PREFACE.

The present is a collection of the Acts of the Legislative Council of India, from 1834 to the end of 1867. Repealed Acts and parts of Acts are omitted, but the Abstracts are retained, a plan which, I believe, has given satisfaction in former editions. I have admitted exceptions to the former part of this general rule, by the reprint of such repealed Acts and parts of Acts as concern titles to property, or in other respects have a permanent value for reference; and a few others of merely historical value may have been retained in the present, but will not in any subsequent volume. By this plan I have anticipated, to a considerable extent, the objects of a Bill now in course of being passed by the Legislative Council, for the repeal of some 180 Acts, which have become inoperative by change of circumstances, or have expired. The greater part of them have been suppressed in this Edition, and thereby the Bill referred to is anticipated.

The title which I have given to the present Collection is synonymous with "Acts of the Legislative Council of India." The Council came into existence in 1834 (the date at which this Collection begins), under 3 and 4 W. 4, c. 85, as a distinct body separate from that of the Executive Government of India; and the legislative powers of the Presidency Governments, through the exercise of which each Presidency had previously been supplied with Regulations (so called and not Acts), at the same time ceased.
In 1853, when the 3 and 4 W. 4, c. 85, was about to expire, the constitution of the Legislative Council was recast by the 16 and 17 V., c. 95, and great changes were made in it. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court became ex-officio a Member of it. One other Judge of the Supreme Court was to be added to it by appointment of the Governor General; and each Presidency became (so to say) represented in it. It is noteworthy that it was during this period that the Indian Penal Code (the most logically perfect piece of Penal Legislation extant) was passed, the Chief Justice Sir Barnes Peacock being Vice-President of, and presiding at the Council. In 1861 the Legislative Constitution underwent another great transformation, under "The Indian Council's Act, 1861" (24 and 25 V., c. 67). The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court ceased to be ex-officio a Member of the Council, and Representative Members (so to call them), not fewer than six, and not more than twelve, of whom half were to be non-official persons, were to be appointed by the Governor General. At the same time Legislative Councils were to be established for the different Presidencies, and have been in existence ever since.

With respect to this Edition, the reader will find Notes to Acts and Sections, indicating subsequent changes and repeals; and I believe the Index will be found more than usually full.

W. THEOBAULD.

4. Scale of rewards for Officers and others making seizures of Salt.

I. Be it enacted, that it shall be competent to the Governor of Bengal, whencesoever he shall deem it expedient, to vest the duty of Superintending Salt Chokees in Officers not being Covenanted Civil Servants, to limit the powers to be exercised by them in such manner as he may be pleased to direct.

II. When the Governor of Bengal shall appoint Superintending Officers of Chokees without the powers of adjudication in respect to cases of alleged violation of the laws for the protection of the Salt Revenue, which are declared to be vested in such Officers by sections 46—109, and other provisions of Regulation X., 1819, of the Bengal Code, it shall be competent to the Governor of Bengal to invest with those powers, any Judicial or Revenue Officer of the Government, giving notice thereof in the Government Gazette, and every Officer so invested with the said powers shall exercise the said powers in all respects as prescribed in Regulation X., 1819, of the Bengal Code, for Salt Agents and Superintending Officers of Chokees.

Second—Upon the adjudication of a forfeiture of salt, provided the parties concerned in the attempt to evade or violate the law be likewise convicted, the Officers of the Salt Department under the grades of Agent and Superintendent, if they have made the seizure upon information laid, or under orders of their Superiors, shall be entitled to a reward at the rate of 8 annas per maund of Merchantable Salt so adjudged to be forfeited. If the parties concerned be not discovered and convicted, the reward to the Salt Officers shall be only at the rate of 5 annas per maund.

Third—If Salt be seized by any subordinate Officers of Government possessing authority to make seizures, without information from others or orders from their Superior, the reward shall be at the rate of one rupee per maund if the offenders be convicted, and 8 annas if no offenders be convicted.

Fourth—Informers, whether Officers of Government or not, shall, on the adjudication of Salt to forfeiture that may have been seized on their information, receive 8 annas per maund if the offenders be convicted, and 5 annas if there be no conviction.

This Act has two objects: to empower the Governor of Bengal to vest the duty of superintending Salt Chokees in Officers not being Covenanted Civil Servants. To this, the first three sections are devoted. The rest of the Act, beginning with the 4th section, is employed in establishing a new scale of rewards for Officers and others making seizures of Salt.

Act No. XXIX., of 1838, repealing previous Regulations, directs the mode of proceeding in the seizure of Salt where the Salt Laws have been violated. The same Act contains several provisions respecting the punishment of offences against the Salt Laws. Further modifications are made in Act. III. 1851. This branch of legislation is now assumed by the Bengal Legislative Council.

The other Acts relating to the Silver Coinage, are, Act 13, 1836, Act 31, 1837, and Act 21, 1838. Under the first, the Calcutta Sicca Rupee ceased to be a legal tender. The Sicca Rupee no longer exists as a Coin, though it is still used in accounts. The second merely suspends so much of the above Act as directs that certain coins shall bear on the obverse the head of the reigning Sovereign,—then and still Queen Victoria. It was supposed that the head of a female sovereign would be offensive to the natives of India. Act 21, 1838, allows the Governor General to put her Majesty's head on the Coin. It also enables the Governor General to direct the coinage of Silver Coins of less than a Rupee in even annas.

or that the action was originally brought and decided in a Court of Adawlut, or a Court subordinate thereto, when it ought to a Magistrate, be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred

Clause Fifth.—The Registry of a mutation shall not of itself be taken to convey or establish any legal title to land, nor shall it be held to corroborate, qualify or bar any rights which may come to be questioned judicially. But no deed whatsoever for the sale or transfer of land, which may be executed after the first day of January in the year of Our Lord 1840, shall be admitted to be valid by the Officers of Government, or be received in evidence as a legal instrument by any Court of Judicature, unless the same shall have been registered in a Collector's Office in the manner directed by this Section, nor shall any Probate or Letters of Administration be received as evidence of title to land until so registered.

I. It is hereby enacted, and the words and expressions herein-after mentioned, which in their ordinary signification have a more confined or a different meaning, shall in this Act except where the nature of the provision or the context of the Act shall exclude such construction, be interpreted as follows (that is to say): The word “Land” shall extend to Messuages, and all other Hereditaments, whether corporeal or incorporeal, and whether Freehold or of any other Tenure, and to money to be laid out in the purchase of land, and to Chattels and other personal property transmissible to Heirs, and also to any share of the same Hereditaments and Properties, or any of them, and to any Estate of Inheritance or Estate for any Life or Lives, or other Estate transmissible to Heirs, and to any Possibility, Right, or Title of Entry or Action, and any other Interest capable of being inherited, and whether the same Estates, Possibilities, Rights, Titles, and Interests, or any of them, shall be in possession, reversion, remainder, or contingency; and the words “The Purchaser” shall mean the person who last acquired the Land otherwise than by descent, or than by any escheat, partition, or enclosure, by the effect of which the Land shall have become part of or descendible in the same manner as other Land acquired by descent; and the word “descent” shall mean the title to inherit Land by reason of consanguinity, as well where the Heir shall be an Ancestor or Collateral relation, as where he shall be a child or other issue; and the expression “descendants” of any Ancestor shall extend to all persons who must trace their descent through such Ancestor; and the expression “the person last entitled to Land” shall extend to the last person who had a right thereto, whether he did or did not obtain the

Ancestors, or under any limitation having the same effect, contained in a Will of any Testator who shall depart this life after the said First day of July, One thousand eight hundred and forty, then and in any of such cases such Land shall descend, and the descent thereof shall be traced as if the Ancestor named in such limitation had been the Purchaser of such Land.

his more remote male Maternal Ancestor, and her descendants, shall be the Heir or Heirs of such person in preference to the mother of a less remote male Maternal Ancestor, and her descendants.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, that any person related to the person from whom the descent is to be traced by the half blood shall be capable of being his Heir, and the place in which any such relation by the half blood shall stand in the order of inheritance, so as to be entitled to inherit, shall be next after any relation in the same degree of the whole blood, and his issue, where the common Ancestor shall be a male, and next after the common Ancestor where such common Ancestor shall be a female, so that the brother of the half blood on the part of the father shall inherit next after the sisters of the whole blood on the part of the father and their issue, and the brother of the half blood on the part of the mother shall inherit next after the mother.

X. And it is hereby further enacted, that when the person from whom the descent of any Land is to be traced shall have had any relation, who, having been attained, shall have died before such descent shall have taken place, then such attainder shall not prevent any person from inheriting such land who would have been capable of inheriting the same by tracing his descent through such relation if he had not been attained, unless such land shall have escheated in consequence of such attainder before the First day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty.

person named as Ancestor shall or shall not be living at the time aforesaid.

XIII. And it is hereby provided, that this Act shall not be construed to affect inheritances of Land, which are not subject to the English law of inheritance, or to extend or alter the jurisdiction of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Justice.

For the incorporation of a Bank at Bombay—

Whereas the Honorable Court of Directors of the East India Company, by and with the approbation of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, have sanctioned the establishment of a Bank at Bombay on the same principles as were prescribed for and have been observed in the re-incorporation of the Bank of Bengal, by Act No. VI. of 1839: and whereas the said Court of Directors have directed the body of Proprietors in existence at the date of the dispatch which contained the said sanction for the incorporation of a Bank of Bombay to be the Proprietors in whose favor the Act of incorporation is to be passed:

I. It is therefore hereby enacted, that from the 1st day of April next ensuing, in the year of our Lord 1840, the persons whose names are included in the Schedule hereunto annexed, provided that they, with the Government of Bombay on the part of the East India Company, have paid up the amount of Capital Stocks subscribed by them respectively, or such of them as have so paid up their subscriptions shall, together with the Governor in Council for the time being of the Island and Presidency of Bombay, be a corporation, body corporate and politic, by name of the Bank of Bombay, with perpetual succession to them and their successors as Proprietors for the time being of the said Bank as hereafter mentioned and provided, and shall possess and enjoy all the rights, privileges, and immunities incident by law to a corporation aggregate.

Provided however that it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, at any time before the 1st May next, to rectify any errors in the Schedule of the said Proprietors by notice in the Official Gazettes of Calcutta and Bombay, so that no alteration be made in the principles upon which such Schedule has been framed.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that the Capital Stock of the Bank of Bombay shall in amount not be less than Fifty Lacs of Rupees, nor, unless increased as hereinafter provided more than Fifty-six Lacs, whereof Three Lacs of Rupees shall be the property of the Governor in Council of Bombay and the persons whose names are in the Schedule hereunto annexed, shall, provided that the amount of Stock subscribed for by them to be paid up on or before the 1st April next, be proprietors of the shares of the said Capital Stock set against their names respectively, together with any further persons whose claims shall be admitted before the 1st May next, on their paying up the Stock to which they may be so admitted upon or before the said 1st May next. And if any of the Proprietors named in the said Schedule shall not have duly paid up in full the amount of Capital Stock to which he or they are entitled, the shares of such Stock that may be so unpaid (provided that the total amount that may so lapse do not reduce the Capital Stock of the Bank below the sum of Fifty Lacs of Rupees) shall be cancelled. And if the lapsed shares cause the aggregate of the Capital Stock to be less than Fifty Lacs of Rupees, then so much Stock as may be necessary to complete that sum, shall be sold by public Auction in Lots of One Thousand Rupees, on such date, not being later than the 1st of May next, as may be fixed by the Governor in Council of Bombay, and the amount realized at such sale, after making good the Capital Stock, shall be passed to credit as a profit at the disposal of the Bank.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be in the power of the Governor General of India in Council, from time to time, by an order duly published in the Government Gazettes of Calcutta and of Bombay, to authorize the said Capital Stock to be increased, and to make such order and direction for the opening of subscriptions towards such increase of Capital, as to him may seem fit, giving due notice thereof to the Proprietors of the said Bank for the time being, and allowing to them a period of not less than twelve months to fill up such subscription themselves, and likewise to prescribe in what manner and form the Proprietors shall subscribe and pay into the said Bank the proportion of new stock to which they may respectively be entitled; and also to make such order and direction as to him the said Governor General in Council may seem fit, for the disposal of the amount of new stock that may not be subscribed for, and paid up by the Proprietors in the manner and form that may be so prescribed.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the Capital Stock of the Bank of Bombay shall be divided into shares of One Thousand Rupees each, which shall be numbered accordingly, and three hundred of the said shares, numbered from No. 1 to 300, shall be the property of the Governor in Council of Bombay, and the remainder shall be the property of the Proprietors who may pay up the same, and no separate interest or share in the Stock of the said Bank of less amount than One Thousand Rupees shall be created or held by any Proprietor, and if at any time the Capital of the said Bank shall be increased, the new Stock added thereto shall in like manner be divided into shares of One Thousand Rupees each, and no Proprietor shall be entitled to claim a share of such new Stock of less amount than One Thousand Rupees.

V. And it is hereby enacted, than on the said 1st day of April, 1840, or on some early day after that date, the Governor in Council of Bombay shall notify, in the Official Gazette of that Presidency, that the Government share of the Capital Stock of the Bank of Bombay has been paid up, and shall publish in the said Gazette a list of the Proprietors by whom the shares of the said Capital Stock subscribed for by them respectively have been paid, and the Bank of Bombay, being incorporated as above provided, shall, from the date of such notification, be opened for the transaction of all manner of business authorized by this Act; and the said Bank shall and may sue, and be sued, by its Corporate name, and shall and may use such Common Seal as the Directors of the said Bank shall, from time to time, appoint, and shall be competent to acquire and hold, either absolutely or conditionally, for a term or in perpetuity, any description of property whatever, and to transfer and convey the same.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that payment of the amount of subscriptions to the Capital Stock shall be made to the Sub-Treasurer of the Government of Bombay for the time being, who will grant receipts for the same, and hold the amount as a deposit in the Treasury until the publication by the Governor in Council of Bombay of the notification prescribed in Section V. of this Act, when he will deliver the amount so subscribed to the Directors of the Bank to be appointed as hereinafter provided.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that after the said delivery of the amount of Capital Stock to the Directors of the Bank, the receipts granted by the Sub-Treasurer of the Government of Bombay, in the manner provided in Section VI. of this Act, shall be cancelled, and a certificate, signed by three Directors of the Bank of Bombay, shall be delivered to each Proprietor, and any person who is a Proprietor of more than one share of the Capital Stock may at his option demand a certificate for each of his shares, or one certificate for all his shares, or several certificates, each of which may be for any number of his shares.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that no Proprietor shall be allowed to increase his share in the Capital Stock of the said Bank beyond the amount of One Lac and Sixty Thousand Rupees, excepting on occasion of any increase being made to the Capital Stock of the said Bank under the authority of the Governor General in Council, in the manner prescribed in Section III. of this Act; in which case any Proprietor holding stock to the full amount of One Lac and Sixty Thousand Rupees shall notwithstanding be entitled to subscribe to the increased Capital Stock in a rateable proportion, and excepting any addition to his interest in the said Capital Stock arises from succession, bequest, or marriage.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, that the said share or shares of the Capital Stock of the said Bank shall be of the nature of personal estate of the Proprietors thereof respectively, and that the same shall be transferable by endorsement to be made on the certificates thereof respectively, under the hand of the Proprietor or Proprietors, or his, her, or their Attorney duly authorized, which endorsement shall specify the name of the person or persons to whom the said transfer shall be made; provided that no such endorsement shall be effectual to transfer any such share or shares until such endorsement shall have been registered at the Bank of Bombay, and such registration shall have been noted on such endorsement, under the hand of an Officer appointed for that purpose by the Directors of the said Bank.

X. And it is hereby enacted, that the said Corporate body of the Bank of Bombay shall consist and be composed of the Registered Proprietors for the time being of the said shares of the Capital Stock of the said Bank, and of no other person or persons whatsoever.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, that the business of the said Bank shall be managed by nine Directors, of whom three shall be appointed and removeable by the Governor in Council of Bombay and the remaining six shall be elected by the General Meeting of the Proprietors of the said Bank, and shall be removeable by vote of the majority of a General Meeting of the said Proprietors.

XII. And it is hereby enacted, that the first Directors of the said Bank of Bombay shall be such three persons as may be appointed by the Governor in Council of Bombay to be Directors of the Bank, together with six persons of those whose names are inserted in the Schedule annexed to this Act, and who, being entitled to not less than twelve shares or Twelve Thousand Rupees of the Capital Stock of the said Bank, shall be elected at a General Meeting of the persons whose names are inserted in the said Schedule, to be held in the Town Hall of Bombay, at such time as the Governor in Council of Bombay may fix by public notification in the Official Gazette of that Presidency; and the election shall be made by the persons who, according to the Schedule hereunto annexed, may be entitled to shares of the Capital Stock of the Bank, and the said persons shall vote at such election in person or by proxy according to the quantity of Stock respectively held by them, as if they were Proprietors to all intents and purposes of the shares for which they are entitled to subscribe, and the Directors so appointed shall appoint Officers, and take all necessary steps for opening the Bank when this Act shall take effect for its incorporation; and the rotation amongst the six Directors first appointed under the next preceding Section, shall be established according to the number of votes, the two Directors elected by the fewest votes first vacating, and the next two in the year following, and so in succession in the third year.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted, that two of the six Directors elected, as provided in Section XII. and to be elected by the Proprietors, shall in rotation go out of office on the second Monday in the month of December in every year, on which day in every year a General Meeting of Proprietors shall be held for the election of two Directors in their stead; provided always, that any Director going out by rotation as aforesaid may not be re-elected at the election which takes place thereupon.

XIV. And it is hereby enacted, that in case of the death, resignation, or absence from Bombay for more than three months, or disqualification under Section XV., or removal as aforesaid, of any Director elected as provided in Section XII., or to be elected by the Proprietors after the incorporation of the Bank of Bombay, the Directors shall call a General Meeting of the Proprietors, to be held within fifteen days of the day of notice, for the purpose of choosing a successor, and such successor shall come into the same place in rotation above mentioned in which the late Director was.

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that no person shall be capable of serving as a Director by election of the Proprietors who shall not be Proprietor in his own right and unincumbered of twelve shares of 12,000 Rupees of the Capital Stock of the Bank of Bombay; or who shall be a Director of any other Bank issuing Notes payable on demand within the Town or Island of Bombay.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, that at a General Meeting of the Proprietors every election and other matter in question shall be decided by a majority of votes, and that no person shall be allowed to vote at any such Meeting in respect of any share of the said Capital Stock acquired by transfer or purchase or otherwise than by the act of Law, unless such transfer shall have been completed six months at the least before the time of tendering such vote.

XVII. And it is hereby enacted, that at all such General Meetings the Proprietors shall vote according to the following scale:

The Proprietor of 4 shares of 1,000 Rs. shall be entitled to 1 vote.

10. This Act not to affect the legal exercise of right of attachment or seizure.

11. Act not to extend beyond Presidency of Fort William, nor to Straits' Settlements, nor to place within local limits of Supreme Court.

An Act for preventing Affrays concerning the possession of Land, and for providing relief in cases of forcible dispossessions, within the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

Whereas it is expedient to remove doubts which have arisen upon the interpretation of Regulation XV. of 1824, and to amend the Law for preventing Affrays concerning the possession of Land and for giving relief in cases of forcible dispossession, and to extend it to cases not hitherto provided for, and to make it applicable to persons of every class or description, whether British-born subjects or others.

I. It is hereby enacted, that Regulation XLIX. of 1793, Regulation XIV. of 1795, Regulation XXXII. of 1803, Section 5, Regulation VI. of 1813, Regulation XV. of 1824, and Regulation II. of 1829, of the Bengal Code, together with so much of any Regulations as extends any of the above Regulations or parts of Regulations to any places within the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, be repealed.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that whenever any Magistrate or other Officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate may be certified that a dispute likely to induce a breach of the peace existing concerning any Land, Premises, Water, Fisheries, Crops, or other produce of Land, within the limits of his jurisdiction, he shall record a proceeding, stating the grounds of his being so certified, and shall call on all parties concerned in such dispute (whether Proprietors, Dependent Talookdars, Farmers, Under Farmers, Ryots or other persons), to attend his Court in person, or by agent, within a reasonable time, and to give in a written statement of their respective claims, as respects the fact of actual possession of the subject of dispute. And the Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid shall, without reference to the merits of the claims of any party to a right of possession, proceed to inquire what party was in possession of the subject of dispute when the dispute arose, and after satisfying himself upon that point, shall record a proceeding declaring the party whom he may decide to have been in such possession to be entitled to retain possession until ousted by due course of Law, and forbidding all disturbance of possession until such time; and, if necessary, the Magistrate, or other Officer as aforesaid, shall put such party into possession, and maintain him in possession, until the rights of the parties disputing be determined by a competent Court.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that if the Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid, shall, in the cases mentioned in Section II. of this Act, be unable to satisfy himself as to what party was in possession of the subject of dispute when the dispute arose, he may attach the subject of dispute until the rights of the parties be determined by a competent Court, giving the Collector information of the attachment; and if the subject of dispute be Land, the provisions of Regulation V. of 1827, regarding attachment by order of a Zillah or City Court shall apply to attachments by order of a Magistrate, or other Officer as aforesaid, made under this Section.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that if any party shall complain to a Magistrate, or other Officer as aforesaid, that he has been without authority of Law forcibly dispossessed of any Land, Premises, Water, Fisheries, Crops, or other produce of Land within the jurisdiction of such Magistrate, or other Officer as aforesaid, whether the same were possessed by such party as Proprietor, dependent Talookdar, Farmer, Under Farmer, Ryot or, otherwise, the Magistrate, or other Officer as aforesaid, shall require the party or parties complained against, and any other parties concerned to appear and make defence in person or by agent within a reasonable time, and if after the examination of the necessary witnesses and documents, the complaint appears to him to be substantiated, he shall record a proceeding, ordering the party complaining to be put again into possession of the subject of dispute, and maintained in possession until the right to possession be determined by a competent Court, provided that no such order shall be passed unless the party complaining of having been so dispossessed prefer his claim, within one month from the time of such dispossession.
V. And it is hereby enacted, that if, in cases instituted under this Act, the subject of dispute be newly formed Land, whereof it shall appear to the Magistrate, or other Officer as aforesaid, that no party has ever had possession, the Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid, shall award possession to the party to whom the right of possession belongs according to law or custom, and shall maintain that party in possession until the right to possession be determined by a competent Court.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that if a dispute arises concerning the right of use of any Land or Water, the Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid within whose jurisdiction the subject of dispute lies, may inquire into the matter, and if it shall appear to him that the subject of dispute was open to the use of the public, or of any person, or of any class of persons, the said Magistrate or other Officer may order that possession thereof shall not be taken or retained by any party to the exclusion of the public, or of such person, or of such class of persons, as the case may be, until the party claiming such possession shall obtain the decision of a competent Court adjudging him to be entitled to such exclusive possession. Provided that the Magistrate, or other Officer as aforesaid, shall not pass any such order as aforesaid, if the matter be such that the right of use is capable of being exercised at all times of the year, unless that right shall have been ordinarily exercised within three months from the date of the institution of the inquiry, or in cases where the right of use exists at particular seasons unless such right has been exercised without discontinuance before the dispossession of which complaint is made.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that any person opposing by force the execution of an order for possession or use, given under this Act, or refusing obedience thereto, or knowingly contravening the same, as long as it shall remain in legal force, shall, together with all persons aiding and abetting, be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate or other Officer with the powers of a Magistrate, to be sentenced to simple imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, commutable if not paid, to a period of simple imprisonment not exceeding six months, or to both imprisonment and fine as aforesaid.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that all orders passed under this Act shall be appealable in the usual manner under the Regulations and Laws that are or may be in force relating to appeals from the orders of Magistrates or other Officers exercising the powers of Magistrates.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, that in cases instituted under this Act the Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid is authorised, with the consent of all the parties, to refer the matter in dispute, so far as it is cognizable under this Act, to an arbitrator or arbitrators for decision, whose award shall be executed as if it were the award of such Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid.

X. And it is hereby provided, that nothing in this Act contained shall affect the legal exercise of any right of attachment or seizure vested by law in any parties.

XI. And it is hereby further provided, that this Act shall not extend to any place beyond the limits of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, or to the Settlements of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, or Malacca, or to any place situated within the local limits of the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court at Calcutta.

By Acts XV., 1843, and XXVII., 1845, the powers given by this Act may be exercised by other Officers besides Magistrates.

Repealed by Act XVII., 1862, as to parts where the Code of Criminal Procedure is in operation.

I. It is hereby enacted that from and after the First day of May, in the year of our Lord 1840, if any person shall accept a Bill of Exchange, payable at any other place than at his own place of residence without further expression in his acceptance, such acceptance shall be deemed and taken to be, to all intents and purposes, a general acceptance. But if the acceptor shall, in his acceptance, express that he accepts the Bill payable at such other place only, and not otherwise or elsewhere, such acceptance shall be deemed and taken to be, to all intents and purposes, a qualified acceptance of such Bill, and the acceptor shall not be liable to pay such Bill, except in default of payment, when such payment shall have been duly demanded at such other place.

When Act shall take effect.

An Act for amending the law administered in Her Majesty's Courts of Justice with reference to Arbitrations, Damages, and interested Witnesses.

Whereas it is expedient to extend to the Territories of the East India Company certain provisions of the statute 3rd and 4th William IV., Chap. 42, whereby remedies have been applied for the uncertainty and imperfections heretofore incident to Arbitrations, for the insufficient damages to which injured parties were limited by the technical forms of certain actions, and for the obstruction to justice frequently occasioned by reason of the legal incompetency of witnesses to give evidence, in consequence of having some interest in the event of the suit to which their testimony relates:

I. It is hereby enacted, that, in order to render the rejection of witnesses on the ground of interest less frequent, if any witness shall be objected to in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Justice as incompetent on the ground that the verdict or judgment in the action on which it shall be proposed to examine him would be admissible in evidence for or against him, such witness shall nevertheless be examined, but in that case a verdict or judgment in that action in favor of the party on whose behalf he shall have been examined shall not be admissible in evidence for him or any one claiming under him, nor shall a verdict or judgment against the party on whose behalf he shall have been examined be admissible in evidence against him or any one claiming under him.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that the Court, on the trial of any issue, or on any inquiry of damages, in any suit before any of Her Majesty's Courts of Justice may, if it shall think fit, give damages in the nature of interest over and above the value of the Goods at the time of the conversion or seizure in all actions of trover or trespass de bonis asportatis, and over and above the money recoverable in all actions on policies of assurance made after the passing of this Act.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that the power and authority of any arbitrator or umpire appointed by or in pursuance of any rule of Court, or Judge's order, or order of reference, in any action now brought or which shall be hereafter brought, or by or in pursuance of any submission to reference containing an agreement that such submission shall be made a rule of any of Her Majesty's Courts, shall not be revocable by any party to such reference without the leave of the Court by which such rule or order shall be made, or which shall be mentioned in such submission, or by leave of a Judge, and the arbitrator or umpire shall, and may, and is hereby required to proceed with the reference, notwithstanding any such revocation, and to make such award, although the person making such revocation shall not afterwards attend the reference, and that the Court, or any Judge thereof may from time to time enlarge the term for any such arbitrator making his award.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that when any reference shall have been made by any such rule or order as aforesaid, or by any submission containing such agreement as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court by which such rule or order shall be made, or which shall be mentioned in such agreement, or for any Judge by rule or order to be made for that purpose, to command the attendance and examination of any person to be named, or the production of any documents to be mentioned in such rule or order, and the disobedience to any such rule or order shall be deemed a contempt of Court, if, in addition to the service of such rule or order, an appointment of the time and place of attendance in obedience thereto, signed by one at least of the Arbitrators, or by Umpire, before whom the attendance is required, shall also be served either together with or after the service of such Rule or Order: Provided always that every person whose attendance shall be so required, shall be entitled to the like conduct money and payment of expenses, and for loss of time as for and upon attendance at any trial: Provided also, that on the application made to such Court or Judge for such Rule or Order shall set forth the place where such witness is residing at the time, or satisfy such Court or Judge that such person cannot be found: Provided also, that no person shall be compelled to produce, under any such Rule or Order, any writing or other document that he would not be compelled to produce at a trial or to attend at more than two consecutive days to be named in such Order.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that when in any Rule or Order of reference, or in any submission to arbitration containing an agreement that the submission be made a rule of Court, it shall be ordered or agreed that the witness upon such reference shall be examined upon oath, it shall be lawful for the Arbitrators or Umpire, or any one Arbitrator, and he or they are hereby authorized and required to administer an oath to such witnesses, or to take their affirmation in cases where affirmation is allowed by law instead of oath, and if, upon such oath or affirmation, any person making the same shall wilfully and corruptly give any false evidence, every person so offending shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of perjury, and shall be prosecuted and punished accordingly.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that this Act shall take effect in Calcutta from the day of its passing, and at Madras and Bombay after the expiration of thirty days from such day, and in the Straits' Settlements after the expiration of sixty days from such day.

An Act for the better protection of the Property of Merchants and others who may hereafter enter into Contracts or Agreements in relation to Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, intrusted to Factors or Agents. (18th July 1823.)

"Whereas it has been found that the Law, as it now stands, relating to Goods shipped in the names of persons who are not the actual Proprietors thereof, and to the deposit or pledge of Goods, affords great facility to fraud, produces frequent litigation, and proves, in its effects, highly injurious to the interests of Commerce in general." Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act, any person or persons intrusted, for the purpose of sale, with any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, and by whom such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall be shipped, in his, her or their own name or names, or in whose name or names any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be shipped by other person or persons, shall be deemed and taken to be the true Owner or Owners thereof, so far as to entitle the Consignee or Consignees of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, to a lien thereon, in respect of any money or negotiable security or securities advanced or given by such Consignee or Consignees to or for the use of the person or persons in whose name or names such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, shall be shipped, or in respect of any money or negotiable security or securities received by him, her, or them, to the use of such Consignee or Consignees, in the like manner to all intents and purposes, as if such person or persons was or were the true Owner or Owners of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise; provided such Consignee or Consignees shall not have notice, by the Bill of Lading for the delivery of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise or otherwise, at or before the time of any advance of such money or negotiable security, or of such receipt of money or negotiable security in respect of which such lien is claimed, that such person or persons so shipping in his, her, or their own name or names, or in whose name or names any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise shall be shipped by any person or persons, is or are not the actual and bona fide Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise so shipped as aforesaid, any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding: Provided also, that the person or persons in whose name or names any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise are so shipped as aforesaid, shall be taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have been entrusted therewith, unless the contrary thereof shall appear or be shewn in evidence by any person disputing such fact.

II. And be it further enacted, that it shall be lawful to and for any person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, to accept and take any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, or the Bill or Bills of Lading for the delivery thereof, in deposit or pledge from any Consignee or Consignees thereof; but then and in that case such person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, shall acquire no further or other right, title, or interest, in or upon or to the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, or any Bill of Lading for the delivery thereof, than was possessed, or could or might have been enforced by the said Consignee or Consignees at the time of such deposit or pledge as a security as aforesaid: but such person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, shall and may acquire, possess, and enforce such right, title, or interest, as was possessed and might have been enforced, by such Consignee or Consignees at the time of such deposit or pledge as aforesaid, any rule of law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed, construed, or taken to deprive or prevent the true Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, from demanding and recovering the same from his, her, or their Factor or Factors, Agent or Agents, before the same shall have been so deposited or pledged, or from the Assignee or Assignees of such Factor or Factors, Agent or Agents, in the event of his, her, or their Bankruptcy; nor to prevent any such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, from demanding or recovering of and from any person or persons, or of or from the Assignees of any person or persons in case of his or her bankruptcy, or of or from any body or bodies, politic or corporate, such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize so consigned, deposited or pledged, upon repayment of the money or on restoration of the negotiable security or securities, or on payment of a sum of money equal to the amount of such security or securities, for which money or negotiable security or securities such person or persons, his, her, or their Assignee or Assignees, or such body or bodies, politic or corporate, may be entitled to any lien upon such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, nor to prevent the said Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, from recovering of and from such person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, any balance or sum of money remaining in his, her, or their hands, as the produce of the sale of such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, after deducting thereout the amount of the money or negotiable security or securities so advanced or given upon the security thereof as aforesaid. Provided always, that in case of the bankruptcy of such Factor or Agent, the Owner of the Goods so pledged and redeemed as aforesaid, shall be held to have discharged pro tanto the debt due by him to the Bankrupt's estate.

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, that the penalty by this Act annexed to the commission of any offence intended to be guarded against by this Act, shall not extend or be construed to extend to any partner or partners, or other person or persons of or belonging to any partnership, society, or firm, except only such partner or partners, person or persons, as shall be necessary or privy to the commission of such offence; any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, that nothing in this Act contained, nor any proceeding, conviction, or judgment to be had or taken thereupon, shall hinder, prevent, lessen, or im-peach any remedy at Law or in Equity, which any party or parties aggrieved by any offence against this Act might or would have had or have been entitled to against any such offender if this Act had not been made, nor any proceeding, conviction, or judg-ment had been had or taken thereupon; but nevertheless, the con-viction of any offender against this Act shall not be received in evidence in any action at law or suit in Equity against such offender: and further that no person shall be liable to be convicted by any evidence whatever as an offender against this Act, in respect of any act, matter or thing done by him, if he shall at any time previously to his being indicted for such offence have disclosed any such matter or thing on oath, under or in consequence of any compulsory process of any Court of Law or Equity, in any action, suit or proceeding, in or to which he shall have been a party, and which shall have been bona fide instituted by the party aggrieved by the act, matter, or thing, which shall have been committed by such offender aforesaid.

English Law, the Provisions of the Statute 9, Geo. IV., Cap XIV.

It is hereby enacted, that the Statute 9, Geo. IV., Ch. XIV., shall be extended to the Territories of the East India Company; provided always that this Act shall not be construed to affect any case which would not have been governed by the Law of England before the passing of the aforesaid Statute, if this Act had not passed, or to extend or alter the jurisdiction of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Justice.

The Statute hereby extended to the Territories of the East India Company is as follows (the sum of £10 mentioned therein to be deemed 100 Rupees in the application of the Statute to the aforesaid Territories):

9th Geo. IV., Cap. XIV.

An Act for rendering a written Memorandum necessary to the validity of certain Promises and Engagements.

9th May, 1828.

Whereas by an Act passed in England in the twenty-first year of the reign of King James the First, it was, among other things, enacted, that all actions of account and upon the case, other than such accounts as concerns the trade of Merchandize between Merchant and Merchants, their Factors or Servants, all actions of debt grounded upon any lending or contract without specialty, and all actions of debt for arrearages of rent, should be commenced within three years after the end of the then present Session of Parliament, or within six years next after the cause of such actions or suit, and not after. And whereas a similar Enactment is contained in an Act passed in Ireland in the tenth year of the reign of King Charles the First, and whereas various questions have arisen in actions founded on simple contract, as to the proof and effect of acknowledgments and promises offered in evidence for the purpose of taking cases out of the operation of the said Enactments; and it is expedient to prevent such questions, and to make provision for giving effect to the said Enactments and to the intention thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that in actions of debt or upon the case grounded upon any simple contract, no acknowledgment or promise by words only shall be deemed sufficient evidenc of a new or continuing contract, whereby to take any case out of the operation of the said Enactments, or either of them, or to deprive any party of the benefit thereof, unless such acknowledgment or promise shall be made or contained by or in some writing to be signed by the party chargeable thereby, and that where there shall be two or more joint Contractors, or Executors or Administrators of any Contractor, no such joint Contractor, Executor, or Administrator shall lose the benefit of the said Enactments, or either of them, so as to be chargeable in respect or by reason only of any written acknowledgment or promise made and signed by any other or others of them. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall alter, or take away, or lessen the effect of any payment of any principal or interest made by any person whatever. Provided also, that in actions to be commenced against two or more such joint Contractors, or Executors, or Administrators, if it shall appear at the trial or otherwise that the Plaintiff, though barred by either of the said recited Acts or this Act, as to one or more of such joint Contractors, or Executors or Administrators, shall nevertheless be entitled to recover against any other or others of the Defendants, by virtue of a new acknowledgment or promise, or otherwise, judgment may be given and costs allowed for the Plaintiff as to such Defendant or Defendants against whom he shall recover, and for the other Defendant or Defendants against the Plaintiff.

II. And be it further enacted, that if any Defendant or Defendants in any action on any simple contract, shall plead any matter in abatement, to the effect that any other person or persons ought to be jointly sued and issue be joined on such plea, and it shall appear at the trial that the action could not, by reason of the said recited Acts, or this Act, or of either of them, be maintained against the other person or persons named in such plea, or any of them, the issue joined on such plea shall be found against the party pleading the same.

III. And be it further enacted, that no Indorsement or Memorandum of any payment, written or made after the time appointed for this Act to take effect, upon any Promissory Note, Bill of Exchange, or other writing, by or on the behalf of the party to whom such payment shall be made, shall be deemed sufficient proof of such payment so as to take the case out of the operation of either of the said Statutes.

IV. And be it further enacted, that the said recited Acts and this Act shall be deemed and taken to apply to the case of any debt on simple contract alleged by way of set-off on the part of any Defendant, either by plea, notice, or otherwise.

V. And be it further enacted, that no action shall be maintained whereby to charge any person upon any promise made after full age to pay any debt contracted during infancy, or upon any ratification after full age of any promise or simple contract made during infancy, unless such promise or ratification shall be made by some writing signed by the party to be charged therewith.

VI. And be it further enacted, that no action shall be brought whereby to charge any person upon or by reason of any representation or assurance made or given, concerning or relating to the character, conduct, credit, ability, trade, or dealings of any other person, to the intent or purpose that such other person may obtain credit, money, or goods upon, unless such representation or assurance be made in writing, signed by the party to be charged therewith.

VII. And whereas by an Act passed in England in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of King Charles the Second, entitled An Act for the prevention of Frauds and Perjuries, it is, among other things enacted, that from and after the Twenty-fourth day of June One thousand six hundred and seventy-seven, no contract for the sale of any Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, for the price of ten pounds sterling or upwards, shall be allowed to be good except the buyer shall accept part of the goods so sold, and actually receive the same, or give something in earnest to bind the bargain, or in part of payment, or that some note or memorandum in writing of the said bargain be made and signed by the parties to be charged by such contract, or their agents thereunto lawfully authorized. And whereas a similar Enactment is contained in an Act passed in Ireland in the seventh year of the reign of King William the Third. And whereas it has been held that the said recited Enactments do not extend to certain executory contracts for the sale of goods, which nevertheless are within the mischief thereby intended to be remedied; and it is expedient to extend the said Enactments to such executory contracts: be it enacted, that the said Enactments shall extend to all contracts for the sale of goods of the value of ten pounds sterling and upwards, notwithstanding the goods may be intended to be delivered at some future time, or may not at the time of such contract be actually made, procured, or provided, or fit or ready for delivery, or some act may be requisite for the making or completing thereof, or rendering the same fit for delivery.

VIII. And be it further enacted, that no memorandum or other writing made necessary by this Act shall be deemed to be an agreement within the meaning of any Statute relating to the duties of Stamps. [See Stamp Act, Act X., 1862, Schedule A.]

Whereas great inconvenience has been experienced in consequence of the difficulty of procuring the attendance as witnesses before the Mofussil authorities, of persons resident within the local limits of her Majesty's Supreme Courts, and, in consequence of justice being often frustrated by reason of persons and property within such limits being exempted from process issued by such Authorities, which has also occasioned inconvenience to the inhabitants within such limits, in suits in the Mofussil Courts to which they are parties:

I. It is hereby enacted, that any Writ, Warrant, or other Process issued by any Court, Judge, or Magistrate in the Territories beyond the local limits of the Supreme Courts of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay respectively, may be executed within those limits in manner following:—A copy of such Writ, Warrant, or other Process, authenticated as such by the attestation of the Court, Judge, or Magistrate signing or issuing the same, accompanied by a certified translation in the English language, shall be presented to any Judge of Her Majesty's Courts, who may thereupon under his hand and signature indorse and direct the same to be executed within the local limits of any of Her Majesty’s Courts by the Sheriff or by any Justice of the Peace, according to the nature of such Writ, Warrant, or other Process.

VIII. And whereas it is expedient, that offenders sentenced by the Mofussil authorities to imprisonment with or without hard labour, should be subject to the most improved rules of prison discipline, which cannot, in all cases, be conveniently done except in the prisons locally situate within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, it is hereby enacted, that all Civil and Criminal Gaols and Houses of Correction within the jurisdiction of any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, shall, according to the nature of the case, be liable to be used by the Sheriff for the purposes of this Act, and the parties imprisoned therein under the authority of this Act, shall be liable to the prison discipline thereof, and all sentences of imprisonment passed by any Judge, Court, or Magistrate in the Territories of the East India Company, beyond the local limits of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, may be executed in whole or in part within any of the Gaols or Houses of Correction aforesaid, provided that a Copy of the Warrant of commitment or other Process authorizing the imprisonment, be so indorsed as aforesaid, and such indorsement contain the necessary directions.

An Act for facilitating the collection of the Revenue of Government, and defining the interest intended to be conveyed by public sales for the realization of arrears of the Public Revenue in Putteedarree Estates.

Preamble. I. The Regulations in force authorize the application of duress for enforcing the payment of arrears of the public revenue, only against the person and property of the contracting Lumberdar, leaving him to proceed against the Putteedar by suit or distress. But with reference to the peculiar nature of these coparcenaries the existing enactments appear to be insufficient, on the one hand, for the protection of the rights of the Putteedar, and on the other hand for the punctual realization of the dues of Government. The Regulations are also deficient in not authorizing with sufficient distinctness the sale or transfer of the Puttees of defaulting Putteedar in Putteedarree estates, and in not defining the interest intended to be conveyed by public sales of such estates.

II. A Putteedarree estate in this Act is held to be an estate which consists of two or more separate portions or Puttees, or of which there may be proprietors possessed of separate properties and holding direct of the Government, but not parties in their own names to the contract with the Government for payment of the public revenue. III. It is hereby enacted, that the following modes of duress may be enforced against all Putteedar whose tenure and interest may have been defined by a Settlement formed according to Regulation VII. of 1822, as modified by Regulation IX. of 1833, whether every such Putteedar be in sole occupation of his Puttee, or hold it in common with others—

5th. Sale of the defaulting Puttee by public auction, in which case the members of the remaining Puttees who may not be in arrear are authorized to bid.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that on occasion of the sale by public auction of any Puttee, if the lot shall have been knocked down to a stranger, any Puttedar or other member of the coparcenary, not being himself in arrear, may claim to take the said Puttee at the sum last bid, provided that the said demand of pre-emption be made on the day of sale, and before the Collector shall have left the office, and provided that the claimant fulfil all the other conditions of the sale.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that the above methods be employed by the Collector or other Officers vested with the powers of Collector, under such limitation and control as Government or other superior revenue authorities shall see fit to prescribe or enforce.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that the sale of any Puttee by public auction, shall be effected in respect to the notice to be issued, the authority to be obtained, and the mode of conducting the sale according to the rules prescribed by law from time to time for the sale of an entire Mehal; and the Puttee, after the sale shall have been duly confirmed, shall be the absolute property of the purchaser, save and except the right of those Ryots whose right to the permanent occupancy of their lands may have been recognized, and the rates of rent payable by whom may have been adjusted and recorded at the last settlement.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that in case of the lease or other temporary transfer of any Puttee as above said, no member of that Puttee shall be entitled to cultivate any land therein during the term of such transfer, or in case of absolute sale no member of the Puttee shall be entitled to hold or cultivate any land therein from and after the month of Bysack next succeeding such sale unless the said member of such sold or transferred Puttee shall first execute a written engagement to pay rent to the purchaser or transferree at the rate demanded by the purchaser or transferree. Provided that it shall be competent to the Collector, subject to the orders of the Commissioner and the Sudder Board of Revenue, if the rate cannot be fixed by private bargain between the parties, to cause the same to be fixed by a jury of the vicinage.
in the mode directed by Sections V. to X., Regulation IX. of 1833.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that a copy of the Jumma Wasil Bakee and detailed Khuteonee of the Tehsildar, signed and sealed by him, and countersigned by the Canoongoes and Putwarry, exhibiting in detail the amount paid by and arrear due from each Puttee, shall be taken to be sufficient evidence of the arrear due from that Puttee, and these papers shall invariably be filed with the Collector's proceedings.

IX. And be it enacted, that the Collector be empowered to give possession to all purchasers and transferees under this Act in the mode authorized by Clause III., Section XXIII. of Regulation VII. of 1822.

X. And it is hereby enacted, that nothing contained in this Act shall bar the indefeasible right of Government to hold the entire body of proprietors and the entire estate responsible for the amount of the whole Jumma, and to enforce the existing Regulations for the transfer or sale of the whole estate, whenever it shall appear to them just and expedient. In every such case it is hereby declared, in modification of Regulation XI. of 1822, that the entire proprietary rights of every member of the Coparcenary shall be annulled and forfeited, and the provision of Section VII. of this Act shall be applicable to every member of the Coparcenary.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Governor General in Council may extend the provisions of this Act to any district to which, with reference to the nature of the tenures prevalent therein its extension may be expedient, although no settlement of such district may have been made under Regulations VII., of 1822, and IX. of 1833, and the order of Government, shall be sufficient authority for such extension.

particulars with regard to the ownership and description of the ships or vessels contained in a certificate of registry, and shall specify the ports at which it is intended that they shall respectively be registered, and which certificate shall have all the effect of a certificate of registry under this Act, during the first voyage from the place of building to the ports at which the ships or vessels respectively shall be afterwards registered. Provided that such ships or vessels so proceeding on their first voyage as aforesaid shall be deemed British ships only whilst duly prosecuting such first voyage for the purpose of registry, and if they bé not registered within a reasonable time after their arrival at the port of registry, the owner or owners, or master or other per-vessel shall be liable on information in any Court of Her Majesty or the East India Company by the Advocates General of the respective Presidencies to a penalty not exceeding 5,000 Rupees.

under the Statute 3 and 4 W. 4., Ch. 55, and such other or differ-

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that at every port where registry shall be made in pursuance of this Act, a book shall be kept by the Registering Officer, in which all the particulars contained in the form of the certificate of the registry hereinbefore directed to be used shall be duly entered; and every registry shall be numbered in progression, beginning such progressive numeration at the commencement of each and every year. And such Registering Officer shall forthwith, or within one month at the furthest, send to the Government of the Presidency to which he is subordinate, a true and exact copy, together with the number of every certificate which shall be by him so granted.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that no registry shall henceforth be made, or certificate be granted, until the following declaration be made or subscribed before the Registering Officer, by the owner, or major part of the owners, of the ship or vessel required to be registered —

I, A. B., of (place of residence and occupation) do truly declare that the ship or vessel (name) of (port or place) whereof (master's name) is at present master, being (kind of build, burthen, et cetera, as described in the certificate of the Surveying Officer), was (when and where) built, and that I, the said (A. B.) and the other owners (names and occupations, if any, and where they respectively reside) am (or are) sole owner (or owners) of the said vessel, and that no other person or persons whatever hath or have any right, title, interest, share, or property therein or thereto; and that I, the said (A. B.) and the said other owners (if any) am (or are) truly and bond fide a subject (or subjects) of Her Majesty, for whom the Governor General of India in Council, has power to legislate, and that no person not being subject as aforesaid, directly or indirectly, hath any share or part interest in the said ship or vessel. Provided that if the Registering Officer shall see occasion to doubt the truth of any of the facts contained in the above declaration, he shall not deem such declaration to be conclusive, but may refuse the registry or certificate, and his discretion exercised in this behalf shall be subject only to an appeal to the Local Government to which he is subordinate.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that in case the required number of joint owners of any ship or vessel shall not personally attend to make and subscribe the declaration hereinbefore directed to be made and subscribed, then and in such case such owner or owners as shall personally attend and make and subscribe the declarations aforesaid, shall further declare that the part owner or part owners of such ship or vessel then absent, is or are not resident within twenty miles of such port or place, and hath or have not, to the best of his or their knowledge or belief, wilfully absented himself or themselves in order to avoid the making the declaration hereinbefore directed to be made and subscribed, or is or are prevented by illness from attending to make and subscribe to the said declaration.

VII. And in order to enable the Registering Officer to grant a certificate truly and accurately describing every ship or vessel to be registered in pursuance of this Act, and also to enable all other Officers of Customs, on due examination, to discover whether any such ship or vessel is the same with that for which a certificate is alleged to have been granted, it is hereby enacted, that previous to the registering or granting of any certificate of registry as aforesaid some one or more person or persons appointed by the Local Governments respectively, taking to his or their assistance, if he or they shall judge it necessary, one or more person or persons skilled in the building and admeasurement of ships, shall go on board of every such ship or vessel that is to be registered, and shall strictly and accurately examine and admeasure every such ship or vessel as to all and every particular contained in the form of the certificate hereinbefore directed in the presence of the master, or of any other person who shall be appointed for that purpose on the part of the owner or owners, or in his or their absence by the said master, and shall deliver a true and just account in writing of all such particulars of the build, description, and admeasurement of every such ship or vessel as are specified in the form of the certificate above recited to the Officer authorized to make such registry and grant such certificate of registry as aforesaid; and the said master or other person attending on the part of the owner or owners is hereby required to sign his name also to the certificate of such Surveying or Examining Officer, in testimony of the truth thereof, provided such master or other person shall consent and agree to the several particulars set forth and described therein.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that from and after the commencement of this Act the tonnage of every ship or vessel required by law to be registered, shall, previous to her being registered be measured and ascertained while her hold is clear, and according to the following rule, that is to say:—Divide the length of the upper deck between the afterpart of the stem and the forepart of the sternpost into six equal parts. Depths: at the foremost, the middle, and the aftermost of those points of division, measure in feet and decimal parts of a foot, the depths from the underside of the upper deck to the ceiling at the limber strake. In the case of a break in the upper deck, the depths are to be measured from a line stretched in a continuation of the deck. Breadths: divide each of those three depths into five equal parts and measure the inside breadths at the following points, videlicet, at one-fifth and at four-fifths from the upper deck of the foremost and aftermost depths, and at two-fifths and four-fifths from the upper deck of the midship depth. Length: at half the midship depth measure the length of the vessel from the afterpart of the stem to the forepart of the sternpost, then to twice the midship depth add the foremost and the aftermost depths for the sum of the depths: add together the upper and lower breadths at the foremost division, three times the upper breadth and the lower breadth at the midship division, and the upper and twice the lower breadth at the after division, for the sum of the breadths, then multiply the sum of the depths by the sum of the breadths, and this product by the length, and divide the final product by three thousand five hundred, which will give the number of tons for register. If the vessel have a poop or half deck, or a break in the upper deck, measure the inside mean length, breadth and height of such part thereof as may be included within the bulk head; multiply these three measurements together and dividing the product by 92·4, the quotient will be the number of tons to be added to the result as above found. In order to ascertain the tonnage of open vessels, the depths are to be measured from the upper edge of the upper strake.

IX. And it is hereby provided, that in each of the several rules hereinbefore prescribed, when applied for the purpose of ascertaining the tonnage of any ship or vessel propelled by steam, the tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room shall be deducted from the total tonnage of the vessel as determined by either of the rules aforesaid, and the remainder shall be deemed the true register tonnage of the said ship or vessel. The tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room shall be determined in the following manner, that is to say:—Measure the inside length of the engine room in feet and decimal parts of a foot from the foremost to the aftermost bulk-head, then multiply the said length by the depth of the ship or vessel at the midship division as aforesaid, and the product by the inside breadth at the same division at two-fifths of the depth from the deck taken as aforesaid, and divide the last product by 92·4, and the quotient shall be deemed the tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room.

X. Repealed by Act XI., 1850.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, that for the purpose of ascertaining the tonnage of all such ships whether belonging to the United Kingdom or otherwise, as there shall be occasion to measure while their cargoes are on board, the following rule shall be observed and is hereby established, that is to say:—Measure, first, the length on the upper deck between the afterpart of the stem and the forepart of the stern-post; secondly, the inside breadth on the underside of the upper deck at the middle point of the length; and, thirdly, the depth from the underside of the upper deck down the pump-well to the skin, multiply these three dimensions together, and divide the product by one hundred and thirty, and the quotient will be the amount of the register tonnage of such ships.

XII. And it is hereby enacted, that the true amount of the register tonnage of every merchant ship or vessel belonging to the United Kingdom, to be ascertained according to the rules by this Act established in respect of such ships, shall be deeply carved or cut in figures of at least three inches in length, on the main beam of every such ship or vessel, prior to her being registered.

XIII. And it is hereby provided, that Country craft employed in coasting voyages not exceeding the burden of 200 tons, may be registered and the tonnage marked according to rules to be prescribed from time to time by the respective Local Governments. [Repealed by Act XI., 1850.]

XIV. And it is hereby enacted, that whenever the tonnage of any ship or vessel shall have been ascertained according to the rules herein prescribed, such account of tonnage shall ever after be deemed the tonnage of such ship or vessel, and shall be repeated in every subsequent registry of such ship or vessel, unless it shall happen that any alteration has been made in the form and burthen of such ship or vessel, or it shall be discovered that the tonnage of such ship or vessel had been erroneously taken and computed.

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that if such certificate as aforesaid shall be sold, lent or otherwise disposed of to any person or persons whatever than those for whose use it is granted, or shall be made use of for the service of any other ship or vessel than the ship or vessel for which it is granted, such certificate shall thenceforth be utterly void, and the master or any owner of the ship or vessel who shall be proved to have sold, lent or disposed of such certificate, or made use of the same as aforesaid, or shall have concurred in or been privy to the committing any such offence, shall be liable, upon conviction by information as aforesaid, to a penalty not exceeding 10,000 rupees. And in case such ship or vessel shall be lost or taken by the enemy, burnt, or broken up, or otherwise prevented from returning to the port at which she is registered, or shall on any account have lost and forfeited the privileges of a British ship, or shall have been seized and legally condemned for illicit trading, or shall have been taken in execution for debt and sold by due process of law, or shall have been sold to the Crown or the East India Company, or shall, under any circumstances, have been registered de novo, the certificate, if preserved, shall be delivered up within one month after the arrival of the master in any port or place in the Territories of the East India Company to the Registering Officer at such port, in default whereof the master or any of the owners shall be liable, on conviction by information as aforesaid, to a penalty not exceeding 5,000 rupees. And if any person, not being such subject as aforesaid, shall purchase or otherwise become entitled to the whole or any part or share of or any interest in such ship or vessel, and the same shall be within the limits of any port of the Territories of the East India Company, then and in such case the certificate of registry shall within seven days after such purchase or transfer of property in such ship or vessel, be delivered up to the Registering Officer at such port, and if such ship or vessel shall be in any place not within the Territories of the East India Company when such purchase or transfer of property shall take place, then the certificate shall be delivered up within fourteen days after the arrival of such ship or vessel, or of the master thereof in any port of the Territories of the East India Company to the Registering Officer at such port, in default whereof the master or any of the owners shall be liable on conviction before any Justice of the Peace in a penalty not exceeding 5,000 rupees, recoverable in manner provided by Act No. II. of 1839.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, that when and so often as the master of any ship or vessel registered in manner hereinbefore directed shall be changed, the master or owner of such ship or vessel shall deliver to the person or persons hereinbefore authorized to make such registry and grant such certificate of registry at the port where such change shall take place, if it be a port within the Territories of the East India Company, the certificate of registry belonging to such ship or vessel, who shall thereupon indorse and subscribe a memorandum of such change, and shall and such owner or owners, or master or other person having or taking the charge or command of such ship or vessel shall be liable on information as aforesaid to a penalty not exceeding 10,000 rupees.

and persons who shall apply for a certificate of the registry of any ship or vessel shall, and they are hereby required to produce, scribe a declaration before the person or persons hereinbefore authorized to grant such certificate, that the ship or vessel for which such certificate is required is the same with that which is so described by the builder as aforesaid.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, that if the certificate of registry of any ship or vessel shall be lost or mislaid, so that the same cannot be found or obtained for the use of such ship or vessel when needful, and proof thereof shall be made to the satisfaction of the Registering Officer of the port at which the ship is registered, such Officer shall and may, where the certificate shall have been lost or mislaid, permit such ship or vessel to be

And it is hereby enacted, that on the day of sale fixed according to Section III. of this Act, sales shall proceed in regular order; the estate to be sold bearing the lowest number on the Towjee or registers in use in the Collector's Office of the District being put up first, and so on, in regular sequence; and it shall not be lawful for the Collector or other Officer as aforesaid to put up any estate out of its regular order by number.

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that the party who shall be declared the purchaser of an estate at any such public sale as aforesaid, shall be required to deposit immediately, or as soon after the conclusion of the sale as the Collector may think necessary, either in Cash. Bank of Bengal Notes or Post Bills, or Government Securities duly indorsed, 25 per cent. on the amount of his bid, and in default of such deposit, the estate shall forthwith, be put up again and sold.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, that the full amount of purchase money shall be made good by the purchaser before sunset of the thirtieth day from that on which the sale of the estate bought by him took place, reckoning that day as one of the thirty; or if the thirtieth day be a Sunday or other close holiday, then on the first office day after the thirtieth: and in default of payment within the prescribed period as aforesaid, then and afterwards as often as such default shall occur, the deposit shall be forfeited to Government, the estate shall be re-sold, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the estate, or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold, and in the event of the proceeds of the sale which may be eventually consummated being less than the price bid by the defaulting bidder aforesaid, the difference shall be leviable from him by any process authorized for realizing an arrear of Public Revenue, and it shall be so levied and credited to the defaulting proprietor of the estate sold, and if default of payment of purchase money shall have occurred more than once, the defaulting bidders shall be held jointly and severally responsible for such difference to the extent of the amount of their respective bids. Provided always, that every such re-sale shall be made after notification and in the forms prescribed by Section VIII. of this Act.
XVII. And it is hereby enacted, that whenever an estate shall have been sold as aforesaid, the Collector, or other Officer as aforesaid, shall affix a proclamation in the language of the District in his Cutcherry; and as soon thereafter as may be in the Cutcherries of the Moonsiffs and of the Darogahs of Police, within whose jurisdiction or jurisdictions any part of such estate may be situated; and also at the Cutcherry of the Malgoozar of such estate; or on some conspicuous place on such estate, forbidding the ryots and under-tenants of such estate to pay rent falling due subsequent to the date therein specified, and up to the date of the subsequent notice hereinafter prescribed by Section XXI. of this Act, on pain of not being entitled to credit in their accounts with the purchaser for any sums paid within the period aforesaid.

XVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Revenue to receive an appeal against any sale made under this Act if preferred to him on or before the fifteenth day from the date of sale, reckoning as in Section XVI., or if preferred to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner on or before the tenth day from the day of sale, and not otherwise: and the Commissioner shall be competent in every case of appeal so preferred to annul any sale of an estate made under this Act, which shall appear to him not to have been conducted according to the provisions of this Act, awarding at the same time to the purchaser a payment from the proprietor of any moderate compensation, for his loss, if the sale shall have been occasioned by neglect of the proprietor, such compensation not to exceed interest, at the current rate of Government Securities, on the amount of deposit or balance of purchase money during the period of its being retained in the Collector's Office, and the order of the Commissioner shall, in such cases, be final.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Commissioner of Revenue on the ground of hardship or injustice to suspend the passing of final orders in any case of appeal from a sale and to represent the case to the Sudder Board of Revenue, who, if they see cause, may recommend to the Local Government to annul the sale; and the Local Government in any such case, may annul the sale and cause the estate to be restored to the proprietor on such conditions as may appear equitable and proper.
XX. And it is hereby enacted, that all sales of which the purchase money has been paid up as prescribed in Section XVI. of this Act, and against which no appeal shall have been preferred, shall be final and conclusive at noon of the thirtieth day from the day of sale, reckoning the said day of sale, as the first of the said thirty days. And sales against which an appeal may have been preferred, and the appeal dismissed by the Commissioner shall be final and conclusive from the date of such dismissal, if more than thirty days from the day of sale, or if less, then at noon of the thirtieth day as above provided.

XXI. And it is hereby enacted, that, immediately upon a sale becoming final and conclusive, the Collector or other Officer as aforesaid, shall give to the purchaser a Certificate of title in the following form:—

I certify that A. B. has purchased at Public Auction under Act XII. of 1841, Mehal C., and that his purchase has taken effect on and since the ——— day of ——— (being the date of sale).

(Signed) D E. Collector.

And the said certificate shall be deemed in any Court of Justice sufficient evidence of the title to the estate sold being vested in the person or persons named from the date specified: and the Collector shall also notify such transfer by written proclamation in his own Cutcherry, and in those of the Moonsiff and Darogah of the jurisdictions within which any part of the estate sold shall be situated, and also at the Cutcherry of the Malgoazar of the estate or on some conspicuous place on the estate; and shall apply the purchase money first to the liquidation of all arrears due upon the day of sale, or upon the day of the original sale, if the sale finally consummated be a re-sale; and secondly, to the liquidation of all outstanding demands debited to the Mehal in the Public Accounts of the district, holding the residue, if any, in deposit on account of the late recorded proprietor or proprietors of the estate sold, to be paid to their receipt on demand in the manner following, to wit: in shares proportioned to their recorded interest in the estate sold, if such distinction of shares were recorded, or if not, then as an aggregate sum to the whole body of proprietors upon their joint receipt. Provided that, if prior to payment of any surplus that may remain of the purchase money after liquidation of all Government arrears and dues to the proprietor of the estate sold, or his representative, the same may be claimed by creditors in satisfaction of debts due by him to them, or by any one creditor such surplus shall not be payable to any such claimant, nor shall it be withheld from the proprietor by attachment, except under precept and in satisfaction of decrees of Court for such debts. And if the balance of purchase money have in any such case been paid away in liquidation of the propriator's just debts by order of any Court and a decree shall afterwards pass for annulling the sale, the proprietor shall not be restored to possession until the amount so paid away be returned by him with interest.

XXII. And it is hereby enacted, that any suit brought to oust the certified purchaser as aforesaid, on the ground that the purchase was made on behalf of another person, not the certified purchaser, though by agreement the name of the certified purchaser was used, shall be dismissed with costs.

XXIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the annulment of a sale by a Commissioner shall be publicly notified by the Collector or other Officer as aforesaid in the same manner as the becoming final and conclusive of sales is required to be notified by Section XXI. of this Act, and the amount of deposit and balance of purchase money shall be forthwith returned to the purchaser, with interest thereon, at the highest rate of the current public securities from the dates on which they were respectively paid in, to the date on which the refund is actually made.

XXIV. And it is hereby enacted, that the party certified as the proprietor of an estate by purchase at public sale for the recovery of arrears of Revenue shall be answerable for all instalments of the Revenue of Government which may fall due subsequently to the day of sale; provided, however, that in the case of re-sales the purchaser shall be answerable for all instalments of Revenue which fell due subsequently to the day of the first sale.

XXV. And it is hereby enacted, that no sale for arrears of Revenue or other demands realizable in the same manner, made after the taking effect of this Act, shall be set aside by a Court of Justice, except upon the ground of its having been made contrary to the provisions of this Act: And except the contravention thereto shall have been declared and specified in an appeal made to the Commissioners under Section XVIII. of this Act, and except the action in the Civil Court be instituted within one year from the date of the sale becoming final and conclusive, as provided in Section XX. of this Act: And no person shall be entitled to contest the legality of a sale after having received any portion of the purchase-money. Provided, however, and it is hereby enacted, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to debar any person considering himself wronged by any act or circumstance connected with a sale under this Act, from his remedy in a personal action for damages against the individual by whose act or omission he considers himself to have been wronged.

XXVI. And it is hereby enacted, that in the event of a sale being reversed by a final decree of a Court of Justice, the purchase-money shall be refunded to the purchaser by Government, together with interest at the highest rate of the current public securities.

XXVII. And it is hereby enacted, that the purchaser of an estate sold under this Act, for the recovery of arrears due on account of the same, in the permanently settled districts of Bengal, Behar, Orissa, and Benares, shall acquire the estate free from all encumbrances which may have been imposed upon it after the time of settlement, and shall be entitled, after notice given under Section X., Regulation V., 1812, to enhance at discretion (anything in the existing Regulations to the contrary notwithstanding) the rents of all under-tenures in the said estate, and to eject all tenants thereof, with the following exceptions:—

First. Tenures which were held as Istemraree or Mocurrencree at a fixed rent, more than 12 years before the Permanent Settlement.

Secondly. Tenures existing at the time of the Decennial Settlement, which have not been, or may not be, proved to be liable to increase of assessment, on the grounds stated in Section Ll., Regulation VIII., of 1793.

Thirdly. Lands held by Khood Kasht or Kudeemee Ryots having rights of occupancy at fixed rents, or at rents assessable according to fixed rules, under the Regulations in force.

Fourthly. Lands held under bona fide leases, at fair rents, temporary or perpetual, for the erection of dwelling houses, or manufactures, or for mines, gardens, tanks, canals, places of worship, burying grounds, clearing of jungle, or like beneficial purposes, such lands continuing to be used for the purposes specified in the leases.

Fifthly. Farms granted in good faith at fair rents and for specified areas by a former proprietor, for terms not exceeding twenty years, under written leases, registered within a month from their date. Provided that a written notice, specifying full particulars of the position, rent, and area of the lands, the terms of the lease and the names of the parties, shall at the same time be given by the latter to the Collector in every case, and the Collector shall be at liberty to object to the same in the event of his seeing reason to believe that the security of the Public Revenue will be materially affected thereby. The exception declared in this Clause shall not extend to leases objected to by the Collector, by a notification to be fixed up in his Office, with the sanction of the Commissioner, within three months of the date of the notice so made to him by the parties. Provided also, that a purchaser of an estate at a sale for arrears of Revenue shall be at liberty, by suit in Court, to set aside all such farms, although the same be under written and duly registered leases, and although such notice may have been given as aforesaid, if the same shall not have been granted in good faith at fair rents.

XXVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the purchaser of an estate sold under this Act for the recovery of arrears due on account of the same in Districts other than those mentioned in Section XXVII. shall acquire the estate free from all encumbrances which may have been imposed upon it after the time of Settlement, and shall be competent to avoid and annul all tenures which may have originated with the defaulter or his predecessors, being representatives or assignees of the original engager, as well as all agreements with ryots or the like, settled or credited by the first engager or his representatives, subsequently to the last Settlement, as well as all tenures which the first engager may, under the conditions of his Settlement, have been competent to set aside, alter, or renew, saving always and except bonâ fide leases of ground for the erection of dwelling houses or buildings, or for offices thereunto belonging, or for gardens, tanks, canals, water-courses, or the like purposes, which leases or engagements shall, so long as the land is duly appropriated to such purposes, and the stipulated rent paid, continue in force and effect. Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to entitle any purchaser of land at a public sale to demand a higher rate of rent from any persons whose tenure or agreement may be annulled as aforesaid than was demandable by the former Malgoozar, except in cases in which such persons may have held their lands under engagements, stipulating for a lower rate of rent than would have been justly demandable for the land, in consequence of abatements having been granted by the former Malgoozars from the old established rates by special favour, or for a consideration, or the like, or in cases in which it may be proved that according to the custom of the pergunnah, mouzah, or other local division, such persons are liable to be called upon for any new assessment, or other demand not interdicted by the Regulations of Government.

XXIX. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Local Government when it shall seem proper at any time before a sale for arrear shall have been actually made, to direct it to be made, subject to the leases, assignments, or other incumbrances, with which a proprietor in possession, his ancestors, or predecessors may have burthened his assessed estate, or to such of them as shall appear proper. In all such cases, notice of the condition imposed by the Local Government shall be given by the Collector at the time of calling up the lot for sale, and such further notification shall be made as the Local Government may direct: provided, however, that in case the sale so restricted shall not realize an amount equal to the arrear due at the time of sale, or there shall appear ground to apprehend, that, by reason of the restriction, the future realisation of the Revenue will be endangered, it shall be competent to the Local Government at any time before such restricted sale shall have become final and conclusive in the manner laid down in Section XX. of this Act, to direct the sale to be cancelled, and a new sale of the estate to be made without other restrictions than those contained in the exception specified in Clauses 1 to 5 of Sec. XXVII. of this Act. If after the sale has become final and conclusive, occasion should again arise to bring to sale for arrears an estate purchased with a restriction of the above description, it shall at all times be competent to the Local Government to direct that the Muhal shall be sold without any other restriction than those contained in the exception specified in Clauses 1 to 5 of Sec. XXVII. of this Act, or with the reservation before reserved. In the former event, should the purchase money realised by the unrestricted sale exceed in a large amount the sum obtained at the restricted sale, it shall further be competent to the Local Government to direct a portion, or the whole of the excess to be paid to persons whose interests having been reserved at the first shall become void at the second sale.

XXX. And it is hereby enacted, that excepting copartners of estates under Butwarrah who may have saved their shares from sale under Sections 33 and 34, Regulation XIX., 1814, any recorded or unrecorded proprietor or copartner who may purchase in his own name or in the name of another the estate of which he is proprietor or copartner, or who by re-purchase or otherwise, may recover possession of the said estate after it has been sold for arrears under this Act: and likewise any purchaser of an estate sold for other arrears or demands than those accruing upon itself, shall by such purchase acquire the estate subject to all its incumbrances existing at the time of sale and shall not acquire any rights in respect to ryots and under-tenants which were not possessed by the previous proprietor at the time of the sale of the said estate.

XXXI. And it is hereby enacted, that arrears of rent which at the date of sale may be due to the defaulter from his tenants, shall be recoverable by him after a sale by any process except distraint which might have been used by him for that purpose before the sale was made.

XXXII. And it is hereby enacted, that any Collector or Officer exercising the powers of Collector, in respect to sales, shall be competent to punish any contempt committed in his presence in open Cutcherry or office for the time being, by fine, to an extent not exceeding Company's Rupees 200, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment in the civil gaol
for a period not exceeding one month; and the Magistrate to whom such an offender may be sent by a Collector as aforesaid, shall carry his sentence into effect. Provided that an appeal from any order passed under this Section shall lie to the Revenue Commissioner, whose decision shall be final.

XXXIII. And it is hereby enacted, that a default to make good a bid by making the deposit required by Section XV. of this Act shall be held to be a contempt.

XXXIV. And it it hereby enacted, that the operation of this Act shall be confined to the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, Orissa, and Benares, now subject to the General Regulations, and to the Ceded and Conquered Provinces, similarly subject to the General Regulations under the Government of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, and nothing in this Act contained shall affect land in the Town of Calcutta or the Settlements of Singapore, Penang, or Malacca.

XXXV. And it is hereby enacted, that this Act shall have effect on and after the First day of January, 1842.

An Act for the protection of moveable and immovable property against wrongful possession in cases of successions.

Whereas much inconvenience has been experienced, where persons have died possessed of moveable and immovable property and the same has been taken upon pretended claims of right by gift or succession; the difficulty of ascertaining the precise nature of the moveable property in such cases, the opportunities for mis-appropriating such property and also the profits of real property, the delays of a regular suit when vexatiously protracted, and the inability of heirs when out of possession to prosecute their rights, affording strong temptations for the employment of force or fraud in order to obtain possession: And whereas, from the above causes, the circumstance of actual possession, when taken upon a succession, does not afford an indication of rightful title equal to that of a decision by a Judge after hearing all parties in a summary suit, though such summary suit may not be sufficient to prevent a party removed from possession thereby from instituting a regular suit: And whereas such summary suit, though it will take away many of the temptations which exist for assuming wrongful possession upon a succession will be too tardy a remedy for obviating them all, especially as regards moveable property. And whereas it may be expedient, prior to the determination of the summary suit, to appoint a Curator to take charge of property upon a succession, where there is reason to apprehend danger from misappropriation, waste or neglect, and where such appointment will, in the opinion of the authority making the same, be beneficial under all the circumstances of the case: And whereas it will be very inconvenient to interfere with successions to estates by the appointment of Curators, or by summary suits, unless satisfactory grounds for such proceedings shall appear, and unless such proceedings shall be required by or on the behalf of parties giving satisfactory proof that they are likely to be materially prejudiced if left to the ordinary remedy of a regular suit:

I. It is hereby enacted, that whenever a person dies leaving property, moveable or immovable, it shall be lawful for any person claiming a right by succession thereto, or to any portion thereof, to make application to the Judge of the Court of the District where any part of the property is found or situate for relief, either after actual possession has been taken by another person, or when forcible means of seizing possession are apprehended.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for any agent, relative, or near friend, or for the Court of Wards in cases within their cognizance, in the event of any minor, disqualified, or absent person being entitled by succession to such property as aforesaid, to make the like application for relief.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that the Judge to whom such application shall be made shall, in the first place enquire by the solemn declaration of the complainant, and by witnesses and documents at his discretion, whether there be strong reasons for believing that the party in possession or taking forcible means for seizing possession has no lawful title, and that the applicant, or the person on whose behalf he applies is really entitled and is likely to be materially prejudiced if left to the ordinary remedy of a regular suit, and that the application is made bona fide.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that in case the Judge shall be satisfied of the existence of such strong ground of belief but not otherwise, he shall cite the party complained of, and give notice of vacant or disturbed possession by publication, and after the expiration of a reasonable time shall determine summarily the right to possession (subject to a regular suit as hereinafter mentioned,) and shall deliver possession accordingly; provided always that the Judge shall have the power to appoint an officer who shall take an inventory of effects, and seal or otherwise secure the same, upon being applied to for the purpose, without delay, whether he shall have concluded the enquiry necessary for citing the party complained of or not.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that in case it shall further appear upon such application and examination as aforesaid that danger is to be apprehended of the misappropriation or waste of the property before the summary suit can be determined, and that the delay in obtaining security from the party in possession, or the insufficiency thereof is likely to expose the party out of possession to considerable risk, provided he be the lawful owner: it shall be lawful for the Judge to appoint one or more Curators with the powers hereinafter next mentioned, whose authority shall continue according to the terms of his or their respective appointments, and in no case beyond the determination of the summary suit and the confirmation or delivery of possession in consequence thereof. Provided always, that in the case of land, the Judge may delegate to the Collector or to his officer the powers of a Curator, and also that every appointment of a Curator in respect of any property be duly published.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Judge shall have power to authorize such Curator, either to take possession of the property generally, or until security be given by the party in possession, or until inventories of the property shall have been made, or for any other purpose necessary for securing the property from misappropriation or waste by the party in possession. Provided always that it shall be entirely discretionary with the Judge, whether he shall allow the party in possession to continue in such possession on giving security, or not, and any continuance in possession shall be subject to such orders as the Judge may issue touching inventories, or the securing of deeds or other effects.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Judge shall exact from the Curator security for the faithful discharge of his trust, and for rendering satisfactory accounts of the same as hereinafter mentioned, and may authorise him to receive out of the property such remuneration as shall appear reasonable, but in no case exceeding 5 per centum on the personal property, and on the annual profits of the real property. All surplus moneys realized by the Curator shall be paid into Court, and invested in public Securities for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto upon adjudication of the summary suit. Provided always, that although security shall be required from the Curator with all reasonable despatch, and where it is practicable, shall be taken generally to answer all cases for which the person may be afterwards appointed Curator, yet no delay in the taking of security shall prevent the Judge from immediately investing the Curator with the powers of his office.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted that, where the estate of the deceased person shall consist wholly or in part of land paying revenue to Government, in all matters regarding the propriety of citing the party in possession, of appointing a Curator, and of nominating individuals to that appointment, the Judge shall demand a report from the Collector, and the Collector is hereby required to furnish the same. In cases of urgency the Judge may proceed, in the first instance, without such report, and he shall not be obliged to act in conformity thereto, but, in case of his acting otherwise than according to such report, he shall immediately forward a statement of his reasons to the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, and the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, if they shall be dissatisfied with such reasons, shall direct the Judge to proceed conformably to the report of the Collector.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, that the Curator shall be subject to all orders of the Judge regarding the institution or the defence of suits, and that all suits may be instituted or defended in the name of the Curator on behalf of the estate. Provided that an express authority shall be requisite in the Sunnud of the Curator's appointment for the collection of debts or rents; but such express authority shall enable the Curator to give a full acquittance for any sums of money received by virtue thereof.

X. And it is hereby enacted that, pending the custody of the property by the Curator, it shall be lawful for the Judge to make such allowances to parties having a primâ facie right thereto as upon a summary investigation of the rights and circumstances of the parties interested, he shall consider that necessity may require, taking, at his discretion, security for the repayment thereof with interest, in case the party shall, upon the adjudication of the summary suit, appear not to be entitled thereto.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Curator shall file monthly accounts in abstract, and at the period of every three months, if his administration last so long, and upon giving up the possession of the property, file a detailed account of his administration to the satisfaction of the Judge.

XII. And it is hereby enacted, that the accounts of any such Curator as is above described shall be open to the inspection of all parties interested; and it shall be competent for any such interested party to appoint a separate person to keep a duplicate account of all receipts and payments by such Curator. And if it be found that the accounts of any such Curator are in arrear, or if they shall be erroneous or incomplete, or if the Curator shall not produce them whenever he shall be ordered to do so by the Judge, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 1,000 Rupees for every such default.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted, that after the Judge of any district shall have appointed any Curator, such appointment shall preclude the Judge of any other district within the same Presidency from appointing any other Curator provided the first appointment be in respect of the whole of the property of the deceased. But if the appointment be only in respect of a portion of the property of the deceased, this shall not preclude the appointment within the same Presidency of another Curator, in respect of the residue or any portion thereof; provided always, that no Judge shall appoint a Curator or entertain a summary suit in respect of property which is the subject of a summary suit previously instituted under this Act before another Judge; and provided further, that if two or more Curators be appointed by different Judges for several parts of an estate, it shall be lawful for the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut to make such order as it shall think fit for the appointment of one Curator of the whole property.

XIV. And it is hereby provided, that this Act shall not be put in force, unless the aforesaid application to the Judge be made within six months of the decease of the proprietor, whose property is claimed by right in succession.

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that this Act shall not be put in force to contravene any public act of Settlement. Neither in cases in which the deceased proprietor shall have given legal directions for the possession of his property after his decease, in the event of minority or otherwise, in opposition to such directions, but, in every such case, as soon as the Judge having jurisdiction over the property of a deceased person, shall be satisfied of the existence of such directions, he shall give effect thereto.

XVI. And it is hereby provided, that this Act shall not be put in force for the purpose of disturbing the possession of the Court of Wards of any Presidency; and in case a minor, or other disqualified person, whose property shall be subject to the Court of Wards, shall be the party on whose behalf application is made under this Act, the Judge, if he determines to cite the party in possession, and also appoint a Curator, shall invest the Court of Wards with the Curatorship of the estate pending the suit, without taking such security as aforesaid; and in case the minor or other disqualified person shall, upon the adjudication of the summary suit appear to be entitled to the property, possession shall be delivered to the Court of Wards.

XVII. And it is hereby provided, that nothing in this Act contained shall be any impediment to the bringing of a regular suit either by the party whose application may have been rejected, before or after citing the party in possession, or by the party who may have been evicted from the possession under this Act.

XVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the decision of the Judge upon the summary suit under this Act shall have no other effect than that of settling the actual possession: but that for this purpose it shall be final, not subject to any appeal or order for review.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governments of the respective Presidencies to appoint public Curators for any district or number of districts. And the Judge having jurisdiction shall nominate such public Curator or Curators in all cases where the choice of a Curator is left discretionary with him under preceding provisions of this Act.

14. All Probates, &c., granted by H. M.'s Courts, in cases in which assets were within the local jurisdiction of such Courts, shall have the effect of Probate, &c., granted in respect of British subjects, for the purpose of recovering debts, &c., except as in this Act provided.

15. This Act not to extend to persons usually designated as British subjects.

An Act for facilitating the Collection of Debts on Successions, and for the security of parties paying debts to the Representatives of deceased persons.

Whereas it is expedient to provide greater security for persons paying to the Representatives of deceased Hindoos, Mahomedans, and others not usually designated as British subjects, debts which are payable in respect of the estates of such deceased persons, and to facilitate the collection of such debts by removing all doubts as to the legal title to demand and receive the same:

I. It is hereby enacted, that no debtor of any deceased person shall be compelled in any Court of Law to pay his debt to any person claiming to be entitled to the effects of any deceased person, or any part thereof, except on the production of a certificate to be obtained in manner hereinafter mentioned, or of a Probate or Letters of Administration, unless the Court shall be of opinion that payment of the debt is withheld from fraudulent or vexatious motives, and not from any reasonable doubt as to the party entitled.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that the Zillah or District Court within the jurisdiction of which any part of the property of the deceased may be found, shall have authority to grant a certificate under this Act. The applicant in his petition shall set forth his title. The Judge shall issue notice of application, investing claimants, and fixing a day for hearing the petition, and upon the appointed day, or as soon after as may be convenient, shall determine the right to the certificate, and grant the same accordingly.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that the certificate of the District or Zillah Judge shall be conclusive of the representative title against all debtors to the deceased, and shall afford full indemnity to all debtors paying their debts to the person in whose favour the certificate has been granted.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the District or Zillah Judge may take such security as he shall think necessary from any person to whom he shall grant a certificate for rendering an account of debts received by him, and for indemnity of persons who may be entitled to the whole or any part of the moneys received by virtue of such certificate, whose right to recover the same by regular suit against the holder of the certificate is not affected by this Act.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that the granting of such certificate may be suspended by an appeal to the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, which Court may declare the party to whom the certificate should be granted, or may direct such further proceedings for the investigation of the title as it shall think fit. The Court may also, upon petition, after a certificate shall have been granted by the District or Zillah Judge, grant a fresh certificate in supersession of the certificate granted by the District or Zillah Judge, and such fresh certificate shall not affect any payments made to the person to whom any former certificate may have been granted without notice that the same has been superseded, but shall entitle the person named therein to receive all moneys that may have been recovered under the first certificate from the person to whom the same may have been granted.
VI. And it is hereby enacted, that every certificate shall give authority to the person to whom the same is granted throughout the Presidency within which the same is granted, and no certificate subsequently granted in respect of the same property shall be valid or effectual, except as hereinafter mentioned.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that a person certified as aforesaid, may be empowered to receive interest on Government Notes, and Dividends, or on Shares of any Bank or parts thereof, and to negotiate such Securities. He may be also empowered to receive a share of such interest of dividends or to negotiate a share of such Securities. But these powers shall only arise by express words in the certificate.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that where a certificate shall have been granted in cases in which such certificate would be valid but for the previous grant of a certificate, all payments made to the person holding the later certificate in ignorance of the grant of the previous certificate shall be held good against claims under such previous certificate.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, with regard to the property of deceased Hindoos, Mahomedans, and other persons not usually designated by the term British Subjects, that no certificate in respect of any such property shall be valid, if made after a Probate or Letters of Administration granted in respect of the same, provided assets belonging to the deceased were at the time of his death within the local jurisdiction of the Court granting the Probate or Letters of Administration.

X. And it is hereby provided, that where a certificate shall have been granted, in cases in which such certificate would be valid, but for a Probate or Letters of Administration previously granted, all payments made to the person holding the certificate in ignorance of the previous granting of the Probate or Letters of Administration shall be held good against claims under the Probate or Letters of Administration so previously granted.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, that no Probate or Letters of Administration shall be valid for the purpose of the recovery of debts or for the security of debtors, after a certificate granted in respect of the same property for which such Probate or Letters of Administration shall have been granted, provided assets belonging to the deceased where at the time of his death within the jurisdiction of the Court granting such certificates.
XII. And it is hereby provided, that where Probate or Letters of Administration may have been granted, in cases in which such Probate or Letters of Administration would be valid, but for the previous grant of a certificate, all payments made in ignorance of the previous grant of the certificate shall be held good against claims under such previous certificate.

XIII. And whereas, under Act No. XIX. of 1841, Curators may be invested with certain powers which are conferred on persons obtaining certificates under this Act, and which belong to Executors and Administrators, it is hereby enacted that Curators appointed under the said Act shall not exercise any powers which, but for that Act, would lawfully belong to such persons obtaining certificates, Executors or Administrators, where a Certificate, Probate or Letters of Administration has been actually obtained; but all persons who may have paid debts or rents to a Curator authorized by a Judge to receive the same shall be indemnified, and the Curator shall be responsible for the payment of the same to the person who has obtained a certificate, the Executor, or Administrators, as the case may be.

XIV. And it is hereby declared and enacted, that all Probates and Letters of Administration granted by any of Her Majesty's Courts in cases in which any assets belonging to deceased persons were, at the time of their deaths, within the local jurisdiction of the Court granting the Probate or Letters of Administration, shall have the effect of Probate and Letters of Administration, granted in respect of the property of British Subjects but for the purpose of the recovery of debts only, and the security of debtors paying the same; except so far as is in this Act provided.

XV. And it is hereby provided, that nothing in this Act contained shall be held to extend to the property of any person usually designated as a British Subject.

Amended by Act X. of 1851, which is explained and amended by Act VIII. of 1854; further amended by Act XXVI., 1855; ss. 1 and 4, as to administration of sums not exceeding 500 Rupees in Government Savings Bank.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that, in exercising the authority conferred by the above Section, the Magistrate shall, after holding such enquiry as may satisfy him of the necessity of proceeding under this Act, issue an injunction, which, if practicable, shall be served personally on the parties concerned; but if such service shall be impracticable or very inconvenient, the injunction shall for rendering a release as effectual for the conveyance of Freehold estates as a Lease and Release by the same parties,” shall be extended to the Territories of the East India Company from the 1st day of October next; provided always that this Act shall not be construed to effect any case which would not have been governed by the law of England before the passing of the aforesaid statute, if this Act had not passed, and provided, that every deed or instrument of release taking effect under this Act shall be expressed to be made in pursuance thereof; and it shall not be necessary that it be expressed to be made in pursuance of the Statute aforesaid.

An Act for rendering a Release as effectual for the conveyance of Freehold Estates as Lease and Release by the same parties.

“Whereas it is expedient to lessen the expense of conveying Freehold Estates”: Be it enacted by the Queen’s most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that every Deed or Instrument of Release of a Freehold Estate, or Deed or Instrument purporting, or intending to be a Deed or Instrument of Release of a Freehold Estate, which shall be executed on or after the 15th day of May, 1841 (and shall be expressed to be made in pursuance of this Act), shall be as effectual for the purposes therein expressed, and shall take effect as a conveyance to uses or otherwise, and shall operate in all respects both at Law and Equity as if the releasing party or parties who shall have executed the same had also executed in due form a Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year for giving effect to such Release, although no such Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year shall be executed; provided that every such Deed or Instrument so taking effect under this Act shall be chargeable with the same amount of Stamp Duty as any Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year would have been chargeable with (except progressive duty) if executed to give effect to such Deed or Instrument, in addition to the Stamp Duties which such Deed or Instrument shall be chargeable with as a Release or otherwise under any Act or Acts relating to Stamp Duties.
II. "And whereas many Deeds or Instruments of Bargain and Sale or Leases for a year, to give effect to Deeds or Instruments of Release of Freehold Estates heretofore executed, have been lost or mislaid": Be it enacted, that where, in or by any Deed or Instrument of Release of Freehold Estates executed before the 15th day of May, 1841, any Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale, or Lease for a year for giving effect to such Deed or Instrument of Release shall be recited, or by any mention thereof in such Deed or Instrument of Release appear to have been made or executed, such recital or mention thereof shall be deemed and taken to be conclusive evidence of the Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year so recited or mentioned having been made and executed; and such Deed or Instrument of Release shall also have the like effect as if the same had been executed after the 15th day of May, 1841, whether such Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year shall or shall not have been lost or mislaid, or may or may not be produced; provided always, that this Act shall not prejudice or affect any proceeding at Law or in Equity pending at the time of the passing of this Act, in which the validity of any Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year shall be in question between the party claiming under such Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year and the party claiming adversely thereto, and such Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year, if the result of such proceedings shall invalidate the same, shall not be rendered valid by the Act.

III. And be it enacted, that in the construction of this Act the word "Freehold" shall have not only its usual signification, but shall extend to all Lands and Hereditaments for the conveyance of which, if this Act had not been passed, a Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year, as well as a Release, would have been used.

3, 4 and 5. The holder of Commission may demand security for payment of the Revenue, and may take some precautions as the Collector under Section 11, Regulation 17, 1827, and (4) may send Mohussuls on Land, &c., and (5) may attach the property of defaulters, &c.

6. All compulsory process shall cease on defaulter's giving security to institute a suit to try the demand, &c. Holders of Commission proceeding with compulsory process, after security has been given, shall forfeit treble the Revenue sought to be recovered.

7. The enforcement of any demand against Jageerdar for Revenue exceeding the amount due in specified manner, shall be deemed extortion, &c. This Act not to prevent the holder of alienated Lands, &c., from instituting a suit for the re-assessment of the Revenue.

8. Powers given by this Act to extend to the enforcement of payment of the Revenue of the current season and next preceding season only.

An Act to enable the holders of Revenue, which has been alienated to them by the State, to collect that Revenue within the Presidency of Bombay.

Whereas it is expedient to authorize the grant by the Governor in Council of Bombay, at his discretion, of Commissions to certain Jageerdars, and others, by virtue of which such persons shall possess increased powers for collecting the Revenue due to them:

I. It is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council of Bombay, to grant to any Jageerdar, Serinjamdar, Inamdar, or other person holding Lands or Villages, the Revenue of which has been alienated to him by the State, a Commission conferring upon him authority for the collection of such Revenue by the powers hereinafter mentioned, or such of them as shall be specified in the Commission, in addition to the powers now exercisable by law.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that such Commission, which shall be drawn out according to the form of the annexed Schedule A., shall be granted or withheld, and, when granted, shall be liable to be withdrawn at the pleasure of Government, and that it may, if the Governor in Council of Bombay see fit, be issued to one or more Agents of such holder of alienated Revenue, as well as to the holder in person.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of such Commission shall have authority to demand security for the payment of the Revenue, in respect of the Lands or Villages specified in the Commission, and if the same be not furnished, to take such precaution as the Collector is authorized to take under Section XI., Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of such Commission shall have authority to send Mohussuls on Defaulters under provisions of Clauses 2, 3, and 5, Section XII., Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code, provided that one foot Mohussul only be employed in each case, and that the Mohussullee shall cease on the enforcement of any other remedy for the collection of the Revenue, except the taking of such security as aforesaid.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of any such Commission shall be authorized to attach the property of persons making default in the payment of such Revenue as aforesaid, making an immediate report to the Collector or his Assistant of his having done so, and should the demand on account of which the attachment may be made, appear to the Collector or his Assistant to be just, he shall give orders for the sale of such property, and the sale shall be conducted agreeably to the Provisions of Clause 7, Section XII., Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code, except in cases in which the holder of the commission by whom the attachment has been made shall be a Jageerdar, Surinjamdar, or Inamdar, vested by Regulation XIII. of 1830, with Civil jurisdiction, and with power to execute his own decrees, or his Agents, when the sale, shall be conducted by him, and not by the Collector and his subordinate Revenue Officers.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that all compulsory process under this Act shall cease, on the alleged defaulter furnishing security to the holder of the Commission or to the Collector or Assistant Collector of the District, to institute a suit within 15 days, in a competent Court, for the purpose of trying the demand, and to pay the amount which may be decreed against him, with costs and interest in such Court, provided that such suits in which any one of the privileged classes established by Regulation XXIX. of 1827, Sections 3 and 4, and by Regulation VII. of 1830, Bombay Code, may be the defendant, shall be tried before the Collector and his Assistants, anything in Regulations I. and XVI. of 1831 notwithstanding. And any holder of any such Commission as aforesaid, by himself or his Agents proceeding with any compulsory process under this Act, after the furnishing of such security as aforesaid, or after the due tender thereof, shall forfeit three times the amount of the Revenue sought to be recovered by such compulsory process.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that if the Revenue or rent-payable to a Jageerdar to other holder of Government alienated Lands or villages shall have been fixed by a Government Officer before the grant of the Land in free tenure, or if the rent or Revenue tendered by any Ryot or other person be at the usual rate payable according to the custom of the Village and Pergunnah, as declared by the Koolkurnee, and other Local Officers of Revenue, the enforcement of demand by any holder of a Commission under this Act, of an excess of rent or Revenue beyond the amount due as above provided, shall be deemed to be extortion, and the person against whom such demand shall have been enforced shall obtain, upon any judgment being passed after regular summary trial, three times the amount of any such excessive demand as damages for the same. Provided, however, that nothing herein prescribed or contained shall prevent a holder of alienated Lands or Villages from instituting a suit, in any Court of competent jurisdiction, for the purpose of establishing his claim to re-assess the Lands or re-settle the Revenue of any Ryot, or other who may be paying less than the full jumma to which he is justly liable, and upon such holder obtaining a decree adjudging to him such power, the demand made by him under such decree, shall, if conformable thereto, be deemed a legal demand for arrears, and shall be leviable by the same process as is above provided for other arrears due.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the power conferred by such Commission shall extend to the enforcement of the payment of the Revenue of the current season and of the season next immediately preceding, and not to that of former years.

I. Whereas it hath been ordered by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, as follows:

At the Court at Windsor,
The 15th of January, 1842.

Present,
The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.
His Royal Highness Prince Albert.

Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Lord Steward.
Lord Chamberlain.
Earl of Jersey.
Earl of Ripon.

Lord Stanley.
Lord Fitzgerald and Vesci.
Sir Robert Peel, Bt.
Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.
Sir James Graham, Bt.
Sir Edward Katchbull, Bt.
Whereas it is probable that the laws now in force in British India for preventing the emigration of the inhabitants thereof to Her Majesty's Colonial Possessions will be shortly repealed, so far as regards emigration to the Island of Mauritius, and that such last mentioned emigration will be sanctioned by Laws to be for that purpose enacted in India, subject to various provisions to be in such Laws made for the protection of such Emigrants, and for the prevention of abuses: And whereas it is probable that amongst the provisions so to be made, as last aforesaid, will be a provision for enabling the Governor General of India to appoint at Ports or places in India, Officers charged with the care, protection, and superintendence of all persons proposing to emigrate as Labourers from India to Mauritius. And whereas it is probable that provision will be made by Law at Mauritius for defraying from the Public Revenue of that Island the expense of introducing emigration thither from British India: And whereas it is necessary that effectual provision should be made by Law at Mauritius for regulating any such expenditure, and for the prevention of abuses in the introduction of Emigrants from British India into that Island: It is therefore hereby ordered, by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, that in the event of any Law being made in British India, authorizing the emigration to Mauritius of the Natives of India, and repealing the restrictions now in force there in regard to such emigrations, and in the event of any such Laws containing provisions enabling the Governor General of India to appoint at the several ports of embarkation in India, Officers charged with the protection of persons emigrating from such ports to Mauritius, the various Rules and Regulations comprised, and set forth in the Schedule to this present order subjoined, shall, within the Island of Mauritius, have the force and effect of Law, and shall be observed and carried into effect by all Her Majesty's Officers, Civil and Military, in Mauritius, and by all Her Majesty's subjects within the same Island as to them may respectively appertain.

(Signed) C. GREVILLE.

General of India in Council, and according to any such Law or Ordinance shall and may be further determined whether at different periods of the year different estimations are to be made of the probable length of any such Voyage, and if by any such Law or Ordinance the removal of Emigrants should during any particular period of the year be prohibited altogether, then any such removal during such prohibited period shall in Mauritius be regarded, dealt with and punished as an infringement of these present Regulations.

transmitted to one of the Secretaries to the Governor in Council of Madras, and that the Governor in Council of Madras shall at all times be entitled to require of the said Directors any information touching the affairs of the said Bank, and the production of any documents of the said Bank, and that the said Directors shall comply with every such requisition.

XXXVII. And it is hereby enacted, that an account of the profits of the said Bank shall be taken half-yearly on the 1st day of January and the 1st day of July in every year, and that a Dividend thereof shall be made so soon thereafter as conveniently may be, and that the amount of such Dividend shall be determined by the Directors of the said Bank on the ground of the actual profits made by the said Bank during the Six Calendar months preceding the day up to which such half-yearly account shall be taken; provided that such reasonable expenses as have been incurred in procuring this Act of Incorporation, shall, upon being audited and admitted by the said Directors, be paid out of the Funds of the Bank as soon as it is opened for business, and that the amount so paid shall be defrayed out of the future profits of the Bank at the discretion of the Directors, and provided that the said Directors, subject to the control and sanction of the Proprietors at the General Meetings, shall have power, when they see fit, to set apart from such profits a sum not exceeding five per cent. on the capital stock of the Bank, as a reserve against contingencies.

XXXVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that on the first Monday of the month of March in every year, a General Meeting of the Proprietors of the Capital Stock of the said Bank shall be held, at which the Directors of the said Bank shall submit to the said Proprietors a Statement of the affairs of the said Bank, made up to the preceding 31st of December, and such General Meeting shall be competent to pass resolutions, and frame rules and directions relative to the affairs and conduct of the said Bank, which shall be binding on the Directors and Officers of the Bank and on the Proprietors thereof until rescinded or modified respectively by any subsequent General Meeting.

XXXIX. And it is hereby enacted, that any three of the said Directors of the said Bank, or any ten Proprietors of the Capital Stock of the said Bank may at any time convene a General Meeting of the Proprietors, upon giving fifteen days' previous notice of such Meeting, and of the purpose or purposes for which the same shall be convened, as well to the Directors of the said Bank for the time being, as also by public Advertisement in the Official Gazette of Madras. And any General Meeting so convened shall have the same powers and authorities as prescribed in the preceding Section of this Act for the Annual General Meeting to be held in the month of March.

XL. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Bank of Madras, with the sanction of the Governor in Council of Madras, and with the approbation of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, to establish Branch Banks at such places, and under such rules and restrictions as shall be determined by the Proprietors at their General Meetings. Provided, however, that such Branch Banks when so established, besides being subject to the rules and restrictions that may be imposed by the Proprietors, and to the control and orders of the Directors of the Bank of Madras, shall be bound by the same rules as to the description of business in which they are to engage, and the manner of conducting such business, and likewise in respect to the issue of Notes payable on demand, and the retention of cash to meet the same, and in all transactions and matters hereinabove referred to, as are prescribed for the Bank of Madras by this Act.

XLI. And it is further enacted, that if any of the Proprietors shall become indebted to the said Bank, it shall be lawful for the said Bank to withhold payment of the Dividends on the share or shares of such Proprietor registered as his or her own property, and not as held in trust, or as Executor or Administrator, until payment of such debt, and to apply such Dividends towards payment thereof, and that after demand and default of payment and notice in that behalf given, either to such Proprietor, or his or her Constituted Agent, or by public Advertisement in the Official Gazette, it shall be lawful for the said Bank to refuse registration of the transfer of any such share or shares of such Proprietor until payment of such debt, and if the same shall remain unpaid for the space of six months after such notice, to advertise for public sale and to sell such share or shares, or so many as may be necessary, and to apply the proceeds thereof towards payment of such debt, with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, paying over the surplus, if any, to such Proprietor, or his, or her lawful representative.

XLII. And it is further enacted, that the said Bank shall continue as hereby constituted until the 1st day of July, which will be in the year of our Lord 1850, and shall thereafter continue in like manner until duly dissolved or modified; provided, however, that after the First said day of July 1850, the said Bank shall not, except upon the application or by the consent of the Proprietors of the said Bank, be dissolved, or in anywise modified without previous notice of twelve months at the least being given by the Governor General of India in Council, or by the Government of the Presidency of Fort Saint George to the Directors of the said Bank for the time being of such intended dissolution or modification. Provided also that in the event of the said Bank at any time suspending any Cash Payments the benefits granted to the said Bank by the present Act of Incorporation shall be thenceforth forfeited.

Preamble.—Whereas it has been found that the Provisions of Regulation XVI., 1827, of the Bombay Code, are insufficient to secure the efficient discharge of the duties of Hereditary Officers:
I. It is hereby enacted, that Sections 17 and 18 of Regulation XVI. of 1827, of the Bombay Code, be rescinded.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that all Hereditary Officers, of whatever denomination, belonging to, or employed in the management of the Land Revenue, or of the Customs or Town Duties, or Excise, or other Revenue, or in the Police, or in the Civil administration of the country, shall render the usual services of their respective Officers, as far as the same may be required by the Collector or other Officer under whose control they may be placed by usage or the orders of Government.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that when the duties of an Hereditary Office fall in more than one Department, it shall be competent to the Governor in Council of Bombay to prescribe what Officer shall be vested with the control of such Office.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Collector or other Officer to whom the duties of an Hereditary Office are, as provided in Clause 2, to be rendered, when the performance of those duties is claimed in rotation by different shares, to require that the shares in the wuttun shall nominate a fit and proper person from among their number, who shall hold the Office as the representative of the family, either during life, or for such term, not being less in each instance than (five) 5 years, as the Collector or Controlling Officer shall determine, with the sanction of the Governor in Council, and in the event of the sharers not so nominating, when required, one or more of their number within a reasonable period to be fixed by the Collector or Controlling Officer, the Collector or Controlling Officer, shall himself exercise the power of selection, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Collector or Controlling Officer to refuse to confirm the nomination by the sharers of any individual, if he shall have reason to think, that, from age or personal disqualification, the duties of the Office will not be properly performed by him, or if from character and past conduct the person nominated be considered unworthy of trust; provided that the grounds of such refusal shall be recorded in writing, and that an appeal from such decision shall lie to the Governor in Council, whose order thereon shall be final.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Collector or Controlling Officer shall have power to punish Officiating Hereditary Officers for misconduct or neglect of duty by suspension from office, pay, and emolument, or by fine not exceeding the computed official emolument of their offices for three months, and to levy the said fine in the mode authorised for realizing revenue demands.

VII. And it hereby further enacted, that the Collector or Controlling Officer, in cases of misconduct, or incompetency on the part of an Officiating Hereditary Officer shall have power to dismiss such Officer from his employment, but no such dismissal shall take place, except on an investigation recorded in writing, which shall be submitted for the approval and sanction of the Governor in Council.

XII. And it is hereby enacted, that all Deputies appointed to perform the duties of Hereditary Offices under this Act, and under Section 4, Regulation V., 1833, of the Bombay Code, shall be subject to the same rules and penalties as the Principals, and that the wuttun of the office shall be liable to confiscation upon the conviction by any Sessions Court of any Deputy appointed by the Hereditary Officer in the same manner as it would be under the 9th Section of this Act upon the conviction of the Hereditary Officer himself.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted, that nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to debar the right of any sharer to participate in the rents and profits of any Hereditary Office so held and filled as above provided, after provision shall have been made therefrom for the fit maintenance of the Officiating Hereditary Officer, for which purpose it shall be competent to the Collector or Controlling Officer to fix and assign a specific portion of such rents and emoluments, leaving the remainder only, subject to the claims of the other sharers,—and further that portion of the rents and emoluments so fixed and assigned shall be the official remuneration of the Officiating Hereditary Officer, and shall not be liable to Civil process of any Court of Law.

XIV. And it is hereby enacted, that whenever it may be necessary, as hereinbefore provided, that the Collector or Controlling Officer shall appoint a Deputy to conduct the duties of an Hereditary Officer, it shall be lawful for him to assign to such Deputy a fit remuneration from the rents and profits of the said office.

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that the terms "Hereditary District or Village, Office or Officers," "or Hereditary District or Village, Revenue Office or Officers," used in Regulation XVI., 1827, and Regulation V., 1833, of the Bombay Code, shall be held to apply to all descriptions of Hereditary Offices and Officers.

An Act to amend the Law respecting the period of the Execution of persons convicted of the crime of Murder.

Whereas by an Act passed in the ninth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled an Act for improving the Administration of Criminal Justice in the East Indies, it was amongst other things enacted, that every person convicted of murder should be executed according to law on the day next but one after that on which the sentence should be passed, unless the same should happen to be Sunday, and in that case on the Monday following, and that sentence should be pronounced immediately after the conviction of every murder, unless the Court should see reasonable cause for postponing the same, and such sentence should express not only the usual judgment of death but also the time thereby appointed for the execution thereof: and it was by the said Act provided that after such sentence should have been pronounced it should be lawful for the Court or Judge to stay the execution thereof if such Court or Judge should so think fit: and whereas for the ends of justice, and especially more effectually to preserve from an irrecoverable punishment, any persons who may hereafter be convicted upon erroneous or perjured evidence, it is expedient to alter and amend the said recited Act in these respects:

An Act for better securing the observance of an exact discipline in the Indian Navy.

I. Whereas by an Act of the British Parliament passed in the Session held in the 3rd and 4th years of His late Majesty King William the IV., intituled "An Act for effecting an arrangement with the East India Company, and for the better Government of His Majesty's Indian Territories till the 30th day of April, 1854": It is among other thing enacted, that the Governor General of India in Council shall have power to make Laws and Regulations for repealing, amending or altering any Laws or Regulations whatever then in force, or thereafter to be in force in the said Territories, or any part thereof, and to make Laws and Regulations for all persons whether British or Native, Foreigners, or others, and for all Courts of Justice whether established by His Majesty's Charters or otherwise, and the jurisdiction thereof, and for all places and things whatsoever within and throughout the whole or any part of the said Territories, and for all servants of the said Company within the dominions of Princes and States in alliance with the said Company, save and except that the said Governor General in Council shall not have the power of making any Laws or Regulations which shall in any way repeal, vary, suspend or affect any of the provisions of the now reciting Act, or any of the provisions of the Acts for punishing mutiny and desertion of Officers and Soldiers, whether in the service of His Majesty or the said Company, or any provisions of any Act thereafter to be passed in any wise affecting the said Company, or the said Territories, or the Inhabitants thereof, or any Laws and Regulations which shall in any way affect any Prerogative of the Crown or the authority of Parliament, or the constitution or rights of the said Company, or any part of the unwritten laws or constitution of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, whereon may depend in any degree the allegiance of any person to the Crown of the United Kingdom, or the sovereignty or dominion of the said Crown over any part of the said Territories.

And it is hereby provided and enacted, that in case the Court of Directors of the said Company, under such control as by the now reciting Act is provided, shall signify to the said Governor General in Council their disallowance of any Laws or Regulations by the said Governor General in Council made, then and in every such case, upon receipt by the said Governor General in Council of notice of such disallowance, the said Governor General in Council shall forthwith repeal all laws and Regulations so disallowed. And it is also provided and enacted, that all Laws and Regulations made as aforesaid, so long as they shall remain unrepealed, shall be of the same force and effect within and throughout the said Territories as any Act of Parliament would or ought to be within the same Territories, and shall be taken notice of by all Courts of Justice whatsoever within the same Territories in the same manner as any Public Act of Parliament would and ought to be taken notice of, and it shall not be necessary to register or publish in any Court of Justice any Laws or Regulations made by the said Governor General in Council. And it is thereby also provided and enacted, that it shall not be lawful for the said Governor General in Council, without the previous sanction of the said Court of Directors, to make any Law or Regulation whereby powers shall be given to any Courts of Justice other than the Courts of Justice established by His Majesty's Charters, to sentence to the punishment of death any of His Majesty's natural born subjects, born in Europe, or the children of such subjects, or which shall abolish any of the Courts of Justice established by His Majesty's Charters.

And whereas by another Act passed in the Session held in the 3rd and 4th years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws for punishing Mutiny and Desertion of Officers and Soldiers in the service of the East India Company, and for providing for the observance of Discipline in the Indian Navy, and to amend the laws for regulating the payment of Regimental Debts and the distribution of the Effects of Officers and Soldiers dying in service," reciting that the said Company, for the safety and protection of the Territories under their Government, in addition to their Land Forces, maintain a Marine Establishment theretofore called "the Bombay Marine," but then called "the Indian Navy," and that by an Act passed in the 9th year of the Reign of King George the 4th, intituled "An Act to extend the provisions of the East India Mutiny Act to the Bombay Marine," reciting an Act of the 4th year of King George the Fourth, and that it was expedient that discipline should be enforced in the said Marine Establishment in the manner provided by the said Act of the 4th year of King George the Fourth in respect to the other Force of the said Company, it is enacted, that the provisions of the said Act of the 4th year of King George the Fourth and the Rules and Articles of War made and to be made by virtue thereof, should extend and be applied to the service of "the Bombay Marine," and that all persons in the service of the said Company belonging to the said Bombay Marine who should be Commissioned or in pay as Officers, or enlisted or in pay as Non-Commissioned Officers or Soldiers respectively in the said Company's Army, should be to all intents and purposes liable to the provisions of the said Act of the 4th year of His Majesty King George the Fourth, and to the same Rules and Articles of War, and the same penalties as the officers and soldiers of the said Company's other Forces, and reciting that it is expedient to provide other means for enforcing discipline in the said Marine Establishment called "the Indian Navy," it was amongst other things enacted that, for the retaining the Forces of the said Establishment in their duty, the Governor General of India in Council should have power to make Laws and Regulations for securing the observance of an exact discipline in the said service called "the Indian Navy," and for bringing to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the Law will allow, all Officers, Engineers, Soldiers, Marines, Seamen, and all others belonging to the said Marine Establishment who should Mutiny or stir up sedition, or should desert the said service, or should commit any other offence which in its nature would be cognizable by Court Martial under the now reciting Act, or which might be against good discipline in Naval Service in the same, in as full and ample manner, to all intents and purposes, as by virtue of the said Act passed in the Session held in the 3rd and 4th years of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Fourth, the said Governor General in Council then had power to make any Laws and Regulations whatsoever, anything in the said last mentioned Act or any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding. And it was thereby provided and enacted, that in case the Court of Directors of the East India Company, under the control of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, should signify to the said Governor General in Council their disallowance of any Laws or Regulations by the said Governor General in Council made by virtue of the now reciting Act, then and in every such case, upon receipt by the said Governor General in Council of notice of such disallowance, the said Governor General in Council should forthwith repeal all Laws and Regulations so disallowed. And it was also provided and enacted that all Laws and Regulations made as aforesaid, so long as they should remain unrepealed, should be of the same force and effect within and throughout the said Territories as any Act of Parliament would or ought to be within the same Territories, and should be taken notice of by all Courts of Justice whatsoever within the same Territories in the same manner as any public Act of Parliament would and ought to be taken notice of, and it should not be necessary to register or publish in any Court of Justice any Laws or Regulations made by the said Governor General in Council.
And it was also provided and enacted, that it should not be lawful for the said Governor General in Council without the previous sanction of the said Court of Directors, to make any Law or Regulation whereby power should be given to any Court other than the Courts of Justice established by the Charters of the Crown, to sentence to the punishment of death any of Her Majesty's natural born subjects born in Europe, or the children of such subjects.

And it was also provided and enacted, that until the said Governor General in Council should have made Laws and Regulations for the good Government of the said "Indian Navy," by virtue of the powers by the now reciting Act for that purpose given, all the provisions of the now reciting Act, and the Rules and Articles of War to be made by virtue thereof should extend and be applied to the said Marine Establishment called the "Indian Navy," and that all persons in the service of the said Company belonging to the said Indian Navy who should be Commissioned or in pay as Officers or enlisted or in pay as Non-Commissioned Officers or Soldiers respectively in the said Company's Army, should be, to all intents and purposes, liable to the provisions of the now reciting Act, and to the same Rules and Articles of War, and the same penalties as the Officers and Soldiers of the said Company's other Forces.

And whereas it is deemed expedient to place the Indian Navy under Articles and Orders as nearly similar as may be to those in force in Her Majesty's Navy, and the Court of Directors of the East India Company have given their previous sanction to the several Enactments hereinafter contained, and to all and singular the Laws and Regulations hereby made. and be in full force as effectually as if such Ships or Vessels to which they did belong were not so wrecked, lost or destroyed until they shall be regularly discharged from the East India Company's further service, or removed into some other of the Ships or Vessels of the Indian Navy, or until a Court Martial shall be held to enquire into the causes of the loss of the said Ships or Vessels; and if upon such enquiry it shall appear by the sentence of the Court Martial that all or any of the Officers or Seamen of the said Ships or Vessels did their utmost to preserve, get off, or recover the same, and since the loss thereof have behaved themselves obediently to their Superior Officers according to the Discipline of the Indian Navy, and the said Articles and Orders hereinbefore established, then all the pay and wages of the said Officers and Seamen, or of such of them as shall have done their duty as aforesaid, shall continue and go on and be paid to the time of their discharge or death, or if they shall be then alive to the time of the holding of such Court Martial, or removal into some other of the Ships or Vessels of the Indian Navy, and every such Officer and Seaman of the Ships or Vessels of the Indian Navy who, after the wreck or loss of his Ship or Vessel, shall act contrary to the Discipline of the Indian Navy, and the several Articles or Orders hereinbefore established, or any of them, shall be sentenced by the said Court Martial and punished as if the Ship or Vessel to which he did belong was not so wrecked, lost or destroyed.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Advances bona fide made to Agents intrusted with Goods, by extending to the Territories of the East India Company, in cases governed by English Law, the Provisions of the Statute 5 any 6 Victoria, c. 39, as altered by this Act.

Whereas by Act XIII. of 1840, the Provisions of the Statute 4, Geo. IV., c. 83, as altered and amended by the Statute 6, Geo. IV., c. 94, were extended to the Territories of the East India Company, in cases governed by English Law; and whereas by the Statute 5 and 6, Victoria, c. 39, the said Statute 6, Geo. IV., c. 94, is altered and amended; and the Provisions thereof are extended:

It is hereby enacted, that the Statute 5 and 6, Victoria, c. 39, as altered by this Act, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be extended to the Territories of the East India Company; provided always that this Act shall not be construed to affect any case which would not have been governed by the Law of England before the passing of the last-mentioned Statute, if this Act had not passed, or to extend or alter the jurisdiction of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Justice.

The Statute hereby extended to the Territories of the East India Company and as altered by this Act, is as follows:—

5 AND 6 VICT., CHAP. 39, AS ALTERED BY THIS ACT.

An Act to amend the Law relating to advances bonâ fide made to Agents intrusted with Goods:

I. Whereas by an Act passed in the 6th Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled an Act to alter and amend an Act for the better protection of the property of Merchants and others who may hereafter enter into contracts or agreements in relation to Goods, Wares and Merchandize intrusted to Factors or Agents, validity is given, under certain circumstances, to contracts or agreements made with persons intrusted with, and in possession of the Documents of Title to Goods and Merchandize, and Consignees making Advances to persons abroad, who are intrusted with any Goods and Merchandize, are entitled, under certain circumstances, to a lien thereon, but under the said Act, and the present state of the Law, Advances cannot safely be made upon Goods or Documents to persons known to have possession thereof as Agents only: And whereas by the said Act it is, amongst other things, further enacted, "that it shall be lawful to and for any person to contract with any Agent intrusted with any Goods, or to whom the same may be consigned, for the purchase of any such Goods, and to receive the same of and to pay for the same to such Agent, and such contract and payment shall be binding upon and good against the Owner of such Goods, notwithstanding such person shall have notice that the person making such contract, or on whose behalf such contract is made, is an Agent; provided such contract or payments be made in the usual and ordinary course of business, and that such person shall not, when such contract is entered into, or payment made, have notice that such Agent is not authorized to sell the same, or to receive the said Purchase Money." And whereas Advances on the Security of Goods or Merchandize have become an usual and ordinary course of business, and it is expedi dient and necessary that reasonable and safe facilities should be afforded thereto, and that the same protection and validity should be extended to bonâ fide Advances upon Goods and Merchandize as by the said recited Act is given to sales, and that Owners in-trusting Agents with the possession of Goods or Merchandize, or of Documents of title thereto, should in all cases where such Owners, by the said recited Act or otherwise, would be bound by a contract or agreement of sale be in like manner bound by any contract or agreement of pledge or lien for any Advances bonâ fide made on the Security thereof. And whereas much litigation has arisen on the construction of the said recited Act, and the same does not extend to protect Exchanges of Securities bonâ fide made, and so much uncertainty exists in respect thereof, that it is expedient to alter and amend the same, and to extend the Provisions thereof, and to put the Law on a clear and certain basis:
be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that, from and after the passing of this Act, any Agent who shall thereafter be intrusted with the possession of Goods or of the documents of Title to Goods, shall be deemed and taken to be Owner of such Goods and Documents, so far as to give validity to any contract or agreement by way of pledge, lien, or security bonâ fide made by any person with such Agent so intrusted as aforesaid, as well for any original Loan Advance, or Payment made upon the Security of such Goods or Documents, as also for any further or continuing Advance in respect thereof, and such contract or agreement shall be binding upon and good against the Owner of such Goods, and all other persons interested therein, notwithstanding the person claiming such pledge or lien may have had notice that the person with whom such contract or agreement is made is only an Agent.

II. And be it enacted, that where any such contract or agreement for pledge, lien or security shall be made in consideration of the delivery or transfer to such Agent of any other Goods or Merchandize, or Document of Title or Negotiable Security, upon which the person so delivering up the same had at the time a valid and available lien and security for or in respect of a previous Advance, by virtue of some contract or agreement made with such Agent, such contract and agreement, if bonâ fide on the part of the person with whom the same may be made, shall be deemed to be a contract made in consideration of an Advance within the true intent and meaning of this Act, and shall be as valid and effectual, to all intents and purposes, and to the same extent, as if the consideration for the same had been a bonâ fide present advance of money. Provided always that the lien acquired under such last-mentioned contract or agreement upon the Goods or Documents deposited in exchange, shall not exceed the value at the time of the Goods and Merchandize which, or the Documents of Title to which, or the Negotiable Security which shall be delivered up and exchanged.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, that this Act and every matter and thing herein contained, shall be deemed and construed to give validity to such contracts and agreements only, and to protect only such Loans, advances, and Exchanges, as shall be made bonâ fide, and without notice that the Agent making such contracts or agreements as aforesaid has not authority to make the same, or is acting mala fide in respect thereof against the Owner of such Goods and Merchandize; and nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to or protect any lien or pledge for or in respect of any antecedent debt, owing from any Agent to any person with or to whom such lien or pledge shall be given, nor to authorize any Agent intrusted as aforesaid in deviating from any express orders or authority received from the Owner; but for that purpose and to the intent of protecting all such bonâ fide Loans, Advances, and Exchanges, as aforesaid (though made with notice of such Agent not being the Owner, but without any notice of the Agent's acting without authority), and to no further, or other intent or purpose, such contract or agreement as aforesaid shall be binding on the Owners and all other persons interested in such Goods.

IV. And be it enacted, that any Bill of Lading, India Warrant, Dock Warrant, Warehouse Keeper's Certificate, Warrant or Order for the delivery of Goods, or any other Document used in the ordinary course of business as proof of the possession or control of Goods, or authorizing or purporting to authorize, either by endorsement or by delivery, the possessor of such Document to transfer or receive Goods thereby represented, shall be deemed and taken to be a document of Title within the meaning of this Act; and any Agent intrusted as aforesaid and possessed of any such Document of Title, whether derived immediately from the Owner of such Goods, or obtained by reason of such Agent's having been intrusted with the possession of the Goods, or of any other Document of Title thereto, shall be deemed and taken to have been intrusted with the possession of the Goods represented by such Document of Title as aforesaid, and all contracts, pledging or giving a lien upon such Document of Title as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be respectively pledges of and liens upon the Goods to which the same relates, and such Agent shall be deemed to be possessed of such Goods or Documents, whether the same shall be in his actual custody, or shall be held by any other person subject to his control, or for him or on his behalf, and where any Loan or Advance shall be bona fide made to any Agent intrusted with and in possession of any such Goods or Documents of Title as aforesaid, on the faith of any contract or agreement in writing to consign, deposit, transfer or deliver such Goods or Documents of Title as aforesaid, and such Goods or Documents of Title shall actually be received by the person making such Loan or Advance, without notice that such Agent was not authorized to make such pledge or security, every such Loan or Advance shall be deemed and taken to be a Loan or Advance on the security of such Goods or Documents of Title within the meaning of this Act, though such Goods or Documents of Title shall not actually be received by the person making such Loan or Advance till the period subsequent thereto; and any contract or agreement, whether made direct with such Agent as aforesaid, or with any Clerk or other person on his behalf, shall be deemed a contract or agreement with such Agent; and any payment made, whether by money or Bills of Exchange, or other Negotiable Security, shall be deemed and taken to be an advance within the meaning of this Act; and an Agent in possession as aforesaid of such Goods or Documents shall be taken, for the purpose of this Act, to have been intrusted therewith by the Owner thereof unless the contrary can be shown in evidence.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, that nothing herein contained shall lessen, vary, alter or affect the civil responsibility of an Agent for any breach of duty or contract, or non-fulfilment of his orders or authority in respect of any such contract, agreement, lien, or pledge as aforesaid.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, that if any Agent intrusted as aforesaid, shall, contrary to or without the authority of his principal in that behalf, for his own benefit and in violation of good faith, make any consignment, deposit, transfer, or delivery of any Goods or Documents of Title so intrusted to him as aforesaid, as and by way of a pledge, lien, or security; or shall, contrary to or without such authority, for his own benefit and in violation of good faith, accept any Advance on the faith of any contract or agreement to consign, deposit, transfer or deliver such Goods or Documents of Title as aforesaid, every such Agent shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be sentenced to transportation for any term not exceeding fourteen years, nor less than seven years, or to suffer such other punishment by fine or imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award; and every Clerk or other person who shall knowingly and wilfully act and assist in making any such consignment, deposit, transfer, or delivery, or in accepting or procuring such Advance as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to any of the punishments which the Court shall award, as herein before last mentioned. Provided nevertheless that no such Agent shall be liable to any prosecution for consigning, depositing, transferring, or delivering any such Goods or Documents of Title, in case the same shall not be made a security for or subject to the payment of any greater sum of money than the amount which at the time of such consignment, deposit, transfer, or delivery, was justly due and owing to such Agent from his Principal, together with the amount of any Bills of Exchange drawn by or on account of such Principal, and accepted by such Agent. Provided also, that the conviction of any such Agent, so convicted as aforesaid, shall not be received in evidence in any action at Law or suit in Equity against him, and no Agent intrusted as aforesaid shall be liable to be convicted by any evidence whatsoever in respect of any act done by him, if he shall, at any time previously to his being indicted for such offence, have disclosed such act, on oath, in consequence of any compulsory process of any Court of Law, or Equity, in any action, suit, or proceeding which shall have been bonâ fide instituted by any party aggrieved, or if he shall have disclosed the same in any examination or deposition before any Commissioner of Bankrupt or of any Insolvent Court.

VII. Provided also, and be it enacted, that nothing herein contained shall prevent such Owner as aforesaid from having the right to redeem such Goods or Documents of Title, pledged as aforesaid, at any time before such Goods shall have been sold, upon repayment of the amount of the lien thereon, or restoration of the securities in respect of which such lien may exist, and upon payment or satisfaction to such Agent, if by him required, of any sum of money for or in respect of which such Agent would by law be entitled to retain the Goods or Documents, or any of them, by way of lien as against such Owner, or to prevent the said Owner from recovering of and from such persons with whom any such Goods or Documents may have been pledged, or who shall have any such lien thereon as aforesaid, any balance or sum of money remaining in his hands as the produce of the sale of such Goods after deducting the amount of the lien of such person under such contract or agreement as aforesaid. Provided always that in case of the Bankruptcy or Insolvency of any such Agent, the Owner of the Goods which shall have been so redeemed by such Owner as aforesaid, shall, in respect of the sum paid by him on account of such Agent for such redemption, be held to have paid such sum for the use of such Agent before his Bankruptcy or Insolvency, or in case the Goods shall not be so redeemed, the Owner shall be deemed a creditor of such Agent for the value of the Goods so pledged at the time of the pledge, and shall, if he shall think fit, be entitled, in either of such cases, to prove for or set off the sum so paid, or the value of such Goods, as the case may be.

VIII. And be it enacted, that in construing this Act the word "Person" shall be taken to designate a Body Corporate or Company as well as an Individual, and that words in the singular number shall, when necessary to give effect to the intention of the said Act, import also the plural, and vice versa, and words used in the masculine gender shall, when required, be taken to apply to a female as well as a male.

IX. Provided also, and be it enacted, that nothing herein con-
MAINTAINED shall be construed to give validity to or in anywise to affect any contract, agreement, lien, pledge, or other act, matter, or thing made or done before the passing of this Act.

An Act to amend Act No. XII. of 1841, entitled "An Act for Amending the Bengal Code in regard to Sales of Land for Arrears of Revenue."

Whereas it is found expedient to amend the existing Law for the realization of the Land Revenue.

I. It is hereby enacted, that from the last day of February, 1845, the third and following Sections of Act No. XII. of 1841 are repealed. (a)

(a) The greater part of this Act, is a literal re-enactment of Act 12, 1841. The most important alterations are in the 3rd and 6th Sections. Their object is, to give notice to the public of every Estate which is in arrear, and of its liability to be sold, unless the arrears are paid on or before a day so notified. Also to inform mortgagees and other non-resident or distant proprietors of the danger in which the Estate is placed, and thereby to protect them against the negligence or fraud of agents or Mookhtears.

By the former law, certain fixed and general sale days for all estates in arrear were annually appointed by the Sudder Board of Revenue. But what Estates would be sold, could be known only to the Collector, to his officer, and, at the time of sale, to the persons attending the sale; because the arrears were payable until sunset of the next preceding day. The sale day was known by reason of the general orders of the Board of Revenue, but not the particulars of sale, because, practically speaking, there was no interval between the sale and the forfeiture of the property.

The alteration made in this respect is as follows:—The Sudder Board instead of appointing, as before, by notice in the Gazette, certain general sale days, is directed to appoint what may be called certain extreme general pay days, and arrears will be receivable from the defaulters until sunset of the last pay day, but not after. If the arrears are not paid on the last pay day, the Collectors, who, of course, will act in this important matter under the orders of the Board of Revenue, will advertise the property for sale in the manner pointed out hereafter. This advertisement is new, and is the great boon conferred by this Act.
II. And it is hereby enacted, that if the whole or a portion of a kist or instalment of any month of the era, according to which the settlement and kistbundee of any Mehal have been regulated be unpaid on the first of the following month of such era, the sums so remaining unpaid shall be considered an arrear of Revenue.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that upon the promulgation of this Act, the Sudder Board of Revenue at Calcutta shall determine upon what dates all arrears of Revenue and all demands, which by the Regulations and Acts in force, are directed to be realized in the same manner as arrears of Revenue, shall be paid-up in each permanently-settled District or Zillah under their jurisdiction, in default of which payment the Estates in arrear in those Districts, except as hereinafter provided, shall be sold at public auction, to the highest bidder. And the said Board shall give notice of the dates so fixed in the Official Gazettes, and shall direct corresponding publication to be made, as far as regards each District, in the language of that District, in the office of the Collector or Deputy-Collector, or other Officer duly authorized to hold sales under this Act, in the Courts of the Judge, Magistrate (or Joint Magistrate, as the case may be), Principal Sudder Ameens, Sudder Ameens, and Moonsiffs, and at every Thannah Station, of that District; and the dates so fixed shall not be changed, except by the said Board by advertisement and notifications, in the manner above described, to be issued at least three months before the close of the official year preceding that in which the new date is, or dates are to take effect.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that in Districts not permanently settled, and in the Province of Benares, no sale shall take place for arrears of Land Revenue or other demands of Government, without the special sanction of the Sudder Board of Revenue previously obtained in each several case of sale. Provided that the said Board, at the time of authorizing such sale, shall fix the latest day on which in each case such arrears or demands shall be received. (b)

(b) This is a re-enactment of Section 4, Act XII, 1841, down to the word "provided," the proviso from that word inclusive is new.
V. Provided always and it is hereby enacted, that no Estates shall be sold for the recovery of arrears or demands of the descriptions mentioned below, otherwise than after a notification in the language of the District, specifying the nature and amount of the arrear or demand, and the latest date on which payment thereof shall be received, shall have been affixed, for a period of not less than fifteen clear days, preceding the date fixed for payment, according to Section III. or IV. of this Act, as the case may be, in the office of the Collector, or other Officer duly authorised to hold sales under this Act, in the Court of the Judge, within whose jurisdiction the land advertised lies, in the Courts of the Principal Sudder Ameens, and Sudder Ameens of the District, and in the Moonsiff's Court and Police Thannah of the Division in which the Estate to which the Notification relates, or a part of it, is situated—the same to be certified by the receipt of the Officer at whose office such Notification may have been affixed; and also at the Cutcherry of the Malgoozar of the Estate, or at some conspicuous place upon the Estate, the same to be certified by the Peon or other person employed for the purpose—(c)

First.—Arrears due from Estates in the Province of Benares.
Secondly.—Arrears due from Estates not permanently settled.
Thirdly.—Arrears other than those of the current or of the preceding year.
Fourthly.—Arrears due on account of Estates other than that to be sold.
Fifthly.—Arrears of Estates under attachment by order of any Judicial Authority.
Sixthly.—Arrears due on account of Tuuccavee, Poolbundee, or other demands, not being Land Revenue, but recoverable by the same process as arrears of Land Revenue.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Collector or other Officer duly authorized to hold sales under this Act, shall, as soon as possible, after the latest day of payment fixed in the manner prescribed in Section III. or IV. of this Act, issue notifications in the language of the District, to be affixed in his own office, and in the

(c) This Section corresponds in subject, with Section 8, of Act XII., 1841, and varies from it only in requiring the latest date on which payment of revenue will be received to be notified; and in expressly mentioning estates in the province of Benares.
Court of the Judge of the District, and to be published in the Official Gazettes, specifying the Estate or Estates which will be sold as aforesaid, and the day on which the sale of the same will commence, which day shall not be less than fifteen or more than thirty clear days from the date of affixing the notification in the office of the Collector, or other officer as aforesaid. And, except as hereinafter provided, all estates so specified shall on the day notified for sale, or on the day or days following, be put up to public auction by, and in the presence of, the Collector, or other Officer as aforesaid, and shall be sold to the highest bidder. And no payment, or tender of payment, made subsequent to sunset of the said latest day of payment, shall bar or interfere with the sale, either at the time of sale, or after its conclusion. (d)

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that whenever an estate is notified for sale as provided for by section VI. of this Act the Collector or other Officer as aforesaid, shall affix a proclamation in the language of the District in his own Office, and as soon thereafter as may be in the Moonsiffs' Courts and Police Thannas within which the estate or any part of it is situated; and also at the Cutcherry of the Malgoozar of the estate; or at some conspicuous place upon the estate, forbidding the ryots and under-tenants of such estate to pay rent to the defaulting proprietors from the date of the day after that fixed for the last day of payment, on pain of not being entitled to credit in their accounts with the purchaser for any sums paid after the date aforesaid.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that no claim to abatement or remission of Revenue unless the same shall have been allowed by the authority of Government, nor any private demand or cause of action whatever held or supposed to be held by any defaulter against Government shall bar a sale, or render a sale under this Act void or voidable; nor shall the plea that money belonging to the defaulter, and sufficient to pay the balance or part of it, was in the Collector's hands, bar a sale or render a sale under this Act void or voidable, unless such money stand in the defaulter's name alone and without dispute, and unless after application in due time made by the defaulter, the Collector shall have neglected, or refused on insufficient grounds, to transfer it to the credit of the estate.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, that Collectors shall, at any time before sunset of the latest day of payment, receive as a deposit from any party not being a proprietor of the estate in arrear, the amount of the arrear of Revenue due from it, to be carried to the credit of the said estate at sunset as aforesaid, unless before that time the arrear shall have been liquidated by a proprietor of the estate. And in case the party so depositing, whose money shall have been credited to the estate in the manner aforesaid, shall be a plaintiff in a suit pending before a Court of Justice for the possession of the same or any part thereof, it shall be competent to the Judge of the Zillah in which such estate is situated, to order the said party to be put into temporary possession of the said estate, subject to the rules in force for taking security in the cases of appellants and defendants. And if the party depositing, whose money shall have been credited as aforesaid, shall prove before a competent Civil Court that the deposit was made in order to protect an interest of the said party, which would have been endangered, or damaged by the sale of the estate, he shall be entitled to recover the amount of the deposit with interest, from the proprietors of the said estate.

X. And it is hereby enacted, that no estate shall be liable to sale for the recovery of arrears which have accrued during the period of its being under the management of the Court of Wards, and no estate, the sole property of a minor or minors, and descended to him or them by the regular course of inheritance duly notified to the Collector for the information of the Court of Wards, but of which the Court of Wards has not assumed the management under Regulation VI., 1822, shall be sold for arrears of Revenue accruing subsequently to his or their succession to the same, until the minor or minors, or one of them, shall have attained the full age of 18 years. And no estate held under attachment by the Revenue Authorities, otherwise than by order of a Judicial Authority, shall be liable to sale for arrears accruing whilst it was so held under attachment. And no estate held under attachment by a Revenue Officer, in pursuance of an order of a Judicial Authority, shall be liable to sale for the recovery of arrears of Revenue accruing during the period of such attachment, until after the end of the year in which such arrears accrued.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Collector at any time before the sale of an estate shall have commenced to exempt such estate from sale; and in like manner it shall be competent to the Commissioner of Revenue at any time before the sale of an estate shall have commenced, to exempt such estate from sale, by a special order to the Collector to that effect in each case, and no sale of an estate shall be legal if held after the receipt of an order of exemption in respect to such estate. Provided, however, that it is hereby enacted, that the Collector or Commissioner shall duly record in a proceeding the reason for granting such exemption; and provided also, that an order for exemption so issued by the Commissioner shall not affect the legality of a sale which may have taken place before the receipt by the Collector of the order for exempting it from sale.

XII. And it is hereby enacted, that sales shall ordinarily be made by the Collector or other Officer duly authorized by Government in that behalf in the Land Revenue Cutcherry at the Sudder Station of the District; provided, however, that it shall be competent to the Sudder Board to prescribe a place for holding sales other than such Cutcherry whenever they shall consider it beneficial to the parties concerned.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted, that in case the Collector, or other Officer as aforesaid, shall be unable, from sickness, from the occurrence of a holiday, or from any other cause, to commence the sale on the day of sale fixed as aforesaid, or if, having commenced it, he be unable, from any cause, to complete it, he shall be competent to adjourn it to the next day following, not being Sunday or other close holiday, recording his reasons for such adjournment, forwarding a copy of such record to the Commissioner of Revenue, and announcing the adjournment by a written proclamation stuck up in his Cutcherry: and so on, from day to day, until he shall be able to commence upon or to complete the sale, but with the exception of adjournments so made, recorded, and reported, each shall invariably be made on the day of sale fixed in the manner aforesaid.

XIV. And it is hereby enacted, that on the day of sale, fixed according to Section VI. of this Act, sales shall proceed in regular order—the Estates to be sold bearing the lowest number on the Towjee or Registers in use in the Collector's Office of the District, being put up first, and so on, in regular sequence; and it shall not be lawful for the Collector or other Officer as aforesaid to put up any Estate out of its regular order by number, except where it may be necessary to do so on default of deposit, as provided in Section XV. of this Act. (e)

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that the party who shall be declared the purchaser of an estate at any such public sale as aforesaid, shall be required to deposit immediately, or as soon after the conclusion of the sale of the estate as the Collector may think necessary, either in Cash. Bank of Bengal Notes or Post Bills, or Government Securities duly indorsed, 25 per cent. on the amount of his bid, and in default of such deposit, the estate shall forthwith, be put up again and sold.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, that the full amount of purchase money shall be made good by the purchaser before sunset of the thirtieth day from that on which the sale of the Estate bought by him took place, reckoning that day as one of the thirty; or if the thirtieth day be a Sunday, or other close holiday, then on the first office day after the thirtieth; and in default of payment within the prescribed period as aforesaid, then and afterwards, as often as such default shall occur, the deposit shall be forfeited to Government, the Estate shall be re-sold, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the Estate, or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold. And in the event of the proceeds of the sale which may be eventually consummated, being less than the price bid by the defaulting bidder aforesaid, the difference shall be leviable from him by any process authorized for realizing an arrear of public Revenue; and it shall be so levied and credited to the defaulting Proprietor of the Estate sold; and

(e) A re-enactment of Section 14, of Act XII., 1841, down to the Excepton.
The Exception is intended to enable the Collector to put up an Estate again at the same auction, if the first purchaser fails to pay his deposit. But if an Estate is put up a second time, after the bidders on the first occasion are gone, it is evident a great sacrifice would be made of the property. Section 16, which also provides for a re-sale, applies to the case in which the deposit is paid, but the purchase money not completed; but, Section 15, to the case in which the deposit is not paid.
if default of payment of purchase money shall have occurred more than once, the defaulting bidders shall be held jointly and severally responsible for such difference to the extent of the amount of their respective bids. Provided always, that every such re-sale shall be made after notification and in the forms prescribed by Section VI. of this Act, and that such notification shall not be issued until the expiration of three clear days after the day on which the default shall have occurred. Provided also, that payment or tender of payment, by or on behalf of the Proprietor of the arrear for which the Estate was first sold, and of the arrear which may have subsequently become due, if such payment be made before sunset of the day preceding the day of the notification of re-sale, and after the defaulting purchaser shall have made the deposit required by Section XV. of this Act, shall bar such re-sale. (f)

XVII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Revenue to receive an appeal against any sale made under this Act if preferred to him on or before the fifteenth day from the date of sale, reckoning as in Section XVI., or if preferred to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner on or before the tenth day from the day of sale, and not otherwise: and the Commissioner shall be competent in every case of appeal so preferred to annul any sale of an estate made under this Act, which shall appear to him not to have been conducted according to the provisions of this Act, awarding at the same time to the purchaser a payment from the proprietor of any moderate compensation for his loss, if the sale shall have been occasioned by neglect of the proprietor, such compensation not to exceed interest, at the current rate of Government Securities, on the amount of deposit or balance of purchase money during the period of its being retained in the Collector's Office, and the order of the Commissioner shall, in such cases, be final.

XVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Commissioner of Revenue on the ground of hardship or injustice to suspend the passing of final orders in any case of appeal from a sale and to represent the case to the Sudder Board of Revenue, who, if they see cause, may recommend to the Local Government to annul the sale; and the Local Government in any such case, may annul the sale and cause the estate to be restored to the proprietor on such conditions as may appear equitable and proper.

(f) A re-enactment of Section 16, down to the concluding Proviso for a notification three days after default, and what follows, which are new, and the last very important a mitigation of the severity of the law of forfeiture.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, that all sales of which the purchase money has been paid up as prescribed in Section XVI. of this Act, and against which no appeal shall have been preferred, shall be final and conclusive at noon of the thirtieth day from the day of sale, reckoning the said day of sale, as the first of the said thirty days. And sales against which an appeal may have been preferred, and the appeal dismissed by the Commissioner shall be final and conclusive from the date of such dismissal, if more than thirty days from the day of sale, or if less, then at noon of the thirtieth day as above provided.

XX. And it is hereby enacted, that, immediately upon a sale becoming final and conclusive, the Collector or other Officer as aforesaid, shall give to the purchaser a Certificate of title in the following form:—

I certify that A. B. has purchased at Public Auction under Act I. of 1845, Mehal C., and that his purchase has taken effect on and since the ______ day of ______ (being the date of the day after that fixed for the last day of payment).

(Signed) D. E. Collector.

And the said certificate shall be deemed in any Court of Justice sufficient evidence of the title to the estate sold being vested in the person or persons named from the date specified; and the Collector shall also notify such transfer by written proclamation in his own Cutcherry, and in those of the Moonsiff and Darogah of the jurisdictions within which any part of the estate sold shall be situated, and also at the Cutcherry of the Malgoozar of the estate or on some conspicuous place on the estate; and shall apply the purchase money first to the liquidation of all arrears due upon the latest day of payment; and secondly, to the liquidation of all outstanding demands debited to the Mehal in the Public Accounts of the district, holding the residue, if any, in deposit on account of the late recorded proprietor or proprietors.
of the estate sold, to be paid to their receipt on demand in the manner following, to wit: in shares proportioned to their recorded interest in the estate sold, if such distinction of shares were recorded, or if not, then as an aggregate sum to the whole body of proprietors upon their joint receipt. Provided that, if prior to payment of any surplus that may remain of the purchase money after liquidation of all Government arrears and dues to the proprietor of the estate sold, or his representative, the same may be claimed by creditors in satisfaction of debts due by him to them, or by any one creditor, such surplus shall not be payable to any such claimant, nor shall it be withheld from the proprietor by attachment, except under precept and in satisfaction of decrees of Court for such debts. And if the balance of purchase money have in any such case been paid away in liquidation of the proprietor’s just debts by order of any Court, and a decree shall afterwards pass for annulling the sale, the proprietor shall not be restored to possession until the amount so paid away be returned by him with interest.

XXI. And it is hereby enacted, that any suit brought to oust the certified purchaser as aforesaid, on the ground that the purchase was made on behalf of another person, not the certified purchaser, though by agreement the name of the certified purchaser was used, shall be dismissed with costs.

XXII. it shall be competent to the Local Government at any time before such restricted sale shall have become final and conclusive in the manner laid down in Section XIX. of this Act, to direct the sale to be cancelled, and a new sale of the estate to be made without other restrictions than those contained in the exceptions specified in Clauses 1 to 5 of Sec. XXVI. of this Act. If after the sale has become final and conclusive, occasion should again arise to bring to sale for arrears an estate purchased with a restriction of the above description, it shall at all times be competent to the Local Government to direct that the Mehal shall be sold without any other restriction than those contained in the exception specified in Clauses 1 to 5 of Sec. XXVI. of this Act, or with the reservation before reserved. In the former event, should the purchase money realised by the unrestricted sale exceed in a large amount the sum obtained at the restricted sale, it shall further be competent to the Local Government to direct a portion, or the whole of the excess to be paid to persons whose interests having been reserved at the first, shall become void at the second sale.

XXIX. And it is hereby enacted, that excepting copartners of estates under Butwarrah who may have saved their shares from sale under Sections 33 and 34, Regulation XIX., 1814, any recorded or unrecorded proprietor or copartner who may purchase in his own name or in the name of another the estate of which he is proprietor or copartner, or who by re-purchase or otherwise, may recover possession of the said estate after it has been sold for arrears under this Act: and likewise any purchaser of an estate sold for other arrears or demands than those accruing upon itself, shall by such purchase acquire the estate subject to all its incumbrances existing at the time of sale and shall not acquire any rights in respect to ryote and under-tenants which were not possessed by the previous proprietor at the time of the sale of the said estate.

XXX. And it is hereby enacted, that arrears of rent which, on the latest day of payment, may be due to the defaulter from his tenants, shall, in the event of a sale, be recoverable by him after the said latest day, by any process except distraint, which might have been used by him for that purpose, on or before the said latest day.
XXXI. And it is hereby enacted, that any Collector or Officer exercising the powers of Collector, in respect to sales, shall be competent to punish any contempt committed in his presence in open Cutcherry or office for the time being, by fine, to an extent not exceeding Company's Rupees 200, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment in the civil gaol for a period not exceeding one month; and the Magistrate to whom such an offender may be sent by a Collector as aforesaid, shall carry his sentence into effect. Provided that an appeal from any order passed under this Section shall lie to the Revenue Commissioner, whose decision shall be final.

XXXII. And it is hereby enacted, that a default to make good a bid by making the deposit required by Section XV. of this Act shall be held to be a contempt.

* The Capital of the Bank is 100,000,000; but the Act has the above number.
And whereas it would be convenient that persons having demands against the said Company should be entitled to sue one of the two Officers hereinafter mentioned or described in that behalf; therefore, for obviating and removing the difficulties aforesaid: It is hereby enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act, all actions, suits, and other proceedings whatsoever, at law or in Equity, for any injury or wrong done to any real or personal property of the said Union Bank in whomsoever the same may for the time being be vested, whether in the said Company, or in some person or persons in trust for the said Company, or upon or in respect of any present liability or liabilities to the said Union Bank, or upon any Bonds, Covenants, Contracts or Agreements which already have been or hereafter shall be given or entered into with the said Company, or to or with any person or persons whomsoever in trust for the said Union Bank, or wherein the said Union Bank is or shall be interested, and also all instruments and petitions to found any adjudication of Insolvency in any Court for the Relief of Insolvent debtors against any person or persons indebted to the said Union Bank, and liable to have been made Insolvent by the Laws now or at any time hereafter in force relating to Insolvents in the East Indies, and generally all other proceedings whatsoever at Law or in Equity to be commenced, instituted, or carried on by or on behalf of the said Union Bank, or wherein the said Union Bank is or shall be concerned or interested, against any person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, or others, whether such person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, is or are or shall then be a Member or Members, Proprietor or Proprietors of, or in the said Union Bank, or not, shall and lawfully may be commenced, instituted, presented and prosecuted, or carried on in the name of the person who shall be the Secretary or of the person who shall be the Treasurer of the said Union Bank at the time such action, suit or proceeding shall be commenced or instituted as the nominal plaintiff or petitioner for or on behalf of the said Union Bank, and all actions, suits, and proceedings at Law or in Equity, as well for subsisting as future accruing claims, debts, or demands to be commenced or instituted against the said Union Bank by any person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, whether such person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, is or are or shall then be a Member or Members, Proprietor or Proprioters, of or in the said Union Bank or not, shall be commenced, instituted, and prosecuted against the said Secretary for the time being of the said Union Bank, or of the said Treasurer for the time being of the said Union Bank, as the nominal defendant, respondent or defender for and on behalf of the said Union Bank, and the death, removal, resignation, or any other act of such Secretary or Treasurer, or the Bankruptcy or Insolvency of such Secretary or Treasurer, shall not abate or prejudice any action, suit, or other proceeding at Law or in Equity commenced under this Act, but the same may be continued, prosecuted, and carried on or defended in the name of any other the Secretary or Treasurer for the time being of the said Company.

And it is hereby enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act in all indictments, informations and other criminal proceedings brought, instituted or carried on by, or on the behalf of the said Union Bank, for fraud or injury upon or against the said Union Bank, or for any felonies, taking, stealing, or embezzlement, damaging or destroying, or for any offence whatever relating to any Money, Notes, Bills, Effects, Securities or any real or personal property of the said Union Bank, or for any other offence against the said Union Bank, it shall be lawful to state such Money, Notes, Bills, Effects and Securities, and other real and personal property, in whomsoever the same may be vested, whether in the said Union Bank, or in some person or persons in trust for the said Union Bank, to be the Money, Notes, Bills, Effects and Securities, or property of the said Union Bank, or of such Secretary or Treasurer for the time being of the said Union Bank; and any offence committed with intent to injure or defraud the said Union Bank, shall and lawfully may in such prosecution be said to have been committed with intent to injure or defraud the said Union Bank, or such Secretary or Treasurer for the time being of the said Union Bank, and any offender or offenders may hereupon be lawfully convicted of any such offence, and in all other allegations or indictments, informations, or other proceedings in which before the passing of this Act, it would have been necessary to state the names of the persons composing the said Union Bank, it shall be lawful and sufficient to state the name of such Secretary or Treasurer, and the death, resignation or removal of such Secretary or Treasurer, shall not abate or render defective or in any wise affect or prejudice such indictments, informations or other criminal proceedings.

III. And it is hereby further enacted, that no action which may be commenced against the said Union Bank, or the Secretary or Treasurer for the time being of the said Union Bank, upon or arising out of any contract entered into by or on behalf of the said Union Bank, shall be in any wise affected or defeated by, or by reason of the plaintiff or plaintiffs therein, or of any other person or persons who may be in any wise interested or concerned in such action, being a Member or Members of, or a Shareholder or Shareholders, or a Partner or Partners in the said Union Bank, but any Member or Members, or Shareholder or Shareholders of, or Partner or Partners in, the said Union Bank, shall and may have the same right of action and remedy to be proceeded in and enforced in the same manner against the said Union Bank, or the Secretary or Treasurer for the time being thereof, upon any contract, and for any debt, damage or demand whatsoever which he or they might have had if he or they had been a stranger or strangers, and not a Member or Members, Shareholder, or Shareholders, Partner or Partners of or in the said Union Bank.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted, that no action commenced by or on behalf of the said Union Bank in the name of the Secretary or Treasurer for the time being thereof, by virtue of this Act, upon, or arising out of any contract whatsoever entered into by or on behalf of the said Union Bank, or for the recovery of any debt or demand whatsoever due or owing to the said Union Bank, or for any other cause or any other account shall be in anywise affected or defeated by or by reason of the defendant or defendants therein, or any person or persons who may be in anywise interested or concerned in such action being a Member or Members, Shareholder or Shareholders, or Partner or Partners of or in the said Union Bank, but the said Union Bank shall and may have the same right of action and remedy to be proceeded in and enforced in the same manner against any Member or Members, Shareholder or Shareholders thereof, either alone or jointly with any other person or persons, upon any contract, and upon and for any debt, damage, or demand whatsoever which the said Union Bank might have had if such cause of action had arisen with a stranger or strangers, and not with a Member or Members, or Shareholder or Shareholders, or Partner or Partners of or in the said Union Bank.

V. And it is hereby further enacted, that the Directors of the said Union Bank shall cause a Memorial, in the form and to the effect expressed in the Schedule to this Act, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit of, containing the name, residences, and descriptions of the Directors, Secretary, and Treasurer, and of the several persons being Members and Proprietors of the said Union Bank, to be verified by a declaration in writing, to be made before the Master in Equity of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, by the Secretary, or some one of the said Directors, for the time being, and the same shall be enrolled amongst the records of the said Supreme Court within twelve calendar months next after the passing of this Act; and whenever any new Director or Directors, or Secretary or Treasurer, shall be elected, a like Memorial shall be verified and enrolled as aforesaid, specifying in whose place or places, he or they shall be appointed, within twelve calendar months after such appointment, and whenever any person or persons shall cease or discontinue to be a Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Union Bank, a Memorial of his, her, or their names shall be in like manner verified within twelve calendar months after such person or persons shall have so ceased or discontinued to be such Proprietor or Proprietors, in the Form expressed in the said Schedule for that purpose; and when any new Proprietor or Proprietors shall be admitted into the said Union Bank, a Memorial of his, her, or their names shall be in like manner verified and enrolled among the records of the said Supreme Court of Judicature within twelve calendar months afterwards, according to the Form in the said Schedule. Provided always, that if any declaration so made shall be false or untrue in any material particular, the person wilfully making such false declaration shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted, that until such Memorial as first hereinbefore mentioned shall have been deposited and enrolled as hereinbefore directed, no action or suit shall be brought by the said Union Bank under the authority of this Act, and until the Memorial by this Act required to be deposited and enrolled, in the event of any person or persons ceasing or discontinuing to be a Director or Secretary or Treasurer or Member of the said Union Bank, shall have been deposited and enrolled, as herein-before mentioned, the person or persons whose names shall appear in the last Memorial which shall have been made and enrolled shall be and are hereby declared to be liable to all such actions, suits, and executions upon judgment or decree, and other proceedings under this Act, in the same manner as if he, she, or they had not ceased or discontinued to be a Director, Secretary, or Treasurer, or Proprietor of the said Union Bank.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted, that an examined copy of every Memorial to be deposited and enrolled pursuant to this Act, certified to be a true copy by and under the hand and signature of the Keeper of Records and Monuments for the time being of the said Supreme Court of Judicature, shall be received in evidence as proof of the contents of such Memorial, and proof shall not be required that the person by whom the Memorial, purports to be verified, was, at the time of such verification, one of the Directors of the said Union Bank.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, that all and every judgment and judgments, decree and decrees, order and orders, made or pronounced in any action, suit, or proceedings in any Court of Law or Equity within the limits of the Territories of the East India Company against the Secretary or Treasurer for the time being of the said Union Bank, shall, subject to the express provisions of this Act, have the like effect and operation upon and against the property and funds of the said Union Bank as if such judgment, decree or order had been made or pronounced against all the Members of the said Union Bank, and as if all the Members of the said Union Bank had been parties before the Court to such action, suit and proceedings, and as if this Act had not passed.

IX. Provided always and it is hereby further enacted, that in case execution, upon any judgment or decree in any such action or suit obtained against the Secretary or Treasurer of the said Union Bank, as defendant or respondent or otherwise, shall have been issued and taken out against the funds and property of the said Union Bank, under the provisions of this Act, and shall be ineffectual for obtaining full payment and satisfaction for the sum or sums sought to be recovered, then and in such case execution upon any such judgment or decree shall be issued against any other Individual Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Union Bank successively, as it may become necessary to enforce payment and satisfaction of the said judgment or judgments. Provided also that every such Secretary or Treasurer in whose name any such action or suit shall be commenced, prosecuted, or defended, and every Director or Member against whom execution upon any judgment or decree obtained in any such action or suit shall be issued as aforesaid, or as hereinafter mentioned, shall always be reimbursed and paid out of the funds or property of the said Union Bank all such loss, damages, costs and charges, as by the event of any such proceedings he or they shall be put unto or become chargeable with, and if the funds or property of the said Union Bank shall be insufficient to pay the said loss, damages, costs or charges, then the deficiency shall be made good by the Proprietors for the time being of the said Union Bank. Provided also, that if any such execution against the Secretary or Treasurer or Member or Members for the time being of the said Union Bank shall be ineffectual for obtaining payment of the sum or sums sought to be recovered thereby, it shall be lawful for the party or parties so having obtained judgment or decree against the Secretary or Treasurer for the time being of the said Union Bank, to issue execution against any other person or persons who was or were a Member or Members thereof at the time the Contract or Contracts was or were entered into upon which such action or suit was or were instituted, but no such execution shall be issued against any other person than the actual party to the action or suit without leave first granted in open Court by the Court in which such action or suit may have been brought or instituted, and when motion shall be made or notice to the person or persons sought to be charged. Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall render such past Members or Proprietors liable for payment of any debt or claim for which such action, suit or proceedings may have been brought to which they would not have been liable by operation of Law as Partners in case any action or other proceeding had been originally brought against them for the same.

X. And whereas it is expedient that every Member of the said Union Bank against whom any execution shall be issued upon any judgment or decree under the authority of this Act should have an easy and expeditious mode of recovering all such losses, damages, costs and charges, as he or she shall be put to or become chargeable with in consequence thereof. It is therefore hereby enacted, that if any execution upon any judgment or decree obtained in any action, suit, or proceeding under this Act shall be issued against any other Proprietor or Member of the said Union Bank, and such Proprietor or Member shall not, within the space of one month next after the issuing thereof be reimbursed out of the funds or property of the said Union Bank, all such moneys, costs, charges, losses and expenses as he or she shall have paid or been put to or become chargeable with in consequence of such execution having been issued against him or her, it shall be lawful for such Member or Proprietor to divide such moneys or costs or charges, or so much thereof as he or she shall not have been reimbursed as aforesaid, into as many equal parts or shares as the Capital of the said Union Bank shall at that time be divided into, and each and every Proprietor for the time being of any share or shares in the said Company shall, in proportion to the number of shares which he or she may hold in the said Union Bank, pay one or more of such parts or shares upon demand to the Member or Proprietor against whom such execution shall have issued, or to his or her Executors or Administrators, and upon the neglect or refusal of any Proprietor of the said Company to pay upon demand his or her due and fair proportion of such moneys, costs and charges, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the Proprietor or such person to whom the same ought to have been paid, to sue for and recover the same in and by action, suit or plaint, against the Proprietor, or the Executors or Administrators of any Proprietor who shall so neglect or refuse as aforesaid, in Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature in Calcutta.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Secretary or Treasurer for the time being of the said Union Bank, or any Member of the said Union Bank, being the plaintiff, appellant, petitioner or prosecutor, or being of the defendant or respondent in any action, suit, petition, proceeding, prosecution or indictment, commenced, instituted or prosecuted in the Courts, and within the limits aforesaid, by or against the said Union Bank, shall not by reason thereof be deemed incompetent to be a witness in any such action, suit, petition, proceeding, prosecution or indictment; but such Secretary or Treasurer, or Member of the said Union Bank, as aforesaid, shall and may, if not otherwise interested or objectionable, be a good and competent witness, and be admissible and be admitted as such in all the Courts above mentioned, and by and before all Judges, Justices and others, within the limits aforesaid, in any such action, suit, petition, proceeding, prosecution or indictment, in the same manner as he or they might have been if his or their name or names had not been made use of as the plaintiff or appellant, petitioner or prosecutor, defendant or respondent in any such action, suit, petition, proceeding, prosecution or indictment, or other proceeding.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted, that any individual Member or Members of the said Union Bank, or person or persons who shall have been a Member or Members of the said Union Bank, and have parted with his, her or their shares and interests therein, and who shall claim payment of any dividends of the funds or profits of the said Union Bank due and payable to him her, or them, and not also disposed of and parted with along with such share or shares, or any other right or interest against the said Union Bank generally, shall and lawfully may commence and carry on in any Court of Equity within the limits aforesaid any suit or other proceeding against the Secretary or Treasurer of the said Union Bank for the time being, and in like manner such Secretary or Treasurer for the time being may commence and carry on in his own name, by and on behalf of the said Company, any suit or other proceeding in any Court of Equity within the limits aforesaid, against any individual Members of the said Union Bank, or person or persons who shall have been a Member or Members of the said Union Bank, and have parted with his, her, or their shares and interest therein against whom the said Union Bank generally may have any claim or demand, and all such suits and proceedings shall be as valid and effectual as if all the Members of the said Union Bank had been made parties, and every decree and order made therein shall be binding for or against the said Union Bank, and no abatement shall arise from the death, resignation or removal, or any act or proceeding of any such Secretary or Treasurer pending the suit, nor shall such suit be deemed defective by reason thereof. Provided always that in case, for the purpose of discovery or for any other purpose, any person or persons (whether Members of the said Union Bank or not) having claims or demands against the said Union Bank, shall be desirous to include any other Member or Members of the said Union Bank, besides the Secretary or Treasurer for the time being as a defendant or defendants in any bill or other proceeding in any Court of Equity within the limits aforesaid, it shall be lawful for him, her, or them so to do—any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And it is hereby further enacted, that no person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, having or claiming to have any demand upon or against the said Union Bank, shall, when the same has been so determined as to have been pleadable in bar against such person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, bring more than one action or suit in respect of such demand, and the proceedings in any action or actions, suit or suits, which may have been brought against the Secretary or Treasurer for the time being of the said Union Bank under the authority of this Act, if so determined, may be pleaded in bar of any action or actions, suit or suits, in any of the Courts aforesaid for the same cause against any other Secretary or Treasurer, or against any Member of the said Union Bank, and that in case of any demand which the said Union Bank now has or hereafter may have upon or against any person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, whether a Member or Members of the said Union Bank or not, and which shall have been determined in any action or suit, commenced or prosecuted by the Secretary or Treasurer for the time being of the said Union Bank, the proceedings in such action or suit may be pleaded in bar of any other action or suit, or actions or suits, in any of the Courts aforesaid for the same demand which may be commenced or prosecuted by the same, or any other Secretary or Treasurer of the said Union Bank.

XIV. Provided always and it is hereby further enacted, that nothing to this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to incorporate the said Union Bank, or to relieve or discharge the said Union Bank from any responsibility, contract, duty, or obligation whatever, to which by law they now are or at any time hereafter may be, subject or liable, either as between the said Union Bank and other parties or as between the said Union Bank, and any of the individual Members of the said Union Bank, or any them and others or amongst themselves, or in any manner whatsoever.

XV. And it is hereby further enacted, that this Act, and the provisions herein contained, shall extend and be construed to extend to the said Company, called the Union Bank at all times during the continuance thereof, whether the said Union Bank hath been, or be now, or shall hereafter be, composed of all, or of some of the persons, who were the original Members thereof, or of all or some of those persons, together with some other person or persons, or whether the said Union Bank, be, at the time of the passing of this Act, composed altogether of persons who were not original Members of the said Union Bank, or whether the said Union Bank shall hereafter be composed of persons who were not original Members thereof, or of persons all of whom shall become Members subsequently to the passing of this Act.

Whereas it is desirable, with a view to the better definition and security of landed property, the prevention of encroachments and disputes, and the identification of lands assessed to, or exempted from, the public revenue, that provision should be made for the establishment and maintenance of permanent marks to distinguish the boundaries of fields:

I. It is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful, within the Territories subject to the Presidency of Bombay, for such Revenue Officers as the Governor in Council may entrust with that authority, to require that marks be erected and maintained by the Owners or Occupants on the boundaries of fields, of such materials, and in such number as may appear to such Officers sufficient for permanently distinguishing the limits of those fields.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that the requisition shall be served on the persons owning or occupying each field according to the form A. annexed to this Act, and in the event of these persons not being found in the Village, that the said requisition shall be posted at the Village Chowree or other conspicuous place in the Village, which shall be held to be a sufficient service.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that in default of the Owners or Occupants of the fields complying with the requisition, the said Revenue Officers shall give directions for the erection and repair of such field boundary marks, the cost of which shall be equitably proportioned on the fields which they serve to distinguish, and shall be charged to the persons possessing a right of ownership or occupancy in such fields, or if there are no such persons forthcoming, to the revenues of the Village in which the fields are situated.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that no person being out of possession and claiming a right of ownership or occupancy in the fields, the cost of erecting or maintaining whose boundary marks has been charged to the revenues of the Village, in consequence of his neglecting to defray the same, shall have his claim allowed until he makes good all sums so charged.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that any person who may be convicted of wilfully erasing, removing, or injuring field boundary marks, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees for each mark so erased, removed, or injured, one half of which fine may be awarded on conviction to the informer, and the other half shall be chargeable with the cost of restoring the mark.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that authority for the assessment and realization of all sums due under the provisions of this Act, whether as costs or penalties, shall be vested in the Revenue Officers authorized to provide for the erection and maintenance of field boundary marks, and shall be exercised by them in conformity with the rules prescribed for the assessment and realization of Revenue demands in general, and that the proceedings of those Officers in all such matters shall be recorded in writing, and shall be subject to appeal to the Revenue Authorities to whom they are subordinate.

FORM A.

Whereas you are the Owner (Occupant, as the case may be) of the field in the Village of you are hereby required to fix boundary marks to the said field (by ridging or raising mounds of earth at the angles, or in such other mode as may be determined,) or to repair its present boundary, within days from this date, in default of which

N. W. PROVINCES.—REVENUE SETTLEMENT.

Act No. VIII. of 1846.

[Passed on the 15th December, 1846.

Recites the existence of some uncertainty as to the period for which the revenue settlement has been made in certain districts in the N. W. P. Enacts:

Whereas the Settlement of the several Districts of the North Western Provinces has been made for different periods; and whereas, from several causes, the duration of the Settlement, as stated in the engagements of the Malgoozars, does not always agree with that sanctioned by the Government; and whereas it is necessary to avoid the confusion and litigation which may hence arise, and also to provide for the continuance of the existing Settlements till a fresh revision shall take place:

I. It is therefore hereby enacted, that the Jumma of all villages included on 1st May, 1846, within the limits of the Districts in the said Provinces noted below, shall be considered fixed till the date inserted opposite to each District, so far as regards the claim of the Government to any increase upon the Jumma determined at the time of settlement, or as it stands subsequently altered by Government prior to 1st May, 1846.

III. Provided always and it is hereby declared, that persons holding land on special grants or on leases for longer periods than those specified in Section I. shall continue to hold them according to the terms of their several grants or leases.

An Act for authorizing the Government of Fort St. George anchorage within the Territories subject thereto.

Whereas Act IV. of 1842, entitled an Act for the better management of Boats and Catamarans, in the Madras Roads, and for the amendment of certain Harbour Regulations, has been found by experience to operate beneficially; and whereas it is expedient that Regulations similar in principle to the provisions contained in the said Act, but varying in detail if local circumstances require such variation, should be provided for all Ports and other places of anchorage within the Territories subject to the Government of the Presidency of Fort St. George:

I. It is therefore hereby enacted, that the Governor in Council of Fort St. George may from time to time make, in respect of each Port or other Place of anchorage within the Territories sub-Zillah Ahmednuggur) subject to the Regulations established for the administration of Civil and Criminal Justice in the Bombay Presidency be repealed.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that from and after the said day the administration of Civil and Criminal Justice, the Superintendence of the Police, and the Collection and Superintendence of the Revenues of every description within the said portions of Territory shall vest in such Agent to the Governor of Bombay as shall be appointed by the Governor of Bombay in Council, and shall be exercised by the said Agent with the aid of such Assistants as may be appointed by the said Governor in Council.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the said Governor in Council, by an Order in Council, to prescribe such rules as he may deem proper for the guidance of the Agent aforesaid, and of all the Officers subordinate to his control and authority, and to determine to what extent the decision of the Agent in Civil suits shall be final, and in what suits an appeal shall lie to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, and to define the authority to be exercised by the Agent in Criminal trials, and what cases he shall submit to the decision of the Sudder Foujdaree Adawlut.

[Passed on the 30th January, 1847.]

1. Collectors, &c., may fix boundaries of fields, or estates, and require marks to be set up by owners or occupiers.
2 and 3. Persons owning or occupying conterminous fields or estates may be served with notice to set up or repair boundary marks within a certain time and (3) upon their default Revenue officers may give directions for the same to be done.

4. Persons willfully erasing, removing or injuring boundary marks to be liable to a fine.

5. In what manner disputed boundary marks shall be fixed by Revenue officers.

6. Act IV. of 1840 not to extend to disputes of the nature herein provided for.

An Act for the establishment and maintenance of Boundary Marks in the North Western Provinces of Bengal.

Whereas it is desirable, with a view to the better definition and security of landed property, the prevention of encroachments and disputes, and the identification of lands assessed to, or exempted from, the Public Revenue, that provision should be made for the establishment and maintenance of permanent marks to distinguish the boundaries of Fields or Estates:

I. It is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful within the Territories subject to the Government of the North Western Provinces of Bengal, for Collectors of Land Revenue, or persons exercising the powers of Collector, or such Revenue Officers as the Lieutenant Governor may entrust with that authority, to fix the boundaries of Fields or Estates, and to require that marks be formed and maintained by the owners or occupants on the boundaries, of such materials and in such number and manner as may appear to such Officers sufficient for distinguishing the limits of those Fields or Estates, whenever they may be of opinion that such demarcation is necessary for the prevention or adjustment of disputes.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that notices shall be served on the persons owning or occupying the conterminous Fields or Estates, requiring them to form or repair the said boundary marks, within ten days from the date of the notice, and in the event of these persons not being found in the Village, that the said requisition shall be posted at the Village Chowree or Chopal, or other conspicuous place in the Village, which shall be held to be a sufficient service, notwithstanding it may afterwards appear that the owners or occupants were not correctly named or designated in the notice.
III. And it is hereby enacted, that in default of the owners or occupants of the Fields or Estates complying with the requisition, the said Revenue Officers shall give directions for the erection and repair of such boundary marks, the cost of which shall be equitably apportioned on the Fields or Estates which they serve to distinguish, and shall be charged to the persons possessing a right of ownership or occupancy in such Fields or Estates, and shall be realized in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that any person who may be convicted of wilfully erasing, removing or injuring such boundary marks, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees for each mark so erased, removed or injured; one half of which fine may be awarded on conviction to the informer, and the other half shall be chargeable with the cost of restoring the mark; whenever it may not be possible to detect the person who erased, removed or injured the boundary marks as aforesaid, the marks shall be re-erected or repaired at the charge of one or both parties, as the Collector or other Officer authorized to make the demarcation may consider just and equitable.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that disputed boundaries shall be fixed by Revenue Officers under the powers and in the manner prescribed in Regulations VII., 1822, and IX., of 1833, and shall be similarly open to appeal.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that Magistrates are prohibited from taking cognizance, under Act IV. of 1840, of boundary disputes of the nature of which provision is here made; but whenever they have reason to apprehend any breach of the peace in consequence of a disputed boundary, they shall certify the circumstances to the Collector of Land Revenue, who shall be bound immediately to mark off the boundary in the mode here indicated, and to uphold the possession of the parties according to the demarcation.

An Act for the Survey of Lands in the Town of Calcutta, within the Local limits of the Jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature.

Whereas it is expedient that a correct Survey should be made of all lands in the Town of Calcutta within the local limits of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature:

I. It is therefore hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor of Bengal to appoint an Officer to survey the lands situate within the said local limits, and such Officer shall proceed to survey the same and to register the names of the owners and occupiers thereof, as far as they can be ascertained, and such Officer shall, by public notification, invite all persons owning or

IV. And whereas such notification as is directed by Section I. of this Act, may not in all cases be effectual, it is therefore hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Surveying Officer to cause any person owning or occupying lands or tenements within the said local limits, or his agents or representatives, to be served with a special notice, under his official seal and signature, stating the purpose for which the attendance of such person is required, and any document essential for the purposes of this Act which such person is to bring with him, and the period within which such person is to attend, and if such person cannot be found, the notice shall be affixed to his usual place of residence, if that be within the said local limits, or, if not, then on the Premises to be surveyed. Provided always, that in all cases wherein a solemn declaration or affirmation would be allowed in Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature to be substituted for an oath, the said Surveying Officer shall substitute such solemn declaration or affirmation for an oath.

An Act for the encouragement of learning in the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company, by defining and providing for the enforcement of the right called Copyright therein.

Whereas doubts may exist whether the right called Copyright can be enforced by the Common Law of England in those parts of the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company into which the Common Law of England has been introduced:

And whereas doubts may exist whether the said right can be enforced by virtue of the principles of equity and good conscience in other parts of the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company:

And whereas, for the encouragement of learning, it is desirable that the existence of the said right should be placed beyond doubt, and that the said right should be made capable of easy enforcement in every part of the said Territories:

And whereas it is doubted whether the Act of Parliament, 5 and 6 Victoria, c. 45, entitled "An Act to amend the Law of Copyright," although such Act extends to every part of the British Dominions, has made appropriate and sufficient provisions for the enforcement in every part of the said Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company, of the said right by proprietors thereof: and whether the said Act of Parliament has made provision for the enforcement of the said right by or against any person not being subject to the jurisdiction of the Court established by Her Majesty's Charter:

I. It is therefore hereby enacted, that the Copyright in every book published in the life-time of its author within the said Territories, after the passing of the Act of Parliament, 3 and 4 Wm. 4, c. 85, entitled "An Act for effecting an arrangement with the East India Company, and for the better government of His Majesty's Indian Territories till the 30th day of April, 1854," shall endure for the natural life of such author and for the further term of seven years, commencing at the time of his death, and shall be the property of such author and his assigns: Provided always, that if the said term of seven years shall expire before the end of forty-two years from the publication of such book, the Copyright shall in that case endure for such period of forty-two years; and that the Copyright in every book published after the death of its author, and after the passing of the Act of Parliament last aforesaid, shall endure for the term of forty-two years from the first publication thereof, and shall be the property of the Proprietor of the author's manuscript, from which such book shall be first published, and his assigns.

II. And whereas it is expedient to provide against the suppression of books of importance to the public: It is enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council, on complaint made to them that the proprietor of the Copyright in any book published after the passing of this Act within the said Territories, has, after the death of its author, refused to republish, or to allow the republication of the same, and that by reason of such refusal, such book may be withheld from the public, to grant a licence to such complainant to publish such book in such manner and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, and it shall be lawful for such complainant to publish such book according to such licence.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that a Book of Registry wherein may be registered, as hereinafter enacted, the proprietorship in the Copyright of books and assignments thereof, and licences affecting such Copyright, shall be kept in the Office of the Secretary to the Government of India for the Home Department, and shall at all convenient times be opened to the inspection of any person on payment of Eight Annas for every entry which shall be searched for or inspected in the said book, and that such Officer shall, whenever thereunto reasonably required, give a copy of any entry in such book, certified under his hand, to any person requiring the same, on payment to him of the sum of Two Rupees, and such copies so certified shall be received in evidence in all Courts and in all summary proceedings, and shall be primâ facie proof of the proprietorship or assignment of Copyright or licence as therein expressed, but subject to be rebutted by other evidence.

IV. And it is enacted, that if any person shall wilfully make, or cause to be made, any false entry in the Registry Book aforesaid, or shall wilfully produce, or cause to be tendered in evidence, any paper falsely purporting to be a copy of any entry in the said Book, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall be punished with imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding three years. [Repealed by Act XVII., 1862.]

V. And it is enacted, that after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the proprietor of Copyright in any book, published after the passing of the said Act of Parliament, 3 and 4 Wm. 4, c. 85, to make entry in the Registry Book of the title of such book, the time of the first publication, and the name and place of abode of the publisher thereof, and the name and place of abode of the proprietor of the Copyright in the said book, or of any portion of such Copyright in the form in that behalf given in the Schedule to this Act annexed, upon payment of the sum of Two Rupees to the said Secretary, and that it shall be lawful for every such registered proprietor to assign his interest, or any portion of his interest therein, by making entry in the said Book of Registry of such assignment, and of the name and place of abode of the Assignee thereof, in the form given in that behalf in the said Schedule, on payment of the like sum; and such assignment so entered shall be effectual in Law to all intents and purposes whatsoever, without being subject to any sum or duty, and shall be of the same force and effect as if such assignment had been made by Deed.

VI. And it is enacted, that if any person shall deem himself aggrieved by any entry made under colour of this Act in the said Book of Registry, it shall be lawful for such person to apply by motion to the Supreme Court of Calcutta, or, if the Court shall not be then sitting, to any Judge of such Court sitting in chambers, for an order that such entry may be expunged or varied, and that upon any such application to the said Court, or to a judge aforesaid, such Court or Judge shall make such order for expunging, varying, or confirming such entry, either with or without costs, as to such Court or Judge shall seem just, and the said Secretary shall, on the production to him of any such order for expunging or varying any such entry, expunge or vary the same, according to the requisitions of such order.
VII. And it is enacted, that if any person shall after the passing of this Act print, or cause to be printed, either for sale or exportation, any book in which there shall be subsisting Copyright, without the consent in writing of the proprietor thereof, or shall have in his possession for sale or hire any such book so unlawfully printed without such consent as aforesaid, such offender, if he shall have so offended within the local limits of the jurisdiction of any of the Courts of Judicature established by Her Majesty's Charter, shall be liable to a special action on the case in such Court, and if he shall have so offended in any other part of the Territories subject to the Government of the East Indian Company, to a suit in the Zillah Court within the jurisdiction of which he shall have so offended, which shall and may be prosecuted in the same manner in which any other action of damages may be brought and prosecuted there, and if he shall have so offended in any such last-mentioned part of the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company in which there is no Zillah Court, to a suit in the highest local Court exercising original Civil jurisdiction in such part of the said Territories.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that after the passing of this Act in any suit or action brought in any of the Courts of Judicature established by Her Majesty's Charter under the provisions of this Act against any person, for printing any such book for sale, hire, or exportation, or for selling, publishing, or exposing to sale or hire, or causing to be sold, published, or exposed to sale or hire, or for having in his possession for sale or hire, any such book so unlawfully printed, the defendant, on pleading thereto, shall give to the plaintiff a notice in writing of any objections on which he means to rely on the trial of such action and if the nature of his defence be that the plaintiff in such action was not the author or first publisher of the book in which he shall by such action claim Copyright, or is not the proprietor of the Copyright therein, or that some other person than the plaintiff was the author or first publisher of such book, or is the proprietor of the Copyright therein, then the defendant shall specify in such notice the name of the person whom he alleges to have been the author or first publisher of such book, or the proprietor of the Copyright therein, together with the title of such book, and the time when and the place where such book was first published, otherwise the defendant in such action shall not, at the trial or hearing of such action, be allowed to give any evidence that the plaintiff in such action was not the author or first publisher of the book in which he claims such Copyright as aforesaid, or that he was not the proprietor of the Copyright therein, and at such trial or hearing no other objection shall be allowed to be made on behalf of such defendant than the objections stated in such notice, or that any other person was the author or first publisher of such book, or the proprietor of the Copyright therein than the person specified in such notice, or give in evidence in support of his defence any other book than one substantially corresponding in title, time, and place of publication, with the title, time, and place specified in such notice.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, that after the passing of this Act in any such suit or action as last aforesaid brought in any Zillah Court or other local Court as aforesaid the defendant shall state in his answer all such matters as he means to rely on, and which by the last preceding Section the defendant in any suit or action brought in any of the Courts of Judicature established by Her Majesty's Charter is required to give notice of in writing, otherwise such defendant shall be subject to the same consequences for any omission in his answer as a defendant is made subject to by the last preceding Section for any omission in his notice.

X. And it is hereby enacted, that when any publisher or other person shall, within the said Territories, before or at the time of the passing of the Act, but after the passing of the said Act of Parliament, 3 and 4 Wm. 4, c. 85, have projected, conducted, and carried on, or shall hereafter project, conduct, or carry on, or be the proprietor of any Encyclopaedia, Review, Magazine, Periodical work, or work published in a series of Books or Parts, or any book whatsoever, and shall have employed or shall employ any persons to compose the same, or any Volumes, Parts, Essays, Articles, or Portions thereof, for publication in, or as part of the

I. It is therefore enacted, that the said Commissioners shall be Trustees for and on behalf of the Government of Fort William in Bengal, and of the inhabitants of Calcutta, and shall sue and be sued at Law and in Equity in Her Majesty’s Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, by the name of the Commissioners for the improvement of the Town of Calcutta, and shall have a common seal, and shall have power to take, purchase and hold lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, chattels and other property, as such Trustees for the purposes aforesaid.

IV. And it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for all parties being seized, possessed of, or entitled to any such lands, buildings, or tenements, or any estate or interest therein to sell and convey or release the same to the said Commissioners, and to enter into all necessary agreements for that purpose, and particularly it shall be lawful for all or any of the following parties so seized, possessed, or entitled as aforesaid, so to sell, convey, or release (that is to say) all corporations, tenants in tail, or for life, married women seized in their own right, or entitled to dower, guardians, committee of lunatics and idiots, trustees or feoffees in trust for charitable or other purposes, executors and administrators, and all parties for the time being entitled to the receipt of the rents and profits of any such lands in possession, or subject to any estate in dower, or to any lease for life or for lives, or for years, or any less interest, and the power so to sell and convey or release as aforesaid, may lawfully be exercised by all such parties, not only on behalf of themselves and their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators and successors, but also for and on behalf of every person entitled in reversion, remainder, or expectancy, after them, or in defeasance of the estates of such parties, and as to such married women, whether they be of full age or not, as if they were sole and of full age, and as to such guardians on behalf of their wards, and as to such committee on behalf of the lunatics and idiots of whom they are the committees respectively, and that to the same extent as such wives, wards, lunatics, and idiots, respectively could have exercised the same power under the authority of this Act if they had respectively been under no disability, and as to such Trustees, Executors and Administrators on behalf of their cestui-que trusts whether infants, issue unborn, lunatics, feme covert, or other persons, and that to the same extent as such cestui-que trust respectively could have exercised the same powers under the authority of this Act if they had respectively been under no disability.

V. And it is enacted, that the purchase money, consideration or compensation to be paid or given for any lands, buildings or tenements to be purchased or taken from any part under any disability or incapacity, and not having any power to sell or convey such lands, except under the provisions of this Act, and the compensation to be paid for any permanent damage or injury to any hereby empowered and required to increase the same, by investing the interest payable thereon, as the same shall become due and payable, in the purchase of other Company's Paper, and so on, from time to time, so that the said Sinking Fund shall accumulate at compound interest until the same shall be of sufficient amount to pay off the said principal debts, or one of them, or some part of some one of them, at which time the same shall be so applied in paying off the same in manner hereinafter mentioned.

LXII. And it is enacted, that every mortgage of assessments, taxes, and duties authorised to be made under the provisions of this Act, shall be by deed, in which the consideration shall be truly stated, that every such deed shall be under the common seal of the said Commissioners, and signed by three of them at the least at one of their annual, quarterly, or special meetings, and may be according to the form in the Schedule [A] to this Act annexed, or to the like effect, and the respective mortgagees shall be entitled, one with another, to their respective proportions of the assessments, taxes, tolls, and duties comprised in such mortgages, according to the respective sums which in such mortgages are mentioned to be advanced by such mortgagees respectively, and to be repaid the sums so advanced with interest without any preference one above another, by reason of priority of advance, or of the date of any such mortgage respectively.

LXIII. And it is enacted, that the expenses of every mortgage shall, from time to time, be defrayed by the said Commissioners out of the money raised by the same.

LXIV. And it is enacted, that a Register of all the said mortgages shall be kept by the Clerk of the said Commissioners, and within fourteen days after the date of any mortgage an entry or memorial, specifying the number and date of such mortgage, and the sum secured thereby, and the names of the parties thereto, with their proper additions, shall be made in the said Register, and the said Register may be perused at all reasonable times by any mortgagee, or by any person interested in any such mortgage, without fee or reward.

BENGAL AND MADRAS.—CRIMINAL SENTENCES.

Act No. XIX. of 1848.

[Passed on the 2nd September, 1848.

2. Nizamut A. in Bengal and Foujdarce A. in Madras, in case of persons sentenced without reference, may, on view of abstracts and Calendar, annul the sentence, and order same to be amended.
3. Niz. A. and Fouj. A. may, in case of prisoners punished without reference, require the evidence to be certified to them, and may annul the verdict, &c., or mitigate their sentence.
4. Niz. and Fouj. may call for the whole record of any criminal trial and pass orders thereon, but not increase punishment awarded, nor punish person already acquitted.
For better defining the Law as to revision of the sentences of Subordinate Criminal Courts in the Presidencies of Bengal and Madras.

Whereas it has been doubted how far Section V., Regulation IX., 1831, of the Bengal Code is repealed by Act XXXI., 1841, and what power the Foujdarree Adawlut at Madras has under Section XXXV., Act VII., 1843, it is enacted as follows:

I. So much of Section V., Regulation IX., 1831, of the Bengal Code, as is now in force, and also Section XXXV., Act VII., 1843, are repealed.

Repealed by Act XVII., 1862.

ACT NO. XX. OF 1848.

[Passed on the 23rd September, 1848.]

1 & 4. Proprietor or farmer refusing to attend Collector's Court when only summoned under recited Regulations, or not furnishing accounts, Collector may impose a daily fine, &c., not exceeding 50 Rs. recoverable in same manner as arrears of revenue: but (4) not more than Rs. 50 to be levied, unless authorized by Commissioner.

2. Collector to report the imposition of fines and amount levied to Commissioner of Revenue.

3. Collector's orders under this Act appealable to Commissioner, but fine notwithstanding appeal, may be levied.

4. (See ante. 1.)

5. Act not to repeal the power of imposing daily fines, &c.

6. Interprets the word Collector.

7. Act not to extend to N. W. Provinces.

An Act for better enforcing the attendance of Proprietors and Farmers of Land before Collectors of Land Revenue in the Lower Provinces of the Bengal Presidency.

Whereas, by sundry Regulations of the Bengal Code, provision is made for the imposition of a daily fine, by the Board of Revenue, or other authority exercising the powers of that Board, on any proprietor or farmer of land subject to the provisions contained in the said several Regulations, who, when duly summoned by the Collector or other Officer exercising the powers of Collector, shall omit or refuse to attend, or to cause his Officer or Agent to attend, or to furnish the accounts or documents required, and shall not show sufficient cause for such omission; and it is further provided that the fine, when confirmed by Government, is to be levied by the same process as is prescribed for the recovery of arrears of revenue; and whereas, in many cases, by the delay thus occasioned, the whole burden of the penalty is greatly increased beyond what would be necessary, if summary power were given to the Officer by whom the requisition is made, to impose and levy reasonable fines, subject to review by the Commissioner of Revenue and other superior authority, it is enacted as follows:

I. If any proprietor or farmer of land shall omit or refuse to attend, or to cause his Officer or Agent to attend, when duly summoned by the Collector, in any case specified in any of the said Regulations, by the time prescribed in the notice issued by the Collector, or shall omit or refuse to furnish the accounts or documents required, and shall not show sufficient cause for such omission, the Collector may impose, of his own authority, such daily fine, to be payable daily until compliance with the requisition, as he may think adequate to the situation and circumstances in life of the defaulter, not exceeding in any case the daily fine of Fifty Rupees: and the amount of such fine, accruing due from time to time, may be levied without further confirmation, by the same process as is prescribed for the recovery of arrears of revenue.

II. The Collector shall forthwith report the imposition of every such fine, and the amount thereof, and also from time to time the amount levied, to the Commissioner of Revenue, who shall report the same for the information of the local Government.

III. Every order passed by a Collector under this Act shall be appealable in the usual manner to the Commissioner of Revenue, and other superior authority; but no such appeal shall avail to prevent the levy of any fine so imposed pending the appeal.

IV. Whenever the amount levied under any such order issued for any default by authority of a Collector under this Act, shall have exceeded Five Hundred Rupees, the Collector shall report the case specially to the Commissioner of Revenue; and no further levy for such default shall be made, otherwise than by authority of the Commissioner of Revenue.

V. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to repeal the power of imposing daily fines, and of levying the fines so imposed, in the manner prescribed by the said several Regulations.

VI. The word "Collector" used in this Act shall be taken to mean any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Collector.

VII. This Act shall not extend to the North West Provinces of the Presidency of Bengal.

II. The several Courts of Justice established by Royal Charter, instead of directing an issue to be tried on a feigned wager for ascertaining any disputed fact, in the exercise, as well of the Equity, or Admiralty, or any other Jurisdiction, as of the common law jurisdiction of the Court, may issue summories to witnesses, and cause them to be examined orally in open Court as witnesses in the cause; and the witnesses so summoned shall be bound to attend and give their evidence in the same manner, and under the like penalties for neglect or disobedience, or for giving false evidence, as any witness duly summoned to give evidence according to the practice of the Court before the passing of this Act.

5. This Act not to affect the authority of the E. I. C in Bunganapilly.

An Act to amend the Act XII. of 1844.

Whereas it is deemed expedient that the Act No. XII. of 1844, entitled "An Act for better securing the observance of an Exact Discipline in the Indian Navy," should be amended as hereinafter is mentioned, and whereas the Court of Directors of the East India Company have given their previous sanction to the several enactments hereinafter contained, it is enacted as follows:

I. From and after the First day of February, 1849, the Articles and Orders hereinafter following, as well in time of Peace as in time of War, shall be observed and put in execution in manner hereinafter mentioned in addition to the thirty-five Articles and Orders contained in the said Act, that is to say:

36th. Every person belonging to the Indian Navy who shall be guilty of manslaughter, or any other offence against the person or of any offence against the property, of any subject of Her Majesty, or any other person entitled to Her Majesty's protection, or to the protection of the respective Governments of the East India Company, or any other person whomsoever, not being an Enemy of Her Majesty or of the East India Company (and the punishment of which offence is not provided for by the said Act), shall be liable to transportation for life, or for a term of years, or to such other punishment according to the nature and degree of the offence, as a Court Martial shall award.

37th. All Insubordination, Disorders, Irregularities, and Neglects which any person belonging to the Indian Navy may be guilty of, to the prejudice of good order or of discipline in the Naval Service of the East India Company, and all disgraceful conduct of a cruel, or dishonest, or indecent, or malicious, or mischievous character, though not particularly specified in the said Act, or in this Act, shall be liable to such punishment, having regard to the nature and degree of the offence, as a Court Martial shall adjudge.

38th. Where any person belonging to the Indian Navy (not being of the Rank of an Officer), shall be guilty of any offence which the Officer in Command of the Ship or Vessel shall deem necessary to be punished without trial by Court Martial, the offence shall be investigated by such Commanding Officer; and the offender shall be liable to such punishment (not extending to life or limb, or to transportation, or imprisonment exceeding six days, or to any corporal punishment exceeding twelve lashes), as such Officer shall by his Warrant adjudge.

II. In the several cases in which a Court Martial is by the said Act authorized to award the punishment of death and also in grave cases of embezzlement against the 8th and 24th Articles of the said Act, and also in the case of grave offences against the 20th and 21st of the said Articles, a Court Martial may, if it shall adjudge the same to be proper, award sentence of transportation for life or for a term of years.

III. In all cases where a capital punishment shall have been awarded by a Court Martial, it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council (if he shall think the circumstances of the case make it proper so to do), to order the offender to be transported for life, or for a certain term of years.

IV. In cases where any sentence of transportation shall be passed under the provisions of the said Act, or of this Act, or any sentence of death be commuted to transportation, the offender shall be conveyed to or left at some one of the Presidencies of India, and shall be liable to be dealt with, as in the case of other offenders sentenced to transportation, and shall be subject to all such orders for carrying the sentence into execution as shall in that behalf be given by the Governor General in Council, or, if the offender shall be at the Presidency of Fort St. George or the Presidency of Bombay, then by the Governor in Council of such Presidency; subject, however, in the last-mentioned case, to any orders made by the Governor General in Council, in case any such orders shall have been so made.

V. The Governor General of India in Council, and the Governors in Council of Madras and Bombay respectively, shall have full power and authority from time to time, as there shall be occasion, to direct any superior Officer, Captain, or Commander of the Indian Navy, who shall be in any Port of the East Indies, to hold Courts Martial in any such Port as shall be found most expedient and for the good of the East India Company's Service; and such superior Officer, Captain, or Commander shall preside at such Court Martial.

VI. And for removing the doubts which have been entertained as to the effect and intention of the 9th Section of the said Act, No. XII. of 1844, in relation to the Officers of whom Courts Martial, to be held or appointed under that Act, shall be composed, it is declared and enacted, that any Officers of the Indian Navy, ordered by Government or the Superintendents of the Indian Navy to be present at any Court Martial, for the purpose of serving thereat, if required, shall be eligible to act on any Court Martial, although such Officers may not be commissioned to any Ship or vessel.

VII. If on any occasion there shall not be present a sufficient number of Superior Officers, Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants of the Indian Navy to form a Court Martial, for the purposes of the said Act or of this Act, the required number of Officers may, with the sanction of the Government, or Officer by whose authority the Court Martial shall have been convened, be made up or completed by any Officer or Officers in the Military Service of the East India Company, then beingCommissioned and in Pay, and of the Rank either of Major or Captain, who may be present, and may be ordered, or be ready, to afford his or their services on such Court Martial; and, for default of such or of a sufficient number of such, then the deficiency may be supplied by any Officer or Officers of Her Majesty's Naval Service of sufficient Rank, according to the said Act, who may be present, and may be ready to afford his or their services on such Court Martial; and the proceedings of a Court Martial so constituted shall be valid and effectual.

VIII. The Clauses and Provisions of the said Act No. XII, of 1848, for regulating the places to which and persons to whom the same is to extend, and also the other Clauses and Provisions thereof shall apply to this Act, and the two Acts shall be construed together as one Act, and the same effect shall be given thereto and to the several Articles and Provisions thereof respectively, as if the Articles and Provisions contained in this Act had been originally contained in the said Act No. XII. of 1844, and had formed part of the Articles and Provisions of that Act.

4. Government may order trial to be had before what tribunal.

5. If offence charged was committed in foreign territory administered by Officer of E. I. C., &c., offender may be sent back to such territory for trial.

8. Interpretation of word "Government."

9. Commissioner or other officer delegated by Government: may exercise these powers.

An Act to provide more effectually for the punishment of offences committed in Foreign States.

Whereas divers Regulations of the Bengal, Madras, and Bombay Codes have been made from time to time for the trial of Native Subjects of the British Government, committing criminal offences beyond the limits of the British Provinces, and it is expedient to make the same more effectual and uniform, and to extend the application thereof, it is enacted as follows:

I. The undermentioned Regulations and parts of Regulations are rescinded, that is to say:

Regulation V. of 1809, Regulation VIII. of 1813, Section VI. of Regulation I., and the whole of Regulation IX. of 1822, and Regulation VIII. of 1829, of the Bengal Code; Regulation II. of 1829, and Regulation XII. of 1832, of the Madras Code; Section IV. of Regulation XI. of 1827, of the Bombay Code; except so far as any of them rescinds any former Regulation.
II. All subjects of the British Government, and also all persons in the Civil or Military Service of the said Government, while actually in such service, and for six months afterwards, and also all persons who shall have dwelt for six months within the British Territories under the Government of the East India Company, subject to the laws of the said Territories, who shall be apprehended within the said Territories, or delivered into the custody of a Magistrate within the said Territories, wherever apprehended, shall be amenable to the law for all offences committed by them within the Territory of any Foreign Prince or State; and may be bailed or committed for trial as hereafter provided, on the like evidence as would warrant their being held to bail or committed for the same offence, if it had been committed within the British Territories.

III. The Committing Magistrate, immediately, and before the trial, shall report every such case to the Government, and shall obey the orders which he shall receive thereon.

IV. The Government may order the trial to be had before one of the established Courts of Criminal Judicature, which would be competent to try the person charged for the offence, if it had been committed within the British Territories.

V. When the offence is charged to have been committed in the Territory of any Foreign Prince or State, administered by Officers acting under the authority of the East India Company, in which Territory a Court competent to try the person charged for the offence, is established by authority of the Governor General of India in Council, the Government may order such person to be conveyed in custody out of the British Territories, for the purpose of delivering him up for trial before such Court.

VI. When the person charged is committed, the form of the warrant shall specify the commitment to be until the orders of Government can be received and acted on; when he is bailed, the form of the bail-bond shall be, in the first instance, to appear before the Magistrate on a certain day assigned, allowing reasonable time for receipt of the orders of Government, and on such subsequent days as the Magistrate from time to time shall require, and if Government shall order the person charged to be tried within the Presidency, the Magistrate may cause the bail-bond to be renewed in the usual form, to appear and take his trial at the Court appointed for the purpose.
VII. In either case, the special order of the Government shall be deemed full authority, either for the trial and punishment of the person charged within the British Territories, or for conveying him in custody out of the British Territories, as aforesaid.

VIII. The word "Government" as used in the third and following Sections of this Act, means the Governor or Governors in Council, or other person or persons having supreme executive authority in the Presidency or place to which the committing Magistrate belongs.

IX. The authority hereinbefore given to the Government may be also exercised by any Commissioner or other person acting in the Civil Service of the East India Company, to whom the Governor General in Council shall have delegated authority to receive reports and give orders in cases within this Act.

The Indian Penal Code extends to Offences under this Act. See I. P. C., ss. 3, 4.

6. Person under sentence of imprisonment, appearing to be of unsound mind, may be removed to Lunatic Asylum, and kept till he shall again become of sound mind, &c.

7. Interpretation of the word "Government."

An Act for the Safe Custody of Criminal Lunatics.

Whereas it is expedient to declare what unsoundness of mind excuses the commission of criminal acts, and to provide for the safe custody of persons found to have committed such acts, but acquitted by reason of unsoundness of mind, it is enacted as follows:

I. No person, who does an act, which, if done by a person of sound mind, is an offence, shall be acquitted of such offence for unsoundness of mind, unless the Court or Jury, as the case may be, in which according to the constitution of the Court, the power of conviction or acquittal is vested, shall find that, by reason of unsoundness of mind, not wilfully caused by himself, he was unconscious, and incapable of knowing, at the time of doing the said act, that he was doing an act forbidden by the law of the land.

II. Whenever a person charged with any offence shall be acquitted, because he is within the exception made by the foregoing Section, the Court or Jury shall give a special judgment or verdict, that he did the act charged against him, being then of unsound mind, so as to excuse him according to law.
III. Whenever such special judgment or verdict as aforesaid shall have been given against any person, the Court before which the trial was had shall order him to be kept in safe custody, in such place and manner as to the Court shall seem fit, until the pleasure of the Government can be known thereon: and thereupon the Government may order such person to be kept in strict custody, for such time and in such manner as to the Government shall seem fit.

IV. In all cases in which, before the passing of this Act, any person has been acquitted of any offence, on the ground of insanity, lunacy, idiocy, or unsoundness of mind, such person may be kept in the same strict custody in which persons may be kept, who shall be hereafter acquitted for unsoundness of mind.

V. No person, against whom any such special judgment or verdict shall have been given, shall be entitled to be discharged out of custody, on being restored to soundness of mind, unless by order and at the discretion of the Government.

VI. Whenever it shall appear to the Government that any person, imprisoned by the sentence of any Court, is of unsound mind, the Government, by a warrant which shall set forth the grounds of belief that such prisoner is of unsound mind, may order the removal of such prisoner to a Lunatic Asylum, or other fit place of safe custody, there to be kept and treated as the Government shall order; and when it shall appear to the Government that such prisoner has become of sound mind, the Government, by a warrant directed to the person having charge of him, shall remand such prisoner to the prison from which he was removed, if then still liable to be kept in custody, or, if not, shall order him to be discharged out of custody.

VII. The word "Government" in this Act shall be taken to mean the Governor, or Governor in Council, or other person or persons administering the Government of the Presidency or place where the trial is had.

XVII. The Governor General of India in Council shall refer every such report, as last aforesaid, to the consideration of the Advocate General of the East India Company in Bengal, who shall thereupon, if he shall think fit, proceed summarily, by petition, for an account against the said Administrator General, or against the late Administrator General, after his removal from office, or against his personal representatives in case of his death, in respect of all or any of the Estates then or formerly under his care, as the said Advocate General shall think fit; and shall have power to exhibit interrogatories to the said Administrator General, or other person or persons defendants, who shall be bound to answer the same as fully as if the same had been contained in a Bill filed for the like purpose; and the Court shall have power, on any such petition filed, to examine orally the parties before it and all witnesses, or to refer the accounts to be taken in the ordinary way.

XXIII. The Administrator General shall not be bound to take out Letters of Administration to the effects of any deceased person on account of whose Estate he shall grant any such Certificate, but may do so, if he shall discover any fraud or misrepresentation made to him, or that the value of the Estate exceeded Five Hundred Rupees.

XXIV. For every such Certificate the Administrator General shall be entitled to charge a fee calculated after the rate of Three Rupees in the Hundred on the amount mentioned in the Certificate.

XXV. to time, be fixed, with the sanction of the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium; and such fee, tax, or duty, may be made payable in advance, or at such period as may be settled by the Collector.

X. The Collector may withhold or recall a license, if any such fee, tax, or duty be not duly paid according to the conditions upon which the license is granted, or in case of a breach of any of the other conditions thereof; or with the sanction of the Commissioner of Abkaree, for any other cause, giving one month’s notice of such withdrawal; and any person selling, by retail, any Spirituous or Fermented Liquors, or intoxicating drugs above specified, within the Town of Calcutta, whilst such license is withheld or after it is recalled, shall be subject to all the penalties provided by this Act for the unlicensed sale of Spirituous or Fermented Liquors or intoxicating drugs.

XIV. A breach of any of the conditions of a license granted under this Act shall, besides entailing forfeiture of the license, be punishable by a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees; and such fine shall be recoverable from the licensed Dealer, notwithstanding that such breach may have been owing to the default or carelessness of the servant or other person in charge of the shop.

XV. Any person, not being a licensed Dealer, having in his possession, and any person carrying within the Town of Calcutta any greater quantity of spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs above specified, or any preparation or admixture of

[Amended by Act III., 1856.]
XX. If the Collector has good reason to believe, either from information given by any Abkaree Officer or other person, to be taken down in writing, or from his own knowledge, or from the proceedings in any other case, that any spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs, liable to confiscation under this Act, are kept or concealed in any place, the Collector, by warrant under his hand, may empower any Abkaree Officer, above the rank of jemadar of Peons, between sunrise and sunset, but always in the presence of a Constable or other Officer of the peace, to enter into every such place, where any such liquors or drugs are suspected to be kept or concealed, and to seize and carry away such liquors or drugs, and, in case of resistance, to break open any door, and to force and remove any other obstacle to such entry, search, seizure, or removal as aforesaid; and to arrest and detain the owner or occupier of the premises, with all parties whom he suspects to be concerned in the unlawful keeping or concealing of such liquors or drugs, whom he shall find on the premises: provided that, where there is ground to suspect that such liquors or drugs are unlawfully concealed in any Zenana, the Officer charged with the execution of the warrant shall follow, as closely as may be, the rules for the seizure of property so concealed, adopted by the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William.

forthwith either release the person arrested, or send him in custody to a Justice of the Peace for the Town of Calcutta.

XXIII. Every person, who shall maliciously give false information against any person, for being engaged in the unlicensed sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs, or for having in his possession, or carrying, or in respect of there being in any house or shop any spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs, in contravention of this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment in the Common Gaol, for a period not exceeding six months, or to both.

XXVII. Any officer employed in the Aberaree Department, who shall unlawfully release or connive at the escape of any person arrested under this Act, or connive at the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs, without license, or by any licensed dealer, contrary to the terms of such license, or act in a manner inconsistent with his duty, for the purpose of enabling any person to do anything whereby any of the provisions of this Act may be evaded or broken, or the Abkaree Revenue defrauded, shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

XXVIII. Any Abkaree Officer who shall ask or take any gratuity, not authorised by any Law or Order of Government, or of the Board of Customs, Salt, and Opium, in consideration of doing, or of omitting to do any act in his official capacity, and any person who shall offer a bribe to any such Officer, in order to induce such Officer to act in a manner inconsistent with his duty, shall be liable, for every such offence, to a fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

XXIX. XXX. Whenever any goods or chattels shall be seized as aforesaid, and within one Calendar Month no person shall appear before the Collector to claim the same, the Justice shall examine into the cause of seizure, at a place and time, of which notice shall have been given by the Collector in the "Calcutta Gazette," and give judgment for the confiscation of such of the goods and chattels, as, upon such examination, shall appear to him liable to forfeiture; and, upon confiscation thereof, shall issue his warrant for the disposal of them, as if the owner had been summoned to attend the said Justice.

XII. The duties herein directed to be performed by the Clerk and Bailiffs respectively of the Court of Small Causes, shall be performed in such cases as are tried by a Judge of the Supreme Court, by such Ministerial Officers of the Supreme Court as shall be, from time to time, appointed by the said Judge of the Supreme Court for that purpose, and the persons so appointed shall have all the powers and protections by this Act given to the Clerk and Bailiffs of the Court of Small Causes respectively, and shall receive such remuneration for their services out of the fees received in the causes tried by a Judge of the Supreme Court as he shall deem reasonable, and the residue shall form part of the general fund of the Court of Small Causes.

There shall be a Clerk for every Court holden under this Act, whom the Judges of the Court shall appoint, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, and may remove, subject to the like approval; if necessary, additional Clerks may be appointed with the sanction of the Governor in Council.

moneys received by them under this Act, or which they may become liable to pay for any misbehaviour in their office.

XIX. There shall be payable in the Courts holden under this Act the fees set forth in the annexed Schedule, beside the sum of Two Annas in the Rupee on the amount of the sum claimed, which fees shall be paid over to an account to be termed the General Fund of the Court.

XX. The rateable fee or commission shall be paid by the plaintiff before the summons issues; the other fees on every proceeding shall be paid in the first instance by the plaintiff or party on whose behalf such proceeding is to be had, on or before such proceeding; if the plaintiff recovers a less sum than he has demanded, the defendant shall not, in any case, be required to repay to him more than the fees and commission calculated upon the sum recovered. If the case is settled by agreement of the parties, before hearing, half the amount of the fees paid up to that time shall be returned to the parties by whom they have been severally paid. The Judges of the said Court may at their discretion grant summons to poor plaintiffs without deposit, or with a partial deposit of fees and commission, and also may remit costs wholly or partially to poor suitors.

XXI. The Governor in Council may, at any time, lessen the amount of the fees to be taken in the Courts holden under this Act in such manner as to him shall seem fit, and may again increase such fees, so that the scale of fees given in this Act be not in any case surpassed.

XXII. The Governor in Council shall, from time to time, make such rules as to him shall seem meet for securing the balances and other sums of money in the hands of any Officers of every Court holden under this Act, and for the due accounting for and application of all such balances and other sums of money.

XXIV. A Seal shall be made for every Court holden under this Act, under the direction of the Governor in Council, and all summonses and other process issuing out of the Court shall be sealed or stamped with the Seal of the Court; and every person who shall forge the Seal or any process of the Court, or who shall serve or enforce any such forged process, knowing the same to be forged, or deliver or cause to be delivered to any person any paper falsely purporting to be a copy of any summons or other process of the said Court, knowing the same to be false, or who shall act, or profess to act under any false colour or pretence of the process of the said Court, shall be guilty of felony.

XXV. All suits, where the debt or damage claimed or value of the property in dispute is not more than Five Hundred Rupees, whether on balance of account or otherwise, may be brought in the Court of Small Causes; and all such suits brought in the said Court shall be heard and determined in a summary way, and every defence which would be deemed good in the Supreme Court sitting as a Court of Equity shall be a good bar to any legal demand in the Court of Small Causes. Provided always, that the Court shall not have jurisdiction in any matter concerning the revenue, or concerning any Act ordered or done by the Governor, or Governor General, or any Member of the Council of India, or of any Presidency, in his public capacity, or done by any person by order of the Governor General or Governor in Council, or concerning any act ordered or done by any Judge or Judicial Officer in the execution of his office, or by any person in pursuance of any judgment or order of any Court, or any such Judge or Judicial Officer, or in any suit for libel or slander.

XXVI. On the application of any person desirous to bring a suit under this Act, the Clerk of the Court shall issue, under the seal of the Court a summons which shall be numbered, and shall set forth the names of the plaintiff and defendant, the cause of action, with such particulars as shall be, from time to time, directed by the Rules of the Court, and the amount sued for, and shall be served on the defendant, so many days before the day on which the Court shall be holden at which the cause is to be tried as shall be directed by the rules for regulating the practice of the Court; and delivery of such summons to the defendant, or in such other manner as shall be specified in the rules of practice, shall be deemed good service; and no misnomer or inaccurate description of any person or place in any such summons shall vitiate the same, if the person or place be therein described so as to be commonly known.

XXVII. No misstatement of the cause of action in the summons issued under this Act shall vitiate the same, and the Judges of the Court may, in their discretion, rectify such misstatement as soon as discovered, and alter the record accordingly; and if the defendant, or one of the defendants be present in Court at the time of such discovery, the hearing of the cause after the record shall have been so altered, shall be proceeded with as if no such misstatement had happened, but in the absence of the defendant, or of all the defendants, a new summons of the same number and date as the original summons shall be issued with the altered statement of the cause of action.

XXVIII. All persons shall be deemed within the jurisdiction of the Court, who dwell or carry on their business or work for gain within the district of the Court at the time of bringing the action, or who did so dwell or carry on their business or work therein at the time when the cause of action arose, or within six months before the time of bringing the action for causes of action which arose within the same time.

XXIX. Any summons or other process of any of the said Courts, service of which is needed out of the district of the Court, may be exhibited in any Court of Law, or before any Magistrate, and shall be thereupon endorsed by the Magistrate or Judge of such Court; and, when so endorsed, may be served in like manner as any order or process from such Court or Magistrate; and such service shall be as valid as if the same had been made by the Bailiff of the Court out of which such summons or other process shall have issued within the jurisdiction of the Court for which he acts.

XXX. Service of any summons or other process of the Court, which shall require to be served out of the district of the Court, may be proved by affidavit, or solemn affirmation, purporting to be sworn or made before any Judge or Magistrate; and, in every case of the unavoidable absence of the Bailiff by whom any summons or other process of the Court has been served, the service of such summons or other process may be proved, if the Judges think fit, in the same manner as a summons served out of the district of the Court.

XXXI. Any Minor may prosecute a suit in any Court holden under this Act for any sum of money not greater than Five Hundred Rupees, which may be due to him for wages or piece-work, or for work as a servant, in the same manner as if he were of full age.

XXXII. The jurisdiction of the Court shall extend to the recovery of any demand, not exceeding the sum of Five Hundred Rupees, which is the whole or part of the unliquidated balance of a partnership account, or the amount or part of the amount of a distributive share under an intestacy, or of any legacy under a will.

XXXIII. Any Executor or Administrator may sue and be sued in any Court holden under this Act, in like manner as if he were a party in his own right; and Judgment and execution shall be such as in the like case would be given or issued in the Supreme Court in the like case: but no Executor or Administrator shall be summoned in that capacity within six months after the death of the person, whose Executor or Administrator he is.

XXXIV. A plaintiff shall not be allowed to divide any cause of action, for the sake of bringing two or more suits in any of the said Courts: but any plaintiff, having cause of action for more than Five Hundred Rupees, may abandon the excess, which shall be entered in the record, and stated in the summons, and thereupon the plaintiff shall, on proving his case, recover to an amount not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees; and the judgment of the Court shall be in full discharge of all demands in respect of such cause of action; and entry of the judgment shall be made accordingly.

XXXV. The Governor General and Members of the Supreme Council of India, the Governors and Members of Council of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, and the Chief Justices and Judges of the several Supreme Courts established therein by Royal Charter, shall not be liable to arrest or imprisonment by process issuing out of any Court holden under this Act, and no writ or process shall be sued out of the said Court against any of the persons privileged by Act I., 1844, or Act XVIII., 1848, without the consent of the Governor in Council.

XXXVI. Where any plaintiff shall have any demand recoverable under this Act, whether founded on contract or wrong, against two or more persons jointly answerable, it shall be sufficient if any of such persons be served with process, and judgment may be obtained and execution issued against the person or persons so served, notwithstanding that others jointly liable, may not have been served or sued, or may not be within the jurisdiction of the Court; and every such person against whom judgment shall have been obtained under this Act, and who shall have satisfied such judgment, shall be entitled to demand and recover in the Court, held under this Act, contribution from any other person jointly liable with him; and in all cases of misjoinder of defendants, the Judges may order the suit to proceed against such of the defendants only against whom cause of action appears, and may give judgment against them only; giving also judgment for costs for the defendants improperly joined.

XXXVII. The Judges of the Court shall be empowered to determine all questions as well of fact as of law or equity, as administered in the Supreme Court, in all cases which they have authority to try.

XXXVIII. On the day in that behalf named in the summons, the plaintiff shall appear, and thereupon the defendant shall be required to appear to answer; and on answer being made in Court, the Judges shall proceed in a summary way to try the cause, and give judgment, without further pleading or formal joinder of issue.

XXXIX. A defendant, having any cause of action against the plaintiff, whether or not the same exceeds Five Hundred Rupees, shall be entitled to set the same against the plaintiff's demand, and if judgment is given in such case for the plaintiff, shall be entitled to sue the plaintiff for the balance only of his original demand, after deducting the amount of debt or damages and costs recovered against him under this Act.

XL. The Judge may, in any case, with the consent of both parties to the suit, order the same, with or without other matters within the jurisdiction of the Court in dispute between such parties, to be referred to arbitration, to such person or persons, and in such manner, and on such terms as they shall think reasonable and just; and such reference shall not be revocable by either party, except by consent of the Judges; and the award of the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire shall be entered as the judgment in the cause, and shall be as binding and effectual to all intents, as if given by the Judges; provided, that the Judges may, if they think fit, on application to them at the first Court held after the expiration of one week, after the entry of such award, set aside such award, or may, with the consent of both parties, revoke the reference, or order another reference to be made in the manner aforesaid.

XLI. The Judges of each Court, holden under this Act, subject to the approval of the Judges of the Supreme Court, shall have power to make and issue all the general rules for regulating the practice and proceedings of the Court, and also to frame forms for every proceeding in the Court, for which they shall think it necessary that a form be provided, and also for keeping all books, entries and accounts to be kept by the Clerk of the Court, and from time to time, to alter any such rule or form; and the rules so made and the forms so framed, shall be observed and used in the Court of that Presidency, and shall be sent to Supreme Court for approval, but shall be of force until disapproved; and in any case, not expressly provided for herein, or by the said rules, the general principles of practice, in the Supreme Court may be adopted and applied, at the discretion of the Judges, to actions and proceedings in their Court.

XLII. If, upon the day of the return of any summons, or at any continuation or adjournment of the said Court, or of the cause for which the said summons shall have been issued, the plaintiff shall not appear, the cause shall be struck out; and if he shall appear, but shall not make proof of his demand to the satisfaction of the Court, the Judges may nonsuit the plaintiff or give Judgment for the defendant; and in either case, where the defendant shall appear and shall not admit the demand, may award to the defendant, by way of costs and satisfaction for his trouble and attendance, such sum as they, in their discretion, shall think fit; and such sum shall be recoverable from the plaintiff by such ways and means as any debt or damage ordered to be paid by the same Court can be recovered: provided always that if the plaintiff shall not appear when called upon, and the defendant, or some one duly authorized on his behalf, shall appear, and admit the cause of action to the full amount claimed, and pay the fees payable in the first instance by the plaintiff, the Court, if it shall think fit, may proceed to give judgment, as if the plaintiff had appeared.

XLIII. If on the day so named in the summons, or at any continuation or adjournment of the Court, or cause in which the summons was issued, the defendant shall not appear or sufficiently excuse his absence, or shall neglect to answer, when called in Court, the Judges, upon due proof of service of the summons, may issue a writ of attachment to compel the appearance of the defendant; or, in their discretion, may proceed to the hearing on trial of the cause on the part of the plaintiff only; and the judgment thereupon shall be as valid as if both parties had attended; provided always, that the Judges in any such case, at the same or any subsequent Court, may set aside any judgment so given in the absence of the defendant, and the execution thereupon; and may grant new trial of the cause upon such terms, as to payment of costs, giving security for debt or costs, or otherwise, as they think fit, on sufficient cause shewn to them for that purpose.

XLIV. The Judges may, in any case, make orders for granting time to the plaintiff or defendant to proceed in the prosecution or defence of the suit, and also may, from time to time, adjourn any Court or the hearing or further hearing of any cause, in such manner as to them may seem fit.

XLV. The defendant in any action brought under this Act for the recovery of money, whether for debt or damages within such time as shall be directed by the rules for regulating the practice of the Court, may pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think a full satisfaction for the demand of the plaintiff, with the costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment; and the said sum of money shall be paid to the plaintiff; but, if he shall elect to proceed, and, if the plaintiff shall recover no further sum in the action than shall have been so paid into Court, the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the costs incurred by him in the said action after such payment; and such costs shall be settled by the Court, and an order shall thereupon be made by the Court for the payment of such costs by the plaintiff.

XLVI. On the hearing or trial of any action or any other proceeding under this Act the parties thereto, their wives, and all other persons, may be examined, on behalf of either the plaintiff or defendant, subject nevertheless to the Acts and Regulations in force, with respect to the examination of woman of a rank and situation in life, which, according to the customs of the country, would render it improper to compel them to appear in a Court of Justice.

XLVII. Every person shall be examined on oath, or when exempt by law from taking an oath in any Court of Justice, on solemn affirmation, and every person, who, in any examination upon oath or solemn affirmation, under this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

XLVIII. Either of the parties to the suit or any other proceeding under this Act may obtain, at the office of the Clerk of the Court, summonses to witnesses, with or without a clause requiring the production of books, deeds, papers and writings in their possession or control, and in any such summons any number of names may be inserted.

XLIX. Every person, on whom any such summons shall have been served, either personally or in such other manner as shall be directed by the general rules or practice of the Court, and who shall refuse or neglect, without sufficient cause, to appear, or to produce any books, papers or writings required by such summons to be produced, and also every person present in Court, who shall be required to give evidence, and who shall refuse to be sworn and give evidence, shall forfeit and pay such fine not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, as the Judges shall set on him; and the whole or any part of such fine, in the discretion of the Judges, after deducting the costs, may be applied towards indemnifying the party injured by such refusal or neglect.

L. The Judges of any Court established under this Act, in all suits where the debt or demand exceeds the sum of Thirty Rupees, upon proof before them, that any defendant against whom a summons has been taken out, conceals himself from or otherwise evades process of the Court, or is disposing of his property and effects with intent to defraud the plaintiff or his creditors generally, or is about to withdraw his person or effects from the jurisdiction of the Court, may issue a warrant for the apprehension of such person, and may commit him to gaol until he shall find security for his appearance in the said Court from time to time, until judgment shall be pronounced in the suit commenced by such summons, and for payment of the amount and the costs which may be decreed against him therein.

LI. Payment of any fine imposed by any Court under the authority of this Act may be enforced upon the order of the Judges, in like manner as payment of any debt adjudged in the said Court, and shall be accounted for as herein provided.

LII. All the costs of any action or proceeding in the Court not herein otherwise provided for, shall be paid by or apportioned between the parties, in such manner as the Judges shall think fit; and, in default of any special direction, shall abide the event of the action; and execution may issue for the recovery of any such costs, in like manner as for any debt adjudged in the said Court.

LIII. Every order and judgment of any Court holden under this Act except as herein provided, shall be final and conclusive between the parties; but the Judges shall have power to nonsuit the plaintiff, in every case in which satisfactory proof shall not be given to them, entitling either the plaintiff or defendant to the judgment of the Court; and shall also in every case whatever have the power, if they shall think fit, to order a new trial to be had, upon such terms as they shall think reasonable, and in the meantime to stay the proceedings.

LIV. No cause commenced in any Court, holden under this Act, shall be removed from the said Court into the Supreme Court by any writ or process, unless the debt or damage or value of the property claimed exceeds One Hundred Rupees, and then only by leave of a Judge of the said Supreme Court on proof to his satisfaction that some question of law or equity is likely to arise therein, which, by reason either of its difficulty, novelty or general importance, or of some erroneous course of decision on the same point in the Court of Small Causes may appear to him fit to be tried in the Supreme Court, and upon such terms as to payment of costs, giving security for debt or costs, or otherwise, as he shall think fit.

LV. The Judges of the Court of Small Causes may, in their discretion, reserve any question of law or equity on which they entertain doubts, or which they shall be requested by either party to the suit to reserve, for the opinion of the Judges of the Supreme Court, and shall give judgment contingent upon the opinion of the said Supreme Court on a case which they shall thereupon be entitled to state to the said Court. If only two Judges sit together, and shall differ in opinion, the question on which they differ shall be so referred.

LVI. The Judges may make orders concerning the time or times, and by what instalments, any debt or damages or costs, for which judgment shall be obtained in the said Court, shall be paid; and all such moneys shall be paid into Court, unless the Judges shall otherwise order.

LVII. If there be cross-judgments between the parties, execution shall be taken out by that party only, who shall have obtained judgment for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum; and satisfaction for the remainder shall be entered, as well as satisfaction on the judgment for the smaller sum; and if both sums shall be equal, satisfaction shall be entered upon both judgments.

LVIII. Whenever the Court shall have made an order for the payment of money, the amount shall be recoverable, in case of default or failure of payment thereof forthwith, or at the time or times and in the manner directed, by execution against the body or the goods and chattels of the person against whom such order is made without further notice or order; and the Clerk of the said Court, at the request of the person prosecuting such order shall issue under the seal of the Court a writ of execution to one of the Bailiffs of the Court, which shall be his warrant to take the body of such person in execution, or to levy, or cause to be levied, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such person such sum of money as shall be so ordered, wheresoever they may be found within the District of the Court, and also the costs of the execution; and all Constables and other Peace Officers within their several jurisdictions shall aid in the execution of every such writ.
LIX. If the Court shall have made any order for payment of any sum of money by instalments, execution upon such order shall not issue until after default in payment of some instalment according to such order; and execution or successive executions may then issue without further notice or order for the whole of the said sum of money and costs then remaining unpaid, or for such portion thereof as the Court shall order, either at the time of making the original order, or at any subsequent time under the seal of the Court.

LX. Whenever any warrant shall issue for taking in execution the body of any person under this Act, the Bailiffs of the Court shall be empowered, by virtue thereof, to take and convey him to any prison, appointed by the Governor in Council to be the prison of the Court, there to remain for such term as shall be directed by the warrant, not longer than six calendar months, or until he shall sooner perform the order of the Court.

LXI. No person shall be imprisoned twice under the same judgment, or shall execution against the body and goods issue at the same time under the same judgment.

LXII. Every person suing out a warrant of execution against the body of any other person under this Act shall deposit with the Clerk of the Court, at the time of the issue of the warrant, diet money for one week, after the rate of one anna and a half for each day, which shall be paid by the Clerk to the Keeper of the Prison at the time of the execution of the warrant. [Amended by Act XXI., 1867.]

LXIII. Notice of the execution of every such warrant shall be forthwith given to the person at whose suit it issued, who shall thereupon deposit with the Keeper of the Prison, diet money for the remainder of the month in which the warrant is executed, after the same daily rate, and shall continue thereafter to deposit monthly with the said Keeper, in advance, diet money at the same daily rate, for each month which the debtor is liable to be kept in prison at his suit.

LXIV. The diet money shall be employed for the subsistence of the prisoner; and if, by default of the detaining creditor, such diet money is not paid, the prisoner shall be entitled to his discharge by order of the Court.

LXV. All diet money, which shall be spent in providing subsistence for any prisoner, shall be costs in the cause, and all diet money, which shall not be so spent, shall be repaid to the creditor advancing the same.

LXVI. Whenever any prisoner shall offer good and reasonable security for payment of any debt or damage and costs, either in full or by instalments as the Court shall think reasonable, the Court may order him to be discharged on giving such security.

LXVII. Upon payment of the debt or damage and costs in full, the prisoner shall be entitled to be forthwith discharged.

LXVIII. If the debt or damage and costs are not paid, the imprisonment shall not extinguish the liability to pay the same; but all property then belonging to or afterwards acquired by the prisoner shall be liable to be taken in execution after his discharge from prison for satisfaction thereof, or of so much thereof as is not paid, including the diet money actually expended for subsistence of the prisoner.

LXIX. Every Bailiff executing any process of execution issuing out of the said Court against the goods of any person, may, by virtue thereof, seize and take any of the goods of such person (excepting the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of such person or his family, and the tools and implements of his trade), and may also seize and take any money or bank-notes, and any cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties or securities for money belonging to any such person against whom any execution shall have issued as aforesaid.

LXX. The Bailiff shall forthwith deliver any cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties or other securities for money, which shall have been so seized or taken as aforesaid, to the Clerk or other person appointed by the Judges to receive the same, who shall hold them as a security or securities for the amount directed to be levied by such execution, or so much thereof as shall not have been otherwise levied or raised for the benefit of the plaintiff and the plaintiff may sue in the name of the defendant, or in the name of any person in whose name the defendant might have sued, for the recovery of the sum or sums secured, or made payable thereby, when the time of payment thereof, shall have arrived.

LXXI. If it shall, at any time, appear to the satisfaction of the Court that any defendant is unable, from sickness or other sufficient cause, to pay and discharge the debt or damages recovered against him, or any instalment thereof ordered to be paid as aforesaid, the Judges in their discretion, may suspend or stay any judgment, order or execution given, made or issued in such action, for such time and on such terms as they shall think fit, and so, from time to time, until it shall appear by the like proof as aforesaid that such temporary cause of disability has ceased.

LXXII. No sale of any goods, which shall be taken in execution as aforesaid shall be made until after the end of five days at least next following the day on which such goods have been so taken, unless such goods be of a perishable nature, or upon the request, in writing, of the party whose goods have been taken.

LXXIII. Until such sale, the goods shall be deposited by the Bailiff by whom they were taken in some fit place, or they may remain in the custody of a fit person approved by the Judges to be put in possession by the Bailiff.

LXXIV. The Judges, from time to time, as they shall think proper, may appoint such and so many persons for keeping possession, and so many of their Bailiffs or other fit persons to be sworn brokers and appraisers for the purpose of selling or valuing any goods, chattels or effects taken in execution under this Act, as shall appear to them to be necessary, and may direct security to be taken from each of them, for such sum and in such manner as they shall think fit, for the faithful performance of their duties, without injury or oppression; and the Judges may dismiss any person, broker or appraiser so appointed.

LXXV. No goods taken in execution under this Act shall be sold for the purpose of satisfying the warrant of execution; except by one of the brokers or appraisers so appointed.

LXXVI. The costs to be demanded or taken for such appraise-ment and sale shall be One Anna in the Rupee on the produce of the goods sold; and the Judges may apply the sum so raised as costs towards payment of the contingent charges and remu-neration of the said brokers and appraisers, in such manner as shall be approved by the Governor in Council.

LXXVII. The Clerk of the Court shall keep an account of all sums received upon such sales, distinguishing the amount paid to the party entitled to the benefit of the execution, and the amount levied and retained as costs, and also of all sums allowed to the brokers and appraisers upon such sales.

LXXVIII. Whenever any defendant against whom judgment shall have been given in the Court of Small Causes, shall go before execution thereof out of the jurisdiction of the Court, the Judge of any Zillah or Town where he shall be found, upon receiving from the plaintiff either in person or by vakeel, an application in writing setting forth these facts, with a duly authenticated copy of the judgment of the Court, shall execute the said judgment in the manner prescribed by law for execution of his own decrees; unless the defendant shall allege any reasonable cause why the judgment should not be executed, and shall give security to such amount as the Judge of such Zillah or Town shall deem reasonable, that he will, within such time as shall be allowed him for that purpose, either satisfy the judgment or produce a duly authenticated copy of an order of the Judges of the Court of Small Causes, discharging their former judgment.

LXXXIX. No judgment or execution shall be stayed, delayed or reversed upon or by any writ of error or supersedeas thereon, to be sued for the reversing of any judgment given in any Court held under the provisions of this Act, unless the amount recovered exceeds One Hundred Rupees, and then only after the person suing out such writ shall become bound with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the Clerk of the Court, in treble the sum adjudged to be recovered in the former judgment, to prosecute the said writ with effect, and also to satisfy and pay (if the writ be not prosecuted, or if the judgment be affirmed), the debt or damages and costs adjudged, and all costs and damages to be awarded for the delay of execution.

LXXX. Upon every warrant of execution issued against the goods and chattels of any person, the Clerk of the Court shall cause to be stated the sum of money and costs adjudged with the sum paid for such warrant; and if the party against whom such execution shall be issued shall, before an actual sale of the goods and chattels, pay or cause to be paid or tendered unto the Clerk of the Court, or to the Bailiff holding the warrant of execution such sum of money and costs, as aforesaid, or such part thereof as the person entitled thereto shall agree to accept in full of his debt or damages and costs, together with the fees herein directed to be paid, the execution shall be superseded, and the goods and chattels of the said party shall be discharged and set at liberty.

LXXXI. The Clerk of every Court holden under this Act shall cause a record of all summons, and of all orders, and of all judgments and executions, and returns thereto, and of all fines, and of all other proceedings of the Court, to be fairly entered, from time to time, in a book or books belonging to the Court, which shall be kept at the Office of the Court; and shall be duly authenticated by one or more of the Judges; and such entries in the said book or books, or a copy thereof, bearing the seal of the Court, and purporting to be signed and certified as a true copy by the Clerk of the Court, shall be admitted in all Courts and places as evidence of such entries, and of the proceeding referred to by such entry or entries, and of the regularity of such proceeding, without any further proof.

LXXXII. The Clerk of every such Court shall, in the month of March, in each year, make out a correct list of all sums of money belonging to suitors in the Court, which shall have been paid into Court, and which shall have remained unclaimed for five years before the first day of the month of January then last past, specifying the names of the parties for whom or on whose account the same were so paid into Court; and a copy of such list shall be put up and remain during Court hours in some conspicuous part of the Court House, and at all times in the Clerk's Office; and all sums of money which shall have been paid into any such Court, to the use of any suitor or suitors thereof, and which shall have remained unclaimed for the period of six years, before the passing of this Act, and which are now in the hands of any Commissioner or Officer of such Court, or otherwise held in trust for such suitors, and all further sums of money, which shall hereafter be paid into such Court to the use of any suitor or suitors thereof shall, if unclaimed for the period of six years after the same shall have been so paid into Court, be applicable as part of the fees receivable on account of the Court, and shall be carried to the same account; and no person shall be entitled to claim any sum which shall have remained unclaimed for six years; but no time during which the person entitled to claim such sum shall have been an infant or married woman or of unsound mind, or out of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, shall be taken into account in estimating the said period of six years.

LXXXIII. If any person shall wilfully insult any Judge, Clerk or Officer of the said Court, for the time being, during his sitting or attendance in Court, or shall wilfully interrupt the proceedings of the Court, or otherwise misbehave in Court, it shall be lawful for any Bailiff or Officer of the Court, with or without the assistance of any other person, by the order of the Judges to take such offender into custody, and detain him until the rising of the Court; and the Judges shall be empowered, if they shall think fit, by a warrant under their hands, and sealed with the seal of the Court, to commit any such offender to any prison to which they have power to commit offenders under this Act, for any time, not exceeding seven days, or to impose upon any such offender a fine, not exceeding Fifty Rupees for every such offence, and in default of payment thereof to commit the offender to any such prison as aforesaid, for any time not exceeding seven-days, unless the said fine be sooner paid, or instead of inflicting summary punishment under this Act may cause the offender to be indicted in the Supreme Court, if the offence be an indictable misdemeanour.

LXXXIV. If any Officer or Bailiff of any Court holden under this Act shall be assaulted while in the execution of his duty, or if any rescue shall be made or attempted to be made of any person arrested, or goods levied under process of the Court, the person so offending shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, to be recovered by order of the Court, or before a Magistrate as hereinafter provided; and the Bailiff of the Court, or any Peace Officer in any such case, may take the offender into Custody (with or without warrant), and bring him before such Court or Magistrate accordingly.

LXXXV. If any Bailiff of the said Court, who shall be employed to execute any warrant of the Court, shall by neglect, or connivance, or omission, lose an opportunity of executing such warrant, then, upon complaint of the party aggrieved by reason of such neglect, connivance, or omission (and the fact alleged being proved to the satisfaction of the Court), the Judges shall order the Bailiff to pay such damages as it shall appear that the plaintiff has sustained thereby, not exceeding in any case the sum of money for which the said execution is issued, and the Bailiff shall be liable thereto; and, upon demand made thereof, and on his refusal so to pay and satisfy the same, payment thereof shall be enforced by such ways and means as are herein provided for enforcing a judgment recovered in the said Court, without prejudice nevertheless to the execution of the original warrant.

LXXXVI. If any Clerk, Bailiff or Officer of the Court, acting under colour or pretence of the process of the said Court, shall be charged with extortion or misconduct, or with not duly paying or accounting for any money levied by him under the authority of this Act, the Judges may enquire into such matter in a summary way, and for that purpose may summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary parties in like manner as the attendance of witnesses in any case may be enforced, and may make such order thereupon for the repayment of any money extorted, or for the due payment of any money so levied as aforesaid, and for the payment of such damages and costs, as they shall think just; and also, if they shall think fit, may impose such fine upon the Clerk, Bailiff or Officer, not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for each offence, as they shall deem adequate;
and in default of payment of any money, so ordered to be paid, payment of the same may be enforced by such ways and means as
are herein provided for enforcing a judgment recovered in the said Court.

LXXXVII. Every Clerk, Bailiff or other Officer employed in putting this Act or any of the powers thereof in execution, who shall wilfully and corruptly exact, take or accept any fee or reward whatsoever, other than his lawful salary, for any thing done or to be done by virtue of this Act, or on any account whatsoever, relative to putting this Act into execution, shall, upon proof thereof before the said Court, and in the case of a Clerk, on confirmation of the finding of the Court by the Governor in Council, be for ever incapable of serving or being employed under this Act in any office of profit or emolument, and shall also be liable for damages as herein provided.

LXXXVIII. If any claim shall be made to, or in respect of, any goods or chattels taken in execution under the process of any Court holden under this Act, in respect of the proceeds or value thereof, by any person not being the party against whom such process has issued, the Clerk of the Court, upon application of the Officer charged with the execution of such process, as well before as after any action brought against such Officer, may issue a summons calling before the said Court, as well the party issuing such process as the party making such claim, and thereupon any action, which shall have been brought in the Supreme Court in respect of such claim, shall be stayed, and any Judge of the Supreme Court on proof of the issue of such summons and that the goods and chattels were so taken in execution, may order the party bringing such action to pay the costs of all proceedings had upon such action after the issue of such summons out of the Court of Small Causes, and the Judges of the Court of Small Causes shall adjudicate upon such claim and make such order between the parties in respect thereof, and of the costs of the proceedings as to them shall seem fit, and such order shall be enforced in like manner as any order made in any suit brought in such Court.

LXXXIX. The powers of Act VII., 1847, to regulate distresses for small rents in Calcutta, shall be extended to the recovery of all arrears of rent not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees, and the Judges of every Court of Small Causes under this Act shall be empowered to exercise within their several jurisdictions the extended powers of the said Act; and the said Act shall be construed as if instead of Calcutta and the Settlement of Fort William in Bengal, the limits of the jurisdiction of the Court had been therein mentioned, and the Judges of the Court of Small Causes under this Act instead of the Commissioners of the Court therein mentioned, and the amount of Five Hundred Rupees instead of One Hundred Rupees, and the forms contained in the Schedule annexed to the said Act shall be altered accordingly, and shall refer to this Act instead of Act VII., 1847.

XC. The Affidavit of arrear required by the said Act No. VII., 1847, may, in every case, be made either by the person entitled to such arrear or by his or her lawfully constituted attorney, and a warrant of distress may issue on such affidavit.

XCI. Where any person shall hold or occupy any house, land or tenement, of which the value or the rent payable in respect thereof does not exceed the rate of Five Hundred Rupees by the year, without leave of the owner, or under a lease or agreement which is ended, or duly determined by a legal notice to quit, and such tenant, or, if such tenant do not actually occupy the premises, or occupy only a part thereof, any person by whom the same or any part thereof shall be then actually occupied, shall neglect or refuse to quit and deliver up possession of the premises, or of such part thereof respectively, the owner or his agent may take out a summons from the Court directed to such tenant or occupier, to show by what title he claims to hold or occupy the premises or part thereof.

XCII. If the tenant or occupier shall not thereupon appear at the time and place appointed, and show cause to the contrary, and shall still neglect or refuse to deliver up possession of the premises, or of such part thereof of which he is then in possession, to the said owner or his agent, such owner or agent may give to the Court proof of the holding, and of the end or other determination of the tenancy, if any had existed, with the time or manner thereof, and of the right by which he claims the possession.

XCIII. Upon proof of due service of the summons, and of the neglect or refusal of the tenant or occupier, as the case may be, the Judges may issue a warrant under the seal of the Court, to any Bailiff of the Court requiring and authorizing him within a period to be therein named not less than seven, or more than ten clear days from the date of such warrant, to give possession of the premises to such owner or agent, and such warrant, shall be a sufficient Warrant to the said Bailiff to enter upon the premises with such assistants as he shall deem necessary, and to give possession accordingly; Provided always, that entry upon any such warrant shall not be made on a Sunday, Good Friday or Christmas-day, or any other day observed by the Court as a Holiday, or at any time except between the hours of six in the morning and six in the afternoon: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to protect any person by whom any such warrant shall be sued out of the Court of Small Causes from any action which may be brought against him by any such tenant or occupier for such entry and taking possession, where such person had not, at the time of suing out the same as aforesaid, lawful right to the possession of the same premises.
XCIV. Such summons, as last aforesaid, may be served either personally or by leave of the Court, upon proof that the tenant or occupier is not to be found within the jurisdiction of the Court by leaving the same with some person being in, and apparently residing at the place of abode of the person or persons so holding over as aforesaid; or if the place of abode of such person or persons shall either not be known or admission thereto cannot be obtained for serving such summons, by posting the said summons on some conspicuous part of the premises so held over.

XCV. No action or prosecution shall be maintainable against the Judges, or against the Clerk of the Court, by whom such warrant as aforesaid shall have been issued, or against any Bailiff or other person by whom such warrant may be executed, or summons affixed, for issuing such warrant, or executing the same respectively, or affixing such summons, by reason that the person by whom the same shall be sued out had not lawful right to the possession of the premises.

XCVI. Where the owner, at the time of applying for such warrant, as aforesaid, had lawful right to the possession of the premises, or of the part thereof so held over as aforesaid, neither the said owner nor his agent, nor any other person acting in his behalf, shall be deemed to be a trespasser, by reason merely of any irregularity or informality in the mode of proceeding for obtaining possession under the authority of this Act, but the party aggrieved may, if he think fit, bring an action on the case, for such irregularity or informality, in which the damage alleged to be sustained thereby, shall be specially laid, and may recover full satisfaction for such special damage with cost of suit: Provided that, if the special damage so laid be not proved, the defendant shall be entitled to a verdict, and that, if proved, but assessed at any sum, not exceeding Ten Rupees, the plaintiff shall recover no more costs than damages, unless the Judge, before whom the trial shall have been holden, shall certify that in his opinion full costs ought to be allowed.

XCVII. In every case in which the person, by whom any such warrant shall be sued out of the Court of Small Causes, had not, at the time of suing out the same, lawful right to the possession of the premises, the suing out of any such warrant, as last aforesaid, shall be deemed a trespass by him against the tenant or occupier of the premises, although no entry shall be made by virtue of the warrant; and in case any such tenant or occupier will become bound with two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Clerk of the Court, in such sum as to the Judges shall seem reasonable, regard being had to the value of the premises and to the probable cost of such action, to sue the person by whom such warrant was sued out with effect and without delay, and to pay all the costs of the proceeding in such action, in case a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff, shall discontinue or not prosecute his action, or become nonsuit therein, execution upon the warrant shall be stayed until judgment shall have been given in such action of trespass; and, if upon the trial of such action of trespass, judgment be given for the plaintiff, such judgment shall supersede the said warrant.

XCVIII. Recovery of the possession of any such house, land, or tenement shall be no bar to the institution of a regular suit, for trying the title thereunto, which may be brought in the Supreme Court, as if this Act had not been passed.

XCIX. Every bond given on the removal of any action out of the Court of Small Causes, or upon staying, delaying or reversing any judgment or execution awarded therein, or the execution of any such warrant of possession as aforesaid, or on moving for a new trial, or to set aside a verdict, judgment or nonsuit, shall be made to the other party to the action, and shall be approved by the Judges and attested under the seal of the Court; and if the bond so taken be forfeited, or if upon the proceeding for securing which such bond was given, the Judge, before whom such proceeding shall be had shall not certify upon the record in Court, that the condition of the bond hath been fulfilled, the party to whom the bond shall have been so made may bring an action of debt and recover thereon: Provided always, that the Court in which such action as last aforesaid shall be brought may, by a rule of Court, give such relief to the parties liable upon such bond as may appear to him reasonable, and such rule shall have the nature and effect of a defeasance to such bond.

C. All actions and proceedings which, before the passing of this Act, might have been brought in the Supreme Court, where any Officer of the Court of Small Causes shall be a party, except in respect of any claim to any goods and chattels taken in execution of the process of the Court, or the proceeds or value thereof, may be brought and determined in the Supreme Court, at the election of the party suing or proceeding, as if this Act had not been passed.

CII. If any action shall be commenced after the passing of this Act in the Supreme Court, for any cause other than those lastly hereinbefore specified, for which a summons might have been taken out from a Court holden under this Act, and a verdict shall be found for the plaintiff for a sum less than Five Hundred Rupees, if the said action is founded on contract, or less than One Hundred Rupees, if it is founded on wrong, the plaintiff shall have judgment to recover such sum only, and no costs; and if a verdict shall not be found for the plaintiff the defendant shall be entitled to his costs as between Attorney and Client, unless in either case the Judge, who shall try the case, shall certify on the back of the record that, by reason of the difficulty, novelty or general importance of the case, or of some erroneous course of decision on like cases in the Court of Small Causes, the action was fit to be brought in the Supreme Court.

CIII. If any person shall bring any suit in the Supreme Court in respect of any grievance committed by the Clerk, Bailiff, or Officer of any Court holden under this Act, under color or pretence of the process of the said Court, and upon the trial of the action, no greater damages shall be found for the plaintiff than the sum of Five Hundred Rupees, no costs shall be awarded to the plaintiff in such action, unless the Judge shall certify in Court, upon the back of the Record, that the action was fit to be brought in the Supreme Court.

CIII. All penalties, fines and forfeitures by this Act, inflicted or authorized to be imposed (the manner of recovering and applying whereof is not hereby otherwise particularly directed), upon proof before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate having jurisdiction where the offender shall reside or be, or the offence shall be committed, either by the confession of the party offending or by the oath or affirmation of any credible witness, shall be levied, with the costs attending the summons and conviction, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party offending, by warrant under the hand of any such Justice or Magistrate, and the overplus (if any) after such penalties, fines and forfeitures and the charges of such distress and sale are deducted, shall be returned, upon demand, unto the owner of such goods and chattels.

CIV. If any such penalties, fines and forfeitures respectively shall not be paid forthwith upon conviction, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Magistrate to order the offender so convicted to be detained in safe custody until return can conveniently be made to such warrant of distress; unless such offender shall give sufficient security to the satisfaction of such Justice or Magistrate for his appearance before him on such day as shall be appointed for the return of such warrant of distress, such day not being more than eight days from the time of taking any such security, which security the Justice or Magistrate shall be empowered to take by way of recognizance, or otherwise, as to him shall seem fit.

CV. If upon return of such warrant it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had thereupon, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Justice or Magistrate, either by confession of the offender or otherwise, that he hath not within the Jurisdiction of such Justice or Magistrate sufficient goods and chattels whereon to levy all such penalties, forfeitures, costs and charges, the Justice or Magistrate may, at his discretion, without issuing any warrant of distress, commit the offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any time not exceeding three calendar months, unless such penalties, forfeitures and fines, and all reasonable charges attending the recovery thereof, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

CVI. The moneys arising from any such penalties, forfeitures and fines as aforesaid, when paid and levied, shall (if not by this Act directed to be otherwise applied) be; from time to time, paid to the Clerk of the Court, and shall be applied in like manner as the fees thereof.

CVII. In all cases in which by this Act any penalty or forfeiture is made recoverable before a Justice or Magistrate, he may summon before him the party complained against, and on such summons may hear and determine the matter of such complaint; and, on proof of the offence may convict the offender and adjudge him to pay the penalty or forfeiture incurred, and proceed to recover the same, although no information in writing shall have been exhibited before him; and all such proceedings by summons without information in writing shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes, as if an information in writing had been exhibited.

CVIII. In all cases where any conviction shall be had for any offence committed against this Act, the form of conviction may be in the words or to the effect following (that is to say):
"Be it remembered that on this day of in the year
" A. B. is convicted before a Magistrate
" for the (or before a Judge appointed under Act IX.,
" 1850) of having (state the offence); and I (or we) the said
" do adjudge the said to forfeit and pay for the same the " sum of (or to be committed to for the space
" of ) given under hand ( ) and seal ( ) the day
" and year aforesaid."

CIX. No order, verdict or judgment, or other proceeding, made concerning any of the matters aforesaid, shall be quashed or vacated for want of form.

CX. Where any distress shall be made for any sum of money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the information, summons, conviction, warrant of distress or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall the party distraining be deemed a trespasser from the beginning, on account of any irreregularity which shall afterwards be committed by the party so distraining, but the person aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in an action upon the case.

CXI. All actions and prosecutions to be commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be commenced within three calendar months after the fact committed, and not afterwards, and notice in writing of such action, and of the cause thereof, shall be given to the defendant one calendar month at least before the commencement of the action; and no plaintiff shall recover in any such action, if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before such action is brought, or if after action brought, a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into Court, with costs by or on behalf of the defendant.

(a) This Act is contained in the Schedule of Repealed Acts, in Act XVII., 1862. By Section 1 of the repealing provisions, the Scheduled Acts are repealed so far as they provide for the punishment of offences. This Act XIII., 1850, provides for the punishment of offences, and therefore is repealed. But the intention probably was that the repeal should operate only where the Penal Code provides punishments; and it is a difficult question of construction whether offences are not created by this Act XIII., 1850, which are not offences by the I. P. C. This Act, therefore, is retained here.
this Act: but this special enumeration of some of the persons included in the general description of persons in the public service of Her Majesty or the East India Company, shall not be taken to abridge the meaning of that general description.

III. The Clauses respectively numbered XCIX., C., CI., CII., CIII. and CIV., in an Act of Parliament passed in the ninth year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for improving the Administration of Criminal Justice in the East Indies, are repealed, except as to all things done or forborne to be done before the passing of this Act.

IV. Every Clerk or Servant, who shall steal any chattel, money or valuable security, belonging to, or in the possession or power of his Master, shall be punishable in the same manner as persons convicted of felonious stealing under this Act.

V. Every Clerk or Servant, or any person employed for the purpose, or in the capacity of a Clerk or Servant, who shall by virtue of such employment, receive or take into his possession any chattel, money or valuable security, for or in the name or on the account of his Master, and who shall fraudulently embezzle the same or any part thereof, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same from his Master, although such chattel, money or security was not received into the possession of his Master, otherwise than by the actual possession of his Clerk, Servant or other person so employed.

VI. Every Member and Officer of a Trading Corporation or Company, and also every Banker, Merchant, Factor, Broker, Attorney or other Agent, whether he be commonly so employed or be employed as an Agent in that instance only, and whether he act as such Agent gratuitously or otherwise, to whom any chattel, money or valuable security is entrusted for safe custody, or for any special purpose, and whether with or without any authority to sell, negotiate, pledge or employ the same, but with an authority limited to some defined purpose as to the application of such money, chattel, or valuable security, or of any part thereof, or of the proceeds or of any part of the proceeds thereof, who shall fraudulently apply, use or dispose, of the same or any part of the proceeds thereof, for any purpose other than a purpose for which the same was entrusted to him, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same.
VII. Every Sub-Agent, Clerk or Servant of any such Trading Corporation or Company, or of any Banker, Merchant, Factor, Broker or other Agent as aforesaid, who, knowing the purpose for which such chattel, money or valuable security was entrusted to the Corporation, Company, Person or Persons, by whom he is employed, shall fraudulently apply, use or dispose of the same, for any purpose other than a purpose for which the same was entrusted to his employer or employers, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same though he were not himself immediately employed or entrusted with the disposition thereof by the person entitled thereto.

VIII. Every person possessed, or having the receipt, custody or control, of any chattel, money or valuable security, in trust for any other person or persons, who shall embezzle the same or any part thereof, or in any manner fraudulently apply, use or dispose of the same, for his own use or benefit, in breach of the trust reposed in him, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same.

IX. X. Every instrument entitling or shewing the title of any person to any share or interest in any public stock or fund of any Country or State, or in any Stock of any Corporation or Company, or for the transfer of any such share or interest, or for the receipt of any dividend or interest on any such share, or entitling or shewing the title to any deposit in any Bank, and every warrant, order or instrument for the payment of any money on any event, certain or contingent, or for the delivery or receipt of any goods or merchandize, or any such event, is a valuable security within the meaning of this Act.

XI. Any offender under this Act may be proceeded against on the same charge for any number of distinct acts of embezzlement or fraudulent application, use or disposition as aforesaid, committed by him within six calendar months, from the first to the last of such acts: and proof of a gross deficiency in the accounts of any such Trustee or Public Servant, shall be evidence of the offence charged, until such deficiency is otherwise explained.

XII. If the offence relates to money or to any Bank Note, Bank Post Bill, Banker’s Cheque, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Government Paper or other like security for the payment of money, it shall be enough in the indictment or charge to allege the embezzlement or fraudulent application, use or disposition of money, without specifying any particular coin or valuable security; and such allegation shall, so far as regards the kind of property, be sustained, if the offender is proved to have embezzled or fraudulently applied used or disposed of any amount of money or any valuable security, though the particular kind of coin or valuable security, of which such amount was composed shall not be proved.

XIII. It shall not be necessary, in any proceeding against any offender under this Act, to declare the person to whom the property embezzled or fraudulently applied or disposed of belongs otherwise than hereinafter provided, or to give any other description of it than by stating its general character according to the provisions of this Act; and if the offence be that of embezzlement or fraudulent application, use or disposition, by a person in the public service of the Crown, or of the East India Company, of property entrusted to him by reason of such employment, or part thereof, it shall be enough to state that the defendant was in such service, and that he received the property by reason of such employment, and embezzled the same, or part thereof, or fraudulently applied, used, or disposed of the same, as the case may be; and, if the case be one of fraudulent application, use or disposition by any person not being such public servant but entrusted as aforesaid, it shall be enough to state that such person was entrusted with the property (describing its general character as aforesaid), and it shall be enough to state shortly the purpose of the trust, and that he fraudulently applied, used or disposed of the same contrary to his duty in that behalf.

XIV. The Court before which any offender is tried under this Act shall have power upon the trial to make any amendments that may be necessary, by reason of any variance between the statements of the charge and the evidence, either in the description of the property, or of any person, or of any office, appointment, or employment, or of the purpose of the trust or otherwise, when in the opinion of the Court the person charged cannot have been misled as to his defence by such imperfect or erroneous statement.

XV. Every offender under this Act may be tried and punished by any Court of competent jurisdiction either in the place where he is in custody, or where he committed the offence.

XVI. The punishment of any offender under this Act shall not be deemed to take away or lessen his liability or the liability of his sureties to make good any losses sustained by Her Majesty or the East India Company, or any other person or persons by his misbehaviour or breach of trust.

XVII. Every person charged with a felonious breach of trust under this Act, who shall be proved to have knowingly made up or furnished false statements or accounts of the sums of money received or paid by him or entrusted to his care, or of the goods or balance of money in his custody or control, shall be liable to fine in the discretion of the Court, although no actual embezzlement or fraudulent application, use or disposition of trust, moneys, chattels or valuable securities is proved against him, and in addition to such fine may be imprisoned, with or without labour, as the Court shall adjudge, for any term not exceeding one year; but no person convicted of felonious breach of trust as aforesaid, shall be punished also for making up false accounts in connection with the same breach of trust.

II. The age set forth in the contracts shall be evidence of the age of the child, in all questions which arise as to the right of the master to the continuance of the service.

III. Any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace may act with all the powers of a guardian under this Act, on behalf of any orphan, or poor child abandoned by its parents, or of any child convicted before him, or any other Magistrate of vagrancy, or the commission of any petty offence.

VII. The Master or Commander of any ship in which an apprentice bound to the sea service, shall be appointed to serve by the party to whom he is bound, shall be deemed the agent of such party for the purpose of this Act.

IX. Every such contract shall be signed by the person to whom the apprentice is bound, and by the person by whom he is bound, and by the apprentice, when he is of the age of fourteen years or more at the time of binding; but, when the apprentice is bound by the Governors, Directors or Managers of a Public Charity, the signature of two of them, or of their Secretary or Officer, shall be sufficient on behalf of the persons binding the apprentice.

X. No such contract shall be valid unless it be executed in the manner aforesaid, nor until it has been deposited in the office of the Chief Magistrate of the place or district where it has been executed, or if the apprentice is bound to the sea service, in the office of the person appointed under Act X., 1841, to make registry of ships at the port where the apprentice is to begin his service; and the person in whose office any such contract is deposited shall give to each of the parties a copy thereof, certified under his hand, which certified copies shall be received as evidence of the contract, without formal proof of the hand-writing of the Magistrate or Registering Officer.

XI. The terms of service may be changed at any time during the apprenticeship, or the contract may be determined, with the consent of both parties to the contract or their personal representatives, and with the consent of the apprentice, if he is above the age of fourteen years; provided, that the changes agreed to or the termination of the contract shall be expressed in writing on the original contract, with the signature of the proper parties according to Section VIII. of this Act; and the Magistrate or Registering Officer shall thereupon make under his hand corresponding endorsements on the office copies, which shall be brought to him at the same time for that purpose.

XII. The master of any apprentice bound under this Act, may with the consent of the person by whom he was bound, and with the consent of the apprentice, if he is above the age of fourteen years, assign such apprentice to any other person, who is willing to take him for the residue of his apprenticeship, and subject to the condition thereof; provided that such person shall by endorsement under his own hand on the contract, declare his acceptance of such apprentice, and acknowledge himself bound by the agreements and covenants therein mentioned, to be performed on the part of the master, and that the consent of the other parties aforesaid shall be expressed in writing on the same, and signed by them respectively: And every such assignment shall be certified on the office copies of the contract under the hand of the Magistrate or Registering Officer according to the form given in Schedule (B.) annexed to this Act.

plaint; and upon proof thereof, may cancel the contract of apprenticeship, and assess upon the offender, whether he shall be the master or his agent, a reasonable sum for behoof of the apprentice, not exceeding four times the amount of the premium paid upon the binding, or if no premium, or a less premium than Fifty Rupees was paid, not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees: and, if the offender shall not, pay the sum so assessed, may levy the same by distress and sale of his goods and chattels, and if the offender shall not be the master but his agent, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the master also.

XIV. No contract of apprenticeship shall be cancelled, nor shall any master or his agent be liable to any criminal proceeding, on account of such moderate chastisement for misbehaviour, given to any apprentice by his master or the agent of his master, as may lawfully be given by a father to his child, and the provision for enabling the contract of apprenticeship to be cancelled shall not bar any criminal proceeding against any master or his agent for an assault or other offence committed against his apprentice, for which he would be liable to be punished, had it been against his child; whether or not any proceedings be taken for cancelling the contract of apprenticeship.

XV. Upon complaint made to any Magistrate, by or on behalf of the master of any apprentice bound to him under this Act, of any ill-behaviour of such apprentice, or if such apprentice shall have absconded, the Magistrate may issue his warrant for apprehending such apprentice, and may hear and determine the complaint, and punish the offender by an order for keeping the offender, if a boy, in confinement in any debtor's prison or other suitable place, not being a criminal gaol, for any time not exceeding one month, of which one week may be in solitary confinement, during which time such allowance shall be made for his subsistence by the master or his agent as the Magistrate shall order; and, if the offender be a boy of not more than fourteen years of age, may order him to be privately whipped; or, if the offender be a girl, or in the case of any boy, the Magistrate deem any such punishment unfit, he may pass an order empowering the master of the apprentice or his agent to keep the offender in close confinement in his own house, or on board the vessel to which he belongs, upon bread and water, or such other plain food as may be given without injury to the health of the apprentice, for a period not exceeding one month.

XVI. Upon complaint of wilful and repeated ill-behaviour on the part of the apprentice, and on the demand of the master, the Magistrate may order the contract of apprenticeship to be cancelled, whether or not the charge is proved; but only with the consent of the apprentice and of his father or guardian, if the charge is not proved; and such cancelling shall be with or without refund of the whole or part of any premium that may have been paid to the master on binding such apprentice, as to the Magistrate seems fit on consideration of the case; and all sums so refunded shall be applied under the direction of the Magistrate for behoof of the apprentice.

XVII. The Magistrate may order any sum recovered for behoof of the apprentice on cancelling the contract to be either laid out in binding him to another master, or otherwise for his benefit, or to be paid to the person by whom any premium was paid when he was bound apprentice.

XVIII. No Magistrate shall entertain a complaint on the part of a master against an apprentice under this Act, unless it be brought within one month after the cause of complaint arose; or, if the cause of complaint arose on board ship during a voyage, within one month after the arrival thereof at a port or place in the said territories; and no Magistrate shall entertain a complaint on the part of an apprentice against his master or the agent of his master under this Act, unless it be brought within three months after the cause of complaint arose; or if the cause of complaint arose on board ship during a voyage, within three months after the arrival thereof at a port or place in the said Territories.

XIX. If the master of any apprentice shall die before the end of the apprenticeship, the contract of apprenticeship shall be thereby determined; and a proportionate part, corresponding to the unexpired portion of the term, of any premium, which shall have been paid to such master on the binding of the apprentice to him, shall be returned by the executors or administrators out of the estate of the deceased to the person or persons who shall have paid the same; unless the executors or administrators of the deceased master shall continue the business in which such apprentice shall have been employed, and shall, within three months from the death of the late master, make offer in writing to keep the apprentice on the terms of the original contract; in which case the estate of the deceased shall be discharged from all liabilities on account of such premium.

XX. If such offer to keep the apprentice shall be made as aforesaid, the same shall be fully expressed and certified by the executors and administrators on the original contract of apprenticeship, and also on the office copies thereof, by the Magistrate or Registering Officer; and the apprentice shall be bound to the executors or administrators so keeping him for the remaining term of his apprenticeship.

XXI. Any apprentice bound under this Act, whose master shall die during the apprenticeship, shall be entitled to maintenance for three months from and after the death of his master, out of the assets left by him; provided that during such three months such apprentice shall continue to live with and serve as an apprentice the executors or administrators of such master, or such person as they shall appoint.

XXII. The apprentice of any person against whom a Commission of Bankruptcy shall be issued, or who shall be adjudged to have committed an Act of Insolvency, during the apprenticeship, shall be discharged from all obligation under the contract of apprenticeship; and if any premium was paid on binding him as an apprentice, he or the person by whom he was bound shall be entitled to claim the amount thereof, as a debt against the estate of the bankrupt or insolvent.

XXIII. For the purpose of this Act all British subjects, wherever or of whatever parents born, as well as other persons in the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, without the Towns of Calcutta and Madras, and the Town and Island of Bombay, shall be amenable to the jurisdiction of the Courts and Magistrates of the East India Company.

XXIV. An appeal shall lie from any order passed by any Magistrate without the said Towns and Island to the Court of Session to which such Magistrate is subordinate, provided the appeal is made within one month from the date of the order.

Disputes about the boundaries of Zemindaries to be tried by Superintendent of Tributary Mehals according to instructions from Government, &c.
An Act for settling the boundaries of the Tributary Mehals in Cuttack.

Whereas certain jungle or hill Zemindaries in the Zillah of Cuttack, enumerated in Section XXXVI., of Regulation XII., 1805, of the Bengal Code, and the Territory of Mohurbunge, in the same Zillah, were temporarily exempted by the said Regulation from the Regulations relating to the settlement and collection of the public revenue, and by Regulation XIII., 1805, of the Bengal Code, were temporarily exempted from the Laws and Regulations for the maintenance of the Police, and for the administration of justice in criminal cases, and whereas doubts have been entertained how disputes as to the boundaries of the said Zemindaries are to be determined, it is enacted as follows:

I. Every case in which the boundaries between any of the said Zemindaries, or the Zillahs of Boad and Atmullick, and an estate subject to the Regulations of the Bengal Code, shall be in dispute, shall be heard, tried, and determined in the first instance by the Superintendent of the Tributary Mehals, in Zillah Cuttack, according to such instructions as he shall, from time to time, receive from the Governor of Bengal, and his award, when confirmed by the Governor of Bengal, shall be final and conclusive, and shall be carried into execution by the Superintendent of Tributary Mehals, by giving possession of the land in dispute to the parties entitled under his award.

Recites expediency of extending S. 9 of R. 7, 1832, of Bengal Code.

1. Annulls any Law inflicting forfeiture of rights or inheritance, by reason of loss of Caste through change of Religion, &c.

An Act for extending the principle of Section IX., Regulation VII., 1832, of the Bengal Code, throughout the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company.

Whereas it is enacted by Section IX., Regulation VII., 1832, of the Bengal Code, that "whenever in any civil suit the parties to such suit may be of different persuasions, when one party shall be of the Hindoo and the other of the Mahommedan persuasion, or where one or more of the parties to the suit shall not be either of the Mahommedan or Hindoo persuasions; the laws of those religions shall not be permitted to operate to deprive such party or parties of any property to which, but for the operation of such laws, they would have been entitled;" and whereas it will be beneficial to extend the principle of that enactment throughout the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company, it is enacted as follows:

I. So much of any law or usage now in force within the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company, as inflicts on any person forfeiture of rights or property, or may be held in any way to impair or affect any right of inheritance, by reason of his or her renouncing, or having been excluded from the communion of any religion, or being deprived of caste, shall cease to be enforced as Law in the Courts of the East India Company, and in the Courts established by Royal Charter within the said Territories.

I. Act X., 1842, is repealed.

II. If it shall appear to the Governor or Governor in Council, or Lieutenant Governor, of any Presidency or Place within the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, that the inhabitants of any Town or Suburb, not within the Town of Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, are desirous of making better provision for making, repairing, cleaning, lighting, or watching any public streets, roads, drains, or tanks, or for the prevention of nuisances, or for improving the said Town or Suburb in any other manner, the said Governor or Governor in Council, or Lieutenant Governor, may order this Act to be put in force within such Town or Suburb.

And the said Governor or Governor in Council, or Lieutenant Governor, may remove any of the Commissioners and appoint others, and may fill up vacancies occurring among the Commissioners in such manner as may seem to him fit.

5. The imposition of reasonable penalties for breach of any Rule made by the Commissioners, not exceeding Fifty Rupees, or in the case of continuing nuisance, not exceeding Five Rupees for every day that such nuisance is continued.

VIII. The Commissioners appointed from time to time shall have full power to make all necessary contracts, for the purposes of this Act, and apply the taxes raised as aforesaid in the necessary works, and in payment of their Officers and Servants, and in the other expenses incident to the execution of this Act within the said Town or Suburb.

IX. No Commissioner shall be personally liable for any contract made by the Commissioners on behalf of the inhabitants of such Town or Suburb; but every Commissioner shall be liable for any misapplication of the moneys collected, to which he shall have been knowingly party or privy, or which shall have happened through gross neglect of his duty and shall be liable to be sued for the same as for money due to, and at the suit of the East India Company.

X. The powers of Act II., 1839, for the recovery of fines, shall be applied for the recovery of all arrears of taxes and penalties under this Act; and every Magistrate shall put in force the powers of the said Act II., 1839, for that purpose, whenever thereunto required by the Commissioners, or any of their Officers deputed by them for the purposes of enforcing payment of arrears of taxes imposed under this Act.

XI. No rate on property made under this Act shall be invalid for defect of form; and it shall be enough in any such rate on property, or any Assessment of value for the purpose of making such rate, if the property rated or assessed shall be so described as to be generally known; and it shall not be necessary to name the owner or occupier thereof.

XII. All moveable property found in any house or building or upon any land assessed under this Act may be seized and sold by warrant of a Magistrate for payment of any arrear of tax laid on such house, building or land under this Act.

For regulating Inquiries into the behaviour of Public Servants.

Whereas it is expedient to mend the law for regulating inquiries into the behaviour of public servants not removable without the sanction of Government, and to make the same uniform throughout the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, it is enacted as follows:

I. The following Acts VI., 1838, XXVI., 1839, and XIII., 1843, are repealed, but not so as to revive any Act or Regulation, or part of any Act or Regulation thereby repealed.

II. Whenever the Government shall be of opinion that there are good grounds for making a formal and public inquiry into the truth of any imputation of misbehaviour by any person in the service of the East India Company not removable from his Office without the sanction of the same Government, it shall cause the substance of the imputations to be drawn into distinct Articles of Charge, and shall order a formal and public inquiry to be made into the truth thereof.
III. The inquiry may be committed either to the Court, Board or other authority to which the person accused is subordinate, or to any other person or persons, to be specially appointed by the Government Commissioners for the purpose: notice of which Commission shall be given to the person accused ten days at least before the beginning of the inquiry.

IV. When the Government shall think fit to conduct the prosecution, it shall nominate some person to conduct the same on its behalf.

V. When the charge shall be brought by an accuser, the Government shall require the accusation to be reduced to writing, and verified by the oath or solemn affirmation of the accuser, and every person who shall wilfully and maliciously make any false accusation under this Act, upon such oath and affirmation, shall be liable to the penalties of perjury: but this enactment shall not be construed to prevent the Government from instituting any inquiry which it shall think fit, without such accusation on oath or solemn affirmation as aforesaid.

VI. Where the imputations shall have been made by an accuser, and the Government shall think fit to leave to him the conduct of the prosecution, the Government, before appointing the commission, shall require him to furnish reasonable security that he will attend and prosecute the charge thoroughly and effectually, and also will be forthcoming to answer any counter-charge or action which may be afterwards brought against him for malicious prosecution or perjury or subornation of perjury, as the case may be.

VII. At any subsequent stage of the proceedings, the Government may, if it think fit, abandon the prosecution, and in such case may, if it think fit, on the application of the accuser, allow him to continue the prosecution, if he is desirous of so doing, on his furnishing such security as is hereinbefore mentioned.

VIII. The Commissioners shall have the same power of punishing contempts and obstructions to their proceedings, as is given to Civil and Criminal Courts by Act XXX., 1841, and shall have the same power for the summons of witnesses, and for compelling the production of documents, and for the discharge of their duty under the Commission, and shall be entitled to the same protection as the Zillah and City Judges, except that all process to cause the attendance of witnesses, or other compulsory process, shall be served through and executed by the Zillah or City Judge in whose jurisdiction the witness or other person resides, on whom the process is to be served, and if he resides within Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, then through the Supreme Court of Judicature there. When the Commission has been issued to a Court, or other person or persons having power to issue such process in the exercise of their ordinary authority, they may also use all such power for the purposes of the Commission.

IX. All persons disobeying any lawful process issued as aforesaid for the purposes of the Commission shall be liable to the same penalties, as if the same had issued originally from the Court or other authority through whom it is executed.

X. A copy of the Articles of Charge, and list of the documents and witnesses by which each charge is to be sustained, shall be delivered to the person accused, at least three days before the beginning of the inquiry, exclusive of the day of delivery, and the first day of the inquiry.

XI. At the beginning of the inquiry, the prosecutor shall exhibit the Articles of Charge to the Commissioners, which shall be openly read, and the person accused shall thereupon be required to plead "guilty" or "not guilty" to each of them, which pleas shall be forthwith recorded with the Articles of Charge. If the person accused refuses, or, without reasonable cause, neglects to appear to answer the charge, either personally or by his Counsel or Agent, he shall be taken to admit the truth of the Articles of Charge.

XII. The prosecutor shall then be entitled to address the Commissioners in explanation of the Articles of Charge, and of the evidence by which they are to be proved: his address shall not be recorded.

XIII. The oral and documentary evidence for the prosecution shall then be exhibited: the witnesses shall be examined by or on behalf of the prosecutor, and may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the person accused. The prosecutor shall be entitled to re-examine the witnesses on any points on which they have been cross-examined, but not on any new matter, without leave of the Commissioners, who also may put such questions as they think fit.
XIV. If it shall appear necessary before the close of the case for the prosecution, the Commissioners may in their discretion allow the prosecutor to exhibit evidence not included in the list given to the person accused, or may themselves call for new evidence, and in such case the person accused shall be entitled to have, if he demand it, an adjournment of the proceedings for three clear days, before the exhibition of such new evidence, exclusive of the day of adjournment and of the day to which the proceedings are adjourned.

XV. When the case for the prosecution is closed, the person accused shall be required to make his defence, orally or in writing, as he shall prefer. If made orally, it shall not be recorded; if made in writing, it shall be recorded, after being openly read, and in that case a copy shall be given at the same time to the prosecutor.

XVI. The Evidence for the defence shall then be exhibited, and the witnesses examined, who shall be liable to cross-examination and re-examination and to examination by the Commissioners according to the like rules as the witnesses for the prosecution.

XVII. All witnesses, either for the prosecution or defence, shall be examined on oath, or, if exempt from taking an oath in Courts of Justice, on solemn affirmation, to be administered in either case by one of the Commissioners, and every witness so examined and wilfully giving false evidence on any material point shall be deemed guilty of and liable to the penalties of perjury. When the prosecution is not conducted on behalf of Government, the prosecutor may himself give evidence for the prosecution and may be examined for the defence.

XVIII. The Commissioners or some person appointed by them shall take notes in English of all the oral evidence, which shall be read aloud to each witness by whom the same was given, and if necessary explained to him in the language in which it was given, and shall be recorded with the proceedings.

XIX. If the person accused makes only an oral defence, and exhibits no evidence, the inquiry shall end with his defence; if he records a written defence, or exhibits evidence, the prosecutor shall be entitled to a general oral reply on the whole case, and may also exhibit evidence to contradict any evidence exhibited for the defence, in which case the person accused shall not be entitled to any adjournment of the proceedings, although such new evidence were not included in the list furnished to him.

XX. When the Commissioners shall be of opinion that the Articles of Charge, or any of them, are not drawn with sufficient clearness and precision, the Commissioners may, in their discretion, require the same to be amended, and may thereupon, on the application of the person accused, adjourn the inquiry for a reasonable time. The Commissioners may also, if they think fit, adjourn the inquiry from time to time, on the application of either the Prosecutor or the person accused, on the ground of the sickness or unavoidable absence of any witness or other reasonable cause. When such application is made and refused, the Commissioners shall record the application, and their reasons for refusing to comply with it.

XXI. After the close of the inquiry, the Commissioners shall forthwith report to Government their proceedings under the Commission, and shall send with the record thereof their opinion upon each of the Articles of Charge separately, with such observations as they think fit on the whole case.

XXII. The Government, on consideration of the report of the Commissioners, may order them to take further evidence, or give further explanation of their opinions. It may also order additional Articles of Charge to be framed, in which case the inquiry into the truth of such additional Articles shall be made in the same manner as is herein directed with respect to the original charges. When Special Commissioners have been appointed, the Government may also, if it thinks fit, refer the report of the Commissioners to the Court or other authority to which the person accused is subordinate, for their opinion on the case; and will finally pass such orders thereon as appear just and consistent with its powers in such cases.

XXIII. The word "Government" as used in this Act means the Governor General in Council, the Governor or Deputy-Governor of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, the Governor in Council of the Presidencies of Fort St George and Bombay, respectively, and the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces of Bengal, whose sanction is necessary for the removal of the person accused.

XXIV. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to repeal any Act or Regulation in force for the suspension or dismissal of Principal and other Sudder Ameens or of Deputy Magistrates or Deputy Collectors, but a commission may be issued for the trial of any charge against any of the said Officers, under this Act, in any case in which the Government shall think it expedient.

XXV. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to affect the authority of Government, for suspending or removing any public servant for any cause without an inquiry under this Act.

MORUSSIL PRISONERS' COUNSEL ACT.

ACT NO. XXXVIII. OF 1850.

[Passed on the 1st November, 1850.

Recites expediency of extending the privilege given by Act 22, 1839, to prisoners under trial in East India Company's Courts.

1, 2. Enacts. In all Courts, &c., of East India Company every person on trial may make defence either personally or by agent; (2) subject to rules made by Nizamut Adawlut, &c.

3. This Act not to restrict any existing right as to employing Counsel or Pledger; but in general only Advocates of Supreme Court or authorised Pleaders to be employed as agents for making defence, &c.

4. Presence of prosecutor or accused not to be deemed dispensed with by this Act.

An Act to allow Counsel to all persons on the trial of offences.

Whereas an Act of Parliament was passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty for enabling persons indicted of felony to make their defence by Counsel or Attorney, the provisions of which Act were enlarged and extended to Her Majesty's Courts of Justice in the Territories under the Government of the East India Company by Act XXII., 1839, and whereas it is just and reasonable that the like privilege be given to all persons on the trial of offences against the law, it is enacted as follows:

I. In all Courts and before all Magistrates, or persons exercising any of the powers of a Magistrate, under the authority of the East India Company, every person on trial for the commission of any offence shall be admitted to defend himself either personally or by his authorised agent, and, after the close of the case for the prosecution, to make full answer and defence thereto, either personally or by his authorized agent.
II. The said Courts, Magistrates, and persons, subject to such rules as shall be from time to time made for their guidance by the Nizamut or Foudzaree Adawlut, may allow any prosecution to be conducted by an authorized agent.

III. In those Courts in which any person now has by law the right of employing whomsoever he can employ as Counsel or Pleader, nothing in this Act shall be deemed to restrict that right; in all other cases those persons only shall be deemed authorized agents within the meaning of this Act who are either Advocates of one of the Supreme Courts of Justice established by Royal Charter, or authorized Pleadors of the Civil Courts of the East India Company, or, by leave of the Court, Magistrate or other person before whom the prisoner is on trial, any other person who is employed by the prosecutor or prisoner as his agent.

IV. This Act shall not be deemed to dispense with the presence of any prosecutor or person on trial for the commission of any offence when the presence of such prosecutor or accused person is now by law required.

Repealed by Act XVII., 1862, as respects places where Code of Criminal Procedure is in operation.

To continue the Commissioners for the Improvement of the Town of Calcutta, pending the consideration of an Act to amend Act XVI., 1847.

Whereas Act XVI., 1847, for constituting Commissioners for the Improvement of the Town of Calcutta has been found inconvenient and ineffectual for the intended purposes thereof, and it is expedient that the constitution of the said Commission be amended, and that in the mean time no new election of Commissioners be made in pursuance of the said Act, it is enacted as follows:

I. So much of Act XVI., 1847, as relate to the election and time of holding office of the Commissioners for the Improvement of the Town of Calcutta, is repealed.

II. The Commissioners for the Improvement of the Town of Calcutta as now constituted, with the addition of such Commissioners as may be added, from time to time, to supply vacancies among the Commissioners nominated by the Governor of Bengal, shall continue to be such Commissioners, and shall have and exercise all the powers entrusted to them under the said Act, or any other Act, until the First day of March, 1851, or until other provision shall be made in that behalf by the Governor General of India in Council.

An Act for giving additional facilities for Public Works in Bengal.

Whereas by Regulation 1., 1824, of the Bengal Code, power was given for taking any land in the territories subject to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, which is needed for any public purpose, according to the forms therein prescribed, but it is expedient for hindering needless delay in making the Railway about to be constructed in the said Presidency under the sanction of Government, and also in any other public work that more summary power should in certain cases be given for gaining immediate possession of the land needed for such public work, it is declared and enacted as follows:

I. Any Railway made in the said Territories under the sanction of Government, is a public work within the meaning of the said Regulation.

II. The persons employed in any public work, with their servants and workmen, may enter upon any land for surveying the ground, and in the case of a road, canal or railway for setting out the intended line thereof, and in the case of any intended road, canal or railway may mark the intended line by cutting a trench or placing landmarks along the line, and where otherwise the survey cannot be completed, and the line marked, may, with the sanction of the Government or of any officer appointed by Government for this purpose, cut down and clear away any part of any jungle or top of trees in the direction of the intended line. Provided that no person shall enter the curtilage of any house under colour of this Act without consent of the occupier, unless between sunrise and sunset, and after due notice given to such occupier.

III. It shall be the duty of the officer so appointed by the Government to take account of all necessary damage done as aforesaid, that it may be allowed for, in awarding compensation to the owners and occupiers of land.

IV. Whoever wilfully obstructs any person in lawfully setting out the line of any road, canal or railway, or wilfully destroys, damages, or displaces any such landmark, or effaces, or fills any such trench, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding six months, and also to fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

V. Whenever the said officer shall have recorded his opinion that the land in dispute is needed immediately for the purpose of the public work, he shall be empowered to take immediate possession thereof, on behalf of the Government, leaving the amount and distribution of the consideration to be paid for it, if not agreed to by private bargain, to be afterwards ascertained according to the said Regulation, and such possession may be enforced and the obstruction of it punished in like manner as if the land so taken had been sold in execution of the decree of a Civil Court: and all Collectors, Magistrates and other officers shall, if necessary, give the like aid as they would be bound to give for enforcing the speedy and complete execution of any such decree.

VI. If the said officer is opposed or impeded in taking immediate possession of such land as in his opinion is immediately needed, he shall apply to the Magistrate of the district, who shall enforce the surrender of the land.

VII. The powers of the said Regulation and of this Act shall extend in the case of any road, canal or railway, to authorize the temporary occupation of any land not more than one hundred yards from the centre line of the road, canal or railway, as marked on the ground, for taking earth or other materials for making or repairing the road, canal or railway, or for depositing thereon superfluous earth or other materials, or erecting temporary buildings and workshops thereon, or any land which may be needed for making temporary roads from any public road to the intended line of railway; and for the temporary occupation of any such land, and for any permanent damage done by such occupation and use of the land, including the full value of all clay, stone, gravel, sand and other materials taken thence, compensation shall be paid to and among all persons having an interest therein, to be ascertained, in case of disagreement, in the same manner as compensation for land permanently taken.

VIII. The local Government, if it thinks fit, may empower any such officer to execute any award made under the said Regulation, and to do all things necessary for completing the business of taking and paying for the said land, and for settling all disputes concerning it, without sending any report to the local Government.

IX. In every case in which any land has been or shall be taken by the Government for any public work, otherwise than according to the said Regulation, such land after the lapse of five years, without any claim preferred for the recovery thereof in any competent Court, or under the said Regulation I., 1824, or this Act, shall vest absolutely in the East India Company, freed and discharged from all other claims thereunto.

X. The said term of five years shall be reckoned from the date of this Act, in the case of land heretofore taken, and in the case of land hereafter taken from the time of taking possession thereof.

XI. If within the said term of five years any suit is begun upon which final judgment shall be obtained establishing the right of the plaintiff to any interest in any such land, then, instead of the said land, there shall be paid to the person obtaining such judgment the value of his interest in the said land, at the time when possession thereof was taken, with interest thereon at the usual and lawful rate, to be ascertained and settled, in case of dispute, by arbitration in the manner described for disputed claims by the said Regulation.

thereon pursuant to the provisions of the Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in India, and of this Act.

XXXV. Upon the filing of any petition to the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors in the case of any Registered Company, whether by a Shareholder or by a Creditor, the Court shall make the like vesting order for the purpose of vesting all the real and personal estate of the Company in the Official Assignee, and such other orders ancillary thereto as the Court might make in case of an individual insolvent debtor, and all the powers and authorities of the said Court, and all the laws relating to insolvent debtors shall, so far as the circumstances of the case admit, be extended to all such Registered Companies.

XXXVI. Whenever there shall be an adjudication of forfeiture against any Registered Company, the Directors of such Company at the time of filing the petition shall be subject to the orders of the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and it shall be their duty individually or collectively to prepare such balance sheet and other accounts as the Court may deem necessary, and to assist the Official Assignee in the examination of and closing all the affairs of the Company; and every Director and person who shall at any time have been a Director of the Company shall be liable to be examined upon oath, and to make full and true discovery of the estate and effects, past and present, and business, affairs, and interests of the Company, either orally or upon written interrogatories, as the Court may order.

XXXVII. Upon the adjudication of forfeiture against any Registered Company, the claims of any creditor of the Company against the Shareholders shall not be enforced otherwise than under this Act, except in respect of any special contract, or any debt or liability contracted by any Shareholder in his individual capacity, otherwise than by taking a share in the business of the Company.

XXXVIII. As soon after an adjudication of forfeiture against any Company as the Official Assignee can make an approximate estimate of the amount of the debts and other claims against the Company, or of any certain portion thereof, the said Court, on the application of the Official Assignee, shall order such sum to be raised by contribution of the Shareholders as may appear to the said Court necessary for the satisfaction of such debts and claims; and may from time to time order such further sum to be raised in like manner as may appear necessary: and upon obtaining such order the Official Assignee shall assess the said sum ratably amongst the Shareholders according to the number of shares held by them respectively, and immediately proceed to collect the same; and monthly or oftener shall report defaulters to the said Court, together with the amounts at which they were assessed respectively, and thereupon the said Court, if satisfied that the said assessment is just, shall order the payment of such assessment within such time and upon such notice or demand by advertisements or otherwise, as the Court may see fit; and non-payment thereof within the time ordered by the Court shall be an act of insolvency of the defaulting Shareholders; and the said Assignee, or any person being a creditor of the said Company to the amount of Company's Rupees Five Hundred, or any two creditors to whom such Company shall be indebted to the amount of Company's Rupees Seven Hundred, or any three or more creditors to whom such Company shall be indebted to the amount of Company's Rupees One Thousand, may present a petition to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors of the Presidency within which the said Company is registered, stating such act of insolvency, and praying that such defaulting Shareholder may be adjudged to have committed an act of insolvency, and upon such petition being duly verified, the Court shall be empowered to adjudge that such defaulting Shareholder has committed an act of insolvency, and the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors in the Presidency in which the defaulter is resident may proceed thereon according to the provisions of the Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in India.

XXXIX. The Shareholders of untransferred shares whose names are in the last general memorial, including those (if any) who have been subsequently returned as Shareholders of the Company, shall be liable and be called upon in the first instance to satisfy the debts of the Company; but in case it shall appear to the said Court that full satisfaction cannot, within such time as may appear reasonable to the Court, be otherwise obtained, such other persons as at any time within three years next before the adjudication of forfeiture shall have been returned in any memorial as Shareholders of the Company shall be liable to contribute to such amount collectively as the Court may order; and, upon every order for contribution from former Shareholders, the Official Assignee shall proceed as hereinbefore prescribed in the case of present shareholders.

XL. In fixing the sum to be raised from time to time by assessment of the Shareholders, it shall be in the discretion of the Court to make such allowance for unrealized assets of the said Company, as the Court may deem just.

XLI. No such assessment shall be deemed erroneous or set aside merely by reason of its being in access of other assessment ratiably considered, if the same be needed for satisfaction of any creditor of the said Company, and any such assessment may be reduced, when expedient, by order of the Court.

XLII. If on realizing the assets of the Company a balance shall remain, after payment of the debts and other claims against the Company, the said Court may order the repayment out of such balance, first, of such sums or ratable parts thereof as have been paid by any Shareholders not liable in the first instance to satisfy the debts of the Company; and secondly, of such sums or rataable parts thereof as have been paid by any other Shareholders in excess of their ratable liability, according to the number of their shares, regard being had to the number of other assessed Shareholders; and lastly, if such a balance shall not thereby be exhausted, the said Court may order the distribution of the remainder thereof among the Shareholders by the Official Assignee upon a scheme or plan to be submitted to and approved by the said Court, or may order the same to be paid to the Accountant General of the said Court to the credit of the said Company, to abide such proceedings as any parties interested therein may take at Law or in Equity: and any order of the said Court for the disbursement of money shall be a sufficient authority to the said Official Assignee to protect him against all claims in respect of such disbursement by any Shareholder or Creditor.

XLIII. If any Registered Company, which carried on its business before registration, shall incur an adjudication of forfeiture before it has been registered for three years, such persons as are not registered Shareholders but were Co-partners or Shareholders thereof at any time before the registration of the Company, but within three years before the filing of the petition for relief, shall be liable to contribute to the debts of the Company in like manner as if they were on the first memorial of the Shareholders of the Company.

XLIV. Whenever it shall appear to the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors that the aid of a Court of Equity will be necessary for closing the affairs of any Registered Company, against which an adjudication of forfeiture has been made, the said Court may order the Official or other Assignees to take proceedings in the Supreme Court in Equity, by bill, or by petition, for the like relief as might be had by bill, and the said Supreme Court shall have power on such petition to make such original and subsequent orders as upon a bill filed, and such orders shall have the same effect and be executed in the same manner as decreetal orders.

XLV. The said Supreme Court may likewise, on petition of any Shareholder having any claim against any other Shareholder, in respect of the affairs of the Company, make such order as it may deem just for settling such claim between such Shareholders.

XLVI. Whenever any Shareholder in a Registered Company, which shall have been adjudged to have incurred forfeiture, shall be adjudged an insolvent, either on his own petition, or under the provisions aforesaid, or otherwise, the Assignee or Assignees of such Registered Company shall be entitled, from time to time, to rank as a creditor on the estate of such insolvent, for such ratable contributions, as the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall, from time to time, appoint to be paid by such insolvent Shareholder.

XLVII. After the affairs of any such Registered Company, against which there has been an adjudication of forfeiture, are closed under this Act, the Company shall forfeit all its privileges under this Act, and the partnership shall be dissolved.

I. In the case of disputes among persons, claiming to be jointly entitled to be proprietors of any public Securities of the East India Company, as the representatives of any deceased person, the District or Zillah Judge, whenever sufficient cause shall be shown to him, and on the request of any such claimant, may grant a Certificate of Administration of the personal Estate of the deceased, so far as concerns the said Securities, according to Act XX. of 1841, to such person as shall be from time to time appointed by the Governor of Bengal, and Governors of Madras and Bombay in Council respectively, to act as Trustee under this Act; and shall specify in such Certificate the several persons appearing to him to be such proprietors, and their several shares; and the said Trustee, by virtue of such Certificate, shall be entitled to receive and give discharges for the interest accruing due on such Securities; and shall account for, and pay the sum to the several persons specified in the Certificate to be thereunto entitled according to the shares therein set forth; and shall be empowered to act in all other respects concerning the said Securities as Agent for such persons; and shall be entitled to the same rate of Commission upon all such transactions as is allowed to the Government Agent for the time being on the like transactions, as Agent of the public creditors of the East India Company, by any Regulations from time to time made by the Governor General of India in Council: Provided nevertheless that the right of any other person to recover the whole or any part of the moneys so paid, by regular suit against all or any of the persons to whom the same have been paid, shall not be affected by this Act.

An Act for securing the Land Revenue of Madras.

Whereas it is expedient that the land revenue accruing due to the East India Company at Madras, within the limits of the Town of Madras, as defined in Section XII., Regulation II. of 1802, of the Madras Code, should be ascertained and collected in a manner as in summary a manner as in other parts of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, it is enacted as follows:

I. All assessable lands not the property of the East India Company, within the limits of the Town of Madras, as defined in Section XII., Regulation II. of 1802, of the Madras Code, of which the rate of assessment is not known, or which have not heretofore been assessed, shall be assessed at the rates customarily charged upon lands of a similar description in the neighbourhood, according as they may be situated respectively within or without the walls of Black Town.

II. Lakira tenures of land in Madras, of which uninterrupted possession has been held under alleged grants, exempt or partially exempt from assessment for sixty years, shall be valid: no other lakiraj tenures of land in Madras shall be deemed valid, unless the same are or shall be held under an unexpired grant from the British Government.

III. The Collector of Madras shall determine the rate of assessment to be laid on assessable land under Section I. of this Act, with reference to the rate assessed upon other land of a similar description in the neighbourhood, subject to an appeal to the Board of Revenue, to be made within six months from the notification by the Collector of the assessment fixed by him. The decision of the Board of Revenue upon such appeal shall be final.

IV. The Collector may order any assessable land, or land already assessed, or charged with a rent payable to the East India Company, to be measured, for the purpose of determining the amount of assessment to be imposed, or in the case of land already assessed or charged with a rent, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the actual dimensions, and the dimensions upon which the amount of assessment or rent was calculated, correspond.

V. Whenever, upon the measurement of any land under the preceding Section, it shall be found that the dimensions upon which the amount of assessment or rent was calculated exceed the actual dimensions, a proportionate abatement shall be made for the excess, on the demand of the party entitled to claim it.

VI. On the other hand, when the actual dimensions exceed the dimensions upon which the amount of assessment or rent was calculated, the excess shall be charged at the same rate as the rest of the land, the possession being left undisturbed. Provided that, when it shall appear that the excess has been caused by the surreptitious usurpation of ground belonging to another tenure, the act of the Collector in assessing it shall not prejudice the holder of such other tenure in any effort he may make to recover the ground usurped from it. An appeal shall lie to the Board of Revenue against any extra assessment or additional rent charged by the Collector for access by measurement under this Section, if preferred within six months from the date of the Collector's order. Upon such appeal the decision of the Board of Revenue shall be final.

VII. If any owner of assessed land or any person holding land subject to a rent payable to the East India Company, shall upon the written demand of the Collector, refuse or neglect to pay any sum at which the land is assessed, or with which it is charged as rent, the Collector may levy the same by distress and sale of the goods and chattels, wherever found, of such owner or lessee; or, after written demand upon the tenant or occupier, and on his refusal or neglect to pay the sum lawfully demanded, by distress and sale of any goods and chattels found upon the land, in the manner appointed for regulating distresses for small rents in Calcutta by Act VII. of 1847, extended to Madras by Section 89, Act IX., of 1850, and for the purpose of any such distress and sale, the Collector shall have all the powers of a Judge of the Court of Small Causes under Section 89, Act IX. of 1850, aforesaid; and the Collector shall have power to appoint any of his Officers to perform the duties of Bailiffs and Appraisers, and of the Chief Clerk of the said Court, as provided by the said Act VII. of 1847, and all the provisions of the said Act relating to the Commissioners for the recovery of small debts and their Court, shall be deemed to apply to the said Collector and his Office in the execution of this Act.

VIII. In the case of payment by any tenant or occupier not holding immediately under the East India Company, or the seizure and sale of his property, he may deduct the amount of the payment or levy from the next payment of rent to his landlord.

IX. The claim of the East India Company for land revenue or rent has priority over all other claims upon the land, or to which property distained upon the land may be liable.

X. If the Collector's claim for arrears of rent is disputed, the process of distraint and sale shall not be stayed, unless the amount claimed be lodged with the Collector.

XI. Arrears of rent or revenue due to the East India Company are recoverable within six years next after the same are due, or next after an acknowledgment of the same in writing has been given by the person by whom the same is payable, or his Agent, and not afterwards.

XII. When a claim to hold land lakiraj, or free of assessment, shall be set up under this Act, the Collector shall inquire into the claim; taking such evidence as the claimant may offer, or the public records supply, and shall report his proceedings in the case for the consideration of the Board of Revenue. If the Board of Revenue are satisfied of the validity of the claim, they shall make an order accordingly, and such order shall be final. If they are not satisfied of the validity of the claim, they shall direct the Collector to assess the land, leaving the claimant to contest the Collector's demand in the Civil Courts, as herein provided.

XIII. Any person obstructing or molesting the Collector, or any of his subordinate officers in the execution of their duty, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate of the Town of Madras, be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, and, in default of payment, to imprisonment in the common gaol for a term not exceeding six months, or until the fine is sooner paid.
XIV. The Collector may punish any contempt committed in his presence in open cutcherry or office, by fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, and, in default of payment, by imprisonment in the common gaol for a term not exceeding one month. From every such order of fine or imprisonment an appeal shall lie to the Board of Revenue, whose decision shall be final.

XV. The Collector shall act in the execution of this Act, under the usual control of the superior Revenue authorities.

XVI. The ground rents payable to the East India Company from lands in Madras are revenue within the meaning of the Act of Parliament, 21 Geo. III., Cap. 70; and the Supreme Court of Judicature established by Royal Charter at Madras has not any civil jurisdiction concerning the said ground rents or concerning any thing ordered or done in the assessment or collection thereof.

XVII. All actions concerning any trespass or injury committed by any Revenue officer, acting under colour of this Act, or concerning any claim in respect of any goods taken by, or any moneys paid to, any Revenue officer under this Act, or concerning any claim of rent or revenue on the part of the East India Company under this Act, shall be tried and determined in the Civil Courts established by the East India Company, in the Zillah of Chingleput, notwithstanding that the cause of action in respect of which such action is brought, arose, or the defendant therein reside, within the limits of the Town of Madras, and every such action shall be brought within six months after the cause of action arose, and not afterwards.

XVIII. The words "Collector" and "Board of Revenue" used in this Act, shall be taken to mean any person or persons lawfully appointed to exercise the powers vested in the Collector and Board of Revenue respectively under this Act.
