obtained a decree against M, which was not attacked and lotted for sale, P to be sold first, and M afterwards. On the application of the judgment-debtor, the Principal Subadar Ameeen sold M first and P next. After the —, J. claming as purchaser of M under a conveyance due to him subsequently to the mortgage, applied to the Court to set aside the — as irregular. Held that he could not come under s. 256 Act VIII, ss. 256 and 257 not applying to a third party, but the judgment-debtor alone. — 2 W. R. Mis., 13; 24 W. R. 452.

70. Under s. 257 Act VIII, the order of a Judge on an appeal, setting aside a — of immovable property on the ground of irregularity, is final, and cannot be reviewed in the Act XXI of 1881, the decree is shown to have acted without jurisdiction. — 2 W. R. Mis., 19. See 4 W. R., Mis., 22.

71. The — of property mortgaged to A, in execution of a decree against B, will not extinguish B's lien, whether notification of the mortgage was given or not at the time of —. — 2 W. R. Mis., 21.

72. A — in execution of a decree is simply what the — notification expresses it to be, viz. a — of the rights and interests of the judgment-debtor. — 8 W. R. 65; 6 W. R. 223. See 71 post.

73. Neither s. 257 nor s. 287 Act VIII applies to a suit to set aside a — made under Reg. VII of 1825. — 3 W. R. 70.

74. Irregularities occurring in a — under that Regulation are not sufficient to vitiate the —, unless they cause injury to the party suing. — Ib.

75. A lender is not bound to concur into the exact amount necessary to be borrowed to meet an estate from for years of revenue. It is sufficient if he satisfy himself of the existence of a necessity to justify him in looking to the estate for repayment. — 3 W. R. 122.

76. Subordinate under-tenants not created in good faith, are not protected if mortgaged to A, and the tenement itself (a bond ear in this case) is sold for arrears of rent. — 3 W. R. 127. See also 6 W. R. (Act X) 86; 7 W. R. 318.

77. Where the legal necessity for a — by a mother during her minority was vested in the law itself, it may be proved by other evidence. — 3 W. R. 154.

78. A mortgage created by a defaulting under-tenant cannot prejudice an auction-purchaser of the tenure sold for arrears of rent under s. 105 Act X. — 8 W. R. 217.

80. A fresh proclamation under s. 240 Act VIII is necessary in case of an indefinite postponement of — in execution. — 3 W. R. Mis., 64; 13 W. R. Mis., 84; 17 W. R. 339, 22 W. R. 481; 25 W. R. 826.

82. The non-issue of such a proclamation is an objection to the regularity in publishing the —, which ought, by s. 256 Act VIII, to be investigated. — Ib. See also 25 W. R. 183.

83. Chowkeddar's receipts and Naib's returns are not evidence per se of the proclamation of a —. — Ib.

84. A — in execution of a decree is illegal if made on a day which, though not a fixed holiday, yet was a day on which the Courts were closed by order of the High Court, and therefore as much a holiday as any other fixed holiday. — 3 W. R. Mis., 21.

85. A purchaser is not bound to prove the necessity of a —. — 1 W. R. 64.

86. Under s. 105 Act X read together with ss. 86 and 87, a Collector acts without jurisdiction in ordering the — of an estate in execution of a decree for rent against other landed property before proceeding against the person or movable property of the debtor or against the tenant upon which the arrear accrued; and a suit lies in the Civil Court to set aside the Collector's order as illegal. — 8 W. R. (Act X) 5; 8 W. R. 511; 9 W. R. 80, 809; 10 W. R. 224; 11 W. R. 526.

87. In a — under s. 105 Act X, the tenant is held free of all incumbrances; whereas in a — under s. 110 only the rights and interests of the defaulter are sold. — 4 W. R. (Act X) 80. See also 6 W. R. (Act X) 15, 25 W. R. 358. But see 91 post.

88. Before a — is confirmed, a party objecting to the regularity of the — proceedings on the ground that the notifications of — and attachment had not been properly issued, should be allowed to adduce proof of non-service or insufficient service. — 4 W. R., Mis., 9.

89. The misconduct of a decree-holder may be a good cause of action, but cannot be a ground for setting aside a — which can only be done summarily on proof of irregularity in the — proceedings resulting in material injury to the debtor. — Ib.

90. A guardian does not act bond fide if he makes no real attempt to satisfy himself as to the necessity for a —. — 5 W. R. 103.

91. A Court is not bound to consider a decree of — to be a decree of absolute when the parties treat it as a decree of conditional. — 5 W. R. 101.

92. By a — in execution of s. 105 Act X, the rights and interests of a judgment-debtor as recorded proprietor of a Government-re-umed revenue-paying estate, released rent-free lands lying in the estate do not pass to the purchaser. — 5 W. R. 170.

93. A purchaser at a — for arrears of rent has a preferential title over a purchaser at a prior — in execution of a civil decree, though damages may be recovered by the latter on proof of collusion and fraud. — 8 W. R. 205. See 13 W. R. 449. But see 160 post.

95. Even if the — had been held directly under Act XI of 1859.— 9 W. R. 538.

96. So also as to a — under s. 105 Act X. — (P. R.) 6 W. R. (Act X) 52. See 9 W. R. 80, 16 W. R. 95.

97. Where a decree-holder is only a sharer in a joint undivided estate, and the property sold is a share in a pasted tenure, the — did not take place under s. 105 Act X, but under s. 108 under which latter section only the rights and interests of a defaulter can pass. — 5 W. R. (Act X) 71. See 15 W. R. 234, 22 W. R. 421.

98. The omission to obtain an injunction to stop a — in execution cannot operate as a bar of right to object to the — sought to be set aside on the ground of irregularity. — 5 W. R. Mis., 46.

99. Nor the silence of the decree-holder on a previous occasion. — 16 W. R. 95.
SALE (continued).

69. In a suit for money secured by a mortgage of daded property, the decree having ordered the — of that property in favor of the decree-holder was held to be an order that property to — before he could sell any other property belonging to the judgment-debtor.—6 W.R., Mis. 42.

70. Inadequacy of consideration is not conclusive proof of void sale. — a sale by the guardian of a minor. — 6 W.R., G. 30.

71. Payment of debts incurred in performing a father's professional services and maintenance of the minor, are sufficient legal necessities — 6 W.R., S. 34.

72. If, under an execution against A, B's property is sold, B is not bound to receive the — before he can recover possession; nor will his asking to receive the — preclude him from recovering possession. — 6 W.R., G. 47.

73. A deed of — executed by a mortgagee in fraud of creditors is void against any one of them who may obtain a decree against him, although the deed may have been executed before the — 6 W.R., J. 90.

74. A tenure purchased in execution of a decree for current rent, cannot be resold for the arrears of former years, which must be recovered from the former proprietor. — 6 W.R., 112.

75. A — under a mooshkaraman, authorizing B to sign A's name, is valid as regards the right of the purchaser to recover the purchase-money although the mooshkaraman was not verified until after A's death. — 6 W.R., 173.

76. Where a joint family property it is not necessary for the purchaser of an estate actually sold to see the application of the purchase-money, yet it is necessary for him to make due inquiry as to the necessity to sell. — 6 W.R., 193.

77. It is sufficient for him to be satisfied of the fact of necessity; he need not enquire into its causes. — 6 W.R. 221.

78. He is bound to prove the fact that family necessity actually existed, but only to establish that he made due inquiry which reasonably led him to suppose that necessity existed. — 21 W.R., 194.

79. Property not attached and not advertised for — cannot be sold in execution of a — 6 W.R., 223.

See 44 ante and 104 post.

78. Where a — is fraudulently converted into a mortgage, but subsequently as between the parties to the fraud, reverted to its original state, the transaction stands good as — 6 W.R., 203.

79. Sales between near relatives. — See Bannamee 3; Hindoo Law (Sale) 6; Orus Probandii 139. 253; endeavors. 147; ante 1.

80. A suit by an unregistered holder will lie in a Civil Court to set aside the — of tenures sold in execution of a decree for rent after the money due upon the decree was deposited. s. 151 Act X of 1859 notwithstanding. (F.B.) 6 W.R. (Act X) 59.

81. Under s. 151 Act X, a suit will not lie in the Civil Court against an order of a Collector refusing to hold a — of tenure for arrear of rent. — 6 W.R. (Act X) 63.

82. Under s. 271 Act VIII, a mortgagee of property which is sold in execution subject to a mortgage, is not entitled to have the surplus proceeds paid out to him in satisfaction of a decree which he has obtained upon his mortgage and upon which he has issued execution. — 6 W.R., Mis. 13.

The proviso in s. 271 applies to a case where the property is actually sold subject to a mortgage and where the purchaser is in fact the only buyer of the equity of redemption which remains in the judgment-debtor, but does not apply where there is merely the right by law in the mortgagee to enforce his mortgage against the purchaser. — 14 W.R., 292.

The words "must be taken to mean "sold with notice of the mortgage." — 21 W.R., G. 43.

83. Having elected to satisfy his mortgage lien and proceed the — of the landed property subject to that lien, he must receive himself from the mortgaged property. — 16 W.R., 206.

84. Where a decree directs the — of A's property first and then of B's, if the decree-holder is unable from opposition to sell A's property and proceed against B's and cannot realize his decree, he has not lost his right to attach and sell A's property. — 6 W.R., Mis. 18.

84. A judgment-debtor whose right in the property in dispute was put up for — under a previous execution and purchased by the decree-holder himself, can contest the legality of the — 6 W.R., Mis. 31.

85. Inadequacy of price is not a sufficient ground for setting aside a — in execution unless it be the effect of an irregularity in the — 14 W.R., 43.

86. Where irregularities were alleged in the mode of enforcing attachment and making proclamation of — the Judge was required to go fully into the case and determine whether the debtor had sustained substantial injury. — 6 W.R., Mis. 44.

87. Objections by the judgment-debtor to a — in execution being made absolutely can be tried only under s. 236 and 257 Act VIII, under which a — can be set aside only on the ground of irregularity in publishing or constructing the — and not on the ground of the illegality of the — 6 W.R., Mis. 46.

88. Nor on the ground of fraud. which forms a distinct cause of action. — 8 W.R., 506, 11 W.R., 244. See also 19 W.R., 414.

88. A default under s. 221 Act VIII is not an irregularity in conducting the — under s. 256, 6 W.R., Mis. 52.

89. The irregularities referred to in s. 236 and 257 Act VIII are irregularities at the — and not after. — 6 W.R. 97.

90. An objection by the representative of a deceased person that he has taken nothing by inheritance, is not an irregularity contemplated by s. 256, and must be raised before the — in execution has taken place, otherwise the objection must be set aside the — by suit in the Civil Court. — 6 W.R., Mis. 116.

91. An application for the reversal of a — cannot be entertained under s. 256 if made after 30 days from the date of. — 6 W.R., Mis. 122.

92. On an application to set aside a — under s. 256, before ascertaining whether any substantial injury has accrued to the debtor, the Court must come to a distinct finding that there has been an irregularity in publishing or conducting the — 6 W.R., Mis. 125. See also 20 W.R., 424.

93. A bid for a property put up to — in execution of a decree held by B, and the lessor of the property, is valid. The next day the property was sold in execution of a decree held by U who had a previous lien on the estate. The property having been resold under s. 254 Act VIII for a less sum than that bid by B, is good to that difference. — 6 W.R., Mis. 126. See 21 W.R., 149.

94. The right to hold — lands necessarily passes with the — to the auction-purchaser. — 7 W.R., 40.

95. In case of default under s. 254, it is only the deposit which can be forfeited, not any right which the decree-holder may have under his decree. — 7 W.R., 110. See 21 W.R., 119.

96. When the forfeiture of a tenant admitted in possession is sold (under s. 103 Act IX) in execution of a decree for rent, he has no right to sue for the reversal of the — if a stranger to the former proceedings appears to urge his claims before the Collector under s. 106 and is overruled, he can sue within a year of the Collector's decision; but if he does not do so, there is nothing to prevent his suing in the ordinary way in the Civil Court. — 6 W.R., 183. See also 9 W.R., 286, 308.

The above ruling was affirmed by the Privy Council as to sales under the Regulations (v.g. VII of 1879 and VIII of 1819). — 17 W.R., 197.

98. Sales of under-tenures under Act VIII of 1835 for grears of rent, are required to be according to the procedure prescribed by s. 2 of that Act and not that laid down in Reg. VII of 1799. — 7 W.R., 297.

99. Proof of irregularity in publishing the processes of — under s. 104 Act X is not sufficient to render the decree-holder liable to damages, without proof that such irregularity was caused by him. — 7 W.R., 307.
SALE (continued).

100. If a—takes place in execution of a decree in force and valid at the time of sale, the property in the thing sold passes to the purchaser. If the decree or judgment be afterwards reversed upon appeal, the reversal does not affect the validity of the sale or the title of the purchaser.—7 W. R. 312, S. W. R. 300, 12 W. R. 508. See also 19 W. R. 534. But see 23 W. R. 452.

So also if the decree be set aside upon review.—10 W. R. 144. See 16 W. R. 473.

101. A—made under a contract that the purchase-money shall be paid afterwards, may be complete though the deed in evidence of the contract is not completed. The non-performance of the deed would not annul such contract.—7 W. R. 317.

102. Act VIII of 1855—merely changes the course of procedure in sales in certain cases and does not give the purchaser of a holding in a kist, mehal, the position or privileges accorded by ss. 37 and 62 Act XI of 1859.—7 W. R. 318.

103. A shareholder is not precluded from purchasing the whole of a howad tenure sold for arrears of rent due from himself and his co-shareholders.—7 W. R. 318.

104. Under Act VIII of 1855, no separate attachment of a mehal, or notification of— in the Mofussil, is necessary to render a—valid.—7 W. R. 409, (overruled by P. C.) 17 W. R. 397. The postponement of a—from a holiday to the next advertised day does not require a new distinct notification.—Ib.

106. A— for arrears of rent is not invalid because it is not for the full year's arrear.—Ib.

107. Fraud or collusion justifies a—a in execution being set aside.—Ib. See also 10 W. R. 362. But see 12 W. R. 48.

108. Attachment by the appellant of a seazal is, no longer valid for arrears of rent due before such attachment.—Ib.

109. A—of an under-tenure under Act VIII of 1853 was set aside on the ground (inter alia) of non-tender of arrears of rent due.—Ib.

In a suit to set aside a—a in execution where the only question raised in the first Court was whether certain persons had been duly conveyed certain shares in the estate purchased by the decree-holder previously to the passing of the Act, it is competent to the Lower Appellate Court to inquire into the title or interest of any shareholders (not parties to the suit) as adverse to those of the decree-holder.—7 W. R. 412.

110. The alienation of attached property is sold by the judgment-debtor, and a part of the proceeds paid on account to the judgment-creditor who withdraws from the execution, the— is not invalidated by the attachment.—7 W. R. 429. See also 10 W. R. 362.

112. Any—of property after attachment is illegal under s. 240 Act VIII.—7 W. R. 510.

113. An attachment is not always an essential preliminary to a—a in execution, and the judgment-debtor cannot object that the property has been processed without being first attached.—8 W. R. 9. But see 29 ante.

114. Where a decree was for arrears of rent due on a tenure, the tenure itself is sold, and all the co-shareholders are jointly liable,—8 W. R. 60.

115. A civil action will not lie to reverse a—a—of property carried out under s. 185 Act XXV of 1861.—8 W. R. 207.

189. In order to realize the amount of his decree against I, S caused the right of interests in any one proceeds of property sold (under Act XI of 1829) for arrears of Government revenue (which surplus was in deposit with the Collector) to be attached and sold, inserted into the receiver of the money into Court, which money was taken out by S and others in satisfaction of decrees against R. On plaintiffs applying for I's sake in the surplus, they learnt that the — for arrears of revenue had been set aside, and now sue for refund of the purchase-money with interest. Held that the rule applicable to this case was that applied by Courts of Equity where vitiated sales are set aside, viz. that, as the transaction ought never to have taken place, so the rights of the parties ought, as far as possible, to be placed in the position in which they would have stood if there had never been any such transaction; and that the purchaser was in the situation of a mortgagee so far as he had made payment in consideration of the conveyances not being voluntary, and was entitled to recover his claim with interest; but that, in the event of an appeal to the Privy Council against the order setting aside the Government — of property, the plaintiff would not have any rights is consequence.—19 W. R. 351.

Overruled by the Privy Council who held that the above rule was not applicable to this case, inasmuch as the rule proceeds upon the doctrine of equity that a plaintiff who comes to be relieved from an obligation whom he represents, on equitable grounds, must do equity and submit to those equitable conditions which the Court may see fit to impose on its grant of relief, whereas in this case the purchaser was not seeking the aid of the Court, but was sued as a defendant for money paid, not under any contract of his or in any transaction to which he was a consenting party, but under proceedings taken in instam; and that plaintiff, having bought it, is interent in the —

Proceeds subject to the contingency of his succeeding in his suit to set aside the revenue, in which event that interest would be nil, there was no general equity existing before the mortgage upon which the judgment-debtor was compelled to restore plaintiff to his original position, because the event on which plaintiff speculated had gone against him. - (P. C.) 28 W. R. 303.

79. Where an estate, which is encumbered on the fee simple of the Crown, consists of villages of which only the greater number are situated within that district, it may, for the purposes of attachment and in execution of a decree, be considered as wholly situated in that district, and be so dealt with by the District Court. - 19 W. R. 434.

90. A Court having local jurisdiction is competent to sell in execution one or more outlying portions of an estate even though the greater portion of that estate is not within its jurisdiction. - 23 W. R. 174.

191. Where a judgment-creditor attached certain property in execution of a decree passed after the mortgage of the property by a bond, and before its - execution of a decree passed on that bond, it was not that he had a right to sell the rights and interests of his judgment-debtor in the property, and was entitled to keep the money which saved the - - 20 W. R. 19.

192. Plaintiff caused to go into Court to follow into the hands of the defendant certain property to which the latter had by transfer acquired the title of the mortgagee of the bond - held in June 1843. The ground of his claim was that the latter owned the said property before the judgment, and had given permission to adopt a son, and thereupon in 1855 he had adopted plaintiff; that the - was of the widow's interest merely, the permission to adopt having given her, in the event of an adoptee, a life-interest in the property; and that upon her death in 1865 he had obtained legal title to the said property, and that as the proceeds of the execution - were not applied to satisfy only a liability incurred after the owner's death, but also decrees for which the latter was liable. The said property is described by the long title acquired by the defendant. - (P. C.) 20 W. R. 30.

193. Where an under-tenure has been transferred, but the transfer is not registered in the sharista of the under-tenant, the transferor is nevertheless entitled, as a person interested in the protection of the tenure, to stop - in execution of a decree under Act VIII of 1865 (B. C.) by paying into Court the amount of the decree, and the execution is stayed. - 20 W. R. 59.

194. The party purchasing at an execution - in the character of an agent cannot be made liable as a principal; and if a re-sale should become necessary, a proceeding upon the contract entered into would follow the decree. - 22 W. R. 149.

195. The party purchasing at an execution - in the character of an agent cannot be made liable as a principal; and if a re-sale should become necessary, a proceeding upon the contract entered into would follow the decree. - 22 W. R. 149.

196. A - in execution of a decree under Act VIII of 1865 (B. C.) can be postponed at the discretion of the Court, only when the postponement is shown to promise benefit to the judgment-debtor, without causing serious prejudice to the decree-holder. - 20 W. R. 180.

197. It is far more exact compliance with the spirit of Reg. VII of 1819 to serve the notice which it enjoins at the place at which the defendant's goods are said to be, and not to serve the notice at the house or place where the defendant's goods are said to be, as was done in - 20 W. R. 132.

198. A conveyance executed by a judgment-debtor after one attachment has been permanently struck off and before a new attachment is issued, is valid. - (P. C.) 2b.

199. No Court of Equity ought to direct hypothecated property to be sold, and its grounds apply to the same extent as if it were the subject of the cause for which it was set aside, without first taking care to ascertain that the debt stated to be due is really due. - 20 W. R. 253.

200. A certificate of - held in satisfaction of a decree for costs made against certain parties personally, can lawfully pass only property belonging to them, but not property inherited by others as co-heirs with them. - 20 W. R. 483.

Before it can be said that the - certificate covers more than the share of the individual debtor, it must be shown that it was under the intention of the creditor and of the Court holding that - to deal with something more than that particular share. - 23 W. R. 308.

201. Where a mortgagee having petitioned for - under a foreclosure decree, Z and P came forward to claim under conveyances made by the judgment-debtor, and the Moonsiff ordered the - of the rights and interests of the judgment-debtors. - Held that the - was inoperative and the Moonsiff's order inapplicable, and that the judgment-debtor had a right to a share of the land that was originally pledged to him; and that the - and P could only take the property as subject to the rights of the parties to the suit, and that the Moonsiff should have treated them as the judgment-debtor. - 21 W. R. 141.

202. Taking ss. 105 and 106 of Act X of 1859 together, it was intended that the seminal should be at liberty to treat the holder of a transferable tenure, and as the person whom he might use for arrears of rent, the person who is registered in his books as the owner, unless anyone could show that there had been a transfer and that there was sufficient cause for its non-registration; so that the seminal, having obtained a decree for arrears of rent, was entitled to sell the tenure, and the person who has obtained a transfer which he has not registered, and cannot show a sufficient cause for not registering it, is bound by the - and cannot set up a title to the property as purchase in previous - - (F. R.) 21 W. R. 91. See also 22 W. R. 196.

The above decision, according to which the right of a purchaser in execution of a rent-decree prevails over that of an earlier purchaser, has no application to the case of a - under s. 61 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) which provides for the - of the tenure, but of the right, title, and interest of the judgment-debtor. - 22 W. R. 149.

An objection to the sufficiency of the notice of execution was not allowed to be taken after the - in execution, where the process of execution was known to the judgment-debtor - 21 W. R. 143.

Where the purchaser of property sold in execution failed to pay up and the Moonsiff allowed the property to be sold again and directed the debtor, in the event of the property fetching a larger price than that at the former sale, to realize the difference from the first purchaser, the Moonsiff's order was held rightly set aside in appeal on the ground that the defaulting purchaser was not before the Court. - 21 W. R. 143.

Where a decree-holder on selling the first of several attached properties finds the price sufficient to cover his debt and proceeds no further, and the purchaser fails to pay up, the judgment-creditor resales his decree against any other property of the debtor. - 268.

204a. In an execution - under a decree against K and D upon a debt due by D's father, where, according to the - certificate, only K's right and interests appeared to have been expressly passed and the judgment-creditor took possession of the entire property without complaint from D, and many years after D's death her heirs sold a share of the property to the plaintiffs who sued for possession, - Held that the plaintiffs obtained no immediate right to the property by the conveyance from D's heir. - 21 W. R. 156.

Where an execution - has taken place, the second attaching creditor and others are equally entitled, under s. 271 Act VIII, to a share in distribution of the surplus proceeds: no other than the first attaching creditor having any right to have his claim satisfied in full. - 21 W. R. 194.

207. S. 271 Act VIII does not contemplate the case where a - is pretended to be brought by a Court which has no jurisdiction to make it at all. - 21 W. R. 291.

208. A decree having been obtained by a landlord for arrears of rent of a puttee tenancy, it was held that under the description "puttee property", the puttee tenant was entitled to the puttee tenant's tenancy being transferable by - and was one upon which the right to sell for arrears of rent was reserved in the engagement interchanged upon the creation of the tenure. Consequently, according to the effect of s. 105 Act X of 1859, ss. 8 and 11.
Reg. VIII of 1819, and probably also of Reg. I of 1820, the — of the presenteer destroyed all incumbrances created by the —e, e. g. a der-presenteer. —(P. C.) 21 W. R. 324.

251. Where there is no tender before — of the amount of rent due, — under Reg. VIII of 1819 cannot be set aside merely because some charges were included which might not strictly be recoverable under the Regulation, where the seminadar clearly distinguished the amount due for rent from such charges. — 7b.

252. When a mortgagee sues on his bond and takes a money-decree, in execution of which he attaches and sells the mortgaged property, he transfers to the purchaser the benefit of his own lien and the right of redemption of his debtor; but the transfer does not include incasacance rights if the mortgagee is not a party to the suit on the bond. — 24 W. R. 9. 210.

253. Where the judgment-debtor made an application under ss. 255 and 257 Act VIII alleging that certain property belonging to him had been sold in execution without the process of attachment and notice of — having been duly issued and published, and these allegations were denied by the decree-holder and the auction-purchaser, — Held that the judge was bound to inquire into the allegations of the respective parties. — 24 W. R. 216.

254. Where a judgment-debtor's property is sold at the instance of the judgment-creditor, the —, whether directed by the decree or not, must be a — free of the judgment-creditor's rights in the property unless these are reserved. — 24 W. R. 263.

255. Before an execution — of a village can be set aside on the ground of want of local jurisdiction in the Court. — (P. C.) 25 W. R. 258.

256. Where property was sold in 1867 as ancestral property in execution of a decree in respect of a debt due, the judgment-debtor's son cannot 8 years afterwards sue to set aside the — on the ground that the property was self-acquired property and not liable for the debts of his father. — 25 W. R. 110.

257. The mere existence of creditors does not make it necessarily fraudulent on the part of the debtor to sell his property, if he does really sell it for valuable consideration. — 25 W. R. 119.

238. 8. 11 Act XXIII of 1861 does not bar a suit by a judgment-debtor to recover possession of lands sold in execution of a decree for rent in contravention of s. 94 Act VII of 1860 (B. C.), i.e. before the date of his movable property, by establishing his right thereto and by reversal of the decree. — 25 W. R. 156.

237. The mention of the name of a wrong person in the notice of sale was not held to be an irregularity under s. 255 Act VIII, when the notice was served in the right of the person and the estate identified. — 25 W. R. 324.

236. Where the circumstances on which plaintiffs relied to establish that a sale was not bona fide, the Judge was held to have been wrong in taking those circumstances one by one and dismissing them as not severally and separately amounting to fraud, instead of considering them collectively and seeing whether, taken together, and with reference to one another, they did not amount to an act of fraud such as was set up. — 25 W. R. 364.

235. A misdescription in a notice certificate may be rectified by extraneous evidence: according to s. 95 Act I of 1872, any evidence being admissible to show what was intended to be sold. — 25 W. R. 401.

234. Specifying the amount of revenue assessed upon an estate to be sold, not correctly as required by s. 219 Act VIII, but at a lower figure than it really is, may be an error against the interest of the judgment-debtor, which, if the notice is confirmed and he can prove that he has sustained actual damage by the irregularity, would be a sufficient ground for setting aside the confirmation upon an appeal against it. In the present case the judgment-debtor was held barred from objecting to the notification of sale on the ground of error, as it appeared that in applying for a postponement of the sale, he agreed to the attachment and notification being maintained. — (P. C.) 26 W. R. 41.

Sale Law 8a.
Sale Law.

1. By Regs. XIV of 1783 and VII of 1793 a sale may be ordered for arrears of a moiety or half of his revenue before the close of the year: but in order to warrant that act, there must be an arrest of a previous year or of a monthly installment.—(P. C.) 5 W. R. P. C. 11 (P. C. R. 63).

2. The existence of a written engagement or khindanah is not a condition precedent to the right to enforce the payment of the revenue by monthly instalments, provided the monthly instalments are fixed and determinable.—1b.

3. By Reg. Y of 1812, if there be an annual assessment or a fixed monthly instalment of that assessment unpaid on the first day of the following month, the Governor-General in Council may order a sale and the Board of Revenue may direct the whole estate of the defaulting zamindar to be sold.—1b.

4. Where the monthly instalments are fixed and determined, the Government does not forego the right of selling the estate on default being made to pay these instalments, by taking a bond from sureties by which their estates are rendered liable for the due payment.—1b.

5. An unauthorized sale by a Collector for arrears of revenue of a whole taluka in one lot, is not rendered valid by subsequent unauthorized confirmation by the Board of Revenue and acquiescence by the defaulting proprietor.—(P. C.) 6 W. R. P. C. 15 (P. C. R. 114).

6. Where a suit was brought in 1821 to annul the sale of a zamindar which took place in 1802 for arrears of revenue, the Privy Council concurred with the Lower Court that the sale ought, notwithstanding the great lapse of time, to be set aside; but considering the bond sole character of the sale, awarded compensation to the purchaser.—(P. C.) 6 W. R. P. C. 27 (P. C. R. 129).

7. The object of s. 5, Reg. XVI of 1798 taken together with s. 7, was not the destruction of the under-tenures upon the sale of the parent estate for arrears of Government revenue, but only to empower the purchaser at such sale to avoid the subsisting engagements as to rent, and to enhance the rent to that amount to which, according to the established usages and rates of the Punjab. and District, it would have stood, had the cancelled engagement so existed never existed.—(P. C.) 2 W. R. P. C. 15 (P. C. R. 548). See 11 W. R. P. C. 10, 12 W. R. 385, 1b, (P. C.) 40.

8. Quere: Whether such a power is given only to the purchaser, or to him and his heirs, or whether it is a power attaching to the zamindar and passing to subsequent purchasers.—1b. See 22 W. R. 29.

10. A sale of a tenure under Act VIII of 1815, for arrears of current revenue, revokes the whole tenure free from all incumbrances.—13 W. R. 192, 2 W. R. 243. See Sale of a tenure under s. 15, Reg. XII of 1799 and Reg. VIII of 1806, of a tenure for its current hire, made the tenure free from all incumbrances.—4 W. R. (Act X) 29, 7 W. R. 212.

11. Under Reg. XI of 1822, a benamdar purchase for the defaulting proprietors at a sale for arrears of revenue, is not ipso facto illegal and void.—5 W. R. 154.

13. The principle that purchasers of estates at Revenue sales acquire them free from all incumbrances and in fact in the same condition in which they were at the time of the Permanent Settlement, is equally recognized by Act XI of 1859 as by the laws previous to it.—8 W. R. 62, 222. See also 22 Hay 499.

14. The power of a purchaser at a Revenue sale to annul all incumbrances, is limited to purchasers of entire estates.—8 W. R. 68.

15. At a sale for arrears of revenue, the Collector is bound to sell to the highest bidder even though that bidder be the husband of the defaulter.—8 W. R. 372.

16. Where in such a case the Collector sold to the second highest instead of to the highest bidder, he was held liable, as the measure of the latter's loss, for the difference between the two bids and not the actual or probable value of the estate.—1b.

17. Money deposited under s. 6 Act VIII of 1865 (B. C.) to protect an under-tenure from sale is a loan to the proprietor of the tenure, which becomes security and of which the depositor may recover immediate possession by application (without a suit) under cl. 4 s. 13 Reg. VIII of 1819.—10 W. R. 205, overruled by F. H. 13 W. R. R. F. 1.

19. A sale which is made when no arrears of revenue exist is absolutely null and void.—12 W. R. 276.

Sale Law (Act I of 1845).

1. A person depositing money in the Collector's office under the pressure of s. 9, in order to save an estate from sale, does not thereby acquire any lien on the estate.—2 Hay 75 (Marshall 220).

2. In order to protect auction-purchasers, a certificate under s. 20 is intended to give them statutory title, and to arm them by means of a formal document with powerfull evidence of their title, and by this means either to establish their title as plaintiffs when seeking to assert their rights, in a Court of Justice under a purchase deed, or to reject an agreement. —See 728.

3. S. 21 is inapplicable to a suit brought to make void a partition granted by the mother of a certified purchaser.—W R. 84, 355.

4. S. 21 does not protect purchaser made in the name of third parties from the operation of decree against the persons beneficially entitled to the purchased property.—2 W. R. 29.

5. Act I of 1845 is not intended to protect a purchaser at a sale brought about by a preconcerted fraudulent default.—8 W. R. 399.

6. No one should be allowed to take advantage of his own fraud even under a title from a Government sale for arrears of revenue.—1b.

7. A purchase at a sale under Act I of 1845 by the managing member of a joint Hindu family in his own name, but on behalf of the family is not affected by s. 21; and the members may sue to enforce their rights although he is the sole certified purchaser.—13 W. R. 347, approved by F. H. 22 W. R. 165.

SALE LAW (Act XI of 1859).

1. Definition of share under s. 10 and other sections.—

2. The purchaser of an estate sold for arrears of revenue on the 29th Pms (the latest date of payment of the revenue due for the three months previous to Pms) is not entitled to recover from the defaulter the amount of revenue which he (the purchaser) was obliged to pay for the month of Pms.—4 W. R. 75.

3. The object of s. 54 is to protect only bond fide inincumbrances executed in contemplation of an impending sale to a possible purchaser. Where surrounding circumstances suggest such creation, it is for the party setting up the inincumbrance to establish its bond fide character.—5 W. R. 1.

4. A share of a joint taluk, whose share consists of a specific portion of land, can obtain protection from a sale for arrears of revenue only under s. 11. Common registry of the taluk as a shikmee taluk will not preclude any person thinking himself wronged by such registry from suing for the cancellation of the same.—6 W. R. 217.

5. An auction-purchaser under Act XI has no right to question the net of a single co-sharer, in respect of a lease granted by him of land separately acquired by him under an arrangement made by the several co-sharers by which such a lease by one of them was to be looked upon as the net of all.—6 W. R. 315.

6. S. 13 requires a sale to be confined to the share for which an arrear of revenue due is when a separate account has been ordered by Collector, not merely applied for.—7 W. R. 154.

7. The lease of a share is protected under s. 54.—7 W. R. 292.

8. A shareholder voluntarily paying an arrear of revenue due by a defaulting co-sharer who has a separate account, before such defaulters share has been put up for sale, cannot claim reimbursement by such defaulter.—7 W. R. 356.

9. The object of Act XI is to give the purchaser a title which cannot be challenged. A sale may be set aside for irregularity under s. 25, or under s. 26 where hardship or injustice is disclosed.—8 W. R. 429. See 10 W. R. F. 65.

10. Where on petition to set aside a sale a Commissioner will not interfere, the aggrieved party may, under s. 33, either sue in the Civil Court to set aside the sale on the ground of irregularity and of substantial injury caused thereby, or sue for damages where no such irregularity can be proved.—10 W. R. 356. See 10 W. R. F. 65, 13 W. R. 356.

11. A redemption issued under s. 5 does not operate as an attachment by the Civil Court.—9 W. R. 481.

12. The law does not seem to provide for any interference by the Civil Court with a Collector's order under s. 11.—5 W. R. 442.

13. A sale of land for arrears of Income Tax under Act XXXII of 1860 does not render a moratorium title to the land void with reference to Act XI of 1859 which has no relation whatever to such a sale.—10 W. R. 31.

14. S. 33 contemplates an action against the individual wrong-doer, irrespective of Government and co-sharers.—10 W. R. 442.

15. S. 33 does not prevent a proprietor or co-sharer from purchasing his estate at a sale for arrears of revenue.—11 W. R. 265.

But his purchase is subject to all incumbrances existing at the time of sale, whether bona fide or otherwise.—16 W. R. 136, 138.

16. A suit which was substantially one to oust a certified purchaser on the ground that part of the purchase was made on behalf of another, is barred.—16 W. R. 136.

17. Where a party pays into the Collectorate, under s. 9, arrears of revenue due by a defaulting proprietor, his suit to recover the amount is not inadmissible merely because there is no privity between him and defendant.—11 W. R. 377.

18. S. 9 does not allow of a defaulter on account of Government revenue by a defaulting proprietor himself.—12 W. R. 249.

19. Where a sale has been made when no arrears of revenue exist and the original owner seeks to recover possession and obtains a decree, the decree is sufficient for the purposes of s. 34 without a special declaration that the sale is annulled; and the order for the refund of the purchase-money must be made in execution of the decree.—12 W. R. 276. See also 12 W. R. 811.

20. *Where an application is made to a Collector by a registered proprietor for a separate account, and the application is objected to within the meaning of s. 12, or the Collector considers that an objection is regularly taken, he has no jurisdiction to dispose of the matter, but should refer the parties to the Civil Court.—13 W. R. 67. See 15 W. R. 112, 16 W. R. 9.

21. When a tenancy is transferred from one Collectorate to another without notice of transfer to the holder, the holder pays his revenue at the wrong treasury, his omission to pay the revenue at the right treasury does not constitute an arrear for which his estate is liable to be sold under Act XI.—15 W. R. 356.

22. Unless there is an arrear due, action cannot be taken under s. 5, and a sale made without an arrear is absolutely void.—13 W. R. 381.

23. The word "estate" in the description attached to s. 4, means not only a whole estate, but applies also to such shares as are referred to in the first part of the section.—13 W. R. 123.

24. In order to come under the protection of cl. 3 of 5, it is not necessary that an estate under attachment be the subject of a judicial authority must also be managed by some revenue authority, as all estates under attachment, whether managed by the Collector or not, are entitled to the benefit of the special notice described in that section.—25.

25. The receipt by a decree-holder of a portion of the surplus sale-proceeds lying in deposit in the Collector's Court, without opposition on the part of the judgment-debtor, is not such a receipt as is contemplated by s. 33.—26.

26. Want of previous notice is sufficient to warrant a Court in annulling a sale under s. 33.—15 W. R. 137.

27. There is nothing in Act XI which enacts that, if the estate of the applicant shall not be such as he states it to be, the co-sharers shall not be able to bring a suit in the Civil Court to establish the extent of their shares, in the event of the Collector, under the Udbarnwar law, rejecting their application for a division of their specific shares.—16 W. R. 9.

28. A sale under this Act, to realise a fine imposed for non-attendance after due notice under Reg. XIX of 1814, was declared illegal where the fine was tendered before the day fixed for the sale, irrespective of the question of the pendency of a prosecution against the defendant.—17 W. R. 21.

29. In a sale for arrears of Government revenue, a Collector need not specify the kists in respect of which the arrears have accrued; and the fact that he did so does not hinder the Civil Court from going into the enquiry whether arrears existed in respect of those kists.—19 W. R. 283.

30. A sale under Act XI of 1859 may not be set aside on the ground of irregularity in the issue of notices unless such irregularity is shown to have caused loss or damage to the defaulter.—27.

31. The holder of an undivided moiety of four mouths out of the six which constitute an estate cannot sue under s. 10; nor can he sue under s. 11 without getting his co-sharers to join him.—21 W. R. 38.

32. Where the Court of Wards, in order to save a minor's estate from sale, pays on his behalf not only his own share of the revenue due to Government, but also all that is not paid by the other shareholders, such payment does not constitute an admission on the part of the Court of Wards of the minor's liability for the excess revenue so paid.—21 W. R. 223.

33. Where a shareholder applies to have his interest separately recorded in the books of the Collectorate, the Collector has no authority to vary the share specified in the application.—2b.

34. In a suit for declaration of title on the allegation that defendant, one of the sharers with plaintiff in a joint estate, has been recorded under s. 11 separately in respect of a lesser share than that to which he is entitled.—Held that plaintiff, by omitting to appear before the Collector and object to defendant being registered, had not forfeited his right to the share of which he was in possession, and that the suit was one in which it was proper to make a decree.—23 W. R. 101.

Securities (Government).

1. Plaintiff sued for value of a Government Promissory Note and interest by way of damages, on the allegation that 26 years ago his father had sent defendant's father the note to draw the interest upon it, but that defendant's father, after rejecting the note, had wrongfully retained and never returned the note; and that plaintiff's cause of action accrued 7 years ago when he attained his majority. Plaintiff neither alleged nor offered any proof of the period during which he was incapacitated from suing. Held that the suit should have been commenced within 12 years from the time of the wrongful detention by defendant's father that the suit cannot be regarded as a suit against a trustee, but a suit to recover damages for the wrongful act of defendant's father; neither was it a suit to recover property deposited within the meaning of cl. 4 s. 3 Reg. II of
1802—9 W. R. 715.

2. Where—bearing 5 per cent. interest were deposited in Court for payment of interest thereon to certain cantants, and the Registrar of the Court, in pursuance of notices given by the Government Agent, converted the notes into 1 per cent. papers, though the conversion of the notes was the act of the Government and of the Court, the depositor was held liable, under his agreement, to pay the annuitants the sum originally agreed upon.—(P. C.)

3. A Government Promissory Note is not a corree and consequent not immoveable.—5 W. R. 411.

4. The holder of a Government Promissory Note cannot arbitrarily insist on its being renewed, but is entitled to a renewal when the back of the note is so covered with indorsements that there is room to write an indorsement distinctly.—(O. J.) 22 W. R. 106.

5. Where the legal holder of a Government Promissory Note transfers the note, the Government is bound to act in accordance with such transfer, unless it has notice of an order of Court restraining the holder from parting with the

1. Enticing or taking away with a criminal intent a wife living in her husband's house, or in a house hired by him for her occupation and at his expense during his temporary absence, is punishable under s. 498 Penal Code, provided the seducer knew, or had reason to know, that she was the wife of the man from whose house he took her.—5 W. R., Cr. 60.

2. A charge under s. 498 Penal Code (of taking away a married woman), marriage must be proved from the fact of a man and woman living together, and from their own evidence (altogether uncontroverted) that she is his legally married wife.—47 W. R., Cr. 5, 399.

3. A finding clearly in the words of s. 498, though not actually illegally when it is doubtful which of the several offences therein mentioned has been committed, is a finding which ought not to be relied on to be avoided and it can be determined under which the portion of the section the prisoner is guilty.—29 W. R., Cr., 72.

Self-acquired Property.

1. The doctrine of Hindoo law that a father takes a share in his son's estate, and his heirs have been in exclusive possession and enjoyment of the purchased property for a long time, the presumption is that the purchase was made by that brother, and that the other had no right, title, or interest in it.—3 W. R. 158.

2. Degree of proof required to prove an allegatio made, by members of a joint Hindoo family (managers of the family property) that separate acquisitions have been made by them.—3 W. R. 165, 5 W. R. 82.

3. The Court declined to extend to all the remote branches of a Hindoo family, separate in name and estate and having no common interests like those of the brothers, the doctrine laid down in a solitary case in which an older brother, who recovered certain property by his own money and labor, was awarded two-thirds and the younger brother obtained only one-third.—5 W. R. 119.

Recovery (according to Hindoo Law) explained.—
9 W. R. 69.

Where other property is proved to have been separately acquired by the members of a joint Hindoo family, there is, in respect of any particular property, no more presumption of joint than of separate acquisition.—9 W. R. 558.

6. Under the Mitrasahita (Mithila), a father can dispose of his movesable and immovable, at his own pleasure, and he can, by will, make an unequal distribution of the same among his heirs.—10 W. R. 287, (affirmed by P. C.) 20 W. R. 137.

1. A tug, though not sufficiently powerful to perform the service, undertook to tow a ship from the Sandheads to Calcutta. The captain of the ship, though informed by his pilot that the tug was too weak for the task, allowed her to make the trial, but was ultimately obliged to throw her off. Held that nothing could be recovered upon the original agreement, but that the tug was entitled to a quantum meruit for work and labor done.—1 Hyde 260.

2. A party having two tugs A and B, undertook to supply tugs to two vessels P and Q in the order of their engagement as soon as the tugs were free. A was first free and towed P, which had the prior claim, to Diamond Harbour where she became disabled. B subsequently towed Q, and finding A disabled at Diamond Harbour, left Q and towed P out to sea, returning subsequently for Q. Held that B was not justified in leaving Q, and that she ought to have towed her out to sea without interruption.—1 Hyde 298.

3. Where a — order authorized the receipt "of 300 bales of cotton not exceeding 52 cubic feet measurement at the screw house," the fair meaning was taken to be that the measurement by which the parties were to be bound was a measurement at the screw house, and that, if the agent of the defendants passed the bales there, the defendants could not afterwards endeavor to fix the size of the bales.—(O. Nor where plaintiff makes a fictitious claim for damages to increase the amount of the suit for the purpose of giving the Court jurisdiction.—19 W. R. 20.
7. A clerk of a — is not authorized to sign the copy of the judgment and certificate attested to by s. 20 Act XI of 1865.—3 W. R., S. C. C., 7 (S. C. C. 156).
8. S. 4 Act XXIII of 1841 is applicable to a — and the High Court may under that section authorize the — to try a case against two or more defendants one of whom dwells within, and the others not within, the limits of its jurisdiction.—3 W. R., S. C. C., 26; 19 W. R. 112.

9. A suit for rent or other hire of land used and caused to be used by defendant for pasting and repassing to and from his steamer is cognizable by a —. If there was no express hiring, defendant is liable to damages for trespassing on plaintiff's land; but if he agreed to pay for the use of a way across the land, that would not be rent.—6 W. R., S. C. C., 18.
11. Where a person sued for Rs. 17,8 as rent of a fishery and the like sum as penalty for non-payment thereof, it was held that the suit was in fact for a penalty equal to double the amount due and was cognizable by a —, and that plaintiff could not recover more than the damages actually sustained.—6 W. R., C. R., 5.
12. A suit for money for which plaintiff agreed to let defendant tap certain date-trees and appropriate the produce for a single season, is not a suit for rent, but for the breach of a contract in respect of which a — has jurisdiction.—6 W. R., C. R., 8.
13. A suit will not lie in the — upon a deed by which defendant conveyed to plaintiff (in lieu of dower) a half-share in all his property.—6 W. R., C. R., 12.

22. Where a judgment of a Mofussil — is called in question by one of the parties on a point of law, a new trial must be applied for within the period allowed by s. 21 Act XI of 1865.—11 W. R. 535.
23. An application for a new trial is a point in the proceedings previous to hearing and a — can ask the opinion of the High Court on a question of law upon such an application.—16 W. R. 454.
23. An application for a new trial under s. 21 Act XI of 1865, notice of intention is an essential step; and in calculating the period within which such notice is to be given, the date of the decision should be excluded.—12 W. R. 17, 18, 46, 241. See 15 W. R. 281.
23. A third application for a new trial in a — is not admissible under the same section.—15 W. R. 656.
26. Plaintiff and defendant having been co-sharers in a decree in which the respective shares of the decree-holders were definitely fixed, defendant unamisibly received from the judgment-debtor his own share and plaintiff's share on her behalf. — Held that, if defendant acted as agent of the plaintiff, there was a true contract implied between them.
that defendant would recover what was due to plaintiff, and pay it over or account for it to her, and that plaintiff's suit to recover the same from defendant was one coming within the jurisdiction of the—13 W. R. 109.

28. Where the same person holds the office of Judge in two small causes courts, and sits in one court for the remaining half in the other, the "next sitting" of either court after the close of its half-monthly term would, according to s. 21 Act XIX of 1866, be on the first day on which the Judge sat again in that Court.—13 W. R. 103. See also 14 W. R. 42.

29. Notice of application for a new trial, required by s. 21 Act XIX of 1866, to be given within 7 days from the date of decision, is in time when the seventh day and the following days are authorized holidays and notice is given on the first open day after such holidays.—13 W. R. 103.

30. A party applying under s. 21 Act XI of 1865 for a new trial, must deposit in Court, with his notice of application, the amount for which a decree has been passed against him; and where the notice has been given without such deposit, a subsequent deposit, if made within 7 days, will not entitle the party to ask for a new trial.—14 W. R. 42.

31. There is nothing in Act XXI of 1863 to justify the conclusion that the—1b at Rangoon is not properly constituted.—14 W. R. 331.

32. Where a defendant takes a technical objection to the form of plaintiff's cause of action, a Judge of the—1b at Calcutta ought, under s. 27 Act IX of 1860, to rectify the mistake in plaintiff's claim, whether plaintiff requests it or not.—14 W. R. 487.

33. A suit to recover money alleged to have been paid in excess of plaintiff's share of rent on account of his co-tenant, was held to be a suit for contribution, and as such not cognizable by the.—15 W. R. 52.

34. A party obtaining a rule nisi for a new trial on particular materials, cannot go into fresh evidence when the rule comes on for hearing; though the Court may make further inquiry if necessary.—15 W. R. 161.

35. When new trials are ordered on an allegation of facts, the facts should be stated and the answer supported by affidavit.—1b.

36. When a—1b was held bound to hear a second application for a new trial under s. 21 Act XI of 1865.—15 W. R. 402.

37. An application to a—1b on 25th May to set aside an ex parte decree of 14th March, when no process had been executed, was held to fall within the first of the two provisions in s. 21 Act XI of 1865.—16 W. R. 226.

38. A—1b may, on the ground of fraud and false persona tion, grant a new trial under s. 21 where judgment has been passed on confession.—17 W. R. 48.

39. A suit for the main or exigible portion of dower due under a kabinamah, is cognizable by a—1b under s. 5 Act XI of 1865, notwithstanding collateral questions as to the validity of the marriage; but the decision of the—1b on such collateral matters has not the same effect as that of a Civil Court in a regular suit.—17 W. R. 512.

40. A suit for mesne or deferred dower, payable to the wife by the husband upon her divorce, or upon the husband's death by his heirs out of his estate, is cognizable by a—1b.—18 W. R. 301.

41. S. 21 Act XI of 1865 does not require a plaintiff applying for a new trial to deposit the costs of the defendant.—18 W. R. 446.

42. Under s. 53 Act IX of 1860, the—1b of Calcutta may grant a second new trial in the same case.—19 W. R. 203.

43. Where a party to the suit requests the reservation of a question by the (Calcutta)—1b for the opinion of the High Court, and it is not reserved because the—1b entertained any doubts, if he does not appear in the High Court, the decision must be given against him whether security has been given or not for the costs of the reference and the amount of the judgment.—20 W. R. 849.

44. S. 32 Act IX of 1860 applies to the case of intestacy, to a suit against the administrator, and in the case of a legacy, to a suit against the executor or other person liable to pay the legacy.—(O. J.) 22 W. R. 71.

45. Where the claim was not for part of a distributive share under an intestacy or a legacy under a will, but the liability of the defendant arose out of a loan made to him by a widow of the deceased.—Held that this was a case in which the defendant had a right to have joined in the suit against him all the persons who claimed to be entitled to receive the debt due, after the debt of the widow, to the heirs of her deceased husband.—(O. J.) 76.

46. Where a—1b, after granting a new trial, referred the matter to arbitration, and the arbitrators failed to make any award.—Held that it was necessary that a fresh judgment should be given by the Judge.—24 W. R. 469.

SPECIAL APPEAL.

1. A — lies from an order rejecting an application for revival of a suit under s. 2 Act LII of 1860.—W. R. F. B. 11 (1 Hay 90, Marshall 38).

2. No — lies from exercise of discretion by Judge in ordering or not ordering local inquiry in a suit to contest notice of enhancement.—W. R. F. B. 19 (1 Hay 229, Marshall 610).

3. A — will not lie upon a question of jurisdiction depending upon a fact not determined by the Lower Court or admitted by both parties.—W. R. F. B. 31 (1 Hay 242, Marshall 107).

4. Where the question was raised whether a District Judge could hear an appeal from a decision affecting property alleged to be worth more than 5000Rs., the question whether the property was worth more or less was held to be a question of fact which could not for the first time be raised on — 25 W. R. 260.

5. Where a case had been decided ex-parte by the Deputy Collector for default of defendant’s appearance, and the Judge on defendant’s appeal dismissed it on the merits, it was held that, though an appeal did not lie to the Judge under s. 58 Act X of 1869, yet having admitted the appeal in the absence of any statement that the case was decided ex-parte, he was right in dismissing the appeal with costs, and that no — lay from his decision on the ground that he should have dismissed the appeal without going into the merits.—W. R. F. B. 46 (1 Hay 315, Marshall 145).

7. Will will lie if the decree and judgment taken together show that the decision is erroneous.—(F. B.) W. R. F. B. 81 (2 Hay 276, Marshall 301).

8. Under s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861, a — will lie from a decision passed in appeal from an order relating to the execution of a decree.—(F. B.) W. R. F. B. 83 (2 Hay 298, Marshall 296) (over-ruled the decision in 1 Hay 251).

10. The taking by the Lower Appellate Court as a fact of a fact, is an error in the investigation in procedure affecting the merits as, under s. 372 Act VIII of 1859, would be a good ground for — and a remand.—1 Hay 28 (Malshall 6). See also 21 W. R. 52, 217.

11. A plaintiff, who did not raise the question of the validity of his mortgage deed in his appeal, before the Zillah Judge, was not allowed to do so in — 1 Hay 94.
See also 6 W. R. 157.

12. A plaintiff was held to have no ground of — in respect of the omission of all notice in the judgment of the Lower Appellate Court of his claim to deduction from limitation of the time occupied by former suits brought by him for the same matter in which he had been nonsuited, whether this point had been passed on the Lower Appellate Court or not.—1 Hay 123.

13. In a suit for possession of half-anuma of a certain property, the defendant was not allowed on the hearing of the
— to take advantage of any memorandum of appeal, viz., that the Judge below ought to have tried whether the plaintiff's vendor had as much as half-anuma to sell in the property.—1 Hay 371.

14. Not from the return of an Appellate Court to allow additional evidence to be filed before it.—2 Hay 296
(Marshall 278). See also 6 W. R. 196, 7 W. R. 489,
13 W. R. 429.

15. The High Court can only interfere in — where the Lower Court finds no evidence on or what is not legal evidence, but not upon a question of credibility or weight of evidence.—2 Hay 421 (Marshall 322). See also 6 W. R. 292;
9 W. R. 336; 10 W. R. 365; 11 W. R. 278; 17 W. R. 314;

16. It is an error in investigation producing an error in the decision, and therefore a ground of —, that the Lower Appellate Court dismissed all the receipts without any evidence in support of more than three of them.—2 Hay 419 (Marshall 381).

18. A statement was prefixed to the issues settled in the Court below, to the effect that "the vakales of the parties accept the following issues," Hold that it was not competent, after such consent, to object on — that a material issue was omitted.—Marshall 519. See 9 W. R. 563.

19. No notice is given under s. 363 Act VIII of 1859, from an order passed in appeal in a case to the Court of first instance for further investigation as to the facts.—2 Hay 591 (Marshall 499). But see 21 post.

20. The Court of Appeal directed a remand to try the issue on a plea of payment. The Lower Court determined the whole case over again. Hold that it had no power to do more than try the issue referred, and that on this ground its decision might be set aside on —.—Marshall 603.

21. — will lie a decree of the Lower Appellate Court reversing the decision of the first Court and remanding the case to be tried on the merits. Such a decree is not an order passed before decree within the meaning of s. 363 Act VIII of 1859; and R. J. P. J. 54 (Neve 30), 6 W. R. 61. But see 19 ante.

22. The sufficiency and credibility of the evidence upon which a decision rests is not a ground for —, nor likewise the objection that the Judge has recorded no grounds for accepting fresh evidence in appeal.—2 R. J. P. J. 14. See also 8 W. R. 356, 12 W. R. 241.

23. The High Court cannot in — interfere with an order of a Zillah Judge transferring the defendants to trial to the Court of first instance for forgery.—2 A. — and not a new suit should be brought to contest a legal point involved in an adverse decree.—W. R. 55.

84. A special appellant cannot be permitted entirely to change in — the allegations on which he went to trial. - 11 W. R. 10, 133, 169.

85. A Court of — has indirectly the same powers as are vested in a Court of regular appeal by ss. 351, 354, and 355 Act VIII, in respect to a wrong order passed by a Lower Appellate Court. - 11 W. R. 238. But see 24 W. R. 21.

86. A plaintiff taking additional evidence under s. 355 will not make the — liable to be heard and determined as if it were a regular appeal. - 23 W. R. 51.

87. When a suit has been contested in both the Lower Courts, it is too late for the defendant to urge in — that the plaint discloses no cause of action. - 11 W. R. 248, 359. See also 17 W. R. 400. But see 14 W. R. 420.

88. The finding that the notices in certain execution proceedings were not made bona fide is a finding of fact, and cannot be disturbed in — 11 W. R. 453.

89. A suit to recover plaintiff's share of mālīkana is a suit for damages cognizable by a Small Cause Court for an amount below 500Rs. The fact of a question of right having been incidentally raised in the case, did not prevent s. 27 Act XXIII of 1851 from barring a — 12 W. R. 29.

90. Where decisions of Lower Courts were not interfered in — on mere technical grounds. - 12 W. R. 210.

91. Where judgment given was a verbal will, and not legal under Act XXI of 1870. - 23 W. R. 230.

92. No lies under s. 27 Act XXIII of 1861 in a suit for damages upon a breach of contract for a sum below 500Rs. In 12 W. R. 170.

93. The first Court being satisfied that plaintiff's case could not be established, refused to examine defendant's witnesses. The Lower Appellate Court, differing from the first, gave judgment in favor of plaintiff, although the first Court had committed a great irregularity, still as that point was not raised in the Lower Appellate Court, it could not be taken in — 12 W. R. 363.

94. — will not lie in a suit founded upon defamation in which the damages claimed are 500Rs, and therefore within the jurisdiction of a Small Cause Court. - 12 W. R. 372. See also 15 W. R. 179.

95. — is in the discretion of a Court of first instance, after the plaintiff's case is closed, to allow him to call further witnesses. No lies in such a point. - 12 W. R. 455.

96. Where an objection taken in the written grounds of appeal was not passed at the hearing before the Lower Appellate Court, it had to be raised in — 12 W. R. 170.

97. No lies from the order of a Judge refusing an application to restore an appeal that had been withdrawn. - 13 W. R. 167.

98. Where an ex parte decree for an arrear of rent has been passed by a Revenue Court, and the parties come up in — on the ground of equity, the High Court can interfere without prejudice to the jurisdiction of the Revenue Courts. - 14 W. R. 128.

99. The objection to jurisdiction on the ground of valuation was allowed to be taken for the first time in — 14 W. R. 228. But see 22 W. R. 9, 101, 121.

100. Where a plea of under valuation of the suit was not passed in the first Court by the defendant's pleader, it was not allowed to be raised — although previously urged in the Lower Appellate Court. - 11 W. R. 423.

101. In an action for malicious prosecution, where the Lower Appellate Court finds no reasonable ground for the charge, the finding is one of fact and cannot be interfered with in — 11 W. R. 425.

102. The objection as to non-service of notice of enhancement was allowed to be taken for the first time in — 15 W. R. 71.

103. Where money borrowed by a servant on account of his master is not repaid by the master, and a decree being taken out against the servant, he sues the master to recover the money, the action is one for debt within the meaning of s. 6 Act XI of 1866 and no — 15 W. R. 85.

104. A plaintiff who failed to mention the first Court's reasons to examine his witnesses, in his ground of appeal to the Lower Appellate Court, was not allowed to urge it in — 15 W. R. 87.

105. — the general affirmation of a judgment can only refer to the points raised by the special appellant, the rejection of the appeal not necessarily affirming all the other findings of fact or law incidentally come to by the Lower Appellate Court. - 15 W. R. 91.

106. Points of law must be taken notice of in — though not raised on a former occasion when the case was remanded. - 15 W. R. 180.

107. A — is barred in the case of a claim for money due under a bond for less than 500Rs, when the bond is not — 15 W. R. 320.

108. The question of competency of an agent to sue, if not raised in the initial stage of a suit, cannot be permitted to be raised in — 16 W. R. 309.

109. Where the Courts below find adversely to the title of a Hindu widow suing jointly with her sons to hold the land in dispute as separate property, her sons are not competent without her to professed — 15 W. R. 159.

110. Where a question of title arises in a suit of a nature triable by a Small Cause Court, which must be determined before plaintiff can get a decree, and the Lower Appellate Court fails to determine it, a — will lie. - 15 W. R. 550.

111. The High Court should be very careful in — not to interfere with inferences of fact drawn by a Lower Appellate Court. - 16 W. R. 311, 20 W. R. 267. But see 24 W. R. 171.

112. A finding of fact may be disturbed in — if the reasons upon which it is based are erroneous in law. - 17 W. R. 161. See 25 W. R. 550.

113. A — does not lie from the order of a Judge dismissing an appeal before him for default of prosecution. - 17 W. R. 180.

114. The High Court ought not, under s. 374 Act VIII, to allow a point of law to be argued in — when it was not distinctly raised in the first Court nor alluded to in the Lower Appellate Court. - 17 W. R. 214.

115. Erroneous rejection of evidence by reason of misconception of position of plaintiff's servant was held to be an error in law. - 17 W. R. 255. See also 23 W. R. 165, 25 W. R. 137, 550.

116. Also complete disregard of important evidence. - 23 W. R. 65, 24 W. R. 300.

117. So also judgment was not based upon the whole evidence. - 25 W. R. 160.

118. i.e. where if ignored two out of three witnesses. - 25 W. R. 140.

119. So also misconception of evidence was considered a sufficient reason for a remand. - 21 W. R. 134, 132; 22 W. R. 278, 27 W. R. 192, 293, 348.

120. But not a mistake in admitting or rejecting documentary evidence unless it has really affected the decision on the merits. - 21 W. R. 392.

121. The not writing of a direction by a Judge in his own language does not affect the validity of the decision and its ground of — 17 W. R. 532.

122. A — cannot be entertained by one defendant against another. - 17 W. R. 573.

123. The remanding a case under s. 382 Act VIII (when the first Court had not disposed of it upon any preliminary point), instead of disposing of it under s. 384, is not an irregularity which affects the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court, so as to justify interference in. - 17 W. R. 465.

124. A — was held to lie under s. 102 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.) in a suit for rent below 100Rs. in which the question of right to enhance had been determined. - 17 W. R. 465.

125. A — will not lie under the above section in a suit for rent below 100Rs. which is decided solely on a want of proof of relationship of landlord and tenant, without any decision as a right, title, or interest in land. - 19 W. R. 42.
121. When a suit is of a nature cognizable by a Small Cause Court, there is no right of — although a question of title is incidentally raised, as the finding of the Small Cause Court is conclusive only for the purpose of determining the suit brought in that Court.—18 W. R. 104.

122. The mere putting what is perhaps a greater burden of proof on one party than on the other, is no ground for reversing the decision where the decision on the merits has not been affected.—18 W. R. 106.

123. Where the Lower Appellate Court has weighed the evidence on both sides, the giving of one bad reason for believing plaintiff's witnesses is not a ground of — 18 W. R. 110.

124. A plaintiff cannot object for the first time in — to an intervenor having been made party under s. 73 Act VIII.—18 W. R. 112, 24 W. R. 296.

125. Nor is the objection that the depositions of the witnesses were not taken in the manner prescribed by Act VIII, but only notes of the evidence, one which can be taken in — 18 W. R. 336.

126. Error in construing a decree not properly drawn, if it leads to a just and proper decision, cannot be considered as affecting the decision on its merits, and is not therefore a ground of — 18 W. R. 418.

127. In a suit for rent, the objection that plaintiff could not sue without the co-sharers joining him, which did not take place in the case, was not allowed to be taken for the first time in — 18 W. R. 376, 19 W. R. 91.

128. Nor for the first time in the Lower Appellate Court.—22 W. R. 469.

129. A Lower Appellate Court's omission to give reasons is not a ground for — when there is no error or defect in the decision on the merits. When the High Court thinks that reasons ought to have been given, the case should be remitted on — but the proceedings returned for the supply of the omission.—18 W. R. 473.

129. Although a Lower Appellate Court's conclusion on the facts is bad in law, yet if it does not treat the evidence other than reasonably, there is no room for — 18 W. R. 499.

130. Under s. 27 Act XXIII of 1861 a — does not lie in a suit against a law-agent employed on a salary to conduct and present cases to courts of law suits to recover a balance of money unaccounted for, it being held that the case might be brought under the term claim for money due under a contract.”In s. 6 Act XI of 1865.—20 W. R. 4, 24 W. R. 478. See 21 W. R. 268.

131. Payment by a co-sharer for cultivating land belonging to himself and the other co-sharers, is substantially rent, and no — will lie in such a case under s. 102 Act VIII of 1869 (B.C.)—20 W. R. 296.

132. The finding of a Judge in a rent suit that, although Rs 80-6-6 had for several years been paid by the tenant. Rs 29-15 only was paid as rent, the remainder being due of case or fine for testing the coin paid, does not amount to a varying of the tenant's rent, and therefore no — lies under s. 102 Act VIII of 1869 (B.C.)—20 W. R. 270. See 21 W. R. 268.

133. The High Court declined in — to interfere with the decision of a Lower Appellate Court on the ground of limitation, which decision was right in law though not correct in procedure.—20 W. R. 438.

134. In a suit for rent in which the defendant (royat) sets up the title of a third person who is not made a party, the decision cannot be considered a binding decision in respect of title as between parties having conflicting claims to land within the meaning of s. 102 Act VIII of 1869 (B.C.)—21 W. R. 28. See also 22 W. R. 323, 25 W. R. 227, 24 W. R. 218.

So where the third party intervened.—23 W. R. 406.

The word "title" in this section is synonymous with "ownership" or "proprietary right," but not with the right thereby to receive or collect rents.—26 W. R. 166.

135. The word "may" s. 972 Act VIII does not imply may by some possibility, but means may not in any way.—21 W. R. 57.

136. No general rule can be laid down as to when the reasons should be stated by an Appellate Court for believing one set of witnesses rather than another; and the omission of a Lower Appellate Court to state such reasons is not a ground for — 21 W. R. 260.

137. In a suit for rent of land which plaintiff claimed under a deed of absolute sale, where defendant urged that the plaintiff was the beneficial owner while plaintiff's vendor was his benamadar,— Held, that, as the Judge's decision did not determine any title to or interest in land, as between parties having conflicting claims thereto, and that the amount sued for did not exceed 1000Rs, no — would lie under s. 102 Act VIII of 1869 (B.C.)—21 W. R. 302.

138. The omission of a party to prefer an appeal against an order of remand does not preclude him from questioning the legality when it comes up in — from the subsequent decision passed after remand.—21 W. R. 326.

139. A suit to recover possession of a share of a boat by establishment of plaintiff's right is for personal property and lies within the meaning of s. 5 Act XI of 1866.—21 W. R. 413.

140. The omission of the Lower Appellate Court to frame issues between the parties was held in — to be a good ground for remanding the case for retrial on the merits.—22 W. R. 31.

141. An objection against the decision of the Lower Court ought not to have effect in — unless it be of such a kind as to indicate probable failure of justice.—22 W. R. 99.

142. Where in a suit for rent less than 1000Rs, the decision turns upon whether in a former suit against plaintiff by a third party a demise was recovered for possession of a portion of the land now in dispute,— Held that neither the land nor the rent of such portion was claimed by the defendant, the question of title was not decided between parties having "contradictorily claimed" thereto, and consequently no — lay.—22 W. R. 205.

143. A suit to recover a quantity of rice (or its value, 3000Rs.) in return for some patidy taken by defendant under contract, was held to be cognizable by the Small Cause Court, and in — lay under s. 27 Act XXIII of 1861.—22 W. R. 230.

144. A mistake of account, not being an error in law or procedure, is not a ground for — the remedy lies in an application for review.—22 W. R. 310, 25 W. R. 63.

145. A decision of the High Court overruling a decision of the Judge dismissing a suit for enforcement of rent on the ground that there had been no change of rent except a conversion from one kind of rice to another, was held in — by the Privy Council, who held that the High Court had nothing to do with the evidence, and that there was no evidence upon which (even if they could have been allowed to do so by law) they could have come to a different finding from the Judge. —(P. C.) 22 W. R. 316.

146. The plea of res judicata may be taken in — although not taken in the Court below, if it is one which the Lower Appellate Court ought to have taken up and decided for itself.—22 W. R. 362. See 25 W. R. 28.

147. S. 102 Act VIII of 1869 (B.C.) was held not to bar a — in a case where the Judge had come to no determination at all, on the erroneous assumption that a view of judgment was improperly admitted.—22 W. R. 446.

148. Where there was a conflict of opinion between the first Court and the Lower Appellate Court as to the character and sufficiency of the evidence, the High Court had — went into and decided the question of evidence.—22 W. R. 487. See contra 23 W. R. 144, 25 W. R. 166.

149. Where a suit by a co-sharer for an aliquot part of rent below 1000Rs, was decreed in the first Court but dismissed in the Lower Appellate Court as not maintainable, — Held that, although the Lower Appellate Court expressed no opinion as to the rights of the parties, yet the decree had determined the quantum of conflicting claims to an interest in land within the words of s. 102 Act VIII of 1869 (B.C.)—23 W. R. 11.

Reversed in appeal on the ground that as the judgment of the Lower Appellate Court was not even considered, the decree in general terms could not be held to have determined it, and consequently no —.23 W. R. 266, 25 W. R. 163.
DIGEST OF INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

150. Where the evidence before the Lower Appellate Court was not sufficient in law to justify that Court in giving a decree for rent in excess of the amount decreed by the first Court, the decision of the High Court is to be set aside by making it accord with the decree of the first Court. — 23 W. R. 140.

151. Act VIII of 1869 (B.C.) gives jurisdiction to Civil Courts to try suits brought for any cause of action arising under Act XIX of 1859 except where it is otherwise provided by the former Act: and the — which would have been applicable to such cases under Act XIX of 1859 — has been taken away by s. 102 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.). — 23 W. R. 171.

152. Where parties allow a suit to be conducted in the Lower Courts as if a certain fact was admitted, cannot afterwards in — question it and receive from the tacit admission. — 23 W. R. 174.

156a. Where a District Judge, as an Appellate Court, reviewed his predecessor’s judgment and reversed his decision, and the High Court in — seeing no ground for such reversal, set aside the review and restored the original judgment. — 23 W. R. 275.

153. Where a first Court, on remand for trial on certain issues, returned no finding on two of such issues, and the Lower Appellate Court, after quering the finding of the first Court and without any decision on the evidence, proceeded to decree the suit, the High Court, hearing nothing — going into the evidence, remanded the case to the Lower Appellate Court to take such evidence as was necessary to decide the said issues if it considered that the evidence taken by the first Court was not sufficient. — 23 W. R. 322.

154. In a suit for arrears of rent on the basis of a shironamah where the rent tendered that he executed the document and produced evidence to show that the rates mentioned in it were not correct. — Held that where was no question to vary the rent; and that it was only in a case of that sort, was not allowed a — 23 W. R. 343.

That is, where a question of right to vary the rent has been substantially raised. — 21 W. R. 184.

And not where the question is whether the rent fixed by a previous decision has been sub-sequently altered and a new arrangement come to. — 21 W. R. 40.

Or where both the Lower Courts have found on the question who was in enjoyment of the rent. — 24 W. R. 179.

155. A suit for rent, in which there is no dispute as to the amount of the jumma, but only whether it is to be paid in instalments or in a lump sum, cannot be said to involve a question to vary the rent, and therefore no — lies under s. 102 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.). — 23 W. R. 385.

156. A suit for rent under 100Rs. is not taken out of the purview of the above section by the fact of the rate of rent having been varied by the decision of the Court unless the Court determined “the right to vary the rent.” — 23 W. R. 436, 25 W. R. 102.

157. A point was not allowed to be taken for the first time in — when it was not taken in the written memorandum of appeal nor even suggested in any of the Courts. — 24 W. R. 35.

But an objection on a point of law may be taken at any stage of a case, even for the first time in — 24 W. R. 96.

158. In a suit in which plaintiff claims rent as zamindar, and defendant, admitting his own tenancy, claims it as mortgagee, there cannot be said to be conflicting claims to a title to, or some interest in, land, within the meaning of s. 102 Act VIII of 1869 (B. C.), and no — lies. — 24 W. R. 114.

159. An order granting a review, where there are no grounds on which a review can be legally granted, is open to question in. — 24 W. R. 186.

160. For the Lower Appellate Court to discern witnesses merely for general reasons not affecting the particular credit of any individual opponent, is to commit an error of law which cannot be the subject of a — 24 W. R. 211.

161. The refusal of the Lower Appellate Court to interfere with the exercise of the first Court’s discretion in not giving damages for defamation, after defendant has already been convicted and fined for the offence in the Criminal Court, on the ground that plaintiff had suffered no actual damage, even where such discretion has been improperly exercised, is not such an error in law as can be interfered with. — 25 W. R. 22.

162. Where the Lower Courts have come to no decision on a point raised, the plaintiff in. — has a right to a. — 25 W. R. 140.

163. A defendant cannot be allowed in. — to argue that the issue framed in the Lower Court did not cover the whole of the objection raised by him in his written statement. — 25 W. R. 214.

164. Where on an adjusted account between two parties, one claims from the other some money and some goods shown to be due to him, the claim is one which might have been enforced in a Small Cause Court, and a — does not lie under s. 27 Act XXIII of 1861. — 25 W. R. 334.

Specific Performance.

1. In a suit for — of a contract whereby defendant undertook to sell a share of a taluk to plaintiff and to give him a portion of a share in the same taluk, but failed to do so.—Held that defendant had every reasonable ground to believe that plaintiff had abandoned his claim, when he had not only taken no steps to ascertain the assets of the property, but, under a mistaken belief of the insecurity of defendant's title, sued defendant, though unsuccessfully, for recovery of the earnest money. —See W. R. 78, 76. 3.

2. Where defendants who were directed to pay sums profits for certain lands which they had possessed under an invalid lakheraj claim, enter into a compromise with plaintiff, their zamindar, agreeing that, if they default in rent, or if the lands become liable to the zamindar or become alienated, they will point out the lands, or failing to do this, will pay damages, plaintiff may obtain a decree for —, notwithstanding lapse of time and surrender of the lands.—W. R. 8, 78, 76.

3. — cannot be decreed in favor of a party who is incapable of performing his own part of the agreement. To entitle a party to —, he must show that he has been in no default and that he has taken all proper steps towards the performance of the agreement on his own part.—1 Hyde 45. See also W. R. 280, 14 W. R. 338, 22 W. R. 187. 4.

4. A suit lies for — of a contract in respect of an adjustment subsequent to, and for property beyond, the decree, notwithstanding s. 11 Act XXIII of 1861 which applies only to subject-matters relating to the decree.—V. R. 6, 188.

5. In a suit for — of a contract where defendant pleads composition and intimidation, it is not enough for him to prove fear of a criminal complaint.—11 W. R. 313.

6. When in such a suit defendant pleads that the contract is null and void on public policy because based on the conciliation of a criminal offence not condemnable by law, he must show what the nature of the offence is.—1b.

7. The High Court can order — of a contract and give damages for the breach of the remainder.—14 W. R. 10, 15. See 24 W. R. 431.

8. In a suit for — of a contract, the cause of action is sufficiently shown by a statement of the terms of the contract followed by the proof of the refusal of the defendant to perform it, with readiness and willingness of the plaintiff to do his part of it.—1b.

9. In a suit for — of a contract to purchase, Held that plaintiff was not entitled to have the money paid over to defendant the purchase-money before bringing the suit, to have paid the money into Court when he brought the suit, and that the Court could not allow the plaintiff a period of three months after decree to pay the purchase-money.—15 W. R. 44.

10. Quere. Whether plaintiff can in the same suit ask for — of a contract to execute a bill of sale and for possession of the land covered by that deed.—W. R. 188.

11. A purchaser of a right to sue for the possession of property must, on bringing his suit, show that he is entitled to claim — of the contract from his vendor.—21 W. R. 101, 156; 22 W. R. 187.

12. As the contract was made after decree, the adjustment between the decree-holder and judgment-debtor, is not barred by s. 206 Act VIII.—22 W. R. 298.

Splitting Cause of Action.

Splitting Cause of Action.

1. Where a suit was brought for the fraudulent appropriation of a large amount of property, consisting partly of Government paper, and the plaintiff obtained a decree, — Held that the plaintiff was not precluded by s. 7 Act VIII from afterwards bringing a fresh suit on a piece of Government paper, which might have been, but which by mistake was not included in the previous suit.—2 Hay 190 (Marshall 284).

Overruled by the Privy Council who held that the true test in such cases is whether the claim in the new suit is in fact founded on a cause of action distinct from that which was the foundation of the former suit.—8 W. R., C. 3, 3; see also 15 W. R. 498, 17 W. R. 122. (F. C.) 20 W. R. 450, 23 W. R. 418.

2. S. 7 Act VIII is applicable to suits for rent under Act X of 1850.—W. R. 8, 3, 8 (3 R. J. P. 15).

But see 17 W. R. 280.

3. Quere. Whether s. 7 Act VIII extends to cases of omission to ask for any particular description of relief which a plaintiff may intend to seek against the parties to the suit in respect of his cause of action.—1 W. R. 199.

See 13 W. R. 201.

4. Where a plaintiff sued separately in two different Courts for two estates in two different districts under the same title as widow and representative of her husband, as there was but one cause of action, her proper course was held to be to proceed under s. 12 Act VII; having omitted to sue in the first suit for a portion of her claim, her second (the present suit) was held barred by s. 7.—2 W. R. 148.

See also 20 W. R. 77.

5. S. 7 Act VIII does not require distinct causes of action (e.g. arresteds of rent for successive years) to be comprised in one suit but only forbids splitting a cause of action.—2 W. R. (Act X) 31 (1 R. J. P. 63); 17 W. R. 380, 21 W. R. 236. 6.

6. Separate suits for rent cannot lie for different parcels of land all held under one lease.—2 W. R. (Act X) 36 (1 R. J. P. 110).

7. A suit by an heir for a portion, relinquished by his father, of a claim instituted by the father, is barred by s. 7 Act VIII.—3 W. R. 25.

8. A suit for value of cattle illegally taken away should include damages caused to plaintiff by defendant's wrongful act.—4 W. R., 8, C. C. 20.

9. A suit for possession of land and reversal of an Act IV award, and a suit for damages on account of the materials of a house subsequently misappropriated, are distinct both as to time and cause of action.—5 W. R. 113.

10. S. 7 Act VIII does not require that rights under the same or similar titles involving different issues and arising under different dates and causes of action and against either only one party or different parties, should be sued for together.—6 W. R. 182 (affirmed by P. C.) 20 W. R. 450.

11. Plea of — under s. 7 Act VIII maintained in a suit for assualt land.—5 W. R. 211. See also 22 W. R. 464.

12. The cause of action cognizable by the Principal Sudder Ameen was split into two suits and tried by the Sudder Ameen, and then heard in appeal by the Judge, it was held that, as the appeal would have lain to the Judge whether the original trial by him or the Sudder Ameen, the error of the Judge (if he was not wrong) in not deciding in favor of the applicant (defendant) on the ground of jurisdiction was not one which affected the decision of the case upon its merits and therefore not a ground of special appeal.—5 W. R. 229.

13. A claim for rent in respect of a jumma which has become divided into a 1-anna and a 2-anna share, is properly the subject of one suit, and should not be treated as two distinct causes of action for which separate suits are maintainable.—5 W. R. (Act X) 8.

14. When rents due in Acremabad Ruppees are sued for in (less valuable) Company’s Ruppees, the omission to sue for the difference bars the recovery of it in a fresh suit, according to s. 7 Act VIII,—5 W. R. (Act X) 90.

15. Where a plaintiff, urging false representations regarding the lots included in a patent settlement, has, in a former suit to recover consideration-money and excess rents, obtained consequential damages, he cannot in a second suit get back so-called excess of rent paid by him in terms of the patent pottah since the first suit.—9 W. R. 121. (Overruled by the next following.)

16. Where, in a former suit, a putte struck out his memorandum for abatement of rent and for a refund of consideration-money and rents paid by him for 3 years, it was held that a suit for refund of rent for 3 subsequent years was not barred under s. 7 Act VIII.—(F. B.) 10 W. R. 1, P. 41.

17. The whole claim accruing under an execution sale should be included in one suit; and where compensation was omitted from the first suit on the same cause of action, the plaintiff was not allowed under s. 7 Act VIII to recover it in a separate suit.—13 W. R. 219, 261.

18. The whole of the demurrage claimable in respect of the goods for which a suit was brought must be, otherwise, under s. 7 Act VIII, the portion omitted to be claimed cannot be claimed in a subsequent rent.—11 W. R. 253.

19. A suit for damages for wrongful detention of property (in this case a cart and bullocks seized in execution of a decree against another party) was barred under s. 7 Act VIII after a decree in a former suit for the recovery or value of the same property.—18 W. R. 337.

20. A complaint is bound to be brought forward in his suit all the grounds of origin of his right. A difference in the origin of the right is not a matter which makes a different cause of action.—22 W. R. 464.

2. On an appeal from an order of non-suit passed in a suit pending when Act VIII of 1859 came into operation.—1 Hay 335.

3. In a suit for waslat, the stamp on the plaint will be sufficient if it cover the amount claimed for waslat, notwithstanding the defendants may deny the title of the plaintiff to the lands.—1 Hay 342.

4. Plaintiff appealed against a dismissal of his suit to the Judge, who reversed the decision of the Lower Court and gave plaintiff a decree. Defendant appealed to the High Court on the ground that a document not properly stamped had been admitted in evidence in support of plaintiff's case. Held that the defendant, having omitted to take the objection before the Judge, could not appeal specially on this ground.—2 Hay 148 (Marshall 267).

5. After service of the plaint, and on the day the defendant was required to appear, the parties filed in Court deeds of compromise. Held that the plaintiff was entitled to a refund of the entire amount of — there having been no settlement of issues.—2 Hay 213 (Marshall 214). See also 11 W. R. 185.

6. In exercise of the discretion vested in the Court by s. 334 Act VIII of 1859, the appellant was allowed to argue upon a ground not taken in his petition of appeal, on the understanding that he would make good the deficiency in — See 42.

7. Where plaintiff sued several persons but served notice of action upon one of them, and then filed a reseemem, the Court, on striking off the case, refused an order for the refund of —, holding that the compromise was not one to which all parties interested were parties.—See 292.

8. The said in special appeal and also in the appeal to the Lower Appellate Court was ordered to be refunded to a plaintiff whose plaint was wrongly rejected.—See 568.

9. No appeal lies, under s. 360 Act VIII of 1859, against a decision on the ground that the Court had acted insufficiently stamped. According to cl. 1 s. 17 Act X of 1860, the document may be received on payment into Court of the proper amount of — to be determined by the Court.—W. R. Sp. 184.

11. Under the old stamp law, agreements executed in Calcutta, by parties residing or carrying on business there, without the intention of producing the documents in the Mofussil Courts, were good and binding.—W. R. Sp. 289 (F. R. 69).

12. Where a plaintiff declines to pay the — and penalty on an unstamped document, the Court, instead of dismissing the suit, should inquire into the merits on the rest of the evidence produced in the case.—W. R. Sp. 321.

13. Before rejecting a petition of appeal on the ground that it is insufficiently stamped, the Court ought to require the appellant to supply additional stamp paper.—W. R. Sp., Mis. 4.

14. The — of a petition of appeal is refundable in cases remedied under s. 351 Act VIII, but not under ss. 351 and 356.—1 W. R., Mis. 12.

15. Miscellaneous or special appeal not admissible on in-sufficient ——1 W. R., Mis. 25.

16. An appeal does not lie from an order of the Lower Court, made on an application for refund of — and penalty, after a case remedied to it had been compromised. Restiff should be sought by way of motion rather than as an appeal.—2 W. R., Mis. 36.

17. Whether the penalty is refundable.—F. R.

18. In valuing a suit relating to a share of land, the rental of the share is to be the criterion of the stamp.—2 W. R., Mis. 45.

19. A reassess pottah is not required to be written on stamped paper.—3 W. R. (Act X) 148.

20. Under cl. 1 s. 17 Act X, no special appeal lies from the order of a Judge admitting an insufficiently stamped pottah on payment of full — and penalty.—3 W. R. (Act X) 158.

21. In a suit for damages for breach of an indigo contract, the stamp depends upon the amount of consideration for the undertaking.—3 W. R., S. C. C. 14 (S. C. C. 148); 5 W. R., S. C. C. 10.

22. The — on a plaint upon an instalment bond should be estimated, not on the amount of the whole bond, but on the amount claimed in the suit.—W. R., S. C. C. 148.

23. The mere omission to stamp a copy of a document, the original of which is the basis of a suit, does not justify the dismissal of the suit.—6 W. R. 49.

24. In a suit under Act VIII or Act X the values of stamps used in enforcing a decree should be included in the judgment.—6 W. R. (Act X) 8.

25. When a suit is remanded in part, the appellant is entitled to only a proportionate refund of ——(F. B.) 6 W. R., Mis. 65. See 9 W. R. 387.
A petition of appeal, returned for irregularity before, but filed again after, Act XXVI of 1867 came into force, was required to be stamped according to that Act. — 7 W. R. 551.

29. When the appeal of an appellant is against the whole of the decision of the Lower Court, and upon the full value of the original suit, no additional — is required in respect of the respondent's objection under s. 348 Act VIII. — 8 W. R. 124.

30. A staatschaamad a claimant and agreeing to pay instalments by a petition within the meaning of Act XXVI of 1867, but not an agreement within the meaning of Sch. A Act X of 1862. — 8 W. R. 214.

31. A reseschaamad stating satisfaction of claim, and withdrawing a suit upon a bond, is more an application than an agreement. — 8 W. R. 138.

32. A suit for declaration of title to a fractional share in a remainder paying revenue is not a suit for lands with a defined jumma, and should be valued according to Note (c) Art. 11 Sch. A Act XII of 1867. — 9 W. R. 139.

33. The rule of Circular No. 31, dated 3rd October, 1864, extends also to plain paper filed under the general rule at the end of Sch. B Act X of 1862, when the copy cannot be certified, no other stamp than one. — 9 W. R. 138.

34. An appeal from an order declaring a person claiming to be in possession of property taken in execution to have no bona fide in the execution case, is a miscellaneous appeal, and should be on a stamp for an ordinary petition. — 9 W. R. 140.

35. Note (c) Art. 11 Sch. B Act XXVI of 1867 contains no reservation as to — leviable on an objection under s. 348 Act VIII filed by a pauper respondent. — 9 W. R. 350.

36. The examinata that a suit be stamped, and applications for stamp. — 9 W. R. 357.

37. A suit to resume large claims as left over in respect of — under Note (d) Art. 11 Sch. B Act X of 1862 ; the term 'large claims' being read as meaning revenue or rent. — 9 W. R. 390.

38. A sumul which authorizes a ghamzal to attach rents and to sue for them must be stamped; if a general power of attorney authorizing him to collect and sue for rents, then under Art. 43 Sch. A Act X of 1862. — 10 W. R. 39.

39. Where an appeal insufficiently stamped is admitted and heard, the Court is bound to deal with it on its merits, and cannot limit its relief to so much of the subject in suit as seems to cover the amount in respect of which the stamp was given. — 10 W. R. 212.

40. Where the object of a suit is to unbundle, and a supplemental plaint with the required stamp is put in and received, the regularity does not affect the merits of the case, or call for a reversal of the Lower Court's decision. — 10 W. R. 269.

41. Sec. 308 and 309 Act VIII do not exempt any pumper of payment of — and if necessary of the penalty, on documents which happens to put in evidence. — 10 W. R. 358.

42. A documentary paper on which transferring a conveyance not exceeding 1000l, is not admissible in evidence unless it bears the proper stamp. — 11 W. R. 365.

43. Where obligors in urgent want of money, and unable to procure a stamp, execute a bond on plain paper agreeing to pay a certain sum, with penalty that obligors may have to pay in suing to enforce the obligation, this is not an agreement to evade. — 11 W. R. 552.

44. Where an instrument contains several distinct contract, and as such requires several stamps, it may be used as evidence of one contract for which it was stamped, although it would not be admissible as evidence in respect of the contract for which it was not stamped. — (F. B.) 12 W. R. 5 E. 11.

45. A promissory note is sufficiently stamped if the stamp is sufficiently to cover the principal sum secured by the note. — 12 W. R. 13. — 1.

46. Under s. 17 Act X of 1862, and s. 180 Act VIII only insufficiently stamped, and not un stamped, documents can be received in evidence on payment of the proper. — 12 W. R. 47. See 64 post.

47. Unstamped receipts accepted by the first Court must be considered as evidence by the Appellate Court; the first Court's decree cannot be reversed or modified, under s. 380 Act VIII, for want of the stamps. — 9. See also 14 W. R. 68.

48. The rule allowing refund of — (s. 98 Act VIII as modified by s. 26 Act X of 1862) is not applicable to appeals which may be compromised. — 12 W. R. 576.

49. A petition of appeal may only be made upon several stamps sufficient to make up the full amount required by law, even though the petition is written on one paper. — 12 W. R. 419.

50. So also to Court fees. — 16 W. R. 102, 151; 17 W. R. 220.

51. The objection that a bond was engrossed on an 8 annas' stamp thread to other stamps aggregating the full value, was held to be merely technical. — 13 W. R. 41.

52. It is competent to the Judge of a Small Cause Court, under ss. 15 and 17 Act X of 1862, to find on the facts before him whether the absence of a stamp on the leaf of a khatibab book addressed as evidence of a wrong intention to evade payment of the —, without the necessity for a reference to the High Court. — 13 W. R. 102.

53. Where in a pauper suit for possession decreed with same profits to be asserted in execution, the stamps awarded including the value of the — to be paid in proportionate shares, and plaintiffs and defendants, although called upon by the Court, refuse to appear, — Held that the Court has no power to alter its original order and make the — realizable from both parties jointly. — 31 W. R. 155.

54. A contract taken by the Public Works Department for the execution of works falls within Article 11 Sch. II Act XVIII of 1868. — 13 W. R. 263.

55. Where a contractor's sureties give bonds for the performance by him of his agreement, the bonds are chargeable with — under Article 6 Sch. I. — 8.

56. Cl. 3 Note (b) Art. 11 Sch. B Act XXXVI of 1867, by authorizing a Court to direct or to order, or other investigation as to the market value or annual profits of any property, does not restrict the Court to an Amicus's report in the matter, but allows the Court the benefit of an Amicus's investigation as provided for in other matters in the Code of Civil Procedure. — 13 W. R. 415.

57. The same law, by providing that the decision of a Court as to the market value or annual profits of property in suit shall be final, repeats by implication ss. 31 and 36 Act VIII whereby an appeal is allowed from the order of a first Court rejecting a plaint for improper valuation. — 18. (Overruled by F. R.) 68 post. — See also 14 W. R. 381.

58. In applying the Stamp Law, the — must be paid upon what is stated in the instrument and cannot depend on collateral evidence. — 14 W. R. O. J. 38.

59. Thus a promissory note payable on demand ought to be stamped as such, although there may be a collateral agreement between the parties that the holder will not present it for a given time, or, if paid on demand, that the maker of the note shall be entitled to a certain amount of discount being deducted. — 18.

60. Where excess stamps have been filed in consequence of an over-valuation of the appeal, the surplus amount was ordered to be refunded. — 14 W. R. 47. But see 20 W. R. 106.

61. A petition for a lease, when no map is entered into between parties, is not subject to the payment of. — 14 W. R. 178, 384.

62. According to Note (a) Sch. B Act XXXVI of 1867, the value of the property for dispute in a suit for pre-emption was taken to be that which he was willing to give for it and not 10 times the annadum of the property. — 14 W. R. 228.

Act XXVI of 1867, as to the market value of immovable property, passed after objection made, is final without an enquiry under commission.—14 W. R. 451.

84. A document taken under the Court's authority is a document in the first and Lower Appellate Courts on the ground that it was not stamped, but after its production an insufficient stamp of 2 annas was put upon it. The High Court on appeal left the seal as part of the evidence in the case, but questioned its effect and the extent of its operation. Held that the High Court might either have refused to admit the document for want of a stamp (though that would hardly have amounted to objection) or, for the purpose, had raised it to the admission in either of the first two Courts, or (what would have been a better course) required the deed to be properly stamped and the penalty paid, but that the course taken was entirely without precedent, without principle, and without authority.—(I. C.) 15 W. R. P. C. 82.

64. Act XVIII of 1869 allows the Civil Court to receive the proper amount of — not only in cases of insufficiency of stamps, but also where documents have not been stamped at all.—18 W. R. 116. See 48 err.

65. Where Government, after attaching a pauper plaintiff's decree in order to recover the value of — under s. 309 Act VIII, consents to the sale of the decree in execution of another decree, the pauper, and obtains an order by which it secures the chance of any surplus arising from such sale, it cannot afterwards, when the sale is found to yield no surplus, be heard to say as against the purchaser that the decree was sold subject to its claim for — 15 W. R. 265.

66. The amount of — in a pauper case cannot be claimed as a lien or charge upon the decree in favor of Government, but the receiver in the same manner as costs of suit, Government being in no higher position than an ordinary judgment-creditor.—Ib.

67. An appeal from a declaratory decree giving consequential relief should bear an ad valorem — 15 W. R. 412.

68. A decree was passed under s. 30 Act XIX on the ground that the amount or estimated value of the claim is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, an appeal lies, under s. 36, from the order rejecting the plaint, notwithstanding Note (b) to Sch. II Act XXXVI of 1867, which cannot repeal by implication the provisions of Act VIII.—(F. R.) 16 W. R. F. 10. See also 20 W. R. 33.

69. According to Note (a) Sch. B Act XXXVI of 1867, the market value was to be assumed as the proper valuation; if disputed or doubted, the Court was at liberty to make an inquiry, on the result of which inquiry the valuation of the suit was to be made, and the decision of the Court with regard to valuation was final.—24 W. R. 352.

70. No ad valorem — is payable under Act XVIII of 1869 upon a conveyance where the consideration consists of shares in a Public Company.—16 W. R. 298.

71. The word "amount" in Art. 15 Sch. I of the above Act signifies the sum total, or amount of money, forming the consideration; and the words "or secured" apply only to cases of mortgages and the like, and not to an out-and-out conveyance.—Ib.

72. No larger sum can be recovered under s. 34 Act XXXVI of 1860 upon a bond executed on an optional stamp than is covered by that stamp, and no amount of penalty can make up the deficiency in the — 17 W. R. 131.

73. There is no rule which requires as much as possible of the substance of the plaint to be engrossed on stamped paper; and so long as the rule against the use of a larger number of stamps than is absolutely necessary is complied with, the fact that the plaint commence or end in plain paper — 18 W. R. 326.

74. A substituted lease must be stamped with the stamp provided for a lease.—20 W. R. 36.

75. A suit cannot be maintained upon an unstamped process where the defendant, at the time the suit was commenced, had no knowledge of the process, unless he is guilty of such negligence as the Court may deem sufficient to warrant a refusal to relieve him. —21 W. R. 1.

76. Quere. Whether s. 18 prevents a defendant's written statement and deposition from operating as an admission rendering it unnecessary for plaintiffs to put the written contract in evidence.—Ib.

77. Where an unstamped document was not admitted as evidence and the penalty proffered with reference to s. 130 Act VIII was refused, — Held that the refusal should have been made a ground of objection in appeal, but could not be interfered with in special appeal.—21 W. R. 183.

78. A Judge has no authority to admit an unstamped document in evidence, except under the conditions prescribed in Act XVIII of 1869, nor even when it was proved before the date when that Act came into operation.—21 W. R. 446.

79. A document in which a party, for value received, undertakes to pay a certain sum of money on or before a specified date, and interest thereon from another date if the sum is not paid before, cannot be treated as a bond, but is in substance a promissory note within the meaning of s. 28 one same Act.—Ib.

80. An instrument which acknowledged receipt of a sum of money and provided for the payment of interest at a specified rate per annum, was held to be an agreement falling within Art. 11 Sch. 11 Act XVIII of 1869.—23 W. R. 403.

81. Where a Judge admitted an unstamped document after payment of — and penalty under s. 20 Act XVIII of 1869, and endorsed on it a certificate that the proper — has been levied, but found out afterwards that the original omission was owing to an intention to evade payment of — Held that the certificate was not such as was contemplated by s. 20 and did not make the document admissible; and that the Judge was in error in so holding and impounding the document and sending it to the Collector.—24 W. R. 68.

82. A document is receivable on duly stamped, and as bearing the stamp required by the law, for the purpose of the trial in which the document is tendered in evidence; and it is no business of the Court to enquire what time the stamp was affixed, or whether the provision of the stamp law was duly observed, which is a matter connected with the law as to penalties.—24 W. R. 129.

83. Even if the document were not admissible, plaintiff might recover on such part of the case as he could make out by other evidence (provided it is not barred by limitation) notwithstanding what he had in his plaint referred to such document as the basis of his suit.—Ib.

84. According to s. 31 Act VIII the Deputy Registrar has, no authority to reject an appeal insufficiently stamped.—24 W. R. 358.

85. In a running account, a balance brought forward from the close of a previous year is not to be considered a new balance requiring a fresh stamp; Art. 5 Sch. II Act XVIII of 1869 providing for one stamp only to be affixed in such a case.—24 W. R. 392.

86. That which the Magistrate has to adjudicate upon, on a prosecution coming before him under s. 24 Act XVIII of 1869, is whether an offence against the Act has been committed, and whether the prosecution has been brought before his by the proper officer. Any person who commits an offence within s. 29 et seq, and is prosecuted by the Collector or other officer duly empowered, may be convicted by the Magistrate under s. 44, 14 W. R. Cr. 41.

87. If a person of the nature of a promissory note or the like, and as such liable to — is not duly stamped, the person subject to the penalty is he who makes it, and not in whose favour it is made.—Ib.

88. Where a Court of first instance erroneously admits a document without a stamp, the error, being one which does not affect the merits of the case as between the parties, does not constitute a proper ground of appeal.—25 W. R. 80, 376.

89. Orders upon tenants to hold themselves responsible to a particular person to whom a release has been made by their landlord, are not documents requiring to be stamped in order to be admissible in evidence.—26 W. R. 80.

90. A document tendered as a part of the evidence is not to be considered as not being properly stamped, without a formal order rejecting it and a direction to pay the — and fine.—26 W. R. 116.

91. A bill of lading, drawn up by only one of two parties to a money transaction, and purporting to represent the balance of accounts between them, but not assented to in any way by the other party, is not such a document as is contemplated by Article 5 Sch. II Act XVIII of 1869, and does not require to be stamped.—26 W. R. 361.

Stolen Property.

1. A person convicted of robbery or theft cannot also be convicted of dishonesty receiving.—1 W.R., Cr, 27.
2. Theft and retention of — by the same person form one offence and cannot be punished separately.—2 W.R.,

Gr. 63 (R.J.P.J. 663); 11 W.R., Cr, 12.

Although a person convicted of theft cannot also be convicted of being in possession of — (the offence being one and the same), it does not follow that because an accused person, charged with both theft and receiving — is acquitted of the first offence, he should be free from liability to answer the second.—25 W.R., 6r, 47.

3. Evidence of guilty knowledge is necessary to a conviction on a charge of dishonesty receiving — 6 W.R.,

Cr, 67; 13 W.R., Cr, 70.

4. Recognition of things not produced at the trial and not before the eyes of disposing witnesses is not evidence against a prisoner accused of having been in possession of those things—8 W.R., Cr, 16.

5. The Police may, without any formal complaint, apprehend any person found with —— 8 W.R., Cr, 28.

6. Procedure to be followed before making a confession.——9 W.R., Cr, 13.

7. A Deputy Magistrate restored to an accused money found in his house along with — the prosecutor having failed to prove that the money was his. The Sessions Judge on appeal reversed that order and directed the money to be made over to the prosecutor. Held that the order of the Sessions Judge was made without jurisdiction, and that the order of the Deputy Magistrate could not be interfered with by the High Court as a Court of Revision.—9 W.R., Cr, 37.

8. Where property sufficiently identified to be the property of one person is found to be in the possession of another person, without lease or license or any legal permission of the owner, it is for the party by whose possession the property is found duly to account for its possession; and unless he can do so, a jury may fairly infer in such circumstances that it was with a guilty knowledge that the person took that which he knew to be not his own. — (P. C.) 10 W. R., p. 3. See also 23 W. R. 496.

9. Where a case of possession of — was held to fail under s. 411 and not s. 412 Penal Code. — 18 W. R., Cr., 26.

10. Smuggling indigo-rubber is not an offence under s. 315 of the Penal Code. — 18 W. R., Cr., 26.

11. Possession of — is generally at best only evidence of theft, but not an evidence of the possessor being the receiver of — still less of his habitually dealing in —. — 23 W. R., Cr., 16.

1. Ancestral property which descended in regular succession, but with the ordinary life-interest vested in Hindu widows, from the original ancestor first to his widow, and then through her to a daughter, and then to a daughter's son who was in proprietary possession until he forfeited the property by an act of rebellion, was held not to be —. — See 33 W. R., Cr., 25.

2. A woman can dispose of — at pleasure, either by gift or will or sale, except in the case of immovable property — given to her by her husband. — 3 W. R., 49.

3. A husband's interest "inherited" used in the Mitacshaara in regard to a woman's — does not include immovable property — as to make it her peculium, but refers only to personal property over which she has absolute dominion, — 3 W. R., 106.

4. According to the law of the Benares school, no part of her husband's estate, whether moveable or immovable, to which a Hindu widow succeeds by inheritance, forms part of her —; and the text of Katysana cited must be taken to determine (1) that her estate of succession over both is limited to certain purposes, and (2) that on her death both pass to the next heir of her husband. — (P. C.) 10 W. R., p. 3. See also 23 W. R. 496.

5. A husband by the husband does not descend to his heirs. — 10 W. R., 139.

6. According to the Dabaghba, a betrothed daughter does not inherit her mother's — or any part of —. — 10 W. R., 488.

7. When a woman's separate property has once devolved as — upon his heir, it no longer devolves as —, but according to the ordinary rules of Hindu law. — 78.

8. The devolution of — from a childless widow is regulated under the Mitacshaara by the nature of her marriage; and if the marriage was according to the four approved forms, the — goes to the collateral heirs of her husband. — (P. C.) 10 W. R., p. 3. See 23 W. R. 496.

9. The mesne profits accruing from property transferred to a childless widow by her father under a Abhak (the proprietary right passing at her death to her brother's grandchild) must be regarded as — to which her heirs only, and not her father's, are entitled. — 11 W. R., 497.

10. According to the Bengal law, the husband is entitled to succeed to the property which a woman receives from her father, either before or after her marriage, in preference to her brother or mother. — 16 W. R., 106, 115.

11. According to the Bengal law, property coming from a father to a daughter before her marriage under a testamentary devise, falls within the category of — which is described in the Hidhu shaster as property given to a woman by her father before her marriage. — 19 W. R., 292.

12. Under the Hindoo law a married woman is at liberty to make any disposition she likes of money constituting her —; and if she purchases immovable property with such — she has a right to sell that immovable property. — (P. C.) 19 W. R., 292.

13. Where the husband during his lifetime did in every way, both publicly and privately, whenever called upon to make any representation on the subject, always represent that certain immovable property was his wife's, the purchasers from her could not after his death be equitably turned out of the property in favor of his heirs. — 19 W. R., 184.

14. Where a Hindoo wife is entitled to an absolute estate in certain property (as —), her husband cannot cut down her interest to a life-interest by any dotal which he may make. — (P. C.) 23 W. R., 184.

Sub-lease.

1. Some 3000 beghags had been held by M under M S who was then the Government lessee, but the Collector resumed the grant made to M S. Subsequently M and his brother A obtained from the Collector a potthah of the grant which was then due. It was thus resumed, converted, and the Government grant of the lands to the extent of 20,000 beghags. — 3 W. R., 150.

2. Where a sub-lease (kethinadar from a sur-i-pesh-i-ghrorah) pays the Government revenue on the default of the mutib who sells the estate to escape liability, the obligation to repay the same is a personal liability on the part of the mutib, and cannot be enforced against the estate. — W. R., Sp. 192.

3. In a suit against co-sharers and dur-ijjadar for rent and damages in respect of a mehal of which a — was granted by the defendant co-sharer, it appeared that plaintiff did not get possession of his share until after the expiry of the —, and then only by the aid of the Civil Court, that his title during the subsistence of the — was merely nominal, and that he exercised no rights of a landlord during this period, and could not have sustained against the dur-Ijadar an action for rent under Act X of 1859. — Held that his suit was not barred by the civil court, and that, as the dur-ijjadar was in no way the tenant's servant and had not joined in obstructing plaintiff from getting possession of his share, the co-sharers were not liable, and the dur-ijjadar also. — W. R., Sp. (Act X) 49.

4. A memorandum is not bound to recognize the sub-division of a jote. The purchaser of a part of the jote is jointly liable with the other holders for the rent of the whole jote. — W. R., Sp. (Act X) 78 (S R. J. P. 886).
8. A sub-lessee's rights cannot be prejudiced by the omission of his lessor to sue, or by any act of theirs in fraud of his interests.—2 W. R. (Act X) 89.

9. Where a lessor gives his lessee power to sub-let, and the latter sub-lets, the sub-lessee obtains rights against both of which he cannot be deprived without his own consent. The lessee's surrender of his lease cannot operate to the prejudice of the sub-lessee.—13 W. R. 331.

10. Where a sub-lessee under the original lease has no right more to use the land in contravention of the original lease than their lessor had.—30 W. R. 230.

* The law applicable to the — of any individual (when there is no settled law of the province in which he is domiciled) depends on his personal status, which again mainly depends on his religion. Thus the — of a Hindu would be regulated by Hindu law, of a Mahomedan by Mahomedan law, and of an East Indian Christian by English law; but in every case, for the purpose of determining the status personalis, regard was to be had to the mode of life and habits of the individual and to the usages of the class or family to which he belonged. If no specific rule can be ascertained to be applicable to the case, then the Judges administering justice in the province are to act according to justice, equity, and good conscience.—(P. C.) 1 A.W. R. P. C. 1 (P. C. R. 601); 13 W. R. 54, 41.

2. The jurisdiction in granting probates and letters of administration under the Indian Act of 1865 is vested in the Judicial Commissioner in Assam.—12 W. R. 424.

3. S. 822 Act X of 1865 does not interfere with the rights of a decree-holder, under s. 205 Act VIII of 1859, to have his decree satisfied out of the property of the deceased person to the exclusion of other creditors, after deducting the expenses under ss. 279 to 281 of the former act.—17 W. See also 6 W. R. 8p. (Act X) 107 (3 Raj. J. P. J. 85).

1a. A speculative purchaser of a suit under sec. 1, 2, and 3 of s. 18 Reg. VII of 1819 can only execute the decree, but cannot maintain a suit under sec. 4 to proceed against the real property of the judgment-debtor. — 2 Hay 672.

2. Plaintiff’s title may be determined in a suit to set aside a — and to award arrears of rent due under a kuboolcot. — 1 R. J. P. J. 216 (Sec. 742).

3. The remedy under s. 109 Act X of 1868 applies to decrees joined under that law itself and not to those gained summarily under former laws; and although s. 109 has been repealed, the right to sue in order to give effect to summary decrees gained previous to its abolition, was held to remain to the plaintiff in this case who had no remedy under Act X of 1865. — Sec. 80.

4. A suit not to contest the justice of a —, but to have it declared null and void冒出 wholly without jurisdiction, is not barred by s. 6 Reg. VIII of 1819. — Sec. 87.

Summary Trial.

1. In a — under s. 222 Act X of 1872 it must clearly appear on the face of the conviction that the case was dealt with as one of those which come under the proviso of that section. — 20 W. R., Cr., 17; 22 W. R., Cr., 28, 29, 23 W. R., Cr., 52; 24 W. R., Cr., 81, 71. See 23 W. R., 19.

2. If it is not in the power of the Magistrate to reduce an offence so as to make it the subject of a —, 24 W. R., 48.

3. Where the charge was originally one of dacoity under s. 399 Penal Code, but during the progress of the case the charge under that section was lost sight of and the accused were put on a charge of being members of an unlawful assembly under s. 145, — Held that, had the complaint been one under s. 143 and not under s. 148, it might have been made the subject of a — under s. 222 Act X of 1872. — 21 W. R., Cr., 89.

3. Where an accused was charged with theft of a box containing 50s., in each of which the box was 8 annas 6 pies, the Magistrate considered the box to be of no value and struck out the 8 annas 6 pies, and therefore dealt with the case as a — under s. 222 Act X of 1872. — Held that the Magistrate was not at liberty, upon his own authority and without taking evidence, to throw the box entirely out of consideration, as upon that depended his jurisdiction to dispose of the case summarily. — 22 W. R., Cr., 65.

4. Where the accused was, in addition to a fine, sentenced to lose his gun found in his possession, this punishment of confiscation was held to be separate and distinct from that of fine or imprisonment, and the offence to be not one which a Magistrate could try summarily.—25 W. R., Cr. 53.

5. So also in a case of confiscation of suit,—23 W. R., Cr. 43.

6. A charge of mischief, even if combined with one of theft, is triable summarily under s. 222 Act X of 1872.—25 W. R., Cr. 5.

But see (as to a case of Muchhoi) 25 W. R., Cr. 69.

6. Under s. 228 Act X of 1872, the Magistrates are not bound to record in the substance of every separate deposition, but to state generally what is the substance of the witnesses' evidence.—25 W. R., Cr. 6.

7. Whether a case is triable summarily or not (with reference to the value of the property concerned) must be determined by the complaint and not by any estimate formed by the Magistrate after evidence has been recorded.—25 W. R., Cr. 19.

8. S. 227 Act X of 1872 is intended to apply only to short and simple cases in which but little evidence is needed.—25 W. R., Cr. 65.

9. A bonâ fide claim of right deprives a Magistrate of jurisdiction to deal with a criminal charge in a summary way.—Ib.

10. Where the Magistrate himself was the prosecutor, and himself dealt penally with the case,—Held that this was not a case in which he ought to have acted summarily.—25 W. R., Cr. 69.

Under-Tenures.

1. A defendant to sudder under s. 51 Reg. VII of 1798 is not debarred from claiming the benefit of that section because his tenure has not been registered by the zamindar under s. 48 a 2 Hay 220, 7 W. R. 53, (affirmed by P. C.)

2. A landlord seeking to recover rent in a suit, is not bound to proceed against any person who may have any latent bequeathal right to the tenure in respect of which the rent has fallen due, but only against whoever may be found in possession thereof with a legal right, and he is entitled to have his decree, eventually passed in his favor, satisfied by the sale of the tenure itself.—2 Hay 364.

3. — once recognized in any way by the Government as semiannual cannot be afterwards ignored.—2 W. R. 77, 439 (4 R. J. 1st S. 116); 2 W. R. X (Act X) 91; 9 W. R.
(Act X) 127; 3 W. R. U. (Act X) 6.

4. Resumption of the superior holding does not vitiate the — if they will bear an equitable portion of revenue assessed.—9 R. J. 2 W. R. 72 (1 R. J. 1st S. 149).

See also 12 W. R. 126, 16 W. R. 35.

5. An under-tenant may sue to recover his — sold by his zamindar for arrears of rent, although his name does not appear in the zamindar's register; and he may sue in the Civil Court, although he did not previously intervene in the Collector's Court under s. 106 Act IV. —3 W. R.
(Act X) 156. See also 5 W. II. (Act X) 60; 7 W. R. 13.
But see 7 W. R. 158.

6. Where an auction-purchaser did not avail himself of the right, under s. 30 Reg. XI of 1822, to avoid and annul a tenure created by his predecessor, it is not open to a person now holding, and to a mere lessee, to do so.—7 W. R. 91.

7. Dakhtilas or receipts for rent, and payments at the old rate up to the present time, are evidence of confirmation of a tenure by an auction-purchaser and his successor.

8. Since the passing of Act X of 1859, there is no law authorizing the attachment of — for arrears of rent unless under express power in the lease. The zamindar, if he continues to hold possession after collecting his dues, cannot claim more rent.—7 W. R. 293.

9. Tenants intermediate between proprietor and ryots are subject to the jurisdiction of the Collector under Act X of 1859, which contemplates under-tenants as distinct from ryots and contains provisions relating to both classes.—
14 W. R. 158, 19, 23.

10. Where a party purchases another's zemindars rights in an estate in which that other created an under-tenure with a fixed rent, the circumstance that payment of rent on account of such tenure was suspended while the zemindars was in the hands of the former proprie tor does not affect the rights of his successor or the fixity of the rent.—10 W. R. 212.

11. A party wishing to assert his rights to a tenure of which the zemindar refuses to take rent from him, should give him distinct notice of the interest he claims.—10 W. R. 466.

12. An auction-purchaser cannot, under s. 16 Act VIII of 1865 (B. C.), avoid any incumbrance without notice of his intention to do so or other act on his part.—14 W. R. 160.

See 12 W. R. 378.

No also under cl. 1 s. 11 Reg. VIII of 1819, and generally.—
12 W. R. 383.

13. The auction-purchaser of an under-tenure sold under
s. 16 Act VIII of 1865 (B. C.) acquires it free from any lakheraj incumbrance created by the previous holder, if the latter had no authority to create such an incumbrance.—
12 W. R. 32.

14. S. 16 Act VIII of 1865 (B. C.) does not apply to sales

Nor are such sales authorized by ss. 105 and 106 Act X of 1859.—22 W. R. 421.

15. Cl. 2 s. 23 Act X, relating to the illegal exaction of rent, is not limited to suits by ryots, but applies to any under-tenant.—14 W. R. 209.

16. The object of s. 16 Act VIII of 1865 (B. C.) is to protect, not merely any one class of tenants, but the tenesholder of the particular land leased, the expression "hnoodassat ryote" we used there, meaning "resident and hereditary cultivator."—16 W. R. 206.

17. Under the strict provisions of the same section, no sanction of a zemindar will avail unless the right is in the Holder of the — by the written engagement under which the — was created, or by the subsequent written authority of the person who created it, or his representatives.—21 W. R. 137.
18. If the holder of an under-tenure allows his tenant to occupy the land rent-free for more than 12 years, the title thus created in the latter is an incumbrance upon the under-tenure as much within the reason of s. 16 Act VIII of 1865 (B. C.) as if the holder had made a grant or a lease to his tenant to hold without paying any rent or at a merely nominal rent.—22 W. R. 413.

Value of Suit or Appeal.

1. A plaintiff suing for declaration of his title to certain lands on reversal of the judgment said to have been illegally executed by his father, need not value the case at the total of the consideration mentioned in those deeds.—W. R. 697. See 41 R. 484.

2. Instead of dismissing a case on account of undervaluation, the Judge should try it on the merits, upon the plaintiff putting in a sufficient stamp to make up the proper valuation.—1 W. R. 155. See also 12 W. R. 484.

3. See 30 to 32 Act VIII apply only to the first filing of the plaint. If it appears for the first time at the trial that the suit is undervalued and that the Court would have no jurisdiction to entertain it if properly valued, the suit should be dismissed.—3 W. R. 47. See also 13 W. R. 263.

4. Where the undervaluation of a suit affects the jurisdiction of the Lower Court, the Appellate Court should dismiss the case.—10 W. R. 207. See also 14 W. R. 228.

5. The word "value" in Rule 3 of the Rules of Practice of 10th May 1866 is not to be confounded with the valuation of the suit.—11 W. R. 36.

6. Where a claim is undervalued, the Mooniiff is right, under s. 31 Act VIII, in not dismissing the suit but rejecting the plaint; and on the plaint being duly stamped, the Principal Sudder Ameer has jurisdiction to try the case and the Judge in appeal is wrong, with reference to s. 350, in reversing the Principal Sudder Ameer's decision.—11 W. R. 177. See also 11 W. R. 341, 13 W. R. 357, 21 W. R. 232.

7. S. 350 does not prohibit an Appellate Court from modifying or reversing a Lower Court's decision on the ground of under valuation if the proper valuation would take the suit beyond the jurisdiction of that Court.—11 W. R. 237, 470.

8. Under s. 32 Act X of 1862 an appeal relating to the valuation of a claim can be entertained by the High Court.—11 W. R. 479.

9. If any question as to the valuation of the property in dispute is raised by either of the parties, the final decision * upon that point is vested in the Court which hears the suit.—13 W. R. 226.

10. A Lower Appellate Court was held to have done right in dismissing a suit on the ground of under-valuation, although the plaint had been admitted and acted upon by the First Court without objection by the parties.—14 W. R. 196.

11. Where a pre-suit valuation was made at $500 instead of $2000, the High Court in special appeal refused to renew the case to enable the plaintiff to make up the deficient stamp duty.—16.

12. It is not open to a Lower Appellate Court to enter into the matter of valuation of its own record, where that has not been raised by the defendant in the first Court.—14 W. R. 196.

13. An Appellant to an appeal of the Court should have acted rightly in putting in his appeal upon the valuation which he put upon the suit as approved by the first Court, although it turned out to be an over-valuation; and the Appellate Court was held justified in awarding costs in proportion to what it considered the proper valuation.—20 W. R. 206.

14. Where an appeal had not been valued on the whole claim, but only with reference to the particular interests of the appellants, and the difference was not large, the High Court in special appeal directed that, the case should proceed in the Lower Appellate Court upon the appellants paying in the amount of difference in stamp duty.—21 W. R. 256.

15. The fact that a suit gravitates from the Subordinate Judge for less than $1000, would be cognizable by the Mooniiff's Court, is no ground for dismissing it, although it is a ground for providing that plaintiffs should not be allowed any more for costs than they could have recovered if they had sued in the Mooniiff's Court.—21 W. R. 188.

And though the Subordinate Judge may properly transfer such a suit to the Mooniiff for trial, yet by s. 19 Act VI of 1871 the former is empowered to try causes of any value.—25 W. R. 219.

16. Where a suit is for recovery of possession (with mesne profits) of a certain portion of land, and for a declaration of right of possession in respect of the reminder, its valuation should not include the value of the latter, which is only nominal and requires a stamp of 10s.—25 W. R. 23.

17. A Court has means of punishing a plaintiff for over valuation by saddling him with costs or in any other way, but ought not to disimise the whole of a case merely because plaintiff had improperly claimed a particular item for the express purpose of avoiding the Small Cause Court of its jurisdiction.—25 W. R. 76.

Vendor and Purchaser.

1. In a suit by a purchaser against the vendor for the recovery of the land purchased, the Court will not, at the instance of the vendor to determine the validity of a mortgage, set aside the conveyance alleged to have been previously granted by the vendor.—1 Hay 67 (Marshall 30).

2. A purchaser under a sale for arrears of rent is not entitled to have the purchase set aside, on the ground merely of an irregularity in the preliminary advertisement, unless he can show that he has been prejudiced thereby.—1 Hay 68 (Marshall 31).

3. An innocent purchaser for full consideration but without good title, can only be required to account to the rightful owner for the profits during his possession, and is entitled to take credit in the account for all needful expenditure in the preservation and improvement of the property.—1 Hay 410. See also 5 W. R. 219.

4. Where articles are sold on the condition that their prices would be settled thereafter, and the vendor having parted with them puts them beyond his power to produce them in Court when sued for their value, the false allegation of the vendor regarding their prices cannot be treated as evidence in the case, but the Court can rely upon the vendor's accounts—books if no other satisfactory evidence be tendered on the point by the vendor.—2 Hay 267.

5. B advanced money to A for the purchase of an estate. The estate was purchased by A but conveyed to B. Held that A cannot maintain a suit to obtain possession of the land from B, as he was bound to pay or tender the money advanced by B.—Marshall 494.

6. When a vendor is not paid a part of his consideration, he is not legally bound to acknowledge the contract, but he can establish his lien upon it.—2 Hay 576.

7. A purchased property in the name of B, and allowed B to occupy and retain possession of the property. B mortgaged the property to C for a valuable consideration. Held that A and those claiming through him were estopped from asserting against C his or their titles to the property, and that the mortgage was valid.—Marshall 569, 570 (3 W. R. 35).

8. In a suit for balance of price of goods sold and delivered, defendant set up but could not prove an accepted contract for credit for three years: and as more than a year had passed since the goods were supplied and no question arose as to what was a reasonable credit, the plaintiff was held entitled to a decree.—Sev. 198.

9a. A party acquiring property as purchaser with notice of its being pledged to another, cannot claim it as previously hypothecated to him.—W. R. Sp. 114.

b. A bond fide purchaser should not be deprived of the benefit of an honest purchase, even though the sale to his vendor was fraudulent, if he had no notice of the fraud.—W. R. Sp. 235.

10. The rights of bond fide purchasers and mortgagees are not to be defeated by earlier obligations in the hands of the parties, mere possession being sufficient.—7b.

11. Where the purchaser of an estate pays earnest-money, and no time is fixed for the payment of the balance, the vendor is bound to wait a reasonable time before he can re-sell the property.—W. R. Sp. 281 (L. R. 63).

12. Where a vendor receives the greater part of the purchase-money in the shape of old debts recited in the deed, and refuses the remainder tendered in cash, the purchaser is entitled to sue for specific performance or for breach of contract.—W. R. Sp. 345.

13. Right of bond fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice from an owner of property subject to a lien or charge, to defeat such prior lien or charge.—P. C. P. C. R. 493 (Marshall 461). See also 14 W. R. 92, 18 W. R. 161.

14. Where a vendor has contracted with two different parties for the sale to each of them of the same estate, the Court will priud facio enforce the contract first made.—1 Hyde 46.

15. Where a deed of sale of land covenanted for the payment of the purchase-money on the vendor registering the deed, and registration was duly made by the vendor but no consideration was paid by the purchaser within a year, and the purchaser sued for possession of the land, the Court, before declaring the equities, remanded the case for a finding on the issues as to the intention of the parties respecting the time of payment, and whether (as alleged by the defendant) in consequence of non-payment by the plaintiff the defendant was jeopardized as to his property and had to sell at a loss.—1 W. R. 38.

16. A sale of pledged personal property, when declared valid by decree of Court, disposes of questions of ownership in favor of the purchaser, though the purchaser be the vendor's wife.—1 W. R. 64.

17. A person is not a bond fide purchaser for value who has obtained neither title nor possession.—1 W. R. 115.

18. A purchaser is not bound by a decree against his vendor in a suit commenced after his purchase.—1 W. R. 286.

19a. A purchaser from an owner in the state who knew that one of the beneficial owners was a minor and took the precaution to obtain the consent of the other beneficial owner who was of age, was held not to be a bond fide purchaser.—1 W. R. 324.

b. Liability of a purchaser of a mortgaged tenant when the mortgagee had previously agreed to pay the remainder not only the tenant rent, but an annual sum in liquidation of a debt.—2 W. R. 121.

20. Who is a legally bond fide purchaser from a childless Hindu widow.—2 W. R. 123.

21. A purchaser is not liable for debts of former owner.—2 W. R. 271.

22. The non-registration of a contract by A to sell land to B at some future time on receipt of balance of sum agreed on, is no bar to B's preferential claim over C, a subsequent purchaser whose title was registered under Act XIX of 1843.—3 W. R. 64.

23. If C purchased in good faith and without notice, and is in possession, his possession cannot be disturbed by A's claim of contract with B, but B's remedy is not by a suit for specific performance, but by a suit for damages.—Ib. See also 6 W. R. 234.

24. Where there is an agreement to sell, and a part of the consideration-money has been received, the stipulating purchaser is entitled to specific performance on paying down the rest of the purchase-money.—3 W. R. 103.

25. An agreement to sell at some future period may be registered under Act XIX of 1843.—3 W. R. 123.

26. An unpaid purchase-money creates no lien on the property sold against third parties who are bond fide purchasers for valuable consideration.—3 W. R. 134.

27. In the absence of reservation or restriction, a purchaser of a fraction of a share of an estate acquires a right either to cultivate on the same conditions as to rents as he and his vendros, or to claim a share of the rents just as he would from any part of the estate.—5 W. R. 11.

28. Purchaser of a decree.—See Adjournment 6; Appeal 88, 84, 148; Assignment 12; Auction-Purchaser (Execution Sale) 36; Banamul 11; Cross Decrees 7, 8; Hindu Law (Cognate) 60; Husband and Wife 45; Injunction 11; Limitation 101a; Limitation (Act I:IV of 1859) 223; Omsa Paddana 130, 256; Practice (Appeal) 10; Practice (Execution of Decree) 11, 95, 93, 110, 131, 270; Practice (Parties) 18; Right of Appeal 5; Special Appeal 55; and 45, 57 post.

29. Purchase of share of a decree.—See Practice (Execution of Decree) 203, 256, 256.

22. A bonus paid for a patents not in existence is refundable, there being an entire failure of consideration; the principle of caveat emptor not applying to such a case.—
5 W. R. 232.

23. Where a bill of sale, though signed and registered, has not been delivered, and no part of the purchase-money has been paid, the vendor cannot be compelled to complete the transfer.—5 W. R. 218.

24. The purchaser is not bound to prove that the money borrowed was appropriated for the maintenance of the minor.—6 W. R. 81.

25. The purchaser from a Hindu widow who is still living, is entitled to possession of the property sold, whether there was necessity for the sale or not.—6 W. R. 36.

26. Where goods have been fraudulently purchased, the vendor has a right to disaffirm the contract, even if the property passed with his consent to the purchaser, who must be considered as his agent and the possession of that of the vendor.—6 W. R. 81.

27. Nothing subsequently done or suffered by a vendor can affect the rights acquired by the purchaser at the time of sale.—6 W. R. 230.

28. The purchaser of a fractional part of an entire estate, subject to a charge, is liable singly to satisfy that charge out of the portion of the property in his possession.—6 W. R. 311.

29. An unrequited purchaser from a Hindu wife whose husband is living at the time, is in no sense a bona fide purchaser without notice.—6 W. R. 312.

30. Where goods are brought against a vendor by persons who have omitted to insert their names in the purchase potli, do not constitute notice of title to an innocent purchaser for valuable consideration.—6 W. R. 318.

31. Where a tenancy over sold in execution as a jote jamuna and purchased by a speculative purchaser for a nominal price, is again sold by the decree-holder, on discovering his mistake, to the original tenant, the second purchaser is entitled to succeed, and not the first, who cannot be considered as an innocent purchaser for valuable consideration.—6 W. R. 4.

32. A mere agreement to sell a certain property without any consideration passing, cannot bar the right of the vendor on the same day to sell a portion of the property to another without invalidating the third party's purchase.—7 W. R. 38.

33. There is no fraud in a purchaser securing the assent both of the ostensible and beneficial owners to his purchase, and thereby taking title under the defrauders.—7 W. R. 196.

34. Suit by purchaser on warranty of title by vendor.—7 W. R. 196.

35. Where a vendor, knowing that he has no right or title to property, or being conscious of the existence of incumbrances or of latent defects materially lowering its value, sells it and neglects to disclose such defects to the purchaser, there is a fraudulent concealment vitiating the contract and rendering inapplicable the principle of caveat emptor.—7 W. R. 258.

36. A man buying in the face of hostile claim cannot set himself up as an innocent purchaser without notice.—8 W. R. 300. See also 9 W. R. 328.

37. Where several properties are comprised in one deed of sale, the purchaser runs the risk of having his title in all the properties slaken, should the purchaser as to one of them be called in question in a regular suit.—8 W. R. 483.

38. A party purchasing with notice that his vendor's title is contested, must take his chance if that title turns out invalid.—8 W. R. 483.

39. A sale of a quantity of mustard-seed which was not required by the purchaser for his own private use, but with the object of making oil, is a sale of goods whose sale.—9 W. R. 122.

40. Where plaintiff had contracted with defendant to purchase from him a share of certain landed estates, excluding from the contract certain land in those estates situated within a defined boundary, and defendant bound himself to make a similar disposition of other lands in consideration, but failed to do so—Hold that plaintiff might sue for specific performance or for damages, but could not, under the contract, sue to recover lands which he did not buy.—9 W. R. 269.

41. When either the vendor labor under disqualification, or the purchaser stands in a fiduciary capacity, the owner of the property, the bona fide of the dealing cannot be presumed but must be made out by the purchaser.—9 W. R. 257, 10 W. R. 128.

42. An advertisement setting forth a description of villages and inviting purchasers is substantially an implied warranty of title, and makes the advertiser responsible to the purchaser deceived by any misrepresentation therein. It is a sufficient proof of fraud if it is shown that the representation made was false, and the person making the representation had the knowledge of the fact contrary to it. The fraud having been substantially alleged, the absence of a stipulation to refund does not protect from refunding.—9 W. R. 377. See also 18 W. R. 276.

43. Under the Mahomedan law, there is nothing prind fahie had in a sale by a Mahomedan heir, so as to invalidate the title of a bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration and without notice of any reason why the sale should not have been made.—10 W. R. 216.

44. Where plaintiff purchased from defendant an estate which had, before the sale, been attached under a decree held by another party against defendant, and paid the amount of the decree and interest to prevent a sale in execution—Hold that the maxim of caveat emptor was wholly inapplicable to such circumstances, and that, whether plaintiff did or did not know of the attachment, she was entitled to recover from the defendant the amount which she had paid.—10 W. R. 380.

45. The purchaser of the rights of a co-owner is bound by all the arrangements made in respect to the collections.—10 W. R. 111.

46. The relationship between parties to a conveyance of property is not immaterial where the question is whether the purchaser is true or fraudulent; and the mere handing over of the purchase-money before strangers, and registration, are not sufficient proof of a bona fide transaction.—10 W. R. 446. See also 10 W. R. 405, 21 W. R. 400.

47. A Judge was held to have been wrong in law in dismissing a suit upon the sole ground that plaintiff had not proved the purchase which he alleged by producing his vendor as a witness.—11 W. R. 311.

48. Where a party, obtaining a money-deed, attached an estate mortgaged to himself by a registered bond and sold it without mention of the mortgage, and then getting a decree on the registered bond, sold it to a party who attached the estate in execution.—Hold that the purchaser of the latter decree stood in the same position as his vendor, and could not set up a lien under the bond as against the instrument sold to the vendor in execution. In the belief that the debtor's title was valid.—12 W. R. 305.

49. A bond on a deed of sale for possession of 4 annas of certain lands which was sold, alleged in consideration of an advance of a sum of money which A said he paid to B when the deed was executed. B answered that, being in want of funds to carry on a suit for the recovery of the very lands of which A now sued for 4 annas, he gave A the deed in question on the condition that A would advance him the amount mentioned in the deed, but that A only advanced parts of the sum from time to time. The allegation of A that he paid the money to B when the deed was executed, was found to be false. Hold that the execution and transfer of the deed of sale from B to A, and the partial payment of the purchase-money by A to B, did not pass to A an absolute title to the lands, and that B in retaining possession could not be regarded as having only a lien for the unpaid portion of the purchase-money, or liable to account to A as a mortgagee, for the possession of the rents and profits, and that even part of the purchase-money had been paid by A to B at the time of the execution of the deed, and A tendered to B the remainder of the purchase-money, A would not have been entitled to a decree for specific performance, the court being on being a speculative, not to say a gambling, one.—(P. C.) 12 W. R., P. G. 6. See also (P. C.) 18 W. R. 140, 21 W. R. 101.

50. A party buying a specified talook with an additional description that it contains so much land, gets the whole land covered by the specification, although it may be more than that contained in the description.—14 W. R. 117.
of a joint family, and who has not agreed of and learnt from the mortgagee that there was no fraud, is not bound to make any further inquiry.—20 W. R. 100.

65. Where on a sale being set aside,—appealed separately, and the Judge, on the appeal of the purchaser in which the vendor was not a respondent, ordered the latter to refund the purchase-money to the former,—Held that the decision was illegal and that the purchaser should have been referred to a separate suit.—20 W. R. 149.

66. Where a party after contracting to sell land to another, executing a byna-pattor, and receiving a part of the consideration-money, sells the same land to other parties, such sale is vitiated if the purchasers are aware of the previous contract even though specific notice thereof had not been given to them.—20 W. R. 285.

67. Where a kubala is not executed within the stipulated date, an intending purchaser is not entitled to compensation under a 74 Act IX of 1872, unless he can show that he tendered the purchase-money, and the bond, together with a draft of the kubala, to the opposite party, who then refused to execute it.—20 W. R. 481.

68. Where in a kubala the vendor thus bound himself to the purchaser,—"If any one objects to my sale and gives you any sort of trouble, I will arrange it; and if I fail to do so, I will restore the purchase-money; in default, you may realize it by an action."—Held that it was intended to provide not only against defect in the power of the vendor as a Hindu widow, but against any disturbance of the purchaser and to protect him against dispossession.—21 W. R. 398.

69. If a person knows that another has or claims an interest in property for which he is dealing, he is bound to enquire what that interest is; and if he omits to do so, he will be bound, although the notice was insufficient in its particulars or extent of such interest.—(O. J.) 22 W. R. 248.

70. Although, according to the principles of equity, in certain cases a contract may be set aside without positive fault, unless it is shown to have been made upon adequate consideration, yet before the defendant is called upon to prove that he has given full value for property sold to him, the plaintiff must first make out that the parties to the bargain were dealing on terms so unequal as to render it improper for a Court of justice to enforce the contract unless shown to be one which a prudent person with proper advice and assistance might well have made.—22 W. R. 341.

71. Where a party sells property to others, and it afterwards appears that he had not the right to do so, and the purchasers are in consequence dispossessed, the less ought to fall on the vendor, and not on the purchasers who put faith in his deed of selling.—22 W. R. 442.

72. There is no difference in this respect between a private sale and a sale by auction in execution of decree.—10.

73. A purchaser's title to the property purchased is not affected by the mere fact of his being kept out of possession in consequence of the wrongful act of his vendor.—24 W. R. 248.

74. Meaning of the rule of innocent cooperator.—25 W. R. 45.

75. A purchaser is bound to look not only to his own title, but to see that he is properly indemnified by the corrigenda in his deed of purchase; if he does not so protect himself, he has no remedy, for if a deed of purchase has been once executed, unless there is an eviction by the vendor or some person claiming under him, the purchaser has no right of action against the vendor.—25 W. R. 352.

76. A person who purchased joint family property without notice that there were contested rights, and in the belief that the vendor was entitled to sell (of grant in mortgagee lease), was held entitled to a third party courts to claim the property, as further purchaser-money, unless bad conduct or bad faith could be brought home to him.—25 W. R. 368.

Voluntary Payment.

1. A payment made by a judgment-debtor to the assignee of a decree-holder was held to be a — which could not defeat the rights of the decree-holder. — W. R. Sp., Mis., 8.

2. A person making a — to stay a sale in execution of a decree against others, cannot sue under s. 105 or 113 Act X of 1859 for the recovery of the money so paid by him. — W. R. (Act X) 48.

3. Where plaintiff made a — of rent to defendant, it was held that plaintiff could only recover the money paid for, by proving that it was paid on such a mistake of fact as its being due to defendant as to render it inequitably as between plaintiff and defendant that the latter should keep it, or that it was paid through any fraud on the part of defendant, either constructive or actual. — W. R. 28.

4. A suit will not lie to recover — made to save a transferable tenancy from sale for arrears for rent under s. 105 Act X. — W. R. S. C., 4.

5. Where a person, in order to save his indigo factory from sale in execution of a decree against a third party, paid the amount of the decree into Court, such payment was held to be not a — but made under legal necessity. — W. R. 403. See also 10 W. R. 453.

6. Plaintiff’s ancestor purchased in execution the right, title, and interest of R, but finding that, antecedently to the sale, the right, title, and interest of R and of two others had been attached in execution of a decree against D, (R’s uncle and father of the two others), prevented the sale by paying in the amount due. Held that as it was not legally bound to pay the amount due under the decree against D, the payment by plaintiff’s ancestor was a — and plaintiff could not recover. — 10 W. R. 400.

7. Where a purchaser of a jute jumma, to save the tenures from sale under a decree against defendant obtained by the petitioner for arrears of rent due before the purchase, pays the amount of the decree, — Held that the payment was a — made without legal necessity, and was not recoverable by suit against defendant. — 10 W. Withdrawal of Suit or Appeal.

1. Where a Judge qu'appeal allowed plaintiff, under s. 97 Act VIII of 1859, to withdraw the suit. — Held that plaintiff was not barred under that section from bringing a second suit, and that the "final judgment" therein referred to must be taken to mean the judgment which the Appellate Court would pass in appeal, and not the judgment passed by the first Court, which, after an appeal had been admitted, could not possibly be the final judgment in the case. —(P. B.) 45.

2. Where a plaintiff was allowed, under s. 97, to withdraw his suit with leave to bring a fresh suit, and was ordered to pay the defendant his costs, but the order did not in terms make the payment of costs a condition precedent to the liberty to bring a fresh suit, and the plaintiff was pursuant to such leave, instituted another suit but did not pay the costs of the former action, the Court declared itself unable to stay proceedings until the costs of the previous action were paid by plaintiff; and the Court's order of refusal was held in appeal to be an interlocutory order and not open to appeal. — 2 Hyde 219.

But see 7 W. R. 302.

5. Order for — under s. 97 how to be framed. — 14.

6. Where High Court allowed withdrawal of an appeal without prejudice to appellant making such application, appeal, or motion as he might think fit. — 7 W. R. 338.

7. One of several plaintiffs cannot be allowed to withdraw without the assent of the others. — (P. B.) 9 W. R. 301.

8. An appellant, on the appeal being called, but before the hearing took place, applied to withdraw his case. — Held that the Court might allow him to do so, and that, as the appellant had withdrawn from the appeal, the respondent could no longer pursue his objection under s. 518 Act VIII. — 9 W. R. 530, 14 W. R. 310, 23 W. R. 229.

9. A plaintiff has a discretion to withdraw his suit at any time he pleases. — 10 W. R. 373.

But a plaintiff may be allowed to withdraw a suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit only in those cases in which the suit fails by reason of some point of form, and not when issue has been joined and plaintiff has failed to produce evidence in support of his claim. — (P. C.) 12 W. R., P. C. 44; 21 W. R. 241.

10. Under s. 37 Act XXIII of 1861, an Appellate Court has power, before pronouncing final judgment, to permit plaintiff to withdraw from the suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit. — 14 W. R., Q. J., 17.

11. Inability to adduce the evidence of certain records within the time fixed for hearing, was admitted as a reason for — under s. 97 Act VIII. — 16 W. R. 100.

The Lower Appellate Court has no power to interfere with the discretion of a first Court under s. 97 Act VIII for allowing a plaintiff, at any time before final judgment, to withdraw from the suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit. — 17 W. R. 229.

the deposition or elsewhere that it was read over or interpreted to him. — 14 W. R., Cr. 13.
64. After the list of witnesses has been filed and the tullabana said, the Court's officers are responsible for the service and return of notice. — 15 W. R., 88.
65. A — is not guilty of an offence under s. 288 Penal Code for giving inconsistent evidence and giving evidence reluctantly and taking up the time of the Court. — 15 W. R., Cr. 5.
67. S. 34 Act 11 of 1855 regarding cross-examination as to previous written statements, explained. — 1b.
68. The deposition of a — should be taken in the first, and not in the third, person. — 16 W. R., Cr. 36.
69. There is no necessity under s. 198 Act XXV of 1861 for the deposition of a — to be interpreted to him by a written interpreter. — 16 W. R., Cr. 71.
70. The rejection or rejection of evidence should not depend upon the caste of the —. — 17 W. R. 161. See 23 W. R. 520.
71. Prisoner should name their witnesses at the time of commitment. — 17 W. R., Cr. 68.
72. What is or is not a lawful excuse for the non-attendance of a party summoned to attend as a — must depend on the circumstances of each case. — 18 W. R., 63.
73. A person who swears that he was present at the execution of an instrument, is not a secondary — merely because he was not a subscribing. — 18 W. R. 245.
74. It is no doubt a legitimate objection to a man's credit that he is a profligate and to state bravely and generally that a — has given evidence in other cases and therefore becomes unworthy of credit, can only tend to increase that indisposition of responsible persons to come into Court as witnesses, which is one of the social evils of India. — (P. C.) 18 W. R. 285.
75. Where witnesses come into Court to prove the whole case made by the plaintiffs, and are shown to have come to prove a case false in its material features, much reliance cannot be placed on their evidence as to any particular questions in the case. — (P. C.) 18 W. R. 625.
76. Where petitioner was charged with the theft of certain money found in his house and appropriated, and after proclamation made, no one appeared to claim the money; whereupon petitioner preferred his claim and asked the Magistrate to summon certain witnesses, but the Magistrate refused to do so and discharged his claim. — Held that the Magistrate was bound to summon the witnesses. — 18 W. R., Cr. 5.
77. A — ought to be allowed on cross-examination to qualify or correct any statement which he has made in his examination-in-chief. — 18 W. R., Cr. 57.
78. People of rank and wealth, when summoned as — to a distance, are entitled to travelling and other expenses suitable to their circumstances. — 19 W. R. 78.
79. Where an applicant for a certificate to collect the debts of a deceased person's estate, was summoned to attend as a — and was absent without good cause, his application was held rightly rejected under s. 170 Act V of 1861. — 19 W. R. 183.
80. No appeal lies to the Sessions Court from the order of a Deputy Magistrate refusing to recall the witnesses for the purpose of cross-examination but the order is such an error as can only be corrected by the High Court under its powers of superintendence and revision. — 19 W. R., Cr. 53.
81. When the deposition of an absent — is admitted under s. 33 Act I of 1872, the ground for its admission should be stated fully and clearly, and there should be evidence to show that he could not have been produced and that he had an opportunity of cross-examining him at the time the deposition was given. — 20 W. R., Cr. 69; 21 W. R., Cr. 12, 56.
82. The above section does not apply to the deposition of a — in a former suit, which is sought to be used against him in a subsequent suit in which he is a defendant, not as evidence between the parties, but as an admission against himself. — 21 W. R. 414.
83. In order to render the deposition of a — before the Magistrate admissible in evidence under s. 249 Act X of 1872, it must have been duly taken by the Magistrate in the presence of the accused, and must be certified by the Magistrate so as to afford prima facie evidence under s. 80 Act I of 1872 of the circumstances mentioned in it. — 21 W. R., Cr. 5.
84. The discretion conferred by the above section should be exercised upon substantial materials rightly before the Court and not upon mere speculation or conjecture. — 21 W. R., Cr. 40.
85. The deposition taken in English by the Magistrate of what a — said in Ilindoostance was admitted as a proper deposition, and the memorandum endorsed upon it was taken, under s. 80 Act I of 1872, as evidence of the facts therein mentioned. — 22 W. R., Cr. 2.
86. Under s. 365 Act X of 1872, a prisoner is entitled as a matter of right to have any witnesses named in the list which he delivers to the Magistrate, summoned and examined. — 23 W. R., Cr. 56.
87. To maintain an action under s. 26 Act XIX of 1855, for not attending as a —, it is necessary that the summons to attend should have been personally delivered. — 24 W. R. 72.
88. Undue delay in applying for process for summoning witnesses was held to be a good ground for the Court's refusal to entertain the application. — 25 W. R. 71.

Written Statement.

1. The admission of written statements on various states, unless called for by the Court, is contrary to the provisions of ss. 120 and 122 Act VIII.—W. B. Sp. 44.

2. A — under Act VIII is required to set forth a full and true narrative of the facts of the case, and a party cannot be allowed any discretion as to whether he will state or withhold a fact of such importance as the execution of a receipt for the money sued for.—1 Hyde 30.

3. A — must be prepared with great care and deliberation, so as to dispense altogether with parol evidence.—1 Hyde 147.

4. In the event of a defendant neglecting to furnish a the court will examine him as to the grounds of his defence; and should it appear desirable that a — should be put in.

the case will be adjourned for that purpose at the expense of the defaulting party.—2 Hyde 89.

5. Verification of — not provided for by Act X.—1 W. B. 132 (3 R. J. P. J. 220).

6. Omission in first Court to obtain such verification is no ground for throwing out an appeal.—16.

7. Verification of paper of exceptions to plaintiff's ——1 W. B., Mis. 6.

8. Reasonable time should be given to a defendant to file his ——5 W. B. (Act X) 39.

9. Plaintiff and — should be subscribed and verified by the parties in person, without regard to rank or station, except for good cause shown.—6 W. B. 213.

10. According to s. 123 Act VIII, a party making a — may, without incurring the penalties of perjury, insert in the — in the form of direct allegation any fact whatever which he hopes to be able to prove at the trial and which upon the general rumour he believes to be true.—7 W. B. 493.

11. Quere. Whether under the above circumstances a — even when verified, is evidence in the cause.—16.

12. The doctrine of admission by non-traverse is not applicable to a — filed under Act X.—9 W. B. 86.

13. A Court was held not to have done wrong in admitting a supplemental — which it had called for under s. 122 Act VIII and which did not add to or vary the plaintiff's claim.—11 W. B. 71. See also 22 W. B. 277.

14. Where a — was admitted on the record without verification.—Hold that it was the business of the Court to take notice of the allegations which it contained, and to frame issues accordingly.—13 W. B. 342.

Zemindar.

1. Where money was borrowed to pay the revenue due from a zemindar and paid to the Government on that account, the bond given by the vakels and managers of the zemindar to the trustee for the lenders in the English form for the purpose of enabling them to enforce the personal engagements of the vakels and managers in the Supreme Court, was held not to deprive the lenders of their right, under the law prevailing among the natives in matters of contract, to sue the — in the Courts of the Mojussel. — (P. C.) 5 W. R. P. C. 72 (P. C. R. 8).

2. There was nothing in the laws of 1781 and 1787 (repealed by the laws of 1796) which made it illegal for a — to contract a debt, or for any other native to take an obligation from a —, without the consent of the Officers of Revenue; but such obligation, if founded on a valuable consideration, would be equally binding upon the conscience of the —, and the demand and the payment would be equally legal as if such consent had been obtained and registered, though no Court of Justice might have jurisdiction to enforce the right. — 15.

3. Where a — devise the whole of his zemindaria to his eldest son subject to the payment of certain fixed stipends to each of his other children, although the settlement upon the younger children was originally a fair one, yet in consequence of events which had subsequently occurred it was held that there ought to be a reduction in the stipends. — (P. C.) 5 W. R. P. C. 99 (C. C. R. 24).

4. A — is liable to more than nominal damages if he restrains the persons of his officers, nor can he eject them from their houses after long possession by them, without clear proof of title on his part. — (P. C.) 6 W. R. P. C., 13 (P. C. R. 112).

5. A — had no power, before the Permanent Settlement, to grant a rent-free tenure or a tenure at a less rent than the share of the produce payable to Government for revenue; nor had he power to grant jagir. — 6 W. R. 121.

6. A — is competent to grant a tenancy to one person over the head of another, without interfering with the legal rights of that other. — 6 W. R. 122.

Zar-i-peshgee Lease.

1. A zemindar, after he had granted a —, collected the rents from the ryots. Held (1) that the lessee was entitled to treat the rents so received as a payment of rent under the lease; (2) that the lessee was entitled to recover from the zemindar the amounts of rents so received in excess of the rent due under the lease; (3) that a suit to recover such excess was properly instituted before the Collector. — Marshall Cas.
2. A lessee cannot be set aside during its currency, on proof that the money originally advanced has been realized; nor, after expiry of the term, without proof of such payment. The correct way of making up the account is to apply the yearly proceeds first to the payment of interest, and any balance to the reduction of the principal. The interest in the second year will be calculated on the reduced principal. — L. R. 162.
3. The grant of a — is in itself not a violation of an agreement which only forbids absolute and permanent alienation by sale or gift or such like. — See 11.
4. Where a — expressly empowered the lessee to repay the money advanced, and redeem the property at any time during the term. Held that, unless the condition for that purpose was construed as providing for the repayment of the principal and interest only, the mortgage would be contrary to the provisions of ss. 9 and 10 Reg. XV of 1799 and therefore void on the ground of usury. — Sec. 436.

3. A zar-i-peshgee is entitled as against purchasers from the grantor of his — to retain the whole property pledged to him until the whole of his debt is paid; it being optional with him to relinquish a portion on receiving part payment. — W. R. Sp. 200 (L. R. 37), 6 W. R. 122.

6. A zar-peshgee cannot compel his lessees to pay rent when both he and they are ipricted by the zemindar. — L. R. 1.

7. A — may be cancelled on proof of discharge of advance with interest from the amount, or on payment of the amount in cash. The purchaser of the proprietary rights in a — is not barred from suing to redeem, because he or those through whom he claims did not sue for an account within twelve years from the date of discharge of the debt by the user. — 1 W. R. 7.

8. A — which recites that the lessee shall not sublet and that, if he does so, such lease shall be void, but does not provide for the cancelation of the — on breach of any of its conditions, cannot be set aside because of the act of the zar-i-peshgee creating a sub-lease. — 1 W. R. 52.

9. A suit for earned — does not lie in the Revenue Court, even though it be a condition of the lease that some rent be paid. — Se. also 8 W. R. 310.

10. In a suit for possession where mortgaged by a — the value of fish not delivered by the mortgagee as agreed is to be deducted against him. — 1 W. R. 142.

11. A suit lies for the balance of rents under a —. — 1 W. R. 361.

12. Form of decretal order in such a case. — 1b.

13. Where a — is essentially in the nature of an usufructuary mortgage, no arrangement between proprietor and lessee can alter the essential character of the deed or relieve the mortgagee from the liability of rendering an account. — 4 W. R. 103, 6 W. R. 7. — 12 W. R. 215.

14. A mortgage under a — can sue to recover possession of his lands before the expiry of the term fixed by the lease, on the ground that the mortgagee-debt has been satisfied by the mortgagee's receipts while in possession. — 6 W. R. 17.

15. Although, in the case of joint family property, it may not be necessary for the lender of money upon — to see to the application of it, it is necessary for him to make due inquiry as to the necessity to borrow. — 6 W. R. 193.

16. The estate in dispute was mortgaged under a — to a defendant, who, having been evicted by the mortgagee, sued and obtained a decree for possession and mesne profits (the latter to be assessed in execution). He never obtained possession under the decree, but recovered mesne profits by execution. Plaintiffs, claiming separate shares in the entire estate as purchasers from the mortgagees subsequent to the mortgage, sued separately each to redeem his own share upon payment of a proportion of the mortgage money. Held that plaintiffs, as representing the original mortgagees, were entitled to redeem, but that as the property was of an entire estate, neither of them could redeem except upon payment of less than the full amount of the mortgage money; and that the defendant having been wrongfully dispossessed, was not bound to account for the mesne profits recovered under his decree, the mesne profits or damages so recovered being different from the unfruit enjoyed by a mortgagee. — P. R. 261 W. R. 240.

17. A suit for possession on a — is cognizable only in the Civil Court. — 8 W. R. 361.

18. A decree-holder paying the debt due by his judgment-debtor to the zar-i-peshgee in possession, and realizing the rents cannot demand mesne profits from the judgment-debtor for the same period. — 10 W. R. 990.

20. Where money is borrowed on security of a —, the fact of there being a reserved rent does not alter the essential character of the arrangement as an usufructuary mortgage. — 12 W. R. 215.

30. A suit for rent reserved on land let out on a — should be brought in the Civil Court, even where the remedy sought by plaintiff involves different jurisdictions. — 1b.

31. Where a zar-i-peshgee abandons his right to possession under his lease and sues to recover the money advanced and obtains a decree which gives him no specific remedy against the property leased to him, his lease must be held to have terminated. — 15 W. R. 313.

32. As a — is the word for the term of the term it will be competent to me (the mortgagee) in the month of

The offer of any year I can, to pay the — and cancel the lease,' were held to bar re-entry in the middle of any year, but to contain no undertaking to the mortgagee to hold on until it suited the mortgagee to pay him off.—17 W. R. 211.

33. Where plaintiff obtained for a consideration a — which contained an undertaking that defendant would pay back his money with interest and profits if his interest were interfered with, and such interference did take place, and the Lower Appellate Court decreed the original money with interest and mesne profits for the unexpired portion of the lease.—Hold that mesne profits should not have been awarded.—19 W. R. 424.

34. Where a lessee makes default in payment of rent, and the lessor under the terms of the — has a right to take over possession, but sees to have the lease cancelled without praying for the defendant's ejectment, his omission to sue for ejectment does not deprive him of the right to have the lease cancelled.—21 W. R. 49.

35. Where plaintiff who was in possession of a lease under a — was ejected by defendants other than defendant No. 5 under color of their having bought the right, title, and interest of No. 5 at an auction sale, and sued to recover from the defendants jointly the principal secured by the — with interest.—Hold that the defendants other than No. 5, not being privy to the contract, were not liable to be called on to satisfy its terms, and that the suit should have been for recovery either of possession or damages.—22 W. R. 44.

36. H S executed a deed of sale in favor of N and R in respect of several properties, some of which had been mortgaged to N under a —. Notwithstanding this sale, H S again sold the same properties to B. Upon this N and R brought a suit to have their rights upheld against B, which was eventually decided by arbitrators whose award was that the property should be equally divided between R and B. After this R paid off half the sur-aqshar debt due to N; but B refused to do so, whereupon N sued H S and B to recover the money still due with interest. B pleaded that plaintiff was not entitled to maintain the suit inasmuch as he had, while in possession of all the mounas mortgaged to him, allowed some of them to be sold for arrears of Government revenue, and as he was still in possession of the rest.—Hold that, if the mounas when sold were in possession of B and were so sold on account of his laches, then N would be entitled to maintain the action notwithstanding his possession of the remainder, because it would be clear that by B's act the value of the security had been diminished.—24 W. R. 17.

37. In a suit to recover money lent upon a — and for the sale of the property leased of which plaintiff had been forcibly dispossessed by defendant,—Hold that as by the terms of the deed the only lien which plaintiff had acquired over the property was to retain possession as lessee until the money lent was paid off, he had no right to sue for the sale of the property; and that the suit being for money lent, and the lease not being a registered document, the limitation of three years applied.—24 W. R. 436.
